THE DOMINICAN MISSAL

The Dominican Missal came into existence because Dominicans follow a special liturgy. Liturgy may be defined as a particular arrangement of services used in the public ceremonies of the Church. The Dominican liturgy, therefore, refers to the special ritual followed by Dominicans in their official prayers and services, as distinguished from the widely used Roman liturgy, or other liturgies of which the Church has approved.

A concern for the correctness of their ceremonial practices is evident in the records of the Dominican Fathers from very early times. Bl. Jordan of Saxony, immediate successor to Saint Dominic as Master General of the Order of Preachers, instituted an examination of the liturgical practices of the Brethren during his rule (1221–1237); and the fifth Master General, Blessed Humbert of Romans advanced the work of his predecessors to the stage where his revision of the Dominican liturgy was ratified by the Order. The name of Blessed John of Vercelli, Founder of the Holy Name Society, enters the story of our liturgy. It was during his occupancy of the office of Master General that His Holiness, Pope Clement IV, in 1267, gave papal approval to the Dominican liturgy or rite.

That rite has continued to be used up to the present time, with variations introduced now and then, but with no surrender of the basic differences which mark the Dominican ceremonial as a distinct rite of Mother Church. When the Dominican Pope, Saint Pius V, realigned the liturgies of the Church in 1570, it was necessary for the Dominicans to incorporate the Epistles and Gospels of the Season or Time, according to the pronouncements of Saint Pius, in their Dominican liturgy, replacing those formulated under Blessed Humbert. Within recent years, other modifications have been inroduced, the latest at the Chapter held in Caleruega, Spain, January 1959.

It should be recognized that the Church has never sought a uniformity in liturgy which would prevent laudable local customs and historical practices from enjoying her approval. Thus, she permits variations in the fundamental liturgy of the Church, and has done so through the centuries. Students of the liturgy note that there are similarities between the Dominican rite and that used in what is called the Sarum Use or Rite, centering in Salisbury, the cathedral city in southern England. Thus in both rites the Chalice was prepared before Mass, the prayers at the foot of the altar were briefer than in most other rites, the bread and wine were offered simultaneously and not separately, and in other details the rites were parallel. This evinces the antiquity of the basic Dominican practices, since the Sarum Rite is an ancient one.

Those who follow the Mass and the ceremonies of the Church from this Missal, therefore, are participating in customs and practices which come from centuries ago, and have been hallowed by time as well as by the official approval of Holy Mother Church.
THE SAINT DOMINIC MISSAL

THE SAINT DOMINIC MISSAL has been prepared specifically for the use of the faithful in America who follow the Dominican liturgy at Mass. We believed it worthwhile to offer them not only an opportunity to become acquainted with the great Latin text of the Vulgate, representing a long tradition in the Church, but also an example of modern Catholic Biblical Scholarship, as furnished in the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine text, chiefly portions of the New Testament.

With the needs of the faithful particularly in mind, we have not aimed at providing a word-for-word English equivalent of the Latin text, although the sense and spirit of that text have been retained.

Similarly in other portions of this Missal, we have incorporated what seemed most useful to American Catholics today, and we present this work in a format intended to enable those who use it to combine a knowledge of the Dominican liturgy with a devotion worthy of the great Sacrifice of the Altar.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

THE SAINT DOMINIC MISSAL was prepared and edited by Mr. Urban P. Intondi.

PROPER OF THE SEASON

FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Office. Ps. 24, 1-3. To You have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed; neither let my enemies laugh at me, for no one who waits for You shall be confounded. Ps. 24, 4. Show, O Lord, Your ways to me, and teach me Your paths. Glory. To You. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria. The Office is repeated as far as the Psalm. The Gloria is not said during Advent, except on Feasts.

Collect. Stir up Your might, we beseech You, O Lord, and come; that from the threatening dangers of our sins we may be rescued by Your protection, and saved by Your deliverance, who live and reign with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. R/. Amen.

Epistle. Rom. 13, 11-14. Brethren: Understand, for it is now the hour for us to rise from sleep, because now our salvation is nearer than when we came to believe. The night is far advanced; the day is at hand. Let us therefore lay aside the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light. Let us walk becomingly as in the day, Officium. Ad te levavi animam meam; Deus meus in te confido, non erubescam: neque irrideant me inimici mei: etenim universi qui te exspectant non confundentur. Ps. Vias tuas, Domine, demonstra mihi: et semitas tuas edoce me. Gloria Patri. Ad te levavi.

Epistola. Fratres: Scientes quia hora est jam nos de somno surgere. Nunc enim propior est nostra salus, quam cum credidimus. Nox praecessit, dies autem appropinquavit; abjiciamus ergo opera tenebrarum, et induamur arma lucis. Sicut in die honeste ambulemus; non in comissionibus et not in revelry and drunkenness, not in debauchery and wantonness, not in strife and jealousy. But put on the Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsory. Ps. 24, 3-4. No one who waits for You shall be confounded, O Lord.

Responsory.

Ps. 84, 8. Show us, O Lord, Your mercy, and grant us Your salvation. Alleluia!

On weekdays in Advent, when the Mass of the Sunday is repeated, the Alleluia with its versicle is omitted.

Gospel. Luke 21, 25-33. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: “There will be signs in the sun and moon and stars, and upon the earth distress of nations bewildered by the roaring of sea and waves; men fainting for fear and for expectation of the things that are coming on the world; for the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then they will see the Son of Man coming upon a cloud with great power and majesty. But when these things begin to come to pass, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is at hand.” And He spoke to them a parable. “Behold the fig tree, and all... the trees. When they now put forth their buds, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see these things coming to pass, know that the kingdom of God is near. Amen I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all things have been accomplished. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.”

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 24, 1-3. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed; neither let my enemies laugh at me: for no one who waits for You shall be confounded.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May these sacred rites, O Lord, cleanse us by their mighty power, and may they bring us closer to Him who is their author: through our Lord.

On all Sundays not having a proper Preface.

Preface of the Trinity, p. 625, is said.

Communion. Ps. 84, 13. The Lord will bestow His goodness, and our earth shall yield its fruit.

Postcommunion. In the midst of Your temple, O Lord, may we receive Your mercy; that with fitting honors we may prepare for the approaching feast of our redemption: through our Lord.

scitis quoniam prope est aestas. Ita et vos, cum videritis haec fieri, scitote quoniam prope est regnum Dei. Amen dico vobis, quia non praeteribit generatio haec donec omnia fiant. Caelum et terra transibunt; verba autem mea non transibunt.

Offertorium. Ad te Domine levavi animam meam: Deus meus in te confido, non erubescam; neque irrideant me inimici mei: etenim universi qui te exspectant non confundentur.

Secreta. Haec sacra nos, Domine, potenti virtute mandatos, ad suum faciant puriores venire principium. Per Dominum.

Communio. Dominus dabit benignitatem: et terra nostra dabit fructum suum.

Postcommunio. Suscipiamus, Domine, misericordiam tuam in medio templi tui; ut reparationis nostrae ventura solemnia congruis honoribus praecedamus. Per Dominum.
SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Office. Isa. 30, 30. People of Sion, behold the Lord shall come to save the nations; and the Lord shall make the glory of His voice to be heard in the joy of your hearts. Ps. 79, 2. Take heed, O you who rule Israel, you who lead Joseph like a sheep. Glory.

Collect. Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to make ready the ways of Your Only-begotten Son, that through His coming we may be worthy to serve You with purified minds: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle. Rom. 15, 4-13. Brethren: Whatever things have been written have been written for our instruction, that through the patience and the consolation afforded by the Scriptures we may have hope. May then the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind toward one another according to Jesus Christ; that, one in spirit, you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive one another, even as Christ has received you to the honor of God. For I say that Christ Jesus has been a minister of the circumcision in order to show God's fidelity in confirming the promises made to our fathers, but that the Gentiles glorify God because of His mercy, as it is written, "Therefore will I praise You among the Gentiles, O Lord, and will sing to Your name." And again He says, "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with His people." And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; and sing His praises, all you peoples." And again Isaias says, "There shall be the root of Jesse, and He who shall arise to rule the Gentiles . . . in Him the Gentiles shall hope." Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope and in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Responsory. Ps. 49, 2-3.5. Out of Sion, the loveliness of His beauty, God shall come revealed. Ἡ. Gather together His saints before Him, who have set His covenant before sacrifices.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ἡ. Ps. 121, 1. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: "We shall go into the house of the Lord." Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 11, 2-10. At that time, when John had heard in prison of the works of Christ, he sent two of his disciples to say to Him, "Are You He who is to come, or shall we look for another?" And Jesus answering said to them, “Go and report to John what you have heard and seen: the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead rise, the poor have the gospel preached to them. And blessed is he who is not scandalized in Me.” Then, as they went away, Jesus began to say to the crowds concerning John, “What did you go out to the desert to see? A reed shaken by the wind? But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold, those who wear soft garments are in the houses of kings. But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is he of whom it is written, ‘Behold, I send my messenger before Your face, who shall make ready Your way before You.’”

Offertory. Ps. 84, 7-8. You will turn, O God, and bring us to life, and Your people shall rejoice in You. Show us, O Lord, Your mercy, and grant us Your salvation.

Secret. Be appeased, we beseech You, Lord, by our humble prayers and offerings; and where we have no merits to plead for us, help us with Your aid: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Deus tu convertens vivificabis nos, et plebs tua laebatitur in te: ostende nobis Domine misericordiam tuam, et salutare tuum da nobis.

Secreta. Placare, quaeumus Domine, humilitatis nostrae precibus et hostiis: et ubi nulla suppetunt suffragia meritorum, tuis nobis succurre praesidiis. Per Dominum.
Communion. Bar. 5, 5; 4, 36. Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high; and behold the joy that comes to you from your God.

Postcommunion. Nourished with this spiritual food, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that through our participation in this mystery, You would teach us to despise earthly things and to love heavenly ones: through our Lord.

THIRD SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Office. Phil. 4, 4-6. Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety, but in every prayer let your petitions be made known to God. ¶ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds. Glory.

Collect. Hear our prayers, we beseech You, O Lord; and by the grace of Your visitation, enlighten the darkness of our minds: who live and reign.

Epistle. Phil. 4, 4-7. Brethren: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety, but in every prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your petitions be made known to God. And may the peace of God which surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 79, 2.3.2. You, O Lord, who sit upon the cherubim, stir up Your might, and come. Y. Take heed, O you who rule Israel, you who lead Joseph like a sheep.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. Stir up Your might, O Lord, and come, that You may save us. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 1, 19-28. At that time, the Jews sent to John from Jerusalem priests and Levites to ask him, "Who are you?" And he acknowledged and did not deny; and he acknowledged, "I am not the Christ." And they asked him, "What then? Are you Elias?" And he said, "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?" And he answered, "No." They therefore said to him, "Who are you? that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say of yourself?" He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the desert, 'Make straight the way of the Lord,' as said Isaias the prophet." And they who had been sent were from among the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said to him, "Why, then, do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elias, nor the Prophet?" John said to them in answer, "I baptize with water; but in the midst of you there has stood One whom you do not know. He it is who is to come after me, who has been set above me, the strap of whose sandal I am not worthy to loose." These things took place at Bethany, beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Dominus prope est. Nihil solliciti sitis; sed in omni oratione, et obsercatione, cum gratiarum actione, petitiones vestrae innotescant apud Deum. Et pax Dei, quae exsuperat omnem sensum, custodiat corda vestra et intelligentias vestras in Christo Jesu Domino nostro.

Responsorium. Qui sedes, Domine, super cherubim, excita potentiam tuam, et veni. Y. Qui regis Israel, intende: qui deducis velut ovem Joseph.

Offertory. Ps. 84, 2. You have blessed Your land, O Lord; You have turned away the captivity of Jacob; You have forgiven the iniquity of Your people.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the sacrifice of our devotion, we beseech You, O Lord, be continually offered to You, that it may attain the end for which You instituted this sacred mystery, and wonderfully work in us Your salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Isa. 35, 4. Say to the faint-hearted: "Take courage and fear not; behold, our God will come and save us."

*Offertorium. Benedixisti, Domine, terram tuam: avertisti captivitatem Jacob: remisisti iniquitatem plebis tuae.

*Secreta. Devotionis nostrae tibi, quae summus Domine, hostia, jugiter immoletur; quae et sacri peragat instituta mysterii, et salutare tuum in nobis mirabiliter operetur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. We implore Your mercy, O Lord, that these divine helps may prepare us, cleansed from our sins, for the feasts that are to come: through our Lord.

EMBER WEDNESDAY IN ADVENT

Office. Isa. 45, 8. Drop down dew, you heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just one. Let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior. ¶ And let justice spring up together: I the Lord have created him. Glory.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the solemn feast of our redemption which is now at hand may bring us help in this present life, and bestow on us the rewards of everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

Lesson. Isa. 2, 2-5. In those days, the prophet Isaias said, "In the last days the mountain of the house of the Lord shall be prepared on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow to it. And many peoples shall go, and say: 'Come and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, and to the Postcommunio. Imploramus Domine clementiam tuam, ut haec divina subsidia, a vitiis expiatis, ad festa ventura nos praeparent. Per Dominum.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Dixit Isaias propheta: Erit in novissimis diebus praeeparatus mons domus Domini in vertice montium, et elevabitur super colles; et fluent ad eum omnes gentes. Et ibunt populi multi et dicent: Venite et ascendamus ad montem Domini, ad domum Dei Jacob, et house of the God of Jacob, and He will teach us His ways, and we will walk in His paths; for the law shall come forth from Sion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem.’ And He shall judge the Gentiles and rebuke many peoples; and they shall turn their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into sickles. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation; neither shall they be exercised any more to war. O house of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the Lord our God.”

Responsory. _Ps. 23, 7.3.4._ Lift up your gates, O princes, and be lifted up, O eternal gates, and the king of glory shall enter in. Who shall ascend unto the mountain of the Lord? or who shall stand in His holy place? The innocent of hand and the clean of heart.

Collect. Hasten, we pray You, come soon, and yield the power of Your help from on high; that they who trust in Your love may be helped by the consolation of Your coming: who live and reign.

Epistle. _Isa. 7, 10-15._ In those days, the Lord spoke to Achaz, saying, “Ask a sign of the Lord your God, either to the depth of hell, or to the height above.” And Achaz said, “I will not ask, and I will not tempt the Lord.” And he said, “Hear, therefore, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to be grievous to men, that you are grievous to my God also? Therefore, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey, that He may know to refuse the evil, and to choose the good.”

Responsory. Ps. 144, 18.21. The Lord is near to all who call upon Him; to all who call upon Him in truth. Y. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord; and let all flesh bless His holy name.

Gospel, p. 1245.

Offertory. Luke 1, 28. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you; blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May our fasts be pleasing to You, O Lord; we pray; that their atonement may make us worthy of Your grace, and lead us to Your eternal promises: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627.

Communion. Isa. 7, 14. Behold a virgin shall conceive and shall bring forth a son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel.

Postcommunion. Filled with Your saving gift, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that even as we are gladdened by its sweetness, so we may be renewed by its strength: through our Lord.

EMBER FRIDAY IN ADVENT

Office. Ps. 118, 151-152. You are near, O Lord, and all Your ways are truth. I have known from the beginning concerning Your testimonies, that You are forever. Ps. 118, 1: Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

Collect. Stir up Your might, we pray You, Lord, and come, that such as put trust in Your mercy may the more speedily be delivered from all adversity: who live and reign.

junia; quae et expiando nos tua gratia dignos efficiant, et ad sempiterna promissa perducant. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Salutaris tui Domine munere satiati, supplies deprecamur, ut cujus laetamur gustu, renovemur effectu. Per Dominum.

Lesson. Isa. 11, 1-5. Thus says the Lord God: There shall come forth a rod out of the root of Jesse, and a flower shall rise up out of his root. And the spirit of the Lord shall rest upon Him: the spirit of wisdom and of understanding, the spirit of counsel and of fortitude, the spirit of knowledge and of godliness; and He shall be filled with the spirit of the fear of the Lord. He shall not judge according to the sight of the eyes, nor reprove according to the hearing of the ears; but He shall judge the poor with justice, and shall reprove with equity for the meek of the earth. And He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, and with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. And justice shall be the girdle of His loins, and faith the girdle of His reins.

Responsory. Ps. 84, 8.2. Show us, O Lord, Your mercy, and grant us Your salvation. ¶ Lord, You have blessed Your land; You have turned away the captivity of Jacob.

Gospel, p. 1002.

Offertory. Ps. 84, 7-8. Turning, O Lord, You will bring us to life, and Your people shall rejoice in You. Show us, O Lord, Your mercy, and grant us Your salvation.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Evangelium, p. 1002.

Offertorium. Deus tu convertens vivificabis nos, et plebs tua laetabitur in te: ostende nobis Domine misericordiam tuam, et salutare tuum da nobis.
Secret. Having received our gifts and prayers, we beseech You, Lord, to cleanse us by these heavenly mysteries and mercifully to hearken to us: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627.

Communion. Zach. 14, 5-6. Behold the Lord shall come, and all His saints with Him; and in that day there shall be a great light.

Postcommunion. May the sacred reception of Your sacrament renew us, O Lord, and make us, now cleansed from the old leaven, to pass to the fellowship of Your saving mystery: through our Lord.

EMBER SATURDAY IN ADVENT

Office. Ps. 79, 4.2. Come, O Lord, and show Your face to us, You who sit upon the cherubim; and we shall be saved. Ps. 79, 2. Give ear, O You who rule Israel, You who lead Joseph like a sheep. Glory.

Collect. O God, You see that we are suffering by our misdeeds; mercifully grant that we may be comforted by Your coming: who live and reign.

Lesson. Isa. 19, 20-22. In those days, they shall cry to the Lord because of the oppressor, and He shall send Communio. Ecce Dominus veniet, et omnes sancti ejus cum eo: et erit in die illa lux magna.

Postcommunio. Tui nos Domine, sacramenti libatio sancta restauret, et a vetustate purgatos, in mysterii salutaris faciat transire consortium. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus qui conspicis quia ex nostra pravitate afflictumur, concede propitius ut ex tua visitatione consolemur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Clamabunt ad Dominum a facie tribulantis, et mittet eis salvatorem et propugnatum qui them a Savior and a defender to deliver them. And the Lord shall be known by Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the Lord in that day, and shall worship Him with sacrifices and offerings; and they shall make vows to the Lord, and perform them. And the Lord shall strike Egypt with a scourge and shall heal it; and they shall return to the Lord, and He shall be pacified towards them, and the Lord our God will heal them.

Responsory. Ps. 18, 7.2. His going out is from the highest heaven, and his circuit even to the end thereof. The heavens show forth the glory of God, and the firmament declares the work of His hands.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who are bowed down by our old bondage under the yoke of sin, may be set free by that new birth of Your Only-begotten Son which we await: who lives and reigns with You.

Lesson. Isa. 35, 1-7. Thus says the Lord: The land that was desolate and impassable shall be glad, and the wilderness shall rejoice, and shall flourish like the lily. It shall bud forth and blossom, and shall rejoice with joy and praise; the glory of Libanus is given to it; the beauty of Carmel and Saron, they shall see the glory...
EMBER SATURDAY IN ADVENT

of the Lord and the beauty of our God. Strengthen the feeble hands, and confirm the weak knees. Say to the faint-hearted: Take courage, and fear not; behold, your God will bring the revenge of recompense; God Himself will come and save you. Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall be free; for waters are broken out in the desert, and streams in the wilderness. And that which was dry land shall become a pool; and the thirsty land springs of water; says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 18, 6-7. He has pitched His tent in the sun; and He is as a bridegroom coming out of his bridal chamber. His going out is from the highest heaven; and His circuit even to the end thereof.

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, that Your unworthy servants who are saddened by the guilt of their misdeeds, may be made glad by the coming of Your Only-begotten Son: who lives and reigns with You.

Lesson. Isa. 40, 9-11. Thus says the Lord: “Get you up a high mountain, you who bring good tidings to Sion; lift up your voice with strength, you who bring good tidings to Jerusalem; lift it up, fear not. Say to the cities of Juda: Behold your God; behold, the Lord God shall come with strength, and His arm shall rule; behold, His reward is with Him, and His work is before Him. He shall feed His flock like a shepherd; He shall gather together the lambs with His arm, and shall take them up in His bosom, the Lord our God.”

Responsory. Ps. 79, 20.3. Convert us, O Lord God of hosts, and show us Your face and we shall be saved. Ὑ. Stir up Your might O Lord, and come to save us.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the approaching feast of Your Son, may bestow on us remedies for this present life, and afford us rewards in the life to come: through the same Lord.

Lesson. Isa. 45, 1-8. Thus says the Lord to my anointed Cyrus, whose right hand I have taken hold of to subdue nations before his face, and to turn the backs of kings, and to open the doors before him and the gates shall not be shut. “I will go before you, and will humble the great ones of the earth; I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and will burst the bars of
And I will give you hidden treasures, and the concealed riches of secret places, that you may know that I am the Lord, who call you by your name, the God of Israel. For the sake of my servant Jacob and Israel my elect, I have even called you by your name: I have made a likeness of you, and you have not known me. I am the Lord, and there is none else; there is no God besides me; I girded you, and you have not known me. That they may know, who are from the rising of the sun, and they who are from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the Lord and there is none else; I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil; I, the Lord that do all these things. Drop down dew, you heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just; let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior; and let justice spring up together; I, the Lord, have created him."

Responsory. Ps. 79, 3.2.3. Stir up Your might, O Lord, and come to save us. ℣. Take heed, O you who rule Israel, you who lead Joseph like a sheep; you who sit upon the cherubim, shine forth before Ephraim, Benjamin and Manasses.

Responsorium. Excita Domine potentiam tuam, et veni ut salvos facias nos. ℣. Qui regis Israel, intende: qui deducis velut ovem Joseph: qui sedes super cherubim, appare coram Ephraim, Benjamin et Manasse.
Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, mercifully to hear the prayers of Your people, that we who are justly afflicted for our sins may be comforted by the coming of Your loving kindness: who live and reign.

Lesson. Dan. 3, 47-56. In those days, the angel of the Lord went down with Azarias and his companions into the furnace; and he drove the flame of the fire out of the furnace, and made the midst of the furnace like the blowing of a wind bringing dew. And the flame mounted up above the furnace nine and forty cubits; and it broke forth and burned such of the Chaldeans as it found near the furnace, the ministers of the king who enkindled it. And the fire touched them not at all, nor troubled them, nor did them any harm. Then these three, as with one mouth praised and glorified and blessed God in the furnace, saying:

Lectio. In diebus illis: Angelus Domini descendit cum Azaria et sociis ejus in fornicem: et excussit flammam ignis de fornicem, et fecit medium fornicis quasi ventum roris flantem. Flamma autem effundebatur super fornicem cubitis quadraginta novem; et erupit et incendit quos reperit juxta fornicem de Chaldaeis, ministros regis qui eam incendebant. Et non tetigit eos omnino ignis, neque contristavit, nec quidquam mœstiae intulit. Tunc hi tres, quasi ex uno ore, laudabant et glorificabant et benedicebant Deum in fornicem, dicentes:

Epistle. 2 Thess. 2, 1-8. We beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together unto Him, not to be hastily shaken from your right mind, nor terrified, whether by spirit, or by utterance, or by letter attributed to us, as though the day of the Lord were near at hand. Let no one deceive you in any way, for the day of the Lord will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and is exalted above all that is called God, or that is worshipped, so that he sits in the temple of God and gives himself out as if he were God. Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I used to tell you these things? And now you know what restrains him, that he may be revealed in his proper time. For the mystery of iniquity is already at work; provided only that he who is at present restraining it, does still restrain, until he is gotten out of the way. And then the wicked one will

Ne quis vos seducat ullo modo: quoniam nisi venerit discessio primum et revelatus fuerit homo peccati, filius perditionis, qui adversatur et extollitur supra omne, quod dicitur Deus, aut quod colitur ita ut in templo Dei sedeat, ostendens se tamquam sit Deus. FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Office. Ps. 105, 4-5. Remember us, O Lord, in Your kindness to Your people; visit us with Your salvation, that we may see the good of Your chosen, the joy of Your nation; that You may be praised with Your inheritance. Ps. 105, 1. Give glory to the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. Glory.

Ps. 105, 4-5. Remember us, O Lord, in Your kindness to Your people; visit us with Your salvation, that we may see the good of Your chosen, the joy of Your nation; that You may be praised with Your inheritance. Ps. 105, 1. Give glory to the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. Glory.

Collect. Stir up Your power, we beseech You, O Lord, and come, and with great might succour us; that by the help of Your grace, what is hindered by our sins may be hastened by Your merciful indulgence: who live and reign.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 4, 1-5. Brethren: Let a man so account us, as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now here it is required in stewards that a man be found trustworthy. But with me it is a very small matter to be judged by you or by man’s tribunal. Nay I do not even judge my own self. For I have nothing on my conscience, yet I am not thereby justified; but he who judges me is the Lord. Therefore, pass no judgment before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the things hidden in darkness and make manifest the counsels of hearts; and then everyone will have his praise from God.

Responsory. Ps. 144, 18.21. The Lord is near to all those who call upon Him; to all who call upon Him in truth. ϖ. My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless His holy name.

Alleluia, alleluia! ϖ. Come, O Lord, and do not delay: forgive the sins of Your people Israel. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 3, 1-6. Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was procurator of Judea, and Herod tetrarch of Galilee, and Philip his brother tetrarch of the district of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiphas, the word of the Lord came to John, the son of Zachary, in the desert. And he went into all the region about the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the desert, 'Make ready the way of the Lord, make straight His paths. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low, and the crooked ways shall be made straight, and the rough ways smooth; and all mankind shall see the salvation of God.'"

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. _Is. 35, 4._ Take courage and fear not; behold our God will bring the revenge of recompense; He Himself will come and will save us.

_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Look favorably, we beseech You, O Lord, upon these sacrifices, that they may further our devotion and salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. _Isa. 7, 14._ Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bring forth a son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel.

_Offertorium._ Confortamini et jam nolite timere: ecce enim Deus noster retribuet judicium: ipse veniet et salvos nos faciet.

_Secreta._ Sacrificiis praesentibus, quaesumus Domine, placatus intende, ut et devotioni nostrae proficiant et saluti. Per Dominum.

_Communio._ Ecce virgo concipiet et pariet filium, et vocabitur nomen ejus Emmanuel.
Postcommunion. Having received Your gifts, O Lord, we pray You, that the work of our salvation may advance, by each performance of this sacred rite: through our Lord.

THE VIGIL OF THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

Office. Ex. 16, 6-7. This day you shall know that the Lord will come and save us; and in the morning you shall see His glory. Ps. 23, 1. The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof: the world and all who dwell therein. Glory.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us in the expectation of our redemption; grant that as we now receive with joy Your Only-begotten Son as our Savior, so we may see Him without fear when He comes as our judge: the same Lord Jesus Christ Your Son: who lives and reigns with You.

No other Collect is said unless the Vigil fall on a Sunday.

Lesson. Isa. 62, 1-4. Thus says the Lord God: For Sion's sake I will not hold My peace, and for the sake of Jerusalem I will not rest till her just one come forth as Postcommunion. Sumptis muneribus, quaesumus Domine, ut cum frequentatione mysterii crescat nostrae salutis effectus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos redemptionis nostrae annua expectatione laetificas; praesta ut Unigenitum tuum, quem redemptorem laeti suscipimus, venientem quoque judicem securi videamus: Dominum nostrum Jesus Christum Filium tuum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Lectio. Haec dicit Dominus Deus: Propter Sion non tacebo, et propter Jerusalem non quiescam donec egrediatur.

Epistle. Rom. 1, 1-6. Paul, the servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God, which He had promised beforehand through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures, concerning His Son who was born to Him according to the flesh of the offspring of David; who was foreordained Son of God by an act of power in keeping with the holiness of His spirit, by resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord, through whom we have received the grace of apostleship to bring about obedience to faith among all the nations for His name's sake; among whom are you also called to be Jesus Christ's, our Lord.

Gospel. Matt. 1, 18-21. When Mary, the mother of Jesus, had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. But Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not wishing to expose her to reproach, was minded to put her away privately. But while he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Do not be afraid, Joseph, son of David, to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is begotten in her is of the Holy Spirit. And she shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus; for He shall save His people from their sins.”

Creed, p. 621, on Sunday only.

Responsorium. Hodie scietis quia veniet Dominus et salvabit nos: et mane videbitis gloriam ejus. \( \checkmark \). Ps. Qui regis Israel, intende: qui deducis velut ovem Joseph: qui sedes super cherubim, appare coram Ephraim, Benjamin et Manasse.

Offertory. Ps. 23, 7. Lift up your gates, O princes, and be lifted up, O eternal gates, and the king of glory shall enter in. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that as we anticipate the adorable nativity of Your Son, so we may joyfully receive His eternal gifts: who lives and reigns with You.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627. (On Weekdays.)

Communion. Isa. 40, 5. The glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see the salvation of our God.

Postcommunion. Grant us, O Lord, we beseech You, to breathe again in the renewed birth of Your Only-begotten Son, whose heavenly mysteries are our food and drink: through the same Lord.

THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD
The First Mass

Office. Ps. 2, 7. The Lord said to me: “You are my Son, this day have I begotten you.” Ps. 2, 1. Why have the Gentiles raged, and the people devised vain things? Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Secreta. Da nobis, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut sicut adoranda Filii tui natalitia praevenimus, sic ejus munera capiamus sempiterna gaudentes. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Communio. Revelabitur gloria Domini: et videbit omnis caro salutare Dei nostri.

Postcommunio. Da nobis, quaesumus Domine, unigeniti Filii tui recensita nativitate respirare, cujus caelesti mysterio pascimur et potamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Collect. O God, You have illumined this most sacred night with the brightness of the true light; grant, we beseech You, that we who have known the mysteries of that light on earth, may enjoy also its happiness in heaven: who live and reign with You.

Lesson. Isa. 9, 2.6-7. Thus says the Lord: “The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: to them who dwelled in the region of the shadow of death light is risen. For a Child is born to us, and a Son is given to us, and the government is upon His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, God, the Mighty, the Father of the world to come, the Prince of peace. His empire shall be multiplied, and there shall be no end of peace: He shall sit upon the throne of David and upon his kingdom, to establish it and strengthen it with judgment and with justice from henceforth and forever.

Epistle. Titus 2, 11-15. Dearly beloved: The grace of God our Savior has appeared to all men, instructing us, in order that, rejecting ungodliness and worldly lusts, we may live temperately and justly and piously in this world; looking for the blessed hope and glorious coming Oratio. Deus, qui hanc sacratissimam noctem veri luminis fecisti illustratione clarescere; da quaesumus, ut cujus lucis mysteria in terra cognovimus, ejus quoque gaudiis in caelo perfruamur. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Epistola. Carissime: Apparuit gratia Dei omnibus hominibus, erudiens nos ut abnegantes impietatem et saecularia desideria, sobrie, et juste, et pie vivamus in hoc saeculo; of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity and cleanse for Himself an acceptable people, pursuing good works. Thus speak, and exhort, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 109, 3.1. Yours is princely power in the day of Your strength. In the brightness of the saints, from the womb before the day-star I begot You. \( \forall \). The Lord said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I make Your enemies Your footstool."

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \forall \). Ps. 2, 7. The Lord said to me: "You are my son, this day have I begotten You. Alleluia!"

Gospel. Luke 2, 1-14. At that time, there went forth a decree from Caesar Augustus that a census of the whole world should be taken. This first census took place while Cyrinus was governor of Syria. And all were going, each to his own town, to register. And Joseph also went from Galilee out of the town of Nazareth into Judea to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem—because he was of the house and family of David—to register, together with Mary his espoused wife, who was with child. And it came to pass while they were there, that the days for her to be delivered were fulfilled. And she brought forth her firstborn Son, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes, and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were shepherds in the same district living in the fields and keeping watch over their flock by night. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them and the glory of God shone round about them, and they feared exceedingly. And the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which shall be to all the people; for today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you, who is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign to you: you will find an Infant wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.” And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God and saying, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace among men of good will.”

Creed, p. 621.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who celebrate the feast of blessed Anastasia, Your martyr, may feel the effects of her intercession with You: through our Lord.

Lesson: Isa. 61, 1-3; 62, 11-12. Thus says the Lord: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to preach to the meek, to heal the contrite of heart, and to preach a release to the captives and deliverance to them who are shut up; to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to appoint to the mourners of Sion; and to give them a crown for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, a garment Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beatae Anastasiae, martyris tuae, solemnia colimus ejus apud te patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Lectio. Haec dicit Dominus: Spiritus Domini super me, eo quod unxerit Dominus me: ad annuntiandum mansuetis misit me, ut mederer contritis corde, et praedicarem captivis indulgentiam et clausis apertionem: ut praedicarem annum placabilem Domino, et diem ultionis Deo nostro: ut consolarer omnes lugentes: ut ponerem lugentibus Sion: et darem eis coronam pro cinere, oleum gaudii pro luctu, of praise for the spirit of grief. And they shall be called in it the mighty ones of justice, the planting of the Lord to glorify Him. Behold the Lord has made it to be heard in the ends of the earth, tell the daughter of Sion: Behold, your Savior comes; behold His reward is with Him, and His work before Him. And they shall call them: The holy people, the redeemed of the Lord our God.

Epistle. Titus 3, 4-7. Dearly beloved: When the goodness and kindness of God our Savior appeared, then not by reason of good works that we did ourselves, but according to His mercy, He saved us through the bath of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit; whom He has abundantly poured out upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior, in order that, justified by His grace, we may be heirs in the hope of life everlasting, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 117, 26.27.23. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; the Lord is God, and he has given us light. V. This is the Lord's doing, and it is wonderful in our eyes.

Epistola. Postcommunion. Satiasti Domine familiam tuam muneri-bus sacris: ejus, quaesumus, interventione nos refove, cujus solemnia celebramus. Per Dominum.
The Third Mass

Office: Isa. 9, 6. A child is born to us and a son is given to us, whose government is upon His shoulders; and His name shall be called the angel of great counsel. Ps. 97, 1. Sing to the Lord a new canticle, for He has done wonderful things. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the new birth of Your Only-begotten Son in the flesh may set us free, whom an ancient bondage holds under the yoke of sin: through the same Lord.

Lesson. Isa. 52, 6-10. Thus says the Lord: ‘Therefore My people shall know My name in that day; for I Myself who spoke, behold I am here. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him who brings good tidings and who preaches peace; of him who shows forth good, who preaches salvation, who says to Sion: ‘Your God shall reign! The voice of your watchmen: they have lifted up their voice, they shall praise together; for they shall see eye to eye when the Lord shall convert Sion. Rejoice, and give praise together, O you deserts of Jeru-Oratio. Concede, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut nos Unigeniti tui nova per carnem nativitas liberet, quos sub peccati jugo vetusta servitus tenet. Per eumdem Dominum.

Lectio. Haec dicit Dominus: Propter hoc sciet populus meas nomen meum in die illa; quia ego ipse qui loquebar, ecce adsum. Quam pulchri super montes pedes annuntiantis et praedicantis pacem: annuntiantis bonum, praedicantis salutem, dicentis Sion: Regnabit Deus tuus! Vox speculatiorum tuorum: levaverunt vocem, simul laudabunt: quia oculo ad oculum videbunt cum converterit Dominus Sion. Gaudete, et laudate simul, deserta Jerusalem; quia consolasalem; for the Lord has comforted His people; He has redeemed Jerusalem. The Lord has prepared His holy arm in the sight of all the Gentiles; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.' ”

Epistle. Heb. 1, 1-12. God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in times past to the fathers by the prophets, last of all in these days has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, by whom also He made the world; who, being the brightness of His glory and the image of His substance, and upholding all things by the word of His power, has effected man’s purgation from sin and taken His seat at the right hand of the majesty on high, having become so much superior to the angels as He has inherited a more excellent name than they. For to which of the angels has He ever said, “You are My Son, I this day have begotten You?” and again, “I will be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son?” And again, when He brings the firstborn into the world, He says, “And let all the angels of God adore Him.” And of the angels indeed He says, “He makes His angels spirits, and His ministers a flame of fire.” But of the Son, “Your throne, O God, is forever and ever, and a sceptre of equity is the sceptre of Your kingdom. You have loved justice and hated iniquity; therefore God, Your God, has anointed You with the oil of gladness above Your fellows.” And, “You in the beginning, O Lord, did found the earth, and the heavens are works of Your hands. They shall perish, but You shall continue; and they shall all grow old as does a garment, and as a vesture shall You change them, and they shall be changed. But You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.”

Responsory. Ps. 97, 3-4.2. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God. Sing joyfully to God, all the earth. ¶ The Lord has made known His salvation; He has revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ A sanctified day has shone upon us; come you Gentiles, and adore the Lord; for this day a great light has descended upon the earth.

Responsorium. Viderunt omnes fines terrae salutare Dei nostri: jubilate Deo omnis terra. ¶ Notum fecit Dominus salutare suum: ante conspectum gentium revelavit justitiam suam.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Dies sanctificatus illuxit nobis: venite gentes, et adorate Dominum; quia hodie descendit lux magna super terram.
Laetabundus exsultet fidelis chorus. Alleluia.

Regem regum intactae profudit thorus: res miranda.

Angelus consilii natus est de virgine: sol de stella.

Sol occasum nesciens, stella semper rutilans, semper clara.

Evangelium, p. 644.

The faithful choir joyfully rejoice, alleluia!

The womb of the undefiled one has brought forth the King of Kings: a thing of wonder.

The Angel of the counsel is born of the Virgin; the Sun of the Star.

The Sun knows no setting, the Star is ever shining, ever bright.

As the star brings forth its ray, in like manner the Virgin brings forth her Son.

Neither the star by its ray, nor the Mother by her Son becomes defiled.

The lofty cedar of Lebanon is conformed to the hyssop in our Valley;

The Word, the Being of the most High, has deigned to become incarnate, having assumed our flesh.

Isaias foretold it, the Synagogue remembers it, yet never does it cease to be blind.

If not her own prophets, let her at least believe the Gentiles; in the sibylline verses these things were predicted.

O Unhappy one, hasten, believe even the ancient legends. Why be cast away, a race forlorn?

Behold the Child whom the Scriptures proclaim. A Maid has borne Him. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 88, 12,15. Yours are the heavens, and Yours is the earth. The world and the fullness thereof You have founded. Justice and judgement are the preparation of Your throne. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts we offer, by the new birth of Your Only-begotten Son, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins: through the same Lord. Preface No. 1, p. 647. Communicantes for Christmas.

Communion. Ps. 97, 3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that as the newborn Savior of the world is the author of our divine regeneration, so also He Himself may be the giver of immortality: who lives and reigns with You.

SUNDAY WITHIN THE OCTAVE OF THE NATIVITY OF OUR LORD

Office. Wisd. 18, 14-15. While all things were in quiet silence, and the night was in the midst of her course,
Your almighty word, O Lord, came down from heaven from Your royal throne. Ps. 92, 1. The Lord has reigned, He is clothed with beauty; the Lord is clothed with strength, and has girded Himself. Glory.

_Collect._ O almighty and eternal God, direct our actions according to Your good will; that in the name of Your beloved Son, we may deserve to abound in all good works: who lives and reigns with You.

_Memory of the Nativity_

_Collect._ Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the new birth of Your Only-begotten Son in the flesh may set us free, whom an ancient bondage holds under the yoke of sin.

_Epistle._ Gal. 4, 1-7. Brethren: As long as the heir is a child, he differs in no way from a slave, though he is the master of all; but he is under guardians and stewards until the time set by his father. So we too, when we were children, were enslaved under the elements of the world. But when the fullness of time came, God sent His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, that He might redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive the adoption of sons. And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba, Father.” So that He is no longer a slave, but a son; and if a son, an heir also through God.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 3.2. You are beautiful above the sons of men, grace is poured abroad in your lips. V. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the king; my tongue is the pen of a scribe who writes swiftly.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 92, 1. The Lord has reigned, He is clothed with beauty; the Lord is clothed with strength, and has girded Himself with power. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 2, 33-40. At that time, Joseph and Mary, the mother of Jesus, were marveling at the things spoken concerning Him. And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, “Behold, this child is destined for the fall and for the rise of many in Israel, and for a sign that shall be contradicted. And your own soul a sword shall pierce, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.” There was also Anna, a prophetess, daughtreciperemus. Quoniam autem estis filii, misit Deus Spiritum Filii sui in corda vestra clamantem: Abba, Pater. Itaque jam non est servus, sed filius: quod si filius, et heres per Deum.

Responsorium. Speciosus forma prae filiis hominum, diffusa est gratia in labiis tuis. V. Eructavit cor meum verbum bonum: dico ego opera mea regi: lingua mea calamus scribae velociter scribentis.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Dominus regnavit, decorem induit: induit Dominus fortitudinem, et praecinxit se virtute. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Erat Joseph, et Maria mater Jesu mirantes super his quae dicebantur de illo. Et benedixit illis Simeon, et dixit ad Mariam matrem ejus: Ecce positus est hic in ruinam, et in resurrectionem multorum in Israel, et in signum cui contradicetur. Et tuam ipsius animam pertransibit gladius; ut revelentur ex multis cordibus cogitationes. Et erat Anna prophetissa, filia Phanuel, de tribu Aser; haec processerat in diebus multis, ter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years from her maidenhood, and by herself as a widow to eighty-four years. She never left the temple, with fastings and prayers worshiping night and day. And coming up at that very hour, she began to give praise to the Lord, and spoke of Him to all who were awaiting the redemption of Israel. And when they had fulfilled all things as prescribed in the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, into their own town of Nazareth. And the child grew and became strong. He was full of wisdom and the grace of God was upon Him.

Offertory. Ps. 92, 1.2. God has established the world, which shall not be moved; Your throne, O God, is prepared from of old; You are from everlasting.

Secret. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the gift offered in the sight of Your majesty may obtain for us the grace of a loving devotion, and bring us to joys everlasting: through our Lord.

et vixerat cum viro suo annis septem a virginitate sua. Et haec vidua usque ad annos octoginta quatuor; quae non discedebat de templo, jejuniis et obsecrationibus serviens nocte ac die. Et haec ipsa hora superveniens confitebatur Domino, et loquebatur de illo omnibus qui exspectabant redemptionem Israel. Et ut perfecerunt omnia secundum legem Domini, reversi sunt in Galilaeam in civitatem suam Nazareth. Puer autem crescebat et confortabatur, plenus sapientia: et gratia Dei erat in illo.

Offertorium. Deus firmavit orbem terrae, qui non com-movebitur: parata sedes tua. Deus ex tunc; a saeculo tu es.

WITHIN OCTAVE OF NATIVITY

Memory of the Nativity

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts we offer, by the new birth of Your Only-begotten Son; and cleanse us from the stains of our sins.

Preface: No. 1, p. 647.

Communion. Matt. 2, 20. Take the child and His mother and go into the land of Israel, for they are dead who sought the life of the child.

Postcommunion. By virtue of this mystery, O Lord, may our sins be cleansed and our just desires be fulfilled: through our Lord.

Memory of the Nativity

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that as the newborn Savior of the world is the author of our divine regeneration, so also He Himself may be the giver of immortality.

THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS
(THE SUNDAY BETWEEN CIRCUMCISION AND EPIPHANY)

Should the First Sunday of the year fall on January 1, 6 or 7, the Feast of the Holy Name is kept on January 2.

Office.  Phil. 2, 10-11. At the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven, on earth, and Jesus, quod vocatum est ab angelo priusquam in utero conciperetur.

Offertorium. Tui sunt caeli et tua est terra: orbem terrarum et plenitudinem ejus tu fundasti: justitia et judicium praeparatio sedis tuae.

Secreta. Praesta, quae sumus Domine, ut per haec munera, quae Domini nostri Jesu Christi arcanae nativitatis mysterio gerimus, purificatae mentis intelligentiam consecuamur. Per eumdem Dominum.

Communio. Viderunt omnes fines terrae salutare Dei nostri.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quae sumus Domine, ut quod salvatoris nostri iterata festivitate percepimus, perpetuae nobis redemptionis conferat medicinam: Per eumdem.

Officium. In nomine Jesu omne genu flectatur caelestium, terrestrium, et infernorum; et omnis lingua confiteatur quia under the earth, and every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.
Ps. 134, 3. Praise the Lord, for the Lord is good; sing to His name, for it is sweet. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who ordained Your Only-begotten Son to be the Savior of mankind, and commanded that He be called Jesus, mercifully grant that, as we have sancitified His holy name on earth, we may be gladdened by His face in heaven: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Acts 4, 8-12. In those days, Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said, "Rulers of the people and elders, hear: if we are on trial today about a good work done to a cripple, as to how this man has been cured, be it known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God has raised from the dead, even in this Name does He stand here before you, sound. This is 'The stone that was rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone.' Neither is their salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men by which we must be saved."

Dominus Jesus Christus in gloria est Dei Patris. Ps. Laudate Dominum quoniam bonus est Dominus: psallite nomini ejus, quoniam suave. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, qui Unigenitum Filium tuum constituisti humani generis salvatorem, et Jesum vocari jussisti: concede propitius ut, cujus sanctum nomen veneramur in terris, ejus quoque aspectu perfruamur in caelis. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Petrus, repletus Spiritu Sancto, dixit: Principes populi et seniores, audite: Si nos hodie dijudicamur in benefacto hominis infirmi, in quo iste salvus factus est, notum sit omnibus vobis et omni plebi Israel, quia in nomine Domini nostri Jesu Christi Nazareni, quem vos crucifixistis, quem Deus suscitavit a mortuis, in hoc iste adstat coram vobis sanus. Hic est lapis qui reprobatus est a vobis aedificantibus, qui factus est in caput anguli:
et non est in alio aliquo salus. Nec enim aliud nomen est sub caelo datum hominibus, in quo oporteat nos salvos fieri.
Responsory. Ps. 112, 1-2. Praise the Lord, you children; praise the name of the Lord. Ὕ. Blessed be the name of the Lord, now and forever.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὕ. Prov. 18, 10. The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the just run to it, and shall be exalted. Alleluia!

Offertory. Mal. 1, 11. From the rising of the sun even to the going down, My name is great among the Gentiles; and in every place there is sacrifice, and there is offered to My name a clean oblation, for it is great, said the Lord of hosts.

Secret. With devout hearts we offer these victims, O Father of mercies, in honor of the name of Your most beloved Son, our Lord; and we humbly pray that You would make our hearts overflow with the sweetness of His name, and rejoice in no one but You, the true God: through the same Lord.

Communion. Ps. 102, 1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless His holy name.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that these most sacred mysteries, which we have re-

Responsorium. Laudate pueri Dominum: laudate nomen Domini. Ὕ. Sit nomen Domini benedictum: ex hoc nunc et usque in saeculum.

Offertorium. Ab ortu solis usque ad occasum, magnum est nomen meum in gentibus; et in omni loco sacrificatur et offertur nomini meo oblatio munda: quia magnum est dicit Dominus exercituum.

Secreta. In veneratione nominis dilectissimi Filii tui Domini nostri, misericordiarum Pater, devote mentibus hostias immolamus; suppliciter deprecantes, ut corda nostra ejus nominis dulcedine impinguari, et in nullo nisi in te Deo vero delectari fasias. Per eumdem Dominum.

Communio. Benedic anima mea Domino: et omnia quae intra me sunt nominis sancto ejus.

Postcommunio. Sacrosancta mysteria, quae sumpsimus, Domine, in honorem amabilissimi nominis Filii tui Domini received in honor of the most lovable name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, may enkindle our hearts to love this saving name of Jesus and may happily incite us to rejoice in God our Savior: through the same Lord.

THE EPIPHANY OF OUR LORD

Office. Mal. 3, 1; I Par. 29, 12. Behold the Lord the ruler is come, and a kingdom is in His hand, and power and dominion. V. Ps. 71, 1. Give to the king Your judgement, O God, and to the king’s son Your justice. Glory.

Collect. O God, who by the guidance of a star this day revealed Your Only-begotten Son to the Gentiles; mercifully grant that we who now know You by faith, may be led to contemplate the beauty of Your majesty: through the same Lord:

Epistle. Isa. 60, 1-6. Arise, be enlightened, O Jerusalem; for your light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon you. brightness of your rising. Lift up your eyes round about, and see; all these are gathered together; they are come to you; your sons shall come from afar, and your daughters shall rise up at your side. Then shall you see, and abound; and your heart shall wonder and be enlarged, when the multitude of the sea shall be converted to you, the strength of the Gentiles shall come to you. The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Madian and Epha; all they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and frankincense, and showing forth praise to the Lord.

Responsory. Isa. 60, 6.1. All they from Saba shall come, bringing gold and frankincense, and showing forth praise to the Lord. Ὠ. Arise, and be enlightened, O Jerusalem, for the glory of the Lord is risen upon you.

star in the east and have come to worship Him.” But when King Herod heard this, he was troubled, and so was all Jerusalem with him. And gathering together all the chief priests and Scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. And they said to him, “In Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written by the prophet, ‘And you, Bethlehem, of the land of Juda, are by no means least among the princes of Juda; for from you shall come forth a leader who shall rule my people Israel.’” Then Herod summoned the Magi secretly, and carefully ascertained from them the time when the star had appeared to them. And sending them to Bethlehem, he said, “Go and make careful inquiry concerning the child, and when you have found Him, bring me word, that I too may go and worship Him.” Now they, having heard the king, went their way. And behold, the star that they had seen in the East went before them, until it came and stood over the place where the child was. And when they saw the star they rejoiced exceedingly. And entering the house, they found the child with Mary His mother, and falling down they worshipped Him. (Here all kneel.) And opening their treas-Offertory. Ps. 71, 10-11. The Kings of Tharsis and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of the Arabians and of Saba shall bring presents; and all the kings of the earth shall adore Him, all nations shall serve him.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look with mercy, O Lord, we beseech You, on the offerings of Your Church wherein are now no longer offered gold, frankincense and myrrh, but He who in these same gifts is revealed, is immolated and received, Jesus Christ Your Son our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Preface No. 2, p. 647, and Communicantes of the Epiphany.

Communion. Matt. 2, 2. We have seen His star in the east, and are come with gifts to adore the Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that what we celebrate in a solemn rite, we may attain through the understanding of a purified mind: through our Lord.
Office. Prov. 23, 24.25. Let the father of the just one exult with joy; let Your father and mother rejoice, and let her who bore You be glad. Ps. 83, 2.3. How lovely is Your dwelling place, O Lord of hosts! My soul yearns and faints for the courts of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, who, becoming subject to Mary and Joseph, sanctified home life by wondrous virtues; grant that by their help we may profit by the example of the Holy Family and attain unto everlasting fellowship with them: who live and reign.

Epistle. Col. 3, 12-17. Brethren: Put on, as God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, patience. Bear with one another and forgive one another, if anyone has a grievance against any other; even as the Lord has forgiven you, so also do you forgive. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection. And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts; unto that peace, indeed, you were called in one body. Show yourselves thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly: in all wisdom teach and admonish one another by psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing in your hearts to God by His grace. Whatever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.

Responsory. Ps. 26, 4; 83, 5. One thing have I asked of the Lord, this will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. V. Blessed are they who dwell in Your house, O Lord; they shall praise You forever and ever.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Isa. 45, 15. Truly you are a hidden King, the God and Savior of Israel, Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 2, 42-52. When Jesus was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast. And after they had fulfilled the days, when they were returning, the boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, and His parents did not know it. But thinking that He was in the caravan, they had come a day's journey before it occurred to them to look for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. And not finding Him, they returned to Jerusalem in search of Him. And it came to pass after three days, that they found Him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions. And all who were listening to Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers. And when they saw Him, they were astonished. And His mother said to Him, "Son, why have You done so to us? Behold, in sorrow Your father and I have been seeking You." And He said to them, "How is it that you sought Me? Did you not know that I must be about My Father’s business?" And they did not understand the word that He spoke to them. And He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them; and His mother kept all these things carefully in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and grace before God and men.

Offertory. Luke 2, 22. The parents of Jesus took Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.
Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, a victim of atonement, humbly entreat ing that through the intercession of the virgin mother of God and blessed Joseph, You would strongly establish our families in Your grace and peace: through the same Lord. Preface: No. 2; p. 647.

Communion. Luke 2, 51. Jesus went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by Your heavenly sacrament, O Lord Jesus, help us always to follow the example of Your Holy Family, so that at the hour of our death Your glorious virgin mother and blessed Joseph may be near us, and we may be found worthy to be received by You into eternal dwellings: who live and reign.

Secreta. Placationis hostiam offerimus tibi Domine, suppliantem deprecantes, ut per intercessionem Deiparae virginis cum beato Joseph, familias nostras in pace et gratia tua firmiter constituas. Per eundem Dominum.

Communio. Descendit Jesus cum eis et venit Nazareth, et erat subditus illis.

Postcommunio. Quos caelestibus reficis sacramentis fac, Domine Jesu, Sanctae Familiae tuae exempla jugiter imitari; ut in hora mortis nostrae occurrente gloria virgine matre tua cum beato Joseph, per te in aeterna tabernacula recipi mereamur. Qui vivis et regnas.
Jan. 13—COMMEMORATION OF THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD

All as on the Feast, p. 52, except the following:

Collect. O God, whose Only-begotten Son has appeared in the substance of our flesh, grant, we beseech You, that by Him in whom outwardly we recognize our likeness, we may deserve to be inwardly created anew: who lives and reigns with You.

Gospel. John 1, 29-34. At that time, John saw Jesus coming to him, and he said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, behold Him who takes away the sin of the world! This is He of whom I said, ‘After me there comes One who has been set above me, because He was before me.’ And I did not know Him. But that He may be known to Israel, for this reason have I come baptizing with water.” And John bore witness, saying, “I beheld the Spirit descending as a dove from heaven, and it abode upon Him. And I did not know Him. But He who sent me to baptize with water said to me, ‘He upon whom you will see Oratio. Deus, cujus Unigenitus in substantia nostrae carnis apparuit: praesta quaesumus, ut per eum quem similem nobis foris agnovimus, intus reformari mereamur. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Vidit Joannes Jesum venientem ad se, et ait: Ecce agnus Dei; ecce qui tollit pecatum mundi. Hic est de quo dixi: Post me venit vir, qui ante me factus est, quia prior me erat. Et ego nesciebam eum; sed ut manifestetur in Israel, propter ea veni ego in aqua baptizans. Et testimonium perhibuit Joannes, dicens: Quia vidi Spiritum descendentem quasi columbam de caelo, et mansit super eum. Et ego nesciebam eum; sed qui misit me baptizare in aqua, ille mihi dixit: Super quem videris the Spirit descending, and abiding upon Him, He it is who baptizes with the Holy Spirit.' And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God."

_Creed, p. 621._

Secret. We bring these offerings to You, O Lord, because of the manifestation of Your Son who was born for us; humbly beseeching You, that as He created them, so too He may Himself be their merciful receiver, Jesus Christ, our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Postcommunion. Go before us always and in all places with Your heavenly light, we beseech You, O Lord, that we may discern with clear insight and receive with worthy affection, the mystery in which You would have us partake: through our Lord.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Office. _Ps. 65, 4._ Let all the earth adore You, O God, and sing to You. Let it sing a psalm to Your name, O Most High. _Ps. 65, 1-2._ Shout with joy to God all the earth, sing a psalm to His name; give glory to His praise.

Glory. _Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617._

Spiritum descendente et manente super eum, hic est qui baptizat in Spiritu Sancto. Et ego vidi, et testinomium perhibui, quia hic est Filius Dei.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, pronati Filii tui apparitione deferimus; supplicant exorantes, ut sicut ipse nostrorum auctor est munera, ita sit ipse misericors et susceptor: Jesus Christus Dominus noster. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Postcommunio. Caelesti lumine, quaesumus Domine, semper et ubique nos praeveni: ut mysterium, cujus nos participes esse voluisti, et puro cernamus intuitu et digno percipiamus auctum. Per Dominum.

Officium. Omnis terra adoret te, Deus, et psallat tibi: psalmum dicat nomini tuo, Altissime. _Ps. Jubilate Deo omnis terra, psalmum dicite nomini ejus: date gloriab laudi ejus. Gloria Patri._
Collect. O almighty and everlasting God, who governs all things both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the prayers of Your people and grant us Your peace in our days: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 12, 6-16. Brethren: We have gifts differing according to the grace that has been given us, such as prophecy to be used according to the proportion of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he who teaches, in teaching; he who exhorts, in exhorting; he who gives, in simplicity; he who presides, with carefulness; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without pretense. Hate what is evil, hold to what is good. Love one another with fraternal charity, anticipating one another with honor. Be not slothful in zeal; be fervent in spirit, serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope. Be patient in tribulation, persevering in prayer. Share the needs of the saints, practising hospitality. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse. Rejoice with those who rejoice; weep with those who weep. Be of one mind towards one another. Do not set your mind on high things but condescend to the lowly.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui caelestia simul et terrena moderaris, supplicationes populi tui clementer exaudi, et pacem tuam nostris concede temporibus. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 106, 20-21. The Lord sent His word, and healed them, and delivered them out of their distresses. ¶ Let the mercies of the Lord give glory to Him, and His wonderful works to the children of men. Allelulia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 148, 2. Praise the Lord, all His angels, praise Him all His hosts. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 2, 1-11. At that time, a marriage took place at Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Now Jesus too was invited to the marriage, and also His disciples. And the wine having run short, the mother of Jesus said to Him, “They have no wine.” And Jesus said to her, “What would you have me do, woman? My hour has not yet come.” His mother said to the attendants, “Do whatever He tells you.” Now six stone water-jars were placed there, after the Jewish manner of purification, each holding two or three measures. Jesus said to them, “Fill the jars with water.” And they filled them to the brim. And Jesus said to them, “Draw out now, and take to the chief steward.” And they took it to him. Now when the chief steward had tasted the water after it had become wine, not knowing whence it was (though the attendants who had drawn the water knew), the chief steward called the bridegroom, and said to him, “Every man at first sets forth the good wine, and when they have drunk freely, then that which is poorer. But you have kept the good wine until now.” This first of His signs Jesus worked at Cana of Galilee; and He manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

Offertory. Ps. 65, 1-2.16. Shout with joy to God all the earth, sing a psalm to His name. Come and hear, all you who fear God, and I will tell you what great things He has done for my soul. Alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts we offer, and cleanse us from the stains of our sins: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 8, p. 624.

Communion. John 2, 7.8.9.10-11. The Lord said, “Fill the jars with water and take to the chief steward.” When the chief steward had tasted the water after it had become wine, he said to the bridegroom, “You have kept the good wine until now.” This first miracle Jesus worked in the presence of His disciples.

sciebat unde esset, ministri autem sciebant, qui hauserant aquam; vocat sponsum architriclinus, et dicit ei: Omnis homo primum bonum vinum ponit, et cum inebriati fuerint, tunc id, quod deterius est; tu autem servasti bonum vinum usque adhuc. Hoc fecit initium signorum Jesus in Cana Galilaeae; et manifestavit gloriam suam. Et crediderunt in eum discipuli ejus.

Offertorium. Jubilate Deo universa terra, psalmum dicite nomini ejus. Venite et audite et narrabo vobis omnes qui timetis Deum, quanta fecit Dominus animae meae. Alleluia.

Secreta. Oblata, Domine, munera sanctifica, nosque a peccatorum nostrorum maculis emunda. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Increase within us, O Lord, we beseech You, the working of Your power, that nourished by Your divine sacraments, we may, by Your grace, be made ready to lay hold on what they promise: through our Lord.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Office. Ps. 96, 7-8. Adore God, all you His angels; Sion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Juda rejoiced. ¶ The Lord has reigned; let the earth rejoice; let many islands be glad. ¶. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and eternal God, graciously look upon our weakness and stretch forth the right hand of Your majesty to our protection: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 12, 16-21. Brethren: Be not wise in your own conceits. To no man render evil for evil, but provide good things not only in the sight of God, but also in the sight of all men. If it be possible, as far as Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, infirmitatem nostram propitius respice; atque ad protegendum nos, dexteram tuae majestatis extende. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Nolite esse prudentes apud vosmetip- sos. Nulli malum pro malo reddentes: providentes bona, non tantum coram Deo, sed etiam coram omnibus homini- bus. Si fieri potest, quod ex vobis est, cum omnibus in you lies, be at peace with all men. Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to the wrath, for it is written, “Vengeance is Mine: I will repay, says the Lord.” But, “If your enemy is hungry, give him food; if he is thirsty, give him drink; for by so doing you will heap coals of fire upon his head.” Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Responsory. Ps. 101, 16-17. The Gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. ¶ For the Lord has built up Sion, and He shall be seen in His majesty.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 96, 1. The Lord has reigned, let the earth rejoice; let many islands be glad. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 8, 1-13. At that time, when Jesus had come down from the mountain, great crowds followed Him. And behold, a leper came up and worshiped Him, saying, “Lord, if You will, You can make me clean.” And stretching forth His hand Jesus touched him, saying, “I will; be made clean.” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus said to him, “See that you tell no one; but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer hominibus pacem habentes. Non vosmetipsos defendentes carissimi, sed date locum irae, scriptum est enim: Mihi vindicta; ego retribuam, dicit Dominus. Sed si esurierit inimicus tuus, ciba illum; si sitit, potum da illi; hoc enim faciens, carbones ignis congeres super caput ejus. Noli vinci a malo, sed vince in bono malum.

Responsorium. Timebunt gentes nomen tuum Domine, et omnes reges terrae gloriam tuam. ¶ Quoniam aedificavit Dominus Sion: et videbitur in majestate sua.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Dominus regnavit, exsultet terra: laetentur insulae multae. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Cum descendisset Jesus de monte, secutae sunt eum turbae multae: et ecce leprosus veniens, adorabat eum, dicens: Domine, si vis, potes me mundare. Et extendens Jesus manum, tetigit eum, dicens: Volo; mundare. Et confestim mundata est lepra ejus. Et ait illi Jesus: Vide, nemini dixeris: sed vade, ostende te the gift that Moses commanded, for a witness to them." Now when He had entered Capharnaum, there came to Him a centurion who entreated Him, saying, "Lord, my servant is lying sick in the house, paralyzed, and is grievously afflicted." Jesus said to him, "I will come and cure him." But in answer the centurion said, "Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I too am a man subject to authority, and have soldiers subject to me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it." And when Jesus heard this, He marveled, and said to those who were following Him, "Amen I say to you, I have not found such great faith in Israel. And I tell you that many will come from the east and from the west, and will feast with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, but the children of the kingdom will be put forth into the darkness outside; there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth." Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go your way; as you have believed, so be it done to you." And the servant was healed in that hour.

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. Ps. 117, 16-17. The right hand of the Lord has wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord has exalted me. I shall not die, but live, and shall declare the works of the Lord. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May this victim, O Lord, we beseech You, cleanse us from our sins and sanctify the bodies and minds of Your servants for the celebration of this sacrifice: through our Lord. Preface: No. 8, p. 625.

Communion. Luke 4, 22. All marveled at these things that came from the mouth of God.

Postcommunion. O Lord, we beseech You, make us worthy to receive the fruits of these mysteries which, of Your bounty, we celebrate: through our Lord.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Office. Ps. 96, 7-8. Adore God all His angels. Sion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Juda rejoiced. V. The Lord has reigned, let the earth rejoice, let many islands be glad. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who know that we are beset by perils such as our human frailty cannot withstand; grant us Offertorium. Dextera Domini fecit virtutem, dextera Domini exaltavit me: non moriar, sed vivam, et narrabo opera Domini.

Secreta. Haec hostia, Domine quaesumus, emundet nostra délicta, et ad sacrificium celebrandum, subditorum tibi corpora menteque sanctificet. Per Dominum.

Communio. Mirabantur omnes de his, quae procedebant de ore Dei.

Postcommunio. Quos tantis, Domine, largiris uti mysteriis, quaesumus, ut effectibus nos eorum veraciter aptare digneris. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos, in tantis periculis constitutos, pro humana scis fragilitate non posse subsistere: da nobis health of soul and body, that what we suffer for our sins we may overcome by Your assistance: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 13, 8-10. Brethren: Owe no man anything except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the Law. For "You shall not commit adultery. You shall not kill. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness. You shall not covet"; and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Love does no evil to a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the Law.

Responsory. Ps. 101, 16-17. The Gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. ¶ For the Lord has built up Sion, and He shall be seen in His majesty.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 96, 1. The Lord has reigned, let the earth rejoice, let many islands be glad. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 8, 23-27. At that time, Jesus got into a boat, and His disciples followed Him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves; but He was asleep. So His disciples came to Him and woke Him, saying, “Lord save us! we are perishing!” But Jesus said to them, “Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?” Then He arose and rebuked the wind and the sea, and there came a great calm. And the men marveled, saying, “What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

Offertory. Ps. 117, 16.17. The right hand of the Lord has wrought strength, the right hand of the Lord has exalted me. I shall not die, but live, and shall declare the works of the Lord.

Secret. Grant, we pray, almighty God, that the gift of this sacrifice now offered to You, may ever defend us in our frailty and cleanse us from every ill: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 4, 22. All marveled at these things that came from the mouth of God.

Postcommunion. May Your gifts, O God, free us from earthly joys and ever strengthen us with heavenly nourishment: through our Lord.
FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

Office. Ps. 96, 7-8. Adore God all His angels. Sion heard and was glad and the daughters of Juda rejoiced. ¶ The Lord has reigned, let the earth rejoice; let many islands be glad. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Keep Your family, we beseech You, Lord, in Your unceasing love, that since it leans solely on the help of Your grace, it may ever be shielded by Your protection: through our Lord.

Epistle. Col. 3, 12-17. Brethren: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of mercy, kindness, humility, meekness, patience. Bear with one another and forgive one another, if anyone has a grievance against any other; even as the Lord has forgiven you, so also do you forgive. But above all these things have charity, which is the bond of perfection. And may the peace of Christ reign in your hearts; unto that peace, indeed, you were called in one body. Show yourselves thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you abundantly: in all wisdom teach and admonish one another Epistola. Fratres: Induite vos sicut electi Dei, sancti et dilecti, viscera misericordiae, benignitatem, humilitatem, modestiam, patientiam: supportantes invicem et donantes vobismetipsis si quis adversus aliquem habet querelam; sicut et Dominus donavit vobis, ita et vos. Super omnia autem haec, caritatem habete, quod est vinculum perfectionis: et pax Christi exsultet in cordibus vestris, in qua et vocati estis in uno corpore; et grati estote. Verbum Christi habitet in vobis, abundanter, in omni sapientia; docentes et comby psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing in your hearts to God by His grace. Whatever you do in word or in work, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, giving thanks to God the Father through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 101, 16-17. The Gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. Ἐ. For the Lord has built up Sion, and He shall be seen in His majesty.

Gospel. Matt. 13, 24-30. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the crowds: "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field; but while men were asleep, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away. And when the blade sprang up and brought forth fruit, then the weeds appeared as well. And the servants of the householder came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? How then does it have weeds?' He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.' And the servants

The Lord has reigned; let the earth rejoice, let many islands be glad. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that always bearing in mind reasonable things, we may follow out in word and deed, things pleasing to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Thess. 1, 2-10. Brethren: We give thanks to God always for you all, continually making a remembrance of you in our prayers; being mindful before God our Father of your work of faith, and labor, and charity, and your enduring hope in our Lord Jesus Christ. We know, brethren, beloved of God, how you were chosen. For our gospel was not delivered to you in word only, but in power also, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much fullness, as indeed you know what manner of men we have been among you for your sakes. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great tribulation, with joy of the Holy Spirit, so that you became a pattern to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has been spread abroad, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we need say nothing further. For they themselves report concerning us how we entered among you, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, and to await from heaven Jesus, His Son, whom He raised from the dead, who was delivered us from the wrath to come.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus turbis parabolam hanc: Simile est regnum caelorum grano sinapis, quod accipiens homo seminavit in agro suo: quod minimum quidem est omnibus seminibus; cum autem creverit, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in its branches." He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and buried in three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened." All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables; and without parables He did not speak to them; that what was spoken by the prophet might be fulfilled, "I will open My mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Office. Ps. 17, 5.6.7. The groans of death surrounded me, the sorrows of hell encompassed me, and in my affliction I called upon the Lord, and He heard my voice from His holy temple. \\ I will love You, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my firmament and my refuge and my deliverer. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. Graciously hear, we beseech You, O Lord, the prayers of Your people, that we, who are justly afflicted for our sins, may be freed by Your mercy for the glory of Your name: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 9, 24-10, 5. Brethren: Do you not know that those who run in a race, all indeed run, but one receives the prize? So run as to obtain it. And everyone in a contest abstains from all things—and they indeed to receive a perishable crown, but we an imperishable. I, therefore, so run as not without a purpose; I so fight as not beating the air; but I chastise my body and bring it into subjection, lest perhaps after preaching to others I myself should be rejected. For I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized in Moses, in the cloud and in the sea. And all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink (for they drank from the spiritual rock which followed them, and the rock was Christ). Yet with most of them God was not well pleased.

Responsory. Ps. 9, 10-11.19-20. The helper in due time, in tribulation; let them trust in You, who know You for You do not forsake them who seek You, O Lord. \( \psi \). For the poor man shall not be forgotten to the end. The patience of the poor shall not perish forever. Arise, O Lord, let not man be strengthened.

At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a householder who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. And having agreed with the laborers for a denarius a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And about the third hour, he went out and saw others standing in the market place idle; and he said to them, ‘Go you also into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is just.’ So they went. And again he went out about the sixth, and about the ninth hour, and did as before. But about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing about and he said to them, ‘Why do you stand here all day idle?’ They said to him, ‘Because no man has hired us.’ He said to them, ‘Go you also into the vineyard.’ But when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard said to his steward, ‘Call the laborers, and pay them their wages, beginning from the last even to the first.’ Now when they of the eleventh hour came, they} received each a denarius. And when the first in their turn came, they thought that they would receive more; but they also received each his denarius. And on receiving it, they began to murmur against the householder, saying, 'These last have worked a single hour, and you have put them on a level with us, who have borne the burden of the day's heat.' But answering one of them, he said, 'Friend, I do you no injustice; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what is yours and go; I choose to give to this last even as to you. Have I not a right to do what I choose? Or are you envious because I am generous?' Even so the last shall be first, and the first last; for many are called, but few are chosen.'

SEXAGESIMA SUNDAY

Office. Ps. 43, 23-26. Arise, why do You sleep, O Lord? arise, and cast us not off to the end. Why do You turn Your face away, and forget our trouble? Our bodies are pressed to the earth. Arise, O Lord, help us and deliver us. ¶ O God, we have heard with our ears; our fathers have declared to us. Glory.

Collect. O God, You see that we do not trust in anything that we do of ourselves; mercifully grant that by the protection of the doctor of the Gentiles we may be defended against all adversities: through our Lord.

Communio. Illumina faciem tuam super servum tuum, et salvum me fac in tua misericordia: Domine non confundar, quoniam invocavi te.

Oratio. Deus, qui conspicis quia ex nulla nostra actione confidimus; concede propitius, ut contra adversa omnia, doctoris gentium protectione muniamur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 2 Cor. 11, 19—12, 9. Brethren: You gladly put up with fools, because you are wise yourselves! For you suffer it if a man enslaves you, if a man devours you, if a man takes from you, if a man is arrogant, if a man slaps your face! I speak to my own shame, as though we had been weak in this part. But wherein any man is bold—I am speaking foolishly—I also am bold. They are Hebrews. So am I! They are Israelites. So am I! They are offspring of Abraham. So am I! They are ministers of Christ. I—to speak as a fool—am more: in many more labors, in prisons more frequently, in lashes above measure, often exposed to death. From the Jews five times I received forty lashes less one. Thrice I was scourged, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I was adrift on the sea; in journeyings often, in perils from floods, in perils from robbers, in perils from my own nation, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils from false brethren; in labor and hardships, in many sleepless nights, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness. Besides those outer things, Sustinetis enim si quis vos in servitutem redigit, si quis devorat, si quis accipit, si quis extollitur, si quis in faciem vos caedit. Secundum ignobilitatem dico, quasi nos infirimi fuerimus in hac parte. In quo quis audet (in insipientia dico) audeo et ego. Hebraei sunt; et ego. Israelitae sunt; et ego. Semen Abrahae sunt; et ego. there is my daily pressing anxiety, the care of all the churches! Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I am not inflamed? If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie. In Damascus the governor under King Aretas was guarding the city of the Damascenes in order to arrest me, but I was lowered in a basket through a window in the wall, and so escaped his hands. If I must boast—it is not indeed expedient to do so—but I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. I know a man in Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, God knows—such a one was caught up to the third heaven. And I know such a man—whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, God knows—that he was caught up into paradise and heard secret words that man may not repeat. Of such a man I will boast; but of myself I will glory in nothing save in my infirmities. For if I do wish to boast, I shall not be foolish; for I shall be speaking the truth. But I forbear, lest any man should reckon me beyond what he sees in me or anything he hears from me. And lest the greatness of the revelations should puff me up, there was given me a thorn for the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to buffet me. Concerning this I thrice besought the Lord that it might leave me. And He has said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for strength is made perfect in weakness.” Gladly therefore I will glory in my infirmities, that the strength of Christ may dwell in me.

Gospel. Luke 8, 4-15. At that time, when a very great crowd was gathering together and men from every town were resorting to Jesus, He said in a parable: “The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside and was trodden under foot, and the birds of the air ate it up. And other seed fell upon the rock, and as soon as it had sprung up it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. And other seed fell upon good ground, and sprang up and yielded fruit a hundredfold.” As He said these things He cried out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!” But His disciples then began to ask Him what this parable meant. He said to them, “To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that ‘Seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’ Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God. And those by the wayside are they who have heard; then the devil comes and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. Now those upon the rock are they who, when they have heard, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, but believe for a while, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among the thorns, these are they who have heard, and as they go their way are choked by the cares and riches and pleasures of life, and their fruit does not ripen. But that upon good ground, these are they who, with a right and good heart, having heard the word, hold it fast, and bear fruit in patience.”

QUINQUAGESIMA SUNDAY

Office. Ps. 30, 3-4. Be a God of protection to me, and a place of refuge, to save me, for You are my strength and my refuge; and for Your name’s sake You will lead me and nourish me. Yf. In You, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded; deliver me in Your justice, and set me free. Glory.

Collect. Mercifully hear our prayers, O Lord, and having loosed the bonds of our sins, keep us from all adversity: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 13, 1-13. Brethren: If I should speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but do not have charity, I have become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal. And if I have prophecy and know all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith so as to remove mountains, yet do not have charity, I am nothing. And if I distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I deliver my body to be burned, yet do not have charity, it profits me nothing. Charity is patient, is kind; charity does not envy, is not pretentious, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, is not self-seeking, is not provoked; thinks no evil, does not rejoice over wickedness, but rejoices with the truth; bears with all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Charity never fails, whereas prophecies will disappear, and tongues will cease, and knowledge will be destroyed. For we know in part and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect has come, that which is imperfect will be done away with. When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away the things of a child. We see now through a mirror in an obscure manner, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know even as I have been known. So there abide faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

autem non habuero, nihil sum. Et si distribuero in cibos pauperum omnes facultates meas, et si tradidero corpus meum ita ut ardeam, caritatem autem non habuero, nihil mihi prodest. Caritas patiens est, benigna est: caritas non aemulatur; non agit perperam; non inflatur; non est ambigida; non quae rer quae sua sunt; non irritatur; non cogitat malum; non gaudet super iniquitate, congadet autem veritati; omnia suffert, omnia credit, omnia sperat, omnia sustinet. Caritas numquam excidit, sive prophetiae evacuabuntur, sive linguae cessabant, sive scientia destructor. Ex parte enim cognoscimus, et ex parte prophetamus. Cum autem venerit quod perfectum est, evacuabitur quod ex parte est. Cum essem parvulus, loquebar ut parvulus, sapiebam ut parvulus, cogitabam ut parvulus: quando autem factus sum vir, evacuavi quae erant parvuli. Videmus nunc per speculum in aenigmate: tunc autem facie ad faciem. Nunc cognosco ex parte: tunc autem cognoscam sicut et cognitus sum. Nunc autem manent, fides, spes, caritas, tria haec: major autem horum est caritas.
Responsory. Ps. 76, 15.16. You are the God who alone does wonders. You have made Your power known among the nations. ὢς. With Your arm You have redeemed Your people, the children of Israel and of Joseph.

Tract. Ps. 99, 1-2. Sing joyfully to God, all the earth; serve the Lord with gladness. ὢς. Come in before His presence with exceeding great joy. ὢς. Know that the Lord is God. ὢς. He made us and not we ourselves, but we are His people, and the sheep of His pasture.

Gospel. Luke 18, 31-43. At that time, Jesus taking to Himself the Twelve said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all things that have been written by the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be accomplished. For He will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked and scourged and spit upon; and after they have scourged Him, they will put Him to death; and on the third day He will rise again.” And they understood none of these things and this saying was hidden from them, neither did they get to know the things that were being said. Now it came to pass as...
He drew near to Jericho, that a certain blind man was sitting by the wayside, begging; but hearing a crowd passing by, he inquired what this might be. And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" And they who went in front angrily tried to silence him. But he cried out all the louder, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Then Jesus stopped and commanded that he should be brought to Him. And when he drew near, He asked him, saying, "What would you have Me do for you?" And he said, "Lord, that I may see." And Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight, your faith has saved you." And at once he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people upon seeing it gave praise to God.

Offertory. Ps. 118, 12-13. Blessed are You, O Lord, teach me Your justifications. With my lips I have pronounced all the judgments of Your mouth.

Secret. May these offerings, O Lord, we beseech You, cleanse us from our sins and sanctify the bodies and minds of Your servants for the celebration of this sacrifice: through our Lord.
Communion. Ps. 77, 29-30. They ate and were filled exceedingly, and the Lord gave them their desire; they were not defrauded of that which they craved.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have partaken of this heavenly food, may find in it strength against all adversities: through our Lord.

ASH WEDNESDAY

After the Seven Penitential Psalms, p. 332, the following is said:

Antiphon. Remember not, O Lord, our faults, nor those of our parents; neither take vengeance on our sins.

℣. Lord have mercy on us. Ὑ. Christ have mercy on us. Ὑ. Lord have mercy on us.

Our Father . . . And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil.

℣. Save Your servants. Ὑ. My God, who put their trust in You.

℣. Send them help, O Lord, from Your holy place. Ὑ. And defend them out of Sion.

Communio. Manducaverunt, et saturati sunt nimis, et desideriorum eorum attulit eis Dominus: non sunt fraudati a desiderio suo.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepimus, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Antiphona. Ne reminiscaris Domine, delicta nostra, vel parentum nostrorum: neque vindictam sumás de peccatis nostris.

℣. Kyrie eleison. Ὑ. Christe eleison. Ὑ. Kyrie eleison.

Pater noster . . . Et ne nos inducas in tentationem. Sed libera nós a malo.

℣. Salvos fac servos tuos. Ὑ. Deus meus sperantes in te.

℣. Mitte eis, Domine, auxilium de sancto. Ὑ. Et de Sion tuere eós.
Y. Be unto them, O Lord, a tower of strength. R. From the face of the enemy.

Y. O Lord, hear my prayer. R. And let my cry come unto You.

Y. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

Collect. Hear our prayers, O Lord, and forgive the sins of such as confess to You; that those whom a guilty conscience does accuse, Your forgiving mercy may absolve: through Christ our Lord.

Absolution. May the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave to blessed Peter, His apostle, the power of binding and loosing, Himself absolve you from every bond of sin; and, as far as my frailty does allow, may you be absolved before the tribunal of Jesus Christ, our Lord, from all your sins and negligences: and hereafter possess eternal life and live forever and ever. R. Amen.

Y. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

Let Us Pray. O almighty and eternal God, who have mercy on all and hate nothing that You have made, who overlook the sins of such as do penance and such as are burdened with troubles: deign to bless and sanctify these ashes which, as a sign of humility and holy religion, You have ordained, after the example of the men of Ninive that we should bear upon our foreheads unto the cleansing of our sins; and grant that by the invocation of Your name, all they who shall bear them upon their heads as an appeal to Your mercy may deserve to receive of You the pardon of their sins, and today, so begin this holy fast that on the day of resurrection they may be worthy to draw near with purified hearts to the holy feast of Easter, and to receive never-ending glory in the life to come: through Jesus Christ our Lord. R. Amen.

Antiphons. Hear us, O Lord, for Your mercy is kind; look upon us, O Lord, according to the multitude of Your tender mercies. Ὡ. Ps. 68, 1. Save me, O God, for the waters have come in even unto my soul.

Between the porch and the altar the priests and the Levites, the ministers of the Lord, shall weep and shall say: “Spare, O Lord, spare Your people, and shut not the mouths of those who cry to You, O Lord.”

in necessitate laborantibus: bene dicere, et sanctificare dignare hos cineres, quos causa humilitatis, et sanctae religionis, ad emundanda nostra delicta, super capita nostra ferre constituisti more Ninivitarum; et da per invocationem tui nominis, ut omnes, qui eos, ad deprecandam misericordiam tuam, super sua capita tulerint, a te mereantur omnium delictorum suorum veniam accipere, et hodie sic jejunia inchoare sancta, ut in die resurrectonis, purificatis mentibus, ad sanctum mereantur accedere Pascha, et in futuro perpetuam percipere gloriam. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. R. Amen.

Antiphonae. Exaudi nos Domine, quoniam benigna est misericordia tua: secundum multitudinem miserationum tuarum respice nos Domine. Ὡ. Salvum me fac Deus: quoniam intraverunt aquae usque ad animam meam.

Inter vestibulum et altare plorabunt sacerdote, et Levitae ministri Domini, et dicent: Parce Domine, parce populo tuo et ne claudas ora clamantium ad te Domine.
Let us change our garments for ashes and sackcloth; let us fast and lament before the Lord; for our God is plenteous in mercy to forgive our sins.

Here the priest places the ashes on the foreheads of the people in the form of a cross, saying:—

Remember that you are dust and into dust you shall return.

 Veni, show us Your mercy, O Lord.
 Re, And give unto us Your salvation.
 Veni, The Lord be with you. Re. And with your spirit.

Collect. Grant us, O Lord, to begin the exercises of our Christian warfare with holy fastings, that we who are to fight against the powers of darkness may be strengthened by the power of self-restraint: through Christ our Lord. Re. Amen.

Immutemur habitu, in cinere et cilicio: jejunemus et ploremus ante Dominum: quia multum misericors est, dimittere peccata nostra, Deus noster.

Memento quia cinis es, et in cinerem reverteris.

Ven. Ostende nobis Domine misericordiam tuam.

Re. Et salutare tuum da nobis.

THE MASS

Office. Wisd. 11, 24.25.27. You have mercy upon all, O Lord, and hate none of the things which You have made, and overlook the sins of men for the sake of repentance and spare them for You are the Lord our God. Ps. 56, 2. Have mercy on me; O God, have mercy on me, for my soul trusts in You. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Grant to Your faithful, O Lord, to undertake the holy days of fasting with a fitting love and to carry them through to the end with steadfast devotion: through our Lord.

Epistle. Joel 2, 12-19. Thus says the Lord: “Be converted to Me with all your heart, in fasting and in weeping and in mourning. And rend your hearts and not your garments, and turn to the Lord your God: for He is gracious and merciful, patient and rich in mercy, and ready to repent of the evil. Who knows but He will return and forgive and leave a blessing behind Him, sacrifice and libation to the Lord your God? Blow the trumpet in Sion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather together the people, sanctify the Church, assemble the ancients, gather together the little ones and those who suck at the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth from his bed and the bride out of her bride chamber. Between the porch and the altar, the priests, the Lord’s ministers, shall weep and shall say: Spare, O Lord, spare Your people: and give not Your inheritance to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them. Why should they say among the nations: Where is their God? The Lord has been zealous for His land, and has spared His people. And the Lord answered and said to His people: Behold I will send you corn and wine and oil, and you shall be filled with them: and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations,” says the Lord almighty.

Resporsory. Ps. 54, 2.4. Have mercy on me, O God, have mercy on me; for my soul trusts in You.

Tract. Ps. 102, 10. Deal not with us, O Lord, according to our sins; nor reward us according to our iniquities. Æ. Ps. 78, 8-9. Remember not, O Lord, our former iniquities; let Your mercies speedily prevent us, for we are becoming very poor. Æ. (Here all kneel.) Help us, O God our Savior, and for the glory of Your name, O Lord, deliver us, and forgive us our sins for Your name's sake.

Gospel. Matt. 6, 16-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "When you fast, do not look gloomy like the hypocrites, who disfigure their faces in order to appear to men as fasting. Amen I say to you, they have received their reward. But you, when you do fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you may not be seen fasting by men, but by your Father, who is in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you. Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where rust and moth consume; and where thieves break in and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither rust nor moth consumes, nor thieves break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be."

Æ. Ps. Domine ne memineris iniquitatum nostrarum antiquarum: cito anticipe nos misericordiae tuae, quia pauperes facti sumus nimis. Æ. (Hic genuflectitur.) Adjuva nos Deus salutaris noster: et propter gloriam nominis tui Domine libera nos: et propitius esto peccatis nostris propter nomen tuum.

Offertory. Ps. 29, 2-3. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have upheld me and have not made my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, I have cried to You and You have healed me. _Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Make us, O Lord, we pray, truly fit to offer these gifts whereby we commemorate the institution of this blessed sacrament: through our Lord. _Preface: No. 3, p. 647._

Communion. Ps. 1, 2-3. He who shall meditate upon the law of the Lord, day and night, shall bring forth his fruit in due season.

Postcommunion. May the sacraments received by us, O Lord, be our support, that our fasts may be pleasing to You and a well-spring of healing to us: through our Lord.

_After the final Amen, the Priest immediately says:_

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Look mercifully, O Lord, upon all who bow themselves before Your majesty that such as have been refreshed by Your divine gift may evermore be nourished by Your heavenly aid: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Exaltabo te Domine, quoniam suscepisti me, nec delectasti inimicos meos super me: Domine clamavi ad te, et sanasti me.

Secreta. Fac nos, quaesumus Domine, his muneribus offerendis convenienter aptari, quibus ipsius venerabilis sacramenti celebramus exordium. Per Dominum.

Communio. Qui meditabitur in lege Domini die ac nocte, dabit fructum suum in tempore suo.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Inclinantes se, Domine, majestati tuae propitius intende: ut qui divino munere sunt refecti, caelestibus semper nutriantur auxiliis. Per Dominum.
Office. Ps. 54, 17.19.20.23. When I cried to the Lord, He heard my voice from those who draw near to me; and He humbled them, who is before all ages, and remains forever. Cast your care upon the Lord, and He shall sustain you. Ps. 54, 2-3. Hear, O God, my prayer and despise not my supplication; be attentive to me and hear me. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria. The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. O God, You are moved to anger by sin, and to forgiveness by penance; mercifully regard the prayers of Your people who beseech You, and withhold the scourges of Your wrath, which we have merited because of our sins: through our Lord.

Epistle. Isa. 38, 1-6. In those days, Ezechias was sick even to death; and Isaias the son of Amos the prophet came to him, and said to him, “Thus says the Lord: Take order with your house, for you shall die, and not live.” And Ezechias turned his face toward the wall and prayed to the Lord, and said, “I beseech You, O Lord, remember how I have walked before You in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in Your sight.” And Ezechias wept with great weeping. And the word of the Lord came to Isaias, saying, “Go and say to Ezéchias: Thus says the Lord the God of David your father: I have heard your prayer, and I have seen your tears; behold, I will add to your days fifteen years; and I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of the Assyrians, and I will protect it, says the Lord almighty.”

Responsory. Ps. 54, 23.17-19. Cast your care upon the Lord and He shall sustain you. When I cried to the Lord He heard my voice from those who draw near to me.

Gospel. Matt. 8, 5-13. At that time, when Jesus had enter Capharnaum, there came to Him a centurion who entreated Him, saying, “Lord, my servant is lying sick in the house, paralyzed, and is grievously afflicted.” Jesus said to him, “I will come and cure him.” But in answer the centurion said, “Lord, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof; but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I too am a man subject to authority, and have soldiers subject to me; and I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it.” And when Jesus heard this, He marveled, and said to those who were following Him, “Amen I say to you, I have not found such great faith in Israel. And I tell you that many will come from the east and from the west, and will feast with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven, but the children of the kingdom will be put forth into the darkness outside; there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth.” Then Jesus said to the centurion, “Go your way; as you have believed, so be it done to you.” And the servant was healed in that hour.

Offertory. Ps. 24, 1-3. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul, in You, O my God, I put my trust; let me not be ashamed. Neither let my enemies laugh at me, for no one who waits for You shall be confounded.

Communion. Ps. 50, 21. You will accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations, and holocausts, upon Your altar, O Lord.

Postcommunion. Now that we have received the blessing of this heavenly gift, we humbly pray You, almighty God, that it may be to us an assurance of sacramental grace and of salvation: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Spare, O Lord, spare Your people; that whereas they have been chastised by well-deserved punishments, they may find relief in Your tender compassion: through our Lord.

FRIDAY AFTER ASH WEDNESDAY

Office. Ps. 29, 11. The Lord has heard, and has had mercy on me. The Lord became my helper. Ps. 29, 2. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have upheld me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Further with gracious kindness, we beseech You, O Lord, the fasts we have begun; that the ob-

Epistle. Isa. 58, 1-9. Thus says the Lord God: "Cry, cease not, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and show My people their wicked doings and the house of Jacob their sins. For they seek Me from day to day and desire to know My ways, as a nation that has done justice and has not forsaken the judgment of their God; they ask of Me the judgments of justice; they are willing to approach to God. Why have we fasted, and You have not regarded; have we humbled our souls, and You have not taken notice? Behold, in the day of your fast your own will is found and you exact of all your debtors. Behold you fast for debates and strife, and strike with the fist wickedly. Do not fast as you have done until this day, to make your cry to be heard on high. Is this such a fast as I have chosen, for a man to afflict his soul for a day? Is this it, to wind his head about like a circle, and to spread sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast and a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this rather the fast that I have chosen? Loose the bands of wickedness, undo the bundles that oppress, let those that are broken go free, and break asunder every burden. Deal your bread to the hungry, and bring the needy and the harborless into your house: when you shall see one naked, cover him and despise not your own flesh. Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your health shall speedily arise, and your justice shall go before your face, and the glory of the Lord shall gather you up. Then shall you call, and the Lord shall hear; you shall cry, and He shall say: Here I am. For I the Lord your God am merciful.”

Responsorium. Ps. 26, 4. One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord. Yf. That I may see the delight of the Lord, and be protected in His holy temple. Tract, p. 96.

Gospel. Matt. 5, 43—6, 4. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor, and shall hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who persecute and calumniate you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven, who makes His sun to rise on the good and the evil, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. For if you love those that love you, what reward shall you have? Do not even the publicans do that? And if you salute your brethren only, what are you doing more than others? Do not even the Gentiles do that? You therefore are to be perfect, even as your heavenly Father is perfect. Take heed not to do your good before men, in order to be seen by them; otherwise you shall have no reward with your Father in heaven. Therefore when you give alms, do not sound a trumpet before you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and streets, in order that they may be honored by men. Amen I say to you, they have received their reward. But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your alms may be given in secret; and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.”

Epistle. Isa. 58, 9-14. Thus says the Lord God: "If you will take away the chain out of the midst of you, and cease to stretch out the finger and to speak that which profits not; when you shall pour out your soul to the hungry and shall satisfy the afflicted soul, then shall your light rise up in darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday. And the Lord will give you rest continually, and will fill your soul with brightness and deliver your bones, and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a fountain of water whose waters shall not fail. And the places that have been desolate for ages shall be built in you; you shall raise up the foundations of generation and generation: and you shall be called the repairer of the fences, turning the paths into rest. If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your own will in My holy day, and call the Sabbath delightful, and the holy of the Lord..."

Responsory. Ps. 26, 4. One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord.

Gospel. Mark 6, 47-56. At that time, when it was late, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and Jesus alone on the land. And seeing His disciples straining at the oars, for the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking upon the sea, and He would have passed by them. But they, seeing Him walking upon the sea, thought it was a ghost, and cried out. For they all saw Him, and were troubled. Then He immediately spoke to them, and said to them, "Take courage; it is I, do not be afraid." And He got into the boat with them, and the wind fell.
And they were utterly beside themselves with astonishment, for they had not understood about the loaves, because their heart was blinded. And crossing over, they came to the land at Genesareth and moored the boat. And when they had gotten out of the boat, the people at once recognized Him; and they hurried through that whole country, and began to bring the sick on their pallets, wherever they heard He was. And wherever He went, into village or hamlet or town, they laid the sick in the market places, and entreated Him to let them touch but the tassel of His cloak; and as many as touched Him were saved.

Prayer. Let Your faithful people, O God, be strengthened by Your gifts; that they may seek again what they have received, and by seeking may receive the same forever: through our Lord.

THE FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT

Office. Ps. 90, 15.16. He shall call upon Me, and I will hear him; I will deliver him, and glorify him; I will fill him with length of days. ¶ He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, shall abide under the protection of the God of Heaven. Glory.

Collect. O God, You purify Your Church by the yearly observance of the Lenten fast. Grant that what Your children strive to obtain from You by abstinence, they may attain by good works: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Caelestis vitae munere vegetati, quaesumus Domine, ut quod est nobis in praesenti vita mysterium, fiat aeternitatis auxilium. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humilitate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Fideles tui, Deus, per tua dona firmentur: ut eadem et percipiendo requirant, et quaerendo sine fine percipiant. Per Dominum.

Officium. Invocabit me, et ego exaudiam eum; eripiam eum, et glorificabo eum; longitudine dierum adimplebo eum. ¶ Qui habitat in adjutorio Altissimi, in protectione Dei caeli commorabitur. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiam tuam annua quadragesimali observatione purificas; praesta familiae tuae ut quod a te obtinere abstinenso nititur, hoc bonis operibus exsequatur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 2 Cor. 6, 1-10. Brethren: We entreat you not to receive the grace of God in vain. For He says, "In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you." Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation! We give no offense to anyone, that our ministry may not be blamed. On the contrary, let us conduct ourselves in all circumstances as God's ministers, in much patience; in tribulations, in hardships, in distresses; in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults; in labors, in sleepless nights, in fastings; in innocence, in knowledge, in long-sufferings; in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unaffected love; in the word of truth, in the power of God; with the armor of justice on the right hand and on the left; in honor and dishonor, in evil report and good report; as deceivers and yet truthful, as unknown and yet well known, as dying, and behold, we live, as chastised but not killed, as sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet enriching many, as having nothing yet possessing all things.

Respensorium. Ps. 90, 11-12. God has given His angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways. They in their hands they shall bear you up, lest at any time you dash your foot against a stone.

Tract. He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High, shall abide under the protection of the God of heaven. They shall say to the Lord: You are my protector, and my refuge: my God, in Him will I trust. They. For He has delivered me from the snare of the hunters and from the sharp word. They. He will overshadow you with His shoulders, and under His wings you shall trust. They. His truth shall compass you with a shield; you shall not be afraid of the terror of the night. They. Of the arrow that flies in the day; of the business that walks in the dark; of ruin, or of the noonday devil. They. A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; but it shall not come near to you. They. For He has given His angels charge over you to keep you in all your ways. They. In their hands they shall bear you up lest you dash your foot against a stone. They. You shall walk upon the asp and the basilisk, and you shall trample underfoot the lion and the dragon.
Because he has hoped in Me, I will deliver him; I will protect him, because he has known My name. ¶ He shall call upon Me, and I will hear him; I am with him in tribulation. ¶ I will deliver him, and I will glorify him; I will fill him with length of days, and I will show him My salvation.

Gospel. Matt. 4, 1-11. At that time, Jesus was led into the desert by the Spirit, to be tempted by the devil. And after fasting forty days and forty nights, He was hungry. And the tempter came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread.” But He answered and said, “It is written, ‘Not by bread alone does man live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of God.’” Then the devil took Him into the holy city and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down; for it is written, ‘He has given His angels charge concerning You; and upon their hands they shall bear You up, lest You dash Your foot against a stone.’” Jesus said to him, “It is written further, ‘You shall not tempt the Lord your God.’” Again, the devil took Him to a very

Et accedens tentator, dixit ei: Si Filius Dei es, dic ut lapides isti panes fiant. Qui respondens, dixit: Scriptum est: Non in solo pane vivit homo, sed in omni verbo quod procedit de ore Dei. Tunc assumpsit eum diabolus in sanctam civitatem, et statuit eum super pinnaculum templi, et dixit ei: Si Filius Dei es, mitte te deorsum. Scriptum est enim: Quia angelis suis mandavit de te, et in manibus tollent te, ne forte offendas ad lapidem pedem tuum. Ait illi Jesus: Rursum scriptum est: Non tentabis Dominum Deum tuum. MONDAY, FIRST WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 122, 2. As the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters, so are our eyes on the Lord our God, until He have mercy on us. Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us. Ps. 122, 1. To You have I lifted up my eyes who dwell in heaven. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Convert us, O God our Savior; and that this Lenten fast may be profitable to us, enlighten our minds by its heavenly teaching: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ezech. 34, 11-16. Thus says the Lord God: “Behold I myself will seek My sheep, and will visit them. As the shepherd visits his flock in the day when he shall be in the midst of his sheep that were scattered; so will I visit My sheep, and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. And I will bring them out from the peoples, and will gather them out of the countries, and will bring them to their own land; and

I will feed them in the mountains of Israel, by the rivers and in all the habitations of the land. I will feed them in the most fruitful pastures, and their pastures shall be in the high mountains of Israel; there shall they rest on the green grass, and be fed in fat pastures upon the mountains of Israel. I will feed My sheep; and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord God. I will seek that which was lost, and that which was driven away I will bring again; and I will bind up that which was broken; and I will strengthen that which was weak; and that which was fat and strong I will preserve; and I will feed them in judgment," says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 83, 10.9. Behold, O God our protector, and look on Your servants. O Lord God of hosts, graciously hear the prayers of Your servants.

from the goats; and He will set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left. Then the king will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, blessed of My Father, take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave Me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me to drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; naked and you covered Me; sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me.' Then the just will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You; or thirsty, and give You drink? And when did we see You a stranger, and take You in; or naked, and clothe You? Or when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?' And answering the king will say to them, 'Amen I say to you, as long as you did it for one of these, the least of My brethren, you did it for Me.' Then He will say to those on His left hand, 'Depart from Me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire which was prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry, and you did not give Me to eat; I was thirsty and you gave Me no drink; I was a stranger and you did not take Me in; naked, and you did not clothe Me; sick, and in prison, and you did not visit Me.’ Then they also will answer Him and say, ‘Lord, when did we see You hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to You?’ Then He will answer them, saying, ‘Amen I say to you, as long as you did not do it for one of these least ones, you did not do it for Me.’ And these will go into everlasting punishment, but the just into everlasting life.”

Epistle. Isa. 55, 6-11. In those days, the Prophet Isaias spoke, saying, "Seek the Lord while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way and the unjust man his thoughts, and let him return to the Lord, and He will have mercy on him, and to our God, for He is bountiful to forgive. For My thoughts are not your thoughts; nor your ways My ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are exalted above the earth, so are My ways exalted above your ways, and My thoughts above your thoughts. And as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and return no more thither, but soak the earth, and water it, and make it to spring, and give seed to the sower and bread to the eater; so shall My word be, which shall go forth from My mouth. It shall not return to Me void, but it shall do whatsoever I please and shall prosper in the things for which I sent it," says the Lord almighty.

Gospel. Matt. 21, 10-17. At that time, when Jesus entered Jerusalem, all the city was thrown into com- motion, saying, "Who is this?" But the crowds kept on saying, "This is Jesus the prophet from Nazareth of Galilee." And Jesus entered the temple of God, and cast out all those who were selling and buying in the temple, and He overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who sold the doves. And He said to them, "It is written, 'My house shall be called a house of prayer'; but you have made it a den of thieves." And the blind and the lame came to Him in the temple, and He healed them. But the chief priests and the Scribes, seeing the wonderful deeds that He did, and the children crying out in the temple, and saying, "Hosanna to the Son of David," were indignant, and said to Him, "Do You hear what these are saying?" And Jesus said to them, "Yes; have you never read, 'Out of the mouth of infants and sucklings You have perfected praise'?" And leaving them, He went out of the city to Bethany and He stayed there.

Collect. Mercifully hear our prayers, O Lord, we beseech You, and stretch forth the right hand of Your majesty against all our foes: through our Lord.

Lesson. Ex. 24, 12-18. In those days, the Lord said to Moses, “Come up to Me on the mountain and, while you are there, I will give you the stone tablets on which I have written the law and the commandments that you may teach the children of Israel.” So Moses set out with Josue, his aide, and went up to the mountain of God. The elders, however, had been told by him, “Wait here for us until we return to you. Aaron and Hur are staying with you. If anyone has a complaint, let him refer the matter to them.” After Moses had gone up, a cloud covered the mountain. The glory of the Lord settled upon Mount Sinai. The cloud covered it for six days, and on the seventh day He called to Moses from the midst of the cloud. To the Israelites the glory of the Lord was seen as a consuming fire on the mountain top. But Moses passed into the midst of the cloud as he went up on the mountain; and there he stayed for forty days and forty nights.

_Responsory._ *Ps. 24, 17-18._ The troubles of my heart are multiplied, deliver me from my necessities, O Lord.

_Responsory._ *Ps. 24, 17-18._ The troubles of my heart are multiplied, deliver me from my necessities, O Lord.

_Y._ See my abjection and my labor, and forgive me all my sins.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

_Collect._ Look down in mercy, O Lord, we beseech You, on the devotion of Your people; that as they mortify their bodies by abstinence, they may be refreshed in mind by the fruit of good deeds: through our Lord.

_Epistle._ *3 Kgs. 19, 3-8._ In those days, Elias came to Bersabee of Juda, and left his servant there, and he went forward, one day’s journey into the desert. And when he was there, and sat under a juniper tree, he requested for his soul that he might die, and said, “It is enough for me, Lord; take away my soul, for I am no better than my fathers.” And he cast himself down, _Responsorium._ Tribulationes cordes mei dilatatae sunt: de necessitatibus meis eripe me, Domine.

_Y._ Vide humilitatem meam, et laborem meum, et dimitte omnia peccata mea.

_Oratio._ Devotionem populi tui, quaecumque Domine, benignus intende, ut qui per abstinentiam macerantur in corpore, per fructum boni operis reficientur in mente. Per Dominum.

_Epistola._ In diebus illis: Venit Elias in Bersabee Juda, et dimisit ibi puernum suum, et perrexit in desertum, viam unius diei. Cumque venisset, et sederet subter unam juniperum, petivit animae suae ut moreretur, et ait: Sufficit mihi Domine: tolle animam meam; neque enim melior sum and slept in the shadow of the juniper tree. And, behold, an angel of the Lord touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat." He looked, and behold, there was at his head a hearth-cake, and a vessel of water; and he ate and drank, and fell asleep again. And the angel of the Lord came again the second time, and touched him, and said to him, "Arise, eat; for you have yet a great way to go." And he arose, and did eat and drink, and walked in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights, unto the mount of God, Horeb.

Tract. Ps. 24, 17.18.1-4. Deliver me from my necessities, O Lord; see my abjection and my labor, and forgive me all my sins. ¶ To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed; neither let my enemies laugh at me. ¶ For no one who waits for You shall be confounded; let all those be confounded who do vain things.

Gospel. Matt. 12, 38-50. At that time, certain of the Scribes and Pharisees answered Him, saying, "Master, we would see a sign from You." But He answered... and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation demands a sign, and no sign shall be given it but the sign of Jonas the prophet. For even as Jonas was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Ninive will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonas, and behold, a greater than Jonas is here. The queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, a greater than Solomon is here. But when the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he roams through dry places in search of rest, and finds none. Then he says, 'I will return to my house which I left'; and when he has come to it, he finds the place unoccupied, swept and decorated. Then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first. So shall it be with this evil generation also.” While He was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and His brethren were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him. And someone said to Him, “Behold, Your mother and Your brethren are standing outside, seeking You.” But He answered and said to him who told Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brethren?” And stretching forth His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold My mother and My brethren! For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, He is My brother and sister and mother.”

Epistle. Ezech. 18, 1-9. In those days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, “What is the meaning that you use among you this parable as a proverb in the land of Israel, saying: The fathers have eaten sour grapes and the teeth of the children are set on edge? As I live, says the Lord God, this parable shall be no more to you a proverb in Israel. Behold all souls are Mine; as the soul of the father, so the soul of the son is Mine; the soul that sins, the same shall die. And if a man be just and do judgment and justice, and has not eaten upon the mountains nor lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, and has not defiled his neighbor’s wife, nor come near to a menstruous woman, and has not wronged any man, but has restored the pledge to the debtor; has taken nothing away by violence; has given his bread to the hungry and has covered the naked with a garment; has not lent upon usury, nor taken any increase; has withdrawn his hand from iniquity and has executed true judgment between man and man; has walked in My commandments, and kept My judgments, to do truth: he is just, he shall surely live,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 16, 8.2. Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of Your eye; protect me under the shadow of Your wings. Let my judgment come forth from Your countenance; let Your eyes behold the things that are equitable.

Gospel. Matt. 15, 21-28. At that time, leaving there, Jesus retired to the district of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman came out of that territory and cried out to Him, saying, “Have pity on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is sorely beset by a devil.” He answered her not a word. And His disciples came up and besought Him, saying, “Send her away, for she is crying after us.” But He answered and said, “I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But she came and worshiped Him, saying, “Lord, help me!” He said in answer, “It is not fair to take the children’s bread and to cast it to the dogs.” But she said, “Yes, Lord; for even the dogs eat of the crumbs that fall from their masters’ table.” Then Jesus answered and said to her, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done to you as you will.” And her daughter was healed from that moment.

Responsorium. Custodi me, Domine, ut pupillam oculi: sub umbra alarum tuarum protege me. De vultu tuo judicium meum prodeat: occuli tui videant aequitatem.

Offertory. Ps. 33, 8-9. The angel of the Lord shall encamp round about them who fear Him and shall deliver them. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that this sacrifice which is begun with wholesome fasts may, in Your mercy, be our salvation: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 3, p. 647.

Communion. John 6, 52. The bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world.

Postcommunion. In the bounty of Your gifts, O Lord, enrich us with helps that are temporal, and renew us by those that are eternal: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Grant unto Christian people, we beseech You, O Lord, to understand what they profess and to love the heavenly gift they approach: through our Lord.

EMBER FRIDAY IN LENT

Office. Ps. 24, 17-18. Deliver me from my distress, O Lord; see my abjection and my labor, and forgive me...

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Be gracious, O Lord, to Your people whom you make devoted to You, and mercifully cherish them with Your loving help: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ezech. 18, 20-28. Thus says the Lord God: "The soul that sins, the same shall die; the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, and the father shall not bear the iniquity of the son: the justice of the just shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked do penance for all his sins which he has committed, and keep all My commandments, and do judgment and justice: living he shall live, and shall not die. I will not remember all his iniquities that he has done; in his justice, which he has wrought, he shall live. Is it My will that a sinner should die, says the Lord God, and not that he should be converted from his ways and live? But if the just man turn himself away from his justice, and do iniquity according to all the abominations which the wicked man uses to work, shall he live? All his justices which he has done shall not be remembered; in the prevarication by which he has prevaricated, and in his sin which he has committed, in them he shall die. And you have said: The way of the Lord is not right. Hear, therefore, O house of Israel: Is it My way that is not right, and are not rather your ways perverse? For when the just turns himself away from his justice and commits iniquity, he shall die therein; in the injustice that he has wrought he shall die. And when the wicked turns himself away from his wickedness, which he has wrought, and does judgment and justice, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considers and turns away himself from all his iniquities which he has wrought, he shall surely live and not die,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 85, 2.6. Save Your servant, O my God, who trusts in You. Æ. Hear, O Lord, my prayer.

Tract, p. 96.

Responsorium. Salvum fac servum tuum, Deus meus, sperantem in te. Æ. Auribus percipe, Domine, orationem meam.

Tractus, p. 96.
Gospel. John 5, 1-15. At that time, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem, by the Sheepgate, a pool called in Hebrew Bethsaida, having five porticoes. In these were lying a great multitude of the sick, blind, lame, and those with shrivelled limbs, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel of the Lord used to come down at certain times into the pool, and the water was troubled. And the first to go down into the pool after the troubling of the water was cured of whatever infirmity he had. Now a certain man was there who had been thirty-eight years under his infirmity. When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been in this state a long time, He said to him, "Do you want to get well?" The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred; for while I am coming, another steps down before me." Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up your pallet and walk." And at once the man was cured. And he took up his pallet and began to walk. Now that day was a Sabbath. The Jews therefore said to him who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath; you are not allowed to take up your pallet.” He answered them, “He who made me well said to me, ‘Take up your pallet and walk.’” They asked him then, “Who is the man who said to you, ‘Take up your pallet and walk’?” But the man who had been healed did not know who it was, for Jesus had quietly gone away, since there was a crowd in the place. Afterwards Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, “Behold, you are cured. Sin no more, lest something worse befall you.” The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him.

Offertory. Ps. 102, 2.5. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all He has done for you, and your youth shall be renewed like the eagle’s.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, we beseech You, the gifts of our service now offered to You; and, in Your mercy, hallow Your own gifts to us: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 6, 11. Let all my enemies be put to shame, and be troubled; let them be turned back and put to shame very speedily.
Postcommunion. By virtue of this mystery, O Lord, may our sins be cleansed, and our just desires be fulfilled: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Hear us, O God of mercy, and show unto our minds the light of Your grace: through our Lord.

EMBER SATURDAY IN LENT

Office. Ps. 87, 3. Let my prayer come before You; incline Your ear to my petition, O Lord. Ps. 87, 2. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day, and in the night before You. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. Look graciously upon Your people, we beseech You, O Lord, and in Your mercy turn aside from them the scourge of Your wrath: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Per hujus, Domine, operationem mysteriorii, et vitia nostra purgentur, et justa desideria compleantur. Per Dominum.

Lesson. Deut. 26, 15-19. In those days, Moses spoke to the Lord, saying: “Look down, then, from heaven, Your holy abode, and bless Your people Israel and the soil You have given us in the land flowing with milk and honey which You promised on oath to our fathers.” This day the Lord, your God, commands you to observe these statutes and decrees. Be careful, then, to observe them with all your heart and with all your soul. Today you are making this agreement with the Lord: He is to be your God and you are to walk in His ways and observe His statutes, commandments and decrees, and to hearken to His voice. And today the Lord is making this agreement with you: you are to be a people peculiarly His own, as He promised you; and provided you keep all His commandments, He will then raise you high in praise and renown and glory above all other nations He has made, and you will be a people sacred to the Lord, your God, as He promised.”

Responsory. Ps. 78, 9.10. Be propitious to our sins, O Lord, lest at any time the Gentiles should say:

Responsorium. Propitius esto, Domine, peccatis nostris, ne quando dicant gentes: Ubi est Deus eorum? Ô. (Hic “Where is their God?” Ὡ. (Here all kneel.) Help us, O God of our salvation, and for the honor of Your name, O Lord, deliver us.

Collect. O God, You know that in such dangers our human weakness cannot stand firm; grant us health of mind and body, that, by Your help, we may overcome what we suffer for our sins: through our Lord.

Lesson. Deut. 11, 22-25. In those days, Moses said to the children of Israel, “If you are careful to observe all these commandments I enjoin on you, loving the Lord, your God, and following His ways exactly, and holding fast to Him, the Lord will drive all these nations out of your way, and you will dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. Every place where you set foot shall be yours: from the desert and from Lebanon, from the Euphrates River to the Western Sea, shall be your territory. None shall stand up against you; the Lord, your God, will spread the fear and dread of you through any land where you set foot, as He promised you, the Lord your God.”

genuflectitetur.) Adjuva nos, Deus salutaris noster: et propter honorem nominis tui, Domine libera nos.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos in tantis periculis constitutos, pro humana scis fragilitate non posse subsistere: da nobis salutem mentis et corporis, ut ea, quae pro peccatis nostris patimur, te, adjuvante vincamus. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 83, 10.9. Behold, O God our protector, and look upon Your servants. V. O Lord God of hosts, hearken to the prayers of Your servants.

Collect. Look down upon us, O God, our protector, and grant that we who are burdened by the weight of our sins, may receive Your mercy and serve You with a free mind: through our Lord.

Lesson. 2 Mach. 1, 23-27. In those days, all the priests made prayer, while the sacrifice was consuming, Jonathan beginning, and the rest answering. And the prayer of Nehemias was after this manner: "O Lord God, creator of all things, dreadful and strong, just and merciful, who alone are the good king, who alone are gracious, who alone are just, and almighty, and eternal, who deliver Israel from all evil, who chose the fathers, and sanctified them; receive the sacrifice for all Your people Israel, and preserve Your own portion, and sanctify it, that the Gentiles may know that You are our God.

Responsorium. Protector noster aspice, Deus et respice super servos tuos. V. Domine Deus virtutum, exaudi preces servorum tuorum.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

Oratio. Protector noster aspice, Deus, ut qui malorum nostrorum pondere premimur, percepta misericordia, libera tibi mente famulemur. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 89, 13.1. Be turned a little, O Lord, and be entreated in favor of Your servants. \textit{V.} Lord, You have been our refuge, from generation to generation.

Collect. Be near to our cries, O Lord, we beseech You, that by Your bounty we may deserve to be humble in every success and steadfast in every trial: through our Lord.

Lesson. Ecclus. 36, 1-10. Have mercy upon us, O God of the universe, and behold us, and show us the light of Your mercies; and put all the nations in dread of You that have not sought after You. Let them know that there is no God beside You, and show forth Your wonders. Raise Your hand against the heathen, that they may realize Your power. As you have used us to show them Your holiness, so now use them to show us Your glory. Thus they will know, as we know, that there is no God but You, O Lord. Give new signs and work new wonders; show forth the splendor of Your right hand and arm; rouse Your anger, pour out wrath, humble the enemy, scatter the foe. Hasten the day, bring on the time; that they may declare Your wonderful works, O Lord, our God.

Responsory. Ps. 140, 2. Let my prayer be directed as incense in Your sight, O Lord. Ὠ. The lifting up of my hands as evening sacrifice.

Collect. Graciously hear, O Lord, the prayers of Your people, that we who are justly afflicted for our sins may, to the glory of Your name, be mercifully delivered: through our Lord.

Lesson, p. 20.

Collect. O God, who tempered the flames of fire for the three young men, mercifully grant that we Your servants may not be consumed by the flames of vice: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Thess. 5, 14-23. Brethren: We exhort you, reprove the irregular, comfort the faint-hearted, support the weak, be patient toward all men. See that no one renders evil for evil to any man; but always strive after good toward one another and toward all men. Rejoice always. Pray without ceasing. In all things give thanks; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus regarding you all. Do not extinguish the Spirit. Do not despise prophecies. But test all things; hold fast that which is good. Keep yourselves from every kind of evil. And may the God of peace Himself sanctify you completely, and may your spirit and soul and body be preserved sound, blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Tract. Ps. 116, 1-2. Praise the Lord, all you nations, praise Him together, all you people. For His mercy is confirmed upon us, and the truth of the Lord endures forever.

Offertory. Ps. 87, 2-3. O Lord the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day and in the night before You, let my prayer come before You, O Lord.

Secret. Sanctify our fasts, O Lord, we beseech You, by these our present sacrifices; that what is an outward rite and profession, may be an inward deed: through our Lord.

Tractus. Laudate Dominum, omnes gentes; et collaudate eum, omnes populi. Quoniam confirma­ta est super nos misericordia ejus: et veritas Domini manet in aeternum.

Offertorium. Domine Deus salutis meae, in die clamavi et nocte coram te: intret oratio mea in conspectu tuo, Domine.

Secreta. Praesentibus sacrificiis, quaesumus Domine, jejunia nostra sanctifica: ut quod observantia nostra profite­tur extrinsecus, interius operetur. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 7, 2. O Lord my God, in You have I put my trust; save me from all them who persecute me, and deliver me.

Postcommunion. By Your holy graces, almighty God, may our sins be blotted out, and everlasting blessings be brought to us: through our Lord.

SECOND SUNDAY IN LENT

Office. Ps. 24, 6.3.22. Remember, O Lord, Your compassion, and Your mercies that are from the beginning of the world, lest at any time our enemies rule over us. Deliver us, O God of Israel, from all our tribulations. Ps. 24, 1-2. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust; let me not be ashamed, Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. O God, You see that we are powerless; protect us from bodily and spiritual dangers, so that we may not be harmed physically and our minds may be cleansed from evil thoughts: through our Lord.

Communionio. Domine Deus meus, in te speravi: libera me ab omnibus persequantibus me, et eripe me.

Officum. Reminiscere miserationum tuarum, Domine, et misericordiae tuae, quae a saeculo sunt, ne unquam dominentur nobis inimici nostri: libera nos, Deus Israel, ex omnibus angustiis nostris. Ps. Ad te, Domine, levavi animam meam: Deus meus, in te confido; non erubescam, Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, qui conspícis omni nos virtute destitui, interius exteriusque custodi: ut ab omnibus adversitatibus muniamur in corpore, et a pravis cogitationibus mundemur in mente. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 1 Thess. 4, 1-7. Brethren: Even as you have learned from us how you ought to walk and to please God—as indeed you are walking—we beseech and exhort you in the Lord Jesus to make even greater progress. For you know what precepts I have given to you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that you abstain from immorality; that every one of you learn how to possess his vessel in holiness and honor, not in the passion of lust like the Gentiles who do not know God; that no one transgress and overreach his brother in the matter, because the Lord is the avenger of all these things, as we have told you before and have testified. For God has not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Tract. Ps. 105, 1-4. Give glory to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever. ¶ Who shall declare the powers of the Lord? who shall set forth all His praises? ¶ Blessed are they who keep judgment and do justice at all times. ¶ Remember us, O Lord, in the favor of Your people; visit us with Your salvation.

Gospel. Matt. 17, 1-9. At that time, Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun, and His garments became white as snow. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking together with Him. Then Peter addressed Jesus, saying, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You will, let us set up three tents here, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elias.” As he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear Him.” And on hearing it the disciples fell on their faces and were exceedingly afraid. And Jesus came near and touched them, and said to them, “Arise, and do not be afraid.” But lifting up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only. And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying, “Tell the vision to no one, till the Son of Man has risen from the dead.”

Offertory. Ps. 118, 47-48. I will meditate on Your commandments, which I have loved exceedingly, and I will lift up my hands to Your commandments, which I have loved.

Secret. Look favorably, we beseech You, O Lord, upon these sacrifices, that they may further our devotion and our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 5, 2-4. Understand my cry; hearken to the voice of my prayer, O my king and my God: for to You will I pray, O Lord.

Postcommunion. Almighty God, we humbly beseech You that those whom You refresh with Your sacraments, may serve You worthily in ways that are pleasing to You: through our Lord.

MONDAY, SECOND WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 25, 11-12. Redeem me, O Lord, and have mercy on me, for my foot has stood in the direct way; in the churches I will bless the Lord. Ps. 25, 1. Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked in my innocence, and hoping in the Lord, I shall not be weakened. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that Your people who mortify their flesh by abstinence from food, may, by following after justice, fast from sin: through our Lord.

Epistle. Dan. 9, 15-19. In those days, Daniel prayed to the Lord, saying, "O Lord our God, who brought forth Your people out of the land of Egypt with a strong hand, and made for Yourself a name as at this day; we have sinned, we have committed iniquity, O Lord, against all Your justice; let Your wrath and Your indignation be turned away, I beseech You, from Your city Jerusalem and from Your holy mountain. For by reason of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Your people are a reproach to all who are round about us. Now therefore, O our God, hear the supplication of Your servant and his prayers; and show Your face upon Your sanctuary which is desolate, for Your own sake. Incline, O my God, Your ear and hear; open Your eyes and see our desolation, and the city upon which Your name is called; for it is not for our justifications that we present our prayers before Your face, but for the multitude of Your tender mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, be appeased; hearken and do; delay not for Your own sake, O my God, because Your name is invoked upon Your city and upon Your people, O Lord our God."

Responsory. Ps. 69, 6.3. Be my helper and my deliverer, O Lord, make no delay. V. Let my enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul.

Gospel. John 8, 21-29. At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews: "I go, and you will seek Me, and in your sin you will die. Where I go you cannot come." The Jews therefore kept saying, "Will He kill Himself, since He says, 'Where I go you cannot come'?" And He said to them, "You are from below, I am from above. You are of this world, I am not of this world. Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sin.” They therefore said to Him, “Who are You?” Jesus said to them, “Why do I speak to you at all? I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you; but He who sent Me is true, and the things that I heard from Him, these I speak in the world.” And they did not understand that He was speaking about God, His Father. Jesus therefore said to them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He, and that of Myself I do nothing; but that I preach only what the Father has taught Me. And He who sent Me is with Me; He has not left Me alone, because I do always the things that are pleasing to Him.”

Offertory. Ps. 15, 7.8. I will bless the Lord who has given me understanding; I set the Lord always in my sight, for He is at my right hand, that I be not moved. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May this victim of atonement and praise, O Lord, make us worthy of Your protection: through our Lord. Preface: No. 3, p. 647.

Offertorium. Benedicam Dominum qui tribuit mihi intellectum: providebam Dominum in conspectu meo semper; quoniam a dextris est mihi; ne commovear.

Secreta. Haec hostia, Domine, placationis et laudis, tua nos protectione dignos efficiat. Per Dominum.
Communion. O Lord, our Lord, how wonderful is Your name in all the earth!

Postcommunion. May this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from sin, and make us partakers of Your heavenly healing: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Be near to our cries, almighty God, and grant that those to whom You give hope of Your mercy may feel the effects of Your wonted clemency: through our Lord.

TUESDAY, SECOND WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 26, 8.9. My heart has said to You: I have sought Your face; Your face, O Lord, will I seek: turn not away Your face from me. Ps. 26, 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria. The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Communio. Domine Dominus noster, quam admirabile est nomen tuum in universa terra!

Postcommunio. Haec nos communio, Domine, purget a crimine, et caelestis remedi faciat esse consortes. Per Dominum.

Collect. Mercifully bring to perfection within us, O Lord, we beseech You, the virtue of this holy observ- ance; that what we have by Your command undertaken, we may by Your assistance fulfil: through our Lord.

Epistle. 3 Kgs. 17, 8-16. In those days, the word of the Lord came to Elias the Thesbite, saying, “Arise, and go to Sarephta of the Sidonians, and dwell there, for I have commanded a widow woman there to feed you.” He arose, and went to Sarephta. And when he was come to the gate of the city, he saw the widow woman gathering sticks, and he called to her, and said to her, “Give me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.” And when she was going to fetch it, he called after her, saying, “Bring me also, I beseech you, a morsel of bread in your hand.” And she answered, “As the Lord your God lives, I have no bread, but only a handful of meal in a pot, and a little oil in a cruse. Behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.” And Elias said to her, “Fear not, but go and do as you have said; but first make for me of the same meal a little hearth cake, and bring it to me; and after make for yourself and your son. For thus says the Lord the God of Israel, 'The pot of meal shall not waste, nor the cruse of oil be diminished, until the day wherein the Lord will give rain upon the face of the earth.'” She went, and did according to the word of Elias; and he ate, and she and her house; and from that day the pot of meal wasted not, and the cruse of oil was not diminished, according to the word of the Lord which He spoke in the hand of Elias.

Responsory. Ps. 54, 23.17.18.19. Cast your care upon the Lord and He shall sustain you. When I cried to the Lord, He heard my voice, from them who draw near to me.

Gospel. Matt. 23, 1-12. At that time, Jesus spoke to the crowds and to His disciples, saying, “The Scribes and the Pharisees have sat on the chair of Moses. All things, therefore, that they command you, observe and do. But do not act according to their works; for they talk but do nothing. And they bind together heavy and oppressive burdens, and lay them on men’s shoulders; but not with one finger of their own do they choose to move them. In fact, all their works they do in order to be seen by men; for they widen their phylacteries, and enlarge their tassels, and love the first places at suppers and the front seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the market place, and to be called by men 'Rabbi.' But do not you be called 'Rabbi'; for one is your Master, and all you are brothers. And call no one on earth your father; for one is your Father, who is in heaven. Neither be called masters; for one only is your Master, the Christ. He who is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted."

Offertory. Ps. 50, 3. Have mercy on me, O Lord, according to Your great mercy; O Lord, blot out my iniquity. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Mercifully work Your sanctification within us, O Lord, by means of these mysteries; may they purify us from earthly vices, and lead us to heavenly gifts: through our Lord. Preface: No. 3, p. 647.
Communion. Ps. 9, 2-3. I will relate all Your wonders; I will be glad and rejoice in You; I will sing praise to Your name, O Most High.

Postcommunion. That we may be worthy of Your sacred gifts, O Lord, make us, we beseech You, ever obedient to Your commands: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Be appeased, O Lord, with our prayers, and heal the ills of our souls, that we may be forgiven our sins and ever rejoice in Your blessing: through our Lord.

WEDNESDAY, SECOND WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 37, 22-23. Forsake me not, O Lord my God, do not depart from me; attend to my help, O Lord, the power of my salvation. Ps. 37, 2. Rebuke me not, O Lord, in Your indignation; nor chastise me in Your wrath. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.
The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Postcommunio. Ut sacris, Domine, reddamur digni muneraibus, fac nos tuis, quaesumus, semper obedienti mandatis. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humilate capita vestra Deo.

Officium. Ne derelinquas me, Domine Deus meus, ne discedas a me: intende in adjuncturium meum, Domine virtus salutis meae. Ps. Domine, ne in furore tuo arguas me: neque in ira tua corripias me. Gloria Patri.

Collect. Look down in mercy upon Your people, O Lord, we pray You; and grant that those whom You command to abstain from flesh meats, may likewise cease from evil deeds: through our Lord.

Epistle. Esther 13, 8-11; 15-17. In those days, Mardochai prayed to the Lord, saying, “O Lord, Lord, almighty King, for all things are in Your power, and there is none that can resist Your will, if You determine to save Israel. You have made heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven. You are Lord of all, and there is none that can resist Your majesty. And now, O Lord, O King, O God of Abraham, have mercy on Your people, because our enemies resolve to destroy us, and extinguish Your inheritance. Despise not Your portion, which You have redeemed for Yourself out of Egypt. Hear my supplication, and be merciful to Your lot and inheritance, and turn our mourning into joy, that we may live and praise Your name, O Lord, and shut not the mouths of those who sing to You, O Lord our God.”

Oratio. Populum tuum, quaesumus Domine, propitius respice: et quos ab escis carnalibus praecepis abstinere, a noxiis quoque vitiiis cessare concede. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 27, 9.1. Save Your people, O Lord, and bless Your inheritance. \( \Psi \). Unto You have I cried, O Lord my God; be not silent to me, lest I become like them who go down into the pit. Tract, p. 96.

Gospel. Matt. 20, 17-28. At that time, as Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and said to them, “Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the Scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified; and on the third day He will rise again.” Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to Him with her sons; and worshiping, she made a request of Him. He said to her, “What do you want?” She said to Him, “Command that these my two sons may sit, one at Your right hand and one at Your left hand, in Your kingdom.” But Jesus answered and said, “You do not know what you are asking for. Can you drink of the cup of which I am about to drink?” They said to Him, “We can.” He said to them, “Of My cup you shall indeed drink; but as for sitting at My right hand and at My left, that is not Mine to give you, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.” And when the ten heard this, they were indignant at the two brothers. But Jesus called them to Him, and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. Not so is it among you. On the contrary, whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant; and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be your slave; even as the Son of Man has not come to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Responsorium. Salvum fac populum tuum, Domine, et benedic haereditati tuae. \( \Psi \). Ad te, Domine, clamavi; Deus meus, ne sileas a me, et ero similis descendentibus in lacum. Tractus, p. 96.

Offertory. Ps. 24, 1-3. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed; neither let my enemies laugh at me; for none of them who wait for You shall be confounded.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look down in mercy upon this victim which we offer to You, O Lord, and through these hallowed services set free the chains of our sins: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 10, 8. The Lord is just, and has loved justice; His countenance has beheld righteousness.

Postcommunion. We pray You, O Lord, that the saving sacrament we have received, may further our growth in everlasting redemption: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. O God, the restorer and lover of innocence, draw unto Yourself the hearts of Your servants; that enkindled with the fire of Your Spirit, they may be steadfast in faith and fruitful in good deeds: through our Lord.

THURSDAY, SECOND WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 69, 2-3. O God, come to my assistance, O Lord, make haste to help me; let my enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul. Ps. 69, 4. Let them be turned backward and blush for shame, who desire evil for me. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Postcommunio. Sumptis, Domine, sacramentis, ad redemptionis aeternae, quaesumus, proficiamus augmentum. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Collect. Grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, the assistance of Your grace: that while we duly set ourselves to fasting and prayer, we may be freed from every foe of soul and body: through our Lord.

Epistle. Jer. 17, 5-10. Thus says the Lord God, “Cursed be the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the Lord. For he shall be like tamaric in the desert, and he shall not see when good shall come: but he shall dwell in dryness in the desert, in a salt land, and not inhabited. Blessed be the man who trusts in the Lord, and the Lord shall be his confidence. And he shall be as a tree that is planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots toward moisture; and it shall not fear when the heat comes. And the leaf thereof shall be green, and in the time of drought it shall not be solicitous, neither shall it cease at any time to bring forth fruit. The heart is perverse above all things, and unsearchable; who can know it? I am the Lord who search the heart, and prove the reins; who give to everyone according to his way, and according to the fruit of his devices,” says the Lord almighty.

Oratio. Praesta nobis, quaesumus Domine, auxilium gratiae tuae: ut jejuniis et orationibus convenienter intenti, liberemur ab hostibus mentis et corporis. Per Dominum.

Responsesy. Ps. 78, 9-10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the Gentiles should say, “Where is their God?” Ὡ. (Here all kneel.) Help us, O God, our Savior, and for the honor of Your name, O Lord, deliver us.

Gospel. Luke 16, 19-31. At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees, “There was a certain rich man who used to clothe himself in purple and fine linen, and who feasted every day in splendid fashion. And there was a certain poor man, named Lazarus, who lay at his gate, covered with sores, and longing to be filled with the crumbs that fell from the rich man’s table but no one gave them to him; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. And it came to pass that the poor man died and was borne away by the angels into Abraham’s bosom; but the rich man also died and was buried in hell. And lifting up his eyes, being in torments, he saw Abraham afar off and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried out and said, ‘Father Abraham, have pity on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.’ But Abraham said to him, ‘Son, remember that you in your lifetime have received good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now here he is comforted whereas you are tormented. And besides all that, between us and you a great gulf is fixed, so that they who wish to pass over from this side to you cannot, and they cannot pass from your side to us.' And he said, 'Then, father, I beseech you to send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they too come into this place of torments.' And Abraham said to him, 'They have Moses and the Prophets, let them hearken to them.' But he answered, 'No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' But he said to him, 'If they do not hearken to Moses and the Prophets, they will not believe even if someone rises from the dead.'"

Offertory. Ex. 32, 11.13.14. Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said, "Why, O Lord, are You angry with Your people? Let the anger of Your soul be appeased; remember Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to whom You swore that You would give the land flowing with milk and honey." So the Lord relented in the punishment He had threatened to inflict on His people.

quia recepisti bona in vita tua, et Lazarus similiter mala: nunc autem hic consolatur, tu vero cruciaris. Et in his omnibus, inter nos et vos chaos magnum firmatum est: ut hi, qui volunt hinc transire ad vos, non possint, neque inde huc transmeare. Et ait: Rogo ergo te, pater, ut mittas eum in domum patris mei, habeo enim quinque fratres, ut testetur illis, ne et ipsi veniant in hunc locum tormentorum. Et ait illi Abraham: Habent Moysen et prophetas: audiant illos. At ille dixit: Non, pater Abraham; sed si quis ex mortuis ierit ad eos, poenitentiam agent. Ait autem illi: Si Moysen et prophetas non audiunt, neque si quis ex mortuis resurrexerit, credent.

Epistle. Gen. 37, 6-22. In those days, Joseph said to his brothers, “Listen to this dream which I had. We were binding sheaves in the field; my sheaf rose up and remained standing, while your sheaves gathered round and bowed down to my sheaf.” His brothers answered, “Are you to be our king? Are you to rule over us?” And because of his dreams and words they hated him the more. He had another dream which he also told to his brothers. “I had another dream,” he said. “The sun, the moon and eleven stars were worshiping me.” When he told that to his father and his brothers, his father reproved him. “What is this dream that you have had?” he said. “Can it be that I and your mother and your brothers will come to bow mine, justitiam meam: intende deprecationem meam. Gloria Patri.

to the ground before you?” So his brothers envied him, while his father pondered the matter. When his brothers had gone to pasture their father’s flocks at Sichem, Israel said to Joseph, “Your brothers are pasturing the flocks at Sichem; get ready, I will send you to them.” Joseph answered, “I am ready.” “Go then,” said Israel, “and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks; and bring back a report to me.” So he sent him from the valley of Hebron, and he came to Sichem. A man found Joseph wandering about in the fields and asked him, “What are you looking for?” “I am looking for my brothers,” he answered. “Tell me, please, where they are pasturing.” The man said, ‘They have moved on from here because I heard them say, “Let us go to Dothain.’ ” So Joseph went after his brothers and found them in Dothain. They saw him in the distance, and before he drew near them, they plotted to kill him. They said to one another, “Here comes that dreamer! Let us therefore kill him and throw him into a cistern; we can say that a wild beast devoured him. Let us see then what becomes of his dreams.” But when Ruben heard of it, he tried to rescue him from them saying, “We must not kill him.” Then he continued, “Do not shed blood. Throw him into the cistern there in the desert, but do not lay a hand on him.” His purpose was to rescue him from them and restore him to his father.

Responsory. Ps. 119, 1-2. In my trouble I cried to the Lord, and He heard me. V. O Lord, deliver my soul from wicked lips and a deceitful tongue. Tract, p. 96.

Gospel. Matt. 21, 33-46. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the multitude of the Jews and the chief priests: “There was a man, a householder, who planted a vineyard, and put a hedge about it, and dug a wine vat in it, and built a tower; then he let it out to vine-dressers, and went abroad. But when the fruit season drew near, he sent his servants to the vine-dressers to receive his fruits. And the vine-dressers seized his servants, and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent another party of servants more numerous than the first; and they did the same to these. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ But the vine-dressers, on seeing the son, said among themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and we shall have his inheritance.' So they seized him, cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. When, therefore, the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-dressers?” They said to Him, “He will utterly destroy those evil men, and will let out his vineyard to other vine-dressers, who will render to him the fruits in their seasons.” Jesus said to them, “Did you never read in the Scriptures, ‘The stone which the builders rejected, has become the cornerstone; by the Lord this has been done, and it is wonderful in our eyes’? Therefore I say to you, that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a people yielding its fruits. And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but upon whomever it falls, it will grind him to powder.” And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard His parables, they knew that He was speaking about them. And though they sought to lay hands on Him, they feared the people, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

SATURDAY, SECOND WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 18, 8. The law of the Lord is unspotted, converting souls; the testimony of the Lord is faithful, giving wisdom to little ones. Ps. 18, 2. The heavens show forth the glory of God, and the firmament declares the work of His hands. Glory.

Collect. Grant, O Lord, we pray, this saving fruit of our fast, that the chastisement we lay on our flesh may bring a new life to our souls: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gen. 27, 6-40. In those days, Rebecca said to her son Jacob, "I heard your father tell your brother Esau, 'Bring me some game; prepare some savory food for me to eat, and then I will bless you in the sight of the Lord before I die.' Now my son, do what I tell you. Go to the flock and bring me two choice kids that I may make of them savory food for your father, such as he likes. Then bring it to your father to eat, that he may bless you before he dies." Jacob said to his mother Rebecca, "But Esau my brother is a hairy man, while I am smooth. If my father touches me, it will seem to him that I am mocking him. Thus I shall bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing.” His mother replied, “Let the curse fall on me, my son! Do but listen to me; go, get them for me.” He went, selected them, and brought them to his mother, who prepared savory food such as his father liked. Then Rebecca took the best clothes of her elder son Esau, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob. She put the skins of the kids on his hands and over the smooth parts of his neck. Then she gave her son Jacob the savory food and bread she had prepared. He went to his father and said, “Father!” He answered, “Here I am. Who are you, my son?” And Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau, your first-born. I have done as you told me; sit up, please! Eat again of my game, that you may bless me.” Isaac replied, “How did you find it so quickly, my son?” He answered, “The Lord your God let me come upon it.” Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come close that I may touch you, my son, to know whether you are really my son Esau or not.” Jacob went close to his father; Isaac touched him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.” He did not recognize him because his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him. Isaac said “Are you really my son Esau?” Jacob answered, “Yes, I am.” Isaac continued, “Set your game near me, my son, that I may eat it, and bless you.” He set it before him and he ate of it, and he brought him some wine, which he drank. Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come close and kiss me, my son.” He came close and kissed him. When he smelled the fragrance of his garments, he blessed him and said, “The fragrance of my son is like the fragrance of a field which the Lord has blessed! God give you dew from heaven, and fruitfulness of the earth, abundance of grain and wine. Let nations serve you, peoples bow down to you. Be master of your brothers; may your mother’s sons bow down to you. Cursed be those who curse you, blessed be those who bless you.” Isaac had pronounced the blessing and Jacob had just left his father’s presence, when his brother Esau returned from hunting. He also prepared savory food and brought it to his father, saying, “Sit up, father, and eat of your son’s game, that you may bless me.” His father Isaac said to him, “Who... are you?” He answered, “I am Esau, your first-born son.” Isaac was greatly disturbed, and asked, “Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? Before you came I ate heartily and then blessed him; and he shall be blessed.” On hearing his father’s words, Esau uttered a very loud and bitter cry, and said to him, “Father, bless me too.” But he answered, “Your brother came deceitfully and received your blessing.” Then he said, “Must he, true to his name Jacob, supplant me now a second time? He took my birthright and now he has taken my blessing.” He added, “Have you not reserved a blessing for me?” Isaac answered Esau, “I have appointed him your lord, and have given him all his brothers as servants. I have enriched him with grain and wine; what then can I do for you, my son?” But Esau said to his father, “Have you only one blessing, father? Bless me also, my father.” And Esau wept aloud. His father Isaac answered him, “In the fruitfulness of the earth shall your dwelling be; in the dew of the heavens above.”

Responsory. Ps. 91, 2-3. It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Your name, O most High. \( \checkmark \). To show forth Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth in the night.

Gospel. Luke 15, 11-32. At that time, Jesus spoke to the Pharisees and Scribes this parable: "A certain man had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that falls to me.' And he divided his means between them. And not many days later, the younger son gathered up all his wealth, and took his journey into a far country; and there he squandered his fortune in loose living. And after he had spent all, there came a grievous famine over that country, and he began himself to suffer want. And he went and joined one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his farm to feed swine. And he longed to fill himself with the pods that the swine were eating, but no one offered to give them to him. But when he came to himself, he said, 'How many hired men in my father's house have bread in abundance, while I am perishing here with hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, "Father, I have sinned..."'" against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired men." And he arose and went to his father. But while he was yet a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion, and ran and fell upon his neck and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Fetch quickly the best robe and put it on him, and give him a ring for his finger and sandals for his feet; and bring out the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and make merry; because this my son was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to make merry. Now his elder son was in the field; and as he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing. And calling one of the servants he inquired what this meant. And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has got him back safe.' But he was angered and would not go in. His father, therefore, came out and began to entreat him. But he answered and said to his father, 'Behold, these many years I have been serving you, and have never transgressed one of your commands; and yet you have never given me a kid that I might make merry with my friends. But when this your son comes, who has devoured his means with harlots, you have killed for him the fattened calf.' But he said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours; but we were bound to make merry and rejoice, for this your brother was dead, and has come to life; he was lost, and is found.'"

Offertory. Ps. 12, 4-5. Enlighten my eyes, that I never sleep in death; lest at any time my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him." Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look favorably on these sacrifices, O Lord, that we who pray to be delivered from our offences, may not be burdened by the offences of others: through our Lord. Preface: No. 3, p. 647.

Communion. Luke 15, 32. You ought to rejoice, my son, because Your brother was dead, and has come to life; he was lost, and is found.
Postcommunion. May the divine out-pouring of Your sacrament flood our inmost soul, O Lord, and make us more complete sharers in its power: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Keep Your family, we beseech You, O Lord, in Your unceasing love, that since it leans solely on the help of Your grace, it may ever be shielded by Your protection: through our Lord.

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

Office. Ps. 24, 15-16. My eyes are towards the Lord, for He shall pluck my feet out of the snare. Look upon me, and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor. Ps. 24, 1-2. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. We beseech You almighty God, look down upon the desires of the humble, and stretch forth the right hand of Your majesty in our defence: through our Lord.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Familiam tuam, quaesumus Domine, continua pietate custodi: ut quae in sola spe gratiae caelestis innititur, caelesti etiam protectione muniatur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, vota humilium respice, atque ad defensionem nostram, dexteram tuae majestatis extende. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Eph. 5, 1-9. Brethren: Be imitators of God, as very dear children and walk in love, as Christ also loved us and delivered Himself up for us an offering and a sacrifice to God to ascend in fragrant odor. But immorality and every uncleanness or covetousness, let it not even be named among you, as becomes saints; or obscenity or foolish talk or scurrility, which are out of place; but rather thanksgiving. For know this and understand, that no fornicator, or unclean person, or covetous one (for that is idolatry) has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. Let no one lead you astray with empty words; for because of these things the wrath of God comes upon the children of disobedience. Do not, then, become partakers with them. For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Walk, then, as children of light, for the fruit of the light is in all goodness and justice and truth.

Responsory. Ps. 9, 20.4. Arise, O Lord, let not man prevail; let the Gentiles be judged in Your sight. ¶ When my enemy shall be turned back, they shall be weakened and perish before Your face.

Responsorium. Exsurge, Domine, non praevaleat homo: judicentur gentes in conspectu tuo. ¶ In convertendo inimicum meum retrorsum, infirmabuntur et peribunt a facie tua.
Tract. Ps. 122, 1-3. To You have I lifted up my eyes, who dwell in heaven. \( \aleph \). Behold as the eyes of servants are on the hands of their masters. \( \aleph \). And as the eyes of the handmaid are on the hands of her mistress, so are our eyes unto the Lord our God, until He have mercy on us. \( \aleph \). Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us.

Gospel. Luke 11, 14-28. At that time, Jesus was casting out a devil, and the same was dumb; and when He had cast out the devil, the dumb man spoke. And the crowds marveled. But some of them said, "By Beelzebub, the prince of devils, He casts out devils." And others, to test Him, demanded from Him a sign from heaven. But He, seeing their thoughts, said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and house will fall upon house. If, then, Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because you say that I cast out devils by Beelzebub. Now, if I cast out devils by Beelzebub, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out devils by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come..."
upon you. When the strong man, fully armed, guards his courtyard, his property is undisturbed. But if a stronger than he attacks and overcomes him, he will take away all his weapons that he relied upon, and will divide his spoils. He who is not with Me is against Me; and he who does not gather with Me scatters. When the unclean spirit has gone out of a man, he roams through waterless places in search of rest; and finding none, he says, ‘I will return to my house which I left.’ And when he has come to it, he finds the place swept and adorned. Then he goes and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.” Now it came to pass as He was saying these things, that a certain woman from the crowd lifted up her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts that nursed You.” But He said, “Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it.”

Offertory. Ps. 18, 9.10.11.12. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts, and His judgments are sweeter than honey and the honeycomb, for Your servant keeps them. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Communion. Ps. 83, 4-5. The sparrow has found herself a house, and the turtle a nest where she may lay her young ones: Your altars, O Lord of Hosts, my King, and my God. Blessed are they who dwell in Your house; they shall praise You forever and ever.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, in Your mercy, set free from all sins and dangers those whom You make partakers of so great a mystery: through our Lord.

MONDAY, THIRD WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 55, 5. In God I will praise the word, in the Lord I will praise His speech; in God I will trust, I will not fear what man can do against me. Ps. 55, 2. Have mercy on me, O God, for man has trodden me under foot; all the day long he has afflicted me, fighting against me. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria. The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Secreta. Haec hostia, Domine, quaesumus, emundet nostra delicta, et ad sacrificium celebrandum, subditorum tibi corpora mentesque sanctificeat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. A cunctis nos, quaesumus Domine, reatisibus et periculis propitiatus absolve, quos tanti mysterii tribuis esse participes. Per Dominum.

Collect. Mercifully pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord, Your grace into our hearts, that as we deny ourselves food for the body, so we may keep our senses from hurtful excesses: through our Lord.

Epistle. 4 Kgs. 5, 1-15. In those days, Naaman, general of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable; for by him the Lord gave deliverance to Syria; and he was a valiant man and rich, but a leper. Now there had gone out robbers from Syria, and had led away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid, and she waited upon Naaman’s wife, and she said to her mistress, “I wish my master had been with the prophet who is in Samaria; he would certainly have healed him of the leprosy which he has.” Then Naaman went in to his lord, and told him, saying, “Thus and thus said the girl from the land of Israel.” And the king of Syria said to him, “Go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel.” And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment and brought the letter to the king of Israel, in these words, “When you shall receive this letter, know that I have sent to you Naaman, my servant, that you may heal him of his leprosy." And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his garments and said, "Am I God, to be able to kill and give life, that this man has sent to me to heal a man of his leprosy? Mark, and see how he seeks occasions against me." And when Eliseus the man of God had heard this, to wit, that the king of Israel had rent his garments, he sent to him, saying, "Why have you rent your garments? Let him come to me, and let him know that there is a prophet in Israel." So Naaman came with his horses and chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Eliseus: and Eliseus sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, and wash seven times in the Jordan, and your flesh shall recover health and you shall be clean." Naaman was angry and went away, saying, "I thought he would have come out to me, and standing would have invoked the name of the Lord his God, and touched with his hand the place of the leprosy, and healed me. Are not the Abana and the Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel, that I may wash in them, and be made clean?"

So as he turned, and was going away with indignation, his servants came to him, and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had bid you to do some great thing, surely you should have done it; how much rather what he now has said to you: Wash, and you shall be clean?" Then he went down, and washed in the Jordan seven times, according to the word of the man of God, and his flesh was restored, like the flesh of a little child, and he was made clean. And returning to the man of God with all his train, he came, and stood before him, and said, "In truth I know, there is no other God in all the earth, but only in Israel."

Responsory. Ps. 55, 2. O God, I have declared to You my life; You have set my tears in Your sight.

Tract, p. 96.

Gospel. Luke 4, 23-30. At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees: "You will surely quote Me this proverb, 'Physician, cure Yourself! Whatever things we have heard of as done in Capharnaum, do here also in Your own country!"" But He said, "Amen I say to you, no prophet is acceptable in his own country. In truth I say to you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elias, when heaven was shut up for three years and six months, and a great famine came over all the land; and to none of them was Elias sent, but rather to a widowed woman in Sarepta of Sidon. And there were many lepers in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian." And all in the synagogue, as they heard these things, were filled with wrath. And they rose up and put Him forth out of the town, and led Him to the brow of the hill, on which their town was built, that they might throw Him down headlong. But He, passing through their midst, went His way.

Communion. Ps. 13, 7. Who shall bring out of Sion the salvation of Israel? When the Lord shall have turned away the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice and Israel shall be glad.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that what has rested on our tongue may be housed in a clean heart: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. May Your mercy assist us, O Lord, that from the threatening perils of our sins, we may be worthy to be delivered by You our protector, and saved by You, our deliverer: through our Lord.

TUESDAY, THIRD WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 16, 6.8. I have cried, for You, O God, have heard me. Incline Your ear and hear my words; keep me, O Lord, as the apple of Your eye; protect me under the shadow of Your wings. Ps. 16, 1. Hear, O Lord, my justice: attend to my prayer. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Communion. Quis dabit ex Sion salvatorem Israel? cum averterit Dominus captivitatem plebis suae exsultabit Jacob, et laetabitur Israel.

Postcommunion. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens et misericors Deus, ut quod ore contigimus, pura mente capiamus. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Subveniat nobis, Domine, misericordia tua: ut ab imminentibus peccatorum nostrorum periculis, te mereamur protegente eripi, te liberante salvari. Per Dominum.

Collect. Hear us, almighty and merciful God, and graciously bestow on us the gift of wholesome self-denial: through our Lord.

Epistle. 4 Kgs. 4, 1-7. In those days, a certain woman cried to Eliseus, the prophet, saying, "Your servant, my husband, is dead, and you know that your servant was one who feared God; and behold the creditor is come to take away my two sons to serve him." And Eliseus said to her, "What will you have me to do for you? Tell me, what have you in your house?" And she answered, "I your handmaid have nothing in my house but a little oil, to anoint me." And he said to her, "Go, borrow of all your neighbors empty vessels not a few. And go in, and shut your door, when you are within, and your sons; and pour out thereof into all those vessels: and when they are full take them away." So the woman went, and shut the door upon her, and upon her sons: they brought her the vessels, and she poured in. And when the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me yet a vessel." And he answered, "I have no more." And the oil stood. And she came, and told the man of God. And he said, “Go, sell the oil and pay your creditor; and you and your sons live off the rest.”

_Responsory._ Ps. 18, 13-14. From my secret sins cleanse me, O Lord, and from those of others spare Your servant. If they shall have no dominion over me, then shall I be without spot, and I shall be cleansed from the greatest sin.

_Gospel._ Matt. 18, 15-22. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: “If your brother sin against you, go and show him his fault, between you and him alone. If he listen to you, you have won your brother. But if he do not listen to you, take with you one or two more so that on the word of two or three witnesses every word may be confirmed. And if he refuse to hear them, appeal to the Church, but if he refuse to hear the Church, let him be to you as the heathen and the publican. Amen I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound also in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed also in heaven. I say to you further, that if two of you shall agree on earth about anything at all for which they ask, it shall be done for them by My...
Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered together for My sake, there am I in the midst of them.” Then Peter came up to Him and said, “Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?” Jesus said to him, “I do not say to you seven times, but seventy times seven.”

witness against your neighbor. You shall not covet your neighbor’s house. You shall not covet your neighbor’s wife, nor his male or female slave, nor his ox or ass, nor anything else that belongs to him.” When the people witnessed the thunder and lightning, the trumpet blast and the mountain smoking, they all feared and trembled. So they took up a position much farther away and said to Moses, “You speak to us, and we will listen; but let not the Lord speak to us, or we shall die.” Moses answered the people, “Do not be afraid, for God has come to you only to test you and put His fear upon you, lest you should sin.” Still the people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the cloud where God was. The Lord told Moses, “Thus shall you speak to the Israelites: You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven. Do not make anything to rank with Me; neither gods of silver nor gods of gold shall you make for yourselves. An altar of earth you shall make for Me, and upon it you shall sacrifice your holocausts and peace offerings, your sheep and your oxen, in whatever place I choose for the remembrance of My name.”

Responsory. Ps. 6, 3-4. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am weak, heal me, O Lord.

Gospel. Matt. 15, 1-20. At that time, the Scribes and Pharisees from Jerusalem came to Jesus, saying, "Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the ancients? For they do not wash their hands when they take food." But He answered and said to them, "And why do you transgress the commandment of God because of your tradition? For God said, 'Honor your father and your mother'; and, 'Let him who curses father or mother be put to death.' But you say, 'Whoever shall say to his father or mother, "Any support you might have had from me is dedicated to God," does not have to honor his father or his mother.' So you have made void the commandment of God by your tradition. Hypocrites, well did Isaias prophesy of you, saying, 'This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me; and in vain do they worship Me, teaching doctrines and precepts of men.' ” Then He called the crowd to Him, and said to them, “Hear, and understand. What goes into the mouth does not defile a man; but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles a man." Then His disciples came up and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees have taken offense at hearing this saying?" But He answered and said, "Every plant that My heavenly Father has not planted will be rooted up. Let them alone; they are blind guides of blind men. But if a blind man guide a blind man, both fall into a pit." But Peter spoke to Him, saying, "Explain to us this parable." And He said, "Are you also even yet without understanding? Do you not realize that whatever enters the mouth passes into the belly and is cast out into the drain? But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and it is they that defile a man. For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, immorality, thefts, false witness, blasphemies. These are the things that defile a man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile a man."

Offertory. Ps. 108, 21. O Lord, be merciful to me for Your name's sake, because Your mercy is sweet.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Domine, fac mecum misericordiam tuam propter nomen tuum: quia suavis est misericordia tua.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the holy fervor of our fasts may make us pure and pleasing to Your majesty: through our Lord.

Epistle. Jer. 7, 1-7. In those days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "Stand in the gate of the house of the Lord, and proclaim there this word, and say: Hear the word of the Lord, all you men of Judah that enter in at these gates to adore the Lord. Thus says the Lord of hosts, the God of Israel: Make your ways and your doings good; and I will dwell with you in this place. Trust not in lying words, saying: The temple of the Lord, the temple of the Lord, it is the temple of the Lord. For if you will order well your ways and your doings; if you will execute judgment between a man and his neighbor, if you oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, and walk not after strange gods to your own hurt; I will dwell with you in this place, in the land which I gave to your fathers from the beginning and forevermore,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 144, 15-16. The eyes of all hope in You, O Lord, and You give them meat in due season. Ὡ. You open Your hand, and fill every living creature with blessing.

Offertory. Ps. 137, 7. If I shall walk in the midst of tribulation, You will quicken me, O Lord, and You will stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand shall save me.

Secret. May our solemn fasts, we beseech You, O Lord, make this offering pleasing to You; and may it be the more acceptable to You as being offered up from sin-cleansed hearts: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 118, 4.5. You have commanded Your precepts to be kept most diligently; O that my ways may be directed to keep Your justifications!

Postcommunion. O Lord, may the august reception of this Your sacrament cleanse us by its mystic fruit, and protect us by its never-waning strength: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. May this heavenly peace-offering multiply Your subject people, we beseech You, O Lord, and make them ever obedient to Your bidding: through our Lord.

FRIDAY, THIRD WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 85, 17. Show me, O Lord, a token for good; that they who hate me may see and be confounded, because You, O Lord, have helped me and have comforted me. Ps. 85, 1. Incline Your ear, O Lord, and hear me, for I am needy and poor. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Prayer. O Lord, mercifully approve our fasts, we pray; that even as our bodies abstain from food, so we may fast from sin in our minds: through our Lord.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Jejunia nostra, quaesumus Domine, benigno favore prosequere: ut, sicut ab alimentis abstinemus in corpore, ita a vitiiis jejunemus in mente. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Num. 20, 2.3; 6-13. In those days, the Israelites held a council against Moses and Aaron. The people contended, exclaiming, "Give us water that we may drink." But Moses and Aaron went away from the assembly to the entrance of the Meeting Tent, where they fell prostrate. They cried to the Lord, and said, "O Lord God, hear the cry of this people, and open to them Your treasure, a fountain of living water, that being satisfied, they may cease to murmur." Then the glory of the Lord appeared to them, and the Lord said to Moses, "Take the staff and assemble the community, you and your brother Aaron, and in their presence order the rock to yield its waters. From the rock you shall bring forth water for the community and their livestock to drink." So Moses took the staff from its place before the Lord, as he was ordered. He and Aaron assembled the community in front of the rock, where he said to them, "Listen to me, you rebels! Are we to bring water for you out of this rock?" Then, raising his hand, Moses struck the rock twice with his staff, and water gushed out in abundance for the community and their livestock to drink. But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you were not faithful to Me in showing forth My sanctity before the Israelites, you shall not lead this community into the land I will give them." These are the waters of Meriba, where the Israelites contended against the Lord, and where He revealed His sanctity among them.

Responsory. Ps. 27, 7, 8. In God has my heart confided and I have been helped and my flesh has flourished again, and with my will I will give praise to Him.

\[ \text{Verse.} \]

To You will I cry, O Lord, O my God, be not silent to me, nor depart from me.

Gospel. John 4, 5-42. At that time, Jesus came to a town of Samaria called Sichar, near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, wearied as He was from the journey, was sitting at the well. It was about the sixth hour. There came a Samaritan woman to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give Me to drink"; (for His disciples had gone away into the town to buy food). The Samaritan woman therefore said to Him, "How is it that You, although You are a Jew, ask drink of me, who am a Samaritan woman?" For Jews do not associate with Samaritans. Jesus answered and said to her, "If you did know the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me to drink,' you, perhaps, would have asked of Him, and He would have given you living water." The woman said to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Whence then have You living water? Are You greater than our father Jacob who gave us the well, and drank from it, himself, and his sons, and his flocks?" In answer Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again. He, however, who drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him shall become in him a fountain of water, springing up unto life everlasting." The woman said to Him, "Sir give me this water that I may not thirst, or come here to draw." Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband and come here." The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You have said well, 'I have no husband,' for you have had five husbands, and he whom you now have is not your husband. In this you have spoken truly." The woman said to Him, "Sir, I see that You are a prophet. Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, but You say that at Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.” Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. For the Father also seeks such to worship Him. God is spirit, and they who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth.” The woman said to Him, “I know that Messias is coming (who is called Christ), and when He comes He will tell us all things.” Jesus said to her, “I who speak with you am He.” And at this point His disciples came; and they wondered that He was speaking with a woman. Yet no one said, “What do You seek?” or, “Why do You speak with her?” The woman therefore left her water-jar and went away into the town, and said to the people, “Come and see a man who has told me all that I have ever done. Can He be the Christ?” They went forth therefore from the town and came to meet Him. Meanwhile, His disciples besought Him, saying, "Rabbi, eat." But He said to them, "I have food to eat of which you do not know." The disciples therefore said to one another, "Has someone brought Him something to eat?" Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, to accomplish His work. Do you not say, 'There are yet four months, and then comes the harvest?' Well, I say to you, lift up your eyes and behold that the fields are already white for the harvest. And he who reaps receives a wage, and gathers fruit unto life everlasting, so that the sower and the reaper may rejoice together. For herein is the proverb true, 'One sows, another reaps.' I have sent you to reap that on which you have not labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labors." Now many of the Samaritans of that town believed in Him because of the word of the woman who bore witness, "He told me all that I have ever done." When, therefore, the Samaritans had come to Him, they besought Him to stay there; and He stayed two days. And far more believed in Him because of His word. And they said to the woman, "We will no longer believe because of what you have said, for we have heard for ourselves and we know that this is in truth the Savior of the world."

SUNDAY, THIRD WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 5, 2-3. O Lord, hear my words, understand my cry; hearken to the voice of my prayer. ¶ O my King and my God. Glory.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that Your people who mortify their flesh by abstinence from food may, by following after justice, fast from sin: through our Lord.

Epistle. Dan. 13, 1-62. In those days, there was a man who dwelt in Babylon, and his name was Joakim; and he took a wife whose name was Susanna, the daughter of Helcias, a very beautiful woman, and one who feared God; for her parents being just, had instructed their daughter according to the law of Moses. Now Joakim was very rich, and had an orchard near his house; and the Jews resorted to him, because he was the most honorable of them all. And there were two of the ancients of the people appointed judges that year, of whom the Lord said, "Iniquity came out from Babylon from the ancient judges that seemed to govern the people.” These men frequented the house of Joakim, and all who had any matters of judgment came to them. And when the people departed away at noon, Susanna went in and walked in her husband’s orchard. And the old men saw her going in every day, and walking; and they were inflamed with lust toward her; and they perverted their own mind, and turned away their eyes that they might not look to heaven, nor remember just judgments. And it fell out, as they watched a fit day, she went in on a time, as yesterday and the day before, with two maids only, and was desirous to wash herself in the orchard; for it was hot weather, and there was nobody there, but the two old men who had hid themselves and were beholding her. So she said to her maids, “Bring me oil and washing balls, and shut the doors of the orchard, that I may wash me.” Now when the maids were gone forth, the two elders arose and ran to her, and said, “Behold the doors of the orchard are shut, and nobody sees us, and we are in love with you; wherefore consent to us and lie with us. But if you will not, we will bear witness against you, that a young Babylone a senioribus judicibus, qui videbantur regere populum. Isti frequentabant domum Joakim, et veniebant ad eos omnes qui habebant judicia. Cum autem populus revertisset per meridiem, ingrediebatur Susanna, et deambulabat in pomario viri sui. Et videbant eam senes quotidiem ingredientem, et deambulantem: et exarserunt in concupiscientiam ejus: et eveterunt sensum suum, et declinaverunt oculos suos; ut non viderent caelum; neque recordarentur judiciorum justorum. Factum est autem, cum observarent diem aptum, ingressa est aliquando sicut heri et nudiusius, cum duabus solis puellis, voluitque lavari in pomario, aestus quippe erat. Et non erat ibi quisquam, praeter duos senes absconditos, et contemplantes eam. Dixit ergo puellis: Afferte mihi oleum, et smigmata, et ostia pomarii claudite, ut laver. Cum autem egressae essent puellae, surrexerunt duo senes, et accurrerunt ad eam, et dixerunt: Ecce ostia pomarii clausa sunt, et nemo nos videt, et nos in concupiscientia tui sumus: quamobrem assentire nobis, et commiscere nobiscum. Quod si nolueris, dicemus contra te man was with you, and therefore you sent away your maids from you." Susanna sighed, and said, "I am straitened on every side; for if I do this thing, it is death to me; and if I do it not, I shall not escape your hands. But it is better for me to fall into your hands without doing it, than to sin in the sight of the Lord."

With that Susanna cried out with a loud voice; and the elders also cried out against her. And one of them ran to the door of the orchard and opened it. So when the servants of the house heard the cry in the orchard, they rushed in by the back door to see what was the matter. But after the old men had spoken, the servants were greatly ashamed; for never had there been any such word said of Susanna. And on the next day, when the people were come to Joakim her husband, the two elders also came full of wicked device against Susanna, to put her to death. And they said before the people, "Send to Susanna, daughter of Helcias, the wife of Joakim." And presently they sent. And she came with her parents and children and all her kindred. Therefore her friends and all her acquaintances wept. But the two elders rising up in the midst of the people laid their testimonium, quod fuerit tecum juvenis, et ob hanc causam emiseris puellas a te. Ingemuit Susanna, et ait: Angustiae sunt mihi undique: si enim hoc egero, mors mihi est: si autem non egero, non effugiam manus vestras. Sed melius est mihi absque opere incidere in manus vestras, quam peccare in conspectu Domini. Et exclamavit voce magna Susanna: exclamaverunt autem et senes adversus eam. Et cucurrit unus ad ostia pomârii, et aperuit. Cum ergo audissent clamorem famuli domus in pomario, irruerunt per posticum, ut viderent quidnam esset.

hands upon her head. And she weeping looked up to heaven, for her heart had confidence in the Lord. And the elders said, "As we walked in the orchard alone, this woman came in with two maids, and shut the doors of the orchard, and sent away the maids from her. Then a young man that was there hid came to her, and lay with her. But we, that were in a corner of the orchard, seeing this wickedness, ran up to them, and we saw them lie together. And him indeed we could not take, because he was stronger than we, and opening the doors he leaped out; but having taken this woman, we asked who the young man was, but she would not tell us: of this thing we are witnesses." The multitude believed them as being the elders and the judges of the people, and they condemned her to death. Then Susanna cried out with a loud voice, and said, "O eternal God, who know all things before they come to pass, You know that they have borne false witness against me; and behold I must die, whereas I have done none of these things which these men have maliciously forged against me." And the Lord heard her voice. And when she was led to be put to death, the Lord raised up the holy spirit of a young boy, whose name was Daniel. And he cried out with a loud voice, "I am clear from the blood of this woman." Then all the people, turning themselves toward him, said, "What means this word that you have spoken?" But he standing in the midst of them, said, "Are you so foolish, O children of Israel, that without examination or knowledge of the truth, you have condemned a daughter of Israel? Return to judgment, for they have borne false witness against her." So all the people turned again in haste. And Daniel said to them, "Separate these two far from one another, and I will examine them." So when they were put asunder one from the other, he called one of them, and said to him, "O you that are grown old in evil days, now are your sins come out, which you have committed before: in judging unjust judgments, oppressing the innocent, and letting the guilty go free, whereas the Lord says: 'The innocent and the just you shall not kill.' Now then, if you saw her, tell me under what tree you saw them conversing together." He said, "Under a mastic tree." And Daniel said, "Well have you lied against your own head. For behold the angel of God, having received the sentence of Him, shall cut you in two." And having put him aside, he commanded that the other should come, and he said to him, "O seed of Chanaan and not of Juda, beauty has deceived you, and lust has perverted your heart; thus did you do to the daughters of Israel, and they for fear conversed with you; but a daughter of Juda would not abide your wickedness. Now therefore tell me, under what tree did you take them conversing together?" And he answered, "Under a holm tree." And Daniel said to him, "Well have you also lied against your own head, for the angel of the Lord waits with a sword to cut you in two, and to destroy you." With that all the assembly cried out with a loud voice, and they blessed God, who saves those who trust in Him. And they rose up against the two elders (for Daniel had convicted them of false witness by their own mouth) and they did to them as they had maliciously dealt against their neighbor; and they put them to death, and innocent blood was saved in that day.

Gospel. John 8, 1-11. At that time, Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. And at daybreak He came again into the temple, and all the people came to Him; and sitting down He began to teach them. Now the Scribes and Pharisees brought a woman caught in adultery, and setting her in the midst, said to Him, “Master, this woman has just now been caught in adultery. And in the Law Moses commanded us to stone such persons. What, therefore, do You say?” Now they were saying this to test Him, in order that they might be able to accuse Him. But Jesus, stooping down, began to write with His finger on the ground. But when they continued asking Him, He raised Himself and said to them, “Let him who is without sin among you be the first to cast a stone at her.” And again stooping down, He began to write on the ground. But hearing this, they went away, one by one, beginning with the eldest. And Jesus remained alone, with the woman standing in the midst.

FOURTH SUNDAY IN LENT

Office. Isa. 66, 10.11. Rejoice, O Jerusalem, and come together all you who love her; rejoice with joy, you who have been in sorrow, that you may exult, and be filled from the breasts of your consolation. Ps. 121, 1. I rejoiced because they said to me, "We will go into the house of the Lord." Glory.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who are justly afflicted for our misdeeds may breathe again in Your consoling grace: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 4, 22-31. Brethren: It is written that Abraham had two sons, the one by a slave-girl and the other by a free woman. And the son of the slave-girl was born according to the flesh, but the son of the free woman in virtue of the promise. This is said by way of allegory. For these are the two covenants: one indeed from Mount Sinai bringing forth children unto bondage, which is Agar. For Sinai is a mountain in Arabia, which corresponds to the present Jerusalem, and is in slavery with her children. But that Jerusalem which is above is free, which is our mother. For it is written, "Rejoice, O barren one, that do not bear; break forth and cry, you that do not travail; for many are the children of the desolate, more than of her that has a husband." Now we, brethren, are the children of promise, as Isaac was. But as then he who was born according to the flesh, persecuted him who was born according to the spirit, so also it is now. But what does the Scripture say? "Cast out the slave-girl and her son, for the son of the slave-girl shall not be heir with the son of the free woman." Therefore, brethren, we are not children of a slave-girl, but of the free woman—in virtue of the freedom wherewith Christ has made us free.

Responsory. Ps. 121, 1.7. I rejoiced because they said to me, "We will go into the house of the Lord." ¶ Let peace be in Your strength, and abundance in Your towers.

Sina, in servitutem generans, quae est Agar: Sina enim mons est in Arabia, qui conjunctus est ei quae nunc est Jerusalem, et servit cum filiis suis. Illa autem, quae sursum est Jerusalem, libera est; quae est mater nostra. Scriptum est enim: Laetare, sterilis, quae non paris: erumpe et clama, quae non parturis; quia multi filii desertae, magis quam ejus quae habet virum. Nos autem, fratres, secundum Isaac, promissonis filii sumus. Sed quomodo tunc is, qui secundum carnem natus fuerat, persequebatur eum, qui secundum spiritum, ita et nunc. Sed quid dicit Scriptura? Ejice ancillam et filium ejus: non enim heres erit filius ancillae cum filio liberae. Itaque, fratres, non sumus ancillae filii, sed liberae: qua libertate Christus nos liberavit.

Responsorium. Laetatus sum in his quae dicta sunt mihi: In domum Domini ibimus. ¶ Fiat pax in virtute tua: et abundantia in turribus tuis.
Tract. Ps. 124, 1.2. They who trust in the Lord, shall be as mount Sion; he shall not be moved forever who dwells in Jerusalem. Y. Mountains are round about it; so the Lord is round about His people from henceforth now and forever.

Gospel. John 6, 1-15. At that time, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is that of Tiberias. And there followed Him a great crowd, because they witnessed the signs He worked on those who were sick. Jesus therefore went up the mountain, and sat there with His disciples. Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near. When, therefore, Jesus had lifted up His eyes and seen that a very great crowd had come to Him, He said to Philip, “Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?” But He said this to try him, for He Himself knew what He would do. Philip answered Him, “Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not enough for them, that each one may receive a little.” One of His disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to Him, “There is a young boy here who has five barley loaves and two fishes; but what are these among so many?” Jesus then said, “Make the people recline." Now there was much grass in the place. The men therefore reclined, in number about five thousand. Jesus then took the loaves, and when He had given thanks, distributed them to those reclining; and likewise the fishes, as much as they wished. But when they were filled, He said to His disciples, "Gather the fragments that are left over, lest they be wasted." They therefore gathered them up; and they filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten. When the people, therefore, had seen the sign which Jesus had worked, they said, "This is indeed the Prophet who is to come into the world." So when Jesus perceived that they would come to take Him by force and make Him king, He fled again to the mountain, Himself alone.

Preface: No. 3, p. 647.

Communion. Ps. 121, 3.4. Jerusalem, which is built as a city, which is compact together; for there did the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord, to praise Your name, O Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant us, merciful God, to worship with sincere minds and receive with faithful hearts these sacred mysteries, by the fulness of which we are daily nourished: through our Lord.

MONDAY, FOURTH WEEK IN LENT

Office. Ps. 53, 3-4. Save me, O God, by Your name, and in Your strength deliver me. O God, hear my prayer. Ps. 53, 5. For strangers have risen up against me, and the mighty have sought after my soul.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Secreta. Sacrificiis praesentibus, Domine quaesumus, intende placatus; ut devotioni nostrae proficiant et saluti. Per Dominum.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that keeping these holy fasts with devotion year by year, we may be pleasing to You in body and soul: through our Lord.

Epistle. 3 Kgs. 3, 16-28. In those days, there came two women who were harlots, to king Solomon, and stood before him, and one of them said, “I beseech you, my lord: I and this woman dwelt in one house, and I was delivered of a child with her in the chamber. And the third day after that I was delivered, she also was delivered; and we were together, and no other person with us in the house, only we two. And this woman’s child died in the night, for in her sleep she overlaid him. And rising in the dead time of the night, she took my child from my side, while I, your handmaid, was asleep, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold it was dead; but considering him more diligently when it was clear day, I found it was not mine which I bore.” And the other woman an-answered, "It is not so as you say, but your child is dead and mine is alive." On the contrary she said, "You lie, for my child lives and your child is dead." And in this manner they strove before the king. Then said the king, "The one says: My child is alive, and your child is dead. And the other answers: No, but your child is dead, and mine lives." The king therefore said, "Bring me a sword." And when they had brought a sword before the king, "Divide," said he, "the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other." But the woman whose child was alive said to the king (for her heart was moved for her child), "I beseech you, my lord, give her the child alive, and do not kill it." But the other said, "Let it neither be mine nor yours, but divide it." The king answered and said, "Give the living child to this woman, and let it not be killed; for she is the mother thereof." And all Israel heard the judgment which the king had judged, and they feared the king, seeing that the wisdom of God was in him to do judgment.

Responsory. Ps. 30, 3. Be to me a God of protection, and a place of refuge to save me. ¶ Ps. 70, 1. O God, I have hoped in You; O Lord, let me never be confounded.

Gospel. John 2, 13-25. At that time, the Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. And He found in the temple men selling oxen, sheep and doves, and money-changers at their tables. And making a kind of whip of cords, He drove them all out of the temple, also the sheep and oxen, and He poured out the money of the changers and overturned the tables. And to them who were selling the doves He said, “Take these things away, and do not make the house of My Father a house of business.” And His disciples remembered that it is written, “The zeal of Your house has eaten Me up.” The Jews therefore answered and said to Him, “What sign do You show us, seeing that You do these things?” In answer Jesus said to them, “Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews therefore said, “Forty-six years has this temple been in building, and will You raise it up in three days?” But He was speaking of the temple of His body. When, accordingly, He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this, and they believed the Scripture and the word that Jesus had spoken. Now when He was at Jerusalem for the feast of the Passover, many believed in His name, seeing the signs that He was working. But Jesus did not trust Himself to them, in that He knew all men, and because He had no need that any one should bear witness concerning man, for He Himself knew what was in man.

Epistle. Ex. 32, 7-14. In those days, the Lord said to Moses, "Go down from the mountain to your people, whom you brought out of the land of Egypt, for they have become depraved. They have soon turned aside from the way I pointed out to them, making for themselves a molten calf and worshiping it, sacrificing to it and crying out, 'This is your God, O Israel, who brought you out of the land of Egypt!' I see how stiff-necked this people is," continued the Lord to Moses. "Let Me alone; then, that My wrath may blaze up against them to consume them. Then I will make of you a great nation."

But Moses implored the Lord, his God, saying, "Why, O Lord, should Your wrath blaze up against Your own people, whom You brought out of the land of Egypt with such great power and with so strong a hand? Why should the Egyptians say, 'With evil intent He brought them out, that He might kill them in the mountains and exterminate them from the face of the earth'? Let Your blazing wrath die down; relent in punishing Your people. Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, and how You swore to them by Your own self, saying, 'I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky; and all this land that I promised, I will give your descendants as their perpetual heritage." So the Lord relented in the punishment He had threatened to inflict on His people.

Responsory. Ps. 43, 26.2. Arise, O Lord, bring help to us, and deliver us for Your name's sake. ὑ. O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared to us the work which You did work in their days, and in the days of old.

Gospel. John 7, 14-31. At that time, when the feast was already half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began to teach. And the Jews marveled, saying, "How does this man come by learning, since He has not studied?" Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not My own, but His who sent Me. If anyone desires to do His will, he will know of the teaching whether it is from God, or whether I speak on My own authority. He who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory. But he who seeks the glory of the one who sent him is truthful, and there is no injustice in him. Did not Moses give you the Law, and none of you observes the Law? Why do you seek to put Me to death?" The crowd answered and said, "You have a devil. Who seeks to put You to death?” Jesus answered and said to them, “One work I did and you all wonder. For this reason Moses gave you the circumcision”—not that it is from Moses, but from the fathers—“and on a Sabbath you circumcise a man. If a man receives circumcision on a Sabbath, that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you indignant with Me because I made a whole man well on a Sabbath? Judge not by appearances but give just judgment.” Some therefore of the people of Jerusalem were saying, “Is not this the man they seek to kill? And behold, He speaks openly and they say nothing to Him. Can it be that the rulers have really come to know that this is the Christ? Yet we know where this man is from; but when the Christ comes, no one will know where He is from.” Jesus therefore, while teaching in the temple, cried out and said, “You both know Me, and know where I am from. Yet I have not come of Myself, but He is true who has sent Me, whom you do not know. I know Him because I am from Him, and He sent Me.” They wanted therefore to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him because His hour had not yet come. Many of the people, however, believed in Him.

Epistle. Isa. 1, 16-19. Thus says the Lord God: "Wash yourselves, be clean, take away the evil of your devices from My eyes; cease to do perversely, learn to do well: seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge for the fatherless, defend the widow. And then come and accuse Me, says the Lord. If your sins be as scarlet, they shall be made white as snow; and if they be red as crimson, they shall be white as wool. If you be willing, and will hearken to Me, you shall eat the good things of the land," says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 32, 12.6. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people whom He has chosen for His inheritance. By the word of the Lord, the heavens were established, and all the power of them by the spirit of His mouth.

Gospel. John 9, 1-38. At that time, Jesus, passing by, saw a man blind from birth. And His disciples asked Him, "Rabbi, who has sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither has this man sinned, nor his parents, but the works of God were to be made manifest in him. I must do the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world I am the light of the world.” When He had said these things, He spat on the ground and made clay with the spittle, and spread the clay over his eyes, and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloe (which is interpreted ‘sent’).” So he went away, and washed, and returned seeing. The neighbors therefore and they who were wont to see him before as a beggar, began saying, “Is not this he who used to sit and beg?” Some said, “It is he.” But others said, “By no means, he only resembles him.” Yet the man declared, “I am he.” They therefore said to him, “How were your eyes opened?” He answered, “The man who is called Jesus made clay and anointed my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloe and wash.’ And I went and washed, and I see.” And they said to him, “Where is He?” He said, “I do not know.” They took him who had been blind to the Pharisees. Now it was a Sabbath on which Jesus made the clay and opened his eyes. Again, therefore, the Pharisees asked him how he received his sight. But he said to them, “He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and I see." Therefore some of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, for He does not keep the Sabbath." But others said, "How can a man who is a sinner work these signs?" And there was a division among them. Again therefore they said to the blind man, "What do you say of Him who opened your eyes?" But he said, "He is a prophet." The Jews therefore did not believe of him that he had been blind and had got his sight, until they called the parents of the one who had gained his sight, and questioned them, saying, "Is this your son, of whom you say that he was born blind? How then does he now see?" His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; but how he now sees we do not know, or who opened his eyes we ourselves do not know. Ask him; he is of age, let him speak for himself." These things his parents said because they feared the Jews. For already the Jews had agreed that if anyone were to confess Him to be the Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. This is why his parents said, "He is of age; question him." They therefore called a second time the man who had been blind, and said to him, “Give glory to God! We ourselves know that this man is a sinner.” He therefore said to them, “Whether He is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.” They therefore said to him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?” He answered them, “I have told you already, and you have heard. Why would you hear again? Would you also become His disciples?” They heaped abuse on him therefore, and said, “You are His disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. We know that God spoke to Moses; but as for this man, we do not know where He is from.” In answer the man said to them, “Why, herein is the marvel, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes. Now we know that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God, and does His will, him He hears. Not from the beginning of the world has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind. If this man were not from God, He could do nothing.” They answered and said to him, “You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?” And they turned him out. Jesus heard that they had turned him out, and when He had found him, said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?" He answered and said, "Who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?" And Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and He it is who speaks with you." And he said, "I believe, Lord." And falling down (Here all kneel.) he worshiped Him.

Epistle. 4 Kgs. 4, 25-38. In those days, a Sunamite woman came to Eliseus to Mount Carmel; and when the man of God saw her coming toward him, he said to Giezi his servant, "Behold that Sunamitess. Go therefore to meet her, and say to her: Is it well with you, and with your husband, and with your son?" And she answered, "Well." And when she came to the man of God to the mount, she caught hold on his feet: and Giezi came to remove her. And the man of God said, "Let her alone, for her soul is in anguish, and the Lord has hid it from me and has not told me." And she said to him, "Did I ask a son of my lord? Did I not say to you: Do not deceive me?" Then he said to Giezi, "Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand and go. If any man meet you, salute him not; and if any man salute you, answer him not; and lay my staff upon the face of the child." But the mother of the child said, "As the Lord lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." He arose therefore, and followed her. But Giezi was gone before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child, and there was no voice nor sense: and he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, "The child is not risen." Eliseus therefore went into the house, and behold the child lay dead on his bed; and going in he shut the door upon him, and upon the child, and prayed to the Lord. And he went up and lay upon the child; and he put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and he bowed himself upon him; and the child's flesh grew warm. Then he returned, and walked in the house, once to and fro; and he went up and lay upon him; and the child gaped seven times, and opened his eyes. And he called Giezi, and said to him, "Call this Sunamitess." And she being called, went in to him. And he said, "Take up your son." She came and fell at his feet, and worshiped upon the ground; and took up her son, and went out, and Eliseus returned to Galgal.

Responsory. Ps. 73, 20.19.22. Have regard, O Lord, for Your covenant, and forsake not to the end the souls of Your poor. Venite, Arise, O Lord, and judge Your cause: remember the reproach of Your servants.

Gospel, p. 560.

Offertory. Ps. 69, 2.3.4. O Lord, make haste to help me. Let all those be confounded who desire evils to Your servants.

Secret. Cleanse us, O merciful God, that the prayers of Your Church which are pleasing to You, being laden with the offerings of our love, may become yet more pleasing through the cleansing of our hearts: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 70, 16.17.18. O Lord, I will be mindful of Your justice alone. You have taught me, O God, from my youth; and unto old age and grey hairs, O God, forsake me not.

Postcommunion. Let not Your heavenly gifts, O Lord, turn to the judgment of those who receive them, since You have ordained them to the healing of Your faithful: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. O God, the maker and ruler of all Your people, root out the sins by which they are assaulted, that they may be ever well-pleasing to You, and safe under Your protection: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Caelestia dona capientibus, quaesumus Domine, non ad judicium provenire patiaris, quae fideli-bus tuis ad remedium providisti. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Populi tui, Deus institutor et rector, peccata quibus impugnatur, expelle, ut semper tibi placitus, et tuo munimine sit securus. Per Dominum.
FRIDAY, FOURTH WEEK IN LENT

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. O God, through the miracle of Your sacraments You give new life to the world. Grant, we beseech You, that Your Church may profit by Your eternal commands and never want for aid in this life: through our Lord.

Epistle. 3 Kgs. 17, 17-24. In those days; the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick, and the sickness was very grievous, so that there was no breath left in him. And she said to Elias, "What have I to do with you, O man of God? Have you come to me that my iniquities should be remembered, and that you should kill my son?" And Elias said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him into the upper chamber where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed, and he cried to the Lord, and said, "O Lord my God, have You afflicted also the widow, with whom I am after a sort maintained, so as to kill her son?" And he stretched, and measured himself upon the child three times, and cried to the Lord and said, "O Lord my God, let the soul of this child, I beseech You, return into his body." And the Lord heard the voice of Elias; and the soul of the child returned into him, and he revived. And Elias took the child, and brought him down from the upper chamber to the house below, and delivered him to his mother, and said to her, "Behold, your son lives." And the woman said to Elias, "Now by this I know that you are a man of God, and the word of the Lord in your mouth is true."

her sister Martha. Now it was Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped His feet dry with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick. His sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he whom You love is sick." But when Jesus heard this, He said to them, "This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that through it the Son of God may be glorified." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister Mary, and Lazarus. So when He heard that he was sick, He remained two more days in the same place. Then afterwards He said to His disciples, "Let us go again into Judea." The disciples said to Him, "Rabbi, just now the Jews were seeking to stone You; and do You go there again?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If a man walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if he walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." These things He spoke, and after this He said to them, "Lazarus, our friend, sleeps. But I go that I may wake him from sleep." His disciples therefore said, "Lord, if he sleeps, he will be safe." Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought He was speaking of the repose of sleep. So then Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead; and I rejoice on your account that I was not there, that you may believe. But let us go to him." Thomas, who is called the Twin, said therefore to his fellow-disciples, "Let us also go; that we may die with Him." Jesus therefore came and found him already four days in the tomb. Now Bethany was close to Jerusalem, some fifteen stadia distant. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to comfort them on account of their brother. When, therefore, Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him. But Mary remained at home. Martha therefore said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever You shall ask of God, God will give it to You." Jesus said to her, "Your brother shall rise." Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise at the resurrection, on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me, even if he die, shall live; and whoever lives and believes in Me, shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God, who have come into this world." And when she had said this, she went away and quietly called Mary her sister, saying, "The Master is here and calls you." As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and came to Him, for Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still at the place where Martha had met Him. When, therefore, the Jews who were with her in the house and were comforting her, saw Mary rise up quickly and go out, they followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there." When, therefore, Mary came where Jesus was, and saw Him, she fell at His feet, and said to Him, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died." When, therefore, Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her weeping, He groaned in spirit and was troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to Him, "Lord, come and see." And Jesus wept. The Jews therefore said, "See how He loved him." But some of them said, "Could not He who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that this man should not die?" Jesus therefore, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone was laid against it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, "Lord, by this time he is already decayed, for he is dead four days." Jesus said to her, "Have I not told you that if you believe you shall behold the glory of God?" They therefore removed the stone. And Jesus, raising His eyes, said, "Father, I give You thanks that You have heard Me. Yet I knew that You always hear Me; but because of the people who stand round, I spoke, that they may believe that You have sent Me." When He had said this, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth!" And at once he who had been dead came forth, bound feet and hands with bandages, and his face was tied up with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go." Many therefore of the Jews who had come to Mary, and had seen what He did, believed in Him.

SATURDAY, FOURTH WEEK IN LENT

Office. Isa. 55, 1. "All you who thirst, come to the waters," says the Lord; "and you who have no money, come and drink with joy." Ps. 77, 1. Hearken, My people, to My law; incline your ears to the words of My Mouth. ¶ Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria. The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. May the devotion of our heart be made more fruitful by Your grace, O Lord, we beseech You, for then only, will the fasts undertaken avail us, when they are pleasing to Your loving kindness: through our Lord.

Epistle. Isa. 49, 8-15. Thus says the Lord: "In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in the day of salvation I have helped you; and I have preserved you, and given you to be a covenant of the people, that you might raise up the earth and possess the inheritances that were destroyed; that you might say to those who are bound: Come forth; and to those who are in darkness: Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in every plain. They shall not hunger, nor thirst, neither shall the heat nor the sun strike them; for He who is merciful to them shall be their shepherd, and at the fountains of waters He shall give them drink. And I will make all My mountains a way, and My paths shall be exalted. Behold these shall come from afar, and behold these from the north and from the sea, and these from the south country. Give praise, O you heavens, and rejoice, O earth; you mountains, give praise with jubilation, because the Lord has comforted His people, and will have mercy on His poor ones. And Sion said: The Lord has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me. Can a woman forget her infant, so as not to have pity on the son of her womb? And if she should forget, yet will not I forget you,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 9, 14.1-2. To You, O Lord, is the poor man left. You will be a help to the orphan. Why, O Lord, have You retired afar off; why do You slight us in our wants in time of trouble? While the wicked man is proud, the poor is set on fire.

Gospel. John 8, 12-20. At that time, Jesus spoke to the multitudes of the Jews, saying, “I am the light of the world. He who follows Me does not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life.” The Pharisees therefore said to Him, “You bear witness to Yourself. Your witness is not true.” Jesus answered and said to them, “Even if I bear witness to Myself, My witness is true, because I know where I came from and where I go. But you do not know where I came from or where I go. You judge according to the flesh; I judge no one. And even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone, but with Me is He who sent Me, the Father. And in your Law it is written that the witness of two persons is true. It is I who bear witness to Myself, and He who sent Me, the Father, bears witness to Me.” They therefore said to Him, “Where is Your Father?” Jesus answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would then know My Father also.” Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, while teaching in the temple. And no one seized Him, because His hour had not yet come.

Offertory. Ps. 17, 3. The Lord is my support, and my refuge, and my deliverer, and in Him will I put my trust.
Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Factus est Dominus firmamentum meum, et refugium meum, et liberator meus: et sperabo in eum.

Oratio. Deus, qui sperantibus in te misereri potius eligis quam irasci: da nobis digne flere mala quae fecimus, ut tuae consolationis gratiam invenire mereamur. Per Dominum.
PASSION SUNDAY

Office. Ps. 42, 1-2. Judge me, O God, and distinguish my cause from the nation that is not holy. From the unjust and deceitful man deliver me, for You are my God and my strength. Ps. 42, 3. Send forth Your light and Your truth; they have conducted me, and brought me to Your holy hill, and into Your tabernacles. Judge me, etc., to the Ps. * Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. We beseech You, almighty God, to look favorably upon this Your family, that it may be governed in body by You its benefactor, and preserved in soul by You its protector: through our Lord.

Epistle. Heb. 9, 11-15. Brethren: When Christ appeared as High Priest of the good things to come, He entered once for all through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by hands (that is, not of this creation), nor again by virtue of blood of goats and calves, but by virtue of His own blood, into the Holies, having obtained eternal redemption. For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkled ashes of a heifer sanctify the unclean unto the cleansing of the flesh, how Epistola. Fratres: Christus assistens pontifex futurorum bonorum, per amplius et perfectius tabernaculum non manufactum, id est, non hujus creatonis: neque per sanguinem hircorum aut vitulorum, sed per proprium sanguinem introivit semel in sancta, aeterna redemptione inventa. Si enim sanguis hircorum et taurorum, et cinis vitulae aspersus inquinatos sanctificat ad emundationem much more will the blood of Christ, who through the Holy Spirit offered Himself unblemished unto God, cleanse our conscience from dead works to serve the living God? And this is why He is mediator of a new covenant, that whereas a death has taken place for redemption from the transgressions committed under the former covenant, they who have been called may receive eternal inheritance according to the promise, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 142, 9.10; 17, 48-49. Deliver me from my enemies, O Lord, teach me to do Your will. You are my deliverer, O Lord, from the angry nations; You will lift me up above them who rise up against me; from the unjust man You will deliver me.

Tract. Ps. 128, 1-4. Often have they fought against me from my youth. Let Israel now say: “Often have they fought against me from my youth. But they could not prevail over me; the wicked have wrought upon my back. They have lengthened their iniquities; the Lord, who is just, will cut the necks of sinners.”
Gospel. John 8, 46-59. At that time, Jesus said to the crowds of the Jews: “Which of you shall convict Me of sin? If I speak the truth to you, why do you not believe Me? He who is of God hears the words of God. The reason why you do not hear is that you are not of God.” The Jews therefore in answer said to Him, “Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan, and have a devil?” Jesus answered, “I have not a devil, but I honor My Father, and you dishonor Me. Yet, I do not seek My own glory; there is One who seeks and who judges. Amen, amen, I say to you, if anyone keep My word, he will never see death.” The Jews therefore said, “Now we know that You have a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets, and You say, ‘If anyone keep My word he will never taste death.’ Are You greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? And the prophets are dead. Whom do You make Yourself?” Jesus answered, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. And you do not know Him, but I know Him. And if I say that I do not know Him, I shall be like you, a liar. But I know Him, and I keep His word. Abraham your father rejoiced that he was to see My day. He saw it and was glad.” The Jews therefore said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen Abraham?” Jesus said to them, “Amen, amen, I say to you, before Abraham came to be, I am.” They therefore took up stones to cast at Him; but Jesus hid Himself, and went out from the temple.

Postcommunion. Be near us, O Lord, our God, and defend with Your unfailing help those whom You have fed with Your mysteries: through our Lord.

MONDAY IN PASSION WEEK

Office. Ps. 55, 2. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for man has trodden me under foot; all the day long he has afflicted me, fighting against me. Ps. 55, 3. My enemies have trodden on me all the day long, for they are many who war against me. Have mercy.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Sanctify our fasts, O Lord, we beseech You, and mercifully grant us the forgiveness of all our faults: through our Lord.

Epistle. Jonas 3, 1-10. In those days, the word of the Lord came to Jonas the second time, saying: "Arise, and go to Ninive the great city; and preach in it the preaching that I bid you." And Jonas arose and went to Ninive according to the word of the Lord. Now Ninive was a great city of three days' journey. And Jonas began to enter into the city one day's journey: and he cried, and said, "Yet forty days, and Ninive shall be destroyed." And the men of Ninive believed in God and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth from the greatest to the least. And the word came to the king of Ninive; and he rose up out of his throne, and cast away his robe from him, and was clothed with sackcloth, and sat in ashes. And he caused it to be proclaimed and published in Ninive from the mouth of the king and of his princes, saying, "Let neither men nor beasts, oxen nor sheep, taste anything; let them not feed nor drink water, and let men and beasts be covered with sackcloth, and cry to the Lord with all their strength, and let them turn everyone from his evil way, and from the iniquity that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and forgive; and will turn away from His fierce anger, and we shall not perish?" And God saw their works, that they were turned from their evil way; and the Lord our God had mercy upon His people.

Responsory. Ps. 53, 4.3. O God, hear my prayer; give ear to the words of my mouth. \( \Psi \). Save me, O God, by Your name, and in Your power deliver me.

Tract, p. 96.

Gospel. John 7, 32-39. At that time, the rulers and Pharisees sent attendants to seize Jesus. Jesus then said, “Yet a little while I am with you, and then I go to Him who sent Me. You will seek Me and will not find Me; and where I am you cannot come.” The Jews therefore said among themselves, “Where is He going that we shall not find Him? Will He go to those dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? What is this statement that He has made, ‘You will seek Me and will not find Me, and where I am you cannot come’?” Now on the last, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirst, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in Me, as the Scripture says, ‘From within him there shall flow rivers of living water.’” He said this, however, of the Spirit whom they who believed in Him were to receive.

Responsorium. Deus exaudi orationem meam: auribus percipe verba oris mei. \( \Psi \). Deus in nomine tuo salvum me fac: et in virtute tua libera me. Tractus, p. 96.

Offertory. Ps. 6, 5. Turn to me, O Lord, and deliver my soul; O save me for Your mercy's sake.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant us, O Lord, our God, that this victim of salvation may cleanse us from all our sins and be our propitiation before Your majesty: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. Ps. 23, 10. The Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory.

Postcommunion. May our share in this saving sacrament, we beseech You, O Lord, yield us cleansing and healing: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Bestow on Your people, we beseech You, O Lord, health of soul and body; that they may be fervent in good works and deserve to be shielded evermore by Your protection: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Domine, convertere, et eripe animam meam: salvum me fac propter misericordiam tuam.

Secreta. Concede nobis, Domine Deus noster, ut haec hostia salutaris et nostrorum fiat purgatio delictorum, et tuae propitiatio majestatis. Per Dominum.

Communio. Dominus virtutum, ipse est rex gloriae.

Postcommunio. Sacramenti tui, quaesumus Domine, participatio salutaris et purificationem nobis tribuat et medelam. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus Domine, populo tuo salutem mentis et corporis: ut bonis operibus inhaerendo, tua semper mereatur protectione defendi. Per Dominum.
TUESDAY IN PASSION WEEK

Collect. May our fasts be acceptable to You, O Lord, we pray, and by atoning for our sins make us worthy of Your grace and lead us to health everlasting: through our Lord.

Epistle. Dan. 14, 27. 28–42. In those days, the Babylonians came to the king and said to him, "Deliver us Daniel, who has destroyed Bel, and killed the dragon; or else we will destroy you and your house." And the king saw that they pressed upon him violently; and, being constrained by necessity, he delivered Daniel to them. And they cast him into the den of lions, and he was there six days. And in the den there were seven lions, and they had given to them two carcasses every day, and two sheep; but then they were not given to them, that they might devour Daniel. Now there was in Judea a prophet called Habacuc, and he had boiled... pottage, and had broken bread in a bowl, and was going into the field to carry it to the reapers. And the angel of the Lord said to Habacuc, "Carry the dinner which you have into Babylon to Daniel, who is in the lions' den." And Habacuc said, "Lord, I never saw Babylon, nor do I know the den." And the angel of the Lord took him by the top of his head, and carried him by the hair of his head, and set him in Babylon, over the den, in the force of his spirit. And Habacuc cried, saying, "O Daniel, servant of God, take the dinner that God has sent you." And Daniel said, "You have remembered me, O God, and You have not forsaken those who love You." And Daniel arose, and ate. And the angel of the Lord presently set Habacuc again in his own place. And upon the seventh day the king came to bewail Daniel: and he came to the den, and looked in, and behold, Daniel was sitting in the midst of the lions. And the king cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Great are You, O Lord, the God of Daniel." And he drew him out of the lions' den. But those who had been the cause of his destruction, he cast into the den, and they were devoured in a moment before him. Then the king said, "Let all the inhabitants of the whole earth fear the God of Daniel, for He is the Savior, working signs and wonders in the earth, who has delivered Daniel out of the lions' den."

Responsory. Ps. 42, 1.3. Distinguish my cause, O Lord; deliver me from the unjust and deceitful man.

(IN LAT.)

Send forth Your light and Your truth, they have conducted me, and brought me unto Your holy hill.

Gospel. John 7, 1-13. At that time, Jesus went about in Galilee, for He did not wish to go about in Judea because the Jews were seeking to put Him to death. Now the Jewish feast of Tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said to Him, "Leave here and go into Judea that Your disciples also may see the works that You do; for no one does a thing in secret if he wants to be publicly known. If You do these things, manifest Yourself to the world." For not even His brethren believed in Him. Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always at hand. The world cannot hate you, but it hates Me because I bear witness concerning it, that its works are evil. As for you, go up to the feast, but I do not go up to this feast, for My time is not yet fulfilled.” When He had said these things He stayed on in Galilee. But as soon as His brethren had gone up to the feast, then He also went up, not publicly, but as it were privately. The Jews therefore were looking for Him at the feast, and were saying, “Where is He?” And there was much whispered comment among the crowd concerning Him. For some were saying, “He is a good man.” But others were saying, “No, rather He seduces the crowd.” Yet for fear of the Jews no one spoke openly of Him.

Offertory. Ps. 9, 11-12.13. Let them trust in You who know Your name, O Lord: for You have not forsaken them who seek You. Sing to the Lord, who dwell in Sion, for He has not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the victims we bring to You to be offered, O Lord, be a pledge of conciliation in this world, that we may never despair of obtaining the promises of the world to come: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Offertorium. Sperent in te omnes, qui noverunt nomen tuum, Domine: quoniam non derelinquis quaerentes te: psallite Domino, qui habitat in Sion; quoniam non est oblitis orationes pauperum.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, deferimus immolandas, quae temporalem consolationem significent; ut promissa non desperemus aeterna. Per Dominum.
THE PROPER OF THE SEASON

Communion. Ps. 24, 22. Redeem me, O God of Israel, from all my tribulations.

Postcommunion. Grant us, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may so continually follow after things divine as to deserve to draw near to Your heavenly promises: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Grant to us we pray You, O Lord, a lasting obedience to Your will, that in these our days the people serving You may grow in number and in merit: through our Lord.

WEDNESDAY IN PASSION WEEK

Office. Ps. 17, 48-49. My deliverer from the angry nations, You will lift me up above them who rise up against me. From the unjust man You will deliver me, O Lord. Ps. 17, 2.3. I will love You, O Lord, my strength: The Lord is my support, and my refuge, and my deliverer. My deliverer. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Communio. Redime me, Deus Israel, ex omnibus angustiis meis.

Postcommunio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut quae divina sunt jugiter exsequentes, donis mereamur caelestibus propinquare. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Collect. Enlighten the hearts of Your faithful through this hallowed fast, O God of mercy; and to whom You have granted the grace of devotion, in Your loving kindness bestow a ready hearing when they pray: through our Lord.

Epistle. Lev. 19, 1-2.11-19.25. In those days, the Lord said to Moses, "Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them: 'I, the Lord, am your God. You shall not steal. You shall not lie or speak falsely to one another. You shall not swear falsely by My name, thus profaning the name of your God. I am the Lord. You shall not defraud or rob your neighbor. You shall not withhold overnight the wages of your day laborer. You shall not curse the deaf, or put a stumbling block in front of the blind, but you shall fear the Lord your God, because I am the Lord. You shall not act dishonestly in rendering judgment. Show neither partiality to the weak nor deference to the mighty, but judge your fellow men justly. You shall not go about spreading slander among your kinsmen; nor shall you stand by idly when your neighbor's life is at stake. I am the Lord. You shall not bear hatred for your brother in your heart. Though you may have to reprove your fellow man, do not incur sin because of him. Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against your fellow countrymen. You shall love your neighbor as yourself. I am the Lord. Keep My statutes. For I am the Lord your God.’”

Responsory. Ps. 29, 2-4. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have upheld me, and have not made my enemies rejoice over me. ¶ O Lord my God, I have cried to You and You have healed me. You have brought forth, O Lord, my soul from hell; You have saved me from them who go down into the pit.

Gospel. John 10, 22-38. At that time, there took place at Jerusalem the feast of the Dedication; and it was winter. And Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon’s portico. The Jews therefore gathered round Him, and said to Him, “How long do You keep us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us openly.” Jesus answered them, “I tell you and you do not believe. The works that I do in the name of My Father, these bear witness concerning Me. But you do not believe because you are not of My sheep. My sheep hear My voice, and fratrem tuum in corde tuo; sed publice argue eum, ne habeas super illo peccatum. Non quaeras ulationem, nec memor eris injuriae civium tuorum. Diliges amicum tuum sicut te ipsum. Ego Dominus. Leges meas custodite: Ego enim sum Dominus Deus vester.

Responsorium. Exaltabo te, Domine, quoniam suscepisti me: nec delectasti inimicos meos super me. ¶ Domine Deus meus, clamavi ad te, et sanasti me: Domine, abstractisti ab inferis animam meam: salvasti me a descendenticibus in lacum.

I know them and they follow Me. And I give them everlasting life; and they shall never perish, neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. What My Father has given Me is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch anything out of the hand of My Father. I and the Father are one.” The Jews therefore took up stones to stone Him. Jesus answered them, “Many good works have I shown you from My Father. For which of these works do you stone Me?” The Jews answered Him, “Not for a good work do we stone You, but for blasphemy, and because You, being a man, make Yourself God.” Jesus answered them, “Is it not written in your Law, ‘I said you are gods’? If He called them gods to whom the word of God was addressed (and the Scripture cannot be broken), do you say of Him whom the Father has made holy and sent into the world, ‘You blaspheme,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of God’? If I do not perform the works of My Father, do not believe Me. But if I do perform them, and if you are not willing to believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and believe that the Father is in Me and I in the Father.”
Offertory. Ps. 58, 2. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God, and defend me from them who rise up against me, O Lord.  Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, O merciful God, that we may bring to You with sincere devotion this victim of propitiation and praise: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. Ps. 25, 6-7. I will wash my hands among the innocent, and will compass Your altar, O Lord, that I may hear the voice of Your praise and tell of all Your wondrous works.

Postcommunion. Now that we received the blessing of Your heavenly gift, we humbly beseech You, almighty God, that it may be to us an assurance of sacramental grace and of salvation: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Be near to our cries, almighty God, and grant that those to whom You give hope of Your mercy may feel the effects of Your wonted clemency: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Eripe me de inimicis meis, Deus meus: et ab insurgentibus in me libera me, Domine.

Secreta. Annue, misericors Deus, ut hostias placationis et laudis sincero tibi deferamus obsequio. Per Dominum.

Communio. Lavabo inter innocentes manus meas, et circumbo altare tuum Domine: ut audiam vocem laudis tuae et enarrem universa mirabilia tua.

Postcommunio. Caelestis doni benedictione percepta supplices te, Deus omnipotens, deprecamur, ut hoc idem nobis et sacramenti causa sit et salutis. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Adesto supplicationibus nostris, omnipotens Deus, et quibus fiduciam sperandae pietatis indulges, consuetae misericordiae tribue benignus effectum. Per Dominum.
Office. Dan. 3, 31.29.43.42. All that You have done to us, O Lord, You have done in true judgement, because we have sinned against You and have not obeyed Your commandments. that You would multiply their seed as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that is on the seashore; for we, O Lord, are diminished more than any nation, and are brought low in all the earth this day for our sins. Neither is there at this time prince, or leader, or prophet, or holocaust, or sacrifice, or oblation, or incense, or place of first-fruits before You, that we may find Your mercy; nevertheless in a contrite heart and humble spirit let us be accepted. As in holocausts of rams, and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs, so let our sacrifice be made in Your sight this day, that it may please You; for there is no confusion to those who trust in You. And now we follow You with all our heart, and we fear You, and seek Your face. Put us not to confusion, but deal with us according to Your meekness, and according to the multitude of Your mercies. And deliver us according to Your wonderful works, and give glory to Your name, O Lord; and let all them be confounded who show evils to Your servants, let them be confounded in all Your might, and let their strength be multiplied.

Gospel. Luke 7, 36-50. At that time, one of the Pharisees asked Jesus to dine with him; so He went into the house of the Pharisee and reclined at table. And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, upon learning that He was at table in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment; and standing behind Him at His feet, she began to bathe His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with ointment. Now when the Pharisee, who had invited Him, saw it, he said to himself, “This man, were He a prophet, would surely know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner.” And Jesus answered and said to him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.” And he said, “Master, speak.” “A certain money-lender had two debtors; the one owed five hundred denarii, the other fifty. As they had no means of paying, he forgave them both. Which of them, therefore, will love him more?” Simon answered and said, “He, I suppose, to whom he forgave more.” And He said to him, “You have judged rightly.” And turning to the woman, He said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house; you gave Me no water for My feet; but she has bathed My feet with tears, and has wiped them with her hair. You gave Me no kiss; but she, from the moment she entered, has not ceased to kiss My feet. You did not anoint My head with oil; but she has anointed My feet with ointment. Wherefore I say to you, her sins, many as they are, shall be forgiven her, because she has loved much. But he to whom little is forgiven, loves little.” And He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” And they who were at table with Him began to say within themselves, “Who is this man, who even forgives sins?” But He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Offertory. Ps. 136, 1. By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept, when we remembered You, O Sion.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Super flumina Babylonis illic sedimus et flevimus: dum recordaremur tui, Sion.
Secret. O Lord our God, who has ordained that those things which You have made to help us in our weakness shall also be offered to the honor of Your name; grant, we beseech You, that they may be an aid in our present life and a pledge of eternity: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. Ps. 118, 49-50. Remember Your word to Your servant, O Lord, in which You gave me hope; this consoled me in my humiliation.

Postcommunion. May we accept with pure hearts, O Lord, what we have received with our lips, so that this temporal gift may become for us a source of everlasting health: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Be merciful to Your people, O Lord, we pray; that casting out what is displeasing to You, they may rather be filled with delight in Your commandments: through our Lord.

Secreta. Domine Deus noster, qui in his potius creaturis, quas ad fragilitatis nostrae subsidium condidisti, tuo quoque nomini munera jussisti dicanda constitui; tribue, quae- sumus, ut et vitae nobis praesentis auxilium, et aeternitatis efficiant sacramentum. Per Dominum.

Communio. Memento verbi tui servo tuo, Domine, in quo mihi spem dedisti: haec me consolata est in humilitate mea.

Postcommunio. Quod ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus: et de munere temporali, fiat nobis remedium sempiternum. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Esto, quaesumus Domine, propitius plebi tuae; ut quae tibi non placent respuentes, tuorum potius repleantur delectationibus mandatorum. Per Dominum.
FRIDAY IN PASSION WEEK

Office. Ps. 38, 10.16.18. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am afflicted; deliver me out of the hands of my enemies, and from them who persecute me. Let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon You. Ps. 30, 2. In You, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded; deliver me in Your justice. Have mercy.

The Lord be with you. Let us pray. Let us kneel. Arise.

Collect. Mercifully pour Your grace into our hearts, we beseech You, O Lord, that we who curb our sins by willing mortification, may suffer in time rather than be condemned to punishment in eternity: through our Lord.

Epistle. Jer. 17, 13-18. In those days, Jeremias said, "O Lord, all who forsake You shall be confounded; they who depart from You shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the Lord, the vein of living waters. Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved; for You are my praise. Behold they say to me: Where is the word of the Lord? Let it come. And I am not troubled, following You for..."
my pastor; and I have not desired the day of man, You know. That which went out of my lips has been right in Your sight. Be not a terror to me; You are my hope in the day of affliction. Let them be confounded who persecute me, and let me not be confounded; let them be afraid, and let me not be afraid. Bring upon them the day of affliction, and with a double destruction destroy them, O Lord our God.”

Responsory. Ps. 34, 20.22. My enemies spoke peaceably to me, and in anger they were troublesome to me.

Gospel. John 11, 47-54. At that time, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together a council against Jesus, and said, “What are we doing? for this man is working many signs. If we let Him alone as He is, all will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.” But one of them, named Caiphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all; nor do you reflect that it is expedient for you that one man die for the people, instead of the whole nation perishing.” This, however, he said not of himself; but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was to die for the nation; and not only for the nation, but that He might gather into one the children of God who were scattered abroad. So from that day forth their plan was to put Him to death. Jesus therefore no longer went about openly among the Jews, but withdrew to the district near the desert, to a town called Ephrem; and there He stayed with His disciples.

Offertory. Ps. 118, 12.121.42. Blessed are You, O Lord, teach me Your justifications; and deliver me not up to the proud who calumniate me, and I will answer a word to those who upbraid me. Offertory Prs., p. 623.

Secret. Grant us, O merciful God, that we may ever merit worthily to serve at Your altars, and to be saved by a constant sharing in their gifts: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 647.

Communion. Ps. 26, 12. Deliver me not, O Lord, to the will of them who trouble me, for unjust witnesses have risen up against me, and iniquity has lied to itself.

Postcommunion. Let not the constant protection of the sacrifice we have received forsake us, O Lord; but may it ever drive from us all things that do us harm: through our Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who seek the grace of Your protection, being delivered from all evils, may ever serve with a quiet mind: through our Lord.

 OUR LADY OF PITY
 FRIDAY AFTER PASSION SUNDAY

Office. John 19, 25.26.27. There stood by the cross of Jesus, His mother, and His mother’s sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Salome, and Mary Magdalene. Ὡ “Woman, behold your son,” said Jesus; to the disciple, however, “Behold your mother.” Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. We beseech You, 0 Lord Jesus Christ, let there intercede for us before Your mercy now and at the hour of our death, the blessed virgin Mary, Your mother, whose most holy soul the sword of grief did pierce in the hour of Your blessed passion; and whom a great joy enheartened in Your glorious resurrection: who live and reign.

tuitio non derelinquat: et noxia semper a nobis cuncta depellat. Per Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliae capita vestra Deo.

Oratio. Concede, quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui protectionis tuae gratiam quaerimus, liberati a malis omnibus, secura tibi mente serviamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Interveniat pro nobis, quæsumus Domine Jesu Christe, nunc et in hora mortis nostræ apud tuam clementiam beata virgo Maria mater tua: cujus sacratissimam animam in hora benedictae passionis tuae doloris gladius pertransivit; et in gloria resurrectione tua ingens gaudium laetificavit. Qui vivis et regnas.
A Memory of the Feria is made.

Epistle. Judith 13, 22.23-25. The Lord has blessed you by His power, because by you He has brought our enemies to nought. Blessed are you, O daughter, by the Lord the Most High God, above all women upon the earth. Blessed be the Lord who made heaven and earth, because He has so magnified your name this day, that your praise shall not depart out of the mouth of men, who shall be mindful of the power of the Lord forever: for you have not spared your life by reason of the distress and tribulation of your people, but have prevented our ruin in the presence of our God.

Responsory. You are sorrowful and worthy of tears, O virgin Mary, standing near the cross of the Lord Jesus, your Son, our Redeemer. 🌞 O virgin mother of God, He whom the whole world does not contain, the author of life made man, bears this punishment of the cross.

Tract. John 19, 25. Holy Mary, the queen of heaven, and mistress of the world, stood by the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, full of sadness. 🌞 Lam. 1, 12. O all you who pass by the way, attend and see if there be any sorrow like to my sorrow.

Epistola. Benedixit te Dominus in virtute sua, quia per te ad nihilum redegit inimicos nostros. Benedicta es tu, filia, a Domino Deo excelsa, prae omnibus mulieribus super terram. Benedictus Dominus, qui creavit caelum et terram: quia hodie nomen tuum ita magnificavit, ut non recedat laus tua de ore hominum, qui memores fuerint virtutis Domini in aeternum; pro quibus non pepercisti animae tuae propter angustias et tribulationem generis tui, sed subvenisti ruinae aite conspectum Dei nostri.

Responsorium. Dolorosa, et lacrymabilis es, virgo Maria, stans juxta crucem Domini Jesu filii tuo redemptoris. 🌞 Virgo Dei genitrix quem totus non capit orbis, hoc crucis fert supplicium, auctor vitae factus homo.

Tractus. Stabat sancta Maria, caeli regina, et mundi domina, juxta crucem Domini nostri Jesus Christi dolorosa. 🌞 O vos omnes, qui transitis per viam, attendite, et videte, si est dolor sicut dolor meus.
Sequence

At the Cross her station keeping, stood the mournful mother weeping, close to Jesus to the last.

Through her heart, His sorrow sharing, all His bitter anguish bearing now at length the sword had passed.

Oh, how sad and sore distressed was that mother highly blessed of the sole-begotten One!

Christ above in torment hangs, she beneath beholds the pangs of her dying, glorious Son.

Is there one who would not weep 'whelmed in miseries so deep Christ's dear mother to behold?

Can the human heart refrain from partaking in her pain, in that mother's pain untold?

Bruised, derided, cursed, defiled, she beheld her tender child, all with bloody scourges rent.

For the sins of His own nation saw Him hang in desolation till His spirit forth He sent.

O sweet mother! fount of love, touch my spirit from above, make my heart with yours accord.

Make me feel as you have felt; make my soul to glow and melt with the love of Christ, my Lord.

Stabat mater dolorosa
Juxta crucem lacrymosa,
Dum pendebat filius.

Cujus animam gementem,
Contristatam et dolentem
Pertransivit gladius.

O quam tristis et afflicta
Fuit illa benedicta
Mater Unigeniti!

Quae moerebat, et dolebat,
Pia mater dum videbat
Poenas nati inculyti.

Quis est homo, qui non fleret,
Matrem Christi si videret
In tanto supplicio?

Quis non posset contristari,
Matrem Christi contemplari
Dolentem cum filio?

Vidit suum dulcem natum
Moriendo desolatum,

Pia mater, fons amoris,
Me sentire vim doloris
Fac, ut tecum lugeam.

Fac ut ardeat cor meum
In amando Christum

Holy mother, pierce me through, in my heart each wound renew of my Savior crucified.

Let me share with you His pain, who for all our sins was slain, who for me in torments died.

Let my tears with you be, mourning Him who mourned for me, all the days that I may live.

By the Cross with you to stay, there with you to weep and pray, is all I ask of you to give.

Virgin of all virgins blest! listen to my fond request: let me share that grief divine.

Let me, to my latest breath, in my body bear the death of that dying Son.

Wounded with His every wound, steep my soul till it has swooned in his very Blood away.

Be to me, O Virgin, nigh, lest in flames I burn and die, in this awful judgment day.

Christ, when You shall call me hence, be Your mother my defense, be Your Cross my victory.

While my body here decays, may my soul Your goodness praise, safe in heaven eternally. Amen.
Gospel. John 19, 25-27. At that time, there were standing by the cross of Jesus His mother and His mother's sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus, therefore, saw His mother and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold your son." Then He said to the disciple, "Behold your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Remember, O Virgin mother of God, when you stand in the sight of the Lord, to intercede on our behalf before Him, and to turn away His anger from us. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord Jesus Christ, these prayers and sacrifices, humbly beseeching You, that we, who in our supplications recall the piercing of the sweet soul of the blessed Mary, Your mother, may, by her multiplied and most loving petitions, with those of her companions at the foot of the cross, through the merits of Your death, have our reward with the saints: who live and reign.

Memory of the Feria. Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Offertorium. Recordare, virgo mater Dei, dum steteris in conspectu Domini, ut loquaris pro nobis bona, et ut avertas indignationem suam a nobis.

Secreta. Offerimus tibi preces et hostias, Domine Jesu Christe, humiliter supplicantes: ut, qui transfixionem dulcissimi spiritus beatae Mariae matris tuae precibus recensemus; suo suorumque sub cruce sanctorum consortium, multiplicato piissimo interventu, meritis mortis tuae, meri­tum cum beatis habeamus. Qui vivis et regnas.
Communion. Happy the heart of the blessed Virgin Mary, who without death obtained the palm of martyrdom beneath the cross of the Lord.

Postcommunion. May the sacrifice which we have received, O Lord, in memory of the soul-piercing of Your virgin mother, obtain for us from Your mercy, the fruit of every blessing: who live and reign.

Epistle. Jer. 18, 18-23. In those days, the wicked Jews said one to another, "Come, and let us invent devices against the just; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet; come, and let us strike him with the tongue and let us give no heed to all his words." Give heed to me, O Lord, and hear the voice of my adversaries. Shall evil be rendered for good, because they have digged a pit for my soul? Remember that I have stood in Your sight, to speak good for them, and to turn away Your indignation from them. Therefore deliver up their children to famine, and bring them into the hands of the sword: let their wives be bereaved of children, and widows, and let their husbands be slain by death; let their young men be stabbed with the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard out of their houses, for You shall bring the robber upon them suddenly, because they have digged a pit to take me, and have hid snares for my feet. But You, O Lord, know all their counsel against me unto death; forgive not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from Your sight. Let them be overthrown before Your eyes; in the time of Your wrath destroy them, O Lord our God.

Responsory. Ps. 34, 20.22. My enemies spoke peaceably to me, and in anger they were troublesome to me. You have seen, O Lord, my God, be not silent; depart not from me.

Gospel. John 12, 10-36. At that time, the chief priests planned to put Lazarus to death also. For on his account many of the Jews began to leave them and to believe in Jesus. Now the next day, the great crowd which had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took the branches of palms and went forth to meet Him. And they cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young ass, and sat upon it, as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Sion; behold, your King comes, sitting upon the colt of an ass." These things His disciples did not at first understand. But when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written. about Him, and that they had done these things to Him. The crowd therefore, which was with Him when He called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead, bore witness to Him. And the reason why the crowd also went to meet Him was that they heard that He had worked this sign. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "Do you see that we avail nothing? Behold, the entire world has gone after Him!" Now there were certain Gentiles among those who had gone up to worship on the feast. These therefore approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip came and told Andrew; again, Andrew and Philip spoke to Jesus. But Jesus answered them, "The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. Amen, amen, I say to you, unless the grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. He who loves his life, loses it; and he who hates his life in this world keeps it unto life everlasting. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am there also shall My servant be. If anyone serves Me, My Father will honor him. Now my soul is troubled.
And what shall I say? Father, save Me from this hour! No, this is why I came to this hour. Father, glorify Your name!” There came therefore a voice from heaven, “I have both glorified it, and I will glorify it again.” Then the crowd which was standing round and had heard, said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to Him.” Jesus answered and said, “Not for Me did this voice come, but for you. Now is the judgment of the world; now will the prince of the world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself.” Now He said this signifying by what death He was to die. The crowd answered Him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ abides forever. And how can You say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Man?” Jesus therefore said to them, “Yet a little while the light is among you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness may not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light.” These things Jesus spoke, and He went away and hid Himself from them.

HOLY WEEK
PALM SUNDAY

℣. The Lord be with you. ℓ. And with your spirit.

The Blessing of the Palms

Let us pray. Almighty and eternal Redeemer, You were pleased to come down from heaven to earth, and by Your own will to choose suffering, that mankind might be made free by Your precious blood; hearken to the devout prayers of Your church, and to our supplications. For You, O Lord, full of meekness, did of Your own free will, sitting upon the meek foal of an ass, go forth to the passion by which our redemption was effected. Eager to do You honor, the multitude of Your disciples, who went forth to meet You, strewed the way with branches of trees; and a great throng of people, also bearing in their hands palms of triumph, met You, exulting and crying out with the voice of praise: "Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord." The way to Mount Olivet was strewn with palm branches for Your passage. Of old You directed Noe in the ark upon the waters of the flood, and did choose through the ministry of a dove

Oremus. Omnipotens sempiterne redemptor, qui de caelis ad terram descendere, et ad passionem voluntatis tuae venire dignatus es, ut humanum genus tuo pretioso sanguine liberares: adesto piis ecclesiae tuae votis, et supplicationibus nostris. Tu enim, Domine, mansuetus, mansueti animalis aselli tergo insidens, ad passionem redemptionis nostrae spontaneus advenisti. Cum tibi ramis arboreis, occurrentibus discipulorum turbis, certatim sterneretur via; et triumphatricibus palmis cum voce laudis occurrerent plurimae populorum catervae exultantes pariter, et dicentes: Hosanna filio David: Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini. Tibi in Monte Oliveti, olivarum ramis via constrata est. Tu quondam Noe in arca super undas diluvii gubernasti, et columbae ministerio per olivae ra-to announce by a palm branch that peace had returned to earth. And also the patriarch Jacob, raising a stone to the mystery of Your glory, poured the oil of benediction, made from the branches of this same tree, upon the top of the title he had set up: with which likewise You anointed Your kings and prophets. For You are the Christ of God; Yours is the fruit of unction and of peace, in whose unspeakable praise the psalmist sang: “God Your God has anointed You with the oil of gladness and exultation above Your fellows. Therefore, O Lord, we humbly beseech You to bless these branches which Your servants desire to bear in their hands, and with them to hasten forth to meet You, and to praise and glorify You. Behold You, the meek king, have come to Jerusalem sitting on an ass. Come also to us, we beseech You; stand in the midst of us, that we may feel Your presence in our hearts. And as You did once redeem us by Your cross, now that we are again fallen, raise us up by Your same most blessed passion. Graciously receive the confession of our lips and the humiliation of our fasting, and grant us to bring forth new fruit, that, being watered by the plenteous mum, pacem terris redditam nuntiari voluisti. Sed et Jacob patriarcha in mysterium gloriae tuae erigens lapidem, ex hujus arboris ramis oleum benedictionis in cacumine tituli infudit: unde unxisti reges et prophetas tuos. Tu enim es Christus Dei; tibi competit fructus unctionis et pacis, in cuius ineffabilem laudem psalmista cecinit, dicens: Unxit te Deus, Deus tuus, oleo laetitiae et exultationis praeparticipibus tuis. Quapropter te, Domine, supplices deprecamur ut bene dicas hos arborum ramos, quos tui famuli, suis suscipientes manibus in occursum tui preparare, teque benedicere et glorificare desiderant. Ecce Jerusalem sedens super asinum rex mansuetus advenisti. Adveni ergo, rogamus, et nobis; et in medium nostri consiste, ut te advenire in nostris cordibus sentiamus. Et qui nos tunc reparasti per crucem, iterum lapsos repara per eamdem beatissimam passionem. Oris nostri confessionem, ac jejunii humilizationem libens suscite, et fructum nos viriditatis habere concede, quatenus tuis imbrisus irrigati, mereamur tibi showers of Your grace, we may be worthy to please You by an abundance of good fruit. And as they went out to meet You with branches green with leaves, so may we at Your second coming deserve to go forth in joy with palms of victory to meet You, O Savior of the world, who with the Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, live and reign God, world without end. R/. Amen.

The palms are then sprinkled with holy water, and distributed by the celebrant, first to the clergy and then to the laity. During the distribution the following antiphons are sung:

The Antiphons

ANT. The Hebrew children, taking up olive branches, met our Lord, crying out and saying: “Hosanna in the highest.”

ANT. The Hebrew children spread their garments in the way, and cried out, saying: “Hosanna to the son of David; Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.”

When the palms have been distributed, the deacon sings the Gospel as follows:

Gospel. Matt. 21, 1-9. At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage, on the Mount of Olives, He sent two disciples, saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find an ass tied, and a colt with her; loose them and bring them to Me. And if anyone say anything to you, you shall say that the Lord has need of them, and immediately he will send them.” Now all this was done that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, “Tell the daughter of Sion: Behold, your King comes to you, meek and seated upon an ass, and upon a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.” So the disciples went and did as Jesus had directed them. And they brought the ass and the colt, laid their cloaks on them, and made Him sit thereon. And most of the crowd spread their cloaks upon the road, while others were cutting branches from the trees, and strewing them on the road. And the crowds that went before Him, and those that followed, kept crying out, saying, “Hosanna to the Son of David! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!”

Next follows the procession, during which are sung the following antiphons:

ANT. When our Lord drew near to Jerusalem, He sent two of His disciples, saying, “Go into the village opposite you, and immediately on entering it you will find a colt tied, upon which no man has yet sat; loose it, and bring it. And if anyone say to you, "What are you doing?" you shall say that the Lord has need of it. And loosing it, they brought it to Jesus and threw their cloaks over it, and He sat upon it. And many spread their cloaks upon the road, while others were cutting branches from the trees, and strewn them on the road. And those who went before Him, and those who followed, kept crying out, saying, "Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that comes! Hosanna in the highest!" Have mercy on us, O Son of David.

The chief priests and the pharisees assembled a council, and said: * "What are we doing?" for this man does many miracles. If we let him go so, all will believe in him; and perchance the Romans will come, and take away our place and nation. * And one of them called Caiphas, being the high-priest of that year, prophesied, saying: "It is expedient for you, that one man die for the people, and not the whole nation perish." From that day therefore, they designed to kill him, saying: * "What are we doing? etc.

At the return of the procession to the door of the church all genuflect to the cross while these words are intoned:

Hail our King, the son of David, Redeemer of the world (all rise up), whom the prophets foretold as the Savior to come to the house of Israel. For the Father sent You into the world as a victim of salvation, whom all the saints from the beginning of the world did look for. And now Hosanna to the son of David: Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest.

Ave rex noster fili David, redemptor mundi (omnes sur-gant), quem prophetae praedixerunt salvatorem domui Israel esse venturum. Te enim ad salutarem victimam Pater misit in mundum, quem exspectabant omnes sancti ab origine mundi. At nunc Hosanna filio David: Benedictus qui venit in nomine Domini: Hosanna in excelsis.

Two singers enter the church (or choir), and shutting the door, stand with their faces towards the procession, singing the two first verses, Gloria laus; which are repeated by the Priest and others without. Then the verses following are to be sung by those within, and they that are without at every second verse answer: Gloria, laus.

To You, O Christ, Redeemer, King! All glory, praise and honor be: whom children hailed meetly, 'Hosanna' singing sweetly. Ἐ. To You, etc., repeated.

We, Israel's monarch, David's son proclaim: You come, blest king, in God's most holy name. Ἐ. To You, etc.

Angels and men in one harmonious choir, to sing Your everlasting praise conspire. Ἐ. To You, etc.

Israel es tu rex, Davidis et inclyta proles: Nomine qui in Domini rex bene-dicte venis. Ἐ. Gloria, laus, etc.

Coetus in excelsis te laudat caelicus omnis, et mortalis homo, et cuncta creata simul. Ἐ. Gloria, laus, etc.
You, Israel's children met with conquering palms, to You our vows we pay in loudest psalms. R/. To You, etc.

Then the procession enters the church (or choir), singing:

R/. As our Lord entered the holy city, the Hebrew children declaring the resurrection of life: * With palm branches, cried out: Hosanna in the highest. V/. When the people heard that Jesus was come to Jerusalem, they went out to meet Him: * With palm branches, etc. V/. From the lion's mouth deliver me, O Lord. R/. And my lowliness from the horns of the unicorns.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, who would have our Savior become man, and suffer on the cross, to give mankind an example of humility, mercifully grant that we may be instructed by His patience, and share in His Resurrection: through the same Christ our Lord. R/. Amen.

PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
Matthew 26, 36-75; 27, 1-60

At that time, Jesus came with His disciples to a country place called Gethsemani, and He said to His disciples, “Sit down here, while I go over yonder and pray.” And He took with Him Peter and the two sons

In illo tempore, venit Jesus cum discipulis suis in villam quae dicitur Gethsemani, et dixit discipulis suis: Sedete hic, donec vadam illuc et orem. Et assumpto Petro, et of Zebedee, and He began to be saddened and exceeding-ingly troubled. Then He said to them, "My soul is sad, even unto death. Wait here and watch with Me." And going forward a little, He fell prostrate and prayed, saying, "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from Me; yet not as I will, but as You will." Then He came to His disciples and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, "Could you not, then, watch one hour with Me? Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." Again a second time He went away and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup cannot pass away unless I drink it, Your will be done." And He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And leaving them He went back again, and prayed a third time, saying the same words over. Then He came to His disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest! Behold, the hour is at hand when the Son of Man will be betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us go. Behold, he who betrays Me is at hand."

And while He was yet speaking, behold Judas, one of the Twelve, came and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I kiss, that is He; lay hold of Him." And he went straight up to Jesus and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed Him. And Jesus said to him, "Friend, for what purpose have you come?" Then they came forward and set hands on Jesus and took Him. And behold, one of those who were with Jesus, reached out his hand, drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. Then Jesus said to him, "Put back your sword into its place; for all those who take the sword will perish by the sword. Or do you suppose that I cannot entreat My Father, and He will even now furnish Me with more than twelve legions of angels? How then are the Scriptures to be fulfilled, that thus it must take place?" In that hour Jesus said to the crowds, "As against a robber you have come out, with swords and clubs, to seize Me. I sat daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not lay hands on Me.” Now all this was done that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

Now those who had taken Jesus led Him away to Caiphas the high priest, where the Scribes and the elders had gathered together. But Peter was following Him at a distance, even to the courtyard of the high priest, and he went in and sat with the attendants to see the end. Now the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin were seeking false witness against Jesus, that they might put Him to death, but they found none, though many false witnesses came forward. But last of all two false witnesses came forward, and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to rebuild it after three days.’” Then the high priest, standing up, said to Him, “Do You make no answer to the things that these men prefer against You?” But Jesus kept silence. And the high priest said to Him, “I adjure You by the living God that You tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God.” Jesus said to him, “You have said it. Nevertheless, I say to you, hereafter you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power of God and coming upon the clouds of heaven.” Then the high priest tore his garments, saying, “He has blasphemed; what further need have we of witnesses? Behold, now you have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?” And they answered and said, “He is liable to death.” Then they spat in His face and buffeted Him; while others struck His face with the palms of their hands, saying, “Prophesy to us, O Christ! who is it that struck You?”

Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard; and a maidservant came up to him and said, “You also were with Jesus the Galilean.” But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know what you are saying.” And when he had gone out to the gateway, another maid saw him, and said to those who were there, “This man also was with Jesus of Nazareth.” And again he denied it with an oath, “I do not know the man!” And after a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, “Surely you also are one of them, for even your speech betrays you.” Then he began to curse and to swear that he did not know the man. And at that moment a cock crowed. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus had said, "Before a cock crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly. Now when morning came all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel together against Jesus in order to put Him to death. And they bound Him and led Him away, and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the procurator.

Then Judas, who betrayed Him, when he saw that He was condemned, repented and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, saying, "I have sinned in betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? See to it yourself." And he flung the pieces of silver into the temple, and withdrew; and went away and hanged himself with a halter. And the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, seeing that it is the price of blood." And after they had consulted together, they bought with them the potter's field, as a burial place for strangers. For this reason that field has been called even to this day, Haceldama, that is, the Field of Blood. Then what was spoken through Jeremias the prophet was fulfilled, "And Jesu quod dixerat: Priusquam gallus cantet, ter me negabis. Et egressus foras, flevit amare. Mane autem facto, consilium inierunt omnes principes sacerdotum et seniores populi adversus Jesum, ut eum morti traderent. Et vinctum adduxerunt eum, et tradiderunt Pontio Pilato praesidi.

Tunc videns Judas, qui eum tradidit quod damnatus esset, poenitentia ductus retulit triginta argenteos principibus sacerdotum et senioribus, dicens: Peccavi tradens sanguinem justum. At illi dixerunt: Quid ad nos? Tu videris. Et projectis argenteis in templo recessit: et abiens laqueo se suspendit. Principes autem sacerdotum, acceptis argenteis, dixerunt: Non licet eos mittere in corbonam, quia pretium sanguinis est. Consilio autem into emerunt ex illis agrum figuli, in sepulturam peregrinorum. Propter hoc vocatus est ager ille Haceldama, hoc est, Ager Sanguinis, usque in hodiernum diem. Tunc implectum est quod dictum they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was priced, upon whom the children of Israel set a price; and they gave them for the potter’s field, as the Lord directed me.”

Now Jesus stood before the procurator, and the procurator asked Him, saying, “Are You the king of the Jews?” Jesus said to him, “You say it.” And when He was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He made no answer. Then Pilate said to Him, “Do You not hear how many things they prefer against You?” But He did not answer him a single word, so that the procurator wondered exceedingly. Now at festival time the procurator used to release to the crowd a prisoner, whomever they would. Now he had at that time a notorious prisoner called Barabbas. Therefore, when they had gathered together, Pilate said, “Whom do you wish that I release to you? Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?” For he knew that they had delivered Him up out of envy. Now, as he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have nothing to do mihi Dominus.

Jesus autem stetit ante praesidem, et interrogavit eum praeses, dicens: Tu es rex Judaeorum? Dicit illi Jesus: Tu dicis. Et cum accusaretur a principibus sacerdotum et senioribus, nihil respondit. Tunc dicit illi Pilatus: Non audis quanta adversum te dicunt testimonia? Et non

But the procurator addressed them, and said to them, "Which of the two do you wish that I release to you?" And they said, "Barabbas." Pilate said to them, "What then am I to do with Jesus who is called Christ?" They all said, "Let Him be crucified!" The procurator said to them, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they kept crying out the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!" Now Pilate, seeing that he was doing no good, but rather that a riot was breaking out, took water and washed his hands in sight of the crowd, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this just man; see to it yourselves." And all the people answered and said, "His blood be on us and on our children." Then he released to them Barabbas; but Jesus he scourged and delivered to them to be crucified.
Then the soldiers of the procurator took Jesus into the praetorium, and gathered together about Him the whole cohort. And they stripped Him and put on Him a scarlet cloak; and plaeting a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head, and a reed into His right hand; and bending the knee before Him they mocked Him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they spat on Him, and took the reed and kept striking Him on the head. And when they had mocked Him, they took the cloak off Him and put His own garments on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him. Now as they went out, they found a man of Cyrene named Simon; him they forced to take up His Cross. And they came to the place called Golgotha, that is, the Place of the Skull. And they gave Him wine to drink mixed with gall; but when He had tasted it, He would not drink. And after they had crucified Him, they divided His garments, casting lots, [to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, "They divided My garments among them, and upon My vesture they cast lots." ] And sitting down they kept watch over Him. And they put above His head the charge against Him, written, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews." Then two robbers were crucified with Him, one on his right hand and one on His left. Now the passers-by were jeering at Him, shaking their heads, and saying, "Aha! You who would destroy the temple of God and in three days build it up again, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the Cross!" In like manner, the chief priests with the Scribes and the elders, mocking, said, "He saved others, Himself. He cannot save! If He is the King of Israel, let Him come down now from the Cross, and we will believe Him. He trusted in God; let Him deliver Him now, if He wants Him; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.'" And the robbers also, who were crucified with Him, reproached Him in the same way.

Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. But about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lamma sabacthani," that is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" And some of the bystanders... on hearing this said, “This man is calling Elias.” And immediately one of them ran and, taking a sponge, soaked it in common wine, put it on a reed and offered it to Him to drink. But the rest said, “Wait, let us see whether Elias is coming to save Him.” But Jesus again cried out with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit. (Here all kneel and pause a few moments:) And behold, the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom; and the earth quaked, and the rocks were rent, and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep arose; and coming forth out of the tombs after His Resurrection, they came into the holy city, and appeared to many. Now when the centurion, and those who were with him keeping guard over Jesus, saw the earthquake and the things that were happening, they were very much afraid, and they said, “Truly He was the Son of God.” And many women were there, looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering to Him. Among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee.
Now when it was evening, there came a certain rich man of Arimathea, Joseph by name, who was himself a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered the body to be given up. And Joseph taking the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and laid it in his new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock. Then he rolled a large stone to the entrance of the tomb, and departed. Creed, p. 621.

When the celebrant says two or more Masses, he is not bound to repeat the reading of the Lord’s Passion; in place of it the following Gospel is read:

Now he said this, not that he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and holding the purse, used to take what was put in it. Jesus therefore said, "Let her be—that she may keep it for the day of My burial. For the poor you have always with you, but you do not always have Me." Now the great crowd of the Jews learned that He was there; and they came, not only because of Jesus, but that they might see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, grant that we may so celebrate the mysteries of our Lord’s passion that we may deserve to obtain Your pardon: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Jer. 11, 18-20. In those days, Jeremias said: “O Lord, You have shown me, and I have known: then You did show me their doings. And I was as a meek lamb that is carried to be a victim. And I knew not that they had devised counsels against me, saying: Let us put wood on his bread and cut him off from the land of the living, and let his name be remembered no more. But You, O Lord of Sabaoth, who judge justly, and try the reins and the hearts, let me see Your revenge on them: for to You have I revealed my cause, O Lord my God.”

Responsory. Ps. 34, 13. 1-2. But I, when they troubled me, put on haircloth, and humbled my soul in fasting; and my prayer will be returned into my bosom. ¶. Judge, O Lord, those who hurt me; defeat those who assault me; take up Your armor and shield, and come to my assistance.

Responsorium. Ego autem, dum mihi molesti essent, induebam me cilicio, et humiliabam in jejunio animam meam: et oratio mea in sinu meo convertetur. ¶. Judica, Domine, nocentes me; expugna impugnantes me: apprehende arma et scutum, et exsurge in adjutorium mihi.”
PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
Mark 14, 32-72; 15, 1-46

At that time, Jesus and His disciples came to a country place called Gethsemani, and He said to His disciples, "Sit down here, while I pray." And He took with Him Peter and James and John, and He began to feel dread and to be exceedingly troubled. And He said to them, "My soul is sad, even unto death. Wait here and watch." And going forward a little, He fell on the ground, and began to pray that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him; and He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to You. Remove this cup from Me; yet not what I will, but what You will." Then He came and found them sleeping. And He said to Peter, "Simon, do you sleep? Could you not watch one hour? Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak." And again He went away and prayed, saying the same words over. And He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what answer to make to Him. And He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest! It is enough; the hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us go. Behold, he who will betray Me is at hand.”

And while He was yet speaking, Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, came and with him a great crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the Scribes and the elders. Now His betrayer had given them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, that is He; lay hold of Him, and lead Him safely away.” And when he came, he went straight up to Him, and said, “Hail, Rabbi!” and kissed Him. And they seized Him and held Him. But one of the bystanders drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. And Jesus, addressing them, said, “As against a robber you have come out, with swords and clubs, to seize Me. I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you did not lay hands on Me. But it is so that the Scriptures may be fulfilled.” Then all His disciples left Him and fled. And a certain young man was following Him, having a linen cloth wrapped about his naked body, and they seized him. But leaving the linen cloth behind, he fled away from them naked.

And they led Jesus away to the high priest; and all the priests and the Scribes and the elders gathered together. But Peter followed Him at a distance, even to the courtyard of the high priest, and was sitting with the attendants at the fire and warming himself. Now the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin were seeking witness against Jesus, that they might put Him to death, but they found none. For while many bore false witness against Him, their evidence did not agree. And some stood up and bore false witness against Him, saying, "We ourselves have heard Him say, 'I will destroy this temple built by hands, and after three days I will build another, not built by hands.'" And even then their evidence did not agree. Then the high priest, standing up in their midst, asked Jesus, saying, "Do You make no answer to the things that these men prefer against You?" But He kept silence, and made no answer. Again the high priest began to ask Him, and said to Him, "Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed God?" And Jesus said to him, "I am. And you shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power of God and coming with the clouds of heaven.” But the high priest tore his garments and said, “What further need have we of witnesses? You have heard the blasphemy. What do you think?” And they all condemned Him as liable to death. And some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to buffet Him, and to say to Him, “Prophesy.” And the attendants struck Him with blows of their hands.

And while Peter was below in the courtyard, there came one of the maidservants of the high priest; and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked closely at him and said, “You also were with Jesus of Nazareth.” But he denied it, saying, “I neither know nor understand what you are saying.” And he went outside into the vestibule; and the cock crowed. And the maidservant, seeing him again, began to say to the bystanders, “This is one of them.” But again he denied it. And after a little while the bystanders again said to Peter, “Surely you are one of them, for you are also a Galilean.” But he began to curse and to swear: “I do not know this man you are talking about.” And at that moment a cock crowed a second time. And Peter remembered the word that Jesus had said to him, "Before a cock crows twice, you will deny Me three times." And he began to weep.

And as soon as it was morning, the chief priests held a consultation with the elders, the Scribes and the whole Sanhedrin. And they bound Jesus and led Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate. And Pilate asked Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He answered him and said, "You say it." And the chief priests accused Him of many things. And Pilate again asked Him, saying, "Have You no answer to make? Behold how many things they accuse You of." But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate wondered.

Now at festival time he used to release to them one of the prisoners, whomever they had petitioned for. Now there was a man called Barabbas imprisoned with some rioters, one who in the riot had committed murder. And the crowd came up, and began to ask that he do for them as he was wont. But Pilate addressed them, saying, "Do you wish that I release to you the King of the Jews?" For he knew that the chief priests had delivered Him up out of envy. But the chief priests stirred verbi quod dixerat ei Jesus: Priusquam gallus cantet bis, ter me negabis. Et coepit flere.

Per diem autem festum solem at dimittere illis unum ex vinctis, quemcumque petissent. Erat autem qui dicebatur Barabbas, qui cum seditiosis erat vinctus, qui in seditione fecerat homicidium. Et cum ascendisset turba, coepit rogare, sicut semper faciebat illis. Pilatus autem respondit eis, et dixit: Vultis dimittam vobis regem Judaeorum? Sciebat enim, quod per invidiam tradidissent eum summi up the crowd to have him release Barabbas for them instead. But Pilate again spoke and said to them, "What then do you want me to do to the King of the Jews?" But they cried out again, "Crucify Him!" But Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they kept crying out the more, "Crucify Him!" So Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released to them Barabbas; but Jesus he scourged and delivered to be crucified.

Now the soldiers led Him away into the courtyard of the praetorium, and they called together the whole cohort. And they clothed Him in purple, and plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it upon Him, and began to greet Him, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they kept striking Him on the head with a reed, and spitting upon Him; and bending their knees, they did homage to Him. And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him and put His own garments on Him, and led Him out to crucify Him. And they forced a certain passer-by, Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to take up His cross.
And they brought Him to the place called Golgotha, which, translated, is the Place of the Skull. And they gave Him wine to drink mixed with myrrh; but He did not take it. Then they crucified Him, and divided His garments, casting lots for them to see what each should take. Now it was the third hour and they crucified Him. And the inscription bearing the charge against Him was, “The King of the Jews.” And they crucified two robbers with Him, one on His right hand and one on His left. And the Scripture was fulfilled, which says, “And He was reckoned among the wicked.” And the passers-by were jeering at Him, shaking their heads, and saying, “Aha! You who destroy the temple, and in three days build it up again; come down from the cross, and save Yourself!” In like manner, the chief priests with the Scribes said in mockery to one another, “He saved others, Himself He cannot save! Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, that we may see and believe.” And they who were crucified with Him reproached Him. And when the sixth hour came, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lamma sabacthani?" which, translated is, "My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?" And some of the bystanders on hearing this said, "Behold, He is calling Elias." But someone ran, soaked a sponge in common wine, put it on a reed and offered it to Him to drink, saying, "Wait, let us see whether Elias is coming to take Him down." But Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and expired. (Kneel and pause a few moments.)

And the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. Now when the centurion, who stood facing Him, saw how He had thus cried out and expired, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God." And some women were also there, looking on from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James the Less and of Joseph, and Salome. These used to accompany Him and minister to Him when He was in Galilee—besides many other women who had come with Him to Jerusalem.

Now when it was evening, as it was the Day of Preparation, that is, the eve of the Sabbath, there came Joseph of Arimathea, a councillor of high rank, who was himself looking for the kingdom of God. And he went in boldly to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. But Pilate wondered whether He had already died. And sending for the centurion, he asked him whether He was already dead. And when he learned from the centurion that He was, he granted the body to Joseph. And Joseph bought a linen cloth, and took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of a rock. Then he rolled a stone to the entrance of the tomb.

Why then is your apparel red, and your garments like theirs that tread in the winepress? I have trodden the winepress alone, and of the Gentiles there is not a man with me; I have trampled on them in my indignation and have trodden them down in my wrath; and their blood is sprinkled upon my garments, and I have stained all my apparel. For the day of vengeance is in my heart, the year of my redemption is come. I looked about, and there was none to help: I sought, and there was none to give aid; and my own arm has saved for me, and my indignation itself has helped me. And I have trodden down the people in my wrath and have made them drunk in my indignation, and have brought down their strength to the earth.' I will remember the tender mercies of the Lord, the praise of the Lord for all the things that the Lord our God has bestowed upon us."

Epistle. Isa. 53, 1-12. In those days, Isaias said: "Who has believed our report, and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed? And He shall grow up as a tender plant before Him, and as a root out of a thirsty ground; there is no beauty in Him, nor comeliness; and we have seen Him, and there was no sightliness that we should be desirous of Him; despised and the most abject of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with infirmity; and His look was as it were hidden and despised, whereupon we esteemed Him not. Surely He has borne our infirmities and carried our sorrows: and we have thought Him as it were a leper, and as one struck by God and afflicted. But He was wounded for our iniquities. He was bruised for our sins; the chastisement of our peace was upon Him, and by His bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray, everyone has turned

He was offered because it was His own will, and He opened not His mouth: He shall be led as a sheep to the slaughter, and shall be dumb as a lamb before his shearer, and He shall not open His mouth. He was taken away from distress and from judgment: who shall declare His generation? Because He is cut off out of the land of the living: for the wickedness of My people have I struck Him. And He shall give the ungodly for His burial, and the rich for His death, because He has done no iniquity, neither was there deceit in His mouth. And the Lord was pleased to bruise Him in infirmity; if He shall lay down His life for sin, He shall see a long-lived seed, and the will of the Lord shall be prosperous in His hand. Because His soul has labored, He shall see and be filled: by His knowledge shall this My just servant justify many, and He shall bear their iniquities. Therefore will I distribute to Him very many, and He shall divide the spoils of the strong, because He has delivered His soul unto death and was reputed with the wicked: and has borne the sins of many and has prayed for the transgressors.”

PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST

At that time, Jesus came out and went, according to His custom, to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed Him. But when He was at the place, He said to them, “Pray, that you may not enter into temptation.” And He Himself withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, and kneeling down, He began to pray, saying, "Father, if You are willing, remove this cup from Me; yet not My will but Yours be done." And there appeared to Him an angel from heaven to strengthen Him. And falling into an agony He prayed the more earnestly. And His sweat became as drops of blood running down upon the ground. And rising from prayer He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping for sorrow. And He said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, that you may not enter into temptation."

And while He was yet speaking, behold, a crowd came; and he who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was going before them, and he drew near to Jesus to kiss Him. But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?" But when they who were about Him saw what would follow, they said to Him, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?" And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. But Jesus answered and said, "Bear with them thus far." And He touched his ear and healed him. But Jesus said to the chief priests and captains of the temple and elders, who had come against Him, "As against a robber have you come out, with swords and clubs. When I was daily with you in the temple, you did not stretch forth your hands against Me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

Now having seized Him, they led Him away to the high priest’s house; but Peter was following at a distance. And when they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and were seated together, Peter was in their midst. But a certain maidservant saw him sitting at the blaze, and after gazing upon him she said, "This man too was with Him." But he denied Him, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him." And after a little while someone else saw him and said, "You, too, are one of them." But Peter said, "Man, I am not." And about an hour later another insisted, saying, "Surely this man, too, was with Him, for he also is a Galilean." But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you say." And at that moment, while he was yet speaking, a cock crowed. And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He said, "Before a cock crows, you will deny Me three times." And Peter went out and wept bitterly.

cum gladiis et fustibus? Cum quotidie vobiscum fuerim in templo, non extendistis manus in me: sed haec est hora vestra, et potestas tenebrarum.

And the men who had Him in custody began to mock Him and beat Him. And they blindfolded Him, and kept striking His face and asking Him, saying, “Prophesy, who is it that struck You?” And many other things they kept saying against Him, reviling Him. And as soon as day broke, the elders of the people and the chief priests and Scribes gathered together; and they led Him away into their Sanhedrin, saying, “If You are the Christ, tell us.” And He said to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe Me; and if I question you, you will not answer Me, or let Me go. But henceforth, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.” And they all said, “Are You then, the Son of God?” He answered, “You yourselves say that I am.” And they said, “What further need have we of witnesses? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth.”

And the whole assemblage rose, and took Him before Pilate. And they began to accuse Him, saying, “We have found this man perverting our nation, and forbidding the payment of taxes to Caesar, and saying that He is Christ a king." So Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He answered him and said, "You say it." And Pilate said to the chief priests and to the crowds, "I find no guilt in this man." But they persisted, saying, "He is stirring up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, and beginning from Galilee even to this place."

But Pilate, hearing Galilee, asked whether the Man was a Galilean. And learning that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him back to Herod, who likewise was in Jerusalem in those days. Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad; for he had been a long time desirous to see Him, because he had heard so much about Him, and he was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. Now he put many questions to Him, but He made him no answer. Now the chief priests and Scribes were standing by, vehemently accusing Him. But Herod, with his soldiery, treated Him with contempt and mocked Him, arraying Him in a bright robe, and sent Him back to Pilate. And Herod and Pilate became friends that very day; whereas previously they had been at enmity with each other.

And Pilate called together the chief priests and the ad principes sacerdotum et turbas: Nihil invenio causae in hoc homine. At illi invalescebant, dicentes: Commovet populum, docens per universam Judaeam incipiens a Galilaea usque huc.

Pilatus autem audiens Galilaeam, interrogavit si homo Galilaeus esset. Et ut cognovit quod de Herodis potestate esset, remisit eum ad Herodem, qui et ipse Jerosolymis erat illis diebus. Herodes autem viso Jesu gavisus est valde; erat enim cupiens ex multo tempore videre eum, eo quod audierat multa de eo: et sperabat signum aliquod videre ab eo fieri. Interrogabat autem eum multis sermonibus. At ipse nihil illi respondebat. Stabant autem principes sacerdotum et scribae constanter accusantes eum. Sprevit autem illum Herodes cum exercitu suo: et illusit indutum veste alba, et remisit ad Pilatum. Et facti sunt amici Herodes et Pilatus in ipsa die: nam antea inimici erant ad invicem.

Pilatus autem convocatis principibus sacerdotum, et rulers and the people, and said to them, "You have brought before me this man, as one who perverts the people; and behold, I upon examining Him in your presence have found no guilt in this man as touching those things of which you accuse Him. Neither has Herod; for I sent you back to him, and behold, nothing deserving of death has been committed by Him. I will therefore chastise Him and release Him."

Now at festival time it was necessary for him to release to them one prisoner. But the whole mob cried out together, saying, "Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas!"—one who had been thrown into prison for a certain riot that had occurred in the city, and for murder. But Pilate spoke to them again, wishing to release Jesus. But they kept shouting, saying, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" And he said to them a third time, "Why, what evil has this man done? I find no crime deserving of death in Him. I will therefore chastise Him and release Him." But they persisted with loud cries, demanding that He should be crucified; and their cries prevailed. And Pilate pronounced sentence that what they asked for should be done. So he released to them... him who for murder and riot had been put in prison, for whom they were asking; but Jesus he delivered to their will.

And as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and upon him they laid the cross to bear it after Jesus. Now there was following Him a great crowd of the people, and of women, who were bewailing and lamenting Him. But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children. For behold, days are coming in which men will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and breasts that never nursed.' Then they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' For if in the case of green wood they do these things, what is to happen in the case of the dry?"

Now there were also two other malefactors led to execution with Him. And when they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified Him there; and the robbers, one on His right hand and the other on His left. And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not missus fuerat in carcerem, quem petebant: Jesum vero tradidit voluntati eorum.

Ducebantur autem et alii duo nequam cum eo, ut interficerentur. Et postquam venerunt in locum, qui vocatur Calvariae, ibi crucifixerunt eum; et latrones, unum a dextris et alterum a sinistris. Jesus autem dicebat: Pater, dimitte illis, non enim sciunt quid faciunt. Dividentes vero vestiknow what they are doing." Now in dividing His garments, they cast lots. And the people stood looking on; and the rulers with them kept sneering at Him, saying, "He saved others; let Him save Himself, if He is the Christ, the Chosen One of God." And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming to Him and offering Him common wine, and saying, "If You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself." And there was also an inscription written over Him in Greek and Latin and Hebrew letters, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of those robbers who were hanged was abusing Him, saying, "If You are the Christ, save Yourself and us!" But the other in answer rebuked him and said, "Do not even you fear God, seeing that you are under the same sentence? And we indeed justly, for we are receiving what our deeds deserved; but this man has done nothing wrong." And he said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when You come into Your kingdom." And Jesus said to him, "Amen I say to you, this day you shall be with Me in paradise."

It was now about the sixth hour, and there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the curtain of the temple was torn in the middle. And Jesus cried out with a loud voice and said, “Father, into Your hands I commend My spirit.” And having said this, He expired. (Here all kneel for a few moments.)

Now when the centurion saw what had happened, he glorified God, saying, “Truly this was a just man.” And all the crowd that collected for the sight, when they beheld what things had happened, began to return beating their breasts. But all His acquaintances, and the women who had followed Him from Galilee, were standing at a distance looking on.

And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a councillor, a good and just man—he had not been party to their plan of action—of Arimathea, a town of Judea, who was himself looking for the kingdom of God. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. And he took Him down, and wrapped Him in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a rock-hewn tomb where no one had ever yet been laid.

Offertory. Ps. 101, 2-3. O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come to You; turn not Your face from me.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

magna Jesus, ait: Pater, in manus tuas commendo spiritum meum. Et haec dicens, exspiravit. (Here all kneel for a few moments.)

Videns autem centurio quod factum fuerat, glorificavit Deum, dicens: Vere hic homo justus erat. Et omnis turba eorum, qui simul aderant ad spectaculum istud, et videbant quae siebant, percutientes pectora sua revertebantur.
Stabant autem omnes nobis ejus a longe, et mulieres, quae secutae eum erant a Galilæa, haec videntes.

Et ecce vir nomine Joseph, qui erat decurio, vir bonus et justus, (hic non consenserat consilio et actibus eorum), ab Arimathæa, civitate Judæae, qui expectabat et ipse regnum Dei. hic accessit ad Pilatum, et petit corpus Jesu.
Et depositum involvit sindone, et posuit eum in monu­ mento excisso, in quo nondum quisquam positus fuerat.

Offertorium. Domine, exaudi orationem meam, et clamor meus ad te perveniat: ne avertas faciem tuam a me.
Secret. Accept, O Lord, we pray, the gift offered to You, and mercifully bring it to pass, that what we celebrate in this mystery of the passion of Your Son, our Lord, we may attain by devoted affection: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. Ps. 101, 10.13.14. I mingled my drink with tears, because having lifted me up You have cast me down, and I withered like grass; but You, O Lord, continue forever. You shall rise up and have mercy on Sion, because the time to have mercy on her is come.

Postcommunion. Grant to our understanding, almighty God, through the temporal death of Your Son which these sacred mysteries show forth, the confidence that You have already bestowed upon us life everlasting: through the same Lord.

Let us pray. Bow down your heads before God.

Prayer. Look down, we beseech You, O Lord, upon this Your family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ did not refuse to be delivered into the hands of the wicked, and to endure the torment of the cross: who lives and reigns with You.

Secreta. Suscipe, quaesumus Domine, munus oblatum, et dignanter operare, ut quod passionis Filii tui Domini nostri mysterio gerimus, piis affectibus consequamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Postcommunio. Largire sensibus nostris, omnipotens Deus, ut per temporalem Filii tui mortem, quam mysteria veneranda testantur, vitam te nobis didisse, perpetuam confidamus. Per eundem Dominum.

Oremus. Humiliate capita vestra Deo.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

The priest and the other ministers and servers enter, and imme­diately prostrate themselves on the altar steps, while the follow­ing are being said (the Gloria being omitted at the end of each Psalm).

The Penitential Psalms

Psalm 6. O Lord, rebuke me not in Your indignation; nor chastise me in Your wrath. 2. Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am weak; heal me, O Lord, for my bones are troubled. 3. My soul also is troubled exceedingly; but You, O Lord, how long? 4. Turn, O Lord, and deliver my soul; O save me for Your mercy’s sake. 5. For in death there is no one that remembers You; and who will give You thanks in hell? 6. I have labored in my groanings; every night will I wash my bed, and water my couch with my tears. 7. My eye is troubled through indignation; I have grown old among all my enemies. 8. Depart from me, all you who work iniquity; for the Lord has heard the voice of my weeping. 9. The Lord has heard my supplication; the Lord has received my prayer. 10. Let all my enemies be ashamed and sore vexed; let them be turned back, and be ashamed very speedily.

Psalm 31. Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered. 2. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord has not imputed sin, and in whose spirit there is no guile. 3. Because I was silent, my bones grew old, while I cried aloud all the day long. 4. For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me. I am turned in my anguish, while the thorn was fastened in me. 5. I have acknowledged my sin unto You, and my injustice I have not concealed. 6. I said: I will confess against myself my injustice to the Lord; and You have forgiven the wickedness of my sin. 7. For this shall every one who is holy pray unto You: in a seasonable time. 8. But in the flood of many waters, they shall not come nigh unto him. 9. You are my refuge from the trouble which has surrounded me. My joy, deliver me from them who encompass me. 10. I will give You understanding, and will instruct You in the way wherein You shall go; I will fix my eyes upon You. 11. Do not become like the horse and the mule, which have no understanding. 12. With bit and bridle bind fast the jaws of those who come not nigh unto You. 13. Many are the scourges of the sinner, but mercy shall encompass him who hopes in the Lord; 14. Be glad, O just, and rejoice in the Lord; and let all glory who are right of heart.

Psalm 37. O Lord, rebuke me not in Your indignation, nor chastise me in Your wrath. 2. For thine arrows stick fast in me, and You have laid Your hand heavily upon me. 3. There is no health in my flesh because of Your wrath; there is no peace for my bones because of my sins. 4. For my iniquities are gone over my head, and as a heavy burden press sorely upon me. 5. My wounds have putrified and are corrupt because of my foolishness. 6. I am become miserable, and am bowed down even to the end. I walked sorrowful all the day long. 7. For my loins are filled with illusions, and there is no soundness in my flesh. 8. I am afflicted and humbled exceedingly; I have roared from the groaning of my heart. 9. Lord, all my desire is before You; and my groaning is not hidden from You. 10. My heart is troubled, my strength has failed me; the very light of my eyes is gone from me. 11. My friends and my neighbors have drawn near and stood against me. 12. They who were near me stood afar off; and they who sought after my soul used violence. 13. And they who sought to do me evil talked vanities, and studied deceits all the day long. 14. But I, as a deaf man, heard not; and as one who is dumb, who opens not his mouth. 15. I became as a man who hears not: and who has no reproofs in his mouth. 16. For in You, O Lord, have I hoped;

You will hear me, O Lord my God. 17. For I said: Let not my enemies at any time triumph over me. And when my feet slip they have spoken great things against me. 18. For I am prepared for scourges, and my sorrow is always before me. 19. For I will declare my iniquity, and will think for my sin. 20. But my enemies live, and are strengthened against me; and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied. 21. They who render evil for good spoke against me, because I followed goodness.
22. Forsake me not, O Lord my God; go not far from me. 23. Hasten to my help, O Lord God of my salvation.
Have mercy upon me, O God, according to Your great mercy. 2. And according to the multitude of Your tender mercies, blot out my iniquity. 3. Wash me yet more from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin. 4. For I know my iniquity, and my sin is always before me. 5. Against You only have I sinned, and have done evil before You, that You may be justified in Your words, and may overcome when You are judged. 6. For behold, I was conceived in iniquities, and in sins did my mother conceive me. 7. For behold, You have loved truth; the uncertain and hidden things of Your wisdom You have made manifest unto me. 8. You shall sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed; You shall wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow. 9. To my hearing You shall give joy and gladness; and the bones that have been humbled shall rejoice. 10. Turn away Your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities. 11. Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within my bowels. 12. Cast me not away from Your face; and take not Your holy spirit from me. 13. Restore unto me the joy of Your salvation, and strengthen me with a perfect spirit. 14. I will teach the unjust Your ways, and the wicked shall be converted to You. 15. Deliver me from blood, O God, God of my salvation, and my tongue shall extol Your justice. 16. O Lord, You shall open my lips, and my mouth shall declare Your praise. 17. For if You had desired sacrifice, I would indeed have given it: with burnt offerings You will not be delighted. 18. The sacrifice to God is an afflicted spirit; a contrite and humble heart, O God, You will not despise. 19. Deal favorably, O Lord, in Your good will with Sion; that the walls of Jerusalem may be built up. 20. Then shall You accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations, and whole burnt offerings; then shall they lay calves upon your altar.

Psalm 101. O Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come unto You. 2. Turn not away Your face from me; in the day when I am in trouble, incline Your ear unto me. 3. In what day soever I shall call upon You: hear me speedily. 4. For my days are vanished like smoke; and my bones are dried up like fuel for the fire. 5. I am smitten as grass, and my heart is withered; for I have forgotten to eat my bread. 6. Through the voice of my groaning, my bone has cleaved to my flesh. 7. I am become like a pelican of the wilderness, and like a night-raven in the house. 8. I have watched, and am become like a sparrow that sits alone on the housetop. 9. My enemies reviled me all the day long, and they who praised me did swear together against me. 10. For I have eaten ashes as it were bread, and mingled my drink with weeping. 11. Because of Your indignation and wrath; for You have lifted me up and cast me down. 12. My days are gone down like a shadow, and I am withered like grass. 13. But You, O Lord, endure forever, and Your memorial to all generations. 14. You shall arise and have mercy upon Sion, for it is time that You have mercy upon her, for the time is come. 15. For Your servants have delighted in her stones, and they shall have compassion on the earth thereof. 16. And the gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord: and all the kings of the earth Your glory. 17. For the Lord has built up Sion, and he shall be seen in his glory. 18. He has had regard unto the prayer of the lowly, and has not despised their petition. 19. Let these things be written in another generation, and the people who shall be created shall praise the Lord. 20. For he has looked down from his high and holy place; from heaven has the Lord looked upon the earth. 21. That he might hear the groaning of them who are in fetters; that he might release the children of the slain. 22. That they may declare the name of the Lord in Sion, and his praise in Jerusalem, 23. When the people assemble together; and kings, that they may serve the Lord. 24. He answered him in the way of his strength: declare unto me the fewness of my days. 25. Call me not away in the midst of my days; Your years are unto generation and generation. 26. You, Lord, in the beginning did lay the foundations of the earth; and the heavens are the works of Your hands. 27. They shall perish, but You endure, and they all shall grow old like a garment. 28. And as a vesture shall You change them, and they shall be changed; but You are the self-same, and Your years shall not fail. 29. The children of Your servants shall continue, and their seed shall be directed forever.

Psalm 129. Out of the depths I have cried unto You, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice. 2. Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplication. 3. If You, O

Psalmus 129. De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine: Domine, exaudi vocem meam. 2. Fiant aures tuae intendentes:
Lord, will mark iniquities, Lord, who shall stand it?
4. For with You there is merciful forgiveness, and because of Your law I have waited for You, O Lord. 5. My soul has relied on his word, my soul has hoped in the Lord. 6. From the morning watch even until night; let Israel hope in the Lord. 7. For with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption. 8. And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

Psalm 142. Hear my prayer, O Lord; give ear to my supplication in Your truth: hearken unto me in Your justice. 2. And enter not into judgement with Your servant, for in Your sight shall no man be justified. 3. For the enemy has persecuted my soul; he has brought my life down unto the earth. 4. He has made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead. And my spirit is vexed within me, my heart within me is troubled. 5. I have remembered the days of old, I have thought upon all Your works; I have meditated upon the works of Your hands. 6. I have stretched forth my hands unto You; my soul gasps unto You, as a land where no water is. 7. Hear me speedily, O Lord, my spirit has fainted away. 8. Turn not away Your face from me, lest I be like unto them who go down into the pit. 9. Make me to hear Your mercy in the morning, for in You have I hoped. 10. Make known to me the way wherein I should walk, for to You have I lifted up my soul. 11. Deliver me from my enemies, O Lord, unto You have I fled. Teach me to do Your will, for You are my God. 12. Your good spirit shall lead me into the right land; for Your name’s sake, O Lord, You shall quicken me in Your justice. 13. You will bring my soul out of trouble, and in Your mercy You will destroy my enemies. 14. You will destroy all them who afflict my soul, for I am Your servant.

ANT. Remember not, O Lord, our offences, nor those of our parents; neither take vengeance of our sins. Lord, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us. Our Father . . . .

Then the priest rises with the deacon, and standing on the altar step, says:

And lead us not into temptation, etc.

†. Save Your servants. †. Who hope in You, O my God.

Et ne nos inducas, etc.

†. Salvos fac servos tuos. †. Deus meus sperantes in te.
Send them help, O Lord, from Your holy place. And defend them out of Sion.

Be unto them, O Lord, a tower of strength. From the face of the enemy.

O Lord, hear my prayer. And let my cry come unto You.

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

Collect. Hear, O Lord, our prayers, and spare the sins of those who confess to You; that those who are reproached by their own consciences, may be absolved by the indulgence of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Absolution. May the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave to the blessed apostle Peter the power of binding and loosing, loosen you from every bond of faults: and in so far as is permitted to my weakness, may you be absolved before the tribunal of the same Lord Jesus Christ from all your sins and negligences, and may you have life everlasting, and live forever and ever. Amen.

Mitte eis Domine, auxilium de sancto. Et de Sion tuere eos.

Esto eis, Domine, turris fortitudinis. A facie inimici.

Domine, exaudi orationem meam. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

Dominus vobiscum. Et cum spiritu tuo.

THE MASS

Office. Gal. 6, 14. We ought to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection; by whom we are saved and delivered.

Collect. O God, from whom Judas received the punishment of his sin, and the thief the reward of his confession; grant us the effects of Your mercy, that as our Lord Jesus Christ in His passion bestowed on each, different rewards of their merits, so having destroyed the old man in us, He may give us the grace of His resurrection: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 11, 20-32. Brethren: When you meet together, it is no longer possible to eat the Lord’s Supper. For at the meal, each one takes first his own supper, and one is hungry, another drinks overmuch. Have you not houses for your eating and drinking? Or do you despise the church of God and put to shame the needy? What am I to say to you? Am I to commend...

Epistola. Fratres: Convenientibus vobis in unum, jam non est Dominicam cenan manducare. Unusquisque enim suam cenan praesumit ad manducandum. Et alius quidem esurit, alius autem ebrius est. Numquid domos non habetis ad manducandum et bibendum? Aut ecclesiam Dei contemptit et confunditis eos qui non habent? Quid dicam vobis?
you? In this I do not commend you. For I myself have received from the Lord (what I also delivered to you), that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks broke, and said, "Take and eat; this is My body which shall be given up for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In like manner also the cup, after He had supped, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as you shall eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord, until He comes." Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of the cup; for he who eats and drinks unworthily, without distinguishing the body of the Lord, eats and drinks judgment to himself. This is why many among you are infirm and weak, and many sleep. But if we judged ourselves, we should not thus be judged. But when we are judged, we are being chastised by the Lord that we may not be condemned with this world.

Responsory. Phil. 2, 8-9. Christ became obedient for us unto death, even to death on a cross. Therefore, God also has exalted Him and has given Him the name that is above every name.

Gospel. John 13, 1-15. Before the feast of the Passover, Jesus, knowing that the hour had come for Him to pass out of this world to the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, loved them to the end. And during the supper, the devil having already put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him, Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that He had come forth from God and was going to God, rose from the supper and laid aside His garments, and taking a towel girded Himself. Then He poured water into the basin and began to wash the feet of the disciples, and to dry them with the towel with which He was girded. He came, then, to Simon Peter. And Peter said to Him, “Lord, do You wash my feet?” Jesus answered and said to him, “What I do you know not now; but you shall know hereafter.” Peter said to Him, “You shall never wash my feet!” Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you shall have no part with Me.” Simon Peter said to Him, “Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!” Jesus said to him, “He who has bathed needs only to wash, and he is clean all over. And you are clean, but not all.” For He knew who it was that would betray Him. This is why He said, “You are not all clean.” Now after He had washed their feet and put on His garments, when He had reclined again, He said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you? You call Me Master and Lord, and you say well, for so I am. If, therefore, I the Lord and Master have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. For I have given you an example, that as I have done to you, so you also should do.”

Offertory. Ps. 117, 16.17. The right hand of the Lord has shown its power; the right hand of the Lord has exalted me. I shall not die, but live and declare the works of the Lord.

Secret. We beseech You, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, that our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son may make our sacrifice acceptable to You, who on this day commanded His disciples to celebrate it in memory of Him: who lives and reigns with You.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

WITHIN THE CANON

In the unity of holy fellowship and celebrating this most sacred day, in which our Lord Jesus Christ was betrayed for us; and also honoring in the first place the memory of the ever-glorious virgin Mary, Mother of our Lord and God, Jesus Christ; as also of Your blessed apostles and martyrs, Peter and Paul, Andrew, James, John, Thomas, James, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Simon and Thaddeus: Linus, Cletus, Clement, Xystus, Cornelius, Cyprian, Lawrence, Chrysogonus, John and Paul, Cosmas and Damian, and of all Your saints: by whose merits and prayers grant that we may in all things be defended by the help of Your protection: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

We therefore beseech You, O Lord, graciously to accept this offering of our service, and of all Your household, which we make to You in memory of the day in which our Lord Jesus Christ commanded His disciples to celebrate the mysteries of His body and blood; provide also that our days be spent in peace, and command us to be preserved from eternal damnation, and to be numbered in the flock of Your elect: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God, be pleased, we beseech You, to bless what we offer, sanctify it, approve it, make it wholly reasonable and acceptable, so that it may become for us the body and blood of Your most beloved Son our Lord Jesus Christ.

Who the day before He suffered for our salvation and for that of all men, that is, on this day, took bread, etc.

The rest of the Canon to the Communion, as p. 633, except that the kiss of peace is not given.

Communion. John 13, 12.13.15. The Lord Jesus, after He had supped with His disciples, washed their feet, and said to them, "Do you know what I, your Lord and Master, have done to you? I have given you an example, that so you also should do."

minus noster Jesus Christus tradidit discipulis suis corporis et sanguinis sui mysteria celebranda, quae sumus Domine, ut placatus accipias: diesque nostros in tua pace disponas, atque ab aeterna damnatione nos eripi, et in electorum tuorum jubeas grege numerari. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Quam oblationem tu Deus in omnibus quaesumus, bene dictam, adscrip tam, ra tam, rationabilem, acceptabilemque facere digneris: ut nobis corpus et sanguis fiat dilectissimi Filii tui Domini nostri Jesus Christi.

Qui pridie quam pro nostra omniumque salute pateretur, hoc est hodie, accepit panem, etc. (p. 632.)

Postcommunion. Refreshed with the food of life, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that what we seek for during our mortal life, we may obtain by the gift of Your immortality. Through our Lord.

℣. The Lord be with you. ℗. And with Your spirit.
℣. Go, you are dismissed. ℗. Thanks be to God.

Postcommunio. Refecti vitalibus alimentis, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut quod tempore nostrae mortalitatis exsequimur, immortalitatis tuae munere consequamur. Per Dominum.

℣. Dominus vobiscum. ℓ. Et cum spiritu tuo.
℣. Ite; missa est. ℓ. Deo gratias.

At the end of the Mass, the priest carries the pyx to the altar prepared for its reception, accompanied with lights and incense. During the procession is sung the following:

Hymn

1. Sing, my tongue, the mystery Of the glorious body and Of the precious blood Which the King of nations, The fruit of a noble womb Poured forth for the redemption of the world.

2. Given to us and born for us Of a stainless Virgin, He dwelt in the world, and Having sown the seed of His word He closed His sojourn In a wonderful manner.

3. On the night of the Last Supper, Reclining with His brethren Fulfilling the law of legal foods He gives Himself by His own hands As food to the Assembled twelve.

1. Pange lingua gloriosi Corporis mysterium, Sanguinisque pretiosi, Quern in mundi pretium, Fructus ventris generosi, Rex effudit Gentium.

2. Nobis datus, nobis natus; Ex intacta virgine; Et in mundo conversatus, Sparso verbi semine; Sui moras incolatus, Miro clausit ordine.

3. In supremae nocte cenae, Recumbens cum fratribus, Observata lege plene, Cibis in legalibus, Cibum turbae duodena As dat suis manibus.
4. The Word made flesh makes Word true bread as His flesh; and The wine becomes the blood of Christ. If understanding is wanting, Faith alone will suffice To confirm the sincere heart.

5. Let us therefore, prostrate, Adore so great a sacrament; And let the Old Law Give way to the new rite. Let faith give its support To the defect of the senses.

6. To the Father and to the Son Be praise, glory, salvation, Honor and power And also benediction; And to Him proceeding from both Let there be equal praise. Amen.

You did give them bread from heaven. Containing in itself all sweetness.

Collect

O God, who under a wonderful sacrament has left us a memorial of Your passion; grant us, we beseech You, so to venerate the sacred mysteries of Your body and blood, that we may ever feel within us the fruit of Your redemption: who live and reign with You.

Deus qui nobis sub sacramento mirabili, passioinis tuae memoriam relinquisti; tribue quaesumus, ita nos corporis et sanguinis tui sacra mysteria venerari, ut redemptionis tuae fructum in nobis jugiter sentiamus. Qui vivis et regnas.
GOOD FRIDAY

The priest and his ministers approach the altar in black vestments, without lights or incense, and prostrate themselves before it, while a reader reads aloud the following prophecy, which is read by the priest in a low voice when he reaches the altar.

Lesson. Osee 6, 1-6. Thus says the Lord: “In their affliction they will rise early to Me: Come, and let us return to the Lord, for He has taken us, and He will heal us, He will strike, and He will cure us. He will revive us after two days; on the third day He will raise us up and we shall live in His sight. We shall know and we shall follow on, that we may know the Lord. His going forth is prepared as the morning light and He will come to us as the early and the latter rain to the earth. What shall I do to you, O Ephraim? What shall I do to you, O Juda? Your mercy is as a morning cloud and as the dew that goes away in the morning. For this reason have I hewed them by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and your judgments shall go forth as the light. For I desired mercy and not sacrifice: and the knowledge of God more than holocausts.”

Tract. Hab. 3. O Lord, I have heard Your hearing and was afraid: I have considered Your works and

When my soul shall be in trouble, You will remember mercy, even in Your wrath. \( \vee \). God will come from Lebanon, and the Holy One from the shady and thickly covered mountain. \( \vee \). His majesty covered the heavens: and the earth is full of His praise.

Collect. O God, from whom Judas received the punishment of his sin, and the thief the reward of his confession; grant us the effect of Your mercies that as our Lord Jesus Christ in His passion bestowed on each the different recompense of His merits, so having destroyed the old man in us, he may give us the grace of His resurrection: who lives and reigns with You.

The following lesson is sung by the subdeacon.

Lesson. Ex. 12, 1-11. In those days, the Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: “This month shall stand at the head of your calendar; you shall reckon it the first month of the year. Tell the whole community of Israel and say to them: 'On the tenth of this month every one of your families must procure for itself a lamb, one apiece for each household. If a family is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join the nearest household in procuring one and shall share in the lamb in proportion to the number of persons who partake of it. The lamb must be a year-old male and without blemish. You may take it from either the sheep or the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, and then, with the whole assembly of Israel present, it shall be slaughtered during the evening twilight. They shall take some of its blood and apply it to the two doorposts and the lintel of every house in which they partake of the lamb. That same night they shall eat its roasted flesh with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. It shall not be eaten raw or boiled, but roasted whole, with its head and shanks and inner organs. None of it must be kept beyond the next morning; whatever is left over in the morning shall be burned up. This is how you are to eat it: with your loins girt, sandals on your feet and your staff in hand, you shall eat like those who are in flight. For it is the Passover of the Lord.'”

Tract. Ps. 139, 3-10.14. Rescue me, O Lord, from the wicked man; from the unjust man deliver me. They who thought evil in their heart made war against me all the day. They sharpened their tongues like that of a serpent; the venom of asps is under their lips. Keep me, O Lord, out of the sinner's hands and from unjust men deliver me. Who have designed to supplant my steps. The proud have laid a snare for me. And they have stretched out ropes for a snare for my feet; they have made a stumbling-block for me near the way. I said to the Lord: "You are my God, hear, O Lord, the voice of my prayer. O Lord, O Lord, the strength of my salvation, overshadow my head in the day of battle. Deliver me not to the sinner against my will; they have formed designs against me. Forsake me not, that they may never be exalted. The chief of those who are round me; the works of their lips will overwhelm them. But the just shall praise Your name and the righteous shall dwell in Your presence."

At that time, Jesus went forth with His disciples beyond the torrent of Cedron, where there was a garden into which He and His disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed Him, also knew the place, since Jesus had often met there together with His disciples. Judas, then, taking the cohort, and attendants from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, and torches, and weapons. Jesus therefore knowing all that was to come upon Him, went forth and said to them, "Whom do you seek?" They answered Him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I am He." Now Judas, who betrayed Him, was also standing with them. When, therefore, He said to them, "I am He," they drew back and fell to the ground. So He asked them again, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus answered, "I have told you that I am He. If, therefore, you seek Me, let these go their way." That the word which He said might be fulfilled, "Of those whom You have given Me, I have not lost one." Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. Now the servant’s name was Malchus. Jesus therefore said to Peter, “Put up your sword into the scabbard. Shall I not drink the cup that the Father has given Me?” The cohort therefore and the tribune and the attendants of the Jews seized Jesus and bound Him.

And they brought Him to Annas first, for he was the father-in-law of Caiphas, who was the high priest that year. Now it was Caiphas who had given the counsel to the Jews that it was expedient that one man should die for the people. But Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest.

But Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the portress, and brought Peter in. The maid, who was portress, said therefore to Peter, “Are you also one of this man’s disciples?” He said, “I am not.” Now the servants and attendants were standing at a coal fire and warming themselves, for it was cold. And Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

The high priest therefore questioned Jesus concerning His disciples, and concerning His teaching. Jesus answered him, “I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in the synagogue and in the temple, where all the Jews gather, and in secret I have said nothing. Why do you question Me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them; behold, these know what I have said.” Now when He had said these things, one of the attendants who was standing by struck Jesus a blow, saying, “Is that the way You answer the high priest?” Jesus answered him, “If I have spoken ill, bear witness to the evil; but if well, why do you strike Me?”

And Annas sent Him bound to Caiphas, the high priest. But Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They therefore said to him, “Are you also one of His disciples?” He denied it, and said, “I am not.” One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said to him, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?” Again, therefore, Peter denied it; and at that moment a cock crowed.

They therefore led Jesus from Caiphas to the praetorium. Now it was early morning, and they themselves did not enter the praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the passover. Pilate therefore went outside to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?" They said to him in answer, "If He were not a criminal we should not have handed Him over to you." Pilate therefore said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." The Jews, then, said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death." This was in fulfillment of what Jesus had said, indicating the manner of His death.

Pilate therefore again entered into the praetorium, and he summoned Jesus, and said to Him, "Are You the King of the Jews?" Jesus answered, "Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me?" Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?" Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would have fought that I might not be delivered..." to the Jews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here.” Pilate therefore said to Him, “You are then a King?” Jesus answered, “You say it; I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.” Pilate said to Him, “What is truth?” And when he had said this, he went outside to the Jews again, and said to them, “I find no guilt in Him. But you have a custom that I should release someone to you at the passover. Do you wish, therefore, that I release to you the King of the Jews?” They all therefore cried out again, “Not this man, but Barabbas!” Now Barabbas was a robber.

Pilate, then, took Jesus and had Him scourged. And the soldiers, plaiting a crown of thorns, put it upon His head, and arrayed Him in a purple cloak. And they kept coming to Him and saying, “Hail, King of the Jews,” and striking Him.

Exivit ergo iterum Pilatus foras, et dicit eis: Ecce adduco vobis eum foras, ut cognoscatis quia nullam invenio in eo causam. (Exivit ergo Jesus portans coronam spineam et wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cloak. And he said to them "Behold, the man!" When, therefore, the chief priests and the attendants saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!" Pilate said to them, "Take Him yourselves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him." The Jews answered him, "We have a Law, and according to that Law He must die, because He has made Himself Son of God." Now when Pilate heard this statement, he feared the more.

And he again went back into the praetorium, and said to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to Him, "Do You not speak to me? Do You not know that I have power to crucify You, and that I have power to release You?" Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all over Me were it not given you from above. Therefore, he who betrayed Me to you has the greater sin." And from then on Pilate was looking for a way to release Him. But the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar; for everyone who makes himself king sets himself against Caesar." Pilate therefore, when he heard these words, brought Jesus outside, and sat down on the judgment-seat, at a place called Lithostrotos, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. Now it was the Preparation Day for the Passover, about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews, “Behold, your King!” But they cried out, “Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have no King but Caesar.” Then he handed Him over to them to be crucified.

And so they took Jesus and led Him away. And bearing the cross for Himself, He went forth to the place called the Skull, in Hebrew, Golgotha, where they crucified Him, and with Him two others, one on each side and Jesus in the center. And Pilate also wrote an inscription and had it put on the cross. And there was written, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” Many of the Jews therefore read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek and in Latin. The chief priests of the Jews said therefore to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The King of the Jews,’ but, ‘He said, I am the King of the Jews.’” Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

The soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Him, took His garments and made of them four parts, to each soldier a part, and also the tunic. Now the tunic was without seam, woven in one piece from the top. They therefore said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots for it, to see whose it shall be." That the Scripture might be fulfilled which says, "They divided My garments among them; and for My vesture they cast lots." These things therefore the soldiers did.

Now there were standing by the Cross of Jesus His mother and His mother's sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus, therefore, saw His mother and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He said to His mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then He said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

After this Jesus, knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I thirst." Now there was standing there a vessel full of common wine; and having put a sponge soaked with the wine on a stalk of hyssop, they put it to his mouth. Therefore, when Jesus had taken the wine, He... said, "It is consummated!" And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit. (Here all kneel and pause for a few moments.)

The Jews therefore, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a solemn day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs; but one of the soldiers opened His side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "Not a bone of Him shall you break." And another Scripture says, "They shall look upon Him whom they have pierced."

Now after these things Joseph of Arimathea, because he was a disciple of Jesus (although for fear of the Jews a secret one), besought Pilate that he might take accepisset Jesus acetum, dixit: Consummatum est. Et inclinato capite, tradidit spiritum.

Post haec autem rogavit Pilatum Joseph ab Arimathaea (eo quod esset discipulus Jesu, occultus autem propter metum Judaeorum), ut tolleret corpus Jesu. Et permisit away the body of Jesus. And Pilate gave permission. He came, therefore, and took away the body of Jesus. And there also came Nicodemus (who at first had come to Jesus by night), bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, in weight about a hundred pounds. They therefore took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices, after the Jewish manner of preparing for burial. Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. There, accordingly, because of the Preparation Day of the Jews, for the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus.

Then the priest at the epistle corner says the following prayers:

For the Church

Let us pray, beloved brethren, for the holy Church of God, that our God and Lord would be pleased to give it peace, maintain it in union, and preserve it over the earth; subjecting to it the princes and potentates of the world; and grant us, that live in peace and tranquillity, grace to glorify God the Father almighty.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.
Almighty and everlasting God, who by Christ have revealed Your glory to all nations, preserve the works of Your mercy; that Your Church, spread over all the world, may persevere with a constant faith in the confession of Your name: through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. ℣. Amen.

For the Pope

Let us pray also for our holy father Pope N. that our Lord God, who elected him to the order of the episcopacy, may preserve him in health and safety for the good of his holy church, to govern the holy people of God.

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose judgement all things are founded, mercifully regard our prayers, and by Your goodness preserve our bishop chosen for us; that the Christian people that are governed by Your authority, may increase the merits of their faith under so great a prelate: through Jesus Christ our Lord. ℣. Amen.

Oremus et pro beatissimo Papa nostro N. ut Deus et Dominus noster, qui elegit eum in ordine episcopatus, salvum atque incolorem custodiat ecclesiae suae sanctae, ad regendum populum sanctum Dei.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

For the Clergy and People

Let us pray also for all bishops, priests, deacons, subdeacons, acolytes, exorcists, readers, doorkeepers, confessors, virgins, widows, and for all the holy people of God.

Almighty and everlasting God, by whose spirit the whole body of the church is sanctified and governed, hear our prayers for all orders therein, that by the assistance of Your grace, You may be faithfully served by all: through our Lord. R. Amen.

For Civil Authorities

Let us pray for all those who bear the responsibility of government and for their ministries and powers; that our Lord and God may direct their minds and hearts according to His good pleasure, for our perpetual peace.

Almighty and everlasting God, in whose hands repose the powers of all and the rights of all nations; look Oremus et pro omnibus episcopis, presbyteris, diaconibus, subdiaconibus, acolythis, exorcistis, lectoribus, ostiariis, confesoribus, virginibus, viduis, et pro omni populo sancto Dei.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

Oremus et pro omnibus res publicas moderantibus, eorumque ministeriis et potestatibus; ut Deus et Dominus noster mentes et corda eorum secundum voluntatem suam dirigat ad nostram perpetuam pacem.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, in cujus manu sunt omnium potestates et omnium jura populorum: respice with favor upon those who rule over us; that, throughout the world, by the protection of your right arm, religion may flourish and the peace of nations prosper undisturbed: through our Lord. R/. Amen.

For the Catechumens

Let us pray also for our catechumens, that our Lord God would open the ears of their hearts, and the gate of His mercy; that having received by the waters of regeneration, the remission of all their sins, they also may belong to our Lord Jesus Christ.

Almighty and everlasting God, who always make Your church fruitful in new children, increase the faith and understanding of our catechumens; that being regenerated in the waters of baptism, they may be admitted into the society of Your adopted children: through our Lord. R/. Amen.

For the Needs of the Faithful

Let us pray, beloved brethren, to God the Father almighty, that He would purge the world of all errors, cure diseases, drive away famine, open prisons, break chains, grant a safe return to travellers, health to the sick, and a secure haven to such as are at sea.

Almighty and everlasting God, the comfort of the afflicted and the strength of those who labor, let the prayers of those who call upon You in any trouble, be heard by You; that all may with joy find the effects of Your mercy in their necessities: through our Lord. R'. Amen.

For the Unity of the Church

Let us pray also for heretics and schismatics, that our Lord God would be pleased to deliver them from all their errors, and recall them to our holy mother the Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who save all, and will have no one perish, look on the souls that are seduced by the deceit of the devil; that the hearts of famem depellat: aperiat carceres: vincula dissolvat: peregrinantibus reditum: infirmantibus sanitatem: navigantibus portum salutis indulgeat.

Oremus. Flectamus genua. Levate.

Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, moestorum consolatio laborantium fortitudo, perveniant ad te preces de quacumque tribulatione clamantium: ut omnes sibi in necessitatibus suis misericordiam tuam gaudeant adfuisset. Per Dominum. R'. Amen.

Oremus et pro haereticis et schismaticis, ut Deus et Dominus noster eruat eos ab erroribus universis, et ad sanctam matrem ecclesiam catholicam atque apostolicam revocare dignetur.

Oremus.

Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui salvas omnes, et neminem vis perire, respice ad animas diabolica fraude those that err, having put away all heretical malice, may repent and return to the unity of Your truth: through our Lord. R/. Amen.

For the Conversion of the Jews

Let us pray also for the unbelieving Jews, that our Lord God would withdraw the veil from their hearts, that they also may acknowledge our Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, who deny not Your mercy even to the unbelieving Jews, hear our prayers, which we pour forth for the blindness of that people; that by acknowledging the light of Your truth, which is Christ, they may be brought out of their darkness: through the same Lord. R/. Amen.

For the Conversion of Non-Christians

Let us pray also for the pagans, that almighty God would take iniquity out of their hearts; that by quitting their idols, they may be converted to the true and living God, and his only Son Jesus Christ, our God and Lord.

Oremus et pro perfidis Judaeis, ut Deus et Dominus noster auferat velamen de cordibus eorum, ut et ipsi agnoscant Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum.

Oremus.

Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui etiam Judaicam perfidiam a tua misericordia non repellis, exaudi preces nostras quas pro illius populi obcaecatione deferimus: ut agnita veritatis tuae luce, quae Christus est, a suis tenebris eruantur. Per eundem Dominum. R/. Amen.

Oremus et pro paganis, ut Deus omnipotens auferat iniquitatem a cordibus eorum: ut relictis idolis suis, convertantur ad Deum vivum et verum, et unicum Filium ejus Jesum Christum Deum et Dominum nostrum.

Almighty and everlasting God, who seek not the death, but the life of sinners, mercifully hear our prayer, and deliver them from the worship of idols; and for the praise and glory of Your name admit them into Your holy church: through our Lord. R. Amen.

After the foregoing prayers the priest takes off his vestment, and coming down from the altar, stands with the deacon and sub-deacon at the epistle corner of the altar. Two priests then take up the cross, veiled, from the altar, and standing at the gospel side, hold the cross up before the people, while they sing the following:

\textit{My people, what have I done to you? or in what have I grieved you? Answer me. Because I brought you out of the land of Egypt you have prepared a cross for your savior.}

\textit{Two deacons below the altar steps sing the following, kneeling at the word Agios:}

\textit{O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy on us.}

\textit{The choir answers, kneeling at the word Sanctus:}

\textit{O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy upon us.}

\textit{Omnipotens semipiterne Deus, qui non mortem pectatorum, sed vitam semper inquiris, suscipe propitius orationem nostram, et libera eos ab idolorum cultura: et aggrega ecclesiae tuae sanctae, ad laudem et gloriam nominis tui. Per Dominum. R. Amen.}

The two priests move a step towards the middle of the altar, and sing the following:

Ὣ. Because I led you through the desert forty years, and fed you with manna, and brought you into an excellent land, you have prepared a cross for your savior.

The two deacons sing again:

O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy on us.

The choir answers as before:

O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy on us.

The two priests descend to the middle of the altar steps to the place prepared for the cross, and sing the following:

Ὣ. What more could I do for you, that I have not done? I have planted you my most beautiful vine, and you have proved exceeding bitter to Me; in My thirst you gave Me vinegar to drink, and with a spear you have pierced the side of your Savior.

The two deacons sing again:

O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy on us.

The choir answers as before:

O holy God! holy and mighty! holy and eternal! have mercy on us.

Ὣ. Quia eduxi te per desertum quadraginta annis: et manna cibavi te, et introduxi in terram satis optimam, parasti crucem salvatori tuo.

Sanctus Deus: Sanctus fortis: Sanctus et immortalis: miserere nobis.

Sanctus Deus: Sanctus fortis: Sanctus et immortalis: miserere nobis.
Then the priest takes the cross, and uncovering it, shows it to the people; while he intones the following, all kneeling at the words Ecce lignum:

Behold the wood of the cross, on which hung the salvation of the world: come let us adore.

The cross is then placed in a convenient position, and the ministers go up one by one, kneeling down three times, each time nearer to the cross, and then kissing the sacred wounds of the feet. The laity kneel at the altar rail to kiss the feet of the Crucified. During the adoration of the Cross the following are sung:

Antiphons

ANT. We adore Your cross, O Lord; we recall your glorious passion. Have mercy on us, You who suffered for us.

V. We adore Your cross, O Lord, and we praise and glorify Your holy resurrection; for by the cross the whole world is filled with joy.

V. Let us adore the sign of the cross, through which we have received the mystery of redemption.

Ecce lignum crucis, in quo salus mundi pependit: venite adoremus.

ANT. Tuam crucem adoramus, Domine; tuam gloriosem recolimus passionem: miserere nostri, qui passus es pro nobis.

V. Crucem tuam adoramus, Domine; et sanctam resurrectionem tuam laudamus et glorificamus; ecce enim propter crucem venit gaudium in universo mundo.

V. Adoremus crucis signaculum: per quod salutis sump-simus sacramentum.

The Hymn

1. O Faithful Cross, the one noble tree
   Among all.
No forest equals you in Foliage, flower and fruit.
O, sweet nails, O sweet wood!
You bear a burden sweet.

1. Crux fidelis inter omnes
   Arbor una nobilis:
   Nulla Silva talem profert
   Fronde, flore, germine
   Dulce lignum, dulces clavos,
   Dulce pondus sustinet.
2. Sing, my tongue, about the strife
Of a glorious conflict, and Over the trophy of the Cross
Sing a noble triumph;
How the world’s Redeemer conquered
By surrendering His Life.

3. Grieving over the infidelity
Of the first created parent,
When by eating of the fatal fruit.
He rushed headlong to death,
The Creator Himself assigned a tree
To undo the damage of the Tree.

4. This work the plan
Of our salvation demanded
That art might outsmart the art of the multiform deceiver,
And thence bring the remedy
Whence the enemy wrought the injury.

5. When therefore the fulness of the Sacred time was come,
The Son, the Creator of the world
Was sent from His Father’s Home
And came forth, made flesh,
From the virginal womb.

6. Hidden in a narrow manger,
The Infant cries.
The Virgin Mother binds his members
Wrapped in swaddling clothes;
And a tight band binds His hands, feet and limbs.

2. Pange, lingua, gloriosi Proelium certaminis;
Et super crucis trophaeum
Dic triumphum nobilem:
Qualiter redemptor orbis
Immolatus vicerit.

3. De parentis protoplasti
Fraude Factor condolens,
Quando pomi noxialis
Morsu in mortem corruit,
Ipse lignum tunc notavit,
Damna ligni ut solveret.

4. Hoc opus nostrae salutis,
Ordo depoposcerat;
Multiformis proditoris
Ars ut artem falleret:
Et medelam ferret inde,
Hostis unde laeserat.

5. Quando venit ergo sacri
Plenitudo temporis,
Missus est ab arce Patris
Natus orbis conditor;
Ac de ventre virginali
Caro factus prodiit.

6. Vagit infans inter arcta
Conditus praesepia:
Membra pannis involuta
Virgo mater alligat:
Et manus, pedesque et crura
Stricta cingit fascia.
7. With thirty years already passed, Completing His earthly time, Willingly being born for this, He is delivered to His Passion. The Lamb is lifted on the tree Of the cross to be immolated.

7. Lustris sex qui jam per-actis Tempus implens corporis: Se volente, natus ad hoc Passioni deditus; Agnus in crucis levatur Immolandus stipite.

8. He endured the vinegar, the gall, The reed, the thorn, the nails, The lance. His tender body is pierced, And blood and water flows forth and In this stream are cleansed The earth, the sea, the stars and the world.

8. Hic acetum, fel, arundo, Spina, clavi, lancea: Mite corpus perforatur, Sanguis unda profuit: Terra pontus, astra, mundus, Quo lavantur flumine!

9. Bend, O lofty Tree, your limbs, Set free your tense fibers And let that vigor which nature Gave you become soft That you may stretch on your soft trunk The members of the heavenly King.

9. Flecte ramos arbor alta, Tensa laxa viscera; Et rigor lentescat ille, Quem dedit nativitas: Ut superni membra Regis, Miti tendas stipite.

10. You alone were counted worthy To bear the ransom of the world, And to provide, as a mariner, For a shipwrecked world a Haven which the precious blood, poured Forth from the lamb’s body, Has anointed.

10. Sola digna tu fuisti Ferre saecli pretium: Atque portum praeparare Nauta mundo naufragò, Quem sacer cruor per-unxit, Fusus Agni corpore.
11. Let there be honor and glory
Everywhere to the most High, God;
Equal honor to the Father, Son and Holy Paraclete, to Whom belong Praise and Power Through the everlasting ages.
Amen.

After the Adoration of the Cross, the priest takes the cross and raises it up before the people, intoning the following Antiphon, all but the priest kneeling at the words Super omnia.

You only are above all the cedars on which hung the life of the world; on which Christ triumphed, and death overcame death forever.

Then still holding the cross, he says the following prayer:

Collect. Look down, we beseech You, O Lord, upon this Your family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ did not refuse to be delivered into the hands of the wicked, and to endure the torment of the cross.

The celebrant and his ministers now go to the sacristy and change to purple vestments; then returning to the altar, the deacon spreads the corporal, descends the steps and with two candelee bears goes in silence to the altar of reposition and removes the pyx from the repository and covered with a humeral veil, he carries the blessed Sacrament back to the main altar.

While this is taking place, the Per Lignum is sung.

By a tree did we become slaves, and by the Holy Cross we have been set free: the fruit of the tree enslaved us, the Son of God redeemed us.

Super omnia ligna cedrorum, tu sola excelsior; in qua vita mundi pendit; in qua Christus triumphavit, et mors mortem superavit in aeternum.

Oratio. Respice, quaesumus Domine, super hanc familiam tuam, pro qua Dominus noster Jesus Christus non dubitavit manibus tradi nocentium, et crucis subire tormentum.

Per lignum servi facti sumus, et per sanctam Crucem liberati sumus: fructus arboris seduxit nos, Filius Dei redemit nos.
After the pyx has been placed on the altar, the deacon removes the humeral veil; then the celebrant and subdeacon ascend the altar (no preparatory prayers are said) and immediately begins the Pater Noster.

Let us Pray. Instructed by Your wholesome precepts, and following Your divine institution, we presume to say:

Our Father who art in heaven: hallowed be thy name: thy kingdom come: thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread: and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation. R/. But deliver us from evil.

The priest, after adding Amen, says to himself:

Deliver us, O Lord, we beseech You, from all evils, past, present, and to come: and by the intercession of the blessed and ever glorious virgin Mary, mother of God, with Your blessed apostles Peter and Paul, and Andrew, and all the saints, mercifully grant peace in our days, that by the assistance of Your mercy we may be always free from sin, and secure from all trouble: through the same Lord. R/. Amen.

The celebrant genuflects, takes the sacred particle in his right hand, and says:

Oremus. Praeceptis salutaribus moniti, et divina institutione formati, audemus dicere:

May the body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve me unto life everlasting. Amen.

He then consumes the Host and proceeds to the distribution of Holy Communion in the usual way.

First Oration. We pray, O Lord, that upon Your people who have devotedly commemorated the passion and death of Your Son, a copious blessing may descend, mercy be extended, consolation be granted, a holy faith be invigorated, and eternal redemption be guaranteed: through the same Christ our Lord. R/. Amen.

Second Oration. Almighty and merciful God, who redeemed us by the holy passion and death of Your Christ, preserve in us the work of Your mercy so that by participating in this mystery we may live in perpetual devotion: through the same Christ our Lord. R/. Amen.

Third Oration. Remember, O Lord, your mercies and sanctify your servants by eternal custody, for whom, Christ Your Son, instituted the Paschal mystery by His blood: through the same Christ. R/. Amen.

The ministers now return to the sacristy. The Blessed Sacrament is transferred and the altar is stripped.

Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat me in vitam aeternam. Amen.

HOLY SATURDAY

The priest and ministers enter, and go up to the altar steps. Then the priest, facing the altar, blesses the live coals held in a vessel at his right hand, as follows:

Blessing of the Fire

O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, vouchsafe to bless, and to sanctify this fire, which we, though unworthy, by the invocation of Your Only-begotten Son our Lord Jesus Christ, do presume to bless. Most merciful God sanctify it with Your blessing, and grant that it may be to the welfare of the human race: through the same Jesus Christ our Lord, Your Son, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit God forever and ever. R/. Amen.

Then he sprinkles the fire with holy water, and a candle is lighted from it. After this the deacon, receiving the blessing of the priest, goes to the gospel side, where he blesses the paschal candle, as follows:

Blessing of the Paschal Candle

Let the heavenly band of angels now rejoice; let the divine mysteries be joyfully celebrated; and let a sacred trumpet proclaim the victory of so great a King. Let the earth also rejoice, that is resplendent with such glory; and let it be sensible that the darkness, which over-

Exsultet jam angelica turba caelorum: exsultent divina mysteria: et pro tanti regis victoria tuba intonet salutaris. Gaudeat et tellus tantis irradiata fulgoribus: et aeterni regis splendore illustrata, totius orbis se sentiat amisise spread the whole world, is chased away by the splendor of the eternal King. Let our mother the Church also rejoice, finding herself adorned with the rays of so great and holy a light; and let this temple resound with the joyful acclamations of the people. Wherefore, beloved brethren, you who are now present at the admirable brightness of this holy light, I beseech you to invoke with me the mercy of almighty God, that He, who has been pleased above my deserts to admit me into the number of His Levites, will, by an infusion of His light upon me, enable me to proclaim the praise of this light: through our Lord Jesus Christ His Son, who with Him and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns one God. Forever and ever. \(\text{R\textsuperscript{7}. Amen.}\)

\(\text{V.}\) The Lord be with you. \(\text{R\textsuperscript{7}.}\) And with your spirit. \(\text{V.}\) Lift up your hearts. \(\text{R\textsuperscript{7}.}\) We have lifted them up to the Lord. \(\text{V.}\) Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. \(\text{R\textsuperscript{7}.}\) It is fitting and just.

It is fitting indeed and just to proclaim with all the affection of our hearts and souls, and with the sound of our voices, the invisible God the Father almighty, and his Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, with the caliginem. Laetetur et mater ecclesia tanti luminis adornata fulgoribus: et magnis populorum vocibus haec aula resultet. Quapropter adstantes vos, fratres carissimi, ad tam miram sancti hujus luminis claritatem, una mecum, quaeo, Dei omnipotentis misericordiam invocate. Ut qui me, non meis meritis, intra Levitarum numerum dignatus est aggregare, luminis sui claritatem infundens, cerei hujus laudem implere perfectiat. Per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium suum. Qui cum eo vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus. Per omnia saecula saeculorum. \(\text{R\textsuperscript{7}. Amen.}\)

Vere quia dignum et justum est, invisibilem Deum Patrem omnipotentem, Filiumque ejus unigenitum Domi­num nostrum Jesus Christum, cum Sancto Spiritu, toto
Holy Spirit, who paid for us to his eternal Father, the debt of Adam; and by His sacred blood cancelled the guilt contracted by original sin. For this is the paschal solemnity, in which the true Lamb was slain, by whose blood the doors of the faithful are consecrated. This is the night in which of old You brought forth our forefathers, the children of Israel, from Egypt, leading them dry-shod through the Red Sea. This then is the night, which dissipated the darkness of sin, by the light of the pillar of fire. This is the night, which now all over the world delivers those that believe in Christ from the vices of the world and darkness of sin, restores them to grace, and clothes them with sanctity. This is the night in which Christ broke the chains of death, and ascended a conqueror from hell. For it availed us nothing to be born, unless it had availed us to be redeemed. O how admirable is Your goodness towards us! O how inestimable is Your love! You have delivered up Your Son to redeem a slave. O truly necessary sin of Adam, which the death of Christ has blotted out! O happy fault, that merited such and so great a Redeemer!
O truly blessed night, which alone deserves to know the time and hour when Christ rose again from hell. This is the night of which it is written: And the night shall be as light as the day, and the night is my illumination in my delights. Therefore, the sanctification of this night blots out crimes, washes away sins, and restores innocence to sinners, and joy to the sorrowful. It banishes enmities, produces concord, and tempers the rule of princes.

Therefore, for the sake of this sacred night, receive, O holy Father, the evening sacrifice of this incense, which Your holy Church by the hands of her ministers presents to You in the solemn oblation of this wax candle made out of the labor of bees. And now we know the excellence of this pillar, which the sparkling fire lights for the honor of God.

Which fire, though now divided, suffers no loss from the communication of its light.

Here the acolytes' candles are lighted.

In hujus igitur noctis gratia suscipe, sancte Pater, incensi hujus sacrificium vespertinum, quod tibi in hac cerei oblatione sollemni, per ministrorum manus, de operibus apum, sacrosancta reddit ecclesia. Sed jam columnae hujus praeconia novimus, quam in honorem Dei rutilans ignis ascendit.

Qui licet sit divisus in partes, mutuati tamen luminis detrimenta non novit.
Because it is fed by the melted wax, which its mother the bee made for the composition of this precious lamp. Here the lamps are lighted.

O truly blessed night which despoiled the Egyptians, and enriched the Hebrews. A night, in which heaven is united to earth, and God to man. We beseech You, therefore, O Lord, that this candle, consecrated to the honor of Your name, may continue burning to dissipate the darkness of this night; and being accepted as a sweet-smelling savour, may be united with the celestial lights. Let the morning star find it burning. I mean that star which knows no setting, who being returned from hell, shone with brightness on mankind. We beseech You, therefore, O Lord, deign to grant us peaceable times during these paschal solemnities, and with Your constant protection to rule, govern and preserve us Your servants, all the clergy, and the devout laity, together with our holy father Pope N. and our Bishop N. and those who have political power: through the same Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who with You and the Holy Spirit, lives and reigns one God forever and ever.

Alitur enim liquantibus ceris, quas in substantiam pretiosae hujus lampadis, apis mater deduxit.

After the blessing of the Paschal candle follows the reading of the Prophecies.

First Lesson. Gen. 1, 1-31; 2, 1-2. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth; the earth was waste and void; darkness covered the abyss, and the spirit of God was stirring above the waters. God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good. God separated the light from the darkness, calling the light Day and the darkness Night. And there was evening and morning, the first day. Then God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters to divide the waters." And so it was. God made the firmament, dividing the waters that were below the firmament from those that were above it. God called the firmament Heaven. And there was evening and morning, the second day. Then God said, "Let the waters below the heavens be gathered into one place and let the dry land appear." And so it was. God called the dry land Earth and the assembled waters Seas. And God saw that it was good. Then God said, "Let the earth bring forth vegetation: seed-bearing plants and all kinds of fruit trees that bear fruit containing their seed.” And so it was. The earth brought forth vegetation, every kind of seed-bearing plant and all kinds of trees that bear fruit containing their seed. God saw that it was good. And there was evening and morning, the third day. And God said, “Let there be lights in the firmament of the heavens to separate day from night; let them serve as signs and for the fixing of seasons, days and years; let them serve as lights in the firmament of the heavens to shed light upon the earth.” So it was. God made the two great lights, the greater light to rule the day and the smaller one to rule the night, and He made the stars. God set them in the firmament of the heavens to shed light upon the earth, to rule the day and the night and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. And there was evening and morning, the fourth day. Then God said, “Let the waters abound with life, and above the earth let winged creatures fly below the firmament of the heavens.” And so it was. God created the great sea monsters, all kinds of living, swimming creatures with which the waters abound and all kinds of winged birds.

God saw that it was good, and God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful, multiply, and fill the waters of the seas; and let the birds multiply on the earth." And there was evening and morning, the fifth day. God said, "Let the earth bring forth all kinds of living creatures: cattle, crawling creatures and wild animals." And so it was. God made all kinds of wild beasts, every kind of cattle, and every kind of creature crawling on the ground. And God saw that it was good. God said, "Let Us make mankind in Our image and likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the cattle, over all the wild animals and every creature that crawls on the earth." God created man in His image. In the image of God He created him. Male and female He created them. Then God blessed them and said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply; fill the earth and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds of the air, the cattle and all the animals that crawl on the earth." God also said, "See, I give you every seed-bearing plant on the earth and every tree which has seed-bearing fruit to be your food. To every wild animal of the earth, to every bird of the air, and to every creature that crawls on the earth and has the breath of life, I give the green plants for food." And so it was. God saw that all He had made was very good. And there was evening and morning, the sixth day. Thus the heavens and the earth were finished and all their array. On the sixth day God finished the work He had been doing. And He rested on the seventh day from all the work He had done.

Collect. O God, You have wonderfully created man, and more wonderfully redeemed him; grant us, we beseech You, such strength of mind against the allurements of sin, that we may deserve to obtain eternal joys: through our Lord.

Second Lesson. Ex. 14, 24-31; 15, 1. In those days, in the night watch just before dawn the Lord cast through the column of the fiery cloud upon the Egyptian force a glance that threw it into a panic; and He so clogged their chariot wheels that they could hardly drive. With that the Egyptians sounded the retreat before Israel, because the Lord was fighting for them... against the Egyptians. Then the Lord told Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots and their charioteers.” So Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at dawn the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing head on toward the sea, when the Lord hurled them into its midst. As the water flowed back, it covered the chariots and the charioteers of Pharaoh’s whole army which had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not a single one of them escaped. But the Israelites had marched on dry land through the midst of the sea, with the water like a wall to their right and to their left. Thus the Lord saved Israel on that day from the power of the Egyptians. When Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the seashore and beheld the great power that the Lord had shown against the Egyptians, they feared the Lord and believed in Him and in His servant Moses. Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the Lord and said:

And it shall come to pass, that everyone who shall be left in Sion, and who shall remain in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, everyone who is written in life in Jerusalem, if the Lord shall wash away the filth of the daughters of Sion, and shall wash away the blood of Jerusalem out of the midst thereof, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning. the waters; and you who have no money, make haste, buy and eat; come, buy wine and milk without money, and without any price. Why do you spend money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy you? Hearken diligently to me, and eat that which is good, and your soul shall be delighted in fatness. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, and your soul shall live, and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, the faithful mercies of David. Behold I have given him for a witness to the people, for a leader and a master to the Gentiles. Behold you shall call a nation, which you knew not; and the nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, and for the holy one of Israel; for he has glorified you. Seek the Lord while He may be found; call upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unjust man his thoughts, and let him return to the Lord, and he will have mercy on him, and to our God, for He is bountiful to forgive. For My thoughts are not your thoughts, nor your ways My ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are exalted above the earth, so are My ways exalted above your ways and My thoughts above your thoughts. And as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and return no more thither, but soak the earth, and water it, and make it to spring, and give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater, so shall My word be which shall go forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall do whatever I please, and shall prosper in the things for which I sent it,” says the Lord almighty.

Collect. O God, You do enlarge Your church by the vocation of the Gentiles; mercifully grant Your perpetual protection to those whom You wash with the water of baptism: through our Lord.

The following Tract is said on the way to the font, where there is one to be blessed.

Tract. Ps. 41, 2-4. As the deer pants after the fountains of water, so my soul pants after You, O God. ¶. My soul has thirsted for the living God. When shall I come and appear before the face of my God? ¶. My tears have been my bread day and night, while they say to me every day: “Where is your God?”
The priest begins the blessing of the baptismal water:

\textit{Y.} The Lord be with you. \textit{R.} And with your spirit.

\textbf{Collect.} Almighty and everlasting God, be present at these mysteries of Your great goodness, be present at these sacraments; and send forth the spirit of adoption to regenerate the new people whom the font of baptism brings forth, that what is to be done by our weak ministry may be brought to perfection by the effect of Your power: through our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son: who with You and the same Holy Spirit lives and reigns one God. \textit{Y.} Forever and ever. \textit{R.} Amen.

\textit{Y.} The Lord be with you. \textit{R.} And with your spirit.

\textit{Y.} Lift up your hearts. \textit{R.} We have lifted them up to the Lord.

\textit{Y.} Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. \textit{R.} It is fitting and just.

It is fitting indeed and just, proper and helpful to give You thanks always and in all places, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God. Who by Your invisible power wonderfully produce the effect of Your sacra-\textit{Y.} Domine vobiscum. \textit{R.} Et cum spiritu tuo.

\textit{Y.} Domine vobiscum. \textit{R.} Et cum spiritu tuo.

\textit{Y.} Sursum corda. \textit{R.} Habemus ad Dominum.

\textit{Y.} Gratias agamus Domino Deo nostro. \textit{R.} Dignum et justum est.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus. Qui invisibili potentia sacraments; and though we are unworthy to administer so great mysteries, yet as You do not forsake the gifts of Your grace, so You incline the ears of Your goodness, even to our prayers. O God, whose Spirit in the very beginning of the world moved over the waters, that even then the nature of water might receive the virtue of sanctification; O God, who by water washed away the crimes of the guilty world, and by the deluge of rain gave a figure of regeneration, that one and the same element might in a mystery be the end of vice and the origin of virtue: look, O Lord, on the face of Your Church, and multiply in her Your regenerations, who by the streams of Your abundant grace fill Your city with joy, and open the fonts of baptism all over the world, for the renovation of the Gentiles; that by the command of Your majesty she may receive the grace of Your Only-begotten Son from the Holy Spirit.

Here the priest divides the water in the form of a cross.

Who by a secret mixture of His divine virtue may render this prepared water fruitful for the regeneration of men, to the end that those who have been sanctified in the immaculate womb of this divine font, being born mentorum tuorum mirabiliter operaris effectum: et licet nos tantis mysteriis exsequendis simus indigni, tu tamen gratiae tuae dona non deserens, etiam ad nostras preces, aures tuae pietatis inclina. Deus, cujus Spiritus super aquas, inter ipsa munda primordia ferebatur, ut jam tunc virtutem sanctificationis, aquarum natura conciperet: Deus qui nocentis mundi crimina per aquas abluens, regenera-tionis speciem in ipsa diluvii effusione signasti, ut unius eiusdemque elementi mysterio, et finis esset vitii, et origo virtutibus: respice, Domine, in faciem ecclesiae tuae, et multiplica in ea regenerationes tuas, qui gratiae tuae affluentis impetu laetificas civitatem tuam, fontemque baptismatis aperis toto orbe terrarum gentibus innovandis:

ut tuae majestatis imperio sumat Unigeniti tui gratiam de Spiritu Sancto.

Qui hanc aquam regenerandis hominibus praeparatam, arcanas sui numinis admixtione fecundet, ut sanctificatione concepta, ab immaculato divini fontis utero, in novam again a new creature, may come forth a heavenly offspring; and that all who are distinguished either by sex in body, or by age in time, may be brought forth to the same infancy by grace, their spiritual mother. Therefore, may all unclean spirits, by Your command, O Lord, depart far from hence; may the whole malice of diabolical deceit be entirely banished; may no power of the enemy prevail here; may he not fly about to lay his snares; may he not creep in by his secret artifice; may he not corrupt with his infection.

May this holy and innocent creature be free from all the assaults of the enemy, and purified by the destruction of all his malice. May it be a living fountain, a regenerating water, a purifying stream, that all those who are to be washed in this saving flow may obtain, by the operation of the Holy Spirit, the grace of a perfect purification.

Here he makes the sign of the cross three times over the font, saying:

Therefore I bless you, O creature of water, by the living God, by the true God, by the holy God, by that God who in the beginning separated you by His word from the dry land, whose Spirit moved over you.

Sit haec sancta et innocens creatura, libera ab omni impugnatoris incursu, et totius nequitiae purgata discussu. Sit fons vivus, aqua regressa, una purificans: ut omnes hoc lavacro salutifero diluendi, operante in eis Spiritu Sancto, perfectae purgationis indulgentiam consequantur.

Unde benedico te creatura aquae, per Deum vivum, per Deum verum, per Deum sanctum: per Deum qui te in principio verbo separat ab arida, cujus Spiritus super te ferebatur.
He divides the water with his hands, and throws some of it towards the four points of the compass, saying:

Who made you flow from the fountain of paradise, and commanded you to water the whole earth with your four rivers; who changing your bitterness in the desert into sweetness, made you fit to drink, and produced you out of a rock to quench the thirst of the people. I bless you also by our Lord Jesus Christ, His only Son, who in Cana of Galilee changed you into wine, by a wonderful miracle of His power; who walked upon you dry foot, and was baptized in you by John in the Jordan; who made you flow out of His side together with His blood, and commanded His disciples, that such as believed should be baptized in you, saying: “Go, teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.”

Almighty and merciful God, be present with us who observe these precepts: graciously inspire us.

With Your mouth bless these clear waters, that besides their natural power of cleansing bodies, they may also prove efficacious for the purification of souls.

Haec nobis praecepta servantibus, tu Deus omnipotens clemens adesto: tu benignus aspira.

Tu has simplices aquas tuo ore benedicite: ut praeter naturalem emundationem, quam lavandis possunt adhibere corporibus, sint etiam purificandis mentibus efficaces.
Here the priest dips the paschal candle in the water, at three different times, saying each time:

May the power of the Holy Spirit descend into all the water of this font.

Then blowing three times upon the water, he continues:

And make the whole substance of this water fruitful and capable of regenerating.

Here the paschal candle is taken out of the water.

Here may the stains of all sins be washed out; here may human nature, created to Your image, and reformed to the honor of its author, be cleansed from all the filth of the old man; that all who receive this sacrament of regeneration may be born again new children of true innocence: through our Lord Jesus Christ Your Son, who shall come to judge the living and the dead, and the world by fire. R. Amen.

Some of the blessed water is now put in a vessel to be used for the blessing after the renewal of baptismal vows, blessing of houses, etc.

The baptismal water is now carried to the font and the following Tract is now sung:

As the deer pants after the fountains of water; so my soul pants after You, O God. R. My soul has thirsted for the living God, when shall I come and appear before Descendat in hanc plenitudinem fontis virtus Spiritus Sancti.

Totamque hujus aquae substantiam regenerandi fecundet effectu.

Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum: ita desiderat anima mea ad te, Deus. R. Sitivit anima mea ad Deum vivum: quando veniam et apparebo ante faciem Dei mei?
the face of my God?

Y.

My tears have been my bread day and night, while they say to me every day: “Where is your God?”

After pouring the water into the font, the celebrant says:

Y.

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, look mercifully on the devotion of the people desiring a new birth, that as the deer pants after the fountain of Your waters, so mercifully grant that the thirst of their faith may, by the sacrament of baptism, sanctify their souls and bodies: through our Lord.

The priest pours some oil of catechumens into the water, in the form of a cross, saying:

May this font be sanctified and made fruitful by the oil of salvation, for such as are regenerated therein unto life everlasting.

Y. Amen.

Then he pours chrism into it in the same manner, saying:

May the infusion of the chrism of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of the Holy Spirit the Comforter, be made in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Y. Amen.

He pours oil and chrism both together into the water.

May this mixture of the chrism of sanctification, and of the oil of unction, and of the water of baptism, be made in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Y. Amen.

Y.

Fuerunt mihi lacrymae panes die ac nocte: dum dicitur mihi per singulos dies: Ubi est Deus tuus?

Y.

Dominus vobiscum.

Et cum spiritu tuo.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, respice propitius ad devotionem populi renascentis, qui sicut cervus aquarum tuarum expetit fontem, et concede propitius, ut fidei ipsius sitis, baptismatis mysterio, animam corpusque sanctificet. Per Dominum.

Sanctificetur et fecundetur fons iste oleo salutis, renascentibus ex eo in vitam aeternam.

Y. Amen.

Infusio chrismatis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, et Spiritus Sancti Paracliti, fiat in nomine Sanctae Trinitatis.

Y. Amen.

Commixtio chrismatis sanctificationis, et olei unctionis et aquae baptismatis pariter fiat in nomine Pa*X*tris, et Fi*X*lii, et Spiritus X Sancti.

Y. Amen.
Then he mingles the oil with the water, and with his hands spreads it all over the font. All now return to the altar.

The Renewal of Baptismal Vows

The celebrant, now facing the people holding lighted candles in their hands, begins:

On this most sacred night, dearly beloved, Holy Mother Church, recalling the death and burial of our Lord Jesus Christ, keeps vigil with Him, returning His love; and celebrating His glorious resurrection, her joy is unlimited. But, since, as the Apostle teaches, by our baptism we have been buried with Christ in His death, just as Christ rose from the dead, so we also should walk in newness of life; knowing that our former self was crucified with Christ, so that we should no longer be slaves to sin. Let us realize then that we are indeed dead to sin, but living to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Wherefore, dearly beloved, with our Lenten observance behind us, let us renew the promises of our holy baptism, by which we renounced Satan and his works, just as we renounced the world, the enemy of God, and promised to serve God faithfully in the holy Catholic Church.

And so:

Cel: Do you renounce Satan?
All: We do renounce him.
Cel: And all his works?
All: We do renounce them.
Cel: And all his pomps?
All: We do renounce them.
Cel: Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth?
All: We do believe.
Cel: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord who was born and suffered for us?
All: We do believe.
Cel: Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the communion of Saints, the remission of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting?

All: We do believe.

Let us now pray together to God, as our Lord Jesus Christ taught us:

All: Our Father ...

Cel: And may Almighty God, the Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who has regenerated us by water and the Holy Spirit, and who has given us remission of sins, keep us in His grace, in the same Christ Jesus; our Lord, unto life everlasting.

All: Amen.

All are now sprinkled with the newly blessed water; and the Mass begins with the Litanies.

The Litanies

THE MASS FOR HOLY SATURDAY

While the choir sings the Kyrie and Christe eleison the priest goes up to the altar, and begins Mass in the accustomed manner. When the Gloria in excelsis is intoned, the bells, which have remained silent from this part of the Mass on Maundy Thursday, are rung again. After which he turns towards the people, and says:

℣. The Lord be with you. ℓ. And with your spirit.

Let us Pray. O God, You do make this most sacred night memorable by the solemnity of the Resurrection of our Lord; preserve in the new children of Your family the spirit of adoption given by You; that being renewed in body and soul, they may serve You with purity of heart: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Col. 3, 1-4. Brethren: If you have risen with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Mind the things that are above, not the things that are on earth. For you have died and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ, your life, shall appear, then you too will appear with Him in glory.

℣. Ps. 106, 1.2. Praise the Lord, because He is good; because His mercy endures forever.

℣. Dominus vobiscum. ℓ. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Oremus. Deus, qui hanc sacratissimam noctem gloria Dominicae resurrectionis illustras, conserva in nova familie tuae progenie adoptionis spiritum, quem dedisti: ut corpore et mente renovati, puram tibi exhibeant servitutem. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Si consurrexistis cum Christo, quae sursum sunt quaerite, ubi Christus est in dextera Dei sedens: quae sursum sunt sapite, non quae super terram. Mortui enim estis, et vita vestra est abscondita cum Christo in Deo. Cum Christus apparuerit, vita vestra, tunc et vos apperebitis cum ipso in gloria.

Tract. Ps. 116, 1-2. Praise the Lord all you Gentiles, and praise Him all you people. \( \checkmark \). Because His mercy is established on us, and the truth of the Lord remains forever.

At the gospel, lights are not carried, but only incense.

Gospel. Matt. 28, 7-7. Now late in the night of the Sabbath, as the first day of the week began to dawn, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to see the sepulchre. And behold, there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and drawing near rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment like snow. And for fear of him the guards were terrified, and became like dead men. But the angel spoke and said to the women, “Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here, for He has risen even as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord was laid. And go quickly, tell His disciples that He has risen, and behold, He goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see Him. Behold, I have foretold it to you.”

\( \checkmark \). The Lord be with you. \( \checkmark \). And with your spirit.

Tractus. Laudate Dominum omnes gentes: et collaudate eum omnes populi. \( \checkmark \). Quoniam confirmata est super nos misericordia ejus: et veritas Domini manet in aeternum.

\( \checkmark \). Dominus vobiscum. \( \checkmark \). Et cum spiritu tuo. Oremus.
Let us pray.

No Offertory; but Suscipe, etc., is said.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, we beseech You, the prayers of Your people together with the offerings of these sacrifices, that the paschal mysteries now begun, may, by Your power, obtain for us eternal life: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 5, p. 649.

Secreta. Suscipe, quae sumus, Domine, preces populi tui cum oblationibus hostiarum: ut paschalibus initiata mysteriis, ad aeternitatis nobis medelam, te operante, proficiant. Per Dominum.

The Agnus Dei is not said.

Immediately after Communion, Lauds is said:

Alleluia: Praise the Lord in His sanctuary; praise Him in the firmament of His strength.

Praise Him for His mighty deeds; praise Him for His sovereign greatness.

Praise Him with the sound of trumpet; praise Him with psalter and harp.

Praise Him with timbrel and dance; praise Him with stringed instruments and flute.

Praise Him with resounding cymbals; praise Him with cymbals that clang; let everything that breathes praise the Lord.

Alleluia!

Immediately follows the Benedictus Antiphon:

And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulchre the sun being now risen, alleluia!

Et valde mane una sabbatorum, veniunt ad monumentum, orto jam sole, alleluia.
While the Benedictus is being sung, there is the customary incensation.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited and wrought redemption for His people. And has raised a horn of salvation for us, in the house of David His servant. As He promised through the mouth of His holy ones, the prophets of old; salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us, to show mercy to our forefathers and to be mindful of His holy covenant, of the oath that He swore to Abraham our father, that He would grant us, that, delivered from the hand of our enemies we should serve Him without fear, in holiness and justice before Him all our days. And you, Child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for You shall go before the face of the Lord to prepare His ways. To give to His people knowledge of salvation through forgiveness of their sins, because of the loving kindness of our God, wherewith the Orient from on high has visited us, to shine on those who sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death to guide our feet into the way of peace.

After the antiphon Et valde has been repeated, the celebrant says:
Y. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

Postcommunion. Pour on us, O Lord, the spirit of Your charity, that those whom You have refreshed with the paschal sacraments may, by Your goodness, live in perfect concord: through our Lord.

Y. The Lord be with you. R. And with your spirit.

Here the deacon turning to the people sings:

Y. Go, you are dismissed, alleluia, alleluia! R. Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia!

Y. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Postcommunio. Spiritum nobis, Domine, tuae caritatis infunde, ut quos sacramentis paschalibus satiasti, tua facias pietate concordes. Per Dominum.

Y. Dominus vobiscum. R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

Y. Ite, missa est, alleluia, alleluia. R. Deo gratias, alleluia, alleluia.
EASTER SUNDAY

Office. Ps. 138, 18.5.6. I arose, and am still with you, alleluia! You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia! Your knowledge is become wonderful, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 138, 1-2. Lord, You have proved me, and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who through Your Only-begotten Son on this day overcame death and opened for us the gates of everlasting life; grant that the vows You inspire us to form, You would help us to fulfill: through, etc.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 5, 7-8. Brethren: Purge out the old leaven, that you may be a new dough, as you really are without leaven. For Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed. Therefore let us keep festival, not with the old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

Responsory. Ps. 117, 24.1. This is the day which the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice therein. V. Give praise to the Lord, for He is good, for His mercy endures forever.

Oratio. Deus, qui hodierna die per Unigenitum tuum, aeternitatis nobis aditum, devicta morte, reserasti: vota nostra, quae praevento aspiras, etiam adjuvando prosequare. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Expurgate vetus fermentum, ut sitis nova conspersio, sicut estis azymi. Etenim pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus. Itaque epulemur, non in fermento veteri, neque in fermento malitiae et nequitiae, sed in azymis sinceritatis et veritatis.

Alleluia, alleluia! \(\mathbb{V}.\ 1.\ Cor.\) Alleluia, alleluia. \(\mathbb{V}.\) Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus.

Sequence

To the Paschal Victim let Christians offer their praises. The Lamb has redeemed the sheep, the sinless One has reconciled the sinners to His Father.

Death and life contend in a wondrous conflict. The Prince of life died, yet living, reigns.

Tell us, Mary, what did you see on the way?

I saw the sepulcher of the living Christ and the glory of the Risen Savior; the angelic witnesses, the linen cloth and the clothing.

Christ my hope has risen and goes before you into Galilee.

We know that Christ is truly risen from the dead. O Victorious King, have mercy on us. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 16, 1-7. At that time, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might go and anoint Jesus. And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb, when the sun had just risen. And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll the stone back from the entrance of the tomb for us?” And looking up they saw that the stone had been rolled back, for it was very large. But on entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting at the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were amazed. He said to them, “Do not be terrified. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, He is not here. Behold the place where they laid Him. But go, tell His disciples and Peter that He goes before you into Galilee; there you shall see Him, as He told you.” Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 75, 9.10. The earth trembled and was still, when God arose in judgment, alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, we beseech You, the prayers of Your people together with the offerings of these hosts, that the paschal mysteries now begun, may, by Your power, obtain for us eternal life: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 5, p. 649.

Communion. 1 Cor. 5, 7-8. Christ our Passover is sacrificed, alleluia! therefore, let us feast with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Offertorium. Terra tremuit et quievit dum resurgeret in judicio Deus, alleluia.

Secreta. Suscipe, quaesumus Domine, preces populi tui cum oblationibus hostiarum: ut paschalibus initiata mysteriis, ad aeternitatis nobis medelam, te operante, proficiant. Per Dominum.

Communio. Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus, alleluia: itaque epulemur in azymis sinceritatis et veritatis, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Postcommunion. Pour on us, O Lord, the spirit of Your charity; that those whom You have refreshed with the paschal sacrament may, by Your goodness, live in perfect concord: through our Lord.

MONDAY IN EASTER WEEK

Office. Ex. 13, 5.9. The Lord has brought you into a land flowing with milk and honey, alleluia! thus the law of the Lord will ever be on your lips, alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 104, 1. Give thanks to the Lord, invoke His name; make known among the nations His deeds. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You did heal the world by the solemn paschal feast; continue, we beseech You, to pour heavenly gifts upon Your people, that they may both deserve to attain to perfect liberty, and advance onward towards eternal life: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 10, 37-43. In those days, Peter, standing in the midst of the people, said, “Men brethren, you know what took place throughout Judea; for He began in Galilee after the baptism preached by John:

Postcommunion. Spiritum nobis, Domine, tuae caritatis infunde; ut quos sacramentis paschalibus satiasti, tua facias pietate concordes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui solemnitate paschali mundo remedia contulisti, populum tuum, quaesumus, caelesti dono prosequere, ut et perfectam libertatem consequi mereatur, et ad vitam proficiat sempiternam. Per Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Stans Petrus in medio plebis, dixit: Viri fratres, vos scitis quod factum est verbum per universam Judaeam; incipiens enim a Galilaea post bap-how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power, and He went about doing good and healing all who were in the power of the devil; for God was with Him. And we are witnesses of all that He did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; and yet they killed Him, hanging Him on a tree. But God raised Him on the third day and caused Him to be plainly seen, not by all the people, but by witnesses designated beforehand by God, that is, by us, who ate and drank with Him after He had risen from the dead. And He charged us to preach to the people and to testify that He it is who has been appointed by God to be judge of the living and of the dead. To Him all the prophets bear witness, that through His name all who believe in Him may receive forgiveness of sins."

Responsory. Ps. 117, 24.2. This is the day which the Lord has made; let us be glad and rejoice therein. ∙ Let Israel now say that He is good, that His mercy endures forever.

Alleluia, alleluia! ∙ Luke 24, 32. Was not our heart burning within us, while Jesus spoke to us on the road?

_Sequence, p. 412._

tismum quod praedicavit Joannes, Jesum a Nazareth: quonmodo unxit eum Deus Spiritu Sancto et virtute, qui pertransiti benefaciendo, et sanando omnes oppressos a diabolo, quoniam Deus erat cum illo. Et nos testes sumus omnium quae fecit in regione Judaeorum, et Jerusalem; quem occiderunt suspendentes in ligno. Hunc Deus suscitavit tertia die, et dedit eum manifestum fieri, non omni populo, sed testibus praeordinatis a Deo: nobis, qui manducavimus et bibimus cum illo, postquam resurrexit a mortuis. Et praecepit nobis praedicare populo, et testificari quia ipse est qui constitutus est a Deo judex vivorum et mortuorum. Huic omnes prophetae testimonium perhibent, remissionem peccatorum accipere per nomen ejus omnes, qui credunt in eum.

Alleluia, alleluia. ∙ Nonne cor nostrum ardens erat in nobis de Jesu, dum nobis loqueretur in via? _Seq. p. 412._
Gospel. Luke 24, 13-35. At that time, two of the disciples of Jesus were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which is sixty stadia from Jerusalem. And they were talking to each other about all these things that had happened. And it came to pass, while they were conversing and arguing together, that Jesus Himself also drew near and went along with them; but their eyes were held, that they should not recognize Him. And He said to them, “What words are these that you are exchanging as you walk and are sad?” But one of them, named Cleophas, answered and said to Him, “Are You the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have happened there in these days?” And He said to them, “What things?” And they said to Him, “Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet, mighty in work and word before God and all the people; and how our chief priests and rulers delivered Him up to be sentenced to death, and crucified Him. But we were hoping that it was He who should redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, today is the third day since these things came to pass. And moreover, certain women of our company, who were at the tomb before it was light, astounded us, and not finding His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that He is alive. So some of our company went to the tomb, and found it even as the women had said, but Him they did not see.” But He said to them, “O foolish ones and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Christ have to suffer these things before entering into His glory?” And beginning then with Moses and with all the Prophets, He interpreted to them in all the Scriptures the things referring to Himself. And they drew near to the village to which they were going, and He acted as though He were going on. And they urged Him, saying, “Stay with us, for it is getting towards evening, and the day is now far spent.” And He went in with them. And it came to pass when He reclined at table with them, that He took the bread and blessed and broke and began handing it to them. And their eyes were opened, and they recognized Him; and He vanished from their sight. And they said to each other, “Was not our heart burning within us while He was speaking on the road and explaining to us the Scriptures?” And rising up that very hour, they returned to Jerusalem, where they found the Eleven gathered together and those who were with them, saying, “The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon.” And they themselves began to relate what had happened on the journey, and how they recognized Him in the breaking of the bread. Creed, p. 621.

Epistle. Acts 13, 16.26-33. In those days, Paul arose and motioning with his hand for silence, said, "Brethren, children of the race of Abraham, and all among you who fear God, to you the word of this salvation has been sent. For the inhabitants of Jerusalem and its rulers, not knowing Jesus and the utterances of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by sentencing Him; and though they found no ground for putting Him to death, they asked of Pilate permission to kill Him. And when they had carried out all that had been written concerning Him, they took Him...

Gospel. Luke 24, 36-47. At that time: Jesus stood in the midst of His disciples, and said to them, “Peace to you! It is I, do not be afraid.” But they were startled and panic-stricken, and thought that they saw a spirit.
And He said to them, "Why are you disturbed, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? See My hands and feet, that it is I Myself. Feel Me and see; for a spirit does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have." And having said this, He showed them His hands and His feet. But as they still disbelieved and marveled for joy, He said, "Have you anything here to eat?" And they offered him a piece of broiled fish and a honeycomb. And when He had eaten in their presence, He took what remained and gave it to them. And He said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled that are written in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me." Then He opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. And He said to them, "Thus it is written; and thus the Christ should suffer, and should rise again from the dead on the third day; and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name to all the nations."

Collect. O God, year by year You gladden us by the solemn commemoration of our Lord’s Resurrection; mercifully grant, that through these feasts which we keep in time, we may be worthy to attain to joys which are eternal: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Acts 3, 13-15. 17-19. In those days, Peter opening his mouth, said: “Men of Israel, and you who fear God, hear. The God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, the God of our fathers has glorified His Son Jesus, whom you indeed delivered up and disowned before the face of Pilate, when he had decided that He should be released. But you disowned the Holy and Just One, and asked that a murderer should be granted to you; but the Author of life you killed, whom God has raised up from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. And now, brethren, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. But in this way God fulfilled what He had announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets, namely,

Gospel. John 21, 1-14. At that time, Jesus manifested Himself again to His disciples at the sea of Tiberias. Now He manifested Himself in this way. There were together Simon Peter and Thomas, called the Twin, and Nathanael, from Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We also are going with you." And they went out and got into the boat. And that night they caught nothing. But when day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Then Jesus said to them, "Young men, have you any fish?" They answered Him, "No." He said to them, “Cast the net to the right of the boat and you will find them.” They cast therefore, and now they were unable to draw it up for the great number of fishes. The disciple whom Jesus loved said therefore to Peter, “It is the Lord.” Simon Peter therefore, hearing that it was the Lord, girt his tunic about him, for he was stripped, and threw himself into the sea. But the other disciples came with the boat (for they were not far from land, only about two hundred cubits off), dragging the net full of fishes. When, therefore, they had landed, they saw a fire ready, and a fish laid upon it, and bread. Jesus said to them, “Bring here some of the fishes that you caught just now.” Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net onto the land full of large fishes, one hundred and fifty-three in number. And though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, “Come and breakfast.” And none of those reclining dared ask Him, “Who are You?” knowing that it was the Lord. And Jesus came and took the bread, and gave it to them, and likewise the fish. This is now the third time that Jesus appeared to His disciples after He had risen from the dead.

Collect. O God, You have welded together many different nations in the confession of Your name; grant that those born again in the font of baptism may have the same faith in mind and holiness in works: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 8, 26-40. In those days, an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise and go south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This road is desert.) And he arose and went. And behold, an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a minister of Queen Candace of Ethiopia, who was in charge of all her treasures, had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning, sitting in his carriage and reading the prophet Isaias. And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go near and keep close to this carriage." And Philip, running up, heard him reading the prophet Isaias, and he said, "Do you then understand what you are reading?" But he said, "Why, how can I, unless someone shows me?" And he asked Philip to get up and sit with him. Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this: "He was led like a sheep to slaughter; and just as a lamb dumb before its shearer, so did He not open His mouth.

In humiliation His judgment was denied Him; who shall declare His generation? for His life is taken from the earth.” And the eunuch answered Philip and said, “I pray you, of whom is the prophet saying this? Of himself or of someone else?” Then Philip opened his mouth and, beginning from this Scripture, preached Jesus to him. And as they went along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, “See, here is water; what is there to prevent my being baptized?” And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, you may.” And he answered, and said, “I believe Jesus Christ to be the Son of God.” And he ordered the carriage to stop; and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. But when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, but he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found in Azotus, and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities (till he came to Caesarea), the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel. John 20, 11-18. At that time, Mary was standing outside weeping at the tomb. So, as she wept, she stooped down and looked into the tomb and saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been laid. They said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him." When she had said this she turned round and beheld Jesus standing there, and she did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom do you seek?" She, thinking that He was the gardener, said to Him; "Sir, if You have removed Him, tell me where you have laid Him and I will take Him away." Jesus said to her, "Mary!" Turning, she said to Him, "Rabboni!" (that is to say, Master). Jesus said... to her, "Do not touch Me, for I have not yet ascended to My Father, but go to My brethren, and say to them, 'I ascend to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.' ” Mary Magdalene came, and announced to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord, and these things He said to me.”

Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple, and they went to the tomb. The two were running together, and the other disciple ran on before, faster than Peter, and came first to the tomb. And stooping down he saw the linen cloths lying there, yet he did not enter. Simon Peter therefore came following him, and he went into the tomb, and saw the linen cloths lying there, and the handkerchief which had been about His head, not lying with the linen cloths, but folded in a place by itself. Then the other disciple also went in, who had come first to the tomb. And he saw and believed; for as yet they did not understand the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead.

Epistle. 1 John 5, 4-10. Dearly beloved: All that is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that overcomes the world, our faith. Who is there that overcomes the world if not he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is He who came in water and in blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but in the water and in the blood. And it is the Spirit that bears witness that Christ is the truth. For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and these three are one. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater; for this is the testimony of God which is greater, that He has borne witness concerning His Son. He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony of God in himself.

Epistola. Carissimi: Omne quod natum est ex Deo, vincit mundum: et haec est victoria quae vincit mundum, fides nostra. Quis est qui vincit mundum, nisi qui credit quoniam Jesus est Filius Dei? Hic est qui venit per aquam et sanguinem, Jesus Christus: non in aqua solum, sed in aqua et sanguine. Et Spiritus est qui testificatur quoniam Christus est veritas. Quoniam tres sunt qui testimonium dant in caelo: Pater, Verbum, et Spiritus Sanctus; et hi tres unum sunt. Et tres sunt qui testimonium dant in terra: spiritus, et aqua, et sanguis: et hi tres unum sunt. Gospel. John 20, 19-31. At that time, when it was late that same day, the first of the week, though the doors where the disciples gathered had been closed for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst and said to them, “Peace be to you!” And when He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples therefore rejoiced at the sight of the Lord. He therefore said to them again, “Peace be to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.” When He had said this, He breathed upon them, and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit; whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven them; and whose sins you shall retain, they are retained.” Now Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.” And after eight days, His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being closed, and stood in their midst, and said, “Peace be to you!” Then

He said to Thomas, "Bring here your finger, and see My hands; and bring here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing."

Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are they who have not seen, and yet have believed." Many other signs also Jesus worked in the sight of His disciples, which are not written in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

Collect. O God, who by the humility of Your Son raised up the fallen world, grant to Your faithful never-failing joy; that those whom You have snatched from the chances of everlasting death may enjoy eternal gladness: through the same Lord.

Communio. Mitte manum tuam, et cognosce loca clavorum, alleluia; et noli esse incredulus, sed fidelis, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, Domine Deus noster, ut sacrosancta mysteria, quae pro reparationis nostrae munire contulisti, et praesens nobis remedium esse facias et futurum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui in Filii tui humilitate, jacentem mundum erexisti, fidelibus tuis perpetuam concede laetitiam: ut quos perpetuae mortis eripuisti casibus, gaudiis facias perfrui sempiternis. Per eundem Dominum.
Epistle. 1 Pet. 2, 21-25. Dearly beloved: Christ has suffered for us, leaving you an example that we may follow in His steps: "Who did no sin, neither was deceit found in His mouth." Who, when He was reviled, did not revile; when He suffered, did not threaten, but yielded Himself to him who judged Him unjustly; who Himself bore our sins in His body upon the tree, that we, having died to sin, might live to justice; and by His stripes you were healed. For you were as sheep going astray, but now you have returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὁ. John 10, 14. I am the good shepherd, and I know My sheep, and Mine know Me. Alleluia! Ὁ. Christ is risen, and has shone upon His people whom He redeemed with His blood. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 10, 11-16. At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees: "I am the Good Shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep. But the hireling, who is not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees. And the wolf snatches and scatters the sheep; but the hireling flees because he is a hireling, and has Epistola. Carissimi: Christus passus est pro nobis, vobis relinquens exemplum, ut sequamini vestigia ejus. Qui peccatum non fecit, nec inventus est dolus in ore ejus. Qui cum malediceretur, non maledicebat; cum pateretur, non comminabatur, tradebat autem judicanti se injuste: qui peccata nostra ipse pertulit in corpore suo super lignum: ut peccatis mortui, justitiae vivamus: cujus livore sanati estis. Eratis enim sicut oves errantes: sed conversi estis nunc ad pastorem, et episcopum animalum vestrarum.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὁ. Ego sum pastor bonus, et cognosco oves meas, et cognoscunt me meae.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus pharisaeis: Ego sum pastor bonus. Bonus pastor animam suam dat pro ovibus suis. Mercenarius autem, et qui non est pastor, cujus non sunt oves propriae, videt lupum venientem, et dimittit oves, et fugit; et lupus rapit, et dispergit oves: mercenarius

And other sheep I have that are not of this fold. Them also I must bring, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one fold and one Shepherd.”

Offertory. Ps. 62, 2.5. O God, my God, to You do I watch at break of day; and in Your name I will lift up my hands, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May this holy offering bring us Your saving blessing, O Lord; that what it celebrates in mystery it may effect in power: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 5, p. 649.

Communion. John 10, 14. I am the Good Shepherd, alleluia! and I know My sheep, and Mine know Me, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Grant us, we beseech You, almighty God, that obtaining Your life-giving grace we may ever glory in this Your gift: through our Lord.
THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

Office. Ps. 65, 1-2. Shout with joy to God, all the earth, alleluia! Sing a psalm to His name, alleluia! Give glory to His praise, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 65, 3. Say to God: "How terrible are Your works, O Lord! because of Your great strength. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who show to the erring the light of Your truth that they may be able to return to the path of righteousness; grant that all who by their profession are accounted Christians may reject whatsoever is contrary to that name, and preserve whatsoever is becoming to it: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Pet. 2, 11-19. Dearly beloved: I exhort you as strangers and pilgrims to abstain from carnal desires which war against the soul. Behave yourselves honorably among the pagans; that, whereas they slander you as evildoers, they may, through observing you, by reason of your good works glorify God in the day of visitation. Be subject therefore to every human creature for God's sake, whether to the king as supreme or to governors as sent through him for vengeance on evil-

Epistola. Carissimi: Obsecro vos tamquam advenas et peregrinos, abstinere vos a carnalibus desideriis quae militant adversus animam, conversationem vestram inter gentes habentes bonam: ut in eo quod detractant de vobis tamquam de malefactoribus, ex bonis operibus vos considerantes, glorificant Deum in die visitationis. Subjecti igitur estote omni humanae creaturae propter Deum: sive regi, doers and for the praise of the good. For such is the will of God, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men. Live as freemen, yet not using your freedom as a cloak for malice but as servants of God. Honor all men; love the brotherhood; fear God; honor the king. Servants, be subject to your masters in all fear, not only to the good and moderate, but also to the severe. This is indeed a grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! 旮. John 16, 16. “A little while and you shall see Me no longer,” says the Lord; “and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father.” Alleluia! 旮. John 10. The good shepherd who laid down His life for His sheep, and for His flock consented to die, has risen from the dead. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 16, 16-22. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “A little while and you shall see Me no longer; and again a little while and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father.” Some of His disciples therefore said to one another, “What is this He says to us, 'A... little while and you shall not see Me, and again a little while and you shall see Me'; and, 'I go to the Father'?' They kept saying therefore, "What is this 'little while' of which He speaks? We do not know what He is saying." But Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him, and He said to them, "You inquire about this among yourselves because I said, 'A little while and you shall not see Me, and again a little while and you shall see Me.' Amen, amen, I say to you, that you shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice; and you shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman about to give birth has sorrow, because her hour has come. But when she has brought forth the child, she no longer remembers the anguish for her joy that a man is born into the world. And you therefore have sorrow now; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no one shall take from you."

Offertory. Ps. 145, 2. Praise the Lord, O my soul, in my life I will praise the Lord; I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Lauda anima mea Dominum, laudabo Dominum in vita mea: psallam Deo meo quamdiu ero, alleluia.
Secret. May it be granted to us, O Lord, through these sacred mysteries, to lessen our earthly desires and to learn to love the things of heaven: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 5, p. 649.

Communion. John 16, 16. A little while, and you shall see Me no longer, alleluia! and again a little while, and you shall see Me, because I go to the Father, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. May these sacraments we have received, O Lord, we pray You, fill us with spiritual food and uphold us with temporal aid: through our Lord.

THE SOLEMNITY OF ST. JOSEPH, SPOUSE OF OUR LADY, PATRON OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH

WEDNESDAY AFTER THE THIRD SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

Office. Ps. 32, 20.21. The Lord is our helper and protector; in Him our heart shall rejoice, and in His holy name we have trusted. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 79, 2. Take heed, O you who rule Israel, you who lead Joseph like a sheep. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Secreta. His nobis, Domine, mysteriis conferatur, quo terrena desideria mitigantes, discamus amare caelestia. Per Dominum.

Communio. Modicum, et non videbitis me, alleluia; iterum modicum, et videbitis me: quia vado ad Patrem, alleluia, alleluia.

Collect. O God, who in Your ineffable providence deigned to choose blessed Joseph to be the spouse of Your most holy Mother; grant, we beseech You, that while we honor him as our protector on earth, we may deserve to have him as our intercessor in heaven: who live and reign.

Epistle. Gen. 49, 22-26. Joseph is a growing son, a growing son, and comely to behold; the daughters run to and fro upon the wall. But archers provoked him, and quarreled with him and envied him. His bow remained firm, and the bands of his arms and his hands were loosed, by the strength of the Mighty One of Jacob: thence he came forth a shepherd, the rock of Israel. The God of your father shall be your helper, and the Almighty shall bless you with the blessings of the skies above, the blessings of the abyss couching beneath, the blessings of the breasts and womb. The blessings of your father are strengthened with the blessings of his fathers, until the desire of the timeless hills shall come. May they rest upon the head of Joseph, and on the brow of the Nazarite among his brothers.

Alleluia, alleluia! In whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me, I will hear them and be their protector always. Alleluia! Obtain for us, O Joseph, to lead an innocent life; and may it ever be safe through your patronage. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 3, 21-23. At that time, it came to pass when all the people had been baptized, Jesus also having been baptized and being in prayer, that heaven was opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form as a dove, and a voice came from heaven, “You are My beloved Son, in You I am well pleased.” And Jesus Himself, when He began His work, was about thirty years of age, being—as was supposed—the son of Joseph.

 Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 147, 12.13. Praise the Lord, O Jerusalem, because He has strengthened the bolts of your gates; He has blessed your children within you, alleluia, alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Preface: No. 12, p. 655.

Communion. Matt. 1, 16. Now Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Refreshed at the fountainhead of Your divine gift, we beseech You, O Lord our God; that even as You make us enjoy the protection of the blessed Joseph, so You would also make us, through His merits and pleadings, to share in the glory of heaven: through our Lord.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER

Office. Ps. 97, 1.2. Sing to the Lord a new canticle; alleluia! for the Lord has done wonderful things, alleluia! He has revealed His justice in the sight of the Gentiles, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 97, 1. His right hand has wrought for Him salvation; and His arm is holy. Glory.

Collect. O God, in whom the minds of the faithful are united in one will, grant that Your people may love the things You command and desire the things You facias terrena cuncta despicere, ac te verum Deum perfecta caritate diligere. Qui vivis et regnas.

Communio. Jacob autem genuit Joseph, virum Mariae, de qua natus est Jesus, qui vocatur Christus, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Divini muneras fonte refecti, quae suis Domine Deus noster; ut sicut nos facis beati Joseph protectione gaudere, ita ejus meritis et intercessione, caelestis gloriae facias esse participes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui fidelium mentes unius efficis voluntatis; da populis tuis id amare quod praecipis, id desiderare promise; that amid the manifold changes of the world our hearts may be fixed, where true joys are to be found: through our Lord.

Epistle. James 1, 17-21. Dearly beloved: Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of Lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of alteration. Of His own will He has begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be, as it were, the first-fruits of His creatures. You know this, my beloved brethren. But let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to wrath. For the wrath of man does not work the justice of God. Therefore, casting aside all uncleanness and abundance of malice, with meekness receive the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. John 16, 5-6. I am going to Him who sent Me; but because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. Alleluia! V. The Lord is risen from the tomb, who for us hung upon the tree. Alleluia!

quod promittis: ut inter mundanas varietates ibi nostra fixa sint corda, ubi vera sunt gaudia. Per Dominum.

Gospel. John 16, 5-14. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "I am going to Him who sent Me, and no one of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' But because I have spoken to you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. But I speak the truth to you; it is expedient for you that I depart. For if I do not go, the Paraclete will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He has come He will convict the world of sin, and of justice, and of judgment: of sin, because they do not believe in Me; of justice, because I go to the Father, and you will see Me no more; and of judgment, because the prince of this world has already been judged. Many things yet I have to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. But when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will teach you all the truth. For He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He will hear He will speak, and the things that are to come He will declare to you. He will glorify Me, because He will receive of what is Mine and declare it to you."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 65, 1-2.16. Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing a psalm to His name; come, and hear, Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Vado ad eum qui misit me; et nemo ex vobis interrogat me: Quo vadis? Sed quia haec locutus sum vobis, tristitia implevit cor vestrum. Sed ego veritatem dico vobis: expedit vobis ut ego vadam; si enim non abiero, Paraclitus non veniet ad vos: si autem abiero, mittam eum ad vos. Et cum venerit ille, arguet mundum de peccato, et de justitia, et de judicio. De peccato quidem, quia non crediderunt in me: de justitia vero, quia ad Patrem vado, et jam non videbitis me: de judicio autem, quia princeps hujus mundi jam judicatus est. Adhuc multa habeo vobis dicere, sed non potestis potare modo. Cum autem venerit ille Spiritus veritatis, docebit vos omnem veritatem; non enim loquitur a semetipso, sed quaecumque audiet loquitur, et quae ven­tura sunt annuntiabit vobis. Ille me clarificabit, quia de meo accipiet, et annuntiabit vobis.

Offertorium. Jubilate Deo, universa terra, psalmum dicite nomini ejus: venite, et audite, et narrabo vobis, omnes qui and I will tell you, all you who fear God, what great things the Lord has done for my soul, alleluia!

_Secret._ O God, who by the sacred intercourse of this sacrifice have made us sharers in the one supreme Godhead; grant, we beseech You, that as we know Your truth, so we may follow it with worthy lives: through our Lord.

_Preface:_ No. 5, p. 649.

_Communion._ John 16, 8. When the Paraclete, the Spirit of truth, shall come, He will convict the world of sin, and of justice, and of judgment, alleluia, alleluia!

_Postcommunion._ Be near us, O Lord our God, so that by these rites which we have received in faith, we may be cleansed from sin and freed from all perils: through our Lord.

_OFFERTORY PRAYERS, p. 623.

_FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER EASTER_

_Office._ Isa. 48, 20. Declare the voice of joy, and let it be heard, alleluia! declare it even to the ends of the earth: the Lord has delivered His people, alleluia, alleluia! * Ps. 65, 1-2. Shout with joy to God, all the earth: sing a psalm to His name, give glory to His praise. Glory.

Collect. O God, from whom all good things come, give us, Your suppliants, by Your inspiration to think what is right, and by Your guidance to perform the same: through our Lord.

Epistle. James 1, 22-27. Dearly beloved: Be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves. For if anyone is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror: for he looks at himself and goes away, and presently he forgets what kind of man he is. But he who has looked carefully into the perfect law of liberty and has remained in it, not becoming a forgetful hearer but a doer of the word, shall be blessed in his deed. And if anyone thinks himself to be religious, not restraining his tongue but deceiving his own heart, that man's religion is vain. Religion pure and undefiled before God the Father is this: to give aid to orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep oneself unspotted from this world.

Deo; omnis terra: psalmum dicite nomini ejus, date gloriam laudi ejus. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, a quo bona cuncta procedunt, largire supplicibus tuis, ut cogitemus te inspirante quae recta sunt, et te gubernante eadem faciamus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Carissimi: Estote factores verbi, et non auditores tantum, fallentes vosmetipsos. Quia si quis auditor est verbi et non factor, hic comparabitur viro consideranti vultum nativitatis suae in speculo. Consideravit enim se et abiit, et statim oblitus est qualis fuerit. Qui autem perspexerit in legem perfectam libertatis, et permanerit in ea, non auditor obliviosus factus, sed factor operis, hic beatus in facto suo erit. Si quis autem putat se religiosum esse, non refrenans linguam suam, sed seducens cor suum, hujus vana est religio. Religio munda, et immaculata apud Deum et Patrem, haec est: visitare pupillos et viduas in tribulatione eorum, et immaculatum se custodire ab hoc saeculo.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ye. Hitherto you have not asked anything in My name. Ask, and you shall receive. Alleluia! Ye. Matt. 28, 9. The Lord arose, and meeting the women said, "Hail!" Then they drew near and held His feet. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 16, 23-30. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Amen, amen, I say to you, if you ask the Father anything in My name, He will give it to you. Hitherto you have not asked anything in My name. Ask, and you shall receive, that your joy may be full. These things I have spoken to you in parables. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in parables, but will speak to you plainly of the Father. In that day you shall ask in My name; and I do not say to you that I will ask the Father for you, for the Father Himself loves you because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from God. I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again I leave the world and go to the Father." His disciples said to Him, "Behold, now You speak plainly, and utter no parable. Now we know that You know all things, and do not need that anyone should question

You. For this reason we believe that You came forth from God.”

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. Ps. 65, 8-9.20. O bless the Lord our God, you Gentiles, and make the voice of His praise to be heard who has set my soul to live, and has not suffered my feet to be moved. Blessed be the Lord, who has not turned away my prayer and His mercy from me, alleluia!

_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the prayers of Your faithful with their offered sacrifices; so that by these works of pious devotion, we may pass to heavenly glory: through our Lord.

_Preface: No. 5, p. 649._

Communion. Ps. 95, 2. Sing to the Lord, alleluia! Sing to the Lord, and bless His name. Show forth His salvation from day to day, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Grant, O Lord, to us who have been fed by the strength of Your heavenly fare, to seek what is right and to find what we seek: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Benedicite gentes Dominum Deum nostrum, et obaudite vocem laudis ejus qui posuit animam meam ad vitam, et non dedit commoveri pedes meos: benedictus Dominus, qui non amovit deprecationem meam et misericordiam suam a me, alleluia.

_Secreta._ Suscipe, Domine, fidelium preces cum oblationibus hostiarum; ut per haec piae devotionis officia, ad caelestem gloriarn transeamus. Per Dominum.

Communio. Cantate Domino, alleluia: cantate Domino et benedicite nomen ejus: bene nuntiate de die in diem salutare ejus, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Tribue nobis, Domine, caelestis mensae virtute satiatis, et desiderare quae recta sunt, et desiderata percipere. Per Dominum.
THE ROGATION DAYS

If the Mass is sung, the ministers come to the foot of the altar and the cantor begins the following:

ANTIPHONS

Arise, O Lord, help us: and redeem us for Your name's sake, alleluia. \( \uparrow \). We have heard, O God, with our ears: our fathers have declared unto us. Glory be to the Father. Arise.

\( \uparrow \). Show unto us Your mercy, O Lord, alleluia. \( \uparrow \). And grant us Your salvation, alleluia!

The Lord be with you.

Collect. Spare, O Lord, spare Your people, that chastened by merited scourgings, they may find comfort in Your mercy: through our Lord.

The Litanies now follow, p. 399. After the Litanies, the ministers return to the sacristy, and then come back to the altar fully vested for Mass. Where there is no procession, the Litanies are read. This order is observed on the two following days.

THE MASS

Office. Ps. 17, 7. He heard my voice from His holy temple, alleluia! and my cry before Him came into His ears, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 17, 2-3. I will love You, \( \uparrow \). Ostende nobis, Domine, misericordiam tuam, alleluia.

\( \uparrow \). Et salutare tuum da nobis, alleluia.

Dominus vobiscum.

Oratio. Parce, Domine, parce populo tuo, ut dignis flagellationibus castigatus, in tua miseratione respiret. Per Dominum.

Officium. Exaudi vit de templo sancto suo vocem meam, alleluia: et clamor meus in conspectu ejus introivit in aures ejus, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. Diligam te, Domine, virtus mea:
O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my strength and my refuge, and my deliverer. Glory.

_Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria._

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who in our tribulation trust in Your goodness, may, by Your protection, be ever shielded from all adversities: through our Lord.

Epistle. James 5, 16-20. Dearly beloved: Confess, therefore, your sins to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be saved. For the unceasing prayer of a just man is of great avail. Elias was a man like ourselves, subject to the same infirmities; and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain upon the earth, and it did not rain for three years and six months. He prayed again, and the heavens gave rain and the earth brought forth its fruit. My brethren, if anyone of you strays from the truth and someone brings him back, he ought to know that he who causes a sinner to be brought back from his misguided way, will save his soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

_Alleluia._ Ps. 117, 1. Give praise to the Lord, for He is good: for His mercy endures forever.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui in afflicctione nostra de tua pietate confidimus, contra adversa omnia, tua semper protectione muniamur. Per Dominum.

_Alleluia._ *Ps. Confitemini Domino, quoniam bonus: quo­niam in saeculum misericordia ejus._
Gospel. Luke 11, 5-13. At that time; Jesus said to His disciples: "Which of you shall have a friend and shall go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine has just come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him'; and he from within should answer and say, 'Do not disturb me; the door is now shut, and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give to you'? Yet if he shall continue knocking, I say to you, although he will not get up and give to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will get up and give him all he needs. And I say to you, ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened. But if one of you asks his father for a loaf, will he hand him a stone? or for a fish, will he for a fish hand him a serpent? or if he asks for an egg, will he hand him a scorpion? Therefore, if you, evil as you are, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Good Spirit to those who ask Him!"

Offertory. Ps. 108, 30.31. I will give thanks to the Lord exceedingly with my mouth; and in the midst of many I will praise Him because He has stood at the right hand of the poor, to save my soul from persecutors, alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May these offerings, we beseech You, O Lord, loosen the bonds of our wickedness and earn for us the gifts of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 5, p. 649.

Communion. Luke 11, 9-10. Ask, and you shall receive; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives; and he who seeks, finds; and to him who knocks, it shall be opened, alleluia!

Postcommunion. In Your loving kindness accept, O Lord, we beseech You, these our offerings; that while in our tribulation we receive Your gifts, we may, through our consolation, grow in Your love: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Vota nostra, quaesumus Domine, pio favore prosequare: ut dum dona tua in tribulatione percipimus, de consolatione nostra in tuo amore crescamus. Per Dominum.
VIGIL OF THE ASCENSION OF OUR LORD

Office. Ps. 46, 2. Clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with the voice of joy, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 46, 4. He has subdued the people under us; and the nations under our feet. Glory.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the bent of our minds may always tend where the glorious author of the coming solemnity has entered; and attain by holy living that towards which it journeys by faith: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 4, 7-13. Brethren: To each one of us grace was given according to the measure of Christ's bestowal. Thus it says, "Ascending on high, He led away captives; He gave gifts to men." Now this, "He ascended," what does it mean but that He also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? He who descended, He it is who ascended also above all the heavens, that He might fill all things. And He Himself gave some men as apostles, and some as prophets, others again as evangelists, and others as pastors and Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may glorify You, even as You have given Him power over all flesh, in order that to all You have given Him He may give everlasting life. Now this is everlasting life, that they may know You, the only true God, and Him whom You have sent, Jesus Christ. I have glorified You on earth; I have accomplished the work that You have given Me to do. And now You, Father, glorify Me with Yourself, with the glory that I had with You before the world existed. I have manifested Your name to the men whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You have given them to Me, and they have kept Your word. Now they have learnt that whatever You have given Me is from You; because the words that You have given Me I have given to them. And they have received them, and have known of a truth that I came forth from You, and they have believed that You did send Me. I pray for them; not for the world do I pray, but for those whom You have given Me, because they are Yours; and all things that are Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine; and I am glorified in them. And I am no longer in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to You.”

Epistle. Acts 1, 1-11. In the former book, O Theophilus, I spoke of all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day on which He was taken up, after He had given commandments through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen. To them also He showed Himself alive after His passion by many proofs, during forty days appearing to them and speaking of the kingdom of God. And while eating with them, He charged them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the promise of the Father, "of which you have heard," said He, "by My mouth; for John indeed baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence." They therefore who had come together began to ask Him, saying, "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom of Israel?" But He said to them, "It is not for you to know the times or dates which the Father has fixed by his own authority; but you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you shall be witnesses for Me in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and even to the very ends of the earth." And when He had said this, He was lifted up before their Quibus et praebuat seipsum vivum post passionem suam in multis argumentis, per dies quadraginta apparens eis, et loquens de regno Dei. Et convescens, praecipit eis ab Jerosolymis ne discederent, sed expectarent promissionem Patris, quam audistis (inquit) per os meum. Quia Joannes quidem baptizavit aqua, vos autem baptizabimini Spiritu Sancto non post multos hos dies. Igitur qui convenerant, interrogabant eum, dicentes: Domine, si in tempore hoc restitues regnum Israel? Dixit autem eis: Non est vestrum nosse temporae vel momenta, quae Pater posuit in sua potestate; sed accipietis virtutem supervenientis Spiritus Sancti in vos, et eritis mihi testes in Jerusalem, et in omni Judaea, et Samaria, et usque ad ultimum terrae. Gospel. Mark 16, 14-20. At that time, Jesus appeared to the eleven disciples as they were at table; and He upbraided them for their lack of faith and hardness of heart, in that they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had risen. And He said to them, “Go into the whole world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. And these signs shall attend those who believe: in My name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Recumbentibus undecim discipulis apparuit illis Jesus; et exprobravit incredulitatem eorum et duritiam cordis, quia iis qui viderant eum resurrexisse, non crediderunt. Et dixit eis: Euntes in mundum universum, praedicate Evangelium omni creaturae. Qui crediderit, et baptizatus fuerit, salvus erit: qui vero non crediderit, condennabitur. Signa autem eos, qui crediderint, haec sequentur: in nomine meo daemonia ejicient: linguis

But they went forth and preached everywhere, while the Lord worked with them and confirmed the preaching by the signs that followed.

There were about twelve men in all. Now for three months he used to go to the synagogue and speak confidently, holding discussions and trying to persuade them about the kingdom of God.

Gospel. John 14, 15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "If you love Me, keep My commandments. And I will ask the Father and He will give you another Paraclete to dwell with you forever, the Spirit of truth whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees Him nor knows Him. But you shall know Him, because He will dwell with you, and be in you. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you. Yet a little while and the world no longer sees Me. But you see Me, for I live and you shall live. In that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you. He who has My commandments and keeps them, he it is who loves Me. But he who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I will love him and manifest Myself to him."

Offertory. Ps. 103, 30.31. Send forth Your Spirit, and they shall be created; and You shall renew the face of the earth. May the glory of the Lord endure forever, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

PENTECOST

Office. Wisd. 1, 7. The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole earth, alleluia! and that which contains all things has knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 67, 29. Confirm this, O God, which You have wrought in us, from Your temple which is in Jerusalem. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who on this day instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit; grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may always be truly wise and rejoice in His consolation: through our Lord.

Communio. Ultimo festivitatis die, dicebat Jesus: Qui in me credit, flumina de ventre ejus fluent aquae vivae; hoc autem dixit de Spiritu quem accepturi erant credentes in eum, alleluia, alleluia.

Epistle. Acts 2, 1-11. When the days of Pentecost were drawing to a close, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind blowing, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them parted tongues as of fire, which settled upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in foreign tongues, even as the Holy Spirit prompted them to speak. Now there were staying at Jerusalem devout Jews, from every nation under heaven. And when this sound was heard, the multitude gathered and were bewildered in mind, because each heard them speaking in his own language. But they were all amazed and marveled, saying, “Behold, are not all these that are speaking Galileans? And how have we heard each his own language in which he was born? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphilia, Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, Jews also and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we have heard them speaking in our own languages of the wonderful works of God."

alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Ps. 103, 30. Send forth Your spirit, and they shall be created; and You shall renew the face of the earth. Alleluia! Ὡ. (Here all kneel.) Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

Gospel. John 14, 23-31. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "If anyone love Me, he will keep My word, and My Father will love him, and We will come to him and make Our abode with him. He who does not love Me, does not keep My words. And the word that you have heard is not Mine, but the Father’s who sent Me. These things I have spoken to you while yet dwelling with you. But the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your mind whatever I have said to you. Peace I leave with you, My peace I give to you; not as the world gives do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, or be afraid. You have heard Me say to you, 'I go away and I am coming to you.' If you loved Me, you would indeed rejoice that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it comes to pass, that when it has come to pass you may believe. I will no longer speak much with you, for the Prince of the world is coming, and in Me He has nothing. Office. Ps. 80, 17. He fed them with the fat of wheat, alleluia! and filled them with honey out of the rock, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 80, 2. Rejoice to God our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who gave Your apostles the Holy Spirit; grant Your people the fruit of their holy petitions, that on those to whom You have given faith, You would also grant peace: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 10, 34. 42-48. In those days, Peter began and said, “Men, brethren, the Lord charged us to preach to the people and to testify that He it is who has been appointed by God to be judge of the living and of the dead. To Him all the prophets bear witness, that through His name all who believe in Him may receive forgiveness of sins.” While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came upon all who were listening to his message. And the faithful of the circumcision, who had come with Peter, were amazed, because on the Gentiles also the grace of the Holy Spirit had been poured forth; for they heard them speaking in tongues and magnifying God. Then Peter answered, “Can anyone refuse the water to baptize these, seeing that they have received the Holy Spirit just as we did?” And he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Holy Spirit, going forth from the throne, this day penetrated the breasts of the apostles with His invisible power. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 3, 16-21. At that time, Jesus said to Nicodemus: “God so loved the world that He gave His Only-begotten Son, that those who believe in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting. For God did not send His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. He who believes in the Son has eternal life; he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideeth on him.”

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus Nicodemo: Sic Deus dilexit mundum, ut Filium suum unigenitum daret, ut omnis qui credit in eum non pereat, sed habeat vitam not send His Son into the world in order to judge the world, but that the world might be saved through Him. He who believes in Him is not judged; but he who does not believe is already judged, because he does not believe in the name of the Only-begotten Son of God. Now this is the judgment: The light has come into the world, yet men have loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were evil. For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, that his deeds may not be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light that his deeds may be made manifest, for they have been performed in God.”

Gospel. John 10, 1-10. At that time, Jesus said to the Pharisees: "Amen, amen, I say to you, he who enters not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up another way, is a thief and a robber. But he who enters by the door is shepherd of the sheep. To this man the gate-keeper opens, and the sheep hear his voice, and he calls his own sheep by name and leads them forth. And when he has let out his own sheep, he goes before them; and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. But a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers." This parable Jesus spoke to them, but they did not understand what He was saying to them. Again, therefore, Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am..."

Communion. John 15, 26; 16, 14. The Spirit who proceeds from the Father, alleluia! He shall glorify me, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. By these divine sacraments, we bespeak You, O Lord, may the Holy Spirit renew our minds since He Himself is the remission of all our sins: through our Lord.

Communio. Spiritus qui a Patre procedit, alleluia: ille me clarificabit, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Mentes nostras, quaesumus Domine, Spiritus Sanctus divinis reparet sacramentis, quia ipse est remissio omnium peccatorum. Per Dominum.
EMBER WEDNESDAY

Office. Ps. 67, 8, 9. O God, when You did go forth in the sight of Your people, making a passage for them, dwelling in the midst of them, alleluia; the earth was moved, the heavens dropped, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 67, 2. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered: and let them that hate Him flee from before His face. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. May the Comforter who proceeds from You, enlighten our minds, we beseech You, O Lord, and lead us as Your Son has promised, to all truth: who lives and reigns with You.

Lesson. Acts 2, 14-21. In those days, Peter, standing up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice and spoke out to them: "Men of Judea and all you who dwell in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give ear to my words. These men are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only the third hour of the day. But this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'And it shall come to pass in the last days, says the Lord, that I will pour forth of My Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, Lectio. In diebus illis: Stans Petrus cum undecim, levavit vocem suam, et locutus est eis: Viri Judaei, et qui habitatis Jerusalem universi, hoc vobis notum sit, et auribus percipite verba mea. Non enim, sicut vos aestimatis, hi ebrii sunt, cum sit hora diei tertia; sed hoc est, quod dictum est per prophetam Joel: Et erit in novissimis diebus (dicit Dominus), effundam de Spiritu meo super omnem carnem; et prophetabunt filii vestri et filiae vestrae, et juvenes vestri and your old men shall dream dreams. And moreover upon My servants and upon My handmaids in those days will I pour forth of My Spirit, and they shall prophesy. And I will show wonders in the heavens above and signs on the earth beneath, blood and fire and vapor of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the day of the Lord comes, the great and manifest day. And it shall come to pass that whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.'"

Alleluia. Wisd. 1, 7. The spirit of the Lord has filled the whole earth; and that which contains all things has knowledge of the voice.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that the Holy Spirit may come upon us, and by His indwelling make us worthy to be the temples of His glory: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 5, 12-16. In those days, by the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. And with one accord they all would meet in Solomon’s portico; but of the rest, no one dared to associate with them, yet the people made much of them.
And the multitude of men and women who believed in the Lord increased still more, so that they carried the sick into the streets and laid them on beds and pallets that, when Peter passed, his shadow at least might fall on some of them and they might be delivered from their infirmities. And there came also multitudes from the towns near Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those troubled with unclean spirits, and they were all cured.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \). Suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a violent wind blowing. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 6, 44-52. At that time, Jesus said to the Jews: "No one can come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draw him, and I will raise him up on the last day. It is written in the Prophets, 'And they all shall be taught of God.' Everyone who has listened to the Father, and has learned, comes to Me; not that anyone has seen the Father except Him who is from God, He has seen the Father. Amen, amen, I say to you, he who believes in Me has life everlasting. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and have died. This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that if anyone eat of it he will not die. I am the living bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eat of this bread he shall live forever; and the bread that I will give is My flesh for the life of the world.” Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 118, 47-48. I shall meditate on Your commandments which I have loved exceedingly; and lift up my hands to Your commandments which I have loved, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Take, we beseech You, O Lord, this offered gift, and deign so to work within us that we may celebrate with devout affections the mysteries on which we are engaged: through our Lord. Preface: No. 7, p. 651.

Postcommunion. Having received, O Lord, these heavenly sacraments, we beseech Your mercy, that what we celebrate here on earth, may be our joy for all eternity: through our Lord.

caelo descendens, ut, si quis ex ipso manducaverit, non moriatur. Ego sum panis vivus, qui de caelo descendi. Si quis manducaverit ex hoc pane, vivet in aeternum; et panis quem ego dabo, caro mea est pro mundi vita.

Offertorium. Meditabor in mandatis tuis, quae dilexi valde: et levabo manus meas ad mandata tua, quae dilexi, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Sumentes, Domine, caelestia sacramenta, quae sumus clementiam tuam, ut quod temporaliter gerimus, aeternis guadiis consequamur. Per Dominum.
THURSDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Wisd. 1, 7. The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole earth, alleluia! and that which contains all things has knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 67, 2. Confirm this, O God, which You have wrought in us, from Your temple which is in Jerusalem. Glory.

Collect. O God, who on this day instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit; grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may always be truly wise and rejoice in His consolation: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 8, 5-8. In those days, Philip went down to the city of Samaria and preached the Christ to them. And the crowds with one accord gave heed to what was said by Philip, listening to him and seeing the miracles that he worked. For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice, went out of many possessed persons, and many paralytics and cripples were cured. So there was great joy in that city.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 103, 30. Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created; and You shall renew Oratio. Deus, qui hodierna die corda fidelium Sancti Spiritus illustracione docuisti; da nobis in eodem Spiritu recta sapere, et de ejus semper consolatione gaudere. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Emitte Spiritum tuum, et creabuntur: et renovabis faciem terrae. Alleluia. V. Paraclitus the face of the earth. Alleluia! Ἡ. John 14, 26. The Paraclete, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all truth. Alleluia!

Gospel.-Luke 9, 1-6.; At that time, having summoned the twelve apostles, Jesus gave them power and authority over all the devils, and to cure diseases. And He sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. And He said to them, “Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two tunics. And whatever house you enter, stay there, and do not leave the place. And whoever does not receive you—go forth from that town, and shake off even the dust from your feet for a witness against them.” And going forth, they went about from village to village, preaching the gospel and working cures everywhere.

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 67, 29-30. Confirm this, O God, which You have wrought in us; from Your temple which is in Jerusalem, kings shall offer presents to You, alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Spiritus Sanctus, quem mittet Pater in nomine meo, ille vos docebit omnem veritatem. Alleluia.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, to sanctify these gifts offered to You, and cleanse our hearts by the light of the Holy Spirit: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 7, p. 651.

Communion. Acts 2, 2.4. Suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind blowing, where they were sitting, alleluia. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, speaking the wonderful works of God, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Let the outpouring of the Holy Spirit cleanse our hearts, O Lord, and make them fruitful by the inward dewfall of His grace: through our Lord.

EMBER FRIDAY

Office. Ps. 70, 8.23. Let my mouth be filled with Your praise, alleluia! that I may sing, alleluia! my lips shall rejoice, when I shall sing to You, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 70, 1-2. In You, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be put to confusion; deliver me in Your justice, and rescue me. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Communio. Factus est repente de caelo sonus advenientis spiritus vehementis, ubi erant sedentes, alleluia: et repleti sunt omnes Spiritu Sancto, loquentes magnalia Dei, alleluia, alleluia.

Collect. O merciful God, we beseech You, grant to Your Church that being united to the Holy Spirit, she may be harassed by no attack from her enemy: through our Lord.

Epistle. Joel 2, 23-24.26-27. Thus says the Lord God: “O children of Sion, rejoice and be joyful in the Lord your God; because He has given you a teacher of justice, and He will make the early and the latter rain to come down to you as in the beginning. And the floors shall be filled with wheat, and the presses shall overflow with wine and oil. And you shall eat in plenty, and shall be filled; and you shall praise the name of the Lord your God, who has done wonders with you, and My people shall not be confounded forever. And you shall know that I am in the midst of Israel; and I am the Lord your God, and there is none besides; and My people shall not be confounded forever,” says the Lord almighty.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Whilst the days of Pentecost were accomplished, they were all together, saying: Alleluia! ¶ (Here all kneel.) Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love. Alleluia!

Oratio. Da, quaesumus, ecclesiae tuae, misericors Deus, ut Sancto Spiritu congregata, hostili nullatenus incursione turbetur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Haec dicit Dominus Deus: Exsultate, filii Sion, et laetamini in Domino Deo vestro; quia dedit vobis doctorem justitiae, et descendere faciet ad vos imbrem matutinum et serotinum sicut in principio. Et implebuntur areae frumento, et redundabunt torcularia vino et oleo. Et comedetis vescentes, et saturabimini; et laudabis nomen Domini Dei vestri, qui fecit mirabilia vobiscum: et non confundetur populus meus in sempiternum. Et scietis quia in medio Israel ego sum: et ego Dominus Deus vester, et non est amplius; et non confundetur populus meus in aeternum: Ait Dominus omnipotens.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Dum compleverunt dies Pentecostes, erant omnes pariter dicentes: Alleluia. ¶ (Hic genuflectitur.) Veni Sancte Spiritus, reple tuorum corda fidelium, et tui amoris in eis ignem accende. Alleluia.
Gospel. Luke 5, 17-26. At that time, it came to pass on one of the days, that Jesus sat teaching. And there were Pharisees and teachers of the Law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee and Judea and out of Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them. And behold, some men were carrying upon a pallet a man who was paralyzed, and they were trying to bring him in and to lay him before Him. And as they found no way of bringing him in, because of the crowd, they went up onto the roof and lowered him through the tiles, with his pallet, into the midst before Jesus. And seeing their faith, He said, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.” And the Scribes and Pharisees began to argue, saying, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God only?” But Jesus, knowing their thoughts, answered and said to them, “Why are you arguing in your hearts? Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Arise and walk’? But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the paralytic—“I say to you, arise, take up your pallet and go to your house.” And immediately he arose before them, took up the pallet upon which he had been lying, and went away to his house, glorifying God. And astonishment seized upon them all, and they glorified God and were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen wonderful things today." Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 145, 1. Praise the Lord, O my soul; in my life I will praise the Lord; I will sing to my God as long as I shall be, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, O Lord, that the sacrifice offered in Your sight may be consumed by that same divine fire which, through the Holy Spirit, enkindled the hearts of the disciples of Christ Your Son: through the same Lord. Preface: No. 7, p. 651.

Communion. John 3, 8. The Spirit breathes where He will, and you hear His voice, alleluia! but you know not whence He comes nor whither He goes, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. O Lord, we have received the gifts of this sacred mystery humbly beseeching You, that what You have commanded us to do in memory of You may aid us in our weakness: who lives and reigns.

Offertorium. Lauda anima mea, Dominum: laudabo Dominum in vita mea: psallam Deo meo quamdiu ero, alleluia.

Secreta. Sacrificia, Domine, tuis oblata conspectibus, ignis ille divinus assumat, qui discipulorum Christi Filii tui per Spiritum Sanctum corda succendit. Per eundem Dominum.

Communio. Spiritus ubi vult spirat: et vocem ejus audis, alleluia: sed nescis unde veniat, aut quo vadat, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, sacri dona mysterii, humiliter deprecantes, ut quae in tui commemorationem nos facere praeecepisti, in nostrae proficient infirmitatis auxilium. Qui vivis et regnas.
EMBER SATURDAY

Office. Rom. 5, 5. The charity of God is poured forth in our hearts, alleluia! by His Spirit dwelling within us, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 87, 1. Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day and in the night before You. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

The following five Collects are said without Dominus vobiscum.

Collect. Into our hearts, we beseech You, O Lord, mercifully pour Your Holy Spirit by whose wisdom we were created, and by whose providence we are ruled: through our Lord.

Lesson. Joel 2, 28-32. Thus says the Lord God: “I will pour out My spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy; your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men shall see visions. Moreover, upon My servants and handmaids in those days I will pour forth My spirit. And I will show wonders in heaven; and in earth, blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and dreadful day of the Lord comes. And it shall come to pass, that every­one who shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

Alleluia! ¶ Send forth Your Spirit and they shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth.

Collect. Let the Holy Spirit, we beseech You, O Lord, ineflame us with that fire which our Lord Jesus Christ cast upon the earth, and earnestly longed to be en­kindled: who lives and reigns with You.

Lesson. Lev. 23, 9-11.15-17.21. In those days, the Lord spoke to Moses, saying: ‘Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you come into the land which I am giving you, and reap your harvest, you shall bring a sheaf of the first fruits of your harvest to the priest, who shall wave the sheaf before the Lord that it may be ac­ceptable for you, and shall sanctify it. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall do this. Beginning with the day after the Sabbath, the day on which you bring the wave-offering sheaf, you shall count seven full weeks, and then on the day after the seventh week, the fiftieth day, you shall present the new cereal offering to the bilis. Et erit, omnis qui invocaverit nomen Domini salvus erit.

Alleluia. ¶ Emitte Spiritum tuum, et creabuntur: et renovabis faciem terrae.

Oratio. Illo nos igne, quaesumus Domine, Spiritus Sanctus inflammet, quem Dominus noster Jesus Christus misit in terram, et voluit vehementer accendi. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Locutus est Dominus ad Moysen, dicens: Loquere filiis Israel, et dices ad eos: Cum ingressi fueritis terram, quam ego dabo vobis, et messueritis sege­tem, feretis manipulos spicarum, primitias messis vestrae, ad sacerdotem; qui elevabit fasciculum coram Domino, ut acceptabile sit pro vobis, altero die sabbati, et sanctificabit illum. Numerabitis ergo ab altero die sabbati in quo ob­tulistis manipulum primitiarum, septem hebdomadas plenas, usque ad alteram diem expletionis hebdomadae septimae, id est, quinquaginta dies: et sic offeretis sacri-
Lord. For the wave offering of your first fruits to the Lord, you shall bring with you from wherever you live two loaves of bread made of two tenths of an epha of fine flour and baked with leaven. On this same day you shall by proclamation have a sacred assembly, and no sort of work may be done. This shall be a perpetual statute for you and your descendants wherever you dwell," says the Lord almighty.

Alleluia! ¶ Acts 2, 4. The apostles spoke in different tongues the wonderful works of God.

Collect. O God, You have commanded our souls to be healed when our bodies are chastened by the service of fasting; mercifully grant that we may ever serve You in soul and body: through our Lord.

Lesson. Deut. 26, 1-3.7-11. In those days, Moses said to the Israelites: "Hear, O Israel, the things that I command you today. When you have come into the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you as a heritage, and have occupied it and settled in it, you shall take the first of all your fruits, and putting them in a basket, you shall go to the place which the Lord, your God, chooses for the dwelling place of His name. There you shall go to the priest in office at that time and say to him, 'Today I acknowledge the Lord, your God, who heard our cry and saw our affliction, our toil and our oppression.
He brought us out of Egypt with His strong hand and outstretched arm, with terrifying power, with signs and wonders; and bringing us into this country, He gave us this land flowing with milk and honey. Therefore, I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which the Lord has given me.' And having set them before the Lord, your God, you shall bow down in His presence. Then you shall make merry over all these good things which the Lord, your God, has given you.”

Alleluia! V. Acts 2, 2. Suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a violent wind blowing.

Collect. Grant to us, O Lord, we beseech You, that taught by these healthful fastings and abstaining from all harmful indulgences, we may the more easily obtain Your mercies: through our Lord.

Lesson. Lev. 26, 3-12. In those days, the Lord said to Moses. “Speak to the Israelites, and tell them: ‘If you nomen ejus: accedesque ad sacerdotem, qui fuerit in diebus illis, et dices ad eum: Profiteor Hodie coram Domino Deo tuo qui exaudivit nos, et respexit humilitatem nostram, et laborem, atque angustiam, et eduxit nos de Aegypto in manu forti, et brachio extento, in ingenti pavore, in signis atque portentis: et introduxit ad locum istum, et tradidit nobis terram lacte et melle manantem: et idcirco nunc offero primitias frugum terrae, quam Dominus dedit mihi.

Et dimittes eas in conspectu Domini Dei tui, et adorato
Domino Deo tuo. Et epulaberis in omnibus bonis quae Dominus Deus tuus dederit tibi.

Alleluia. V. Factus est repente de caelo sonus advenientis spiritus vehementis.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut salu-taribus jejuniis eruditi, ab omnibus etiam vitiiis abstinentes, propitiationem tuam facilius impetremus. Per Dominum.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Dixit Dominus ad Moysen: Loquere filiiis Israel, et dices ad eos: Si in praeceptis meis live in accordance with My precepts and are careful to observe My commandments, I will give you rain in due season, so that the land will bear its crops, and the trees their fruit; your threshing will last till vintage time, and your vintage till the time for sowing, and you will have food to eat in abundance, so that you may dwell securely in your land. I will establish peace in the land, that you may lie down to rest without anxiety. I will rid the country of ravenous beasts, and keep the sword of war from sweeping across your land. You will rout your enemies and lay them low with your sword. Five of you will put a hundred of your foes to flight, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand of them, till they are cut down by your sword. I will look with favor upon you, and make you fruitful and numerous, as I carry out My covenant with you. So much of the old crops will you have stored up for food that you will have to discard them to make room for the new. I will set My Dwelling among you, and will not disdain you. Ever present in your midst, I will be your God, and you will be My people,” says the Lord almighty.

Alleluia! (Here all kneel.) Veni Sancte Spiritus, reple tuorum corda fidelium: et tui amoris in eis ignem accende.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, sic nos ab epulis carnalibus abstine, ut a viitis irruentibus pariter jejunemus. Per Dominum.

Alleluia. V. Benedictus es Domine Deus patrum nostrorum: et laudabilis in saecula.

Dominus vobiscum.
Collect. O God, who tempered the flames of fire for the three young men, mercifully grant that we Your servants may not be consumed by the flames of vice: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 5, 1-5. Brethren: Having been justified by faith, let us have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we also have access by faith unto that grace in which we stand, and exult in the hope of the glory of the sons of God. And not only this; but we exult in tribulations also, knowing that tribulation works out endurance, and endurance tried virtue, and tried virtue hope. And hope does not disappoint, because the charity of God is poured forth in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Alleluia. V. Ps. 116, 1. O praise the Lord all you nations, and praise him together all you people.

Gospel. Luke 4, 38-44. At that time, Jesus rose from the synagogue and entered Simon’s house. Now Simon’s mother-in-law was suffering from a great fever, and they besought Him for her. And standing over her He rebuked the fever, and it left her; and she rose at once Oratio. Deus, qui tribus pueris mitigasti flammam ignium, concede propitius, ut nos famulos tuos non exurat flamma vitiorum. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Justificati ex fide, pacem habeamus ad Deum per Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum; per quem et habemus accessum per fidem in gratiam istam, in qua stamus, et gloriamur in spe gloriae filiorum Dei. Non solum autem, sed et gloriamur in tribulationibus; scientes quod tribulatio patientiam operatur, patientia autem probationem, probatio vero spem, spes autem non confundit: quia caritas Dei diffusa est in cordibus nostris per spiritum Sanctum, qui datus est nobis.

Alleluia. V. Laudate Dominum omnes gentes: et collaudate eum omnes populi.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Surgens Jesus de synagoga, introivit in domum Simonis. Socrus autem Simonis tenebatur magnis febribus; et rogaverunt illum pro ea. Et stans and began to wait on them. Now when the sun was setting, all who had sick with various diseases brought them to Him. And He laid His hands upon each of them and cured them. And devils also came forth from many, crying out and saying, “You are the Son of God.” And He rebuked them, and did not permit them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ. Now when it was day, He went out and departed into a desert place. And the crowds were seeking after Him, and they came to Him, and tried to detain Him, that He might not depart from them. But He said to them, “To the other towns also I must proclaim the kingdom of God, for this is why I have been sent.” And He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Offertory. Ps. 87, 2-3. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day and in the night before You; let my prayer come in before You, O Lord, alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. That our fasts may find favor in Your sight, grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that our hearts may be cleansed by the offering of this sacrifice: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Domine Deus salutis meae, in die clamavi et nocte coram te: intret oratio mea in conspectu tuo, Domine, alleluia.

Secreta. Ut accepta tibi sint, Domine, nostra jejunia, praest a nobis, quae sumus, hujus munere sacramenti purificatum tibi pectus offerre. Per Dominum.
Communion. John 14, 18. I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you again, alleluia! and your heart shall rejoice, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Let Your holy mysteries, O Lord, inspire us with divine fervor, that we may rejoice both in their celebration and their effects: through our Lord.

TRINITY SUNDAY

Office. Tob. 12, 6. Blessed be the holy Trinity, and undivided Unity. We will give glory to Him, because he has shown His mercy to us. ✓. Let us bless the Father and the Son with the Holy Spirit. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, You have given Your servants the grace of the true faith, enabling them to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of Your majesty to worship the Unity; we beseech You, that by steadfastness in the same faith, we may ever be defended from all adversities: through our Lord.

Communio. Non vos relinquam orphans: veniam ad vos iterum, alleluia: et gaudebit cor vestrum, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunion. Praebeant nobis, Domine, divinum tua sancta fervorem, quo eorum pariter et actu delectemur et fructu. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui dedisti famulis tuis in confessione verae fidei, aeternae Trinitatis gloriarn agnoscere, et in potentia majestatis adorare unitatem: quaesumus, ut ejusdem fidei firmitate, ab omnibus semper muniamur adversis. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Rom. 11, 33-36. Oh, the depth of the riches of the wisdom and of the knowledge of God! How incomprehensible are His judgments and how unsearchable His ways! For "Who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been His counsellor? Or who has first given to Him, that recompense should be made him?" For from Him and through Him and unto Him are all things. To Him be the glory forever, amen.

Responsory. Dan. 3, 55-56. Blessed are You, O Lord, who behold the depths, and sit upon the cherubim. ¶ Tob. 12, 6. Bless the God of heaven, because He has shown His mercy to us.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Dan. 3; 52. Blessed are You, O Lord God of our fathers, and worthy of praise forever. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 28, 18-20. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you all days, even unto the consummation of the world."

Creed, p. 621.
Offertory. Tob. 12, 6. Blessed be God the Father and the Only-begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit; because he has shown His mercy toward us.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify this victim we offer, O Lord, our God, we beseech You, through the invocation of Your holy name; and thereby make us an everlasting offering to You: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 8, p. 625.

Communion. Tob. 12, 6. We bless the God of heaven, and before all the living we will praise Him, because He has shown His mercy to us.

Postcommunion. Let our health of body and soul, O Lord our God, be furthered by receiving this sacrament and by confessing the holy and eternal Trinity in the undivided Unity: through our Lord.

Officium. Cibavit eos ex adipe frumenti, alleluia; et de petra, melle saturavit eos, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps.
alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 80, 2. Rejoice to God our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who under this wonderful sacrament have left us a memorial of Your passion; grant us we beseech You, so to worship the sacred mysteries of Your body and blood that we may ever feel within us the fruit of Your redemption: who live and reign.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 11, 23-29. Brethren: I myself have received from the Lord (what I also delivered to you), that the Lord Jesus, on the night in which He was betrayed, took bread, and giving thanks broke, and said, "Take and eat. This is My body which shall be given up for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In like manner also the cup, after He had supped, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me. For as often as you shall eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord, until he comes." Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. But let a man prove himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of the cup; for he who eats and drinks unworthily, without distinguishing the body, eats and drinks judgment to himself.

Responsory. Ps. 144, 15-16. The eyes of all hope in You, O Lord; and You give them meat in due season.

> Alleluia, alleluia! John 6, 56.57. My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. He that eats My flesh and drinks My blood, abides in Me, and I in him.

indigne, reus erit Corporis et Sanguinis Domini. Probet autem seipsum homo: et sic de pane illo edat, et de calice bibat. Qui enim manducat et bibit indignus, judicium sibi manducat et bibit, non djudicans corpus Domini.

Responsorium. Oculi omnium in te sperant, Domine: et tu das illis escam in tempore opportuno.

Praise, O Sion, your Savior, Lauda Sion Salvatorem, praise your Leader and Shepherd in hymns and canticles:

Make your effort as great as possible for He is greater than all praise and no one can Sufficiently praise Him.

Today there is given a special theme of Praise, the living and life-giving bread

Laudis thema specialis, panis vivus et vitalis hodie proponitur:
Which, it is not doubted, was given To the Twelve Apostles at the Last Supper.

Let our praise be full and resounding
Let the joy of our soul be pleasing and yet
Becoming, for we celebrate a solemn day Commemorating the first institution of This banquet.

At the table of the new King, the new Pasch of the new Law puts an end to the Ancient Pasch. The old gives place to the New, truth drives away shadow, day Eliminates the night.

What Christ did at this supper, this He Ordered to be continued as a lasting memorial.
Taught by His sacred precepts, we Consecrate the bread and wine into the Victim of salvation.

The doctrine is given to Christians That the bread changes into flesh and The wine into blood.
A lively faith confirms what we Cannot grasp, what we cannot see in The supernatural order.

Quem in sacrae mensae cenae turbae fratrum duodenae datum non ambigitur.
Sit laus plena, sit sonora, sit jucunda, sit decora mentis jubilatio:
Dies enim solemnis agitur, in qua mensae prima recolitur hujus institutio.

In hac mensa novi regis, novum pascha novae legis Phase vetus terminat:
Vetustatem novitas, umbra fugat veritas, noctem lux eliminat.

Quod in cena Christus gessit faciendum hoc expressit in sui memoria:
Docti sacris institutis, panem, vinum in salutis consecramus hostiam.

Dogma datur Christianis, quod in carnem transit panis, et vinum in sanguinem:
Quod non capis, quod non vides, animosa fides, praeter rerum ordinem.
Under different species, different only
In externals and not in reality, wonderful Substances lie hidden. The flesh is Food, the blood is drink, yet Christ
Remains entire under each species.

We receive the whole Christ, uncut;
Unbroken, undivided.
Though one or
A thousand receive Him, all do Receive the same; and yet Christ
Consumed is not diminished.

The good and bad receive Him yet with
The unequal fate of life or death.
Death is for the evil, life for the good.
Note how unlike may be the result of A like reception!

When at last the bread is broken remember—doubt not—Christ is as much under each fragment as under the whole species.

There is no division of the substance, there is only a breaking of the species in which neither the state nor the stature of the substance is diminished.

Behold the bread of angels is made the food of pilgrims. It is truly the bread of children that must not be given to dogs.
It was prefigured in symbols when Isaac was immolated, when the paschal lamb was sacrificed, when manna was sent to the fathers.

Good Shepherd, true bread, O Jesus have mercy on us. Feed us, protect us, grant us to see good in the land of the living.

Lord, You know all things, You can do all things, You do feed us; grant us to be Your guests, co-heirs and companions of the citizens of heaven. Amen. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 6, 56-59. At that time, Jesus said to the crowds of the Jews: “My flesh is food indeed, and My blood is drink indeed. He who eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, abides in Me and I in him. As the living Father has sent Me, and as I live because of the Father, so he who eats Me, he also shall live because of Me. This is the bread that has come down from heaven; not as your fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread shall live forever.” Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Lev. 21, 6. The priests of the Lord offer incense and loaves to God; and therefore they shall be holy to their God, and shall not defile His name, alleluia!

Offertorium. Sacerdotes Domini incensum et panes offerunt Deo; et ideo sancti erunt Deo suo, et non polluent nomen ejus, alleluia.
SECRET. Unto Your Church, we beseech You, O Lord, grant the blessings of unity and peace mystically set forth by these gifts we offer: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627.

COMMUNION. 1 Cor. 11, 26-27. As often as you shall eat this bread, and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord, until he comes. Therefore, whoever eats this bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily, will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord, alleluia!

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant us, O Lord, we pray, to be filled with the everlasting enjoyment of Your divinity herein foreshadowed by the earthly partaking of Your precious body and blood: who live and reign.

SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 17, 19.20. The Lord has become my protector, and has brought me forth into a large place; He saved me, because He was well pleased with me. Ps. 17, 2-3. I will love You, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my stronghold, and my refuge, and my deliverer. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

SECRET. Ecclesiae tuae, quaesumus Domine, unitatis et pacis propitius dona concede, quae sub oblatis munera mystice designatur. Per Dominum.

COMMUNIO. Quotiescumque manducabis panem hunc, et calicem bibes, mortem Domini annuntiabis, donec veniat: itaque quicumque manducaverit panem, vel biberit calicem Domini indigne, reus erit corporis et sanguinis Domini, alleluia.

POSTCOMMUNIO. Fac nos, quaesumus Domine, divinitatis tuae sempiterna fruizione repleri, quam pretiosi corporis et sanguinis tui temporalis perceptione praefigurat. Qui vivis et regnas.

Collect. O Lord, may we have a perpetual fear and love of Your holy name; for You never fail to govern those whom You solidly establish in Your love: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 John 3, 13-18. Dearly beloved: Do not be surprised if the world hates you. We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer. And you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. In this we have come to know His love, that He laid down His life for us: and we likewise ought to lay down our life for the brethren. He who has the goods of this world and sees his brother in need and closes his heart to him, how does the love of God abide in him? My dear children, let us not love in word, neither with the tongue, but in deed and in truth.

Responsory. Ps. 119, 1-2. In my trouble I cried to the Lord, and He heard me. ¶ O Lord deliver my soul from wicked lips and a deceitful tongue.

Oratio. Sancti nominis tui, Domine, timorem pariter, et amorem fac nos habere perpetuum; quia numquam tua gubernatione destituis, quos in soliditate tuae dilectionis instituis. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Ad Dominum, cum tribularer clamavi et exaudivit me. ¶ Domine libera animam meam a labiis iniquis et a lingua dolosa.
Alleluia, alleluia! \textit{V. Ps. 7, 11. God is a just judge, strong and patient; is He angry every day?}

Gospel. Luke 14, 16-24. At that time, Jesus spoke to the Pharisees this parable: "A certain man gave a great supper, and he invited many. And he sent his servant at supper time to tell those invited to come, for everything is now ready. And they all with one accord began to excuse themselves. The first said to him, 'I have bought a farm, and I must go out and see it; I pray you hold me excused.' And another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am on my way to try them; I pray you hold me excused.' And another said, 'I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.' And the servant returned, and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house was angry and said to his servant, 'Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and the crippled, and the blind, and the lame.' And the servant said, 'Sir, your order has been carried out, and still there is room.' Then the master said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and make them come in, so that my house may be filled. For I tell you that none of those who were invited shall taste of my supper.'”

Offertory. Ps. 6, 5. Turn to me, O Lord, and deliver my soul; O save me for Your mercy’s sake.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the sacrifice offered to Your name, O Lord, cleanse us and carry us onward day by day to a heavenly life: through our Lord. Preface: No. 8, p. 625.

Communion. Ps. 12, 6. I will sing to the Lord, who gives me good things, and will make melody to the name of the Lord, the Most High.

Postcommunion. Having received these sacred gifts, we beseech You, O Lord, that by frequenting these mysteries the health of our souls may effectually increase: through our Lord.

ut impleatur domus mea. Dico autem vobis, quod nemo virorum illorum qui vocati sunt gustabit cenam meam.

Offertorium. Domine, convertere et eripe animam meam: salvum me fac propter misericordiam tuam.

Secreta. Oblatio nos, Domine, tuo nomini dicanda purificet, et de die in diem ad caelestis vitae transferat actionem. Per Dominum.

Communio. Cantabo Domino qui bona tribuit mihi: et psallam nomini Domini altissimi.

Postcommunio. Sumptis muneribus sacris, quaesumus Domine, ut cum frequentatione mysterii, crescat nostrae salutis effectus. Per Dominum.
FEAST OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS
(THIRD FRIDAY AFTER PENTECOST)

Office. Ps. 32, 11.19. The thoughts of His heart are to all generations: to deliver their souls from death and feed them in famine. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just; praise becomes the upright. Glory.

Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just; praise becomes the upright. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who in the heart of Your Son, wounded by our transgressions, mercifully were pleased to bestow upon us the infinite wealth of Your love; grant, we beseech You, that revering it with fitting devotion, we may make a worthy reparation for our sins: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 3, 8-12.14-19. Brethren: To me, the very least of all saints, there was given this grace, to announce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, who created all things; in order that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the Oratio. Deus, qui nobis, in corde Filii tui, nostris vulnerato peccatis, infinitos dilectionis thesauros misericorditer largiri dignaris: concede, quaesumus, ut illi devotum pietatis nostrae praestantes obsequium; dignae quoque satisfactionis exhibeamus officium. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Mihi omnium sanctorum minimo data est gratia haec, in gentibus evangelizare investigables divitias Christi: et illuminare omnes, quae sit dispensatio sacramenti absconditi a saeculis in Deo qui omnia creavit: ut innoscat principatibus et potestatibus in caelestibus per Ecclesiam multiformis sapientia Dei: secundum praefinitionem saeculorum quam fecit in Christo Jesu Domino heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ’s love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Responsory. Ps. 24, 8-9. The Lord is sweet and righteous; therefore, He will give a law to sinners in the way. He will guide the mild in judgment; He will teach the meek His ways.

Alleluia, alleluia! Matt. 11, 29. Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for your souls. Alleluia!

Responsorium. Dulcis et rectus Dominus, propter hoc legem dabat delinquentibus in via. Diriget mansuetos in judicio, docebit mites vias suas.

Alleluia, alleluia. Tollite jugum meum super vos et discite a me, quia mitis sum et humilis corde, et invenietis requiem animabus vestris. Alleluia.
In Votive Masses after Septuagesima, the Alleluia is omitted and the following Tract is said:—

Tract. Ps. 102, 8-10. The Lord is compassionate and merciful; long-suffering and plenteous in mercy. ¶ He will not always be angry: nor will He threaten forever. ¶ He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

At Eastertide, after the second Alleluia:

Christ is risen, and has shone upon His people, whom He redeemed with His own blood. Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide, after the Second Alleluia:

Christ ascending on high led captivity captive; He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 19, 31-37. At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a solemn day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs;

Tractus. Misericors et miserator Dominus, longanimis et multum misericors. ¶ Non in perpetuum irascetur, neque in aeternum comminabitur. ¶ Non secundum peccata nostrae fecit nobis, neque secundum iniquitates nostras retribuit nobis.

Surrexit Christus et illuxit populo suo, quem redemit ipsa sanguine suo. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Judaei, quoniam Parasceve erat, ut non remanerent in cruce corpora sabbato, erat enim magnus dies ille sabbati, rogaverunt Pilatum ut frangerentum eorum crura et tollerentur. Venerunt ergo milites, et primi quidem fregerunt crura et alterius qui crucifixus est cum eo. Ad Jesum autem cum venissent, ut viderunt eum jam mortuum, non fregerunt ejus crura: sed but one of the soldiers opened His side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled, “Not a bone of Him shall you break.” And again another Scripture says, “They shall look upon Him whom they have pierced.”

Offertory. Ps. 68, 21. My heart has expected reproach and misery; and I looked for one that would grieve together with me, but there was none; and for one that would comfort me, and I found none.

In Votive Masses during Paschal tide the following Offertory is said:

Offertory. Ps. 39, 7-9. Burnt-offering and sin-offering You did not require; then said I, “Behold, I come! At the head of the book it is written of me, that I should do Your will; O my God, I have desired it, and Your law in the midst of my heart.” Alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look, we beseech You, O Lord, upon the ineffable love of the heart of Your beloved Son; that our offering may be acceptable to You, and purify us from all our sins: through the same Lord.

_Preface: No. 9, p. 653._

Communion. _John 19, 34._ One of the soldiers opened His side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water.

_In Votive Masses during Paschaltide the following Communion is said:_

Communion. _John 7, 37._ If anyone thirst, let him come to Me and drink. Alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. May Your holy mysteries, O Lord Jesus, produce in us a divine fervor, whereby, having tasted the sweetness of Your most dear Heart, we may learn to despise earthly things and love those of heaven: who live and reign.

THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. _Ps. 24, 16.18._ Look upon me, and have mercy on me, O Lord, for I am alone and poor; see my abjection and my labor: and forgive me all my sins, O my God. _Ps. 24, 1-2._ To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I place my trust; let me not be ashamed. Glory. _Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617._

munus acceptum et nostrorum expiatio delictorum. Per eumdem Dominum.

Communio. Unus militum lancea latus ejus aperuit, et continuo exivit sanguis et aqua.

Communio. Si quis sitit, veniat ad me et bibat, alleluia, alleluia.

Postcommunio. Praebeant nobis, Domine Jesu, divinum tua sancta fervorem: quo dulcissimi Cordis tui suavitate percepta, discamus terrena despicere; et amare caelestia! Qui vivis.

Collect. O God, the protector of all who trust in You; without whom nothing is strong, nothing holy; increase and multiply upon us Your mercy, that You being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not eternal things: through.

Epistle. 1 Pet. 5, 6-11. Dearly beloved: humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in the time of visitation; cast all your anxiety upon Him, because He cares for you. Be sober, be watchful! For your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goes about seeking someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same suffering befalls your brethren all over the world. But the God of all grace, who has called us unto His eternal glory in Christ Jesus, will Himself, after we have suffered a little while, perfect, strengthen and establish us. To Him is the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Responsory. Ps. 54, 23.17.19. Cast your care upon the Lord, and He will sustain you. While I cried to the Lord, He heard my voice from those who draw near to me.

Oratio. Protector in te sperantium Deus; sine quo nihil est validum, nihil sanctum: multiplica super nos misericordiam tuam, ut te rectore te duce, sic transeamus per bona temporalia, ut non amittamus aeterna. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Jacta cogitatum tuum in Domino, et ipse te enutriet. Dum clamarem ad Dominum, exaudivit vocem meam ab his, qui appropinquant mihi.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Ps. 17, 12. I will love You, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my rock, my refuge and my deliverer. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 15, 1-10. At that time, the publicans and sinners were drawing near to Him to listen to Him. And the Pharisees and the Scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." But He spoke to them this parable, saying, "What man of you having a hundred sheep, and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it upon his shoulders rejoicing. And on coming home he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.' I say to you that, even so, there will be joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, more than over ninety-nine just who have no need of repentance. Or what woman, having ten drachmas, if she loses one drachma, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma that I had lost.'

Even so, I say to you, there will be joy among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 9; 11-12.13. Let them trust in You who know Your name, O Lord; for You have not forsaken them who seek You. Sing to the Lord who dwells in Sion, for He has not forgotten the cry of the poor.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look down, O Lord, upon the gifts of Your suppliant Church; and for the salvation of Your faithful, grant that they who receive them may attain their eternal sanctification: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 16, 6. I have cried to You for You, O God, have heard me; O incline Your ear to me, and hear my words.

Postcommunion. May Your sacred mysteries, O
Lord, which we have received give us life; and cleansing us from our sins, make us worthy of Your everlasting mercy: through our Lord.

FOURTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 26, 1.2. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the protector of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? My enemies that trouble me have themselves been weakened and have fallen. Ps. 26, 3. If armies in camp should stand together against me, my heart shall not fear. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant us, O Lord, we pray, that under Your guidance this world's course may be peaceably ordered, and that Your Church may find joy in peaceful worship: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 8, 18-23. Brethren: I reckon that the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us. For the eager longing of creation awaits the revelation of the sons of God. For creation was made subject to vanity—not by its own will but by reason of Him who made it subject—in hope, because creation itself also will be delivered from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God.

Oratio. Da nobis, quaesumus Domine, ut et mundi cursus pacifice nobis tuo ordine dirigatur, et ecclesia tua tranquilla devotione laetetur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Existimo quod non sunt condignae passiones hujus temporis ad futuram gloriam, quae revelabitur in nobis. Nam exspectatio creaturae, revelationem filiorum Dei exspectat. Vanitati enim creatura subjecta est, non volens, sed propter eum qui subjicit eam, in spe: quia et ipsa creature liberabitur a servitute corruptionis, in libertatem gloriae filiorum Dei. Scimus enim quod omnis
For we know that all creation groans and travails in pain until now. And not only it, but we ourselves also who have the first-fruits of the Spirit—we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption as sons of God, the redemption of our body, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsorium. Ps. 78, 9.10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest the Gentiles should at any time say, "Where is their God?" ¥. Help us, O God our Savior; and for the honor of Your name, O Lord, deliver us.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¥. Ps. 20. In Your strength, O Lord, the king shall joy; and in Your salvation He shall rejoice exceedingly. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 5, 1-11. At that time, while the crowds were pressing upon Jesus to hear the word of God, He was standing by Lake Genesareth. And He saw two boats moored by the lake, but the fishermen had left them and were washing their nets. And getting into one of the boats, the one that was Simon's, He asked him to put out a little from the land. And sitting down, He began to teach the crowds from the boat. But when He... had ceased speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and lower your nets for a catch." And Simon answered and said to Him, "Master, the whole night through we have toiled and have taken nothing; but at Your word I will lower the net." And when they had done so, they enclosed a great number of fishes, but their net was breaking. And they beckoned to their comrades in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw this, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord." For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish they had made; and so were also James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; henceforth you shall catch men." And when they had brought their boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

 Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 12, 4-5. Enlighten my eyes, that I never sleep in death, lest at any time my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him."

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Illumina oculos meos, ne unquam odormiam in morte: ne quando dicat inimicus meus: Praevalui adversus eum.
Secret. We beseech You, be appeased by the acceptance of our peace-offerings, and in Your mercy, make our rebellious wills submit to You: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 17, 3. The Lord is my firmament, and my refuge, and my deliverer; my God is my helper.

Postcommunion. May the mysteries we have received cleanse us, O Lord, we pray, and shield us by their power: through our Lord.

FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 26, 7.9. Hear, O Lord, my voice with which I have cried to You; be my helper; forsake me not, nor despise me, O God my Savior. Ps. 26, 1. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You have prepared rewards unseen for Your lovers; fix deeply in our heart Your dart of love, that we may yearn for You in all and above all, and may come to those promises of Yours which surpass all our yearnings: through our Lord.

Secreta. Oblationibus nostris, quaesumus Domine, placare susceptis; et ad te nostras etiam rebelles compelle propitius voluntates. Per Dominum.

Communion. Dominus firmamentum meum et refugium meum, et liberator meus; Deus meus adjutor meus.

Postcommunion. Mysteria nos, Domine quaesumus, sumpta purificent, et suo munere tueantur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui diligentibus te bona invisibilia prae-parasti, infunde cordibus nostris tui amoris affectum, ut te in omnibus et super omnia diligentes, promissiones tuas quae omne desiderium superant consequamur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 1 Pet. 3, 8-15. Dearly beloved: Be all like-minded in prayer, compassionate, lovers of the brethren, merciful, reserved, humble; not rendering evil for evil, or abuse for abuse, but contrariwise, blessing; for unto this were you called that you might inherit a blessing. For, "He who would love life, and see good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no deceit. Let him turn away from evil and do good, let him seek after peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and His ears unto their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil." And who is there to harm you, if you are zealous for what is good? But even if you suffer anything for justice' sake, blessed are you. So have no fear of their fear and do not be troubled. But hallow the Lord Christ in your hearts.

Responsory. Ps. 83, 10.9. Behold, O God, our protector, and look on Your servants. \( \checkmark \) O Lord God of hosts, hear the prayers of Your servants. \( \checkmark \) Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \) Ps. 30, 2-3. In You, O Lord, have I hoped, let me never be confounded; deliver me Epistola. Carissimi: Omnes unanimes in oratione estote, compatientes, fraternitatis amatores, misericordes, modesti, humiles; non reddentes malum pro malo, nec maledictum pro maledicto, sed e contrario, benedicentes: quia in hoc vocati estis, ut benedictionem hereditate possideatis. Qui enim vult vitam diligere et dies videre bonos, coercet linguam suam a malo et labia ejus ne loquantur dolum. Declinet a malo, et faciat bonum; inquirat pacem, et sequatur eam. Quia oculi Domini super justos, et aures ejus in preces eorum: vultus autem Domini super facientes mala. Et quis est qui vobis noceat, si boni aemulatores fueritis? Sed et si quid patimini propter justitiam, beati. Timorem autem eorum ne timueritis et non conturbemini; Dominum autem Christum sanctificate in cordibus vestris.

Responsorium. Protector noster aspice, Deus, et respice super servos tuos. \( \checkmark \) Domine Deus virtutum, exaudi preces servorum tuorum.

Alleluia, alleluia. \( \checkmark \) In te Domine speravi, non confunin Your justice, and release me; bow down Your ear to me, and make haste to deliver me. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 5, 20-24. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Unless your justice exceeds that of the Scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to the ancients, 'You shall not kill'; and that whoever shall kill shall be liable to judgment. But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother shall be liable to judgment; and whoever says to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be liable to the Sanhedrin; and whoever says, 'You fool!', shall be liable to the fire of Gehenna. Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, leave your gift before the altar and go first to be reconciled to your brother; and then come and offer your gift."

Creed. p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 15, 7-8. I will bless the Lord, who has given me understanding; I set God always in my sight, for He is at my right hand, that I be not moved.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

dar in aeternum: in justitia tua libera me, et eripe me: inclina ad me aurem tuam, accelera ut eripias me. Alleluia.

Offertorium. Benedicam Dominum, qui tribuit mihi intellectum; providebam Deum in conspectu meo semper: quoniam a dextris est mihi, ne commovear.
SECRET. Mercifully hear our prayers, O Lord, and graciously receive these offerings of Your servants and handmaids; that what each has offered to the honor of Your name, may aid the salvation of all men: through our Lord.

COMMUNION. Ps. 26, 4. One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after: that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

POSTCOMMUNION. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that we whom You have fed with this heavenly gift, may be cleansed from our hidden sins and delivered from the snare of the enemy: through our Lord.

SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

OFFICE. Ps. 27, 8-9. The Lord is the strength of His people, and the protector of the salvation of His Anointed. Save, O Lord, Your people, and bless Your inheritance, and rule them forever. Ps. 27, 1. To You will I cry, O Lord; O my God, be not silent to me, lest if You be silent to me, I become like them who go down into the pit. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

SECRETA. Propitiare, Domine, supplicationibus nostris, et has oblationes famulorum famularumque tuarum benignus assume; ut quod singuli obtulerunt ad honorem nominis tui, cunctis proficiat ad salutem. Per Dominum.

COMMUNIO. Unam petii a Domino, hanc requiram: ut inhabitem in domo Domini omnibus diebus vitae meae.

POSTCOMMUNIO. Quos caelestis, Domine, dono satiasti, praesta, quaesumus, ut a nostris mundemur occultis, et ab hostium liberemur insidiis. Per Dominum.

Collect. O God of hosts, to whom belong all that is best, graft in our hearts the love of Your name, and increase in us true religion; that You may foster whatever is good, and, by our desire of holiness, You may preserve whatever You have fostered: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 6, 3-11. Brethren: All we who have been baptized into Christ Jesus have been baptized into His death. For we were buried with Him by means of Baptism into death, in order that, just as Christ has arisen from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also may walk in newness of life. For if we have been united with Him in the likeness of His death, we shall be so in the likeness of His resurrection also. For we know that our old self has been crucified with Him, in order that the body of sin may be destroyed, that we may no longer be slaves to sin; for he who is dead is acquitted of sin. But if we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live together with Christ; for we know that Christ, having risen from the dead, dies now no more, death shall no longer have dominion over Him. For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all, but the life that He lives, He lives

Epistola. Fratres: Quicumque baptizati sumus in Christo Jesu, in morte ipsius baptizati sumus. Consepti enim sumus cum illo per baptismum in mortem: ut quomodo Christus surrexit a mortuis per gloriam Patris, ita et nos in novitate vitae ambulemus. Si enim complantati facti sumus simultudini mortis ejus, simul et resurrectionis erimus. Hoc scientes, quia vetus homo noster simul crucifixus est, ut destruatur corpus peccati, et ultra non serviamus peccato. Qui enim mortuus est, justificatus est a peccato. Si autem mortui sumus cum Christo, credimus quia simul etiam vivemus cum Christo: scientes quod Christus resurgens ex mortuis, jam non moritur; mors illi ultra non dominabitur. Quod enim mortuus est peccato, unto God. Thus do you consider yourselves also as dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 89, 13.1. Turn, O Lord, a little and be entreated in favor of Your servants. \(\wedge\). Lord, You have been our refuge from generation to generation.

Alleluia, alleluia! \(\wedge\). Ps. 58, 2. Deliver me from my enemies, O my God: and defend me from those who rise up against me. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 8, 1-9. At that time, when there was a great crowd with Jesus, and they had nothing to eat, He called His disciples together and said to them, “I have compassion on the crowd, for behold, they have now been with Me three days, and have nothing to eat; and if I send them away to their homes fasting, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come from a distance.” And His disciples answered Him, “How will anyone be able to satisfy these with bread, here in a desert?” And He asked them, “How many loaves have you?” And they said, “Seven.” And He bade the crowd recline on the ground. Then taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks, broke them and gave them to His disciples to distribute; and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few little fishes; and He blessed them, and ordered them to be distributed. And they ate and were satisfied; and they took up what was left of the fragments, seven baskets. Now those who had eaten were about four thousand. And He dismissed them.

Offertory, Ps. 16, 5.6-7. Perfect my goings in Your paths, that my footsteps be not moved; incline Your ear, and hear my words; show forth Your wonderful mercies, You who save those who trust in You, O Lord.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, with our supplications and graciously take these gifts of Your faithful which we offer for their safety; and that no promise be unfulfilled and no prayer be void, grant, we beseech You, that what we ask in faith, we may effectually obtain: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 26, 6. I will go round, and offer up in His tabernacle a sacrifice of jubilation; I will sing, and recite a psalm to the Lord.
Postcommunion. We have been filled with Your gifts, O Lord; grant us, we beseech You, to be cleansed by their power and protected by their aid: through our Lord.

SEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 46, 2. Clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with the voice of joy. Ps. 46, 4. He has subdued the people under us, and the nations under our feet. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, whose providence in its ordering fails not, we humbly beseech You, that whatever is harmful You may withhold, and whatever is helpful, You may bestow: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 6, 19-23. Brethren: I speak in a human way because of the weakness of your flesh; for as you yielded your members as slaves of uncleanness and iniquity unto iniquity, so now yield your members as slaves of justice unto sanctification. For when you were the slaves of sin, you were free as regards justice. But what fruit had you then from those things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of these things is death.
But now set free from sin and become slaves to God, you have your fruit unto sanctification, and as your end, life everlasting. For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is life everlasting in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Response. Ps. 33, 12.6. Come children, hear me; I will teach you the fear of the Lord. Ver. Come to Him and be enlightened, and your faces shall not be confounded.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ver. Ps. 64, 2. A hymn, O God, becomes you in Sion, and a vow shall be paid to You in Jerusalem. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 7, 15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. By their fruits you will know them. Do men gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but the bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
Therefore, by their fruits you will know them. Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' shall enter the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father in heaven shall enter the kingdom of heaven."

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. _Dan. 3, 40._ As in holocausts of rams and bullocks, and as in thousands of fat lambs, so let our sacrifice be made in Your sight this day, that it may please You; for there is no confusion to them who trust in You, O Lord. _Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. O God, You have sanctified the several victims of the law by one perfect sacrifice; receive of Your worshiping servants this sacrifice, and sanctify it with the same blessing as the gifts of Abel; so that what each one has offered to the honor of Your majesty, may bring all closer to salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. _Ps. 30, 3._ Bow down Your ear; make haste to deliver me.

Postcommunion. May Your healing touch mercifully free us from all unrighteousness, O Lord, and lead us to all that is righteous: through our Lord.
Office. Ps. 47, 10-11. We have received Your mercy, O God, in the midst of Your temple; according to Your name, O God, so also is Your praise unto the ends of the earth. Your right hand is full of justice. Ps. 47, 2. Great is the Lord and exceedingly to be praised; in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Glory.

Collect. In mercy, bestow on us, we beseech You, O Lord, the spirit of ever thinking and acting rightly; so that we who have no being without You, may live according to Your will: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 8, 12-17. Brethren: We are debtors, not to the flesh, that we should live according to the flesh, for if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the spirit you put to death the deeds of the flesh, you will live. For whoever are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. Now you have not received a spirit of bondage so as to be again in fear, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons, by virtue of which we cry, "Abba! Father!" The Spirit Himself gives testimony to our spirit that we are sons of God. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Oratio. Largire nobis, quaesumus Domine, semper spiritum cogitandi quae recta sunt, propitius et agendi; ut qui sine te esse non possimus, secundum te vivere valeamus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Debitores sumus non carnis, ut secundum carnem vivamus; si enim secundum carnem vixeritis, moriendii: si autem spiritu facta carnis mortificaveritis, vivetis. Quicumque enim Spiritu Dei aguntur, ii sunt filii Dei. Non enim accepistis spiritum servitutis iterum in timore; sed accepistis spiritum adoptionis filiorum, in quo clamamus: Abba (Pater). Ipse enim Spiritus testimonium
God. But if we are sons, we are heirs also: heirs indeed of God and joint heirs with Christ.

Responsory. Ps. 30, 3; 70, 1. Be to me a God, of protection, and a place of refuge, to save me. V. In You, O God, have I hoped; O Lord, let me never be confounded.

Gospel. Luke 16, 1-9. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, who was reported to him as squandering his possessions. And he called him and said to him, 'What is this that I hear of you? Make an accounting of your stewardship, for you can be steward no longer.' And the steward said within himself, 'What shall I do, seeing that my master is taking away the stewardship from me? To dig I am not able; to beg I am ashamed. I know what I shall do, that when I am removed from my stewardship they may receive me into their houses.' And he summoned each of his master's debtors and said to the first, 'How much do you owe..."
my master?' And he said, 'A hundred jars of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bond and sit down at once and write fifty.' Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred kors of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bond and write eighty.' And the master commended the unjust steward, in that he had acted prudently; for the children of this world, in relation to their own generation, are more prudent than the children of the light. And I say to you, make friends for yourselves with the mammon of wickedness, so that when you fail they may receive you into the everlasting dwellings.'

Offertory. Ps. 17, 28.32. You will save the humble people, O Lord, and will bring down the eyes of the proud; for who is God but You, O Lord?

Secret. Receive, we beseech You, O Lord, the gifts which of Your bounteousness we bring to You, that these most holy mysteries, by the powerful working of Your grace, may both sanctify us during our course in this present life, and lead us to everlasting joys: through our Lord.
Communion. Ps. 33, 9. Taste and see that the Lord is sweet; blessed is the man who hopes in Him.

Postcommunion. May this heavenly sacrifice, O Lord, bring us health of soul and body, that what we honor in worship we may relish in fruit: through our Lord.

NINTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 53, 6-7. Behold, God is my helper, and the Lord is the protector of my soul. Turn back the evils upon my enemies, and cut them off in Your truth, O Lord my protector. Ps. 53, 3. Save me, O God, by Your name, and deliver me in Your strength. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Open, O Lord, the ears of Your mercy to the prayers of Your suppliants; and that You may grant the petitions of those who ask, make them seek only that which is pleasing to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 10, 6-13. Brethren: We should not lust after evil things even as they lusted. And do not become idolaters, even as some of them were, as it is Communio. Gustate, et videte quoniam suavis est Dominus: beatus vir qui sperat in eo.

Postcommunio. Sit nobis, Domine, reparatio mentis et corporis caeleste mysterium, ut cujus exsequimur cultum sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Pateant aures misericordiae tuae, Domine, precibus supplicantium; et ut petentibus desiderata concedas, fac eos quae tibi sunt placita postulare. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Non simus concupiscientes malorum, sicut et illi concupierunt. Neque idololatrae efficiamini, written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." Neither let us commit fornication, even as some of them committed fornication, and there fell in one day twenty-three thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them tempted, and perished by the serpents. Neither murmur, as some of them murmured, and perished at the hands of the destroyer. Now all these things happened to them as a type, and they were written for our correction, upon whom the final age of the world has come. Therefore let him who thinks he stands take heed lest he fall. May no temptation take hold of you but such as man is equal to. God is faithful and will not permit you to be tempted beyond your strength, but with the temptation will also give you a way out that you may be able to bear it.

Respondory. Ps. 8, 2. O Lord, our Lord, how admirable is Your name in the whole earth. ¶ For Your magnificence is elevated above the heavens.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 78, 9.10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord, lest they should say at any time among the Gentiles, "Where is their God?" Alleluia!

Respondorium. Domine Dominus noster: quam admirable est nomen tuum in universa terra! ¶ Quoniam elevata est magnificentia tua super caelos.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Propitius esto, Domine, peccatis nostris, ne quando dicant gentes: Ubi est Deus eorum? Alleluia.
Gospel. Luke 19, 41-47. At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem and saw the city, He wept over it, saying, “If you had known, in this your day, even you, the things that are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. For days will come upon you when your enemies will throw up a rampart about you, and surround you and shut you in on every side, and will dash you to the ground and your children within you, and will not leave in you one stone upon another, because you have not known the time of your visitation.” And He entered the temple, and began to cast out those who were selling and buying in it, saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a den of thieves.” And He was teaching daily in the temple.

Offertory. Ps. 18, 9.10.11.12. The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing hearts; and His judgments sweeter than honey and the honeycomb: for Your servant keeps them.

Secret. Grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, worthily and often to approach these mysteries; since as often as Evangelium. In illo tempore: Cum appropinquaret Jesus Jerusalem, videns civitatem, fleavit super illam, dicens: Quia si cognovisses et tu, et quidem in hac die tua, quae ad pacem tibi; nunc autem abscondita sunt ab oculis tuis. Quia venient dies in te, et circumdabunt te inimici tui vallo, et circumdabunt te; et coangustabunt te undique, et ad terram prosternent te et filios tuos qui in te sunt: et non relinquent in te lapidem super lapidem, eo quod non cognoveris tempus visitationis tuae. Et ingressus in templum, coepit ejicere vendentes in illo, et ementes, dicens illis: Scriptum est: Quia domus mea domus orationis est; vos autem fecistis illam speluncam latronum. Et erat docens quotidie in templo.

Offertorium. Justitiae Domini rectae, laetificantes corda, et judicia ejus dulciora super mel et favum: nam et servus tuus custodit ea.

Secreta. Concede nobis, quae sumus Domine, haec digne frequentare mysteria; quia quoties hujus hostiae com-the memory of this victim is kept, the work of our redemption is renewed: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 6, 33. Seek first the kingdom of God, and all things shall be added unto you, says the Lord.

Postcommunion. Let the partaking of this sacrament, we beseech You, O Lord, both bring us cleansing and give us concord: through our Lord.

TENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 54, 17.18.20.23. When I cried to the Lord, He heard my voice, from those who draw near to me; and He humbled them, who is before all ages, and remains forever. Cast your care upon the Lord, and He shall sustain you. Ps. 54, 2. Hear, O God, my prayer, and despise not my supplication; be attentive to me and hear me: Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You declare Your almighty power chiefly in showing mercy and pity; grant to us such a measure of Your mercy, that we may run forward to memoratio celebratur, opus nostrae redemptionis exerceetur. Per Dominum.

Communio. Primum quaerite regnum Dei, et omnia adjacentur vobis, dicit Dominus.

Oratio. Deus, qui omnipotentiam tuam parendo maxime, et miserando manifestas: multiplica super nos .miseri-
Your promises, and be made partakers of Your heav-tly treasures: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 12, 2-11. Brethren: You know that when you were Gentiles, you went to dumb idols according as you were led. Wherefore I give you to understand that no one speaking in the Spirit of God says
"Anathema" to Jesus. And no one can say "Jesus is Lord," except in the Holy Spirit. Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of ministries, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. Now the manifestation of the Spirit is given to everyone for profit. To one through the Spirit is given the utterance of wisdom; and to another the utterance of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; to another faith, in the same Spirit; to another the gift of healing, in the one Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another the distinguishing of spirits; to another various kinds of tongues; to another interpretation of tongues. But all these things are the work of one and the same Spirit, who allots to everyone according as He will.

cordiam tuam, ut ad tua promissa currentes, caelestium bonorum facias esse consortes. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Scitis quoniam cum gentes essetis, ad simulacra muta prout ducebamini euntes. Ideo notum vobis facio, quod nemo in Spiritu Dei loquens, dicit anathema Jesu. Et nemo potest dicere: Dominus Jesus, nisi in Spiritu Sancto. Divisiones vero gratiarum sunt, idem autem Spiritum; et divisiones ministeriorum sunt, idem autem Dominus; et divisiones operationum sunt, idem vero Deus, qui operatur omnia in omnibus. Unicuique autem datur manifestatio Spiritus ad utilitatem. Alii quidem, per Spiritum, datur sermo sapientiae: aliis autem, sermo scientiae secundum eundem Spiritum: alteri, fides in eodem Spiritu:
aliis, gratia sanitatum in uno Spiritu: aliis, operation virtutum: aliis, prophétia: aliis, discretio spirituum: aliis, genera linguarum: aliis, interpretation sermonum. Haec autem omnia operatur unus atque idem Spiritus, dividens singulis prout vult.
Responsory. Ps. 16, 8.2. Keep me, O Lord, as the apple of Your eye. Protect me under the shadow of Your wings. ¶ Let my judgment come forth from Your countenance; let Your eyes behold the things that are equitable.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 80, 2.3. Rejoice to God, our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob; take a pleasant psalm with the harp. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 18, 9-14. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves as being just and despised others. "Two men went up to the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and began to pray thus within himself: 'O God, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men, robbers, dishonest, adulterers, or even like this publican. I fast twice a week; I pay tithes of all that I possess.' But the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes to heaven, but kept striking his breast, saying, 'O God, be merciful to me the sinner!' I tell you, this man went back to his home justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself...

Responsorium. Custodi me, Domine, ut pupillam oculi: sub umbra alarum tuarum protege me. ¶ De vultu tuo judicium meum prodeat: oculi tui videant aequitatem.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Exsultate Deo adjutori nostro: jubilate Deo Jacob: sumite psalmum jucundum cum cithara. Alleluia.

shall be humbled, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted.”

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 24, 1-3. To You, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; in You, O my God, I put my trust, let me not be ashamed; neither let my enemies laugh at me; for no one who waits for You shall be confounded.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. To You, O Lord, be given these sacred oblations which You have ordained to be so offered to the glory of Your name, that You may make them to be a healing for our weakness: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 50, 21. You will accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations and holocausts, upon Your altar, O Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord our God, that those whom You fail not to renew by Your divine sacraments, You, in Your mercy, may not deprive of Your aid: through our Lord.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 67, 6-7.36. God in His holy place; God who makes men of one mind to dwell in a house, shall give power and strength to His people. Ps. 67, 2. Let God arise, and let His enemies be scattered; and let those who hate Him flee from before His face. Glory.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, who in the abundance of Your love go beyond the worth and word of such as pray to You; pour down Your mercy upon us, forgiving us those things whereof our conscience is afraid, and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 15, 1-10. Brethren: I recall to your minds the gospel that I preached to you, which also you received, wherein also you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold it fast, as I preached it to you—unless you have believed to no purpose. For I delivered to you first of all, what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day, according to the Scriptures, and that He appeared to Cephas, and after that to the Eleven. Then He was seen by more than five hundred brethren at one time, many of whom are with us still, but some have fallen asleep. After that He was seen by James, then by all the apostles. And last of all, as by one born out of due time, He was seen also by me. For I am the least of the apostles, and am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the Church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace in me has not been fruitless.

Responsory. Ps. 27, 7.1. In God has my heart confided, and I have been helped; and my flesh has flourished again; and with my will I will give praise to Him. Y. To You have I cried, O Lord; O my God, be not silent; depart not from me.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. Ps. 87, 2. O Lord, the God of my salvation: I have cried in the day and in the night before You. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 7, 31-37. At that time, Jesus departing from the district of Tyre came by way of Sidon to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the district of Decapolis. And they brought to Him one deaf and dumb, and entreated Him to lay His hand upon him. And taking him aside from the crowd, He put His fingers into the man's ears, and spitting, He touched his tongue. And adhuc, quidam autem dormierunt. Deinde visus est Jacobo, deinde apostolis omnibus: novissime autem omnium, tamquam abortivo, visus est et mihi. Ego enim sum minimus apostolorum, qui non sum dignus vocari apostolus, quoniam persecutus sum ecclesiam Dei. Gratia autem Dei sum id quod sum, et gratia ejus in me vacua non fuit.

Responsorium. In Deo speravit cor meum et adjutus sum; refloruit caro mea: et ex voluntate mea confitebor illi. Y. Ad te, Domine, clamavi: Deus meus, ne sileas; ne discedas a me.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Exiens Jesus de finibus Tyri, venit per Sidonem ad mare Galilaeae inter medios fines Decapoleos. Et adducunt ei surdum et mutum, et deprecabantur eum ut imponat illi manum. Et apprehendens eum de turba seorsum, misit digitos suos in auriculas ejus, looking up to heaven, He sighed, and said to him, “Ephpheta,” that is, “Be opened.” And his ears were at once opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he began to speak correctly. And He charged them to tell no one. But the more He charged them, so much the more did they continue to publish it. And so much the more did they wonder, saying, “He has done all things well. He has made both the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.”

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 29, 2-3. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have upheld me, and have not made my enemies rejoice over me, O Lord, I have cried to You, and You have healed me.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look down in mercy, we beseech You, O Lord, upon our homage, that what we offer may be to You a welcome gift, and to us our frailty’s help: through.

Communion. Prov. 3, 9-10. Honor the Lord with your substance, and with the first of all your fruits; and your barns shall be filled with abundance, and your presses shall run over with wine.

Postcommunion. In receiving Your sacrament, we beseech You, O Lord, let us feel strengthened in soul and body; that renewed in both we may enjoy the full effect of this heavenly remedy: through our Lord.

TWELFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 69, 2-3. Incline to my aid, O God; O Lord, make haste to help me. Let my enemies be confounded and ashamed, who seek my soul. Ps. 69, 4. Let them be turned backward and blush for shame, who desire my ruin. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O almighty and merciful God, whose gift it is that the faithful give You fitting and praiseworthy service; grant to us, we beseech You, to run without stumbling towards Your promises: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Cor. 3, 4-9. Brethren: Such is the assurance I have through Christ towards God. Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think anything, as from ourselves, but our sufficiency is from God. He also it is who has made us fit ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the spirit; for the letter kills, but the spirit gives life. Now if the ministration of death, which utroque salvati, caelestis remedii plenitudine gloriemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, de cujus munere venit ut tibi, a fidelibus tuis, digne et laudabiler serviatur: tribue quaesumus nobis, ut ad promissiones tuas sine offensione curramus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Fiduciam talem habemus per Christum ad Deum. Non quod sufficientes simus cogitare aliquid a nobis, quasi ex nobis; sed sufficientia nostra ex Deo est. Qui et idoneos nos fecit ministros novi testamenti, non littera, sed spiritu: littera enim occidit, spiritus autem vivificat. Quod si ministratio mortis litteris deformata in was engraved in letters upon stones, was inaugurated in such glory that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly upon the face of Moses on account of the transient glory that shone upon it, shall not the ministration of the spirit be still more glorious? For if there is glory in the ministration that condemned, much more does the ministration that justifies abound in glory.

Responsory. Ps. 33, 2-3. I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall be ever in my mouth. In the Lord shall my soul be praised; let the meek hear and rejoice.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 89, 1. Lord, You have been our refuge, from generation to generation. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 10, 23-37. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see! For I say to you, many prophets and kings have desired to see what you see, and they have not seen it; and to hear what you hear, and they have not heard it.” And behold, a certain lawyer got up to test Him, saying, “Master, what must I do to gain eternal life?” But He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read?” He answered and said, “You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole strength, and with your whole mind; and your neighbor as yourself." And He said to him, "You have answered rightly; do this and you shall live." But he, wishing to justify himself, said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus answered and said, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell in with robbers, who after both stripping him and beating him went their way, leaving him half-dead. But, as it happened, a certain priest was going down the same way; and when he saw him, he passed by. And likewise a Levite also, when he was near the place and saw him, passed by. But a certain Samaritan as he journeyed came upon him, and seeing him, was moved with compassion. And he went up to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. And setting him on his own beast, he brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I, on my way back, will repay you.' Which of these three, in your opinion, proved himself neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?” And he said, “He who took pity on him.” And Jesus said to him, “Go and do also in like manner.”

Offertory. Ex. 32, 11.13.14. Moses prayed in the sight of the Lord his God, and said, “Why, O Lord, is Your indignation enkindled against Your people? Let the anger of Your mind cease; remember Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to whom You swore to give a land flowing with milk and honey.” And the Lord was appeased from doing the evil which He had spoken of doing against His people. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look kindly, O Lord, we pray You, on the victims which we offer up on Your holy altars, that in bestowing pardon upon us, they may give honor to Your name: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 103, 13.14.15. The earth shall be filled with the fruit of Your works, O Lord, that You may bring bread out of the earth, and that wine may cheer the heart of man; that he may make the face cheerful with oil; and that bread may strengthen man’s heart.

Secreta. Hostias quaesumus Domine, propitius intende, quas sacris altaribus exhibemus, ut nobis indulgentiam largiendo, tuo nomini dent honorem. Per Dominum.

Communio. De fructu operum tuorum, Domine, satiabitur terra: ut educas panem de terra, et vinum laetificet cor hominis: ut exhilarat faciem in oleo; et panis cor hominis confirmet.
Postcommunion. Let our holy sharing in this mystery quicken us, O Lord, we pray; and may it become for us a cleansing and a shield: through our Lord.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, grant us an increase of faith, hope, and charity; and that we may deserve to obtain what You promise, make us love what You command: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 3, 16-22. Brethren: The promises were made to Abraham and to his offspring. He does not say, "And to his offsprings," as of many; but as of one, "And to your offspring," who is Christ. Now I mean this: The Law which was made four hundred and thirty years later does not annul the covenant which was ratified by God, so as to make the promise void. For if the right Postcommunion. Vivificet nos, quaesumus Domine, hujus participatio sancta mysterii; et pariter nobis expiationem tribuat et munimen. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Abrahae dictae sunt promissiones, et semini ejus. Non dicit: Et seminibus, quasi in multis; sed quasi in uno: Et semini tuo; qui est Christus. Hoc autem dico: Testamentum confirmatum a Deo, quae post quadrimgentos et triginta annos facta est lex, non irritum facit ad evacuandum promissionem. Nam si ex lege hereditas, to inherit be from the Law, it is no longer from a promise: But God gave it to Abraham by promise. What then was the Law? It was enacted on account of transgressions, being delivered by angels through a mediator, until the offspring should come to whom the promise was made. Now there is no intermediary where there is only one; but God is one. Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? By no means. For if a law had been given that could give life, justice would truly be from the Law. But the Scripture shut up all things under sin, that by the faith of Jesus Christ the promise might be given to those who believe.

Responsory. Ps. 73, 20.19.22. Have regard, O Lord, for Your covenant, and forsake not forever the souls of Your poor. ὥσπερ ἀρέσκοντος Εμοί, ἐρήμῳ ἡμᾶς ἐκπεπλάσασθε. Arise, O Lord, and judge Your cause; remember the reproach of Your servants.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὥσπερ Ps. 94, 1. Come let us praise the Lord with joy; let us joyfully sing to God our Savior. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 17, 11-19. At that time, as Jesus was going to Jerusalem, He was passing between Samaria and Galilee. And as He was entering a certain village, there met Him ten lepers, who stood afar off and lifted up their voice, crying, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us." And when He saw them He said, "Go, show yourselves to the priests." And it came to pass as they were on their way, that they were made clean. But one of them, seeing that he was made clean, returned, with a loud voice glorifying God, and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks; and he was a Samaritan. But Jesus answered and said, "Were not the ten made clean? But where are the nine? Has no one been found to return and give glory to God except this foreigner?" And He said to him, "Arise, go your way, for your faith has saved you."

Offertory. Ps. 30, 15-16. In You, O Lord, have I hoped. I said, "You are my God, my times are in Your hands."

Secret. Look kindly on Your people, O Lord, look kindly on their gifts; and Your wrath being stilled by this offering, give us pardon; give us what we seek: through our Lord.

Communion. Wisd. 16, 20. You have given us, O Lord, bread from heaven, having in it all that is delicious, and the sweetness of every taste.

Communio. Panem de caelo didisti nobis, Domine, habentem omne delectamentum, et omnem saporem suavitatis.
Postcommunion. We pray You, O Lord, that the saving sacrament we have received, may further our growth in everlasting redemption: through our Lord.

FOURTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 83, 10-11. Behold, O God our protector, and look on the face of Your Christ, for better is one day in Your courts above thousands. Ps. 83, 2-3. How lovely are Your tabernacles, O Lord of hosts. My soul longs and faints for the courts of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Keep, we beseech You, O Lord, Your Church with Your perpetual mercy; and because the frailty of man, without You cannot but fail, keep us ever by Your help from all things hurtful, and lead us to all things profitable to our salvation: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 5, 16-24. Brethren: Walk in the Spirit, and you will not fulfill the lusts of the flesh. For the flesh lusts against the spirit, and the spirit against the flesh; for these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do what you would. But if you are led by the Postcommunion. Sumptis, Domine, caelestibus sacramentis, ad redemptionis aeternae, quaesumus, proficiamus augmentum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Custodi, Domine quaesumus, ecclesiam tuam propitiatione perpetua; et quia sine te labitur humana mortalitas, tuis semper auxiliis et abstrahatur a noxiis, et ad salutaria dirigatur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Spiritu ambulare, et desideria carnis non perficietis: caro enim concupiscit adversus spiritum: spiritus autem adversus carnem: haec enim sibi invicem adversantur, ut non quaecumque vultis, illa faciatis. Quod si spiritu ducimini, non estis sub lege. Manifesta sunt autem opera carnis; quae sunt fornicatio, immunditia, Spirit, you are not under the Law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are immorality, uncleanness, licentiousness, idolatry, witchcrafts, enmities, contentions, jealousies, anger, quarrels, factions, parties, envies, murders, drunkenness, carousings, and suchlike. And concerning these I warn you, as I have warned you, that they who do such things will not attain the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, long-suffering, mildness, faith, modesty, continency, chastity. Against such things there is no law. And they who belong to Christ have crucified their flesh with its passions and desires.

Responsorium. Ps. 91, 2-3. It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Your name, O Most High.

To show forth Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth in the night.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 94, 3. For the Lord is a great God, and a great king over all the earth. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 6, 24-33. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will stand by the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life a greater thing than the food, and the body than the clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they do not sow, or reap, or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you of much more value than they? But which of you by being anxious about it can add to his stature a single cubit? And as for clothing, why are you anxious? Consider how the lilies of the field grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which flourishes today but tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more you, O you of little faith! Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or, ‘What shall we drink?’ or, ‘What are we to put on?’ (for after all these things the Gentiles seek); for your Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His justice, and all these things shall be given you besides.”

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 33, 8-9. The angel of the Lord shall encamp round about those who fear Him, and shall deliver them. O taste and see that the Lord is sweet.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant us, O Lord, our God, that this victim of salvation may cleanse us from all our sins and be our propitiation before Your majesty: through our Lord.

Communion. John 6, 52. The bread that I will give, is My flesh for the life of the world.

Postcommunion. May Your sacraments, O God, ever cleanse us and strengthen us, and yield us the fruit of eternal salvation: through our Lord.

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 85, 1.2-3. Bow down Your ear, O Lord, to me, and hear me; save Your servant, O my God, who trusts in You; have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to You all day. Ps. 85, 4. Give joy to the soul of Your servant; for to You, O Lord, I have lifted up my soul. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Communio. Panis quem ego dedero, caro mea est pro saeculi vita.

Postcommunio. Purificent semper et muniant tua sacramenta nos, Deus, et ad perpetuae ducant salvationis effectum. Per Dominum.

Officium. Inclina, Domine, aurem tuam ad me, et exaudi me: salvum fac servum tuum, Deus meus, sperantem in te: miserere mihi, Domine, quoniam ad te clamavi tota die. Ps. Laetifica animam servi tui: quia ad te, Domine, animam meam levavi. Gloria Patri.
Collect. May Your everlasting mercies, O Lord, cleanse and keep Your Church; and since without You she cannot abide, may she be ever governed by Your grace: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 5, 25-26; 6, 1-10. Brethren: If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. Let us not become desirous of vainglory, provoking one another, envying one another. Brethren, even if a person is caught doing something wrong, you who are spiritual instruct such a one in a spirit of meekness, considering yourself, lest you also be tempted. Bear one another's burdens, and so you will fulfill the law of Christ. For if anyone thinks himself to be something, whereas he is nothing, he deceives himself. But let everyone test his own work, and so he will have glory in himself only, and not in comparison with another. For each one will bear his own burden. And let him who is instructed in the word share all good things with his teacher. Be not deceived. God is not mocked. For what a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows in the flesh, from the flesh also will reap corruption. But he who sows in the spirit, from the spirit will reap life everlasting. And in doing good let us not grow tired; for in due time we shall reap if we do not relax. Therefore, while we have time, let us do good to all men, but especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Responsory. Ps. 117, 8-9. It is good to confide in the Lord, rather than to have confidence in man. \(\checkmark\). It is good to trust in the Lord, rather than to trust in princes.

Alleluia, alleluia! \(\checkmark\). Ps. 101, 16. The Gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 7, 11-16. At that time, Jesus went to a town called Naim; and His disciples and a large crowd went with Him. And as He drew near the gate of the town, behold, a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large gathering from the town was with her. And the Lord, seeing her, had compassion on her, and said to her, "Do not weep." And He went up and touched the stretcher; and the bearers stood still. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise." And he who was dead, sat up, and began to speak. And He gave him to vitam aeternam. Bonum autem facientes, non deficiamus; tempore enim suo metemus, non deficientes. Ergo dum tempus habemus, operemur bonum ad omnes; maxime autem ad domesticos fidei.

Responsorium. Bonum est confidere in Domino: quam confidere in homine. \(\checkmark\). Bonum est sperare in Domino: quam sperare in principibus.

Alleluia, alleluia. \(\checkmark\). Time bunt gentes nomen tuum Domine: et omnes reges terrae gloriam tuam. Alleluia.

his mother. But fear seized upon all, and they began to glorify God, saying, "A great prophet has risen among us," and "God has visited His people." *Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 39, 2.3.4. With expectation I have waited for the Lord, and He had regard to me; and He heard my prayer, and He put a new canticle into my mouth, a song to our God. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May Your sacraments keep us, O Lord, and ever protect us against the onslaught of the devil: through our Lord.

Communion. John 6, 57. "He who eats My flesh, and drinks My blood, abides in Me, and I in him," says the Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, let the workings of Your divine gift hold sway over our bodies and souls; that its effect, and not our senses, may ever have mastery within us: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Exspectans exspectavi Dominum, et respexit me: et exaudivit deprecationem meam, et immisit in os meum canticum novum, hymnum Deo nostro.

Secreta. Tua nos, Domine, sacramenta custodiant, et contra diabolicos semper tueantur incursus. Per Dominum.

Communio. Qui manducat meam carnem, et bibit meum sanguinem, in me manet, et ego in eo, dicit Dominus.

Postcommunio. Mentes nostras et corpora possideat, quaesumus Domine, doni caelestis operatio; ut non noster sensus in nobis, sed jugiter ejus praeveniat effectus. Per Dominum.
SIXTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 85, 3.5. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I have cried to You all the day; for You, O Lord, are sweet and mild, and plenteous in mercy to all who call upon You. Ps. 85, 1. Bow down Your ear to me, O Lord, and hear me; for I am needy and poor. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord, we pray You that Your grace may always go before and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works: through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 3, 13-21. Brethren: I pray you not to be disheartened at my tribulations for you, for they are your glory. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and Epistola. Fratres: Obsecro vos, ne deficiatis in tribulationibus meis pro vobis, quae est gloria vestra. Hujus rei gratia flecto genua mea ad Patrem Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ex quo omnis paternitas in caelis et in terra nominatur, ut det vobis secundum divitias gloriae suae, virtute corroborari per spiritum ejus in interiorem hominem, Christum habitare per fidem in cordibus vestris; in caritate radicati et fundati, ut possitis comprehendere cum omnibus sanctis, quae sit latitudo, et longitudo, et sublimitas, depth, and to know Christ’s love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God. Now, to Him who is able to accomplish all things in a measure far beyond what we ask or conceive, in keeping with the power that is at work in us—to Him be glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus down through all the ages of time without end. Amen.

Responsory. Ps. 101, 16-17. The Gentiles shall fear Your name, O Lord, and all the kings of the earth Your glory.

For the Lord has built up Sion, and He shall be seen in His majesty.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 104, 1. Give glory to the Lord and call upon His name; declare His deeds among the Gentiles. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 14, 1-11. At that time, when Jesus entered the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on the Sabbath to take food, they watched Him. And behold, there was a certain man before Him who had the dropsy. And Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to cure on the Sabbath?” But they remained silent. And He took and healed him and let him go. Then addressing them, He said, "Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fall into a pit, and will not immediately draw him up on the Sabbath?" And they could give Him no answer to these things. But He also spoke a parable to those invited, observing how they were choosing the first places at table, and He said to them, "When you are invited to a wedding feast, do not recline in the first place, lest perhaps one more distinguished than you have been invited by him, and he who invited you and him come and say to you, 'Make room for this man'; and then you begin with shame to take the last place. But when you are invited, go and recline in the last place; that when he who invited you comes in, he may say to you, 'Friend, go up higher!' Then you will be honored in the presence of all who are at table with you. For everyone who exalts himself shall be humbled, and he who humbles himself shall be exalted."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 39, 14.15. Look down, O Lord, to help me; let them be confounded and ashamed who seek after my soul to take it away.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Sed cum vocatus fueris, vade, recumbe in novissimo loco; ut cum venerit qui te invitavit, dicit tibi: Amice, ascende superius. Tunc erit tibi gloria coram simul discumbentibus; quia omnis qui se exaltat humiliabitur, et qui se humiliat exaltabitur.

Offertorium. Domine, in auxilio meum respice: confundantur et reverantur, qui quaerunt animam meam ut auferant eam.
Secret. Cleanse us, O Lord, we beseech You, by the working of this present sacrifice; and in Your mercy so work within us, that we may be worthy to share in its fruits: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 70, 16-17.18. O Lord, I will be mindful of Your justice alone; You have taught me, O God, from my youth, and unto old age and grey hairs; O God, forsake me not.

Postcommunion. In mercy cleanse our minds, we beseech You, O Lord, and renew them with Your heavenly sacraments; that thereby we may receive effectual help for our bodies now and in the days to come: through our Lord.

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ps. 118, 137, 124. Just are You, O Lord, and Your judgment is right; deal with Your servant according to Your mercy. Ps. 118, 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Help Your people, we beseech You, O Lord, to shun the evils of Satan, and with a clean heart to seek You, the only true God: through our Lord.

Secreta. Munda nos, quae sumus Domine, sacrificii praesentis effectu; et perfice miseratus in nobis, ut ejus mereamur esse participes. Per Dominum.

Commünio. Domine, memorabor justitiae tuae solius: Deus, docuisti me a juventute mea, et usque in senectam et senium: Deus, ne derelinquas me.

Oratio. Da, quae sumus Domine, populo tuo diabolica vitare contagia, et te solum Deum pura mente sectari. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Eph. 4, 1-6. Brethren: I, the prisoner in the Lord, exhort you to walk in a manner worthy of the calling with which you were called, with all humility and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in love, careful to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit, even as you were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all, and throughout all, and in us all, who is blessed forever and ever. Amen.

Responsory. Ps. 32, 12-6. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people whom the Lord has chosen for His inheritance. ¶ By the word of the Lord the heavens were established, and all the power of them by the spirit of His mouth.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Ps. 107, 2. My heart is ready, O God, my heart is ready; I will sing, and will give praise, with my glory. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 22, 34-46. At that time, the Pharisees came to Jesus and one of them, a doctor of the Law, putting Him to the test, asked Him, "Master, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?” Jesus said to him, “‘You shall love the Lord your God with your whole heart, and with your whole soul, and with your whole mind.’ This is the greatest and first command. And the second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ On these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets.” Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus questioned them saying, “What do you think of the Christ? Whose son is He?” They said to Him, “David’s.” He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call Him Lord, saying, ‘The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at My right hand, till I make Your enemies Your footstool?’ If David, therefore, calls Him ‘Lord,’ how is He his son?” And no one could answer Him a word; neither did anyone dare from that day forth to ask Him any more questions.

_Offertory._ Dan. 9, 17.18.19. I, Daniel, prayed to my God, saying, “Hear, O Lord, the prayers of Your servant; show Your face upon Your sanctuary, and favorably look down upon this people, upon whom Your name is invoked, O God. _Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

_Offertorium._ Oravi Deum meum ego, Daniel, dicens: Exaudi, Domine, preces servi tui; illumina faciem tuam super sanctuarium tuum, et propitius intende populum istum, super quem invocatum est nomen tuum, Deus.
Secret. O Lord, we humbly implore Your majesty, that these mysteries which we have celebrated, may deliver us from trespasses both past and to come.

Communion. Ps. 75, 12-13. Vow and pay to the Lord your God, all you who round about Him bring presents; to Him who is terrible, even to Him who takes away the spirit of princes; to the terrible with all the kings of the earth.

Postcommunion. By Your sacred mysteries, O God almighty, take away our vices and grant us eternal salvation: through our Lord.

EMBER WEDNESDAY IN SEPTEMBER

Office. Ps. 80, 2.3.4.5. Rejoice to God our helper; sing aloud to the God of Jacob; take a pleasant psalm with the harp; blow the trumpet in the beginning of the month, for it is a commandment in Israel, and a judgment to the God of Jacob. Ps. 80, 4. Blow the trumpet on the new moon, on the noted day of your solemnity.

Collect. May our weakness, O Lord, be upheld by the remedies of Your mercy, so that what is enfeebled by its condition may be made whole by Your clemency: through our Lord.

Lesson. Amos 9, 13-15. Thus says the Lord God: "Behold the days come, when the ploughman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed, and the mountains shall drop sweetness, and every hill shall be tilled. And I will bring back the captivity of My people Israel, and they shall build the abandoned cities and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine of them; and shall make gardens, and eat the fruits of them; and I will plant them upon their own land; and I will no more pluck them out of their land which I have given them," says the Lord your God.

Responsory. Ps. 32, 12.6. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; the people whom the Lord has chosen for His inheritance. ¶ By the word of the Lord the heavens were established; and all the power of them by the spirit of His mouth.

The Lord be with you.

Collect. Grant to Your suppliant flock, O Lord, we pray, that while denying meats to the body, they may also fast from the vices of the soul: through our Lord.

Dominus vobiscum.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus Domine, familiae tuae suppli canti, ut dum a cibis corporalibus se abstinet, a vitiiis quaque mente jejunet. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 2 Esd. 8, 1-10. In those days, all the people were gathered together as one man to the street which is before the water gate; and they spoke to Esdras the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel. Then Esdras the priest brought the law before the multitude of men and women, and all those who could understand, in the first day of the seventh month. And he read it plainly in the street that was before the water gate, from the morning until midday before the men, and the women and all those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the book. And Esdras the scribe stood upon a step of wood, which he had made to speak from. And he opened the book before all the people, for he was above all the people, and when he had opened it all the people stood. And Esdras blessed the Lord the great God, and all the people answered: "Amen, amen," lifting up their hands. And they bowed down, and adored God with their faces to the ground. But the Levites made silence among the people to hear the law; and the people stood in their place. And they read in the book of the law of God distinctly and plainly to be understood; and they understood when it was read. And Nehemias, and Esdras the priest and scribe, and the Levites who interpreted to all the people, said: "This is a holy day to the Lord our God, do not mourn nor weep." And he said to them: "Go, eat fat meats, and drink sweet wine, and send portions to them who have not prepared for themselves; because it is the holy day of the Lord: and be not sad, for the joy of the Lord is our strength."

Responsory. Ps. 112, 5-7. Who is like the Lord our God, who dwells on high, and looks down on the low things in heaven and in earth? Y. Raising up the needy from the earth, and lifting up the poor out of the dung-hill.

Gospel. Mark 9, 16-28. At that time, one of the crowd answering, said to Jesus, "Master, I have brought to You my son, who has a dumb spirit; and wherever it seizes him it throws him down, and he foams and grinds his teeth; and he is wasting away. And I told Your disciples to cast it out, but they could not." And He answered and said to them, "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me.” And they brought him to Him; and the spirit, when it saw Jesus immediately threw the boy into convulsions, and he fell down on the ground, and rolled about foaming at the mouth. So He asked his father, “How long is it since this has come upon him?” And he said, “From his infancy. Oftentimes it has thrown him into the fire and into the waters to destroy him. But if You can do anything, have compassion on us and help us.” But Jesus said to him, “If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes.” At once the father of the boy cried out, and said with tears, “I do believe, O Lord, help my unbelief.” Now when Jesus saw that a crowd was rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, go out of him and enter him no more.” And crying out and violently convulsing him, it went out of him, and he became like one dead, so that many said, “He is dead.” But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him and he stood up. And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could not we cast it out?” And He said to them, “This kind can be cast out in no way except by prayer and fasting.”

Office. Ps. 104, 3-4. Let the heart of them rejoice who seek the Lord. Seek the Lord and be strengthened; seek His face evermore. Ps. 104, 1. Give glory to the Lord, and call upon His name; declare His deeds among the Gentiles. Glory.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that keeping these holy fasts with devotion year by year, we may be pleasing to You in body and soul: through our Lord.

Epistle. Osee 14, 2-10. Thus says the Lord God: “Return, 0 Israel, to the Lord your God, for you have fallen down by your iniquity. Take with you words, and return to the Lord, and say to him: ‘Take away all iniquity, and receive the good, and we will render the calves of our lips. Assyria shall not save us, we will not ride upon horses, neither will we say any more: The works of our hands are our gods; for you will have mercy on the fatherless that is in you.’ I will heal their breaches, I will love them freely, for my wrath is turned away from them. Gospel. Luke 7, 36-50. At that time, one of the Pharisees asked Jesus to dine with him; so He went into the house of the Pharisee and reclined at table. And behold, a woman in the town who was a sinner, upon learning that He was at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster jar of ointment; and standing behind Him at His feet, she began to bathe His feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head, and kissed His feet, and anointed them with ointment. Now when the Pharisee, who had invited Him; saw it, he said to himself, "This Man, were He a prophet, would surely know who and what manner of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner." And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he said, "Master, speak." "A certain money-lender had two debtors; the one owed five hundred denarii, the other fifty. As they had no means of paying, he forgave them both. Which of them, therefore, will love him more?" Simon answered and said, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have judged rightly." And turning to the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I came into your house; you gave Me no water for My feet; but she has bathed My feet with tears, and has wiped them with her hair. You gave Me no kiss; but she, from the moment she entered, has not ceased to kiss My feet. You did not anoint My head with oil; but she has anointed My feet with ointment. Wherefore I say to you, her sins, many as they are, shall be forgiven her, because she has loved much. But he to whom little is forgiven, loves little.” And He said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.” And they who were at table with Him began to say within themselves, “Who is this Man, who even forgives sins?” But He said to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

EMBER SATURDAY IN SEPTEMBER

Office. Ps. 94, 6-7: Come, let us adore God, and fall down before the Lord; let us weep before Him who made us; for He is the Lord our God. Ps. 94, 1: Come, let us praise the Lord with joy; let us joyfully sing to God our Savior. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, who by healthful fasting heals our bodies and souls, we humbly implore Your majesty that Your wrath being appeased by devout prayers and fastings, You may grant to us Your aid both now and hereafter: though our Lord.

