1 Behold, how like a monarch Peace enters
2 The sacrifice of Jesus, his rising
3 Long nights we knew of warfare, of desperate 4 To put an end to terror we long to 5 Christ's peace, the Church's power, His peace, our 6 Creator of all nature, the Word through in to reign when all things rightly from the dead, his sending of the people's cries. We see how nations do what's right. To save the world from bravest song. His sacrifice, his whom Life came, the Spirit through us or ordered proclaim Christ's true domain.

Spirit turns this world on its head.
fallen destroyed by greed and lies.
horrors, to vanquish evil's might.
bleeding make peace where once was wrong.
moving, One God, we praise your Name.

Text: Copyright © 2009 Vincent Uher. Licensed under Creative Commons Attribution - Non-derivative - Non-commercial 3.0.
Tune: Copyright © 2009 Noel Jones. Licensed under Creative Commons Attribution - Non-derivative - Non-commercial 3.0.
God crowns each true peacemaker with blessings.
The promise of our Saviour sings, "Heaven's peace.
Christ's Cross, a contradiction. "Lay down your Unleashes God leads and guides us. We turn Earth's His Gospel mark our actions. Our actions.
We tell out your great goodness, your tender-from above to share with friends and is at hand. Receive the Holy life for friends so justice, hope, and into hell. Christ, shepherd all the be as prayers till Christ rules every ness and might by which you end all neighbor the treasure of God's love.

Spirit. Peace to you and your land;
mercy fill the world's farthest ends."
nations so all things shall be well!
nation, swords beat into plough shares.
terror. Your peace crowns all with light.