The Blessing of the Holy Oils

Two Cantors sing the following verse:

Redeemer, hear this anthem As we sing with one ac-cord.
1. Sacred will become this bounty
That a fruitful tree once bore
When we bear it in procession
Unto you, our Saving Lord.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

2. Consecrate, O King of heaven,
Olive oil, a living sign;
Let it thwart the demons' power,
Lend to it your strength divine.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

3. By this Chrism, men and women
Are renewed as they are sealed,
And our glory, once so wounded,
Now at last through grace is healed.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

4. When the sacred font has taken
All the stains of sin away,
On those foreheads now anointed,
Send your gifts, O Lord, we pray.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

5. Lord, who came from God the Father
In the Virgin's womb to rest,
Grant us light, and let not perish
Those who share this Chrism blest.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

6. May this day be always festive
For all ages, we implore;
Sanctify the praise we offer,
Let us bless you evermore.

O Redeemer, hear this anthem
As we sing with one accord.

Faithful cross the saints rely on,
Noble tree beyond compare!
Never was there such a scion,
Never leaf or flow’r so rare.

Swee the burden that they bear!
Sing my tongue, in exaltation
Of our banner and device!
Make a solemn proclamation
Of a triumph and its price:
How the Savior of creation
Conquered by his sacrifice!
For, when Adam first offended,
Eating that forbidden fruit,
Not all hopes of glory ended
With the serpent at the root:
Broken nature would be mended
By a second tree and shoot.
Thus the tempter was outwitted
By a wisdom deeper still:

Means to cure and means to kill;
That the world might be acquitted,

TANTUM ERGO. (8 7. 8 7. 8 7.)
* Venantius Fortunatus (6th cent.)

He, the Son and the Almighty,
Took our flesh in Mary’s womb.
Hear a tiny baby crying,
Founder of the seas and strands:
See his virgin Mother tying
Cloth around his feet and hands:
Find him in a manger lying
Tightly wrapped in swaddling-bands!
So he came, the long-expected,
Not in glory, not to reign:
Only born to be rejected,
Choosing hunger, toil and pain,
Till the gibbet was erected
And the Paschal Lamb was slain.
No disgrace was too abhorrent:
Nailed and mocked and parched he died;
Blood and water, double warrant,
Issue from his wounded side,
Washing in a mighty torrent
Earth and stars and ocean-tide.
Lofty timber, smooth your roughness,
Flex your boughs for blossoming:
Let your fibers lose their toughness,
Gently let your tendrils cling;
Lay aside your native gruffness,
Clasp the body of your King!
Noblest tree of all created,
Richly jeweled and embossed:
Post by Lamb’s blood consecrated:
Spar that saves the tempest-tossed:
Scaffold-beam which, elevated,
Carries what the world has cost!
The conclusion is never to be omitted:
Wisdom, pow’r, and adoration
To the blessed Trinity
For redemption and salvation
Through the Paschal Mystery,
Now, in every generation,
And for all eternity. Amen.