Lesson. Lev. 23, 26-32: In those days, the Lord said to Moses, “The tenth of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement; it shall be most solemn, and shall be called holy; and you shall mortify yourselves on that day and offer an oblation to the Lord. On this day you shall not do any work, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the Lord, your God. Anyone who does not mortify himself on this day shall be cut off from his people; and if anyone does any work on this day, I will remove him from the midst Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui per continetiam salutarem corporibus mederis et mentibus: majesta tem tuam supplices exoramus, ut pia jejunantium deprecatione placatus, et praesentia nobis subsidia tribuas et futura. Per Dominum.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Locutus est Dominus ad Moysen, dicens: Decimo die mensis hujus septimi, dies expiationum erit celeberrimus, et vocabitur sanctus: afflictisque animas vestras in eo, et offeritis holocaustum Domino. Omne opus servile non facietis in tempore diei hujus; quia dies propitiationis est, ut propitietur vobis Dominus Deus vester. Omnis anima, quae afflicta non fuerit die hac, peribit de populis suis: et quae operis quidpiam fecerit, delebo eam de populo suo. Nihil ergo operis facietis in eo: legitimum of his people. This is a perpetual statute for you and your descendants wherever you dwell: you shall do no work, but shall keep a sabbath of complete rest and mortify yourselves. Beginning on the evening of the ninth of the month, you shall keep this sabbath of yours from evening to evening,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsory. Ps. 78, 9.10. Forgive us our sins, O Lord; lest they should say at any time among the gentiles: “Where is their God?”

Collect. Grant us, almighty God, we beseech You, that by our fasting we may be filled with Your grace, and by abstinence be made stronger than all our foes: through our Lord.

Lesson. Lev. 23, 39-43. In those days, the Lord said to Moses, “On the fifteenth day, then, of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the produce of the land, you shall celebrate a pilgrim feast of the Lord for a whole week. The first and the eighth day shall be days of complete rest. On the first day you shall gather foliage from majestic trees, branches of palms and sempiternum erit vobis in cunctis generationibus et habitationibus vestris. Sabbatum requietionis est; et affligetis animas vestras die nono mensis: a vespera usque ad vesperam celebrabitis sabbata vestra: Dicit Dominus omnipotens.

Responsorium. Propitius esto, Domine, peccatis nostris; nequando dicant gentes: Ubi est Deus eorum?

Oratio. Da nobis, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut jejunando, tua gratia satiemur, et abstinendo, cunctis efficiamur hostibus fortiore. Per Dominum.

Lectio. In diebus illis: Locutus est Dominus ad Moysen, dicens: A quintodecimo die mensis septimi, quando congregaveritis omnes fructus terrae vestrae, celebrabitis ferias Domini septem diebus: die primo et die octavo erit sabbatum, id est requies. Sumetisque vobis die primo fructus arboris pulcherrimae, spatulasque palmarum, et ramos ligni densarum frondium, et salices de torrente, et laetaboughs of myrtles and of valley poplars, and then for a week you shall make merry before the Lord, your God. By perpetual statute for you and your descendants you shall keep this pilgrim feast of the Lord for one whole week in the seventh month of the year. During this week you shall dwell in bowers; every native Israelite among you shall dwell in booths, that your descendants may realize that, when I led the Israelites out of the land of Egypt, I made them dwell in booths. I, the Lord, am your God."

Responsory. Ps. 83, 10.9. Behold, O God our protector, and look on Your servants. Surely, O Lord God of hosts, graciously hear the prayers of Your servants.

Collect. Guard Your fold, we beseech You, O Lord, that the blessings of eternal salvation, which by Your prompting we seek, we may by Your bounty obtain: through our Lord.

Lesson. Mich. 7, 14.16.18-20. O Lord our God, feed Your people with Your rod, the flock of Your inheritance, those who dwell alone in the forest, according to the days of old. The nations shall see, and shall be confounded at all their strength. Who is a God like to bimini coram Domino Deo vestro. Celebrabitisque solemnitatem ejus septem diebus per annum: legitimum sempiternum erit in generationibus vestris. Mense septimo festa celebrabit; et habitabit in umbraculis septem diebus. Omnis qui de genere est Israel manebit in tabernaculis; ut discant posteri vestri, quod in tabernaculis habitare fecerim filios Israel, cum educerem eos de terra Aegypti. Ego Dominus Deus vester.

Oratio. Tuere, quaesumus Domine, familiam tuam; ut salutis aeternae remedia, quae te inspirante requirimus, te largiente consequamur. Per Dominum.

Lectio. Domine Deus noster, pasce populum tuum in virga tua, gregem hereditatis tuae, habitantes solos in saltu, juxta dies antiquos. Videbunt gentes, et confundentur super omni fortitudine sua. Quis Deus similis tui, qui aufers ini-
You, who take away iniquity, and pass by the sin of the remnant of Your inheritance? He will send His fury in no more, because He delights in mercy. He will turn again, and have mercy on us; He will put away our iniquities, and He will cast all our sins into the bottom of the sea. You will perform the truth to Jacob, the mercy to Abraham, which You have sworn to our fathers from the days of old, O Lord our God.

Responsory. Ps. 140, 2. Let my prayer be directed like incense in Your sight, O Lord.

Collect. Grant us, almighty God, we pray, so to abstain from food, that we may likewise fast from the vices that attack us: through our Lord.

Lesson. Zach. 8, 14-19. In those days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying: “Thus says the Lord of hosts: As I purposed to afflict you, when your fathers had provoked Me to wrath, says the Lord, and I had no mercy; so turning again I have thought in these days to do good to the house of Juda and Jerusalem; fear not. These then are the things which you shall do: Speak... truth everyone to his neighbor; judge truth and judgment of peace in your gates. And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his friend; and love not a false oath, for all these are the things that I hate," says the Lord. And the word of the Lord of hosts came to me, saying, "Thus says the Lord of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth shall be to the house of Juda joy and gladness, and great solemnities; only love truth and peace," says the Lord of hosts.

Responsory. Ps. 89, 13.1. Turn, O Lord, a little, and be entreated in favor of Your servants. ¶. Lord, You have been our refuge from generation to generation.

Collect. Even as You grant us to offer this solemn fast, O Lord, we pray You bestow the aid of Your pardon: through our Lord. Lesson and Hymn, p. 20.

Collect. O God, who tempered the flames of fire for the three young men, mercifully grant that we Your servants may not be consumed by the flames of vice: through our Lord.

Responsorium. Convertere, Domine, aliquantulum: et deprecare super servos tuos. ¶. Domine, refugium factus es nobis: a generatione et progenie.

Oratio. Ut nobis, Domine, tribuis, solemne tibi deferre jejunium, sic nobis, quaesumus, indulgentiae praesta subsidium. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui tribus pueris mitigasti flammás ignium, concede propitiús, ut nos famulos tuos non exurat flamma vitiorum. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Heb. 9, 2-12. Brethren: There was set up a tabernacle in the outer part of which were the lamp-stand and the table and the showbread, and this is called the Holy Place; but beyond the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, having a golden censer and the ark of the covenant, overlaid on every side with gold. In the ark was a golden pot containing the manna and the rod of Aaron which had budded; and the tablets of the covenant; and above it were the Cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy-seat. But of all these we cannot now speak in detail. Such then being the arrangements, the priests always used to enter into the first tabernacle to perform the sacred rites; but into the second tabernacle the high priest alone entered once a year, not without blood, which he offered for his own and the people's sins of ignorance. The Holy Spirit signified by this that the way into the Holies was not yet thrown open while the first tabernacle was still standing. This first tabernacle is a figure of the present time, inasmuch as gifts and sacrifices are offered that cannot perfect the worshiper in conscience, since they refer only to food and drink and Epistola. Fratres: Tabernaculum factum est primum, in quo erant candelabra, et mensa, et propositio panum, quae dicitur sancta. Post velamentum autem secundum, tabernaculum quod dicitur sancta sanctorum, aureum habens thuribulum, et arcam testamenti circumtectam ex omni parte auro, in qua urna aurea habens manna, et virga Aaron quae fronduerat, et tabulae testamenti; superque eam erant cherubim gloriae obumbrantia propitiatorium: de quibus non est modo dicendum per singula. His vero ita compositis, in priori quidem tabernaculo semper introibant sacerdotes, sacrificiorum officia consummantes. In secundo autem semel in anno solus pontifex, non sine sanguine quem offert pro sua et populi ignorantia; hoc significante Spiritu Sancto, nondum propalatam esse sanctorum viam, adhuc priore tabernaculo habente statum. Quae parabola est temporis instantis, juxta quam munera et hostiae offeruntur, quae non possunt juxta conscientiam perfectum facere servientem, solummodo in cibis, et in various ablutions and bodily regulations imposed until a time of reformation. But when Christ appeared as high priest of the good things to come, He entered once for all through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made by hands (that is, not of this creation), nor again by virtue of blood of goats and calves, but by virtue of His own blood, into the Holies, having obtained eternal redemption.

_Gospel._ Luke 13, 6-17. At that time, Jesus spoke to the multitudes this parable: "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came seeking fruit thereon, and found none. And he said to the vine-dresser, 'Behold, for three years now I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and I find none. Cut it down, therefore; why does it still encumber the ground?' But he answered him and said, 'Sir, let it alone this year too, till I dig around it and manure it. Perhaps it may bear..." fruit; but if not, then afterwards you shall cut it down." Now He was teaching in one of their synagogues on the Sabbath. And behold, there was a woman who for eighteen years had had a sickness caused by a spirit; and she was bent over and utterly unable to look upwards. When Jesus saw her, He called her to Him and said to her, "Woman, you are delivered from your infirmity." And He laid His hands upon her, and instantly she was made straight, and glorified God. But the ruler of the synagogue, indignant that Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, addressed the crowd, saying, "There are six days in which one ought to work; on these therefore come and be cured, and not on the Sabbath." But the Lord answered him and said, "Hypocrites! does not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or ass from the manger, and lead it forth to water? And this woman, daughter of Abraham as she is, whom Satan has bound, lo, for eighteen years, ought not she to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?" And as He said these things, all His adversaries were put to shame; and the entire crowd rejoiced at all the glorious things that were done by Him.

Offertory. Ps. 87, 2-3. O Lord, the God of my salvation, I have cried in the day, and in the night before You; let my prayer come in before You, O Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the gift offered in the sight of Your majesty may obtain for us the grace of a loving devotion, and bring us to joys everlasting: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627.

Communion. Lev. 23, 41-43. In the seventh month shall you celebrate this feast, as I made the children of Israel to dwell in tabernacles, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the Lord your God.

Postcommunion. May Your sacraments, we beseech You O Lord, fulfil in us what they betoken; that what we now worship under a veil, we may reach in very truth: through our Lord.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Ecclus. 36, 18. Give peace, O Lord, to those who patiently wait for You, that Your prophets may be found faithful; hear the prayers of Your servant, and Offertorium. Domine Deus salutis meae, in die clamavi, et nocte coram te; intret oratio mea in conspectu tuo Domine.

Secreta. Concede, quae sumus omnipotens Deus, ut oculis tuae majestatis munus oblatum, et gratiam nobis devotionis obtineat et effectum beatae perennitatis acquirat. Per Dominum.

Communio. Mense septimo festa celebrabitis, cum in tabernaculis habitare fecerim filios Israel, cum educerem eos de terra Aegypti: ego Dominus Deus vester.

Officiium. Da pacem, Domine, sustinentibus te, ut prophetae tui fideles inveniantur: exaudi preces servi tui, et of Your people Israel. Ps. 121, 1. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me, "We shall go into the house of the Lord." Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, O Lord, that the workings of Your mercy may guide our hearts, since without Your help we cannot be pleasing to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 1, 4-8. Brethren: I give thanks to my God always concerning you for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus, because in everything you have been enriched in Him, in all utterance and in all knowledge; even as the witness to the Christ has been made so firm in you that you lack no grace, while awaiting the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will also keep you secure unto the end, unimpeachable in the day of the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsory. Ps. 121, 1.7. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me, "We shall go into the house of our Lord." Veni. Let peace be in your strength, and abundance in your towers.

Alleluia, alleluia! Veni. Ps. 113, 11. They who fear the Lord, let them hope in Him; He is their helper and protector. Alleluia!

Oratio. Dirigat corda nostra, quaesumus Domine, tuae miserationis operatio, quia tibi sine te placere non possimus. Per Dominum.

Gospel. Matt. 9, 1-8. At that time, Jesus, getting into a boat, crossed over and came to His own town. And behold, they brought to Him a paralytic lying on a pallet. And Jesus, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Take courage, son; your sins are forgiven you." And behold, some of the Scribes said within themselves, "This man blasphemes." And Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you harbor evil thoughts in your hearts? For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Arise, and walk'? But that you may know that the Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins,"—then He said to the paralytic—"Arise, take up your pallet and go to your house." And he arose, and went away to his house. But when the crowds saw it, they were struck with fear, and glorified God who had given such power to men.

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ex. 24, 4.5. Moses consecrated an altar to the Lord, offering upon it holocausts, and sacrificing victims; he made an evening sacrifice to the Lord God for an odor of sweetness, in the sight of the children of Israel.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.
Secret. O God, who by the sacred intercourse of this sacrifice have made us sharers of the one supreme Godhead, grant, we beseech You, that as we know Your truth, so we may follow it with worthy lives: through.

Communion. Ps. 95, 8-9. Bring up sacrifices, and come into His courts; adore the Lord in His holy court.

Postcommunion. Nourished by Your sacred gift, O Lord, we return thanks, and humbly implore Your mercy that You would make us worthy of our share therein: through our Lord.

NINETEENTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. "I am the salvation of the people," says the Lord; "in whatever tribulation they shall cry to Me, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord forever." Ps. 77, 1. Attend, O my people, to My law; incline your ears to the words of My mouth. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and merciful God, graciously keep us from every ill; that being freed in soul and body, we may with unfettered minds seek after what is Yours: through our Lord.

Secreta. Deus, qui nos per hujus sacrificii veneranda commercia unius summae Divinitatis participes efficis, praesta, quaesumus, ut, sicut tuam cognoscimus veritatem, sic eam dignis moribus assequamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Gratias tibi referimus, Domine, sacro munere vegetati, tuam misericordiam deprecantes, ut dignos nos ejus participatione perficias. Per Dominum.

Epistle. Eph. 4, 23-28. Brethren: Be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new man, which has been created according to God in justice and holiness of truth. Wherefore, put away lying and speak truth each one with his neighbor, because we are members of one another. "Be angry and do not sin"; do not let the sun go down upon your anger; do not give place to the devil. He who was wont to steal, let him steal no longer; but rather let him labor, working with his hands at what is good, that he may have something to share with him who suffers need.

Responsory. Ps. 140, 2. Let my prayer be directed as incense in Your sight, O Lord. ὡ. The lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὡ. Ps. 117, 16. The right hand of the Lord has done mightily; the right hand of the Lord has exalted me. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 22, 1-14. At that time, Jesus spoke to the chief priests and the Pharisees in parables, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like a king who made a marriage feast for his son. And he sent his servants to call in those invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Tell those who are invited, behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and fatlings are killed, and everything is ready; come to the marriage feast.’ But they made light of it, and went off, one to his farm, and another to his business; and the rest laid hold of his servants, treated them shamefully, and killed them. But when the king heard of it, he was angry; and he sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burnt their city. Then he said to his servants, ‘The marriage feast indeed is ready, but whose who were invited were not worthy; go therefore to the crossroads, and invite to the marriage feast whomever you shall find.’ And his servants went out into the roads, and gathered all whom they found, both good and bad; and the marriage feast was filled with guests. Now the king went in to see the guests, and he saw there a man who had not on a wedding garment. And he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here without a wedding garment?’ But he was speechless. Then the king said to the attendants, ‘Bind his hands and feet and cast him forth into the darkness outside, where there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth.' For many are called, but few are chosen."

Offertory. Ps. 137, 7. If I shall walk, in the midst of tribulation, You will quicken me, O Lord; and You will stretch forth Your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and Your right hand shall save me.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, O Lord, we beseech You, that these gifts which we offer in the sight of Your majesty may be an aid to our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 118, 4-5. You have commanded Your commandments to be kept most diligently. O that my ways may be directed to keep Your justifications!

Postcommunion. May Your healing power, O Lord, mercifully deliver us from our evil ways, and make us ever cleave to Your commands: through our Lord.

mittite eum in tenebras exteriores: ibi erit fletus, et stridor dentium. Multi enim sunt vocati, pauci vero electi.

Offertorium. Si ambulavero in medio tribulationis, vivificabis me, Domine: et super iram inimicorum meorum extendes manum tuam, et salvum me faciet dextera tua.

Secreta. Haec munera, quaesumus Domine, quae oculis tuae majestatis offerimus salutaria nobis esse concede. Per Dominum.

Communio. Tu mandasti mandata tua custodiri nimis; utinam dirigantur viae meae, ad custodiendas justificationes tuas.

Postcommunio. Tua nos, Domine, medicinalis operatio et a nostris perversitatisibus clementer expediat, et tuis semper faciat inhaerere mandatis. Per Dominum.
TWENTIETH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Dan. 3, 31.29.35. All that You have done to us, O Lord, You have done in true judgment; because we have sinned against You, and we have not obeyed Your commandments; but give glory to Your name, and deal with us according to the multitude of Your mercy. Ps. 118, 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Mercifully grant, we beseech You, O Lord, to Your faithful people, pardon and peace, that they may be cleansed from their sins, and serve You with a quiet mind: through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 5, 15-21. Brethren: See to it that you walk with care: not as unwise but as wise, making the most of your time, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not become foolish, but understand what the will of God is. And do not be drunk with wine, for in that is debauchery; but be filled with the Holy Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord, giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father. Be subject to one another in the fear of Christ.

Responsory. Ps. 144, 15-16. The eyes of all hope in You, O Lord, and You give them meat in due season. You open Your hand, and fill every living creature with Your blessing.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 124, 1.2. They who trust in the Lord shall be as Mount Sion; he shall not be moved forever who dwells in Jerusalem. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 4, 46-53. At that time, there was a certain royal official whose son was lying sick at Capharnaum. When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and besought Him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. Jesus therefore said to him, “Unless you see signs and wonders, you do not believe.” The royal official said to Him, “Sir, come down before my child dies.” Jesus said to him, “Go your way, your son lives.” The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and departed. But even as he was now going down, his servants met him and brought word saying that his son lived. He asked of them therefore the hour in which he had got better. And they told him, "Yesterday, at the seventh hour, the fever left him." The father knew then that it was at that every hour in which Jesus had said to him, "Your son lives." And he himself believed, and his whole household.

Offertory. Ps. 136, 1. Upon the rivers of Babylon, there we sat and wept, when we remembered You, O Sion.

Secret. May these mysteries, we beseech You, O Lord, be to us a heavenly healing, and cleanse the vices of our hearts: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 118, 49-50. Be mindful of Your word to Your servant, O Lord, in which You have given me hope; this has comforted me in my humiliation.

Postcommunion. That we may be made worthy of Your hallowed gifts, O Lord, make us, we pray You, ever obedient to Your commands: through our Lord.
TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Esther 13, 9.10-11. All things are in Your will, O Lord; and there is none that can resist Your will; for You have made all things, heaven and earth, and all things that are under the cope of heaven; You are Lord of all. Ps. 118, 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, guard Your flock with Your continual love, that by Your protection it may be freed from all adversities and by good deeds be devoted to Your name: through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 6, 10-17. Brethren: Be strengthened in the Lord and in the might of His power. Put on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the Principalities and the Powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness on high. Therefore, take up the armor of God, that you may be able Epistola. Fratres: Confortamini in Domino, et in potentia virtutis ejus. Induite vos armaturam Dei, ut possitis stare adversus insidias diaboli. Quoniam non est nobis colluctatio adversus carnem et sanguinem, sed adversus principes et potestates, adversus mundi rectores tenebrarum harum, contra spiritualia nequitiae, in caelestibus. Propterea accipite armaturam Dei, ut possitis resistere in die malo, et to resist in the evil day, and stand in all things perfect. Stand, therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breast-plate of justice, and having your feet shod with the readiness of the gospel of peace, in all things taking up the shield of faith, with which you may be able to quench all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation and the sword of the spirit, that is, the word of God.

Responsory. Ps. 89, 1-2. Lord, You have been our refuge from generation to generation.

Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world was formed, from eternity and to eternity You are God.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 129, 1. Out of the depths I have cried to You, O Lord, Lord, hear my prayer. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 18, 23-35. At that time, Jesus spoke to His disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is likened to a king who desired to settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun the settlement, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. And as he had no means of paying, his master ordered

Responsorium. Domine, refugium factus es nobis a generatione et progenie.

Priusquam montes fierent, aut formaretur terra et orbis: a saeculo et usque in saeculum tu es Deus.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis parabolam hanc: Assimilatum est regnum caelorum homini regi, qui voluit rationem ponere cum servis suis. Et cum coepisset rationem ponere, oblatus est ei unus, qui debebat ei decem millia talenta: cum autem non haberet unde redderet, jussit eum dominus ejus venumdari, et uxorem him to be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made. But the servant fell down and besought him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will pay you all!' And moved with compassion, the master of that servant released him, and forgave him the debt. But as that servant went out, he met one of his fellow-servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and he laid hold of him and throttled him, saying, 'Pay what you owe.' His fellow-servant therefore fell down and began to entreat him, saying, 'Have patience with me and I will pay you all.' But he would not; but went way and cast him into prison until he should pay what was due. His fellow-servants therefore seeing what had happened, were very much saddened, and they went and informed their master of what had happened. Then his master called him, and said to him, 'Wicked servant! I forgave you all the debt, because you entreated me. Should not you also have had pity on your fellow-servant, even as I had pity on you?' And his master, being angry, handed him over to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him. So also My heavenly Father will do to you, if you do not each forgive your brothers from your hearts.”

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. _Job 1, 2._ There was a man in the land of Hus, whose name was Job, simple, and upright, and fearing God, whom Satan besought that he might tempt. And power was given him from the Lord over his possessions and his flesh; and he destroyed all his substance and his children; and wounded his flesh also with a grievous ulcer. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Mercifully receive this victim, O Lord, through which You have been pleased to be pacified Yourself, and by the power of Your love, to restore salvation to us: through our Lord.

Communion. _Ps. 118, 81.84.86._ My soul is in Your salvation, and in Your word have I hoped. When will You execute judgment on those who persecute me? The wicked have persecuted me; help me, O Lord my God.

Postcommunion. Having taken the food of immortality, O Lord, we beseech You, that what we have received on our tongues we may welcome into a clean heart: through our Lord.

faciet vobis, si non remiseritis unusquisque fratri suo de cordibus vestris.

Offertorium. Vir erat in terra Hus, nomine Job, simplex et rectus, ac timens Deum: quem Satan petiiit ut tentaret: et data est ei potestas a Domino in facultates et in carnem ejus: perdiditque omnem substantiam ipsius, et filios; car­nem quoque ejus gravi ulcer vulnerealit.

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, propitius hostias, quibus et te placari voluisti, et nobis salutem potenti pietate restitui. Per Dominum.

Communio. In salutari tuo anima mea, et in verbum tuum speravi: quando facies de persequentibus me judi­cium? Iniqui persecuti sunt me: adjuva me, Domine Deus meus.

Postcommunio. Immortalitatis alimoniam consecuti, quaesumus Domine, ut: quod ore percepimus, pura mente sectemur. Per Dominum.
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Collect. O God, our refuge and our strength, You the very author of goodness, incline to the holy prayers of Your Church, and grant that what we ask in faith we may obtain in deed: through our Lord.

Epistle. Phil. 1, 6-11. Brethren: We are confident in the Lord Jesus that He who has begun a good work in you will bring it to perfection until the day of Christ Jesus. And I have the right to feel so about you all, because I have you in my heart, all of you, alike in my chains and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, as sharers in my joy. For God is my witness how I long for you all in the heart of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve the better things, that you may be upright and without offense unto the day of Christ, filled with the fruit of justice, through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Responsory. Ps. 132, 1-2. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity.

It is like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down over the beard, the beard of Aaron.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Ps. 146, 3. Who heals the broken of heart, and binds up their bruises. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 22, 15-21. At that time, the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might trap Jesus in His talk. And they sent to Him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, “Master, we know that You are truthful, and that You teach the way of God in truth, and that You care naught for any man; for You do not regard the person of men. Tell us, therefore, what do You think: Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?”

But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said, “Why do you test Me, you hypocrites? Show Me the coin of the tribute.” So they offered Him a denarius. Then Jesus said to them, “Whose are this image and the inscription?” They said to Him, “Caesar’s.” Then He said to them, "Render, therefore, to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. _Esther 14, 12.13._ Remember me, O Lord, You who rule above all power; and give a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in the sight of the prince. _Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Grant, O most merciful God, that this salutary offering may ever set us free from our own guilt, and preserve us from all adversities: through our Lord.

Communion. _Luke 15, 7._ I say to you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

Postcommunion. We have received the gifts of Your sacred mystery, O Lord, humbly beseeching You, that what You have commanded us to do in memory of You, may aid us in our weakness: who live and reign.

Tunc ait illis: Reddite ergo quae sunt Caesaris, Caesari: et quae sunt Dei, Deo.

Offertorium. Recordare mei, Domine, omni potentatui dominans: et da sermonem rectum in os meum, ut placeant verba mea in conspectu principis.

Secreta. Da, misericors Deus, ut haec salutaris oblatio et a propriis nos reatibus indesinenter expediat, et ab omnibus tueatur adversis. Per Dominum.

Communio. Dico vobis, gaudium est angelis Dei super uno peccatore poenitentiam agente.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, sacri dona mysterii, humiliter deprecantes, ut quae in tui commemorationem nos facere praecipienti, in nostrae proficiant infirmitatis auxilium. Qui vivis et regnas.
TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

If there are only twenty-three Sundays after Pentecost, then the Mass for the Twenty-Fourth Sunday is said today, p. 608.

Office. Jer. 29, 11.12.14. The Lord says: "I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction. You shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84, 2. Lord, You have blessed Your land; You have turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord, we beseech You, absolve Your people from their offences, that through Your bountiful goodness we may be delivered from the bands of those sins, which in our frailty we have committed: through our Lord.

Epistle. Phil. 3, 17-21; 4, 1-3. Brethren: Be imitators of me, and mark those who walk after the pattern you have in us. For many walk, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is ruin, their god is the belly, their glory is in their shame, they mind the things of earth. But our citizenship is in heaven from Oratio. Absolve, quaesumus Domine, tuorum delicta populum: ut a peccatorum nexibus, quae pro nostra fragilitate contraximus, tua benignitate liberemur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Imitatores mei estote, et observate eos, qui ita ambulant, sicut habetis formam nostram. Multi enim ambulant, quos saepe dicebam vobis (nunc autem et flens dico) inimicos crucis Christi; quorum finis interitus, quorum Deus venter est, et gloria in confusione ipsorum; qui terrena sapiunt. Nostra autem conversatio in caelis which also we eagerly await a Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, who will refashion the body of our lowliness, conforming it to the body of His glory by exerting the power by which He is able also to subject all things to Himself. So then, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and my crown, stand fast thus in the Lord, beloved. I entreat Evodia and I exhort Syntyche to be of one mind in the Lord. And I beseech you also, my loyal comrade, help them, for they have toiled with me in the gospel, as have Clement and the rest of my fellow-workers whose names are in the book of life.

Responsory. Ps. 43, 8-9. You have delivered us, O Lord, from those who afflict us; and have put them to shame who hate us. ¶ In God we will glory all the day; and in Your name we will give praise forever.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 147, 3. Who has made peace in your borders; and filled you with the fat of corn. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 9, 18-26. At that time, as Jesus was speaking to the crowds, behold, a ruler came up and worshiped Him, saying, "Lord, my daughter has just now died; but come and lay Your hand upon her, and she will return to life.” And Jesus arose and followed him, and so did His disciples. Now a woman who for twelve years had been suffering from hemorrhage, came up behind Him and touched the tassel of His cloak, saying to herself, “If I touch but His cloak I shall be saved.” But Jesus, turning and seeing her, said, “Take courage, daughter; your faith has saved you.” And the woman was restored to health from that moment. And when Jesus came to the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players and the crowd making a din, He said, “Begone, the girl is asleep, not dead.” And they laughed Him to scorn. But when the crowd had been put out, He went in and took her by the hand; and the girl arose. And the report of this spread throughout all that district.

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths I have cried out to You, O Lord, Lord, hear my prayer.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. For our growth in fealty, O Lord, we offer You this sacrifice of praise, that what You have bestowed on our unworthiness You, in Your mercy, may fulfill: through our Lord.

Offertorium. De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine: Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

Secreta. Pro nostrae servitutis augmento sacrificium tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus, ut, quod immeritis contulisti, propitius exsequaris. Per Dominum.
Communion. Mark 11, 24. Amen I say to you, all things whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you shall receive, and it shall be done to you.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that those whom You have given to be gladdened by this divine participation, You may not let succumb to human dangers: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, ut, quos divina tribuis participatione gaudere, humanis non sinas subjacere periculis. Per Dominum.

THE MOVABLE SUNDAYS AFTER EPIPHANY

If there are more than 24 Sundays after Pentecost, the Office, Responsory, Offertory and Communion on page 607 are repeated on all the remaining Sundays; but the Collects, the Epistle and the Gospel are taken from those Sundays which were passed over that year after the Epiphany, according to the following table: On the last Sunday after Pentecost, the Mass on page 608 is always said.

TWENTY-FOURTH AND LAST SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

Office. Jer. 29, 11.12.14. The Lord says: "I think thoughts of peace, and not of affliction. You shall call upon Me, and I will hear you; and I will bring back your captivity from all places. Ps. 84, 2. Lord, You have blessed Your land; You have turned away the captivity of Jacob. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Stir up, we pray You, O Lord, the wills of Your faithful flock; that while seeking more earnestly after the fruits of good works, they may receive the greater blessings of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Epistle. Col. 1, 9-14. Brethren: We have been praying for you unceasingly, asking that you may be filled with knowledge of God's will, in all spiritual wisdom and understanding. May you walk worthily of God and please Him in all things, bearing fruit in every good work and growing in the knowledge of God. May you be completely strengthened through His glorious power unto perfect patience and long-suffering; joyfully rendering thanks to God the Father, who has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness and transferred Oratio. Excita, quaesumus Domine, tuorum fidelium voluntates, ut divini operis fructum propensius exsequentes, pietatis tuae remedia majora percipiant. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Non cessamus pro vobis orantes, et postulantes ut impleamini agnitione voluntatis Dei in omni sapientia, et intellectu spirituali: ut ambuletis digne Deo per omnia placentes, in omni opere bono fructificantes, et crescentes in scientia Dei: in omni virtute confortati secundum potentiam claritatis ejus, in omni patientia, et longanimitate cum gaudio; gratias agentes Deo Patri, qui dignos nos fecit in partem sortis sanctorum in lumine; qui eripuit nos de potestate tenebrarum, et transtulit in regnum us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have our redemption, through His blood, the remission of sins.

Responsory. Ps. 43, 8-9. You have delivered us, O Lord, from those who afflict us; and have put them to shame who hate us.

\[\text{Ps. 43, 8-9. You have delivered us, O Lord, from those who afflict us; and have put them to shame who hate us.} \]

\[\text{In God will we glory all the day; and in Your name give praise forever.} \]

Alleluia, alleluia!

Ps. 147, 3. Who has made peace in your borders, and filled you with the fat of corn. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 24, 15-35. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "When you see the abomination of desolation, which was spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place—let him who reads understand—then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let him who is on the housetop not go down to take anything from his house; and let him who is in the field not turn back to take his cloak. But woe to those who are with child, or have infants at the breast in those days! But pray that your flight may not be in the winter, or on the Sabbath. For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor will be. And unless those days had been shortened, no living creature would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened. Then if anyone say to you, 'Behold, here is the Christ,' or, 'There He is,' do not believe it. For false christs and false prophets will arise, and will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect. Behold, I have told it to you beforehand. If therefore they say to you, 'Behold, He is in the desert,' do not go forth; 'Behold, He is in the inner chambers,' do not believe it. For as the lightning comes forth from the east and shines even to the west, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be. Wherever the body is, there will the eagles be gathered together. But immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give her light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of heaven will be shaken. And then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven; and then will all tribes of the earth mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming upon the clouds of heaven with great power and majesty. And He will send forth His angels with a trumpet and a great sound, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other. Now from the fig tree learn this parable. When its branch is now tender, and the leaves break forth, you know that summer is near. Even so, when you see all these things, know that it is near, even at the door. Amen I say to you, this generation will not pass away till all these things have been accomplished. Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.”

Offertory. Ps. 129, 1-2. Out of the depths I have cried to You, O Lord, Lord, hear my prayer.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Be mercifully attentive to our petitions, O Lord. Receive the prayers and sacrifices of Your people, turn all our hearts to You; so that we may be drawn from earthly lusts to the joys of heaven: through.

Communion. Mark 11, 24. Amen I say to you all things whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you shall receive, and it shall be done to you.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that through these sacraments we have received, whatever is amiss in our souls may be righted by their gift of healing: through our Lord.

Offertorium. De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine: Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

Secreta. Propitius esto, Domine supplicationibus nostris, et populi tui obligationibus precibusque susceptis, omnium nostrum ad te corda converte; ut a terrenis cupiditatibus liberati, ad caelestia desideria transeamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Concede nobis, quaesumus Domine, ut per haec sacramenta, quae sumpsimus, quidquid in nostra mente vitiosum est, ipsorum medicationis dono curetur.

Vidi aquam egredientem de templo a latere dextero, alleluia: et omnes ad quos pervenit aqua ista, salvi facti sunt, et dicent: Alleluia, alleluia.

The Priest then says:

V. Ostende nobis. Domine, misericordiam tuam. (T.P. Allel.) *

R. Et salutare tuum da nobis. (T.P. Allel.)

R. Domine, exaudi orationem meam.

R. Et clamor meus ad te veniat.

R. Dominus vobiscum.

R. Et cum spiritu tuo.

R. And grant us Your salvation. (T.P. Allel.)

R. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come to You.

R. The Lord be with you.

R. And with your spirit.

* T.P. = Paschal Time (from Easter to Trinity).

Let Us Pray. Hear us, O holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God; and be pleased to send Your holy angel from heaven, to guard, cherish, protect, visit, and defend all who dwell in this house: through Christ our Lord. Rv. Amen.
THE ORDINARY OF THE MASS

The priest pours wine and water into the chalice blessing the water but omitting it in Requiem Masses.

S. Benedicite.
P. In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti.
S. Amen.

In a High Mass, the chalice is prepared after the Epistle; in a Solemn High Mass, before the singing of the Gospel.

A. MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

This part of the Mass is so called because the public penitents and catechumens were allowed to be present at it.

1. PREPARATION

The priest says in a low voice:

Actiones nostras, quaesumus Domine, aspirando praeverni et adjuvando prosequere; ut cuncta nostra operatio a te semper incipient, et per te coepta finiatur. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Then the priest descends to the foot of the altar, makes a profound inclination, and begins with the sign of the cross:

P. In nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti.

Amen.
P. Confitemini Domino quoniam bonus.
S. Quoniam in saeculum misericordia ejus.
P. Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, et beatae Mariae semper virgin, et beato Domino patri nostro, et omnibus sanctis, et vobis, fratres, quia peccavi nimis, cogitatione, locutione, opere et omissione, mea culpa: precor vos orare pro me.
S. Misereatur tui omnipotens Deus et dimittat tibi omnia peccata tua: liberet te ab omni malo, salvet et confirmet in omni opere bono, et perducat te ad vitam aeternam.
P. Amen.
The priest pours wine and water into the chalice blessing the water but omitting it in Requiem Masses.

S. Bless.

P. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

S. Amen.

In a High Mass, the chalice is prepared after the Epistle; in a Solemn High Mass, before the singing of the Gospel.

A. MASS OF THE CATECHUMENS

This part of the Mass is so called because the public penitents and catechumens were allowed to be present at it.

1. PREPARATION

The priest says in a low voice:

Prevent, O Lord, we beseech You, our actions by Your inspiration, and continue them by Your assistance; that every one of our works may begin always from You, and through You be ended: through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then the priest descends to the foot of the altar, makes a profound inclination, and begins with the sign of the cross:

P. In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

P. Praise the Lord for He is good.

S. For His mercy endures forever.

P. I confess to almighty God, to blessed Mary ever a virgin, to blessed Dominic our father, to all the saints and to you, brethren, that I have sinned exceedingly by thought, word, deed and omission, through my fault: I beseech you to pray for me.

S. May almighty God have mercy on you and forgive you all your sins: may He free you from all evil, strengthen and confirm you in every good work, and bring you to life everlasting.

P. Amen.
S. Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, et beatae Mariae semper virginii, et beato Dominico patri nostro, et omnibus sanctis, et tibi pater, quia peccavi nimis, cogitatione, locutione, opere et omissione, mea culpa: precor te orare pro me.

P. Misereatur vestri, omnipotens Deus, et dimittat vobis omnia peccata vestra: liberet vos ab omni malo, salvet, et confirmet in omni opere bono, et perducat vos ad vitam aeternam.

S. Amen.

P. Absolutionem et remissionem omnium peccatorum vestrorum, tribuat vobis omnipotens et misericors Dominus.

S. Amen.

P. Adjutorium nostrum in nomine Domini.

S. Qui fecit caelum et terram.

The priest goes up to altar, and inclining says:

After making the sign of the cross on the altar the priest kisses it; then signing himself, he goes to the missal to read the office:

S. Amen.

P. May the almighty and merciful Lord grant you absolution and remission of all your sins.

S. Amen.

P. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

S. Who made heaven and earth.

The priest goes up to altar, and inclining says:

P. Take away from us all our iniquities, O Lord, that we may be worthy to enter with pure minds into the Holy of Holies: through Christ our Lord. Amen.

After making the sign of the cross on the altar the priest kisses it; then signing himself, he goes to the missal to read the office:

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will. We praise You. We bless You.

The Gloria is omitted on Ferial days and when the priest uses purple or black vestments.

2. INSTRUCTION

The priest turns to the people, and says:

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

He then reads the Collect.

ORATIO

Turn to the Mass of the Day

At the end of the Collect the server answers: Amen. Then follow the Epistle and the Responsory, after which, going to the Gospel side of the altar he says in a low voice:

P. Dominus sit in corde meo et in labiis meis ad pronuntiandum sanctum evangelium pacis.

He begins the Gospel by saying:

P. Dominus vobiscum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

P. Sequentia sancti evangelii secundum . . .

S. Gloria tibi Domine.

While saying this he signs himself with the thumb on forehead, lips and heart, and then blesses himself with the ordinary sign of the cross.
We adore You. We glorify You. We give You thanks for Your great glory: O Lord God, heavenly king, God the Father almighty. O Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son: O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father: who take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Who take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer. Who sit at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For You only are holy. You only are Lord. You only, O Jesus Christ, are Most High, together with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The Gloria is omitted on Ferial days and when the priest uses purple or black vestments.

2. INSTRUCTION

The priest turns to the people, and says:

P. The Lord be with you. S. And with your spirit.

He then reads the Collect.

THE COLLECT

Turn to the Mass of the Day

At the end of the Collect the server answers: Amen. Then follow the Epistle and the Responsory, after which, going to the Gospel side of the altar he says in a low voice:

P. May the Lord be in my heart and on my lips, that I may announce the gospel of peace.

He begins the Gospel by saying:

P. The Lord be with you. S. And with your spirit.

P. The continuation of the holy gospel according to . . .

S. Glory be to You, O Lord.

While saying this he signs himself with the thumb on forehead, lips and heart, and then blesses himself with the ordinary sign of the cross.
After the Gospel the priest first blesses himself, after which he kisses the book, saying:

P. Per evangelica dicta, deleantur nostra delicta.

The priest now begins the Creed (if the rubric orders one) in the middle of the altar, continuing it at the missal:

Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem caeli et terrae, visibilium omnium, et invisibilium. Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filium Dei unigenitum, et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula; Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero; genitum, non factum; consubstantialem Patri: per quem omnia facta sunt. Qui propter nos homines, et propter nostram salutem, descendit de caelis (hic genuflectitur); et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto ex Maria virgine: ET HOMO FACTUS EST. Crucifixus etiam pro nobis, sub Pontio Pilato passus, et sepultus est. Et resurrexit tertia die, secundum scripturas; et ascendit in caelum. Sedet ad dexteram Patris; et iterum venturus est cum gloria judicare vivos et mortuos: cujus regni non erit finis. Et in Spiritum Sanctum Dominum et vivificantem, qui ex Patre Filioque procedit. Qui cum Patre et Filio simul adoratur et conglorificatur; qui locutus est per prophetas. Et unam, sanctam, catholicam et apostolicam ecclesiam. Confiteor unum baptisma in remissionem peccatorum. Et exspecto resurrectionem mortuorum, et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.
After the Gospel the priest first blesses himself, after which he kisses the book, saying:

P. May our sins be washed way by the words of the gospel.

The priest now begins the Creed (if the rubric orders one) in the middle of the altar, continuing it at the missal:

I believe in one God, the Father, almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible. And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only-begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages; God of God, light of light, true God of true God; begotten not made; consubstantial with the Father, by whom all things were made. Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven (here all kneel); and was made flesh by the Holy Spirit, of the virgin Mary; AND WAS MADE MAN. He was crucified also for us, suffered under Pontius Pilate, and was buried. And the third day he rose again according to the scriptures; and ascended into heaven. He sits at the right hand of the Father; and He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead; and His kingdom shall have no end. And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. Who together with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified; who spoke by the prophets. And I believe one, holy, catholic and apostolic church. I confess one baptism for the remission of sins. And I await the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

While offering the chalice he says:

P. Receive, O holy Trinity, this offering, which I present to You in memory of the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ; and grant that it may ascend to You worthily in Your sight, and may bring about my eternal salvation and that of all the faithful.

In Solemn Masses the incense is used here.

He now washes his fingers, saying at the same time:

I will wash my hands among the innocent, and will compass Your altar, O Lord: that I may hear the voice of Your praise, and tell of all Your wondrous works. I have loved, O Lord, the beauty of Your house, and the place where Your glory dwells.

Bowing down in the middle of the altar he says:

In a humble spirit and with a contrite heart may we be received by You, O Lord: and may our sacrifice be so performed that it be received by You this day, and be pleasing to You, O Lord God.

He turns to the people inviting them to unite themselves with him in the Mass:

(No. 8.) PREFACE OF THE HOLY TRINITY

This Preface is said on all Sundays of the year which have no special Preface. Prefaces for particular seasons or feasts are indicated in the Mass of the Day.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Who with Your Only-begotten Son and Holy Spirit are one God and one Lord: not in the oneness of a single person but in the trinity of one substance. For that which by Your revelation we believe of Your glory, the same we believe of Your Son, and the same of the Holy Spirit, without difference or distinction. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Deity we adore distinction of persons, unity of essence, and equality in majesty. Which the

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus per Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem majestatem tuam laudant angeli adorant dominationes tremunt potestates; caeli, caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admitti jubeas deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes:

THE CANON OF THE MASS

Te igitur, clementissime Pater, per Jesum Christum Filium tuum Dominum nostrum, supplices rogamus, ac petimus: uti accepta habeas, et beneficas haec dona, haec munera, haec sancta sacrificia illibata: in primis quae tibi offerimus pro angels and archangels, the cherubim also and the seraphim praise, who cease not to cry out daily with united voice, saying:

THE SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Your glory: Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

(No. 17.) COMMON PREFACE

Said on all Feasts and Ferias having no proper Preface.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God through Christ our Lord. Through whom the angels praise Your majesty the dominations adore it and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices also, while we say in humble praise:

THE SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts. Heaven and earth are full of Your glory: Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

THE CANON OF THE MASS

We therefore humbly pray and beseech You, most merciful Father, through Jesus Christ Your Son our Lord, that You would be pleased to accept and bless Rising, he makes the sign of the cross over the offerings three times.

THE COMMEMORATION OF THE LIVING

He joins his hands and calls to mind the living for whom he wishes to pray.

Memento Domine famulorum, famularumque tuarum N., et N., et omnium circumstantium, quorum tibi fides cognita est, et nota devotio: pro quibus tibi offerimus, vel qui tibi offerunt hoc sacrificium laudis pro se, suisque omnibus; pro redemptione animarum suarum, pro spe salutis et incolamitatis suae, tibique reddunt vota sua aeterno Deo, vivo et vero.

With hands extended he now says:

Communicantiv, et memoriam venerantes, in prouis gloriosae semper virginis Mariae, genitricis Dei, et Domini nostri Jesu Christi:

Except for the following special communicantes for different seasons of the year, the Canon is continued on page 630.

The following COMMUNICANTES are proper to the seasons.

In All Masses during Christmas Time:

Communicantiv, et diem (at Midnight Mass: noctem) sacratissimum celebrantes, quo beatae Mariae intemerata virginitas huic mundo edidit Salvatorem: sed et memoriam venerantes, in primis ejusdem gloriosae semper virginis Mariae, genitricis ejusdem Dei, et Domini nostri Jesu Christi; * sed et . . . You for Your holy catholic Church; be pleased to grant her peace, to protect, unite and govern her throughout the whole world, together with Your servant our Pope, N., and our bishop, N., and all orthodox believers and worshipers of the catholic and apostolic faith.

THE COMMEMORATION OF THE LIVING

He joins his hands and calls to mind the living for whom he wishes to pray.

Be mindful, O Lord, of Your servants and handmaids, N., and N., and of all here present whose faith and devotion are known to You: for whom we offer, or who offer up to You, this sacrifice of praise for themselves and theirs; for the redemption of their souls, for the hope of their safety and salvation, and who pay their vows to You, the eternal, living and true God.

With hands extended he now says:

In communion with, and venerating in the first place, the memory of the glorious Mary, ever-virgin, mother of our God and Lord, Jesus Christ:

Except for the following special communicantes for different seasons of the year, the Canon is continued on page 631.

The following COMMUNICANTES are proper to the seasons.

In All Masses during Christmas Time:

In communion with, and celebrating, the most holy day,
(at Midnight Mass: night) on which the stainless virginity of the blessed Mary brought forth a Savior to this world; also venerating first of all the memory of the glorious Mary, ever a virgin, mother of the same God and Lord Jesus Christ; * also of . . . (p. 631.)

In all Masses from the Epiphany to Jan. 13.

In communion with, and celebrating, the most holy day on which Your Only-begotten Son, co-eternal with You in Your glory, visibly appeared in the truth of our corporal nature; and also venerating first of all the memory of the glorious Mary, ever a virgin, mother of the same God and Lord Jesus Christ; * also of . . . (p. 631.)

He pauses to think of the dead for whom he wishes to pray.

Raising his voice and striking his breast he says:

Nobis quoque peccatoribus: famulis tuis, de multitudine miserationum tuarum sperantibus, partem aliquam et societatem donare digneris, cum tuis sanctis apostolis et martyribus: cum Joanne, Stephano, Matthia, Barnaba, Ignatio, Alexandro, Marcellino, Petro, Felicitate, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucia, Agnete, Caecilia, Anastasia, et omnibus sanctis tuis: intra quorum nos consortium, non aestimator meriti, sed veniae, quaesumus, largitor admitte. Per Christum Dominum nostrum.

He makes the sign of the cross three times. Then after genuflecting he holds the Body in his fingers while making the sign of the cross three times over the chalice, once at its lip, and finally at its base.

Per quem haec omnia, Domine, semper bona creas, sanctificas, vivificas, beneficis, et praestas nobis. Per ipsum, et cum ipso, et in ipso est tibi Deo Patri omnipotenti, in unitate Spiritus Sancti, omnis honor et gloria:

Raising his voice he says:

P. Per omnia saecula saeculorum. S. Amen.

Oremus. Praeceptis salutaribus moniti, et divina institutione formati, audemus dicere:
THE COMMEMORATION OF THE DEAD

Be mindful, also O Lord, of Your servants and handmaids who are gone before us with the sign of faith, and sleep in the sleep of peace, N. and N. To these, O Lord, and to all who rest in Christ, grant, we beseech You, a place of refreshment, light and peace: through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

He pauses to think of the dead for whom he wishes to pray.

Raising his voice and striking his breast he says:

And to us sinners, Your servants, trusting in Your boundless mercies, be pleased to grant some part and fellowship with Your holy apostles and martyrs: with John, Stephen, Matthias, Barnabas, Ignatius, Alexander, Marcellinus, Peter, Felicitas, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, Agnes, Cecilia, Anastasia, and with all Your saints, into whose company we beseech You to admit us, not considering our merit, but freely pardoning our offenses: through Christ our Lord.

He makes the sign of the cross three times. Then after genuflecting he holds the Body in his fingers while making the sign of the cross three times over the chalice, once at its lip, and finally at its base.

By whom, O Lord, You always create, sanctify, endow with life, bless, and give us these good things. Through Him, and with Him, and in Him, all honor and glory is given to You, God, the Father almighty in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Raising his voice he says:

P. Forever and ever. S. Amen.

Let Us Pray. Taught by Your saving precepts and following Your divine directions, we presume to say:
Pater noster qui es in caelis, sanctificetur nomen tuum; adveniat regnum tuum; fiat voluntas tua, sicut in caelo et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie; et dimitte nobis debita nostra, sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos inducas in tentationem.

S. Sed libera nos a malo. P. Amen.

He joins his hands.

Libera nos, quaesumus Domine, ab omnibus malis, praeteritis, praesentibus, et futuris; et intercedente beata et gloriosa semper virgine Dei genitrici Maria, cum beatis apostolis tuis Petro et Paulo, atque Andrea, et omnibus sanctis, da propitius pacem in diebus nostris: ut ope misericordiae tuae adjuti, et a peccato simus semper liberi, et ab omni perturbatione securi. Per eumdem Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum, qui tecum vivit et regnat in unitate Spiritus Sancti Deus.

After dividing the Body, raising his voice, he says:

P. Per omnia saecula saeculorum. S. Amen.

He makes the sign of the cross three times with a particle of the Body.

P. Pax Domini sit semper vobis cum. S. Et cum spiritu tuo.

THE AGNUS DEI AND COMMUNION

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. (Dona eis requiem.)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, miserere nobis. (Dona eis requiem.)

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi, dona nobis pacem. (Dona eis requiem sempiternam.)

In Masses for the Dead, the first two invocations are: Dona eis requiem, and the third is: Dona eis requiem sempiternam.
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation.

S. But deliver us from evil. P. Amen.

He joins his hands.

Deliver us, we beseech You, O Lord, from all evils, past, present and to come; and by the intercession of the blessed and glorious Mary, ever a virgin, mother of God, together with Your blessed apostles Peter and Paul, and Andrew, and all the saints, graciously grant peace in our days; that by the help of Your mercy we may be always free from sin, and secure from every disturbance: through the same Jesus Christ Your Son, our Lord, who with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, God.

After dividing the Body, raising his voice, he says:

P. Forever and ever. S. Amen.

He makes the sign of the cross three times with a particle of the Body.

P. May the peace ✠ of the Lord be ✠ always ✠ with you. S. And with your spirit.

THE AGNUS DEI AND COMMUNION

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. (Grant them peace.)

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. (Grant them peace.)

Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world, grant us peace. (Grant them eternal peace.)

In Masses for the Dead, the first two invocations are: Grant them peace, and the third is: Grant them eternal peace.
Haec sacrosancta commixtio corporis et sanguinis Domini nostri Jesu Christi fiat mihi, et omnibus sumentibus, salus mentis et corporis; et ad vitam aeternam promerendam atque capessendam praeparatio salutaris. Per eumdem Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.

Bowing down he says:

Domine Jesu Christe Fili Dei vivi, que ex voluntate Patris, cooperante Spiritu Sancto, per mortem tuam mundum vivificasti: libera me per hoc sacrosanctum corpus et sanguinem tuum ab omnibus iniquitatibus meis, et universis malis; et fac me tuis semper inhaerere mandatis, et a te nunquam separari permittas: Qui cum eodem Deo Patre et Spiritu Sancto vivis et regnas Deus in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Receiving the Body and Blood the priest says:

Corpus et sanguis Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiant me in vitam aeternam. Amen.

After the priest has received the Precious Blood the server recites the Confiteor for those who wish to receive Communion. The priest gives the Absolution, and then lifting the sacred host says:

Ecce Agnus Dei: ecce qui tollit peccata mundi.

Then he says three times:

Domine non sum dignus ut intres sub tectum meum: sed tantum die verbo et sanabitur anima mea.

Then he distributes Holy Communion to the faithful saying:

Corpus Domini nostri Jesu Christi custodiat te in vitam aeternam. Amen.

He then washes his fingers saying:
May this most sacred commingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ be to me and to all who receive it, health of mind and body, and a salutary preparation for meriting and obtaining eternal life: through the same Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bowing down he says:

O Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who according to the will of the Father, through the cooperation of the Holy Spirit, have by Your death given life to the world, deliver me by this, Your most holy Body and Blood from all my iniquities and from all evils; and make me ever cling to Your commandments, and never let me be separated from You: who with the same God the Father and the Holy Spirit live and reign God forever and ever. Amen.

Receiving the Body and Blood the priest says:

May the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ keep me for eternal life. Amen.

After the priest has received the Precious Blood the server recites the Confiteor for those who wish to receive Communion. The priest gives the Absolution, and then lifting the sacred host says:

Behold the Lamb of God: behold Him who takes away the sins of the world.

Then he says three times:

Lord, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof; say but the word and my soul shall be healed.

Then he distributes Holy Communion to the faithful saying:

May the Body of our Lord Jesus Christ preserve you for eternal life. Amen.

He then washes his fingers saying:
Quod ore sumpsimus, Domine, pura mente capiamus; ut de corpore et sanguine Domini nostri Jesu Christi fiat nobis remedium sempiternum. Amen.

When the priest has purified and covered the chalice, he reads the Communion Antiphon.

At the end of the Postcommunion, the server replies: Amen

CONCLUSION

P. Dominus vobiscum.
S. Et cum spiritu tuo.
P. Ite, missa est.
S. Deo gratias.

When the Gloria has been omitted he says:

P. Benedicamus Domino.
S. Deo gratias.

In Masses for the dead he says:

P. Requiescant in pace.
S. Amen.

Bowing before the altar he says:

Placeat tibi sancta Trinitas obsequium servitutis meae; et praesta ut sacrificium, quod oculis tuae majestatis indignus obtuli tibi sit acceptabile, mihi-que, et omnibus pro quibus illud obtuli, sit te miserante propitiabile. Per Christum Dominum nostrum. Amen.
May we receive with a pure heart, O Lord, what we have received on our lips; so that of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ there may be made for us an everlasting healing. Amen.

When the priest has purified and covered the chalice, he reads the Communion Antiphon.

  S. Thanks be to God.
  In Masses for the dead he says:

- P. May they rest in peace.
  S. Amen.

  Bowing before the altar he says:

  May the performance of my homage be pleasing to You, O holy Trinity; and grant that the sacrifice which I, unworthy as I am, have offered up in the sight of Your majesty may be acceptable to You, and through Your mercy may it be an atonement for me and for all those for whom I have offered it: through Christ our Lord. Amen.
THE BLESSING

Benedictio Dei omnipotentis, Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus sancti, descendat super vos et maneat semper. S. Amen.

Turning towards the Gospel side of the altar he says:

_ P._ Dominus vobiscum. _S._ Et cum spiritu tuo.

_While signing himself, he says:_

THE LAST GOSPEL

THE BLESSING

May the blessing of almighty God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit descend upon you and remain with you always. S. Amen.

Turning towards the Gospel side of the altar he says:

P. The Lord be with you. S. And with your spirit.

While signing himself, he says:

P. The beginning of the holy gospel according to St. John.

S. Glory be to You, O Lord.

THE LAST GOSPEL

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God; and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things were made through Him, and without Him was made nothing that has been made. In Him was life, and the life was the light of men. And the light shines in the darkness; and the darkness grasped it not. There was a man, one sent from God, whose name was John. This man came as a witness, to bear witness concerning the Light, that all might believe through Him. He was not himself the Light, but was to bear witness to the Light. It was the true Light that enlightens every man who comes into this world. He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world knew Him not. He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. But to as many as received Him He gave the power of becoming sons of God; to those who believe in His name: who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. AND THE WORD WAS MADE FLESH, (Here all genuflect) and dwelt among us. And we saw His glory, the glory as of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and of truth. S. Thanks be to God.
PROPER PREFACES

No. 1. PREFACE OF THE NATIVITY

This Preface is said from Christmas Day to the Epiphany, and on the Feast of the Purification.

Vere lignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus. Quia per incarnati verbi mysterium, nova mentis nostrae oculis lux tuae claritatis influit: ut dum visibiliter Deum cognoscimus, per hunc in invisibilium amorem rapiamur. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 2. PREFACE OF THE EPIPHANY

The following Preface is said on the Feast of the Epiphany, January 6, until January 13.

Vere lignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus. Quia cum Unigenitus tuus in substantia nostrae mortalitatis apparuit, nova nos immortalitatis suae luce reparavit. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus hymnum gloriae tuae canimus sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 3. PREFACE FOR LENT

PROPER PREFACES

No. 1. PREFACE OF THE NATIVITY

This Preface is said from Christmas Day to the Epiphany, and on the Feast of the Purification.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. For by the mystery of the Word made flesh, a new ray of Your brightness has shone upon the eyes of our mind; so that seeing God in visible form we may be drawn by Him to the love of things unseen. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 2. PREFACE OF THE EPIPHANY

The following Preface is said from the Epiphany, January 6, until January 13.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Because when Your Only-begotten Son appeared in the substance of our mortal flesh He restored us by the new light of His own immortality. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 3. PREFACE FOR LENT

This Preface is said from Ash Wednesday through the Saturday before Passion Sunday, except on those Feasts which have a proper Preface.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Deus. Qui corporaliter jejunio vitia comprimis, mentem elevas, virtutes largiris et praemia, per Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem majestatem tuam laudant angeli, adorant dominationes, tremunt potestates; caeli caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admittit jubeas deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 4.

PREFACE OF THE PASSION AND CROSS

The following Preface is said from Passion Sunday till Holy Thursday inclusive, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface; and on the Feasts of our Lord, the Holy Cross and the Precious Blood.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Deus. Qui salutem humani generis in ligno crucis constituisti, ut unde mortis oriebatur, inde vita resurgeret: et qui in ligno vincebat, in ligno quoque vinceretur; per Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem majestatem tuam laudant angeli, adorant dominationes, tremunt potestates; caeli caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admittit jubeas deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 5. PREFACE FOR EASTER

This Preface is said from Holy Saturday till the Vigil of the Ascension, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface. In the Mass on Holy Saturday is said: in hac potissimum nocte; on Easter Sunday and during the Octave: in hoc potissimum die; and during Pâschal time: in hoc potissimum.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, te quidem Domine omni tempore, sed in hoc potissi-
You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. By bodily fasting You restrain our vices, lift up our minds, and give us virtue and reward, through Christ our Lord. Through whom the angels praise Your majesty, the dominations adore it, and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices also, while we say with humble praise: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 4.

PREFACE OF THE PASSION AND CROSS

The following Preface is said from Passion Sunday till Holy Thursday inclusive, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface; and on the Feasts of our Lord, the Holy Cross and the Precious Blood.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Who placed the salvation of mankind upon the tree of the cross, that whence came death, thence life might come; and He who overcame by the tree, on the tree also might be overcome; through Christ our Lord. Through whom angels praise Your majesty, the dominations adore it, and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices also, while we say with humble praise: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 5. PREFACE FOR EASTER

This Preface is said from Holy Saturday till the Vigil of the Ascension, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface. In the Mass on Holy Saturday is said: (more specially on this night); on Easter Sunday and during the Octave: (more especially on this day); and during Paschal time: (especially at this time).

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, to praise You, O Lord, at all times, but more especially mum die (vel in hoc potissimum) gloriosius praedicare, cum Pascha nostrum immolatus est Christus. Ipse enim verus est agnus, qui abstulit peccata mundi; qui mortem nostram moriendo destruxit, et vitam resurgendo reparavit. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, (p. 626).

No. 6. PREFACE OF THE ASCENSION
Said on Ascension Day through Friday before the Vigil of Pentecost, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus, per Christum Dominum nostrum. Qui post resurrectionem suam omnibus discipulis sui manifestus apparuit, et ipsis cernentibus est elevatus in caelum, ut nos divinitatis suae tribueret esse participes. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 7. PREFACE FOR PENTECOST
This is said on the Vigil, the Feast, and during the Octave. Also in Votive Masses of the Holy Spirit.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus, per Christum Dominum nostrum. Qui ascendens super omnes caelos, sedensque ad dexteram tuam, promissum Spiritum Sanctum (hodierna die) in filios adoptionis effudit. Quapropter profusis gaudiis totus in orbe terrarum mundus exsultat; sed et supernae virtutes, atque angelicae potestates hymnum gloriae tuae concinunt, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).
on this day (or at this time) when Christ our Pasch was sacrificed. For He is the true lamb that has taken away the sins of the world; who by dying destroyed our death and by rising again has restored our life. And therefore with the angels and archangels, the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 6. PREFACE OF THE ASCENSION

Said on Ascension Day through Friday before the Vigil of Pentecost, except on Feasts which have a proper Preface.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord. Who after His resurrection appeared openly to all His disciples, and in their sight ascended into heaven, to make us partakers of His divinity. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 7. PREFACE FOR PENTECOST

This is said on the Vigil, the Feast, and during the Octave. Also in Votive Masses of the Holy Spirit.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord. Who ascending above all the heavens and sitting at Your right hand sent down the promised Holy Spirit (this day) upon the children of adoption. Wherefore the whole world rejoices with exceeding great joy all the earth over; and the heavenly virtues with the angelic powers join in singing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).
No. 9. PREFACE OF THE SACRED HEART

Said on the Feast and in Votive Masses of the Sacred Heart.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Dei: Qui Unigenitum tuum in cruce pendentem lancea militis transfigi voluisti, ut apertum Cor, divinae largitatis sacrarium, torrentes nobis funderet miserationis et gratiae, et quod amore nostri flagrare numquam destitit, piis esset requies et paenitentibus pateret salutis refugium. Et ideo cum angelis et archangeliis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 10. PREFACE OF CHRIST THE KING

Said on the Feast and in Votive Masses of Christ the King.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Dei: qui Unigenitum Filium tuum Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum, sacerdotem aeternum et universorum regem, oleo exsultationis unxisti, ut se ipsum in ara crucis, hostiam immaculatam et pacificam offereas, redemptionis humanae sacramenta perageret: et suo subjectis imperio omnibus creaturis, aeternum et universale regnum, immensae tuae traderet majestati: regnum veritatis et vitae: regnum sanctitatis et gratiae: regnum justitiae, amoris et pacis. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, sanctus, etc. (p. 626).
No. 9. PREFACE OF THE SACRED HEART
Said on the Feast and in Votive Masses of the Sacred Heart.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Who willed that Your Only-begotten Son should be pierced by the soldier’s lance as He hung upon the cross: that from His opened Heart, as from a sanctuary of divine bounty, might be poured out upon us streams of mercy and grace; and that in His heart always burning with love for us, the devout may find a haven of rest and the penitent a refuge of salvation. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 10. PREFACE OF CHRIST THE KING
Said on the Feast and in Votive Masses of Christ the King.

It is truly fitting and just, right and helpful to salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; who anointed with the oil of gladness Your Only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, the eternal priest and universal king, that He might accomplish the mystery of man’s redemption by immolating Himself an unspotted sacrifice and peace-offering, on the altar of the cross; and having subjected all creatures to His dominion, might deliver up to Your infinite majesty an eternal and universal kingdom: a kingdom of truth and life; a kingdom of sanctification and grace; a kingdom of justice, love and peace. Therefore with the angels and archangels, the thrones and dominations, all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).
No. 11. PREFACE OF OUR BLESSED LADY

*Said on all feasts and Votive Masses in honor of Mary, except the Purification. On the Annunciation, Visitation, Assumption, Nativity, Presentation, and Immaculate Conception, the name of the feast is inserted in the Preface. On the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, the phrase “in commemorating” (commemoratione) is said instead of the name of the feast, and on Saturday and votive Masses, the phrase “in venerating” (veneratione).

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Deus. Et te in . . . beatae Mariae semper virginis exsultantibus animis laudare, benedicere, et praedicare. Quae et Unigenitum tuum Sancti Spiritus obumbratione concepit, et virginitatis gloria permanente, mundo lumen aeternum effudit, Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. Per quem majestatem tuam laudant angeli, adorant dominationes, tremunt potestates; caeli, caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admiti jubeas deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 12. PREFACE OF ST. JOSEPH

*It is said on all Feasts of St. Joseph and in Votive Masses.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternae Deus. Et te in festivitate beati Joseph debitis magnificare praeconiiis, benedicere et praedicare. Qui et vir justus, a te Deiparae virginis sponsus est datus, et fidelis servus ac prudens, super familiam tuam est constitutus, ut Unigenitum tuum Sancti Spiritus obumbratione conceptum, paterna vice custodiret, Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum. No. 11. PREFACE OF OUR BLESSED LADY

Said on all feasts and Votive Masses in honor of Mary, except the Purification. On the Annunciation, Visitation, Assumption, Nativity, Presentation, and Immaculate Conception, the name of the feast is inserted in the Preface. On the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, the phrase "in commemorating" (commemoratione) is said instead of the name of the feast, and on Saturday and votive Masses, the phrase "in venerating" (veneratione).

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give You thanks, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. And that we should with glad hearts praise, bless and glorify You on the . . . of the blessed Mary, ever a virgin. Who by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit conceived Your Only-begotten Son, and without losing the glory of her virginity gave to the world the eternal light, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through whom the angels praise Your majesty, the dominations adore it, and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices also, while we say with lowly praise: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 12. PREFACE OF ST. JOSEPH

It is said on all Feasts of St. Joseph and in Votive Masses.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give You thanks, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. And with due praises magnify, bless and glorify You on the feast of blessed Joseph. For he is the just man whom You gave as spouse to the virgin mother of God and who, a faithful and prudent servant, was set over Your family, that with fatherly care he might guard Your Only-begotten Son, who was conceived by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through whom the angels majestatem tuam laudant angeli, adorant dominationes, tremunt potestates; caeli caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelabrunt. Cum quibus et nostras voces, ut admitti jubeas, deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 13. PREFACE OF THE APOSTLES
Said on Feasts of the Apostles and Evangelists, except St. John, December 27.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, te Domine suppliciter exorare, ut gregem tuum pastor aeternus non deseras, sed per beatos apostolos tuos continua protectione custodias; ut iisdem rectoribus gubernetur, quos operis tui vicarios eidem contulisti praesesse pastores. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus; cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 14. PREFACE OF ST. DOMINIC
It is said on his Feasts and in Votive Masses.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeternus Deus. Qui in tuae sanctae ecclesiae decorem ac tutamen apostolicam vivendi formam per beatissimum patriarcham Dominicum, renovare voluisti. Ipse enim, genitricis Filii tui semper ope suffultus, praedicatione sua compescuit haereses, fidei pugiles gentium in saltem instituit, et innumeratas animas Christo lucifecit. Sapientiam ejus narrant populi, ejusque laudes nuntiat ecclesia. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).
praise Your majesty, the dominations adore it, and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices, while we say with humble praise: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 13. PREFACE OF THE APOSTLES

On Feasts of the Apostles and Evangelists, except December 27.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, humbly to beseech You, O Lord, the eternal shepherd, not to forsake Your flock, but through Your blessed apostles to keep a continual watch over it; that it may be governed by those same rulers, whom, as vicars of Your work, You have appointed to be shepherds over it. And therefore with the angels and archangels, the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 14. PREFACE OF ST. DOMINIC

It is said on his Feasts and in Votive Masses.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Who for the honor and defense of Your Church wished to revive through the blessed patriarch Dominic the apostolic form of life. For he, supported always by the power of Your Son's mother, overcame heresy by his preaching, established an order of champions of the faith for the salvation of the nations, and won innumerable souls for Christ. The nations speak of his wisdom, and the Church declares his praise. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

PREFACE OF ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

To be said on all Feasts of St. Thomas, and in Votive Masses.

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus. Qui beatum Thomam Doctorem, vitae innocentia et ingenii sublimitate vere angelicum, in Ecclesia tua suscitare voluisti, ut eam saluberrima et firmissima communret doctrina, et solis instar illustraret: cuius sapientiam, omnibus praecipue commendatum, totus admiratur orbis terrarum. Et ideo cum angelis et archangelis, cum thronis et dominationibus, cumque omni militia caelestis exercitus, hymnum gloriae tuae canimus, sine fine dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

No. 16. PREFACE OF OUR HOLY FATHER ST. FRANCIS

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus. Qui venerandum Confessorem famulum tuum beatum Franciscum, tua, Deus, altissima bonitate et clementia, Sanctorum tuorum meritis et virtutibus sublimasti. Mentemque ipsius, Sancti Spiritus operatione, amor ille Seraphicus ardentissime incendit interius; cuiusque corpus sacris Stigmatibus insignivit exteriorius, signo Crucifixi Jesu Christi Domini nostri. Per quern majestatem tuam laudant angeli, adorant dominationes, tremunt potestates; caeli, caelorumque virtutes, ac beata seraphim, socia exsultatione concelebrant. Cum quibus et nostras voces ut admitti jubeas deprecamur, supplici confessione dicentes: Sanctus, etc. (p. 626).

PREFACE OF ST. THOMAS AQUINAS

To be said on all Feasts of St. Thomas, and in Votive Masses.

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O Holy Lord, Father Almighty, eternal God. You have willed to raise up as a Doctor in Your Church the blessed Thomas, an Angel in purity of life and elevation of mind, who should everywhere establish sound and saving doctrine, and like a star, light up the Heavens, and whose wisdom, extolled by all, should win the admiration of the world. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

No. 16. PREFACE OF OUR HOLY FATHER ST. FRANCIS

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God. Who, by Your most high goodness and mercy, O God, through the merits and virtues of Your saints, have exalted Your servant the blessed Francis as a Confessor for our veneration. Whose mind, by the working of the Holy Spirit, inwardly enkindled most ardently that seraphic love; and marked his body outwardly with the holy stigmata, the sign of Jesus Christ Our Lord Crucified. Through whom the angels praise Your majesty, the dominations adore it, and the powers are in awe; the heavens and the virtues of heaven and the blessed seraphim celebrate it with united joy. With these we pray You join our voices also, while we say with humble praise: Holy, etc. (p. 627).
Hail Mary, full of grace, etc.

This is repeated a second and a third time.

Hail, holy Queen, mother of mercy, hail, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this vale of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us; and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let Us Pray.

O God, our refuge and our strength, look down in mercy on thy people who cry to thee; and by the intercession of the glorious and immaculate virgin Mary, mother of God, of St. Joseph her spouse, of thy blessed apostles Peter and Paul, and of all the saints, in mercy and goodness hear our prayers for the conversion of sinners, and for the liberty and exaltation of our holy mother the church. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Holy Michael archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray: and do thou, prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God thrust down to hell satan and all wicked spirits, who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Most sacred heart of Jesus, have mercy upon us.

This aspiration is repeated three times.
THE COMMON OF THE SAINTS

The Common of the Saints comprises Masses for all those Saints who have no special Mass assigned to them, or who have only prayers or lessons proper to them. The Gloria and the Credo are said according to the rank of the Feast, and the season of the year.

1. ON THE FEAST OF ONE MARTYR BISHOP: OUT OF PASCHAL TIME

Office. Ps. 63, 11. The just man shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him; and all the upright in heart shall be praised. V. Ps. 63, 2. Hear, O God, my prayer when I make supplication to You; deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Helped by the prayers of blessed N., Your martyr and bishop, may Your Church be glad, O Lord; and through his glorious intercession may she abide in loyalty and stand unshaken: through our Lord.

Epistle. James 1, 12-18. Dearly beloved: Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been tried, he will receive the crown of life which God has promised to those who love Him. Let no man say when he is tempted, that he is tempted by God; for God is no tempter to evil, and He Himself tempts no one. But everyone is tempted by being drawn away and en-

Epistola. Carissimi: Beatus vir qui suffert tentationem: quoniam cum probatus fuerit, accipiet coronam vitae, quam repromisit Deus diligentibus se. Nemo cum tentatur, dicat quoniam a Deo tentatur. Deus enim intentator malorum est, ipse autem neminem tentat. Unusquisque vero tentatur ticed by his own passion. Then when passion has conceived, it brings forth sin; but when sin has matured, it begets death. Therefore, my beloved brethren, do not err. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of Lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of alteration. Of His own will He has begotten us by the word of truth, that we might be, as it were, the first-fruits of His creatures.

Responsory. Ps. 20, 4.3. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. \( \checkmark \). You have given him his heart’s desire; and have not withheld from him the request of his lips.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \). Ps. 63, 11. The just shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him; and all the upright in heart shall be praised. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Ps. 111, 1-3. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. \( \checkmark \). His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. \( \checkmark \). Glory and wealth shall be in his house; and his justice remains forever and ever.

a concupiscentia sua abstractus et illectus. Deinde concupiscentia cum conceperit, parit peccatum. Peccatum vero cum consummatum fuerit, generat mortem. Nolite itaque errare fratres mei dilectissimi. Omne datum optimum, et omne donum perfectum desursum est, descendens a Patre luminum, apud quem non est transmutatio, nec vicissitudinis obumbratio. Voluntarie enim genuit nos verbo veritatis, ut simus initium aliquid creaturae ejus.

Responsorium. Posuisti Domine super caput ejus coronam de lapide pretioso. \( \checkmark \). Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei: et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum.

Alleluia, alleluia. \( \checkmark \). Laetabitur justus in Domino et sperabit in eo: et laudabuntur omnes recti corde. Alleluia.

Tractus. Beatus vir, qui timet Dominum: in mandatis ejus cupit nimis. \( \checkmark \). Potens in terra erit semen ejus: generatio rectorum benedicetur. \( \checkmark \). Gloria et divitiae in domo ejus: et justitia ejus manet in saeculum saeculi.
Gospel. Luke 14, 26-33. At that time, Jesus said to the crowds, "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father and mother, and wife and children, and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life, he cannot be My disciple. And he who does not carry his cross and follow Me, cannot be My disciple. For which of you, wishing to build a tower, does not sit down first and calculate the outlays that are necessary, whether he has the means to complete it? Lest, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish, all who behold begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish!' Or what king setting out to engage in battle with another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to meet him who with twenty thousand is coming against him? Or else, whilst the other is yet at a distance, he sends a delegation and asks the terms of peace. So, therefore, every one of you who does not renounce all that he possesses, cannot be My disciple."

Offertory. Ps. 20, 4.5. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones; he asked life of You, and You have given it to him. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus turbis: Si quis venit ad me, et non odi patrem suum, et matrem, et uxorem, et filios, et fratres, et sorores, adhuc autem et animam suam, non potest meus esse discipulus. Et qui non bajulat crucem suam, et venit post me, non potest meus esse discipulus. Quis enim ex vobis volens turrim aedificare, non prius sedens computat sumptus, qui necessarii sunt, si habeat ad perficiendum; ne, posteaquam posuerit fundamentum, et non potuerit perficere, omnes qui vident incipiant illudere ei, dicentes: Quia hic homo coepit aedificare, et non potuit consummare? Aut quis rex iturus committere bellum adversus alium regem, non sedens prius cogitaret, si possit cum decem millibus occurrere ei, qui cum viginti millibus venit ad se? Alioquin adhuc illo longe agente, legationem mittens, rogat ea quae pacis sunt. Sic ergo omnis ex vobis qui non renuntiat omnibus quae possidet, non potest meus esse discipulus.

Offertorium. Posuisti Domine in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso: vitam petiit a te et tribuisti ei.
Secret. Receive, O Lord, the gifts which we offer to You on this the feast day of him in whose patronage we put our trust of deliverance: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 20, 6. His glory is great in Your salvation; glory and great beauty shall You lay upon him, O Lord.

Postcommunion. You have nourished Your family with holy gifts, O Lord; quicken us, we pray You, through the constant help of him whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

2. ON THE SAME FEAST: AN ALTERNATIVE MASS

Office. Dan. 3. 84.87. You priests of the Lord, bless the Lord; you holy and humble of heart, praise God. ¥. All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord; praise and exalt Him above all forever. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast of blessed N. Your martyr and bishop, may be aided by his prayers to You: through our Lord.

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, munera, quae in ejus tibi solemnitate deferimus, cujus nos confidimus patrocinio liberari. Per Dominum.

Communio. Magna est gloria ejus in salutari tuo: gloriám et magnum decorem impones super eum, Domine.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beati N. martyris tui atque pontificis solemnia colimus, ejus apud te intercessionibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. 2 Cor. 1, 3-7. Brethren: Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our afflictions, that we also may be able to comfort those who are in any distress by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted by God. For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so also through Christ does our comfort abound. For whether we are afflicted, it is for your instruction and salvation; or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort; or whether we are exhorted, it is for your exhortation and salvation, which shows its efficacy in the endurance of the self-same sufferings that we also suffer. And our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so will you also be of the comfort, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory, Ps. 88, 21-23. I have found David My servant, with My holy oil I have anointed him; for My hand shall help him, and My arm shall strengthen him. The enemy shall have no advantage over him, and the son of iniquity shall not hurt him.

Alleluia, alleluia! 🙌 Ps. 20, 4. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Ps. 20, 3.4. You have given him his heart’s desire and have not withheld from him the request of his lips. 🙌 For You have prevented him with blessings of sweetness. 🙌 You have set on his head a crown of precious stones.

Gospel. Matt. 16, 24-27. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For he who would save his life will lose it; but he who loses his life for My sake will find it. For what does it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, but suffer the loss of his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of Man is to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will render to everyone according to his conduct.

Offertory. Ps. 8, 6. You have crowned him with glory and honor; and have set him over the works of Your hands, O Lord. 🙌 Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Alleluia, alleluia. 🙌 Posuisti Domine super caput ejus coronam de lapide pretioso. Alleluia.

Tractus. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei: et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum. 🙌 Quoniam praevenisti eum in benedictionibus dulcedinis. 🙌 Posuisti super caput ejus coronam de lapide pretioso.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Si quis vult post me venire, abneget semetipsum, et tollat crucem suam, et sequatur me. Qui enim voluerit animam suam salvam facere, perdet eam: qui autem perdiderit animam suam propter me, inveniet eam. Quid enim prodest homini, si mundum universum lucretur, animae vero suae detrimentum patiatur? Aut quam dabit homo commutationem pro anima sua? Filius enim hominis venturus est in gloria Patris sui cum angelis suis: et tunc reddet unicuique secundum opera ejus.

Offertorium. Gloria et honore coronasti eum: et constituiisti eum super opera manuum tuarum, Domine.
Secret. May this victim, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse our sins; may it hallow the bodies and souls of Your servants for the offering of this sacrifice: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 16, 24. He who wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking of this sacred gift, O Lord our God, we pray You that we may be sensible of its effects, through the intercession of blessed N., Your martyr and bishop, whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

3. ON THE SAME FEAST: IN PASCHAL TIME

Office. Ps. 63, 3. You have protected me, O God, from the assembly of the malignant, alleluia! from the multitude of the workers of iniquity, alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 63, 2. Hear, O God, my prayer, when I make supplication to You; deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast of blessed N., Your martyr and bishop, may be aided by his prayers to You: through our Lord.

Secreta. Haec hostia, quaesumus Domine, emundet nostra delicta: et ad sacrificium celebrandum, subditorum tibi corpora mentesque sanctificet. Per Dominum.

Communio. Qui vult venire post me, abneget semetipsum, et tollat crucem suam, et sequatur me.

Postcommunio. Refecti participatione muneris sacri, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut cujus exsequimur cultum, intercedente beato N., martyre tuo atque pontifice, sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beati N., martyris tui atque pontificis solemnia colimus, ejus apud te intercessionibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Wisd. 5, 1-4. The just one with great assurance shall stand before his oppressors who set at nought his labors. Seeing this, they shall be shaken with dreadful fear, and amazed at the unlooked-for salvation. They shall say among themselves, rueful and groaning through anguish of spirit: "These are they whom once we held as a laughingstock and as a type for mockery, fools that we were! Their life we deemed madness, and their death dishonored. See how they are accounted among the sons of God; how their lot is with the saints!"

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὁ. Ps. 91, 13. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall spread abroad like the cedar of Lebanon.

At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

 التطبيقاء. The good shepherd, who laid down his life for his sheep, and for his flock consented to die, has risen from the dead. Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

 التطبيقاء ᴃ. Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high led captivity captive; He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὁ. Justus ut palma florebit: sicut cedrus Libani multiplicabitur.

 التطبيقاء Ὁ. Surrexit pastor bonus, qui posuit animam suam pro ovibus suis, et pro suo grege mori dignatus est. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 15, 1-7. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “I am the true vine, and My Father is the vine-dresser. Every branch in Me that bears no fruit He will take away; and every branch that bears fruit He will cleanse, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it remain on the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in Him, he bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me, he shall be cast outside as the branch and wither; and they shall gather him up and cast him into the fire, and he shall burn. If you abide in Me, and if My words abide in you, ask whatever you will and it shall be done to you.

Offertory. Ps. 8, 6. You have crowned him with glory and honor; and have set him over the works of Your hands, O Lord, alleluia! Offertory prayers, p. 623.

For I have come to set a man at variance with his father, and a daughter with her mother, and a daughter-in-law with her mother-in-law; and a man’s enemies will be those of his own household. He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take up his cross and follow Me, is not worthy of Me. He who finds his life will lose it, and he who loses his life for My sake, will find it. He who receives you, receives Me; and he who receives Me, receives Him who sent Me. He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, shall receive a prophet’s reward; and he who receives a just man because he is a just man, shall receive a just man’s reward. And whoever gives to one of these little ones but a cup of cold water to drink because he is a disciple, amen I say to you, he shall not lose his reward."

Veni enim separare hominem adversus patrem suum; et filiam adversus matrem suam, et nurum adversus sororum suorum: et inimici hominis, domestici ejus. Qui amat patrem, aut matrem plus quam me, non est me dignus; et qui amat filium, aut filiam super me, non est me dignus; et qui non accipit crucem suam, et sequitur me, non est me dignus. Qui invenit animam suam, perdet illam: et qui perdiderit animam suam propter me, inveniet eam. Qui recipit vos, me recipit; et qui me recipit, recipit eum, qui me misit. Qui recipit prophetam in nomine prophetae, mercedem prophetae accipiet: et qui recipit justum in nomine justi, mercedem justi accipiet. Et quicumque potum dederit unius ex minimis istis calicem aquae frigidae tantum in nomine discipuli, amen dico vobis, non perdet mercedem suam.
Offertory. Ps. 20, 2-3. In Your strength, O Lord, the just man shall rejoice and in Your salvation he shall rejoice exceedingly; You have given him his heart’s desire. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Graciously accept, O Lord, the victim offered to You, through the merits of blessed N., Your martyr; and grant that it may be for us a never-failing support: through our Lord. Communion. Ps. 20, 6. His glory is great in Your salvation; glory and great beauty shall You lay upon him, O Lord.

Postcommunion. Having received these sacraments, O Lord, we beseech You, through the intercession of blessed N., Your martyr, to give kindly hearing to our prayers: through our Lord.

Offertorium. In virtute tua, Domine, laetabitur justus, et super salutare tuum exsultabit vehementer: desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei.

Communio. Magna est gloria ejus in salutari tuo: gloriam et magnum decorem impones super eum, Domine.

Postcommunio. Sumptis, Domine, sacramentis, quaesumus, ut intercedente beato N., martyre tuo, supplicationes nostras placatus intendas. Per Dominum.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast day of blessed N., Your martyr, may at his pleading be freed from all the ills that threaten us: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Tim. 2, 8-10; 3, 10-12. Dearly beloved: Remember that the Lord Jesus Christ rose from the dead and was descended from David; this is my gospel, in which I suffer even to bonds, as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound. This is why I bear all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with heavenly glory. But you have closely followed my doctrine, my conduct, my purpose, my faith, my long-suffering, my love, my patience, my persecutions, my afflictions; such as befall me at Antioch, Iconium and Lystra—such persecutions as I suffered, and out of them all the Lord delivered me. And all who want to live piously in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 91, 13. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow up like the cedar of Libanus.

Every branch in Me that bears no fruit He will take away; and every branch that bears fruit He will cleanse, that it may bear more fruit. You are already clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself unless it remain on the vine, so neither can you unless you abide in Me. I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in Me he shall be cast outside as the branch and wither; and they shall gather him up and cast him into the fire, and he shall burn. Epistle. Wisd. 10, 17-20. God gave the holy ones the recompense of their labors, conducted them by a wonderful road, and became a shelter for them by day and a starry flame by night. He took them across the Red Sea and brought them through the deep waters—but their enemies He overwhelmed, and cast them up from the bottom of the depths. Therefore the just despoiled the wicked; and they sang, O Lord, Your holy name and praised in unison Your conquering hand, O Lord our God.

Responsory. Ps. 78, 10.2. Revenge, O Lord, the blood of Your saints, which has been shed. They have given the dead bodies of Your servants, O Lord, as meat for the fowls of the air: the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui gloriosos martyres fortes in sua confessione cognovimus, pios apud te in nostra intercessione sentiamus. Per Dom.

At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "When you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified; these things must first come to pass, but the end will not be at once." Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be great earthquakes in various places, and pestilences and famines, and there will be terrors and great signs from heaven. But before all these things they will arrest you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons, dragging you before kings and governors for My name’s sake. It shall lead to your bearing witness. Resolve therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how you are to make your defense. For I myself will give you utterance and wisdom, which all your adversaries will not be able to resist or gainsay. But you will be delivered up by your parents and brothers and relatives and friends; and some of you they will put to death. And you will be hated by all for My name's sake; yet not a hair of your head shall perish. By your patience you will win your souls."

Epistle. Apoc. 19, 1-9. In those days: After these things I, John, heard as it were a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven, saying, "Alleluia! salvation and glory and power belong to our God. For true and just are His judgments, who has judged the great harlot who corrupted the earth with her fornication, and has avenged the blood of His servants at her hands.” And again they have said, “Alleluia! And the smoke of her goes up forever and ever!” And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, and they say, “Amen! Alleluia!” And a voice came forth from the throne, saying, “Praise our God, all you His servants, and you who fear Him, the small and the great!” And I heard as it were a voice of a great crowd, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunders, saying, “Alleluia! for the Lord, our God almighty, now reigns! Let us be glad and rejoice, and give glory to Him; for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His spouse has prepared herself. And she has been permitted to clothe herself in fine linen, shining, bright. For the fine linen is the just deeds of the saints.” And he said to me, “Write: Blessed are they who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb.”

Gospel. Matt. 24, 42-47. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Watch, for you do not know at what hour your Lord is to come. But of this be assured, that if the householder had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would certainly have watched, and not have let his house be broken into. Therefore you also must be ready, because at an hour that you do not expect, the Son of Man will come. Who, do you think, is the faithful and prudent servant whom his master has set over his household to give them their food in due time? Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, shall find so doing. Amen I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.”

Epistle. 2 Tim. 4, 1-8. Dearly beloved: I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead by His coming and by His kingdom, preach the word, be urgent in season, out of season; reprove, entreat, rebuke with all patience and teaching. For there will come a time when they will not endure the sound doctrine; but having itching ears, will heap up to themselves teachers according to their own lusts, and they will turn away their hearing from the truth and turn aside rather to fables. But be watchful in all things, bear with tribulation patiently, work as a preacher of the gospel, fulfill your ministry. Be sober. As for me, I am already being poured out in sacrifice, and the time of my deliverance is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. For the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord, the just Judge, will give to me in that day; yet not to me only, but also to those who love His coming.

salt loses its strength, what shall it be salted with? It is no longer of any use but to be thrown out and trodden underfoot by men. You are the light of the world. A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden. Neither do men light a lamp and put it under the measure, but upon the lamp-stand, so as to give light to all in the house. Even so let your light shine before men, in order that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I have not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For amen I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, not one jot or one tittle shall be lost from the Law, till all things have been accomplished. Gospel. Matt. 13, 44-52. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to His disciples: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field; he who finds it hides it, and in his joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. When he finds a single pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net cast into the sea that gathered in fish of every kind. When it was filled, they hauled it out, and sitting down on the beach, they gathered the good fish into vessels, but threw away the bad. So will it be at the end of the world. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from among the just, and will cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things?” They said to Him, “Yes.” And He said to them, “So then, every Scribe instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings forth from his storeroom things new and old.”

destruction, from the scourge of a slanderous tongue, and from lips that went over to falsehood; and in the sight of those who stood by You have been my helper. And You have delivered me, according to the multitude of the mercy of Your name, from those who did roar, prepared to devour; from the power of those who sought my life, and from the gates of afflictions which compassed me about; from the oppression of the flames which hemmed me in on every side, and in the midst of the fire I was not burnt; from the deep belly of the nether world, and from an unclean tongue, and from lying words, from an unjust king, and from dishonest tongues. My soul shall praise the Lord even to death; because You, O Lord our God, save those who take refuge in You, and rescue them out of the hands of the nations.

Gospel. Matt. 25, 1-13. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to His disciples: “Then will the kingdom of heaven be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went forth to meet the bridegroom and the bride. Five of them were foolish and five wise. But the five foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, while the wise did take oil in their vessels with the lamps. Then as the bridegroom was long in coming, they all became drowsy and slept. And at midnight a cry arose, ‘Behold, the bridegroom is coming, go forth to meet him!' Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' The wise answered, saying, 'Lest there may not be enough for us and for you, go rather to those who sell it, and buy some for yourselves.' Now while they were gone to buy it, the bridegroom came; and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. Finally there came also the other virgins, who said, 'Sir, sir, open the door for us!' But he answered and said, 'Amen I say to you, I do not know you.' Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Epistle. 1 Cor. 7, 25-34. Brethren: Concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I give an opinion, as one having obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. I think, then, that this is good on account of the present distress—that it is good for a man to remain as he is. Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be freed. Are you freed from a wife? Do not seek a wife. But if you take a wife, you have not sinned. And if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have tribulation of the flesh. But I spare you that. But this I say, brethren, the time is short; it remains that those who have wives be as if they had none; and those who weep, as though not weeping; and those who rejoice, as though not rejoicing; and those who buy, as though not possessing; and those who use this world, as though not using it, for this world as we see it is passing away. I would have you free from care. He who is unmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please God. Whereas he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife; and he is divided. And the unmarried woman, and the virgin, thinks about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy in body and in spirit, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel. Matt. 13, 44-52. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to His disciples: “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field; he who finds it hides it, and in his joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. When he finds a single pearl of great price, he goes and sells all that he has and buys it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net cast into the sea that gathered in fish of every kind. When it was filled, they hauled it out, and sitting down on the beach, they gathered the good fish into vessels, but threw away the bad. So will it be at the end of the world. The angels will go out and separate the wicked from among the just, and will cast them into the furnace of fire, where there will be the weeping, and the gnashing of teeth. Have you understood all these things?” They said to Him, “Yes.” And He said to them, “So then, every Scribe instructed in the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings forth from his storeroom things new and old.”

