JESUS, LET ME COME TO YOU

Words by Kathleen Pluth

Music by Colin Brumby

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

1. Jesus, let me come to you as simply as a child.
2. Jesus, look with pity on the sorrows of the world.
3. Jesus, come to meet me in the Blessed Sacrament:
4. Jesus, take me up into the Trinity of life:

Chasten those who would prevent me. Let all evil circumvent me.
Let the poor be safe and satisfied, innocence be vindicated.
Joy beyond my finest pleasure, hidden, lasting, priceless treasure.
God the Father, strong and spacious, God the Spirit, swift and gracious,

Jesus, let me come to you. Accept me as child.
Jesus, bring your mercy to the sorrows of this world.
Jesus, Lord be with me in your Blessed Sacrament.
Jesus, bring me home into your Trinity of life.

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

\( \text{\textit{B}} \)

© Colin Brumby & Kathleen Pluth 2009