O TASTE, AND YOU WILL SEE

Words by Kathleen Pluth

Music by Colin Brumby

1. O taste, and you will see the goodness of the Lord: humanity, divinity, the Body and the Blood.
2. God fed his wand-'ring fold with man-na from the sky. Much better than bread of old: we eat and never die.
3. E-li-jah once was fed when he could walk no more. An angel brought to him that bread: the angels this adore.
4. To those who would be filled, this food is life indeed. To give it, Life Himself was killed, and we from death are freed.
5. O worthy is the Lamb, our slain and risen Lord, the Son of Ma-ry, God and man, our Eucha-rist adored.