Epistle. Prov. 31, 10-31. When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and makes cloth with skillful hands. Like merchant ships, she secures her provisions from afar. She rises while it is still night, and distributes food to her household. She picks out a field to purchase; out of her earnings she plants a vineyard. She is girt about with strength, and sturdy are her arms. She enjoys the success of her dealings; at night her lamp is undimmed. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. She fears not the snow for her household; all her charges are doubly clothed. She makes her own coverlets; fine linen and purple are her clothing. Her husband is prominent at the city gates as he sits with the elders of the land. She makes garments and sells them, and stocks the merchants with belts. She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs at the days to come.

She opens her mouth in wisdom, and on her tongue is kindly counsel. She watches the conduct of her household, and eats not her food in idleness. Her children rise up and praise her; her husband, too, extols her: "Many are the women of proven worth, but you have excelled them all." Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her a reward of her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Epistle. Rom. 10, 10-18. Brethren: With the heart a man believes unto justice, and with the mouth profession of faith is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in Him shall not be disappointed.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for there is the same Lord of all, rich toward all who call upon Him. “For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” How then are they to call upon Him in whom they have not believed? But how are they to believe Him whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear, if no one preaches? And how are men to preach unless they be sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace; of those who bring glad tidings of good things!” But all did not obey the gospel. For Isaias says, “Lord, who has believed our report?” Faith, then, depends on hearing, and hearing on the word of Matt. 4, 18-22. At that time, as Jesus was walking by the sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea (for they were fishermen). And He said to them, “Come, follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” And at once they left the nets, and followed Him. And going farther on, He saw two other brothers, James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, in a boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and He called them. And immediately they left their nets and their father, and followed Him.

Creed, p. 621.

Responsorium. Constitues eos principes super omnem terram: memores erunt nominis tui, Domine. Ὑ. Pro patribus tuis sunt tibi filii: propterea populi confitebuntur tibi.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὑ. Dilexit Andream Dominus in odorem suavitatis. Alleluia.

Offertory. Ps. 138, 17. To me Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, let the holy prayer of the blessed apostle Andrew commend our sacrifice to You; that by the merits of him in whose honor it is solemnly offered, it may become acceptable: through our Lord. Preface: No. 13, p. 657.

Communion. Matt. 4, 19-20. “Come, follow Me, I will make you fishers of men”: and at once they left the nets and followed the Lord.

Postcommunion. We have received with joy, O Lord, the divine mysteries on the feast of the blessed Andrew; even as they conduce to the glory of Your saints, so, we pray You to make them avail to our pardon: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Mihi autem nimis honorati sunt amici tui, Deus: nimis confortatus est principatus eorum.

Secreta. Sacrificium nostrum tibi, Domine quaesumus, beati Andreae apostoli precatio sancta conciliet; ut in cujus honore solemniter exhibetur, ejus meritis efficiatur acceptum. Per Dominum.

Communio. Venite post me, faciam vos fieri piscatores hominum: at illi continuo relictis retibus, seuti sunt Dominum.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, divina mysteria, beati Andreeae festivitate laetantes: quae sicut tuis sanctis ad gloriam, ita nobis quaesumus, ad veniam prodesse perficias. Per Dominum.
PROPER OF THE SAINTS

THE FEASTS IN DECEMBER

Dec. 1—BL. JOHN OF VERCELLI, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, with the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who willed that blessed John should shine with wondrous wisdom and strength; grant through his intercession, that Your family may always and everywhere be governed by salutary rule: through our Lord.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, by the gifts we offer; and at the pleading of blessed John, mercifully stretch forth Your right hand in aid of Your Church, that all adversaries and all errors being crushed, she may be gladdened by oneness of faith and fullness of peace: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by this sacred banquet, O Lord, we offer to You our thanks, humbly beseeching Your mercy that through the merits and prayers of blessed John we, being loosed from the bonds of sin, may walk onward towards our home in heaven along the paths of perfection: through our Lord.

Dec. 2—ST. BIBIANA, V.M.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Joannem mirabili prudentia et fortitudine clarescere voluisti; ipso interveniente, concede ut familia tua semper et ubique salubri regimi ne gubernetur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Sacris dapibus refecti, tibi Domine gratias persolvimus; tuam misericordiam deprecantes, ut meritis et intercessione beati Joannis a peccatorum nexibus absoluti, ad caelestem patriam per semitas perfectionis contendamus. Per Dominum.
Office. Ps. 36, 30.31. The mouth of the just man shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment; the law of his God is in his heart. Ps. 36, 2. Be not emulous of evildoers, nor envy those who work iniquity.

Collect. O God, You were pleased to add to Your Church the people of the Indies through the preaching and miracles of blessed Francis; mercifully grant that even as we venerate his glorious merits we may imitate the example of his virtues: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 91, 13.14. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon in the house of the Lord. To show forth Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth in the night.

Alleluia, alleluia! James 1, 12. Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been tried he will receive the crown of life. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 16, 15-18. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Go into the whole world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. And these signs shall attend those who believe: in My name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak in new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands upon the sick and they shall get well."

Offertory. Ps. 88, 25. My truth and my mercy shall be with him, and in my name shall his horn be exalted.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your Saints, be pleasing to You, and may likewise cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is the servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen, I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly food, may, through the intercession of blessed Francis, Your confessor, be shielded from all ills: through our Lord.
Dec. 4—ST. PETER CHRYSOLOGUS, B.C.D.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, You did choose the illustrious doctor Peter Chrysologus, and divinely point him out to rule and teach Your Church; grant, we beseech You, that we may have him for our advocate in heaven, who on earth taught us the way of life: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BARBARA, V.M.

Collect. Graciously hear us, O God of our salvation, that even as the feast of the blessed Barbara Your virgin and martyr makes us happier, so the fruit of her holy devotion may make us wiser: through our Lord.

Secret. May the holy prayer of Saint Peter Chrysologus, Your bishop and doctor, never fail us, O Lord; may it make our gifts acceptable and gain for us Your pardon: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BARBARA

Secret. May this offering of Your people be accepted by You, O Lord, for the honor of those Your saints through whose merits they are sensible of having received help in their tribulations: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Petrum Chrysologum, doctorem egregium, divinitus praemonstratum, ad regendam et instruendam ecclesiam tuam elegi voluisti; praesta, quaesumus, ut quem doctorem vitae habuimus in terris, intercessorem habere mereamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Exaudi nos, Deus salutaris noster, ut sicut de beatae Barbarae, virginis et martyris tuae, festivitate gaudemus, ita piae devotionis erudiamur affectu. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sancti Petri Chrysologi pontificis tui atque doctoris nobis, Domine, pia non desit oratio: quae et munera nostra conciliet et tuam nobis indulgentiam semper obtineat. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Accepta tibi sit, Domine, sacraeae plebis oblatio pro tuorum honore sanctorum, quorum se meritis de tribulatione percepisse cognoscit auxilium. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. That Your sacrifices may bring us salvation, O Lord, we beseech You that blessed Peter Chrysologus, Your bishop and worthy doctor, may be our advocate before You: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BARBARA

Postcommunion. You have fed Your family with sacred gifts, O Lord; refresh us always, we pray You, by the intercession of her whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

Dec. 6—ST. NICHOLAS, B.C.

Office. Ecclus. 45, 30. The Lord made a covenant of peace with him, and made him a prince, that the dignity of priesthood should be his forever. ∨. Ps. 88, 2. The mercies of the Lord I will sing forever. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You adorned blessed bishop Nicholas with countless miracles; grant, we beseech You, that through his merits and prayers we may be delivered from the flames of hell: through our Lord.

Epistle. Heb. 13, 7-17. Brethren: Remember your superiors, who spoke to you the word of God. Consider Postcommunion. Satiasti, Domine, familiam tuam munificentiam sacris; ejus, quaesumus, semper interventione nos refove, cujus solemnia celebramus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Nicolaum pontificem innumeris decorasti miraculis; tribue quaesumus, ut ejus meritis et precibus, a gehennae incendiis liberemur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Mementote praepositorum vestrorum, qui vobis locuti sunt verbum Dei; quorum intuentes exitum how they ended their lives, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same, yesterday and today, yes, and forever. Do not be led away by various and strange doctrines. For it is good to make steadfast the heart by grace, not by foods, in which those who walked found no profit. We have an altar, from which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the Holies by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp; and so Jesus also, that He might sanctify the people by His blood, suffered outside the gate. Let us therefore go forth to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach; for here we have no permanent city, but we seek for the city that is to come. Through Him, therefore, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise always to God, that is, fruit of lips praising His name. And do not forget kindness and charity, for by such sacrifices God's favor is obtained. Obey your superiors and be subject to them, for they keep watch as having to render an account of your souls.

Responsorium. Ecclus. 44, 16.20. Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God. \( \checkmark \). There was not found one like him, that kept the law of the Most High.

Alleluia, alleluia. \( \checkmark \). Osee 14, 6. The just man shall spring as the lily, and flourish forever before the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel, p. 695.

Offertory. Ps. 91, 13. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify, we beseech You, O Lord, these gifts that we offer on the feast of Your holy bishop Nicholas; that our life may thereby be guided everywhere through sorrows and joys: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is the servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen, I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

Postcommunion. May the sacrifice we have received, O Lord, on this feast day of Nicholas, Your holy bishop, strengthen us by its never failing protection: through our Lord.

Responsorium. Ecce sacerdos magnus, qui in diebus suis placuit Deo. \( \checkmark \). Non est inventus similis illi, qui conservaret legem Excelsi.

Alleluia, alleluia. \( \checkmark \). Justus germinabit sicut lilium, et florebit in aeternum ante Dominum. Alleluia.

Evangelium, p. 695.

Secreta. Sanctifica, quae sumus Domine Deus, haec munera, quae in solemnitate sancti antistitis tui Nicolai offerimus; ut per ea, vita nostra inter adversa et prospera ubique dirigatur. Per Dominum.

Communio. Beatus servus, quem cum venerit dominus, invenerit vigilantem: amen dico vobis, super omnia bona sua constituet eum.

Postcommunio. Sacrificia, quae sumpsimus, Domine, pro solemnitate sancti pontificis tui Nicolai, sempiterna nos protectione confirment. Per Dominum.
Dec. 7—ST. AMBROSE, B.C.D.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following prayers:

Office. Ecclus. 45, 30. The Lord made a covenant of peace with him, and made him a prince; that the dignity of priesthood should be his forever. Ps. 88, 2. The mercies of the Lord I will sing forever. Glory.

Responsory. Ecclus. 44, 16. Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God. ¥. There was not found any like him, who kept the law of the Most High.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¥. Ps. 88, 20. I have laid help upon one that is mighty, and have exalted one chosen out of my people. Alleluia!

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent servant whom the master will set over his household to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Dec. 8—THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

B.V.M.

Office. I will greatly rejoice in the Lord, and my soul shall be joyful in my God, for He has clothed me with the garments of salvation, and with the robe of justice Responsorium. Ecce sacerdos magnus, qui in diebus suis placuit Deo. ¥. Non est inventus similis illi, qui conservaret legem Excelsi.

Communio. Fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit dominus super familiam suam, ut det illis in tempore tritici mensuram.

Officium. Gaudens gaudebo in Domino, et exsultabit anima mea in Deo meo: quia induit me vestimentis salutis et indumento justitiae circumdedit me, quasi sponsam
He has covered me, as a bride adorned with her jewels.

Ps. 29, 2. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have upheld me, and have not made my enemies rejoice over me. Glory.

Collect. O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the virgin prepared a fitting abode for Your Son; we beseech You, who did keep her from all stain by the foreseen death of that same Son, to grant to us, at her pleading, to come without spot to You: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Prov. 8, 22-35. The Lord begot me, the first-born of His ways, the forerunner of His prodigies of long ago; from of old I was poured forth, at the first, before the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no fountains or springs of water; before the mountains were settled into place, before the hills, I was brought forth; while as yet the earth and the fields were not made, nor the first clods of the world. When He established the heavens I was there, when He marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when He made firm the skies above, and poised the fountains of waters; when He set for the sea ornatum monilibus suis. Ps. Exaltabo te, Domine quoniam suscepisti me: nec delectasti inimicos meos super me. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, qui per immaculatam virginis conceptionem dignum Filio tuo habitaculum praeparasti; quaesumus, ut qui ex morte ejusdem Filii tui praevisa eam ab omni labe praevasisti, nos quoque mundos ejus intercessione ad te pervenire concedas. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. Dominus possedit me in initio viarum suarum, antequam quidquam faceret a principio. Ab aeterno ordinata sum, et ex antiquis antequam terra fieret. Nondum erant abyssi, et ego jam concepta eram; necdum fontes aquarum eruperant; necdum montes gravi mole constiterant: ante colles ego parturiebar. Adhuc terram non fecerat, et flumina, et cardines orbis terrae. Quando praeparabat caelos, aderam; quando certa lege, et gyro vallabat abyssos; quando aethera firmabat sursum, et librabat fontes aquarum; quando circumdabat mari terminum suum, et its limit, so that the waters should not transgress His command; when He fixed fast the foundations of the earth; then was I beside Him as His craftsman, and I was His delight day by day, playing before Him all the while, playing on the surface of His earth and I found delight in the sons of men. So now, O children, listen to me; happy those who keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not. Happy the man who obeys me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at my doorposts; for he who finds me finds life, and wins favor from the Lord.

Responsory. Judith 13, 23. Blessed are you, O virgin Mary, by the Lord the most high God, above all women upon the earth. \textit{V.} You are the glory of Jerusalem, you are the joy of Israel, you are the honor of our people. Alleluia, alleluia! \textit{V.} Cant. 4, 7. You are all fair, O Mary, and there is in you no stain of original sin. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 1, 26-28. At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And when the angel had come to her, he said, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women."

Offertory. Luke 1, 28. Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, alleluia!

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the saving victim we offer to You on this the solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the blessed virgin Mary; and grant that as we confess she was, by Your preventing grace, preserved from all stain, so may we, through her intercession, be freed from all our sins: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Glorious things are told of you, O Mary, for He who is mighty has done great things to you.

Postcommunion. May this sacrament we have received, O Lord our God, heal in us the wounds of that sin from which You by a singular grace, kept unspotted the conception of blessed Mary: through our Lord.
In Votive Masses during Septuagesima, Alleluia is omitted and the following said:

Tract. Ps. 86, 2-3.5. The foundations thereof are in the holy mountains; the Lord loves the gates of Sion above all the tabernacles of Jacob. Æ. Glorious things are said of you, O city of God. Æ. A man is born in her, and the Highest Himself has founded her.

The Responsory is omitted in Paschal Time, and the following said:

Alleluia, alleluia! Æ. Judith 15, 10. You are the glory of Jerusalem, you are the joy of Israel, you are the honor of our people.

Alleluia. Æ. Cant. 4. You are all fair, O Mary, and the stain of original sin is not in you. Alleluia!

Dec. 13—ST. LUCY, V.M.

Mass: No. 19, p. 724, except the following. Add the words “and martyr” (et martyrnis) in the Collect. Epistle, p. 722.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 8. You have loved justice and hated iniquity. Æ. Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness.

Tractus. Fundamenta ejus in montibus sanctis: dilegit Dominus portas Sion super omnia tabernacula Jacob. Æ. Gloriosa dicta sunt de te, civitas Dei. Æ. Homo natus est in ea: et ipse fundavit eam Altissimus.

Alleluia, alleluia. Æ. Tu gloria Jerusalem, tu laetitia Israel, tu honorificentia populi nostri.

Alleluia. Æ. Tota pulchra es Maria, et macula originalis non est in te. Alleluia.

Responsorium. Dilexisti justitiam et odisti iniquitatem. Æ. Propterea unxit te Deus, Deus tuus oleo laetitiae.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. 2 Cor. 11. For I am jealous of you with the jealousy of God; I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 44, 15.16. After her shall virgins be brought to the King; her neighbors shall be brought to You with gladness and rejoicing; they shall be brought into the temple to the King our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 44, Grace is poured abroad in your lips; therefore God has blessed you forever.

Dec. 16—BL. SEBASTIAN MAGGI, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, You made blessed Sebastian, Your confessor, wonderful for his singular zeal in the practice of regular discipline and evangelical perfection; mercifully grant that following his example we may be mortified in flesh yet quickened in spirit, and so attain to everlasting rewards: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Afferentur regi virgines post eam; proximae ejus afferentur tibi in laetitia et exsultatione: adducentur in templum regi Domino.

Communio. Diffusa est gratia in labiis tuis: propterea benedixit te Deus in aeternum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Sebastianum confessorem tuum regularis disciplinae, et evangelicae perfectionis singulari studio mirabilem effecisti; concede propitius, ut ejus imitatione carne mortificati et vivificati spiritu, aeterna praemia consequamur. Per Dominum.
Dec. 20—ST. DOMINIC OF SILOS, AB.

Mass: No. 15, p. 710, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, You have adorned Your Church with the conspicuous merits of the life of the blessed Dominic, Your confessor, and have gladdened her by his wonderful miracles in freeing captives; grant to us Your servants that we may be taught by his example, and freed by his help from all the slavery of sin: through our Lord.

Dec. 21—ST. THOMAS, AP.

Office. Ps. 138, 17. To me Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. Ps. 138, 1-2. Lord, You have proved me, and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, O Lord, we beseech You, that we may glory in the feast of blessed Thomas Your apostle; so that we may be ever uplifted by his aid and, with fitting earnestness, follow after his faith: through, etc.

In Advent, Memory of the Feria.

Epistle. Eph. 2, 19-22. Brethren: You are now no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are citizens

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiam tuam beati Dominici confessoris tuui praecelaris vitae meritis decorasti, et in liberandis captivis, gloriosis laetificasti miraculis; concede nobis famulis tuis, ut et ipsius instruamur exemplis, et ab omni vitiorum servitute ejus patrocinio liberemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da nobis, quaeumus Domine, beati apostoli tui Thomae solemnitatibus gloriari; ut ejus semper et patrocinii sublevemur, et fidem congrua devotione sectemur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Jam non estis hospites, et advenae: sed estis cives sanctorum, et domestici Dei: superaedificati with the saints and members of God’s household: you are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets with Christ Jesus Himself as the chief corner stone. In Him the whole structure is closely fitted together and grows into a temple holy in the Lord, in Him you too are being built together into a dwelling place for God in the Spirit.

Responsory. Ps. 18, 5.2. Their sound went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. ὑ. The heavens show forth the glory of God, and the firmament declares the work of His hands.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὑ. Ps. 138, 17. Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 20, 24-29. At that time, Thomas, one of the Twelve, called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him, “We have seen the Lord.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe.” And after eight days, His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being closed, and stood in their

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Thomas unus ex duodecim, qui dicitur Didymus, non erat cum eis quando venit Jesus. Dixerunt ergo ei alii discipuli: Vidimus Dominum. Ille autem dixit eis: Nisi videro in manibus ejus fixuram clavorum, et mittam digitum meum in locum clavorum, et mittam manum meam in latus ejus, non credam. Et post dies octo, iterum erant discipuli ejus intus; et Thomas cum eis. Venit Jesus, januis clausis, et stetit in medio, et dixit: midst, and said, "Peace be to you!" Then He said to Thomas, "Bring here your finger, and see My hands; and bring here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing." Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen Me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are they who have not seen, and yet have believed."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 44, 17.18. You shall make them princes over all the earth; they shall remember Your name, O Lord, throughout all generations.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We render to You, O Lord, the homage of our service, humbly beseeching You that through the prayers of blessed Thomas, Your apostle—in commemoration of whose glorious confession we offer to You this sacrifice of praise—You would preserve in us Your own gifts: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 13, p. 657.

Communion. John 20, 27. Put your hand and know the place of the nails; and be not unbelieving but believing.

Offertorium. Constitues eos principes super omnem terram: memores erunt nominis tui, Domine, in omni progenie et generatione.

Secreta. Debitum tibi, Domine, nostrae reddimus servitutis, suppliciter exorantes, ut suffragis beati Thomae apostoli, in nobis tua munera tuearis, cujus honoranda confessione, laudis tibi hostias immolamus. Per Dominum.

Communio. Mitte manum tuam, et cognosce loca clavorum: et noli esse incredulus, sed fidelis.
Postcommunion. Be near to us, O merciful God, and because of the intercession of blessed Thomas, Your apostle, in our behalf, mercifully preserve in us the gifts You have bestowed upon us: through our Lord.

Dec. 22—PATRONAGE OF OUR LADY
Mass: as on Our Lady of the Snow, Aug. 5, p. 1054, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God who for the salvation of souls placed the Order of Preachers under the special protection of the most blessed virgin Mary, and was pleased to pour out upon it her constant benefits; grant to Your suppliants, that we may be led to the joy of heaven, through the aid of that same protectress whose memory we revere today: through our Lord.

Dec. 23—BL. MARGARET OF SAVOY, W.O.P.
Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who taught the blessed Margaret to forsake with all her heart the pomps of this world for the humble following of the cross; grant that by her merits and example we may learn to tread under foot the perishable delights of the world, and in the embrace of Your cross to overcome all our foes: who live and reign.

Dec. 26—ST. STEPHEN, THE FIRST MARTYR

Office. Ps. 118, 23.86.23. Princes sat, and spoke against me, and the wicked persecuted me; help me, O Lord my God, for Your servant has followed Your commandments. V. Ps. 118, 1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way; who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant us, we beseech You O Lord, to imitate what we praise, that we may learn to love even our enemies; since we are keeping his feast who could pray even for his persecutors, our Lord Jesus Christ. Memory of the Nativity, p. 39.

Epistle. Acts. 6, 8-10; 7, 54-60. In those days, Stephen, full of grace and power, was working great wonders and signs among the people. But there arose some from the synagogue which is called that of the Freedmen, and of the Cyrenians and of the Alexandrians and of those from Cilicia and the province of Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able... to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit who spoke. Now as they heard these things, they were cut to the heart and gnashed their teeth at him. But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up to heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God; and he said, “Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.” But they cried out with a loud voice and stopped their ears and rushed upon him all together. And they cast him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul. And while they were stoning Stephen he prayed and said, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” And falling on his knees, he cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Lord, do not lay this sin against them.” And with these words he fell asleep in the Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 118, 23. Help me, O Lord my God; save me for Your mercy’s sake.

Responsorium. Sederunt principes, et adversum me loquebantur, et iniqui persecuti sunt me. Ps. Adjuga me Domine Deus meus: salvum me fac propter misericordiam tuam, et no statuas illis hoc peccatum.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὕ. Acts. 7, 56. I see the heavens opened, and Jesus standing at the right hand of the power of God. Sequence, p. 42.

Gospel. Matt. 23, 34-39. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "Behold, I send you prophets, and wise men, and scribes; and some of them you will put to death, and crucify, and some you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from town to town; that upon you may come all the just blood that has been shed on the earth, from the blood of Abel the just unto the blood of Zacharias the son of Barachias, whom you killed between the temple and the altar. Amen I say to you, all these things will come upon this generation. Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You who kill the prophets, and stone those who are sent to You! How often would I have gathered your children together, as a hen gathers her young under her wings, but you would not! Behold, your house is left to you desolate. For I say to you, you shall not see Me henceforth until you shall say, 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!'"

Creed, p. 621.
Offertory. Ps. 20, 2-3. In Your strength, O Lord, the just man shall rejoice, and in Your salvation he shall exult exceedingly; You have given him his heart's desire. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, our offerings in memory of Your saints; that even as sufferings made them glorious, so devotion may make us sinless: through our Lord. Memory of the Nativity, p. 44. Preface No. 1, p. 647.

Communion. Acts 7, 56.59.60. I see the heavens opened, and Jesus standing on the right hand of the power of God: Lord Jesus, receive my spirit, and do not lay this sin against them.

Postcommunion. May the mysteries we have received help us, O Lord, and at the intercession of Your blessed martyr, Stephen, strengthen us with everlasting defence: through our Lord. Memory of the Nativity, p. 43.

Offertorium. In virtute tua, Domine, laetabitur justus, et super salutare tuum exsultabit vehementer: desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei.

 Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

 Collect. Mercifully enlighten Your Church, O Lord, that being illumined by the teaching of John, Your blessed apostle and evangelist, she may lay hold on everlasting blessings: through our Lord.

 Epistle. Ecclus. 15, 1-6. He who fears God will do good; he who is practiced in the Law will come to wisdom. Like an honorable mother she will meet him, nourish him with the bread of life and understanding, and give him the water of learning to drink. She will be made strong in him, and he shall not be moved; she will hold him fast, and he shall not be put to shame. She will exalt him above his fellows; in the midst of the assembly she will open his mouth, and will fill him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding, and will clothe him with a robe of glory. The Lord our God will heap upon him a treasure of joy and gladness, and will cause him to inherit an everlasting name.

Dec. 28—THE HOLY INNOCENTS, MM.

Office. Ps. 8, 3. Out of the mouth of infants and of sucklings, O God, You have perfected praise because of Your enemies. Ὡ. Ps. 8, 2. O Lord, our Lord, how admirable is Your name in the whole earth. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, whom these innocent martyrs praised this day not by speaking but by dying, put to death all the wickedness of vice within us; that the faith we confess by our tongue we may also profess by our deeds and life: through our Lord.

Memory of the Nativity, p. 39.

Epistle. Apoc. 14, 1-5. In those days, I saw the Lamb standing upon Mount Sion, and with Him a hundred and forty-four thousand having His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven like a voice of many waters, and like a voice of loud thunder; and the voice that I heard was as of harpers playing on their harps. And they were singing as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders; and no one could learn the song except those hundred and forty-four thousand, who have been purchased from the earth. These are they who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These follow the Lamb wherever He goes. These were purchased from among men, first-fruit unto God and unto the Lamb, and in their mouth there was found no lie; for they are without blemish before the throne of God.

Responsory. Ps. 123, 7-8. Our soul has been delivered, as a sparrow, out of the snare of the fowlers.

The snare is broken, and we are delivered; our help is in the name of the Lord, who has made heaven and earth.

Gospel. Matt. 2, 13-18. At that time, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph, saying, "Arise, and take the Child and His mother, and flee into Egypt, and remain there until I tell you. For Herod will seek the Child to destroy Him." So he arose and took the Child and His mother by night, and withdrew into Egypt, and remained there until the death of Herod; that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled, "Out of Egypt I called My Son." Then Herod, seeing that he had been tricked by the Magi, was exceedingly angry; and he sent and slew all the boys in Bethlehem and all its neighborhood who were two years old or under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the Magi. Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremias the prophet, "A voice was heard in Rama, weeping and loud lamentation; Rachel weeping for her children, and she would not be comforted, because they are no more." Cr.p.621.

Dec. 29—ST. THOMAS, B.M.

Office. Ps. 63, 11.2. The just man shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him, and all the upright in heart shall be praised. Ps. 63, 2. Hear, O God, my prayer, when I make supplication to You; deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Communio. Vox in Rama audita est, ploratus et ululatus: Rachel plorans filios suos, et noluit consolari, quia non sunt.

Collect. O God, for whose Church the glorious bishop Thomas fell by the swords of wicked men, grant, we beseech You, that all who ask his help, may obtain the salutary fruit of their asking: through our Lord.

Memory of the Nativity, p. 39.

Epistle. Heb. 5, 1-6. Brethren: Every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in the things pertaining to God, that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to have compassion on the ignorant and erring, because he himself also is beset with weakness, and by reason thereof is obliged to offer for sins, as on behalf of the people, so also for himself. And no man takes the honor to himself; he takes it who is called by God, as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify Himself with the high priesthood, but He who spoke to Him, “You are My Son, I this day have begotten You.” As He says also in another place, “You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchisedech.”

Responsory. Ps. 20, 4.3. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. ¥. You have given him

Epistola. Fratres: Omnis pontifex ex hominibus assumptus, pro hominibus constituitur in iis quae sunt ad Deum, ut offerat dona et sacrificia pro peccatis: qui condolere possit iis qui ignorant et errant, quoniam et ipse circumdatus est infirmitate; et propterea debet, quemadmodum pro populo, ita etiam et pro semetipso offerre pro peccatis. Nec quisquam sumit sibi honorem, sed qui vocatur a Deo, tamquam Aaron. Sic et Christus non semetipsum clarificavit ut pontifex fieret; sed qui locutus est ad eum: Filius meas es tu, ego hocdie genui te. Epistle. 1 Pet. 1, 1-7. Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the sojourners of the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, chosen unto the sanctification of the Spirit according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, unto obedience to Jesus Christ and the sprinkling of His blood: grace and peace be given you in abundance. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His great mercy has begotten us again, through the Resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto a living hope, unto an incorruptible inheritance—undefiled and unfading, reserved for you in heaven. By the power of God you are guarded through faith for salvation, which tradidisti; concede, ut intercessionis ejus auxilio, a peccatorum nostrorum nexibus liberemur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beatae Priscæ virginis et martyris tuae natalitia colimus, et annua solemnitate laetemur et tantae fidei proficiamus exemplo. Per Dominum.

MEMORY OF ST. PRISCA

Postcommunion. Refreshed by these sacred mysteries of salvation we beseech You, O Lord, that we may be helped by the prayers of her whose feast we are keeping: through our Lord.

pro illius gloria celebramus, nobis prosit ad veniam. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Hostia, quaesumus Domine, quam tibi sanctae Priscæ virginis et martyris tuae natalitiam recensentes, offerimus, et vincula nostrae pravitatis absolvat, et tuae nobis misericordiae dona conciliet. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Laetificet nos, Domine quaesumus, munus oblatum: ut sicut in apostolo tuo Petro te mirabilem praedicamus, sic per illum tuae sumamus indulgentiae largitatem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, Domine, salutaribus repleti mysterii, ut cujus solemnia celebramus, ejus orationibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.
Jan. 19—ST. MARGARET OF HUNGARY, V.O.P.

Office. Ps. 44, 13.15.16.2. All the rich among the people shall entreat Your countenance; after her shall virgins be brought to the King; her neighbors shall be brought to You in gladness and rejoicing. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, the loving guardian of virginity, by whose grace Your servant Margaret has united the beauty of virginity to the merit of good works; grant, we beseech You, that in the spirit of saving penance we may be able to restore integrity of mind: through our Lord. Epistle, p. 724.

Responsory. Ps. 26, 4. One thing I have asked of the Lord, this will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life. ὧ. That I may see the delight of the Lord, and may visit His temple. Alleluia, alleluia! ὧ. Phil. 3, 8. I have suffered the loss of all things, that I may gain Christ. Alleluia! Gospel, p. 726.

Offertory. Ps. 18, 9.11. The precepts of the Lord are more to be desired than gold and many precious stones, sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, look mercifully on these offerings and, by the intercession of blessed Margaret, whom You have willed to be made a victim of penance for the salvation of her people, mercifully grant to the human race peace in the charity of Christ: through the same Lord.

Communion. Matt. 13, 45. The kingdom of heaven is like a merchant in search of fine pearls. When he had found one pearl of great price, he sold all that he had and bought it.

Postcommunion. Refreshed, O Lord, at the heavenly table, we humbly beseech You: that by the example of blessed Margaret despising the fashion of this world which passes away, we may deserve to arrive at eternal happiness: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Praecepta Domini desiderabilia super aurum et obryzum multum, dulciora melle et liquore favi.

Secreta. Haec oblata, quaesumus Domine, miseratus inte nde et, intercedente beata Margarita, quam poenitentiae victimam pro salute suae gentis fieri voluisti, humano generi pacem in caritate Christi placatus concede. Per eundem.

Communio. Simile est regnum caelorum homini negotiatori, quarenti bonas margaritas: inventa autem una pretiosa margarita, dedit omnia sua, et comparavit eam.

Postcommunio. Refecti, Domine, mensa caelesti, te supplices exoramus: ut, beatae Margaritae exemplo prae­tereuntem hujus mundi contemnentes figuram; ad aeterna mereamur gaudia pervenire. Per Dominum.
Jan. 20—STS. FABIAN AND SEBASTIAN, MM.

Office. Ps. 78, 11.12.10. Let the sighing of the prisoners come in before You, O Lord; render to our neighbors sevenfold in their bosom; revenge the blood of Your saints which has been shed. ¶. Ps. 78, 1. O God, the heathens are come into Your inheritance, they have defiled Your holy temple; they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You strengthened Your blessed martyrs Fabian and Sebastian by the virtue of steadfastness in suffering; let us walk in their footsteps, and for love of You despise the smiles of the world and fear none of its frowns: through our Lord.

Epistle. Heb. 11, 33-39. Brethren: The Saints by faith conquered kingdoms, wrought justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, recovered strength from weakness, became valiant in battle, put to flight armies of aliens. Women had their dead restored to them by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, that they might find a better Oratio. Deus, qui beatos martyres tuos Fabianum atque Sebastianum virtute constantiae in passione roborasti; ex eorum nobis imitatione tribue, pro amore tuo prospera mundi despicere, et nulla ejus adversa formidare. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Sancti per fidem vicerunt regna, operati sunt justitiam, adepti sunt repromissiones, obturaverunt ora leonum, extinxerunt impetum ignis, effuguerunt aciem gladii, convaluerunt de infirmitate, fortes facti sunt in bello, castra verterunt exterorum: acceperunt mulieres de resurrectione mortuos suos: alii autem distenti sunt, non suscipientes redemptionem, ut meliorem inventiren re-resurrection. Others had experience of mockery and stripes, yes, even of chains and prisons. They were stoned, they were sawed asunder, they were tempted, they were put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins, destitute, distressed, afflicted—of whom the world was not worthy—wandering in deserts, mountains, caves and holes in the earth. And all these, approved by the testimony of faith, were found in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Exod. 15, 11. God is glorious in His saints, wonderful in majesty, doing wonders. ✝. Your right hand, O Lord, is glorified in strength; Your right hand has broken the enemies.

Alleluia, alleluia! ✝. Ps. 144, 10-11. Your saints shall bless You, O Lord; they shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima.

Tract. Ps. 125, 5-6. They who sow in tears shall reap in joy. ✝. They went on their way, weeping, and scattering their seed. ✝. But they shall surely come with joy, bringing their sheaves with them.
Gospel. Luke 6, 17-23. At that time, Jesus coming down from the mountain, took His stand on a level stretch, with a crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to listen to Him and to be healed of their diseases. And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd were trying to touch Him, for power went forth from Him and healed all. And He lifted up His eyes to His disciples, and said, “Blessed are you poor; for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed shall you be when men hate you, and when they shut you out, and reproach you, and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and exult, for behold your reward is great in heaven.”

Secret. May the offering of our devotion be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, that at the pleading of those on whose feast day it is offered, it may further our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 6, 17.18. A multitude of sick, and those who were troubled with unclean spirits, came to him: for power went forth from Him and healed all.

Postcommunion. Filled with Your sacred gift, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that our solemn rite of due homage may, at the pleading of Your blessed martyrs Fabian and Sebastian, sensibly increase in us Your saving grace: through our Lord.

The conversion may, by following his example, draw nearer to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 9, 1-22. In those days, Saul, still breathing threats of slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, that if he found any men or women belonging to this Way, he might bring them in bonds to Jerusalem. And as he went on his journey, it came to pass that he drew near to Damascus, when suddenly a light from heaven shone round about him; and falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute Me?” And he said, “Who are You, Lord?” And He said, “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goad.” And he, trembling and amazed, said, “Lord, what will You have me do?” And the Lord said to him, “Arise and go into the city, and there it will be told you what you must do.” Now the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing indeed the voice, but seeing no one. And Saul arose from the ground, but when his eyes were opened, he could see nothing. And leading him by the hand, they brought him into Damascus. And there, for three days, he could not see, and he neither ate nor drank. Now there was in Damascus a certain disciple named Ananias, and the Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight and ask at the house of Judas for a man of Tarsus named Saul. For behold, he is praying." (And he saw a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands upon him that he might recover his sight.) But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to Your saints in Jerusalem. And here too he has authority from the high priests to arrest all who invoke Your name.” But the Lord said to him, "Go, for this man is a chosen vessel to Me, to carry My name among nations and kings and the children of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for My name.” So Ananias departed and entered the house, and laying his hands upon him, he said, “Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me—Jesus, who appeared to you on your journey—that you may recover your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And straightway there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he recovered his sight, and arose, and was baptized. And after taking some food, he regained his strength. Now for some days he joined the disciples in Damascus, and straightway in the synagogues he began to preach that Jesus is the Son of God. And all who heard him were amazed and said, "Is not this he who used to make havoc in Jerusalem of those who called upon His name, and who has come here for the purpose of taking them in bonds to the chief priests?"

But Saul grew all the stronger and confounded the Jews who were living in Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 4, 9-15. Brethren: We have been made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are without honor! To this very hour we hunger and thirst, and we are naked and buffeted, and have no fixed abode. And we toil, working with our own hands. We are reviled and we bless, we are persecuted and we bear with it, we are maligned and we entreat, we have become as the refuse of this world, the offscouring of all, even until now! I write these things not to put you to shame, but to admonish you as my dearest children, in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 36, 30-31. The mouth of the just man shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment. The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

_in Septuagesima._

__Tract. Ps. 111, 1-3.~__ Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. ∥ His seed shall be mighty upon the earth; the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. ∥ Glory and wealth shall be in his house; and his justice remains forever and ever.

__Gospel. Luke 12, 32-34.~__ At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Do not be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom. Sell what you have and give alms. Make for yourselves purses that do not grow old, a treasure unfailing in heaven, where neither thief draws near nor moth destroys. For where your treasure is, there your heart also will be.”

__Offertory. Ps. 20, 2.3.~__ In Your strength, O Lord, the just man shall rejoice, and in Your salvation he shall exult exceedingly; You have given him his heart’s desire.

_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

__Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Nolite timere pusillus grex, quia complacuit Patri vestro dare vobis regnum. Vendite quae possidetis, et date eleemosynam. Jan. 31—ST. JOHN BOSCO, C.

Office. 3 Kgs. 4, 29. God gave him wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart as the sand that is on the seashore. Ps. 112, 1. Praise the Lord, you children, praise you the name of the Lord. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You have raised up John Your holy confessor to be the father and master of youth, and have willed that through him, with the Blessed Virgin’s aid, new religious families should flourish in Your Church; grant, we beg You, that inspired with the same fire of charity we may ever seek after souls and be intent on Your service: through our Lord.

Epistle. Phil. 4, 4-9. Brethren: Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is near. Have no anxiety, but in every prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your petitions be made known to God. And may the peace of God which surpasses all understanding guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. For the rest, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever... honorable, whatever just, whatever holy, whatever lovable, whatever of good repute, if there be any virtue, if anything worthy of praise, think upon these things. And what you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, these things practise. And the God of peace will be with you.

Responsory. Ps. 36, 3-5. Trust in the Lord, and do good, and dwell in the land and you shall be fed with its riches. V. Delight in the Lord, and He will give you the requests of your heart; commit your way to the Lord, and trust in Him, and He will do it.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 73, 21. The poor and needy shall praise Your name. Alleluia!

THE FEASTS OF FEBRUARY
Feb. 1—ST. IGNATIUS, B.M.

Office. Ps. 63, 11. The just man shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him: and all the upright in heart shall be praised. Ἡ. Ps. 63, 2. Hear, O God, my prayer when I make supplication to You; deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast of blessed Ignatius, Your martyr and bishop, may be aided by his prayers to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. Rom. 8, 35-39. Brethren: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or hunger, or nakedness, or danger, or the sword? Even as it is written, “For Your sake we are put to death all the day long. We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.” But in all these things we overcome because of Him who has loved us. For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will Responsory. Ps. 20, 4.3. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. Ὑ. You have given him his heart’s desire, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὕ. Ps. 63, 11. The just man shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him; and all the upright in heart shall be praised. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima.

Tract. Ps. 111, 1-3. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in his commandments. Ὕ. His seed shall be mighty upon earth: the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. Ὕ. Glory and wealth shall be in his house; and his justice remains forever and ever.

Gospel, p. 1068.

Offertory. Ps. 8, 6.7. You have crowned him with glory and honor; and have set him over the works of Your hands, O Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May this victim, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse our sins; may it sanctify the bodies and souls of Your servants for the offering of this sacrifice: through our Lord.

neque profundum, neque creatura alia poterit nos separare a caritate Dei, quae est in Christo Jesu Domino nostro.

Responsorium. Posuisti Domine super caput ejus coronam de lapide pretioso. Ὕ. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei: et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum.

Evangelium, p. 1068.

Offertorium. Gloria et honore coronasti eum: et constituisti eum super opera manuum tuarum, Domine.

Secreta. Haec hostia, quaesumus Domine, emundet nostra delicta: et ad sacrificium celebrandum, subditorum tibi corpora mentesque sanctificet. Per Dominum.
Communion. Matt. 16, 24. He who wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking this sacred gift, O Lord our God, we pray You that we may be sensible of its effects by the intercession of blessed Ignatius, Your martyr and bishop, whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

Feb. 2—THE PURIFICATION B.V.M.
The Celebrant immediately blesses the candles.

The Lord be with you.

Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, who on this day presented Your Only-begotten Son to be received into the arms of blessed Simeon in Your holy temple; we humbly entreat Your clemency that You would be pleased to bless, sanctify and enkindle with the light of Your heavenly blessing these candles which Your servants desire to receive and to carry lighted for the honor of Your name; that by offering them to You, our Lord and God, we being worthy and inflamed with the holy fire of Your sweet charity, may deserve to be presented in the holy temple of Your glory: through.

Communio. Qui vult venire post me, abneget semetipsum, et tollat crucem suam, et sequatur me.

Postcommunio. Refecti participatione muneris sacri, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut cujus exsequimur cultum, intercedente beato Ignatio martyre tuo atque pontifice, sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.

Dominus vobiscum.

Oremus. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui hodierna die Unigenitum tuum ulnis sancti Simeonis in templo sancto tuo suscipiendum praezentasti: tuam supplices deprecamur clementiam, ut has candelas, quas nos famuli tui in tui nominis magnificentiam suscipientes gestare cupimus luce accensas, bene dicere, et sanctificare, atque lumine supernae benedictionis ascendere digneris; quatenus eas tibi Domino Deo nostro offerendo, digni et sancto igne dulcissimae caritatis tuae succensi, in templo sancto gloriae tuae repraesentari mereamur. Per eundem Dominum.
Office. Ps. 47, 10-11. We have received Your mercy, O God, in the midst of Your temple; according to Your name, O God, so also is Your praise to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is full of justice. ¶. Ps. 47, 2. Great is the Lord, and exceedingly to be praised: in the city of our God, in His holy mountain. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, we humbly implore Your majesty that as Your Only-begotten Son was this day presented in the temple in the substance of our flesh, so also You would let us be presented to You, clean of heart: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Mal. 3, 1-4. Thus says the Lord God: “Behold, I send My angel, and he shall prepare the way before My face. And presently the Lord, whom you seek, and the angel of the testament, whom you desire, shall come to His temple. Behold, He comes, says the Lord of hosts; and who shall be able to think of the day of His coming, and who shall stand to see Him? For he is like a refining fire, and like the fuller’s herb; and He shall sit refining and cleansing the silver, and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and shall refine them as gold, and as silver, and they shall offer sacrifices to the Lord in justice. And the sacrifice of Juda and of Jerusalem shall please the Lord, as in the days of old, and in the ancient years,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsorium. Ps. 47, 10-11. We have received Your mercy, O God, in the midst of Your temple; according to Your name, O God, so also is Your praise to the ends of the earth. ∞. As we have heard, so have we seen, in the city of our God. Alleluia, alleluia! ∞. Ps. 137, 2. I will worship toward Your holy temple, and give glory to Your name.

Sequence, p. 42.

In Septuagesima.

Tract. Rejoice, O virgin Mary, you alone have destroyed all heresies. ∞. Who did believe at the words of the archangel Gabriel. ∞. While a virgin you brought forth God and man; and after childbirth did remain a spotless virgin. ∞. Mother of God, intercede for us.

Gospel. Luke 2, 22-32. At that time, when the days of Mary’s purification were fulfilled according to the conflans et emundans argentum, et purgabit filios Levi, et colabit eos quasi aurum, et quasi argentum, et erunt Domino offerentes sacrificia in justitia. Et placebit Domino sacrificium Juda et Jerusalem, sicut dies saeculi, et sicut anni antiqui: Dicit Dominus omnipotens.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Postquam impleti sunt dies purgationis Mariae secundum legem Moysi, tulerunt Jesum Law of Moses, they took Jesus up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord—as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord"—and to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord, "a pair of turtle doves or two young pigeons." And behold, there was in Jerusalem a man named Simeon, and this man was just and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord. And he came by inspiration of the Spirit into the temple. And when His parents brought in the Child Jesus, to do for Him according to the custom of the Law, he also received Him into his arms and blessed God, saying, "Now You dismiss Your servant, O Lord, according to Your word, in peace; because my eyes have seen Your salvation, which You have prepared before the face of all peoples: a light of revelation to the Gentiles, and a glory for Your people Israel."

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. For you are happy, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, because from you arose the sun of justice, Christ our God.

Secret. Graciously hear our prayers, O Lord; and that the gifts which we offer in the sight of Your majesty may be worthy, bestow on us, through the intercession of the blessed virgin Mary, the help of Your unfailing love: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 1, p. 647.

Communion. Luke 2, 26. Simeon received an answer from the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, until he had seen the Christ of the Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, our God, that by the intercession of the blessed Mary ever virgin, You would make the most holy rites which You have ordained, to keep us in newness of life, be to us a remedy both now and in time to come: through our Lord.

Feb. 4—ST. ANDREW CORSINI, B.C.

Mass; No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who in Your Church ever set new examples of virtues, grant to Your people so to follow in the footsteps of blessed Andrew, Your confessor and bishop, that they may obtain a like reward: through, etc.

Offertorium. Felix namque es, sacra virgo Maria, et omni laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol justitiae, Christus Deus noster.

Secrenta. Exaudi Domine preces nostras; et ut digna sint munera, quae oculis tuae majestatis offerimus, subsidiom nobis, per intercessionem beatae Mariae virginis, perpetuae tuae pietatis impende. Per Dominum.

Communio. Responsum accepit Simeon a Spiritu Sancto, non visurum se mortem, nisi videret Christum Domini.

Postcommunion. Quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut sacrosancta mysteria, quae pro reparationis nostrae munimine contulisti, intercedente beata Maria semper virgine, et praesens nobis remedium esse facias et futurum.

Oratio. Deus, qui in ecclesia tua nova semper instauras exempla virtutum, da populo tuo, beati Andreae confessoris tui atque pontificis ita sequi vestigia, ut assequatur et praemia. Per Dominum.
Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a festival day in honor of blessed Agatha, virgin and martyr; at whose passion the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. V. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the king. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who among other marvels of Your power have given even to the weaker sex the victory of martyrdom; mercifully grant that we who keep the feast of blessed Agatha, Your virgin and martyr, may through her example draw nearer to You: through, etc.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 1, 26-31. Brethren: Consider your own call, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble. But the foolish things of the world has God chosen to put to shame the “wise,” and the weak things of the world has God chosen to put to shame the strong, and the base things of the world and the despised has God chosen, and the things that are not, to bring to naught the things that are; lest any flesh should pride itself before Him. From Him you are in Christ Jesus, who has become for us God-given wisdom, and justice, and sanctification, Epistola. Fratres: Videte vocationem vestram, quia non multi sapientes secundum carnem, non multi potentes, non multi nobiles; sed quae stulta sunt mundi elegit Deus, ut confundat sapientes, et infirma mundi elegit Deus, ut confundat fortia; et ignobilia mundi, et contemptibilia elegit Deus, et ea quae non sunt, ut ea quae sunt destrueret: ut non glorietur omnis caro in conspectu ejus. Ex ipso autem vos estis in Christo Jesu, qui factus est nobis sa-

Tract. Ps. 125, 5-6. They who sow in tears, shall reap in joy. \( \checkmark \). They went on their way, weeping, and scattering their seed. \( \checkmark \). But they shall surely come with joy, bringing their sheaves with them.

Gospel. Matt. 19, 3-12. At that time, there came to Jesus some Pharisees, testing Him, and saying, "Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for any cause?" But He answered and said to them, "Have you not read that the Creator, from the beginning, made them male and female, and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? Therefore now... they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man put asunder.”
They said to Him, “Why then did Moses command to give a written notice of dismissal, and to put her away?” He said to them, “Because Moses, by reason of the hardness of your heart, permitted you to put away your wives; but it was not so from the begin­ning.
And I say to you, that whoever puts away his wife, except for immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries a woman who has been put away commits adultery.” His disciples said to Him, “If the case of a man and his wife is so, it is not ex­pedient to marry.” And He said, “Not all can accept this teaching; but those to whom it has been given.
For there are eunuchs who were born so from their mother’s womb; and there are eunuchs who were made so by men; and there are eunuchs who have made them­selves so for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. Let him accept it who can.”

Offertory. Ps. 44, 15. The daughters of kings are Offertorium. Filiae regum in honore tuo: astitit regina a dextris tuis in vestitu deaurato, circumdata varietate.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the gifts which we offer on this feast day of blessed Agatha, Your virgin and martyr, in whose help we place our hopes of deliverance: through our Lord.

Communion. He who was pleased to cure me of all my wounds, and to restore my breast to my body, is the living God on whom I call.

Postcommunion. May the mysteries received, O Lord, be a help to us; and through the pleading of blessed Agatha, Your virgin and martyr, strengthen us with unfailing protection: through our Lord.

Feb. 6—STS. VEDAST AND AMAND, BB., CC.

MEMORY

Collect. O God, You surround and shield us by the glorious witness of Your confessors Vedast and Amand; grant us to be made better by imitating them, and happier by their intercession: through our Lord.

Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; so that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

Secreta. Suscipe Domine munera, quae in beatae Agathae virginis et martyris tuae solemnitate deferimus, cujus nos confidimus patrocinio liberari. Per Dominum.

Communio. Qui me dignatus est ab omni plaga curare, et mamillam meam meo pectori restituere, ipsum invoco Deum vivum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos sanctorum confessorum tuorum Vedasti et Amandi confessionibus gloriis circumdas et protegis; da nobis eorum imitatione proficere, et intercessione gaudere. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sancti tui, quæsuumus Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. Filled with these life-giving mysteries, we beseech You, O Lord, that we may be helped by the prayers of those whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

Mass: No. 15, p. 710.

Feb. 8—ST. JOHN OF MATHA, C.
Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who by means of Saint John ordained from heaven the Order of the Most Holy Trinity for the ransom of captives from the yoke of the Saracens; grant we beseech You, that through his intercession and Your help we may be freed from all bondage whether of soul or body: through our Lord.

Feb. 9—ST. CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA, B.C.D.
Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Cyril, Your confessor and bishop, an invincible champion of the divine motherhood of the most blessed virgin Mary; grant, through his intercession, that we who believe her to be truly the mother of God may be saved by her motherly protection: through the same Lord.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, Domine, salutaribus repleti mysteriis, ut quorum solemnia celebramus, eorum orationibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui per sanctum Joannem Ordinem Sanctissimae Trinitatis, ad redimendum de potestate Saracensium captivos, caelitus instituere dignatus es; praesta quaesumus, ut ejus suffragantibus meritis, a captivitate corporis et animae, te adjuvante liberemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Cyrillum, confessorem tuum atque pontificem, divinae maternitatis beatissimae virginis Mariae assertorem invictum effecisti: concede, ipso intercedente, ut qui vere eam genitricem Dei credimus, materna ejusdem protectione salvemur. Per eumdem Dominum.
Secret. Look graciously, almighty God, upon our gifts: and grant, through the intercession of blessed Cyril, that we may worthily receive in our hearts our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Only-begotten Son, co-eternal with You in Your glory: who lives and reigns with You.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with Your divine mysteries, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that, aided by the example and merits of the blessed bishop Cyril, we may be able worthily to serve the most holy mother of Your Only-begotten Son: who lives and reigns with You.

Feb. 10—ST. SCHOLASTICA, V.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who to show the way of the innocent made the soul of Your virgin, blessed Scholastica, enter heaven in the likeness of a dove; grant to us, through her merits and prayers, to live in such innocence as to be worthy to attain everlasting joys: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui animam beatae virginis tuae Scholasticae, ad ostendendam innocentiae viam, in columbae specie caelum penetrare fecisti; da nobis ejus meritis et precibus, ita innocenter vivere, ut ad aeterna mereamur gaudia pervenire. Per Dominum.
Feb. 11—APPARITION OF OUR LADY
AT LOURDES

Office. Apoc. 21, 2. I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. V. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria. p. 617.

Collect. O God, who by the Immaculate Conception of the virgin prepared a worthy dwelling place for Your Son; we humbly pray You, that commemorating the apparition of this same virgin, we may obtain health of body and soul: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 11, 19; 12, 1.10. The temple of God in heaven was opened, and there was seen the ark of His covenant in His temple, and there came flashes of lightning, and peals of thunder, and an earthquake, and great hail. And a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars. And I heard a loud voice in heaven saying, “Now has come the salvation, and the power and the kingdom of our God; and the authority of His Christ.”

Oratio. Deus, qui per immaculatam virginis conceptionem dignum Filio tuo habitaculum praeparasti, supplices a te quæsumus ut ejusdem virginis apparitionem celebrantes, salutem mentis et corporis consequamur. Per eumdem Dominum.

Responsory. Cant. 2, 12.13.14. The flowers have appeared in our land, the time of pruning has come; the voice of the turtle is heard in our land. ¶ Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come; my dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hollow places of the wall. Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Cant. 2, 12. Show me your face, let your voice sound in my ears; for your voice is sweet, and your face comely. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima.

Tract. Judith 15, 10. You are the glory of Jerusalem, you are the joy of Israel, you are the honor of our people. ¶ You are all fair, O Mary, and there is in you no stain of original sin. ¶ Happy are you, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, who crushed the serpent’s head with your virginal foot.

Gospel. Luke 1, 26-31. At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin’s name was Mary. And when the angel had come to her, he said, “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you Tractus. Tu gloria Jerusalem, tu laetitia Israel, tu honorificentia populi nostri. ¶ Tota pulchra es, Maria, et macula originalis non est in te. ¶ Felix es, sacra virgo Maria, et omni laude dignissima, quae serpentis caput virgineo pede contrivisti.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Missus est angelus Gabriel a Deo in civitatem Galilaeae, cui nomen Nazareth, ad virginem despònsatam viro, cui nomen erat Joseph, de domo David; et nomen virginis Maria. Et ingressus angelus ad eam dixit: Ave gratia plena, Dominus tecum: Benedicta tu in mulieribus. Quae cum audisset, turbata est in ser-among women.” When she had heard him she was troubled at his word, and kept pondering what manner of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found grace with God. Behold, you shall conceive in your womb and shall bring forth a son; and you shall call His name Jesus.”

Offertory. Luke 1, 28. Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the sacrifice of praise which we offer You, O Lord, through the merits of the glorious and Immaculate virgin, be an odor of sweetness to you and bring to us all that we seek of health both for body and soul: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Ps. 64, 10. You have visited the earth and plentifully watered it; you have enriched it in many ways.

Postcommunion. Let the right hand of your Immaculate Mother, O Lord, uplift those whom You have fed with the bread of heaven; that with her as helper they may worthily reach their everlasting home: who live and reign.

Postcommunion. Quos caelesti, Domine, alimento sattasti, sublevet dextera genitricis tua immaculatae; ut ad aeternam patriam, ipsa adjuvante, pervenire mereamur. Qui vivis et regnas.
Office. Wis. 10, 20-21. The just men sang to Your holy name, O Lord, and they praised with one accord Your victorious hand; for wisdom opened the dumb mouth and made the tongues of infants eloquent. \( \checkmark \) Ps. 8, 2. O Lord our Lord, how wonderful is Your name in the whole earth. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, who, to call to mind the sorrows of Your most holy mother by means of the Seven Holy Fathers, enlarged Your Church by a new family of Mary's servants; mercifully grant, that we may so sorrow in their sorrows, that we may rejoice in their joys: who live and reign.

Epistle. Ecclus. 44, 1-15. Let us now praise men of renown, our ancestors, each in his own time. The Lord has wrought great glory through His magnificence from the beginning. Rulers of the earth by their authority, men of renown for their might, or counselors in their wisdom, or seers of all things in prophecy; resolute governors of peoples, or judges with discretion; authors skilled in composition, or poets with collected proverbs; composers of melodious psalms, or discoursers on lyric themes; stalwart men, solidly established, lovers of beauty, and at peace in their own estates—all these were glorious in their time, each illustrious in his day. Some of them have left behind a name that is remembered to their praise; but of others there is no memory, for it perished when they perished, and they are as though they had never lived, they and their children after them. Yet these also were godly men whose virtues have not been forgotten; their wealth remains in their families, their posterity are a holy inheritance, and their seed has stood in the covenants. And their children for their sakes remain forever; their seed and their glory shall not be forsaken. Their bodies are buried in peace, and their name lives on and on. At gatherings their wisdom is retold and the assembly sings their praises.

Responsory. Isa. 65, 23. My elect shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth in trouble, for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord, and their posterity with them. \textit{Y. Ecclus.} 44, 14. Their bodies are buried in peace, and their name lives on and on.

Alleluia, alleluia! \textit{Y. Ecclus.} 44, 15. At their gatherings their wisdom is retold and the assembly sings their praises.

\textbf{Tract.} \textit{Ps. 125, 5-6.} They who sow in tears shall reap in joy. \textit{Y. They} went on their way weeping, and scattering their seed. \textit{Y. But} they shall surely come with joy, bringing their sheaves with them. \textit{Gospel, p. 712.}

\textbf{Offertory.} \textit{Isa. 56, 7.} I will bring them into My holy mount, and will make them joyful in My house of prayer; their holocausts and their victims shall please Me upon My altar. \textit{Offertory Prayers, p. 623.}

\textbf{Secret.} Receive, O Lord, we pray, this victim which we offer to You; and grant that through the intercession of Your saints, we may serve You with unfettered soul, and be enkindled with love of the most sorrowful virgin mother of Your Son: through the same Lord.

\textbf{Communion.} \textit{John 15, 16.} I have chosen you out of the world that you may go and bring forth fruit; and that your fruit may remain.

\textit{p}ora ipsorum in pace sepulta sunt, et nomen eorum vivit in generationem et generationem.

\textbf{Offertorium.} Adducam eos in montem sanctum meum, et laetificabo eos in domo orationis meae: holocausta eorum et victimae eorum placebunt mihi super altare meum.

\textbf{Secreta.} Accipe, quaesumus Domine, hostias quas tibi offerimus; et praest a, ut intercedentibus sanctis tuis, libera tibi mente serviamus, et per dolentis virginis genitricis Filii tui amore inflammemur. Per eundem Dominum.

\textbf{Communio.} Ego vos elegi de mundo, ut eatis, et fructum afferatis: et fructus vester maneat.
Postcommunion. Refreshed with these heavenly mysteries we implore You, O Lord, that following the steps of those whose feast we celebrate, we may faithfully stand beside the cross of Jesus with Mary His mother, and be worthy to receive the fruit of His redemption: through the same Lord.

Feb. 13—ST. CATHERINE OF RICCI, V.O.P.

Office. Gal. 6, 14. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.

Glory.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, who were pleased that blessed Catherine, Your virgin, should burn with Your love and glow with the thought of Your passion; grant us, through her intercession, to keep the thought of the mysteries of Your passion so lovingly in mind, that we may deserve to gather its fruits: who live and reign.

Epistle. Who shall give you to me for my brother, sucking the breasts of my mother, that I may find you without, and kiss you, and now no man may despise Postcommunion. Caelestibus refecti mysteriis, te Domine deprecamur, ut quorum festa percolimus, imitantes exempla, juxta crucem Jesu cum Maria matre ejus fideliter astemus, et ejusdem redemptionis fructum percipere mereamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Officium. Mihi autem absit gloriari, nisi in cruce Domini nostri Jesu Christi: per quem mihi mundus crucifixus est, et ego mundo.

Vs. Vivo ego, jam non ego: vivit vero in me Christus. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Domine Jesu Christe, qui beatam Catharinam virginem tui amore succensam, passionis contemplatione clarescere voluisti; ejus intercessione concede, ut passionis mysteria devote recolentes, ejus fructum percipere mereamur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Epistola. Quis mihi det te fratrem meum sugentem ubera matris meae, ut inveniam te foris, et deosculator te, et jam me? I will take hold of you, and bring you into my mother's house; there you shall teach me, and I will give you a cup of spiced wine and new wine of my pomegranates. His left hand under my head, and his right hand shall embrace me. I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you stir not up, nor awake my love till she please.

Responsory. Ps. 72, 21.23-4. My heart has been inflamed, and my heart has been changed. \(\checkmark\). You have held me by my right hand, and by Your will You have conducted me, and with Your glory You have received me. Alleluia, alleluia! \(\checkmark\). Cant. 4, 16. Arise, O north wind, and come, O south wind, blow through my garden, and let the aromatical spices thereof flow. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima.

Tract. Ps. 72, 25-26.28. What have I in heaven? and beside You what do I desire upon earth? \(\checkmark\). My heart and my flesh has failed; but You are the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion forever. \(\checkmark\). But it is good for me to hold fast to my God: to put my hope in the Lord God.

Evangelium, p. 719.
Offertory. Isa. 26, 9. My soul has desired You in the night; yes, and with my spirit within me in the morning early I will watch for You. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Make us, O Lord, we pray, sharers in the holocaust offered by You on the altar of the cross, as You made Your blessed virgin Catherine wondrous in her meditation on this most sacred mystery: who live and reign.

Communion. Ps. 118. How sweet are Your words to my taste; yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that these tokens of unspeakable love which we have received may enkindle us to make You a return of love; and through the prayers and example of the blessed virgin Catherine, may we live in Your love forever: through our Lord.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beati Valentini martyris tui natalitia colimus, a cunctis malis imminentibus ejus intercessione liberemur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sanctifica, quaesumus Domine, munus oblatum, et beati Nicolai meritis et exemplis digna hostia misericorditer effecti, simus semper in corde fervidi et in opere efficaces. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, beati Valentini martyris tui dicatas meritis, benignus assume: et ad perpetuum nobis tribue provenire subsidium. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Haec nos communio, Domine, sacri muneris participes efficiat; et beati Nicolai confessoris tui in the steps of blessed Nicholas, Your confessor, may we be worthy to be crowned with him in heaven: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. VALENTINE

Postcommunion. Having received these sacraments, O Lord, we beseech You, through the intercession of blessed Valentine, Your martyr, to give kindly hearing to our prayers: through our Lord.

Feb. 15—BL. JORDAN OF SAXONY, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Jordan wonderful in zeal to save souls and power to spread religious life; through his merits and prayers, let us live always in this same spirit, and attain the glory laid up for us in heaven: through our Lord.

Secret. May blessed Jordan present before Your majesty, O Lord, the gift of the heavenly banquet which we offer; and be pleased, that even as it gives glory to him, so through his prayers it may become for us a pledge of the true way and of eternal life: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Sumptis, Domine, sacramentis, quaesumus, ut intercedente beato Valentino martyre tuo, suppliciationes nostras placatus intendas. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui salutis animarum zelo et ampliandae religionis gratia beatum Jordanum mirabilem effecisti; ejus intercedentibus meritis, fac nos in eodem semper spiritu vivere, ac repositam in caelis gloriam invenire. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Caelestis convivii munus quod offerimus, beatus Jordanus in conspectu majestatis tuae, Domine, praesentet; et dignare, ut sicut illi confert ad gloriam, ita per ipsius suffragium pignus verae viae et vitae sempiternae nobis efficiatur. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. May our hope of eternal salvation which You will us to have through the partaking of Your body and blood abide unshaken, O Lord; and may the prayers of blessed Jordan be an intercession ever strengthening us to obtain the crown of glory: who live and reign.

Feb. 16—BL. BERNARD SCAMMACCA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who brought back blessed Bernard from the vices of the world, and led him into the way of perfection; grant, through his merits and intercession, that we likewise may bewail our sins and turn with pure minds to You: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, we pray You, O Lord, the gift we offer; and mercifully grant that following the example of blessed Bernard, we may persevere to the end in fervent love of You: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Fed with the delights of this heavenly banquet we humbly implore You, O Lord, that through the intercession of blessed Bernard whom we remember today, we may deserve to be satisfied with the abundance of Your saving gifts: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Aeternae salutis spes, quam per corporis et sanguinis tui, Domine, perceptionem habere nos voluisti, secura permaneat; et beati Jordani precatio ad gloriam capessendam sit semper intercessio salutaris. Qui vivis.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Bernardum a saeculi vitiis revocatum, in viam perfectionis traduxisti; ejus meritis et precibus concede, ut nos peccata nostra deflentes, ad te puris mentibus convertamur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe, quaesumus Domine, munus oblatum; et nobis clementer indulge, ut beati Bernardi exempla aemulantes, usque in finem in tuo constanter simus amore ferventes. Per Dominum.

Feb. 17—BL. REGINALD, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God who endowed blessed Reginald with the special protection of Your most holy mother; grant us, through his merits and prayers, ever to be shielded by the unfailing help of the same glorious virgin Mary: who live and reign.

Secret. Be near to our cries, O God of mercy, that this life-giving offering, made in honor of Your blessed confessor, Reginald, may rise as an odor of sweetness to win for us Your plenteous grace: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with Your unspeakable gift, O most merciful Jesus, we beseech You that through the intercession of blessed Reginald, Your confessor, we may be kept from all weakness of soul and body, that we may be the better disposed to pursue good works and hasten to enter into eternal rest: who live and reign.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui beatum confessorem tuum Reginaldum singulari sanctissimae genitricis tuae protectione donasti; illius nobis meritis et precibus concede, ut ejusdem gloriosae semper virginis Mariae perpetuo muniamur auxilio. Qui vivis et regnas.

Secreta. Adesto supplicationibus nostris misericors Deus, ut haec oblatione salutaris in honorem beati confessoris tui Reginaldi exhibita, ad uberem gratiam tuam nobis impetrandum, in odorem suavitatis ascendat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Ineffabilibus refecti sacramentis, quaesumus clementissime Jesu, intercedente beato Reginaldo confessore tuo ab omni nos animae et corporis infirmitate custodi, ut divini operis fructum propensiis exsequentes, in aeternam ingredi requiem festinemus. Qui vivis et regnas.

Collect. O God, who numbered blessed Matthias among the company of Your apostles, grant, we beseech You, that through his intercession we may ever be sensible of Your compassion and love: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 1, 15-26. In those days, Peter stood up in the midst of the brethren (now the number of persons met together was about a hundred and twenty), and he said, “Brethren, the Scripture must be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit declared before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was the guide of those who arrested Jesus; inasmuch as he had been numbered among us and was allotted his share in this ministry. And he indeed bought a field with the price of his iniquity and, being hanged, burst asunder in their midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it became known to all the residents of Jerusalem, so that the field came to be called in their language Haceldama, that is, the Field of Blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, ‘Let their habitation become desolate and let there be none to dwell in it." And, 'His ministry let another take.' Therefore, of these men who have been in our company all the time that the Lord Jesus moved among us, from John's baptism until the day that He was taken up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of His Resurrection." And they put forward two: Joseph, called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all, show which of these two You have chosen to take the place in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away to go to his own place." And they drew lots between them, and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

Responsory. Ps. 138, 17-18. Your friends, O God, are exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened.

Tract. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips.

Et statuerunt duos: Joseph, qui vocabatur Barsabas, qui cognominatus est Justus, et Matthiam. Et orantes dixerunt: Tu Domine, qui corda nosti omnium, ostende, quem elegeris ex his duobus unum accipere locum ministerii hujus et apostolatus, de quo praeventicatus est Judas ut abiret in locum suum. Et dederunt sortes eis, et cecidit sors super Matthiam, et annumeratus est cum undecim apostolis.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclésiam tuam beati Thomae confessoris tui atque doctoris mira eruditione clarificas, et sancta operatione fecundas; da nobis, quaesumus, et quae understand the things he taught, and faithfully to imitate what he did: through our Lord.

Epistle. Wis. 7, 7-14. I prayed, and prudence was given me; I pleaded, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I preferred her to scepter and throne, and deemed riches nothing in comparison with her. Nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her, is a little sand, and before her, silver is to be accounted mire. Beyond health and comeliness I loved her, and I chose to have her rather than the light, because the splendor of her never yields to sleep. Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands; and I rejoiced in them all, because Wisdom is their leader, though I had not known that she is the mother of these. Simply I learned about her, and ungrudgingly do I share—her riches I do not hide away; for to men she is an unfailing treasure; those who gain this treasure win the friendship of God, to whom the gifts they have from discipline commend them.

Secret. We bear in mind the passion of Your Son, O Lord, and pray that what we bring You on this feast docuit, intellectu conspicere, et quae egit, imitatione complere. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Optavi, et datus est mihi sensus; et invocavi, et venit in me spiritus sapientiae; et praeposui illam regnis et sedibus, et divitias nihil esse duxi in comparatione illius. Nec comparavi illi lapidem pretiosum, quoniam omne aurum in comparatione illius, arena est exiguæ, et tamquam lutum aestimabitur argentum in conspectu illius. Super salutem et speciem dilexi illam, et proposui pro luce habere illam, quoniam inextinguibile est lumen illius. Venerunt autem mihi omnia bona pariter cum illa, et innumerabilis honestas per manus illius. Et laetatus sum in omnibus; quoniam antecedebat me ista sapientia, et ignorabam quoniam horum omnium mater est. Quam sine fictione didici, et sine invidia communico; et honestatem illius non abscondo. Infinitus enim thesaurus est hominibus, quo qui usi sunt, participes facti sunt amicitiae Dei.

Mar. 10—BL. PETER JEREMIA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who by the prayers and exhortations of blessed Peter, Your confessor, mercifully caused many wanderers to return to the path of righteousness; enlarge our hearts, we beseech You, through his intercession, that we may ever run the way of Your commandments: through our Lord.

Mar. 12—ST. GREGORY THE GREAT, P.C.D.

Office. Dan. 3, 84.87. O you priests of God, bless the Lord; O you holy and humble of heart, praise God. Veni. Dan. 3, 57. All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord; praise and exalt Him above all forever. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who year by year give us joy on the feast day of blessed Gregory, Your confessor and bishop, mercifully grant that as we have come to know many mysteries of Your word through his life and teaching, so may we ever feel the help of his protection: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ps. 109, 4.1. The Lord has sworn, and He will not repent: You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchisedech. ℣. The Lord said to my Lord: Sit at my right hand.

Tract. Ps. 111, 1-3. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. ℣. His seed shall be mighty upon the earth: the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. ℟. Glory and wealth shall be in His house; and his justice remains forever and ever.

Gospel. Ps. 88, 25. My truth and My mercy shall be with him; and in My name shall his horn be exalted.

Offertory. Ps. 111, 1-3. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. ℣. His seed shall be mighty upon the earth: the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. ℟. Glory and wealth shall be in His house; and his justice remains forever and ever.
Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward, whom the master will set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Postcommunion. O God, who did make the blessed bishop, Gregory, to rank with Your saints in merit; mercifully grant that we who keep a joyous remembrance of him may also follow his way of life: through our Lord.

Mar. 17—ST. PATRICK

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who were pleased to send forth blessed Patrick, confessor and bishop, to preach Your glory among the Gentiles; grant to us, through his merits and prayers, that what You command us to do, we may, by Your mercy be able to accomplish: through our Lord.

Mar. 18—ST. CYRIL OF JERUSALEM, B.C.D.

Mass: _No. 12, p. 697, except the following:_

Collect. Grant us, we beseech You, almighty God, through the intercession of the blessed bishop Cyril, so to know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom You have sent, that we may be worthy to be numbered evermore among those sheep who hear his voice: through the same Lord.

Epistle. _Ecclus. 39, 6-14._ The just man will give his heart to seek the Lord, his Maker, to petition the Most High, to open his lips in prayer, to ask pardon for his sins. Then, if it pleases the Lord almighty, he will be filled with the spirit of understanding; he will pour forth his words of wisdom and in prayer give thanks to the Lord, who will direct his knowledge and his counsel, as he meditates upon his mysteries. He will show the wisdom of what he has learned and glory in the law of the Lord's covenant. Many will praise his understanding; beato Patritio confessore tuo atque pontifice, beneficia potiora sumamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da nobis, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, beato Cyrillo pontifice intercedente, te solum verum Deum, et quem misisti Iesum Christum, ita cognoscere ut inter oves, quae vocem ejus audient, perpetuo connumerari meramur. Per eumdem Dominum.

his fame can never be effaced; unfading will be his memory, through all generations his name will live; peoples will speak of his wisdom, and in assembly sing his praises.

Gospel. Matt. 10, 23-28. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “When they persecute you in one town, flee to another. Amen I say to you, you will not have gone through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes. No disciple is above his teacher, nor is the servant above his master. It is enough for the disciple to be like his teacher, and for the servant to be like his master. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household! Therefore do not be afraid of them. For there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. What I tell you in darkness, speak it in the light; and what you hear whispered, preach it on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather be afraid of Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.”

_Creed, p. 621._

_Evangelium._ In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Cum persequentur vos in civitate ista, fugite in aliam. Amen dico vobis, non consummabis civitates Israel, donec veniat Filius hominis. Non est discipulus super magistrum, nec servus super dominum suum. Sufficit discipulo ut sit sicut magister ejus, et servo sicut dominus ejus. Si patrem-familias Beelzebub vocaverunt, quanto magis domesticos ejus! Ne ergo timueritis eos; nihil enim est opertum quod non revelabitur; et occultum quod non scietur. Quod dico vobis in tenebris, dicite in lumine; et quod in aure auditis, praedicate super tecta. Et nolite timere eos qui occidunt corpus, animam autem non possunt occidere; sed potius timete eum qui potest et animam et corpus perdere in gehennam.
Secret. Look down, O Lord, on the spotless victim we offer You, and grant, through the merits of blessed Cyril, Your confessor and bishop, that we may strive to partake of it with pure hearts: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, O Lord Jesus Christ, through the prayers of blessed bishop Cyril, that the sacrament of Your body and blood, which we have received, may sanctify our minds and hearts so that we may deserve to be made partakers of the divine nature: who live and reign.

Mar. 19—ST. JOSEPH, SPOUSE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, C.

Office. Ps. 91, 13-14. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon, planted in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 91, 2. It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Your name, O Most High. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. May the prayers of the blessed patriarch Joseph, spouse of Your most holy mother, help us, O Lord, we pray; that what is not in our own power to obtain, may be given us at his intercession: who live and reign. Epistle, p. 710.

Responsory. Ps: 91, 13.14.3. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon in the house of the Lord. \( \checkmark \). To proclaim Your mercy in the morning, and Your truth in the night.

Tract. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips. \( \checkmark \). For You have prevented him with blessings of sweetness. \( \checkmark \). You have set on his head a crown of precious stones.

Evangelium. Cum esset desponsata mater, Jesu Maria Joseph, antequam convenirent, inventa est in utero habens de Spiritu Sancto. Joseph autem vir ejus cum esset justus, et nollet eam traducere, voluit occulte dimittere eam. Haec autem eo cogitante, ecce angelus Domini apparuit in somnis things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Do not be afraid, Joseph, son of David, to take to you Mary your wife, for that which is begotten in her is of the Holy Spirit. And she shall bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus; for He shall save His people from their sins." Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart's desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. T.P. Alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We pay You, O Lord, our debt of service, and humbly pray that at the pleadings of the blessed Joseph, spouse of the mother of Your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, on whose hallowed feast we offer this sacrifice of praise, You would preserve Your own gifts within us: through the same Lord. Preface of St. Joseph, p. 655.

Communion. Matt. 2, 20. Take the Child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel, for those who sought the Child's life are dead. T. P. Alleluia!

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, that through these hallowed mysteries of which we have partaken, the remembrance of the most blessed patriarch, Joseph, may be our strong defense; since he was accustomed to adore in the crib the Son of his beloved spouse, the maiden-mother: our Lord.

Mar. 20—BL. AMBROSE SANSEDONIUS, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. May the hallowed feast of blessed Ambrose, Your confessor, gladden Your Church, O God; that she may be ever girt about with spiritual help, and made worthy to enjoy everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

Secret. May the present offering become life-giving to Your people, O Lord, for whom You were pleased to offer Yourself as a living victim to Your Father: who with the same God the Father and the Holy Spirit, live and reign God, forever and ever.

Postcommunion. Filled with these divine gifts, we beseech You, O Lord, that through the glorious merits of the blessed Ambrose, Your confessor, we may taste the desired fruit of this saving victim: through our Lord.

Mar. 22—BL. ISNARD, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O almighty and eternal God, who by the light of Your wisdom drove away the darkness of ignorance; increase by the merits and prayers of blessed Isnard, Your confessor, the virtue of faith; that the fire which Your grace has enkindled may, by no trials, be extinguished: through our Lord.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, our gift to be consecrated, whereby we call to mind the merits of Your faithful servant blessed Isnard and implore the purification of our minds: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We ask of You, almighty God, that these sacred gifts may purify our guilt, and by the intercession of blessed Isnard, Your confessor, be to us an effectual means to righteousness of life: through our Lord.

Mar. 23—BL. SIBYL BISCOSSIS, V.O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, You were pleased to shed rays of wondrous light on the mind of blessed Sibyl, Your virgin who lacked bodily sight; grant to her prayers that we, being illumined by light from on high, may despise the things of earth, and effectually seek after the things of heaven: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the offering we make to You; and at the prayers of the blessed Sibyl grant, that as she devoutly honored on earth the mysteries of Your Son's passion, so we may be worthy to reap their fruit in heaven: through the same Lord.

Postcommunion. May the mysteries of Your body and blood of which we have partaken, O Lord, make us, through the intercession of the blessed Sibyl, efficacious in good works and fervent in Your love: who live and reign.

Postcommunio. Percepta, Domine, tui corporis et sanguinis mysteria, per intercessionem beatae Sibyllinae nos reddant in virtutum operibus efficaces, et in tuo amore ferventes. Qui vivis et regnas.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, whom angels in their thousands serve; we pray You grant that we who here on earth honor blessed Gabriel, the archangel, as the chief minister in man's restoration may, at his prayers, gather in heaven the fruit of our redemption: through our Lord.

Epistle. Dan. 9, 21-26. In those days, behold the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, flying swiftly, touched me at the time of the evening sacrifice. And he instructed me, and spoke to me, and said, "O Daniel, I now come forth to teach you, that you might understand. From the beginning of your prayers the word came forth; and I have come to show it to you, because you are a man of desires. Therefore, mark the word and understand the vision. Seventy weeks are shortened upon your people and upon your holy city, that transgression may be finished, and sin may have an end, and iniquity may be abolished, and everlasting justice may be brought, and vision and prophecy may be fulfilled, and the Saint of saints may be anointed. Know, therefore, and take notice, that from the going forth of the word to build up Jerusalem again, to Christ the Prince, there shall be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; and the street shall be built again, and the walls in straitness of times. And after sixty-two weeks Christ shall be slain, and the people that shall deny Him shall not be His. And a people, with their leader that shall come, shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end therefore shall be waste, and after the end of the war the appointed desolation."

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiternus Deus, cui angelorum millia ministrant; praesta, quæsumus, ut qui beatum Gabrielem archangellum humanae restaurationis praecipuum ministrum veneramus in terris, ejusdem suffragiis fructum nostrae redemptionis consequamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 102, 20.1. Bless the Lord, all you His angels; you who are mighty in strength, and execute His word. ¶ Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all that is within me praise His holy name.

Tract. Luke 1. Hail, Mary, full of grace: the Lord is with you. ¶ Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. ¶ Behold you shall conceive and bring forth a Son and you shall call His name Emmanuel. ¶ The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you. ¶ Therefore, also the Holy One to be born of you shall be called the Son of God.

Responsorium. Benedicte Dominum omnes angeli ejus: potentes virtute; qui facitis verbum ejus. ¶ Benedict anima mea Domine: et omnia interiora mea nomen sanctum ejus.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui ad cultum sacrarum imaginum adserendum, beatum Joannem caelesti doctrina, et admirabili spiritus fortitudine imbuisti: concede nobis ejus intercessione et exemplo, ut quorum colimus imagines, virtutes imitemur et patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Justum deduxit Dominus per vias rectas, et ostendit illi regnum Dei, et dedit illi scientiam sanctorum: honestavit illum in laboribus, et complevit labores illius.
stood by him against the greed of his defrauders, and enriched him; He preserved him from foes, and secured him against ambush, and He gave him the prize for his stern struggle that he might recognize that devotion to God is mightier than all else. He did not abandon the just man when he was sold, but delivered him from sin. He went down with him into the dungeon, and did not desert him in his bonds, until He brought him the scepter of royalty and authority over his oppressors, showed those who had defamed him false, and gave him eternal glory. The holy people and blameless race—it was He who delivered them from the nation that oppressed them. He entered the soul of God’s servant, and withstood fearsome kings with signs and portents. He gave the holy ones the recompense of their labors.

Responsory. Ps. 17, 33.35. God, who has girt me with strength; and made my way blameless. Ἡ. Who teaches my hands to war and has made my arms like a brazen bow.

Tract. Ps. 17, 38.39.50. I will pursue after my enemies, and overtake them. Ἡ. I will break them, and they

Ps. 143, 1. Blessed be the Lord my God, who teaches my hands to fight; and my fingers to war. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 6, 6-11. At that time, it came to pass on another Sabbath, that Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. And a man was there and his right hand was withered. And the Scribes and the Pharisees were watching whether He cured on the Sabbath, that they might find how to accuse Him. But He knew their thoughts, and He said to the man with the withered hand, “Arise and stand forth in the midst.” And he arose and stood forth. But Jesus said to them, “I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do evil; to save a life, or to destroy it?” And having looked around upon them all, He said to the man, “Stretch forth your hand.” And he stretched it forth, and his

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following:

Collect. O God, who granted that multitudes of the Gentiles should come to the knowledge of Your name through the wondrous preaching of blessed Vincent, Your confessor; grant, we beseech You, that him whom he foretold on earth as the judge to come, we may be worthy to have as our rewarder in heaven: Christ our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 14, 6-7. In those days, I saw another angel flying in midheaven, having an everlasting gospel to preach to those who dwell upon the earth and to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, saying with a loud voice, “Fear God, and give Him honor, for the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who made the heaven and the earth, the sea and fountains of waters.”

temporalis vitae subsidia nobis conferant et aeternae. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui gentium multitudinem, mira beati Vincentii confessoris tui praedicatione, ad agnitionem tui nominis venire tribuisti; praeesta quaesumus, ut quem venturum judicem nuntiavit in terris, praemiatorem habere mereamur in caelis: Dominum nostrum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Vidi alterum angelum volamtem per medium caeli, habentem evangelium aeternum, ut evangelizaret sedentibus super terram, et super omnem gentem, et tribum, et linguam, et populum: dicens magna voce: Timete Dominum, et date illi honorem; quia venit hora judicii ejus: et adorate eum, qui fecit caelum, et terram, mare et fontes aquarum.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. O glorious father Vincent, famous son of the Order of Dominic, pour forth your prayers to the sovereign judge for all the nations who are devoted to you.

Alleluia! Ὡ. Luke 24, 46. It behooved Christ to suffer, and rise again from the dead, and so enter into the glory of God. Alleluia.

At Ascensiontide, after the second Alleluia.

Ὡ. Ps. 46, 6. God has ascended with jubilee; and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart's desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. T.P. Alleluia. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, these gifts of our love; and that they may be at once pleasing to You and helpful to us, may the blessed Vincent, Your confessor whom Your gifts made glorious before the world, become our devoted advocate with Your loving kindness: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὡ. Gloriose Pater Vincenti, clara proles Dominici Ordinis, preces funde summo judici pro cunctis tibi devotis populis.

Communion. Apoc. 2. To Vincent I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the paradise of my God. T.P. Alleluia!

Postcommunion. Filled with these divine gifts, we beseech You, O Lord, that through the glorious merits of blessed Vincent, Your confessor, we may taste the desired fruits of this saving victim: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui in maris periculis constitutis beati Petri opem singularem ostendis; ejus nobis intercessione concede, ut in hujus vitae procellis tuae gratiae lumen semper affulgeat, quo aeternae salutis portum invenire valeamus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Fiduciam habuimus in Deo nostro, loqui ad vos evangelium Dei in multa sollicitudine. Exhor-error, nor from impure motives, nor from guile. But as approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak not as pleasing men, but God, who proves our hearts. For at no time have we used words of flattery, as you know, nor any pretext for avarice, God is witness, nor have we sought glory from men, neither from you nor from others. Although as the apostles of Christ we could have claimed a position of honor among you, still while in your midst we were as children: as if a nurse were cherishing her own children, so we in our love for you would gladly have imparted to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls: because you had become most dear to us.

Responsory. Ps. 20, 4.3.5. O Lord, You have prevented him with blessings of sweetness; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. \( \surd \). He asked life of You, and You have given him length of days forever and ever.

Tract. Ps. 111, 1-3. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. \( \surd \). His seed shall be mighty upon the earth; the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. \( \checkmark \) Glory and wealth shall be in his house; and his justice remains forever and ever.

Apr. 20—ST. AGNES OF MONTEPULCIANO, V.O.P.

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a festival day in honor of the blessed virgin Agnes, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the king. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who oftentimes were pleased to shed a heavenly dew over Your virgin, blessed Agnes, and to bedeck the places of her prayer with different fresh-blown flowers; mercifully grant that we, through her intercession, may be sprinkled with the unfailing dew of Your blessing and made fit to gather the fruits of immortality: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui in humili vitae genere beatum Albertum confessorem tuum eximia sanctitate clarescere voluisti; fac nos ita ejus sectari vestigia, ut assequi meramur et praemia. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatam Agnetem virginem tuam caelesti rore perfundere, et orationis ejus loca diversis enatis floribus decorare dignatus es; concede propitius, ut ejus precibus, perpetuo tuae benedictionis rore conspersi, aeternitatis fructus percipere mereamur. Per Dominum.
Epistle, 2 Cor. 10, 17; 11, 1-3. Brethren: He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord. For he is not approved who commends himself, but he whom the Lord commends. Would to God that you could bear with a little of my foolishness! Nay, do bear with me! For I am jealous for you with a divine jealousy. For I betrothed you to one spouse, that I might present you a chaste virgin to Christ.

O blessed Agnes, united now to your spouse, the Lamb, you have followed Him and received your palm. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 13, 31-34. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes, "The kingdom of heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field. This indeed is the smallest of all the seeds; but when it grows up it is larger than any herb and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and dwell in its branches." He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took and buried in three measures of flour, until all of it was leavened." All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables, and without parables he did not speak to them; in fulfillment of what was spoken through the prophet, who said, "I will open my mouth in parables, I will utter things hidden since the foundation of the world."

Mass: No. 6, p. 676, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Bartholomew a glorious champion of the faith and ennobled him with the crown of martyrdom; by his merits and prayers may we always bear Your cross, that together with him we may be worthy to share Your glory: through our Lord.

Secret. May our offering be pleasing to You, O Jesus most kind, by the holy prayers of blessed Bartholomew who, sustained by faith and charity, did not fear to lose his life for You and the gospel, that he might find life everlasting: who live and reign.

Postcommunion. May the gift of the divine sacrament which we offer, cleanse us, O Lord, we pray; and at the prayers of the blessed martyr Bartholomew, strengthen in us the light of truth: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Bartholomaeum insignem fidei propugnatum effecisti, et martyrii corona sublimasti; da nobis ejus meritis et intercessione crucem jugiter ferre, ut cum ipso gloriae tuae mereamur esse particeps. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Oblationem nostram, clementissime Jesu, beati Bartholomaei intercessio sancta commendet, qui fide et caritate suffultus, animam suam propter te et evangelium non timuit perdere, ut vitam aeternam inveniret. Qui vivis et regnas.

Postcommunio. Purificet nos, quae sumus Domine, divini sacramenti munus oblatum; et intercedente beato Bartholomaeo martyre, in tuae veritatis luce confirmet. Per Dominum.
Apr. 23—ST. GEORGE, M.

Mass: No. 6, p. 676, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who give us joy through the merits and prayers of Your martyr, blessed George; mercifully grant that we who through him seek Your blessings may obtain the gift of Your grace: through our Lord.

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts offered to You; and at the intercession of blessed George, Your martyr, cleanse us, through these same gifts, from the stains of our sins: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We humbly beseech You, almighty God, that at the prayers of blessed George, Your martyr, You would bestow on all whom You feed with Your sacraments, to serve You duly by an acceptable life: through our Lord.

Apr. 24—HOLY CROWN OF THORNS

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a festival day in honor of the crown of the Lord, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 46, 2. O clap your hands, all you nations; shout to God with the voice of joy. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos beati Georgii martyris tui meritis et intercessione laetificas; concede propitius, ut qui tua per eum beneficia poscimus, dono tuae gratiae consequamur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Munera, Domine, oblata sanctifica; et intercedente beato Georgio martyre tuo, nos per haec a peccatorum nostrorum maculis emunda. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Supplices te rogamus, omnipotens Deus, ut quos tuis reficiis sacramentis, intercedente beato Georgio martyre tuo, tibi etiam placitis moribus dignanter tribuas deservire. Per Dominum.

Officium. Gaudeamus omnes in Domino, diem festum celebrantes sub honore coronae Domini, de cujus solemnitate gaudent angeli, et collaudant Filium Dei, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia. Ps. Omnes gentes plaudite manibus: jubilate Deo in voce exultationis. Gloria Patri.
Collect. Almighty God, we pray You, bestow on us who recall the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ by honoring His crown of thorns on earth, that we may be worthy to be crowned by Him with glory and honor in heaven: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle. Cant. 3, 7-11; 4, 1-8. Threescore valiant ones of the most valiant of Israel, surround the bed of Solomon; all holding swords, and most expert in war; every man's sword upon his thigh, because of fears in the night. King Solomon has made him a litter of the wood of Lebanon; the pillars thereof he made of silver, the seat of gold, the going up of purple: the midst he covered with charity for the daughters of Jerusalem. Go forth, you daughters of Sion, and see King Solomon in the diadem, wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the joy of his heart. How beautiful you are, my love, how beautiful you are! Your eyes are doves' eyes, besides what is hid within. Come from Lebanon, my spouse, come from Lebanon, come: you shall be crowned.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Let us venerate today that thorny crown, whose sharp points won for us the crown of glory.

Oratio. Praesta, quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui in memoriam passionis Domini nostri Jesu Christi, coronam ejus spineam veneramur in terris, ab ipso gloria et honore coronari mereamur in caelis. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Diadema spineum veneremur hodie, cujus per aculeum, sertum datur gloriae.
Alleluia! ¶ Christ has risen, and has shone upon His people, whom He redeemed with His own blood. Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide, after the Second Alleluia.

¶ Christ ascending on high led captivity captive; He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 19, 1-5. At that time, Pilate, then, took Jesus and had Him scourged. And the soldiers, plaiting a crown of thorns, put it upon His head, and arrayed Him in a purple cloak. And they kept coming to Him and saying, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and striking Him. Pilate therefore again went outside and said to them, “Behold, I bring Him out to you, that you may know that I find no guilt in Him.” Jesus therefore came forth, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple cloak.

