1 Godhead here in hiding, whom I do adore,
2 Seeing, touching, tasting are in thee deceived:
3 On the cross thy godhead made no sign to men,

Masked by these bare shadows, shape and nothing more,
How says truly hearing? that shall be believed;
Here thy very manhood steals from human ken:

See, Lord, at thy service low lies here a heart
What God's Son has told me, take for truth I do;
Both are my confession, both are my belief,

Lost, all lost in wonder at the God thou art.
Truth himself speaks truly or there's nothing true.
And I pray the prayer of the dying thief.

4 I am not like Thomas, wounds I cannot see,
But can plainly call thee Lord and God as he;
Let me to a deeper faith daily nearer move,
Daily make me harder hope and dearer love.

5 O thou our reminder of Christ crucified,
Living Bread, the life of us for whom he died,
Lend this life to me then: feed and feast my mind,
There be thou the sweetness man was meant to find.

6 Bring the tender tale true of the Pelican;
Bathe me, Jesu Lord, in what thy bosom ran
Blood whereof a single drop has power to win
All the world forgiveness of its world of sin.

7 Jesu, whom I look at shrouded here below,
I beseech thee send me what I thirst for so,
Some day to gaze on thee face to face in light
And be blest for ever with thy glory's sight.
