

O TASTE, AND YOU WILL SEE

Words by Kathleen Pluth

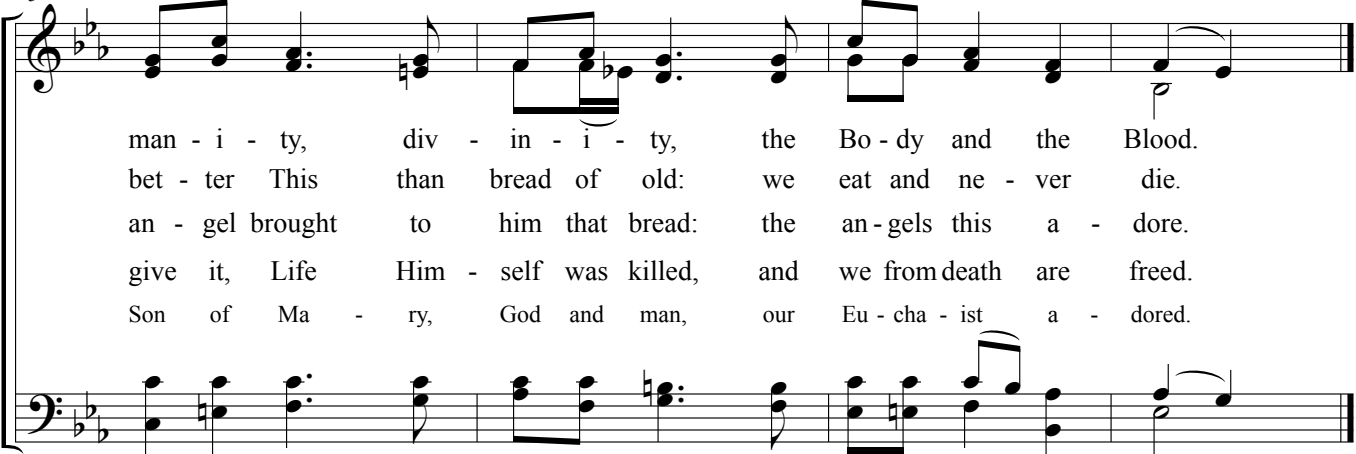

Music by Colin Brumby

$\bullet = 72$

1. O taste, and you will see the good-ness of the Lord: hu-
2. God fed his wand-ring fold with man-na from the sky. Much
3. E-li-jah once was fed when he could walk no more. An
4. To those who would be filled, this food is life in-deed. To
5. O wor-thy is the Lamb, our slain and ris-en Lord, the man-i-ty, div-i-n-i-ty, the Bo-dy and the Blood.

5

bet-ter This than bread of old: we eat and ne-ver die.
an-gel brought to him that bread: the an-gels this a-dore.
give it, Life Him-self was killed, and we from death are freed.
Son of Ma-ry, God and man, our Eu-cha-ist a-dored.