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 8, 6.7. You have crowned Him with glory and honor, and have set Him over the works of Your hands, O Lord, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Strengthen the might of Your soldiers, almighty king, that they whom the crown of Your Son encourages in the arena of this life, may at the close of Communion. Ps. 20, 4. You have set on His head, O Lord, a crown of precious stones, alleluia!

Postcommunion. We humbly beseech You, almighty God, that these sacraments which we have received may serve to heal us by the power of that crown of Your most holy Son which we commemorate: through the same Lord.

In Votive Masses out of Paschal Time.

Responsory. Ps. 20, 4.3. You have set on His head, O Lord, a crown of precious stones. ὦ. You have given him His heart’s desire, and have not withheld from Him the request of His lips.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὦ. Let us venerate today that thorny crown, whose sharp points won for us the crown of glory. Alleluia!

The Creed is not said, and the Alleluias are omitted.

Apr. 25—ST. MARK, EVANG.

On this day there is a Procession, as on the Rogation Days, and the Rogation Mass is said, p. 457. If the Feast of St. Mark be transferred, the Procession and Rogation Mass are still kept on this day, except it fall on Easter Sunday, in which case the Procession and Mass are transferred to Easter Tuesday.
Office. Ps. 63, 3. You have protected me, O God, from the assembly of the malignant, alleluia! from the multitude of the workers of iniquity, alleluia, alleluia!

Collect. O God, who by Your grace raised up Your blessed evangelist, Mark, to be a preacher of the gospel; grant to us we pray, ever to profit by his teaching and be shielded by his prayers: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ezech. 1, 10-14. The likeness of their countenances was of four animals: there was the face of a man, and the face of a lion on the right side of all the four; and the face of an ox, on the left side of all the four; and the face of an eagle over all the four. And their faces, and their wings were stretched upward: two wings of every one were joined, and two covered their bodies: and every one of them went straight forward; whither the impulse of the spirit was to go, thither they went; and they turned not when they went. And as for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like that of burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps. This was the vision running to and fro in the midst of the living creatures, a bright fire, and lightning going forth from the fire. And the living creatures ran and returned like flashes of lightning.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Isa. 41, 27. The first shall say to Sion: “Behold I am here”; and to Jerusalem: “I will give an evangelist.”

Alleluia! Ὡ. Matt. 28, 7. “On the day of My resurrection,” says the Lord, “I will go before you into Galilee.” Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide, after the Second Alleluia.

Ὡ. Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high led captivity captive: He gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

Offertory, Ps. 89, 14. We are filled in the morning with Your mercy; and we have rejoiced and are delighted, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. While offering our gifts to You on the festival day of blessed Mark, Your evangelist, we beseech You, O Lord, that as the preaching of the gospel made him illustrious, so may his intercession make us, in word and deed, acceptable to You: through our Lord.

Communion. John 15, 5. I am the true vine, you the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Fed on the bread that nourishes souls, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that what we now worship under the veil of a mystery we may, at the prayer of the blessed evangelist Mark, reach in the fullness of truth: through our Lord.

Apr. 26—BB. DOMINIC AND GREGORY, CC.O.P.

Mass: No. 13, p. 701, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, whose mercies are without number we humbly beseech You, through the prayers of blessed Dominic and Gregory, Your confessors, that being loosed from the burden of our sins we too may reach the glory they have attained: through our Lord.

Secret. Graciously look down upon the offering which we make to You, O Lord, and through the merits of blessed Dominic and Gregory, grant that we may present ourselves an acceptable sacrifice in Your sight: through our Lord.

Communion. Ego sum vitis vera, et vos palmites: qui manet in me, et ego in eo, hic fert fructum multum, alleluia.

Postcommunion. Pasti cibo spiritalis alimoniae, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut quod mysterio frequentamus, intercedente beato Marco evangelista, plena veritate consequamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, cujus misericordiae non est numerus, te humiliter deprecamur, ut intercedentibus beatis Domino et Gregorio confessoribus tuis, a peccatorum nostrorum pondere subducti, gloriam ab ipsis obtentam assequamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord our God, that the sacred mysteries we have received may, through the pleading of blessed Dominic and Gregory, be to us a sure defense against all future ills: through our Lord.

Apr. 27—BL. HOSANNA OF CATHARO, V.O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayers:

Collect. Enkindle anew in our hearts, O Lord, the love of Your cross; that at the pleading and through the example of the penitent virgin, blessed Hosanna, we may be made partakers both of Your passion and glory: who live.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, these gifts which we offer on the feast day of the blessed virgin Hosanna; and grant that through her intercession we may ever be pleasing to You, through the gifts of chastity and penitence: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, who will that we who partake of one bread and one chalice may be but one body in Christ; through the intercession of the blessed virgin Postcommunion. Quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut sacra mysteria, quae sumpsimus, per intercessionem beatorum Dominici et Gregorii sint nobis securum contra omnia mala futura praesidium. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, haec dona quae in beatae Hosannae virginis commemoratione deferimus; et praesta ut, ea intercedente, castitatis et poenitentiae donis tibi jugiter placere valeamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Deus, qui de uno pane et de uno calice participantes unum in Christo corpus nos esse voluisti: per beatae Hosannae virginis intercessionem fideles tuos in Hosanna, strengthen Your faithful in the truth, and call back to the unity of Your Church, such as stray from rightful belief: through the same Lord.

Apr. 28—ST. LOUIS MARY GRIGNON OF MONTFORT, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, with the alternative Gospel, p. 709, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made Your confessor, blessed Louis Mary, a wonderful preacher of the mystery of the cross and of the most holy rosary, and who, through him implanted a new order in Your Church; grant through his intercession and merits, that through the life, death and resurrection of Your Only-begotten Son, we may attain to the rewards of eternal salvation: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS, C.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, who bestowed on Saint Paul an exceeding love to preach the mystery of the cross, and willed that through him a new order should flourish in the Church; grant at his prayers that we may ever bear the passion in our thoughts on earth, and deserve to gather its fruits in heaven: who live and reign.

veritate confirma, et a recta fide aberrantes ad ecclesiae tuae revoca unitatem. Per eundem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus qui beatum Ludovicum Mariam confessorem tuum, crucis mysterii et sanctissimi rosarii praecoonem eximium effecisti, ac nova per eum familia ecclesiam fecundasti; ejus meritis et intercessione conceede, ut per unigeniti Filii tui vitam, mortem ac resurrectionem, salutis aeternae praemia consequamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Oratio. Domine Jesu Christe, qui ad mysterium crucis praedicandum, sanctum Paulum singulari caritate donasti, et per eum novam in ecclesia familiam florescere voluisti; ipsius nobis intercessione conceede, ut passionem tuam jugiter recolentes in terris, ejusdem fructum consequi mereamur in caelis. Qui vivis et regnas.
MEMORY OF ST. VITALIS, M.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that at the intercession of the blessed Vitalis, Your martyr, we may be freed from all ills in our body, and cleansed from wicked thoughts in our mind: through our Lord.

Secret. May our offering, we beseech You, O Lord, be rendered acceptable to You by the blessed Louis Mary who ever offered himself a living and well-pleasing sacrifice in Your sight: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS

Secret. May these mysteries of Your passion and death, O Lord, bring to us that same heavenly fervor wherewith Saint Paul, while offering them, presented his body as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to You: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. VITALIS

Secret. May our devotion be so acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, that at the pleading of him on whose feast day it is offered, it may further our salvation: through our Lord.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut intercedente beato Vitale martyre tuo, et a cunctis adversitatibus liberemur in corpore; et a pravis cogitationibus mundemur in mente. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Oblationem nostram, quaesumus Domine beatus Ludovicus Maria tibi reddat acceptam: qui se tibi hostiam viventem ac placentem jugiter immolavit. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Accepta sit in conspectu tuo, Domine, nostra devotion, et ejus nobis fiat supplicatione salutaris, pro cujus solemnitate defertur. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. We have partaken, O Lord, of this divine sacrament, the ceaseless token of Your passion; grant to the prayers of blessed Louis Mary, Your confessor, we beseech You, that this gift which You have bestowed on us with unspeakable love, may avail us for salvation: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. PAUL OF THE CROSS

Postcommunion. We have partaken, O Lord, of this divine sacrament, the everlasting memorial of Your boundless love; by the merits and example of Saint Paul grant us, we pray, that from Your fountains we may draw water welling up to everlasting life; and that in deed and life we may bear Your most holy passion as a seal upon our hearts: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. VITALIS

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking of this sacred gift, O Lord our God, we pray that we may be sensible of its effects, by the intercession of blessed Vitalis, Your martyr, whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, divinum sacramentum, passionis tuae memoriale perpetuum; tribue quaesumus, beato Ludovico Maria confessorre tuo interveniente; ut ad nostram salutem hoc munus proficiat, quod ineffabili nobis caritate donasti. Qui vivis et regnas.

Postcommunio. Refecti participatione muneris sacri, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut cujus exsequimur cultum, intercedente beato Vitale martyre tuo, sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.
Apr. 29—ST. PETER OF VERONA, M.O.P.

Office. Ps. 63, 3. You have protected me, O God, from the assembly of the malignant, alleluia! from the multitude of the workers of iniquity, alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Hear, O God, my prayer when I make supplication to You; deliver my soul from the fear of the enemy. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may imitate with fitting devotion the faith of blessed Peter, Your martyr, who for the spread of that same faith was made worthy to obtain the palm of martyrdom: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Tim. 2, 4-10. Dearly beloved: No one serving as God’s soldier entangles himself in worldly affairs, that he may please him whose approval he has secured. And again, one who enters a contest is not crowned unless he has competed according to the rules. The farmer who toils must be the first to partake of the fruits. Take in what I tell you, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things. Remember that Jesus Christ rose from the dead and was descended from David; this is my gospel, in which I suffer even to bonds, as a criminal. But the word of God is not bound. This is why I bear all things for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with heavenly glory.

Gospel. Luke 9, 23-26. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. For he who would save his life will lose it: but he who loses his life for My sake will save it. For what does it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, but ruin or lose himself? For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when He comes in His glory and that of the Father and of the holy angels.

Offertory. Ps. 20, 4-5. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones; he asked life of You, and You have given it to him, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Let these sacraments we have received safeguard Your faithful, O Lord; and at the intercession of blessed Peter, Your martyr, shield them against every foe: through our Lord.

Apr. 30—ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA, V.O.P.

Office. Ps. 72, 28.26. It is good for me to hold fast to my God, to put my hope in the Lord God; my flesh and my heart have failed; You are the God of my heart, and the God that is my portion forever. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 72, 1. How good is God to Israel, to those who are upright of heart. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who enabled blessed Catherine, graced with a special privilege of virginity and patience, to overcome the assaults of the evil spirits and to stand unshaken in the love of Your name; grant, we beseech You, that after her example, treading under foot the wickedness of the world and overcoming the wiles of our enemies we may safely pass onward to Your glory: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Fideles tuos, Domine, custodiant sacramenta, quae sumpsimus; et intercedente beato Petro martyre tuo, contra omnes adversos tueantur incursus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Gal. 6, 14-18. Brethren: As for me, God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision but a new creation is of any account. And whoever follow this rule, peace and mercy upon them, even upon the Israel of God. Henceforth let no man give me trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus in my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

Gospel. Matt. 13, 54-58. At that time, when Jesus had come to His own country, He began to teach them in their own synagogues, so that they were astonished, and said: “How did this man come by this wisdom and these miracles? Is not this the carpenter’s son? Is not His mother called Mary, and His brethren James and Joseph and Simon and Jude? and His sisters, are they not all with us? Then, where did He get all this?” And they took offense at Him. But Jesus said to them: “A prophet is not without honor except in his own country,

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You gave Your people blessed Athanasius as a minister of eternal salvation; grant, we beseech You, that he whom we had on earth as a teacher of life, we may deserve to have as our intercessor in heaven: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Cor. 4, 5-14. Brethren: We preach not ourselves, but Jesus Christ as our Lord, and ourselves merely as your servants in Jesus. For God, who commanded light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts, to give enlightenment concerning the knowledge of the glory of God, shining on the face of Christ Jesus. But we carry this treasure in vessels of clay, to show that the abundance of the power is God’s and not ours. In all things we suffer tribulation, but we are not distressed; we are sore pressed, but we are not destitute; we endure persecution, but we are not forsaken; we are cast down, but we do not perish; always bearing about in our body the dying of Jesus, so that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our bodily frame. For we Oratio. Deus, qui populo tuo aeternae salutis beatum Athanasium ministrum tribuisti; praesta quae sumus, ut quem doctorem vitae habuimus in terris, intercessorem habere mereamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Non nosmetipsum praedicamus, sed Jesum Christum Dominum nostrum; nos autem servos vestros per Jesum. Quoniam Deus, qui dixit de tenebris lucem splendescere, ipse illuxit in cordibus nostris ad illuminationem scientiae claritatis Dei, in facie Christi Jesu. Habemus autem thesaurum istum in vasis fictilibus, ut sublimitas sit virtutis Dei, et non ex nobis. In omnibus tribulationem patimur, sed non angustiamur: aporiamur, sed non destruimur: persecutionem patimur, sed non denerinquimur: dejicimur, sed non perimus; semper mortificationem Jesu in corpore nostro circumferentes ut et vita Jesu manifestetur in corporibus nostris. Semper enim vos the living are constantly being handed over to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh. Thus death is at work in us, but life in you. But since we have the same spirit of faith, as shown in that which is written—"I believed, and so I spoke"—we also believed, wherefore we also speak. For we know that He who raised up Jesus will raise up us also with Jesus, and will place us with you.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὦ. I have laid help upon one who is mighty, and have exalted one chosen out of My people.

Secret. Almighty and eternal God, through the intercession of blessed Athanasius, Your confessor and bishop, let these gifts offered to Your majesty, be profitable to our eternal salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 25, 20.21. Master, you handed over to me five talents; behold, I have gained five others in addition. Well done, good and faithful servant, because you have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things; enter into the joy of your Lord, alleluia!

Postcommunion. We have now received the sacraments of our salvation, almighty God; grant, we beseech You, that by the prayer of blessed Athanasius, Your confessor and bishop, in whose honor we have offered them to Your majesty, we may be strengthened in every place: through our Lord.

May 3—THE FINDING OF THE HOLY CROSS

Office. Gal. 6, 14. But it behooves us to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; in whom is our salvation, life, and resurrection; by whom we are saved and delivered. Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Ps. 66, 2. May God

Gospel. John 3, 1-15. At that time, there was a certain man among the Pharisees, Nicodemus by name, a ruler of the Jews. This man came to Jesus at night, and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You have come a teacher from God, for no one can work these signs that You work unless God be with him.” Jesus answered and said to him, “Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” Nicodemus said to Him, “How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother’s womb and be born again?” Jesus answered, Responsorium. Christus factus est pro nobis obedientis usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis. Ὑ. Propter quod et Deus exaltavit illum, et dedit illi nomen, quod est super omne nomen.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὑ. Dulce lignum, dulces clavōs, dulcia ferens pondera: quae sola fuisti digna sustinere regem caelorum, et Dominum. Alleluia.

"Amen, amen, I say to you, unless a man be born again of water and the Holy Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. Do not wonder that I said to you, ‘You must be born again.’ The wind blows where it will, and you hear its sound but do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.” Nicodemus answered and said to Him, “How can these things be?” Answering him, Jesus said, “You are a teacher in Israel and do not know these things? Amen, amen, I say to you, We speak of what We know, and We bear witness to what We have seen; and Our witness you do not receive. If I have spoken of earthly things to you, and you do not believe, how will you believe if I speak to you of heavenly things? And no one has ascended into heaven except Him who has descended from heaven: the Son of Man who is in heaven. And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, that those who believe in Him may not perish, but may have life everlasting.”

Creed, p. 621.

Respondit Jesus: Amen, amen dico tibi, nisi quis renatus fuerit ex aqua, et Spiritu Sancto, non potest introire in regnum Dei. Quod natum est ex carne, caro est; et quod natum est ex Spiritu, spiritus est. Non mireris quia dixi tibi: Oportet vos nasci denuo. Spiritus ubi vult spirat; et vocem ejus audis, sed nescis unde veniat, aut quo vadat; sic est omnis, qui natus est ex Spiritu. Respondit Nicodemus, et dixit ei: Quomodo possunt haec fieri? Respondit Jesus, et dixit ei: Tu es magister in Israel, et haec ignoras? Amen, amen dico tibi, quia quod scimus loquimur, et quod vidimus testamur, et testimonium nostrum non accipitis. Si terrena dixi vobis, et non creditis, quomodo, si dixero vobis caelestia, credetis? Et nemo ascendit in caelum, nisi qui descendit de caelo, Filius hominis, qui est in caelo. Et sicut Moyses exaltavit serpentem in deserto, ita exaltari oportet Filium hominis; ut omnis, qui credit in ipsum, non pereat, sed habeat vitam aeternam.
Offertory. Protect Your people, O Lord, by the sign of the holy cross from the snares of all enemies that we may exhibit to You all-pleasing service, and our sacrifice may become acceptable. Alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, at beholding the sacrifice we make to You; may it shield us from all the horrors of war; and through the standard of Your Son’s cross, enable us to overcome the power and wiles of our adversaries, and establish us in the safety of Your protection: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. May Your abundant blessing come down upon this victim, we beseech You, O Lord; that it may mercifully work our sanctification and gladden us on this feast day of Your saints: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. By the tree we became slaves, and by the holy cross we have been set free; the fruit of the tree enslaved us, the Son of God redeemed us. Alleluia!

Secreta. Sacrificium, Domine, quod tibi immolamus, placatus intende; ut ab omni nos eruat bellorum nequitia; et per vexillum sanctae crucis Filii tui, ad conterendas pestestatis adversae insidias, nos in tuae protectionis securitate constituat. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Super has hostias, quaeasumus Domine, benedictio copiosa descendat; quae et sanctificationem nobis clementer operetur, et de sanctorum nos solemnitate laetificet. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. We beseech Your unspeakable kindness, O God almighty, that from those whom You have redeemed on the tree of the cross through the dear blood of Your Son, You would drive out the deadly venom of the old serpent; and, through the grace of the Holy Spirit, pour out upon them the cup of salvation: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking of this sacred gift, O Lord our God, we pray that we may be sensible of its effects by the intercession of Your holy martyrs Alexander, Eventius and Theodulus whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

May 4—ST. MONICA, W.

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a festival day in honor of blessed Monica, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice and give praise to the Son of God. Postcommunio. Ineffabilem clementiam tuam quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut ab iis, quos per lignum sanctae crucis pio cruore Filii tui redemisti, dira serpentis antiqui venena depellas; et eis per gratiam Sancti Spiritus poculum salutis infundas. Per eundem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus moerentium consolator, et in te sperantium salus, qui beatae Monicae pias lacrymas in conversione mercifully dry the loving tears of the blessed Monica by the conversion of Augustine, her son; grant us by the prayers of both, to bewail our sins and to find Your forgiving grace: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Tim. 5, 3–10. Dearly beloved: Honor widows who are truly widowed. But if a widow has children or grandchildren, let these learn first to provide for their own household and make some return to their parents, for this is pleasing to God. But she who is truly a widow, and left solitary, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. For she who gives herself up to pleasures is dead while she is still alive. And command them to be blameless. But if anyone does not take care of his own, and especially of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. Let a widow who is selected be not less than sixty years old, having been married but once, with a reputation for her good works in bringing up children, in practising hospitality, in washing the saints' feet, in helping those in trouble, in carefully pursuing every good work.

fortified the temple. By him also the height of the temple was founded, the double building and the high walls of the temple. He took care of his nation, and delivered it from destruction. He prevailed to enlarge the city and obtained glory in his conversation with the people; and enlarged the entrance of the house and the court. When he went up to the holy altar, he honored the vesture of holiness. And when he took the portions out of the hands of the priests, he himself stood by the altar. The watchmen came upon me as they made their rounds of the city: Have you seen him whom my heart loves? I had hardly left them when I found him whom my heart loves. I took hold of him and would not let him go till I should bring him to the home of my mother, to the room of my parent. I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the gazelles and hinds of the field, do not arouse, do not stir up love before its own time. Set me as a seal on your heart, as a seal on your arm; for stern as death is love, relentless as the nether world is devotion; its flames are a blazing fire. May 31—THE QUEENSHP OF THE B.V.M.

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast in honor of the blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice and join in praising the Son of God. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Æ. Ps. 44, 2. My heart pours forth a good theme; I recite my poem for the King. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant we beseech You, O Lord, that we, who celebrate the feast of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen, strengthened by her protection, may deserve to obtain peace in the present and glory in the future: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. PETRONILLA, V.

Collect. Graciously hear us, O God, our Savior, that as we rejoice in the festival of blessed Petronilla, Your virgin, so we may be taught by the spirit of pious devotion: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ecclus. 24, 5.7.9-11.30-31. I came out of the mouth of the most High, the firstborn before all creatures; I dwelt in the highest places, and my throne is in a pillar of a cloud. I have stood in all the earth Oratio. Exaudi nos, Deus salutaris noster, ut sicut de beatae Petronillae virginis tuae festivitate gaudemus, ita piae devotionis erudiamur affectu. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Ego ex ore Altissimi prodivi, primogenita ante omnen creaturam; ego in altissimis habitavi, et thronus meus in columna nubis. In omni terra steti et in omni and in every people, and in every nation I have had the chief rule, and by my power I have trodden under my feet the hearts of all the high and low. He who hearkens to me shall not be confounded; and they who work by me shall not sin; they who explain me shall have life everlasting.

Alleluia, alleluia! Hail, Queen of mercy, protect us from the enemy and receive us at the hour of death.

In Paschal Time.

Alleluia! The Lord arose and meeting the women, said: Hail! Then they drew near and held His feet,

At Ascensiontide:

Alleluia. Christ ascending on high led captivity captive! He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Outside Paschal Time:

He has on His garment and on His thigh a name written: King of kings and Lord of Lords. Ps. 44, 10.
The Queen stands at His right hand, adorned in gold of Ophir.

Gospel. Luke 1, 26-33. At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary. And when the angel had come to her, he said, "Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women." When she had heard him she was troubled at his word, and kept pondering what manner of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found grace with God. Behold, you shall conceive in your womb and shall bring forth a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of David His father, and He shall be king over the house of Jacob forever; and of His kingdom there shall be no end."

Offertory. Sprung from a royal line, all radiant is Mary, by whose prayers we most devoutly beg to be helped both in mind and in spirit. P.T. Alleluia!

Secret. Receive, O Lord, we beseech You, the gifts of Your rejoicing Church, and grant that, by the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen, whose merits plead for us, these same gifts may be helpful to our salvation: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Regali ex progenie Maria exorta refulget; cujus precibus nos adjuvari, mente et spiritu devotissime poscimus. T.P. Alleluia.

Secreta. Accipe, quaesumus, Domine, munera laetantis Ecclesiae, et beatae Virginis Mariae Reginae suffragantibus meritis, ad nostrae salutis auxilium provenire concede. Per.
MEMORY OF ST. PETRONILLA

Secret. May this oblation of Your people be accepted by You, O Lord, for the honor of those Your saints through whose merits they are sensible of having received help in their tribulations: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Most worthy Queen of the world, Mary ever a Virgin, intercede for our peace and salvation, you, who bore Christ the Lord, Savior of all men. P.T. Alleluia!

Postcommunion. Having celebrated the sacred rites, O Lord, offered in honor of the feast of Holy Mary, our Queen, we ask that they may avail to our salvation through the intercession of her in whose honor they have been joyously performed: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. PETRONILLA

Postcommunion. You have fed Your family with sacred gifts, O Lord; refresh us always, we pray You, by the intercession of her whose feast we celebrate: through our Lord.

Secreta. Accepta tibi sit, Domine, sacratae plebis oblatio pro tuorum honore sanctorum, quorum se meritis de tribulatione percepisse cognoscit auxilium. Per Dominum.

Communio. Regina mundi dignissima, Maria Virgo perpetua, intercede pro nostra pace et salute, quae genuisti Christum Dominum, Salvatorem omnium. T.P. Alleluia.

Postcommunion. Celebratis solemniis, Domine, quae pro sanctae Mariae, Regine nostrae, festivitate peregimus: ejus, quae sumus, nobis intercessione fiant salutaria; in cujus honore sunt exultanter impleta. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Satiasti, Domine, familia tuam muneribus sacris; ejus quae sumus, semper interventione nos refove, cujus solemnia celebramus. Per Dominum.
THE FEASTS OF JUNE

June 2—BB. SADOC AND COMPANIONS, MM., O.P.

In Paschal Time, Mass: No. 9, p. 686. Out of Paschal Time, Mass: No. 7, p. 679, except the following prayers:

Collect. After this exile may the merciful and loving virgin Mary show You to us, O Lord Jesus, whom blessed Sadoc and his companions hailed amidst the fierce attacks of the foe, and thereby deserved to receive from You the longed-for palm of martyrdom: who live and reign.

Memory of Sts. Marcellinus and Peter, MM.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the feast of Your blessed martyrs, Marcellinus and Peter, grant, we pray, that we may be stirred up by the examples of those in whose merits we rejoice: through our Lord.

Secret. May forgiveness and grace be bestowed on us, O Lord, through the unceasing sacrifice of the lamb slain from the beginning of the world; and through the prayers of those who, while hailing the queen of martyrs Oratio. Ostendat te nobis, Domine Jesu, post hoc exsilium, clemens et pia virgo Maria mater tua, quam beati Sadocus et socii inter hostiles infidelium impetus, incessanti voce salutantes, praepotatem martyrii palmam a te recipere meruerunt. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos annua beatorum martyrum tuorum Marcellini et Petri solemnitate laetificas, praesta quaeusmus, ut quorum gaudemus meritis, provocemur exemplis. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Veniam nobis, Domine, et gratiam conferat agni occisi ab origine mundi jugis haec oblatio; ac implorata eorum intercessio, qui reginam martyrum pio ritu sa-with loving service, were made worthy to wash their robes in the blood of the selfsame lamb: who lives and reigns with You.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that this victim which we offer to You, while calling to mind the feast day of Your holy martyrs, may both loosen us from the bonds of our wickedness and obtain for us the gifts of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May this heavenly banquet and this feast we keep, O Lord, enkindle us to take wise thought of the judgment to come; so that having been fervent in praise of blessed Jesus and the virgin mother Mary to the end, we may be made forever partners of Your martyrs in bliss: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Refreshed by this sacred gift, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that what we do in this rite of fitting homage, we may feel to be for the increase of Your salvation: through our Lord.

lutantes, stolam in ejusdem agni sanguine dealbare meruerunt. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Postcommunio. Mensa caelestis, et celebrata solemnia ad salutarem nos, Domine, excitent meditationem instantis judicij; ac Jesu benedicti, et Mariae virginis matris laudibus in finem usque intentos, martyrum tuorum felicitatis faciant sine fine consortes. Per eundem Dominum.

Postcommunio. Sacro munere satiati, supplices te Domine deprecamur, ut quod debitae servitutis celebramus officio, salvationis tuae sentiamus augmentum. Per Dominum.
June 3—BB. PETER SANZ, B., AND COMPANIONS, MM., O.P.

In Paschal Time, Mass: No. 9, p. 686. After Trinity, Mass: No. 8, p. 683, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who endowed Your blessed martyrs, bishop Peter and his companions, with equal steadfastness and charity that they might preach the faith to the Gentiles; grant, we beseech You, by their example and prayers, that we too stand firm in Your faith: through our Lord.

Secret. Graciously accept, O Lord, these our prayers and sacrifices which we offer, and at the intercession of the blessed Peter and his fellow martyrs, mercifully bring to perfection what Your love has accepted: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Almighty and merciful God, who enkindled in the hearts of Your saints the flame of Your love; grant to us through the sacrament we have received, the selfsame faith and strength of love, and let us profit by the example of those in whose triumph we rejoice: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatos martyres tuos Petrum pontificem ejusque socios ad fidem gentibus prædicandam, pari firmitate et caritate donasti; praesta, quæsumus, eorum exemplo et intercessione nos in tua fide permanere constantes. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, propitius preces nostras cum oblationibus hostiarum, et tuorum deprecatione martyrum Petri pontificis ac sociorum ejus, pietati tuae perfice benignus acceptas. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, qui in sanctorum cordibus flammam tuae dilectionis accendis; da nobis, per sacramenta quae sumpsimus, eamdem fidem, caritatisque virtutem, et quorum gaudemus triumphis, proficiamus exemplis. Per Dominum.
June 4—ST. FRANCIS CARACCIOLO, C.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who bestowed a zeal for prayer and a love of penance on blessed Francis, founder of a new order; grant to Your servants so to profit by his example that, by praying always, and bringing our body into subjection, we may deserve to reach the glory of heaven: through our Lord.

June 5—BL. JAMES SALOMONE, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the solemnity of blessed James, Your confessor, mercifully grant that as we celebrate his feast, we may follow in his ways: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! †. Osee 14, 6. The just man shall spring as the lily, and flourish forever before the Lord.

Alleluia! †. Matt. 28, 7. “On the day of My resurrection,” says the Lord, “I will go before you into Galilee.” Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide, after the Second Alleluia.

†. Ps. 46, 6. God has ascended with jubilee, and the Lord with the sound of trumpet, alleluia!

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Franciscum novi ordinis institutorem, orandi studio, et poenitentiae amore decorasti; da famulis tuis ejus imitacione ita proficere, ut semper orantes, et corpus in servitutem redigentes, ad caelestem gloriam pervenire mereantur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus qui nos beati Jacobi confessoris tui annua solemnitate laetificas, concede propitius, ut cujus natalitia colimus, etiam actiones imitemur. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia. †. Justus germinabit sicut lilium, et florebit in aeternum ante Dominum.

Alleluia. †. In die resurrectionis meae, dicit Dominus, praecedam vos in Galilaeam. Alleluia.

†. Ascendit Deus in jubilatione: et Dominus in voce tubae, alleluia.
Offertory. Ps. 88, 25. My truth and My mercy shall be with Him; and in My name shall His horn be exalted. T. P. Alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We sacrifice to You, O Lord, victims of praise in memory of Your saints, and trust thereby to be freed from all ills both present and to come: through, etc.

Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is that servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen, I say to you, He will set him over all His goods. T.P. Alleluia.

Postcommunion. Filled with this heavenly food and drink, our God, we humbly pray, that he in whose memory we have taken these mysteries, may help us by his prayers: through our Lord.

June 6—ST. NORBERT, B.C.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Norbert, Your confessor and bishop, a wondrous herald of Your word, and bestowed through him a new order on Your Church; grant, we beseech You, through his prayers and merits, that what he taught by word and work, Your help may enable us to perform: through our Lord.

Secreta. Laudis tibi, Domine, hostias immolamus in tuorum commémoratione sanctorum: quibus nos et prae­sentibus exu malis confidimus et futuris. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Refecti cibo potuque caelesti, Deus noster, te supplices exoramus, ut in cujus haec commemo­ratione percepimus, ejus muniamur et precibus. Per Dom.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Norbertum confessorem tuum atque pontificem, verbi tui praeconem eximium effecisti, et per eum ecclesiam tuam nova prole fecundasti; praesta quaesumus, ut ejusdem suffragantibus meritis, quod ore simul et opere docuit, te adjuvante exercere valeamus.
Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; so that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that giving thanks for Your gifts, we may, through the prayers of blessed Norbert, Your confessor and bishop, welcome gifts still greater: through our Lord.

June 7—BLESSED VIRGIN MARY
MEDIATRIX OF ALL GRACES

Office. Hebr. 4, 16. Let us go therefore with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace in seasonable aid. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 120, 1. I have lifted up my eyes to the mountains, from whence help shall come to me. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, our Mediator with the Father, who have been pleased to make Your most blessed Virgin Mother our Mother also and our Mediatrix with Yourself, grant, we beseech You that whosoever shall beg Your favor may be gladdened by obtaining the same through her prayers: who live. etc.

Secreta. Sancti tui, quaesumus Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut de perceptis munerebus gratias exhibentes, intercedente beato Norberto confessore tuo atque pontifice, beneficia portiora sumamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Domine Jesu Christe, noster apud Patrem mediator, qui beatissimam Virginem matrem tuam, matrem quoque nostram et apud te mediatricem constituere dignatus es: concede propitius; ut quisquis ad te beneficia petiturus accesserit, cuncta se per eam impetrasse laetetur: Qui vivis.
Epistle. Isaias 55, 1-3.5. All you who thirst, come to the waters; and you who have no money, make haste, buy and eat; come, buy wine and milk without money and without any price. Why do you spend money for that which is not bread and your labor for that which does not satisfy you? Hearken diligently to me and eat that which is good, and your soul shall be delighted in fatness. Incline your ear and come to me; hear and your soul shall live. Behold you shall call a nation which you knew not; and the nations that knew you not shall run to you, because of the Lord your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, for He has glorified you.

Responsory. Ecclus. 24, 25-26. In me is all grace of the way and of the truth; in me is all hope of life and of virtue. ¶ Come over to me, all you who desire me, and be filled with my fruits. Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Hail, Mother of mercy, O Mary, Mother of hope and of grace. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Apoc. 22, 16-17. I am the root and offspring of David, the bright and morning star. ¶ And the spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And let him who hears say, “Come!” \(\text{V}^\text{.} \) And let him who thirsts come; and he who wishes, let him receive the water of life, freely.

\textit{At Eastertide, after the Second Alleluia.}

\(\text{V}^\text{.} \) \textit{Matt. 28, 9.} The Lord arose and meeting the women said: Hail. Then they drew near, and held His feet. Alleluia!

\textit{At Ascensiontide:}

\(\text{V}^\text{.} \) \textit{Eph. 4, 8.} Christ ascending on high led captivity captive: He gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

\textit{Gospel, p. 275. Creed, p. 621.}

\textbf{Offertory.} \textit{Jer. 18, 20.} Be mindful, O virgin mother, who stand in the sight of God, to speak good things for us, and to turn away His anger from us. \textit{T.P. Alleluia!}

\textit{Offertory Prayers, p. 623.}

\textbf{Secret.} We beseech You, O Lord, that by the prayers of Your Mother our Mediatric, the offering of this holy sacrifice may bring down grace upon ourselves, and render everlasting loving service to You: who live and reign.

\textit{Preface: No. 11, p. 655.}

\textbf{Communion.} You are wonderful, O Mary, and Your countenance is full of grace. \textit{T.P. Alleluia.}

\textit{audit, dicat: Veni. \text{V}^\text{.} \textit{Et qui sitit, veniat; et qui vult, accipiat aquam vitae gratis.}}

\textit{Ascendens Christus in altum captivam duxit captivitatem: dedit dona hominibus. Alleluia. \textit{Evangelium, p. 275.}}

\textit{Offertorium.} Recordare, Virgo Mater, dum steteris in conspectu Dei, ut loquaris pro nobis bona, et ut avertas indignationem suam a nobis. \textit{T.P. Alleluia.}}

\textit{Communio.} Valde mirabilis es, O Maria, et facies tua plena est gratiarum. \textit{T.P. Alleluia.}
Postcommunion. May, O Lord, the prayer of Blessed Mary Your Mother and our Mediatrix so avail us, that this holy Sacrifice and the outpouring of Your grace may lead on to the complete attainment of everlasting redemption: who live and reign.

June 8—ST. MEDARD, B.C.

MEMORY

2nd Collect. Graciously hear, we beseech You, O Lord, the prayers we make on the feast of blessed Medard, Your confessor and bishop; that by the pleas of him who merited to serve You, You may free us from all sins: through our Lord.

2nd Secret. May our devotion be so acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, that at the pleading of him on whose feast day it is offered, it may further our salvation: through our Lord.

2nd Postcommunion. Grant to Your faithful, we beseech You, O Lord, ever to be gladdened by the veneration of Your saints, and to be fortified by their interceding prayer: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Subveniat nobis, Domine, beatae Mariae matris tuae ac nostrae Mediatricis oratio: ut per haec sacrosancta commercia tua, gratia largiente, ad redemptionis aeternae proficiamus augmentum. Qui vivis et regnas.

2a Oratio. Exaudi, quae sumus Domine, preces nostras, quas in beati Medardi confessoris tui atque pontificis solemnitate deferimus; ut qui tibi digne meruit famulari, ejus intercedentibus meritis, ab omnibus nos absolvas peccatis. Per Dominum.

2a Secreta. Accepta sit in conspectu tuo Domine nostra devotion, ut ejus nobis fiat supplicatione salutaris pro cujus solemnitate defertur. Per Dominum.

2a Postcommunio. Da, quae sumus Domine, fidelibus tuis, sanctorum tuorum semper veneratione laetari, et eorum perpetua supplicatione muniri. Per Dominum.
June 9—BB. DIANA, CECELIA AND AMY, VV., O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following:

Office. Let all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgins, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word: I speak my works to the king. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who endowed blessed Diana, Your virgin, with unwonted steadfastness of soul and gave her blessed Cecelia and Amy as companions on the way of evangelical perfection; mercifully grant that we too, through their example, may be strengthened in all trials and shielded, by their help, against all foes: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. PRIMUS AND FELICIAN, MM.

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, let us always follow up the feast of Your holy martyrs Primus and Felician, and through their prayers to feel the gift of Your protection: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatam Dianam virginem tuam admirabili spiritus fortitudine donasti, eique in terenda evangelicae perfectionis via beatas Caeciliam et Amatam comites dedisti; concede propitius, ut earum exemplo roboremur in arduis, et in adversis protegamur auxilio. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Fac nos, quaesumus Domine, sanctorum martyrum tuorum Primi et Feliciani semper festa sectari, et eorum suffragiis protectionis tuae dona sentire. Per Dominum.
Secret. We pray You, almighty God, to grant that the sacrifices we offer in honor of the blessed virgin Diana and her companions, Cecelia and Amy may, through their intercession, be profitable for our salvation: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. Let this hallowed sacrifice be accepted by You, O Lord, we pray, on this feast of a precious martyrdom; and may it both wash our sins away and make Your servants' prayers pleasing in Your sight: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the sacraments we have received, O most sweet Jesus, increase in us the fervor of Your love, that together with the blessed virgins Diana, Cecelia and Amy, despising all earthly things we may aspire to fellowship with You in heaven: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. We pray You, almighty God, that the solemnity of Your holy martyrs, Primus and Felician, hallowed by this heavenly mystery, may obtain for us the pardon of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Secreta. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, ut quod tibi in honorem beatae virginis Dionae ac sociarum ejus Caeciliae et Amatae offerimus sacrificium, ipsis intercedentibus ad salutem nobis provenire concedas. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Fiat tibi, quaesumus Domine, hostia sacranda placabilis, pretiosi celebritate martyrii; quae et peccata nostra purificet, et tuorum tibi vota conciliet famularum. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Percepta sacramenta, clementissime Jesu, augeant in nobis tuae dilectionis affectum, ut cum beatis virginibus Diana, Caecilia et Amata deprecientes terrena, ad tuum caeleste consortium jugiter asperemus. Qui vivis.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, ut sanctorum martyrum tuorum Primi et Feliciani caelestibus mysteriis celebrata solemnitas, indulgentiam nobis tuae, propitiationis acquirat. Per Dominum.

Epistle. Acts 11, 21-26; 13, 1-3. In those days, a great number at Antioch believed and turned to the Lord. And news concerning them came to the ears of the church in Jerusalem, and they sent Barnabas as far as Antioch. Now when he came and saw the grace of God, he rejoiced and exhorted them all to continue in the Lord with steadfast heart; for he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And a great multitude was added to the Lord. And Barnabas went forth to Tarsus to look for Saul, and on finding him he brought him to Antioch. And there for a whole year they took part in the meetings of the church and taught a great multitude. And it was in Antioch that the dis-

Epistola. In diebus illis: Multus numerus credentium Antiochiae conversus est ad Dominum. Pervenit autem sermo ad aures ecclesiae, quae erat Jerusolymis super istis: et miserunt Barnabam usque ad Antiochiam. Qui cum pervenisset, et vidisset gratiam Dei, gavisus est: et hortabatur omnes in proposito cordis permanere in Domino. Quia erat vir bonus, et plenus Spiritu Sancto et fide. Et apposita est multa turba Domino. Prefectus est autem Barnabas Tarşim, ut quaereret Saulum: quem cum invenisset, perduxit Antiochiam. Et annum totum conversati sunt ibi in ecclesia: et docuerunt turbam multam, ita ut cognominarentur primum Antiochiae discipuli, Christiani. Erant autem in ec-clesia, quae erat Antiochiae, prophetae et doctores, in Antioch there were prophets and teachers, among whom were Barnabas and Simon, called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manahen the foster-brother of Herod the Tetrarch, and Saul. And as they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said to them, “Set apart for Me Saul and Barnabas unto the work to which I have called them.” Then, having fasted and prayed and laid their hands upon them, they let them go.

Gospel. Matt. 10, 16-22. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Behold, I am sending you forth like sheep in the midst of wolves. Be therefore wise as serpents, and guileless as doves. But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to councils, and scourge you in their synagogues, and you will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, for a witness to them and to the Gentiles. But when they deliver you up, do not be anxious how or what you are to speak; for what you are to speak will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who are speaking, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks through you. And brother will hand over brother to death, and the father his child; children will rise up against parents and put them to death. And you will be hated by all for My name’s sake; but he who has persevered to the end will be saved.” Cr. p. 621.

not be My disciple. And he who does not carry his cross and follow Me, cannot be My disciple. For which of you, wishing to build a tower, does not sit down first and calculate the outlays that are necessary, whether he has the means to complete it? Lest, after he has laid the foundation and is not able to finish, all who behold begin to mock him, saying, 'This man began to build and was not able to finish!' Or what king setting out to engage in battle with another king, does not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to meet him who with twenty thousand is coming against him? Or else, while the other is yet at a distance, he sends a delegation and asks the terms of peace. So, therefore, every one of you who does not renounce all that he possesses, cannot be My disciple. Salt is good; but if even the salt loses its strength, what shall it be seasoned with? It is fit neither for the land nor for the manure heap, but must be thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle, Jer. 1, 4-10. In those days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, “Before I formed you in the bowels of your mother, I knew you; and before you came forth out of the womb, I sanctified you, and made you a prophet to the nations.” And I said, “Ah, ah, ah, Lord God; behold, I cannot speak, for I am a child.”
And the Lord said to me, “ Say not: I am a child: for you shall go to all that I shall send you; and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. Be not afraid at their presence, for I am with you to deliver you,” says the Lord. And the Lord put forth His hand, and touched my mouth. And the Lord said to me, “Behold, I have given My words in your mouth; lo, I have set you this day over the nations, and over kingdoms, to root up, and to pull down, and to waste, and to destroy, and to build, and to plant,” says the Lord almighty.

Responsorium. John 1, 6-7. There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. \( \checkmark \). This man came to bear witness concerning the light, to prepare a perfect people for the Lord.

Gospel. Luke 1, 5-17. In the days of Herod, king of Judea, there was a certain priest named Zachary, of the course of Abia; and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. Both were just before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. But they had no son, for Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in years. Now it came to pass, while he was officiating in the order of his course as priest before God, according to the custom of the priest’s office, that he was chosen by lot to enter the temple of the Lord to burn incense. And the whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense. And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing at the right of the altar of incense. And Zachary, seeing him, was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the angel said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zachary, for your petition has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth shall bear you a son and you shall call his name John. And you shall have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth. For he shall be great before the Lord; he shall drink no wine or strong drink, and shall be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother’s womb. And he shall bring back to the Lord their God many of the children of Israel, and he shall himself go before Him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the incredulous to the wisdom of the just; to prepare for the Lord a perfect people.”

Epistola. Audite insulæ, et attendite populi de longe. Dominus ab utero vocavit me, de ventre matris meae recordatus est nominis mei. Et posuit os meum quasi gladium acutum: in umbra manus suae protexit me; et posuit me sicut sagittam electam: in pharetra sua abscondit me. Et dixit mihi: Servus meus es tu Israel, quia in te gloriabor. Et nunc dicit Dominus, formans me ex utero servum sibi: Ecce dedi te in lucem gentium, ut sis salus mea usque ad extremum terrae. Reges videbunt, et consurgent principes et adorabunt propter Dominum, et sanctum Israel qui elegit te.

Gospel. Luke 1, 57-68. Elizabeth’s time was fulfilled that she should be delivered, and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and kinsfolk heard that the Lord had magnified His mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they were going to call him by his father’s name, Zachary. And his mother answered and said, “Not so, but he shall be called John.” And they said to her, “There is none of your kindred that is called by this name.” And they kept inquiring by signs of his father what he would have him called. And asking for a writing-tablet he wrote the words, “John is his name.” And they all marveled. And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he began to speak, blessing God. And fear came on all their neighbors; and all these things were spoken abroad in all the hill country of Judea. And all who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, “What then will this child be?” For the hand of the Lord was with him. And Zachary his father was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, because He has visited and wrought redemption for His people.”

I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead by His coming and by His kingdom, preach the word, be urgent in season, out of season; reprove, entreat, rebuke with all patience and teaching. Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may be shaken by no troubles whom you have firmly fixed on the rock of apostolic confession: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 3, 1-10. In those days, Peter and John were going up into the temple at the ninth hour of prayer. And a certain man, who had been lame from his mother’s womb, was being carried by, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple called the Beautiful, that he might ask alms of those going into the temple. And he, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked for an alms. But Peter, gazing upon him with John, said, “Look at us.” And he looked at them earnestly, hoping to receive something from them. But Peter said, “Silver and gold I have none; but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise and walk.” And taking him by the right hand, he raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles became strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and went with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him Collect. O God, You sanctified this day by the martyrdom of Your apostles Peter and Paul, grant to Your Church, in all things to follow their precepts from whom our faith has had its rise: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 12, 1-11. In those days, Herod the king set hands on certain members of the Church to persecute them. He killed James the brother of John with the sword, and seeing that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also, during the days of the Unleavened Bread. After arresting him he cast him into prison, committing the custody of him to four guards of soldiers, four in each guard, intending to bring him forth to the people after the Passover. So Peter was being kept in the prison; but prayer was being made to God for him by the Church without ceasing. Now when Herod was about to bring him forth, that same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and outside the door sentries guarded the prison. And behold, an angel of the Lord stood beside him, and a light shone in the room; and he struck Peter on the side and woke him, saying, “Get up quickly.” The chains dropped from his hands. And the angel said to him, “Gird yourself and put on your sandals.” And he did so; and he said to him, “Wrap your cloak about you and follow me.” And he followed him out, without knowing that what was being done by the angel was real, for he thought he was having a vision. They passed through the first and second guard and came to the iron gate that leads into the city; and this opened to them of its own accord. And they went out, and passed on through one street, and straightway the angel left him. Then Peter came to himself, and he said, “Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel and rescued me from the power of Herod and from all that the Jewish people were expecting.”

FEASTS IN JULY
July 1—THE MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD OF OUR LORD

Office. Apoc. 5, 9.10. You have redeemed us, O Lord, with Your blood, out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, and have made us for our God a kingdom. Ps. 88, 2. The mercies of the Lord I will sing forever; I will show forth Your truth with my mouth through all generations. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, who have ordained Your Only-begotten Son to be the Redeemer of the world, and who willed to be appeased by His blood; grant us, we beseech You, during this life so to venerate with solemn rite the price of our ransom, and by its power to be so shielded on earth from all present ills, that we may rejoice in its everlasting fruits in the life to come: through the same Lord. Ep., p. 246.

Responsory. 1 John 5, 6.7-8. This is He who came in water and in blood, Jesus Christ; not in the water only, but in the water and in the blood. There are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and these three are one.

Alleluia, alleluia! 1 John 5, 9. If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 19, 30-35. At that time, when Jesus had taken the wine, He said, “It is consummated!” And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit. The Jews therefore, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a solemn day), besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs; but one of the soldiers opened His side with a lance, and immediately there came out Blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true.

Offertory. 1 Cor. 10, 16. The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not the sharing of the Blood of Christ? And the Bread that we break, is it not the partaking of the Body of the Lord?

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Through these divine mysteries, we beseech You, let us draw near to Jesus the mediator of the new testament; and renew on Your altars, O Lord of hosts, the sprinkling of the blood that speaks better than that of Abel: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. Heb. 9, 28. Christ was offered once to take away the sins of many; the second time with no part in sin He will appear unto the salvation of those who await Him.
Postcommunion. Admitted to the heavenly banquet, O Lord, with joy we have drawn water from the living fountains of our Savior; may His blood become for us, we beseech You, a fountain of water springing up into life eternal: who lives and reigns with You.

July 2—THE VISITATION OF OUR LADY

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgin Mary, at whose visitation the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and merciful God, we humbly beseech Your majesty, that as You made known Your Only-begotten Son through the visit and greeting of Your mother to the child as yet unborn; so likewise You would grant to us, by the merits and prayers of the same mother, to see Him with unveiled face unto all eternity: who lives and reigns with You.

Postcommunion. Ad sacram, Domine, mensam admissi, hausimus aquas in gaudio de fontibus salvatoris; sanguis ejus fiat nobis, quaesumus, foris aquae in vitam æternam salientis. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Oratio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, majestatem tuam supliciter exoramus, ut sicut Unigenitum tuum per visitationem et salutationem genitricis ejus puerò clauso in utero revelasti; ita meritis ejusdem genitricis, et precibus, ipsum nos facias revelata facie perpetuo contemplari. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.
Collect. O God, who, encompassing us round about, protect us with the glorious witness borne to You by Your holy martyrs Processus and Martinian; let us profit by the example they have set us, and be uplifted by the prayers they unceasingly offer on our behalf: through our Lord.

Epistle. Cant. 2, 8-14. He comes springing upon the mountains, skipping over the hills. My beloved is like a roe, or a young hart. Behold he stands behind our wall, looking through the windows, looking through the lattices. Behold my beloved speaks to me: Arise, make haste my love, my dove, my beautiful one, and come. For winter is now past, the rain is over and gone. The flowers have appeared in our land, the time of pruning is come; the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; the fig tree has put forth her green figs; the vines in flower yield their sweet smell. Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come; my dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hollow places of the wall, show me your face, let your voice sound in my ears, for your voice is sweet, and your face comely.

Responsorium. Ps. 44, 5.11. Because of truth, and meekness, and justice: and Your right hand shall conduct You wonderfully. ¶ Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline Your ear, for the king has greatly desired your beauty.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ St. Luke 1, 46. My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 1, 39-47. At that time, Mary arose and went with haste into the hill country, to a town of Juda. And she entered the house of Zachary and saluted Elizabeth. And it came to pass, when Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, that the babe in her womb leapt. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit, and cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb! And how have I deserved that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold, the moment that the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leapt for joy. And blessed is she who has believed, because the things promised her by the Lord shall be accomplished." And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. For you are happy, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, because from you arose the sun of justice, Christ our Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Almighty and eternal God who care for all such as trust in You, grant, we beseech You, that through this offering we make to You, we may always feel the spiritual visitation of the blessed virgin Mary in all our needs: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. O Lord, graciously accept our prayers and offerings; and may the intercession of Your saints help to make what we bring worthy of being laid at Your feet: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary which bore the Son of the eternal Father.
Postcommunion. Almighty and eternal God, who willed us to make a commemoration of the visitation of the most blessed Mary, mother of God; grant, we beseech You, that through this sacrifice which we have received, we may never fall from the grace of her visitation: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Refreshed by the sacrifice of Your sacred body and precious blood, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that through our deed of holy devotion, we may win certain salvation: through the same Lord.

July 3—ST. LEO II, P.C.

Mass: No. 10, p. 690, with the Gospel, p. 695, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made the blessed pontiff Leo to rank with Your saints in merit; grant in Your mercy that we, who keep this feast in memory of him, may also follow the example of his life: through our Lord.

Secret. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that by the intercession of blessed Leo, we may benefit by this sacrifice, in the offering of which You were pleased to pardon the sins of the whole world: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, who have bestowed upon the soul of Your servant Leo the reward of eternal happiness; grant, in Your mercy, that we, who are weighed down by the burden of our sins, may be raised up by his intercession before You: through our Lord.

July 5—ST. ANTHONY MARY ZACCARIA, C.

Office. 1 Cor. 2, 4. My speech, and my preaching were not in the persuasive words of human wisdom, but in the demonstration of the spirit and of the power. Ps. 110, 1. I will praise You, O Lord, with my whole heart; in the assembly of the just and in the congregation. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord God, may we learn from the spirit of the apostle Paul the surpassing wisdom of Jesus Christ wherein blessed Anthony Mary was wonderfully instructed, who gathered together within Your Church new families of clerks and virgins: through the same Lord.

lando, totius mundi: tribuisti relaxari delicta. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Deus, qui animae famuli tui Leonis aeternae beatitudinis praemia contulisti: concede propitius, ut qui peccatorum nostrorum pondere premimur, ejus apud te precibus sublevemur. Per Dominum.

Oration. Fac nos, Domine Deus, supereminemt Jesu Christi scientiam, spiritu Pauli apostoli ediscere, qua beatus Antonius Maria mirabiliter eruditus, novas in eclesia tua clericorum et virginum familias congregavit. Per eundem Dominum.
Epistle. 1 Tim. 4, 8-16. Dearly beloved: Godliness is profitable in all respects, since it has the promise of the present life as well as of that which is to come. This saying is true and worthy of entire acceptance; for we work and are reviled for this reason, that we hope in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of believers. Command and teach these things. Let no man despise your youth, but be an example to the faithful in speech, in conduct, in charity, in faith, in chastity. Until I come, be diligent in reading, in exhortation and in teaching. Do not neglect the grace that is in you, granted to you by reason of prophecy with the laying on of hands of the presbyterate. Meditate on these things, give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be manifest to all. Take heed to yourself and to your teaching, be earnest in them. For in so doing you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

Responsory. Phil. 1, 8.9.10.11. God is my witness how I long after you all in the heart of Christ Jesus. And this I pray, that your charity may more and more abound in knowledge and all discernment. \(\西方\). That you may approve the better things, that you may be upright and without offense to the day of Christ.

Responsorium. Testis mihi est Deus, quo modo cupiam omnes vos in visceribus Jesu Christi. Et hoc oro, ut caritas vestra magis ac magis abundet in scientia et in omni sensu.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ἡ. Phil. 1, 11. Filled with the fruit of justice, through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 10, 15-21. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Whoever does not accept the kingdom of God as a little child will not enter into it.” And He put His arms about the children, and laying His hands upon them, He began to bless them. And as He was going forth on His journey, a certain man running up fell upon his knees before Him, and asked Him, “Good Master, what shall I do to gain eternal life?” But Jesus said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good but only God. You know the commandments: You shall not commit adultery. You shall not kill. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness. You shall not defraud. Honor your father and mother.” And he answered and said to Him, “Master, all these I have kept ever since I was a child.” And Jesus, looking upon him, loved him, and said to him, “One thing is lacking to you; go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

Offertory. Ps. 137, 1-2. I will sing praise to You in the sight of the angels; I will worship toward Your holy temple and give glory to Your name.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. O Lord, may we bring to this table of heavenly delights that same purity of mind and body which shone forth wonderfully in blessed Anthony when offering this most sacred victim: through our Lord.

Communion. Phil. 3, 17. Be imitators of me, brethren, and mark those who walk after the pattern you have in us.

Postcommunion. Through this heavenly banquet wherewith we are nourished, O Lord Jesus Christ, may our hearts be enkindled with that same fire of love by which blessed Anthony Mary raised unto victory against the foes of Your Church the standard of this saving victim: who live and reign.

July 7—BL. BENEDICT XI, P.C., O.P.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who by the grace of Your blessing raised to heaven blessed Benedict, Your chief bishop;

Offertorium. In conspectu angelorum psallam tibi; adorabo ad templum sanctum tuum, et confitebor nomini tuo.

Secreta. Ad mensam caelestis convivii fac nos, Domine, eam mentis et corporis puritatem afferre, qua beatus Antonius Maria, hanc sacratissimam hostiam, offerens, mirifice ornatus enituit. Per Dominum.

Communio. Imitatores mei estote, fratres, et observate eos qui ita ambulant, sicut habetis formam nostram.

Postcommunio. Caelesti dape qua pasti sumus, Domine Jesu Christe, eo corda nostra caritatis igne flammescant, quo beatus Antonius Maria salutaris hostiae vexillum contra ecclesiae tuae hostes extulit ad victoriam. Qui vivis.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Benedictum pontificem tuum benedictionis tuae gratia sublevasti ad caelum; populum sanctify Your people, we pray, with a new blessing of Your grace, that You may for the sake of his merits and prayers defend us from all threatening perils: through our Lord.

July 9—STS. JOHN OF COLOGNE, O.P., AND COMPANIONS, MM.

Office. Bar. 4, 23. I sent you forth with mourning and weeping, but the Lord will bring you back to me with joy and gladness forever. Ps. 150, 1. Praise the Lord in His holy places: praise Him in the firmament of His power. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who crowned with the laurel of immortality the strife for the faith of Your blessed martyrs, John and his companions; mercifully grant that fighting here on earth, we may likewise deserve, through their merits and after their example, to be crowned with them in heaven: through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 6:10-18. Brethren: As for the rest, be strengthened in the Lord and in the might of His power. Put on the armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not in... against flesh and blood, but against the Principalities and the Powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of wickedness on high. Therefore take up the armor of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day, and stand in all things perfect. Stand, therefore, having girded your loins with truth, and having put on the breastplate of justice, and having your feet shod with the readiness of the gospel of peace, in all things taking up the shield of faith, with which you may be able to quench all the fiery darts of the most wicked one. And take unto you the helmet of salvation and the sword of the spirit, that is, the word of God. With all prayer and supplication pray at all times in the Spirit, and therein be vigilant in all perseverance and supplication for all the saints.

Responsory. Deut. 32. God will revenge the blood of His servants; and will render vengeance to their enemies, and He will be merciful to the land of His people.

Resp. Isa. 51. They shall come into Sion singing praises, and joy everlasting shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 89, 14-15. We are filled in the morning with Your mercy: and we have rejoiced and are delighted; we have rejoiced for the days in which You have humbled us; for the years in which we have seen evils. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 6, 22-28. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Blessed shall you be when men hate you, and when they shut you out, and reproach you, and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and exult, for behold your reward is great in heaven. For in the selfsame manner their fathers used to treat the prophets. But woe to you rich! for you are now having your comfort. Woe to you who are filled! for you shall hunger. Woe to you who laugh now! for you shall mourn and weep. Woe to you when all men speak well of you! In the selfsame manner their fathers used to treat the prophets. But I say to you who are listening: Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you. Bless those who curse you, pray for those who caluminate you.”

Offertory. Ezech. 20. I will accept you for an odor of sweetness, when I shall have brought you out from the people, and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. From the holy of holies and Your high dwelling-place in heaven look down, Lord, on this sacrifice we offer; and at the call of Your holy martyrs' blood may our hearts be enkindled with the fire of Your love, and our prayers ascend before You as an odor of sweetness: through our Lord.

Communion. Wisd. 5. Behold how they are numbered among the children of God, and their lot is among the saints.

Postcommunion. O God, the author and giver of strength, for the sake of Your holy martyrs' faith and steadfastness, bestow on us who draw near this hallowed banquet the same enkindling flame wherewith they gave their life as a holocaust to You, for the truth of Your body and blood: who live and reign.

Offertorium. In odorem suavitatis suscipiam vos, cum eduxero vos de populis, et sanctificabor in vobis in oculis nationum.

Secreta. Respice Domine de sanctuario tuo, et de excelsa caelorum habitaculo, sacrificium quod immolamus; et sanguine sanctorum martyrum tuorum clamante, corda nostra igne caritatis flammescant, et ad te preces nostra in odorem suavitatis ascendant. Per Dominum.

Communio. Ecce quomodo computati sunt inter filios Dei, et inter sanctos sors illorum est.

Postcommunio. Deus, virtutis auctor ac largitor, per sanctorum martyrum tuorum fidem et constantiam concede, ut nos ad sacram convivium accedentes, eodem enkindamur ardore, quo ipsi pro veritate corporis et sanguinis tui, vitam tibi in holocaustum obtulere. Qui vivis et regnas.
July 10—THE SEVEN BROTHERS, MM.

Office. Ps. 112, 1.9. Praise the Lord, you children, praise the name of the Lord, who makes a barren woman dwell in a house, the joyful mother of children. Ps. 112, 2. Blessed be the name of the Lord, from henceforth now and forever. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we, who acknowledge the fortitude of Your glorious martyrs in confessing Your name, may experience their loving compassion in interceding for us before You: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 132, 7-8. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. ¶ Like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down the beard, the beard of Aaron.

alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 112, 2. Praise the Lord, you children; praise the name of the Lord. alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 12, 46-50. At that time, as Jesus was still speaking to the crowds, His mother and His brethren were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him. And someone said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brethren are standing outside, seeking You.” But He answered and said to him who told Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brethren?” And stretching forth His hand toward His disciples, He said, “Behold My mother and My brethren! For whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother.”

Offertory. Ps. 123, 7. Our soul has been delivered, as a sparrow, out of the snare of the fowlers; the snare is broken, and we are delivered. Offertory Pr., p. 623.

Secret. Graciously regard, O Lord, we beseech You, this present sacrifice; and grant, that through the intercession of Your saints, it may be an aid to our devotion and salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 12, 50. “Whoever does the will of My Father in heaven, he is My brother and sister and mother,” says the Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that, through the intercession of Your saints, we may obtain the fruit of that salvation of which we have received the pledge in these mysteries: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Anima nostra, sicut passer, erepta est de laqueo venantium: laqueus contritus est, et nos liberati sumus.

Secreta. Sacrificiiis praesentibus, quaesumus Domine, intende placatus: et, intercedentibus sanctis tuis, devotioni nostrae proficiant et saluti. Per Dominum.

Communio. Quicumque fecerit voluntatem Patris mei qui in caelis est, ipse meus frater, et soror, et mater est, dicit Dominus.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut intercedentibus sanctis tuis, illius salutaris capiamus effectum, cujus per haec mysteria pignus acceimus. Per Dominum.
July 11—BB. IGNATIUS DELGADO, DOMINIC HENARES, O.P., AND COMPANIONS, MM.

Mass: No. 8, p. 683, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who willed the lands of Annam to be watered by the blood of the blessed bishops Ignatius, Dominic and their companions; through the pleadings of these great martyrs let it blossom with the Christian religion: through our Lord.

Secret. Almighty God, author and giver of fortitude, sanctify these gifts made to Your majesty; and at the intercession of the blessed martyrs whose feast we celebrate today, heal and quicken our languid hearts: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May Your sacraments, we beseech You, O Lord, give us steadfastness, even as they strengthened Your blessed martyrs to victory; who live and reign.

Postcommunio. Tribuant nobis, quaesumus Domine, tua sacramenta constantiam, quae beatos martyres aluerunt ad victoriam. Qui vivis et regnas.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Audistis quia dictum est: Diliges proximum tuum, et odio shall love your neighbor, and shall hate your enemy.' But I say to you, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who persecute and calumniate you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven, who makes His sun to rise on the good and the evil, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. For if you love those that love you, what reward shall you have? Do not even the publicans do that? And if you salute your brethren only, what are you doing more than others? Do not even the Gentiles do that? You therefore are to be perfect, even as your heavenly Father is perfect."

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your saints, be pleasing to You and likewise cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

July 13—BL. JAMES OF VORAGINE, B.C.O.P.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who rendered Your blessed confessor and bishop, James, a glorious herald of truth and an effective peacemaker; grant us at his intercession, habebis inimicum tuum. Ego autem dico vobis: Diligite inimicos vestros, benefacite his qui oderunt vos; et orate pro persequentibus et calumniantibus vos: ut sitis filii Patris vestri qui in caelis est, qui solem suum oriri tacit super bonos et malos, et pluit super justos et injustos. Si enim diligitis eos qui vos diligunt, quam mercedem habebitis? nonne et publicani hoc faciunt? Et si salutaribus frater vestros tantum, quid amplius facitis? Nonne et ethnici hoc faciunt? Estote ergo vos perfecti, sicut et Pater vester caelestis perfectus est.

Oration. Deus, qui beatum Jacobum confessorem atque pontificem, eximium veritatis praecorum et pacis concilia- torem efficist; ejus nobis intercessione concede, ut pacem

July 19—ST. VINCENT DE PAUL, C.

Office. Ps. 91, 13-14. The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon, planted in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God. Ps. 91, 2. It is good to give praise to the Lord, and to sing to Your name, O Most High. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who strengthened blessed Vincent with apostolic power to preach the gospel to the poor and to further the beauty of holiness in the ranks of the clergy; grant, we beseech You, that as we honor his merits we may be taught by the example of his good works: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 4, 9-14. Brethren: We have been made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are without honor! To this very hour we hunger and thirst, and we are naked and buffeted, and have no fixed abode. And we toil, working with our own hands. We are reviled and we bless, we are persecuted and we bear with it, we are maligned and we entreat, we have become as the refuse of this world, the offscouring of all, even until now! I write these things not to put you to shame, but to admonish you as my dearest children, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 36, 30-31. The mouth of the just man shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment. V. The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 111, 1. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 20, 2-3. In Your strength, O Lord, the just man shall rejoice; and in Your salvation he shall rejoice exceedingly; You have given him his heart’s desire.

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your saints, be pleasing to You, and may likewise cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 19, 28.29. Amen, I say to you, that you who have left all things and followed Me shall receive a hundredfold, and shall possess life everlasting.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly food may, through the pleading of blessed Vincent, Your confessor, be shielded from all adversity: through our Lord.

July 20—ST. JEROME EMILIAN, C.

Office. Lam. 2, 11. My liver is poured out upon the earth, for the destruction of the daughter of my people, when the child and the suckling fainted away in the streets of the city. Ps. 112, 1. Praise the Lord, you children; praise the name of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, Father of mercies, through the merits and intercession of blessed Jerome, whom You were pleased should be a helper and a father to the fatherless; grant that we may ever faithfully hold fast the spirit of honore sanctorum, et nos corpore pariter et mente purificet. Per Dominum.

Communio. Amen dico vobis, quod vos, qui reliquistis omnia et seuti estis me centuplum accipietis, et vitam aeternam possidebitis.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepius; intercedente beato Vincentio confessore tuo, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus misericordiarum Pater, per merita et intercessionem beati Hieronymi, quem orphans adjutorem et patrem esse voluisti; concede, ut spiritum adoptionis, quo adoption whereby we are called, and are, Your children: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MARGARET, V.M.

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, that we may obtain forgiveness through blessed Margaret, Your virgin and martyr, who was ever pleasing to You by the merit of her chastity and the confession of Your power: through our Lord.

Epistle. Isa. 58, 7-11. "Deal your bread to the hungry, and bring the needy and the harborless into your house: when you shall see one naked, cover him, and despise not your own flesh. Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your health shall speedily arise, and your justice shall go before your face, and the glory of the Lord shall gather you up. Then shall you call, and the Lord shall hear; you shall cry, and He shall say: Here I am. If you will take away the chain out of the midst of you, and cease to stretch out the finger, and to speak that which profits not; when you shall pour out your soul to the hungry, and shall satisfy the afflicted soul, then shall your light rise up in darkness, and your darkness shall be as the noonday. And the Lord will give you rest continually, and will fill your soul with brightness, and deliver your bones, and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a fountain of water whose waters shall not fail."

Responsory. Prov. 5, 16. Let your fountains be conveyed abroad, and in the streets divide your waters. Ps. 111, 5-6. Acceptable is the man who shows mercy and lends, he orders his words with judgment, because he shall not be moved forever.

Alleluia, alleluia Ps. 111, 9. He has distributed, he has given to the poor; his justice remains forever and ever. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 19, 13-21. At that time, little children were brought to Jesus, that He might lay His hands on them and pray; but the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said to them, "Let the little children be, and do not hinder them from coming to Me, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." And when He had laid His hands on them, He departed from that place. And behold, a certain man came to Him and said, "Good Master, what good work shall I do to have eternal life?" He said to him, "Why do you ask Me about what is good? One there is who is good, and He is God. But if you will enter into life, keep the commandments.” He said to Him, “Which?” And Jesus said, “You shall not kill. You shall not commit adultery. You shall not steal. You shall not bear false witness. Honor your father and mother. And, you shall love your neighbor as yourself.” The young man said to Him, “All these I have kept from my youth; what is yet wanting to me?” Jesus said to him, “If you will be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me.”

Offertory. Tobias 12, 12. When you prayed with tears, and buried the dead, and left your dinner, and hid the dead by day in your house, and buried them by night, I offered your prayer to the Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. O most merciful God, You were pleased to destroy the old man within blessed Jerome and to create a new man according to Yourself; grant, by his merits, that we likewise being renewed may offer up this victim as a most sweet odor to You: through our Lord.
MEMORY OF ST. MARGARET

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the gifts which we offer on this the feast day of blessed Margaret, Your virgin and martyr, in whose patronage we place our hopes of deliverance: through our Lord.

Communion. James 1, 27. Religion pure and undefiled before God the Father, is this: To give aid to orphans and widows in their tribulation, and to keep oneself unspotted from this world.

Postcommunion. Fed with this bread of angels, we humbly pray You, O Lord, that as we gladly keep the yearly remembrance of blessed Jerome, Your confessor, we may follow after his example and be enabled to gain a most abundant reward in Your kingdom: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MARGARET

Postcommunion. May the mysteries received, O Lord, be a help to us; and may they, through the pleading of blessed Margaret, Your virgin and martyr, strengthen us with unfailing protection: through our Lord.

Secreta. Suscipe Domine munera, quae in beatae Margaritae, virginis et martyris tuae solemnitate deferimus, cujus nos confidimus patrocino liberari. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Angelorum pane refecti, te Domine suppliciter deprecamur, ut qui annuam beati Hieronymi confessoris tui memoriam celebrare gaudemus, ejusdem etiam et exemplum imitemur, et amplissimum in regno tuo praemium obtinere valeamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Auxilientur nobis, Domine, sumpta mysteria; et intercedente beata Margarita, virgine et martyre tua; sempiterna protectione confirmant. Per Dominum.
Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of blessed Mary Magdalene; at whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Collect. Grant to us, most merciful Father, that as blessed Mary Magdalene by loving our Lord Jesus Christ above all things, won the forgiveness of her sins, so may she seek of Your mercy our everlasting bliss: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Cant. 3, 2-5; 8, 6-7. I will rise and go about the city; in the streets and crossings I will seek Him whom my heart loves. I sought Him but I did not find Him. The watchmen came upon me as they made their rounds of the city: Have you seen Him whom my heart loves? I had hardly left them when I found Him whom my heart loves. I took hold of Him and would not let Him go till I should bring Him to the home of my mother, to the room of my parent. I adjure you, Oratio. Largire nobis, clementissime Pater, ut sicut beata Maria Magdalena Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum super omnia diligendo, suorum obtinuit veniam peccatorum, ita nobis apud misericordiam tuam, sempiternam impetret beatitudinem. Per eumdem Dominum.

Set me as a seal on Your heart, as a seal on Your arm; for stern as death is love, relentless as the nether world is devotion; its flames are a blazing fire. Deep waters cannot quench love, nor floods sweep it away. Were one to offer all he owns to purchase love, he would despise it as nothing.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 5.11. Because of truth, and meekness, and justice; and Your right hand shall conduct You wonderfully. ✝. Hearken, O daughter, and see, and incline Your ear, for the king has greatly desired Your beauty.

Alleluia, alleluia! ✝. Matt. 28, 9. The Lord arose, and meeting the women, said: Hail! Then they drew near and held His feet. Alleluia!

Offertory. Matt. 28, 2. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and said to the women, “He whom you seek is risen, as He said,” alleluia!

Mass: *No. 18, p. 721, except the following:

Collect. O God, who showered with heavenly gifts the eminent purity and burning love of Your blessed virgin, Jane; grant to us, so to imitate her virtues that we may be ever pleasing to You by our unsullied life and stainless love: through our Lord.

Secreta. Hanc nostrae oblationis hostiam, terribilis et piissime Deus, beata Maria Magdalena suarum precum cumulet incrementis, et ad remedium nobis provenire despicat. Per Dominum.

Communio. Diffusa est gratia in labiis tuis: propterea benedixit te Deus in aeternum.

Postcommunio. Sanctificet nos, quaesumus Domine, et muniat, intercedente beata Maria Magdalena, divini muneris sacra libatio; et cælestium virtutum coheredes efficacit. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatae Joannae virginis tuae puritatem eximiam, et fervidam caritatem donis cælestibus cumulasti; fac nos ita ejus aemulari virtutes, ut castitate vitae ac puris semper tibi placeamus affectibus. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF ST. APOLLINARIS, B.M.

Collect. O God, who year by year give us joy on this solemnity of blessed Apollinaris, Your martyr and bishop; mercifully grant, that as we honor his feast we may also enjoy his protection: through our Lord.

Secret. May this offering of Your people be accepted by You, O Lord, for the honor of those Your saints through whose merits they are sensible of having received help in their tribulations: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. APOLLINARIS

Secret. Sanctify, we beseech You, O Lord, the gifts consecrated to You; and for their sake and at the pleading of blessed Apollinaris, Your martyr and bishop, look down in mercy upon us: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. You have fed Your family with sacred gifts, O Lord; refresh us always, we pray You, by the intercession of her whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. APOLLINARIS

Postcommunion. May this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from crime; and at the intercession of blessed and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Glory.

_Collect._ Be the sanctifier and the helper of Your people, O Lord, and safeguard them by the protection of Your apostle, James; that they may be pleasing to You in their lives and serve You with quiet minds: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. CHRISTOPHER AND CUCUFAS, MM.

_Collect._ Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who know how strong Your glorious martyrs, Christopher and Cucufas, have been in confessing their faith, may feel how loving they are in prayer on our behalf to You: through our Lord.

_Epistle._ 1 Cor. 4, 9-15. Brethren: I think God has set forth us the Apostles last of all, as men doomed to death, seeing that we have been made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men. We are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are without honor! To this very hour we hunger and thirst, and we are naked and buffeted, and have no fixed abode. And we toil, working with our own hands. We are reviled and probasti me, et cognovisti me: tu cognovisti sessionem meam, et resurrectionem meam. Gloria Patri.

_Oratio._ Esto, Domine, plebi tuae sanctificator et custos, ut apostoli tui Jacobi munita praesidiis; et conversatione tibi placeat, et secura mente deserviat. Per Dominum.

_Oratio._ Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui gloriosos martyres tuos Christophorum et Cucuphatem fortes in sua confessione cognovimus, pios apud te in nostra intercessione sentiamus. Per Dominum.

we bless, we are persecuted and we bear with it; we are maligned and we entreat, we have become as the refuse of this world, the offscouring of all, even until now!
I write these things not to put you to shame, but to admonish you as my dearest children. For although you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet you have not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, through the gospel, did I beget you.

Responsor. Ps. 44, 17-18. You shall make them princes over all the earth; they shall remember Your name, O Lord. Ț. Instead of Your fathers, sons are born to You; therefore shall people praise You.

chosen Me: but I have chosen you, and have appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 138, 17. To me, Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exmus: persecutionem patimur, et sustinemus: blasphemiamur, et obsecramus: tamquam purgamenta hujus mundi acti sumus, omnium peripsema usque adhuc. Non ut con-fundam vos, haec scribo: sed ut filios meos carissimos moneo. Nam si decem millia paedagogorum habeatis in Christo, sed non multos patres. Nam in Christo Jesu per evangelium ego vos genui.

Responsor. Constitues eos principes super omnem

Secreta. Sacrificiis praesentibus, quaesumus Domine, intende placatus; et intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis, devotioni nostrae proficiant et saluti. Per Dominum.

Communio. Vos, qui seuti estis me, sedebitis super sedes, judicantes duodecim tribus Israel.

Postcommunio. Beati apostoli tui Jacobi, quaesumus Domine, intercessione nos adjuva, pro cujus solemnitate percepimus tua sancta laetantes. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis Christophoro et Cucuand Cucufas, we may hold on to the fruit of that salvation of which we have received a pledge in these sacred mysteries: through our Lord.

July 26—ST. ANNE, THE MOTHER OF OUR LADY

Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who uplifted to the blissful life of heaven blessed Anne, mother of Your mother; grant that we may also reach the same unending bliss through the merits of her from whose offspring You were pleased to take man's nature for the redemption of the world: who live and reign.

Secret. Take, O Lord, these gifts, fitly offered; and through the pleading merits of blessed Anne, make them a further help to our salvation: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We have now received the sacraments of our salvation, almighty God; grant, we beseech You, that the prayer of blessed Anne, the mother of the most blessed virgin Mary, in whose honor we have offered them to Your majesty, may strengthen us in every place: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatam Annam genitricis tuae matrem ad caelestis vitae gaudia extulisti; fac nos, quae sumus, gloriosis ejus meritis ad aeternam pertingere beatitudinem, ex ejus salutari puerperio pro salute mundi humanam naturam assumere dignatus es. Qui vivis et regnas.

Secreta. Accipe, Domine, munera dignanter oblata; et beatae Annae suffragantibus meritis, ad nostrae salutis auxilium provenire concede. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Sacramenta salutis nostrae suscipientes, concede, quae sumus omnipotens Deus; ut beatae Annae matris beatissimae virginis Mariae nos ubique oratio adjuvet, in ejus veneratione haec tuae obtulimus majestati. Per Dominum.

Mass: No. 7, p. 679, except:

Collect. May the happy confession of Your martyrs, Joseph and Melchior and their companions, strengthen us, O Lord; and may it earnestly entreat assistance for our human frailty: through our Lord.

July 28—BL. ANTHONY DELLA CHIESA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who set on fire with divine love blessed Anthony, Your confessor; at his intercession, we beseech You, enkindle within our hearts the fire of Your love, that loving You on earth we may enjoy unending bliss in heaven: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF

STS. NAZARIUS, CELSUS AND PANTALEON, MM.

Collect. O God, who grant us to keep the feast of Your holy martyrs Nazarius, Celsus and Pantaleon; let us enjoy their company in everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

Secret. Safeguard Your flock, O Lord, through these sanctified gifts which we offer; and make them devoted Oratio. Martyrum tuorum nos, Domine, Josephi, Melchioris et sociorum confessio beata communiat; et fragilitati nostrae subsidium dignanter exoret. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Antonium confessorum tuum divino amore inflamasti; accende quae sumus, eo intercedente, in cordibus nostris ignem tuae caritatis, ut te diligentes in terris, gaudiiis aeternis perfruamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos concedis sanctorum martyrum tuorum Nazarii, Celsi et Pantaleonis natalitia colere; da nobis in aeterna beatitudine de eorum societate gaudere. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Per haec sacra dona, quae offerimus, tuere, Doto You in mind and body whom the glory of blessed Anthony fills with joy: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, the gifts of our devotion; may they be pleasing to You for the honor of Your saints, and may they, by Your mercy, be made helpful to us: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by the mystery of Your body and blood, we pray You, O Lord, that we may be counted in our fatherland with blessed Anthony whose example draws us to You while we are yet on the way: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, through the intercession of Nazarius, Celsus and Panta-leon, Your holy martyrs, that what we have touched with our lips, we may receive with a pure heart: through our Lord.
Collect. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that even as the Christian people rejoice in the solemnity of Your martyrs, Felix, Simplicius, Faustinus and Beatrice in time, so they may enjoy it in eternity; that what they celebrate in desire, they may attain in deed: through our Lord.

Gospel. Luke 10, 38-42. At that time, Jesus entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him to her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who also seated herself at the Lord’s feet, and listened to His word. But Martha was busy about much serving. And she came up and said, “Lord, is it no concern of Yours that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her therefore to help me.” But the Lord answered and said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things; and yet only one thing is needful. Mary has chosen the best part, and it will not be taken away from her.”

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus Domine, ut sicut populus christianus martyrum tuorum Felicis, Simplicii, Faustini et Beatricis temporali solemnitate congaudet, ita perfruatur aeterna; et quod votis celebrat, comprehendat effectu. Per Dominum.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. We offer these victims to You, O Lord, on this commemoration of Your holy martyrs Felix, Simplicius, Faustinus and Beatrice, humbly beseeching that they may obtain for us Your pardon and our salvation: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the solemnity of Your holy martyrs Felix, Simplicius, Faustinus and Beatrice, hallowed by these heavenly mysteries, may obtain for us the pardon of Your mercy: through our Lord.

July 30—BL. MANNES, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who in wondrous ways led Your blessed confessor, Mannes, into the path of perfection; by the same gracious mercy direct our actions, that we may seek out what You command and obtain what You promise: through our Lord.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, pro sanctorum martyrum tuorum Felicis, Simplicii, Faustini et Beatricis commemoratione deferimus, suppliciter deprecantes, ut indulgentiam nobis pariter conferant et salutem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut sanctorum martyrum tuorum Felicis, Simplicii, Faustini et Beatricis caelestibus mysteriis celebrata solemnitas, indulgentiam nobis tuae propitiationis acquirat. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Mannem confessorem tuum, dispositione mirabili in viam perfectionis traduxisti: eadem misericordiae, gratia dirige actus nostros, ut possimus quaeere quod jubes, et assequi quod promittis. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF STS. ABDON AND SENNEN, MM.

Collect. O God, who upon Your saints Abdon and Sennen bestowed the generous gift of grace for attaining to their present glory; grant Your servants the forgiveness of their sins, that by the prayers and merits of Your saints we may be delivered from all adversities: through our Lord.

Secret. O God who mercifully are pleased to accept this unspotted victim for the sake of blessed Mannes; may this same victim which today we offer to You through his merits, further our salvation: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. We ask, O Lord, that this victim, which, while calling to mind the feast day of Your holy martyrs, we offer to You, may loosen us from the bonds of our wickedness and obtain for us the gifts of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, who have crowned blessed Mannes with abounding glory; through the power of this sacrament which we have received, grant us to live so Oratio. Deus, qui sanctis tuis Abdon et Sennen ad hanc gloriam veniendi copiosum munus gratiae contulisti; da famulis tuis suorum veniam peccatorum, ut sanctorum tuorum intercedentibus meritis, ab omnibus mereamur adversitatibus liberari. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Deus, qui per beatum Mannem immaculatam hostiam benigne suscipere dignatus es; per merita ejusdem haec, quam tibi hodie offerimus, sit nobis propitiatoria ad salutem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Deus, qui beatum Mannem cumulata gloria coronasti; per hujus suscepti sacrificii virtutem tribue devoutly on earth, that we may deserve to be crowned with him in heaven: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. By the workings of this mystery may our evil deeds be purged away, O Lord; and at the prayers of Your martyrs, Abdon and Sennen, may our just desires be fulfilled: through our Lord.

Collect. O God, who, to spread abroad the greater glory of Your name, strengthened the Church militant with new levies through blessed Ignatius; grant that we, striving on earth with him for our help and model, may win, as he won, a crown in heaven: through our Lord.

nobis, ita pie vivere in terris, ut cum eo coronari mereamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Per hujus, Domine, operationem mysterii, et vitia nostra purgentur; et intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuuis Abdon et Sennen, justa desideria compleantur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui ad majorem tui nominis gloriam propagandas, novo per beatum Ignatium subsidio militantem ecclesiam roborasti, concede, ut ejus auxilio et imitatione certantes in terris, coronari cum ipso mereamur in caelis. Per Dominum.
Collect. Graciously hear, we beseech You, O Lord, the prayer we make on the feast of blessed Germanus, Your confessor and bishop; that by the pleading worth of him who merited to serve You, You may free us from all sins: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 20, 4-5. O Lord, You have prevented him with blessings of sweetness; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. ☩. He asked life of You, and You have given him length of days forever and ever.

Alleluia, alleluia! ☩. Osee 14, 6. The just man shall spring up as a lily, and shall flourish forever before the Lord. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart’s desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones.

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your saints, be pleasing to You, and may likewise cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

Oratio. Exaudi, quaesumus Domine, preces nostras, quas in beati Germani confessoris tui atque pontificis solemnitate deferimus; ut qui tibi digne meruit famulari, ejus intercedentibus meritis, ab omnibus nos absolvas peccatis. Per Dominum.

Offertorium. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei Domine, et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum: posuisti in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso.

Secreta. Praesta nobis, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut nostrae humilitatis oblatio, et pro tuorum tibi grata sit honore sanctorum, et nos corpore pariter et mente purificet. Per Dominum.
Secret. May our devotion be so acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, that at the pleading of him on whose feast day it is offered, it may be an aid to us: through, etc.

Communion. Matt. 19, 29. Amen, I say to you, that you who have left all things and followed Me, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall possess life everlasting.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly food may, through the pleading of blessed Ignatius, Your confessor, be shielded by it from all adversity: through, etc.

Postcommunion. Grant to Your faithful, we beseech You, O Lord, ever to be gladdened by the veneration of Your saints, and to be fortified by their interceding prayer: through our Lord.

FEASTS IN AUGUST
AUG. 1—ST. PETER’S CHAINS

All as on June 29, p. 991, except the following:

Collect. O God, who freed blessed Peter from his chains and set him on his way unhurt; we beseech You to free us from our chains of sin, and in Your mercy keep us from every ill: through our Lord.

Secreta. Accepta sit in conspectu tuo Domine nostra devotio, ut ejus nobis fiat supplicatione salutaris, pro cujus solemnitate defertur. Per Dominum.

Communio. Amen dico vobis, quod vos, qui reliquistis omnia, et seculi estis me, centuplum accipiétis, et vitam aeternam possidebitis.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepimus, intercedente beato Ignatio confessori tuo, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Da, quaesumus Domine, fidelibus tuis, sanctorum tuorum semper veneratione laetari, et eorum perpetua supplicatione muniri. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Petrum apostolum, a vinculis absolutum, illaesum abire fecisti; nostrorum, quaesumus, absolve vincula peccatorum, et omnia mala a nobis propitiatus exclude. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF THE MACHABEAN MARTYRS

Collect. May this crowned brotherhood of your martyrs gladden us, O Lord, and give to our faith an increase of strength, and comfort us by a manifold intercession: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! ☧ O Peter, loosen, by the command of God, the chains of the earth, who open to the blessed the kingdom of heaven. Alleluia!

Secret. May the sacrifice offered to You, O Lord, at the intercession of blessed Peter, quicken and protect us: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. May these offered mysteries which we celebrate with gladness of heart in memory of Your steadfast martyrs, sanctify us, O Lord; and through them may both our safety and our joy be increased: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Filled with the participation of Your sacred body and precious blood, we pray You, O Lord our God, that what we carry out with devoted love, we may receive as an assurance of our redemption: through the same Lord.

Oratio. Fratema nos, Domine, martyrum tuorum corona laetificet, quae et fidei nostrae praebeat incrementa virtutum, et multiplici nos suffragio consoletur. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia. ☧ Solve, jubente Deo, terrarum Petre catenas, qui facis ut pateant caelestia regna beatis. Alleluia.

Secreta. Votiva nos, Domine, mysteria pro sanctorum martyrum tuorum constantia devota mente tractanda sanctificent; quibus et praesidium nobis crescat et gaudium. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Corporis sacri et pretiosi sanguinis repleti libamine, quaesumus Domine Deus noster; ut quod pia devotione gerimus, certa redemptione capiamus. Per eundem Dominum.
MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may increasingly follow the faith of those whose memory we recall in the partaking of this sacrament: through our Lord.

Aug. 2—ST. ALPHONSUS MARY DE LIGUORI, B.C.D.

Office. Luke 4, 18. The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me; to bring good news to the poor He has sent me, to heal the contrite of heart.

Ps. 77, 1. Hearken, my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who enlarged Your Church with a new family through the blessed Alphonsus Mary, Your confessor and bishop, burning with love of souls; we pray You, that taught by his wise counsels and strengthened by his example, we may be enabled happily to reach You: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. STEPHEN, P.M.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the solemnity of blessed Stephen, Your martyr and bishop; mercifully grant that as we honor his birthday to eternal Postcommunio. Praesta, quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut quorum memoriam sacramenti participatione recolimus, fidem quoque proficiendo sectemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui per beatum Alphonsum Mariam confessorem tuum atque pontificem, animarum zelo succensum, ecclesiam tuam nova prole fecundasti; quaesumus, ut ejus salutaribus monitis edocti, et exemplis roborati, ad te pervenire feliciter valeamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos beati Stephani martyris tui atque pontificis annua solemnitate laetificas; concede propitius, life we may rejoice in his protection: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Tim. 2, 1-7. Dearly beloved: Be strengthened in the grace which is in Christ Jesus; and the things that you have heard from me through many witnesses, commend to trustworthy men who shall be competent in turn to teach others. Conduct yourself in work as a good soldier of Christ Jesus. No one serving as God’s soldier entangles himself in worldly affairs, that he may please him whose approval he has secured. And again, one who enters a contest is not crowned unless he has completed according to the rules. The farmer who toils must be the first to partake of the fruits. Take in what I tell you, for the Lord will give you understanding in all things.

Responsory. Ps. 118, 52-53. I remembered, O Lord, Your judgments of old, and I was comforted. Fainting has laid hold upon me, because of the wicked who forsake Your law. Ps. 39, 11. I have not hidden Your justice within my heart; I have declared Your truth and Your salvation.

Alleluia, alleluia! ὦ. Ecclus. 49, 3-4. He was directed by God to the repentance of the nation and he took ut cujus natalitia colimus, de ejusdem etiam protectione gaudeamus. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Carissime: Confortare in gratia quae est in Christo Jesu. Et quae audisti a me per multos testes, haec commenda fidelibus hominibus, qui idonei erunt et alios docere. Labora sicut bonus miles Christi Jesu. Nemo militans Deo implicat se negotiis saecularibus; ut ei placeat cui se probavit. Nam et qui certat in agone, non coronatur nisi legitime certaverit. Laborantem agricolam oportet primum de fructibus percipere. Intellige quae dico: dabat enim tibi Dominus in omnibus intellectum.

Alleluia, alleluia. ὦ. Ipse est directus divinitus in poenitentiam gentis, et tulit abominationes impietatis: et guber-away the abominations of wickedness; and he directed his heart toward the Lord, and in the days of sinners he strengthened godliness. Alleluia!

_Gospel, p. 709. Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. _Prov. 3, 9.27._ Honor the Lord with your substance, and give Him of the first of all your fruits; do not withhold him from doing good who is able; if you are able, do good yourself also.

_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Enkindle our hearts, O Lord Jesus Christ, with the heavenly flame of sacrifice for an odor of sweetness, even as You bestowed on blessed Alphonsus Mary to celebrate these mysteries and therein to offer himself a hallowed victim to You: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. STEPHEN

Secret. Sanctify, we beseech You, O Lord, the gifts dedicated to You; and for their sake and at the pleading of blessed Stephen, Your martyr and bishop, look down in mercy upon us: through our Lord.

Communion. _Ecclus. 50, 1.9._ A great priest, who in his life propped up the house, and in his days fortified the temple; as a bright fire, and frankincense burning in the fire.

navit ad Dominum cor ipsius, et in diebus peccatorum corroboravit pietatem. Alleluia. _Evangelium, p. 709._

Offertorium. Honora Dominum de tua substantia, et de primitiis omnium frugum tuarum da ei: noli prohibere benefacere eum, qui potest: si vales, et ipse benefac.

Secreta. Caelesti, Domine Jesu Christe, sacrificii igne corda nostra in odorem suavitatis exure, qui beato Alphonso Mariae tribuisti et haec mysteria celebrare, et per eadem hostiam tibi sanctam seipsum exhibere. Qui vivis et regnas.

Secreta. Munera tibi Domine dicata sanctifica; et intercedente beato Stephano martyre tuo atque pontifice, per eadem nos placatus intende. