O WORSHIP THE KING

LYONS. 10. 10. 11. 11.: JOSEPH MARTIN KRAUS (1756-1792): FORMERLY ATTR. MICHAEL HAYDN (1737-1806).
Text: ROBERT GRANT (1779-1838), 1833; PUB. IN WILLIAM GARDINER (1770-1853), SACRED MELODIES, 1808

1. O Worship the King, all glorious above!
2. O tell of his might! O sing of his grace!
3. The earth, with its might! O sing of his grace!
4. Thy bountiful care, what tongue can re-told, Almight-y, thy power hath founded of cite? It breathes in the air, it shines in the love! Our shield and defender, the Ancient of days, space. His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-clouds form, old, Hath 'stab-lished it fast by a change-less decree, light; It streams from the hills; it descends to the plain,

5. Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
   In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
   Thy mercies, how tender! how firm to the end!
   Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

6. O measureless Might! ineffable Love!
   While angels delight to hymn thee above,
   The humbler creation, though feeble their lays,
   With true adoration shall sing to thy praise.
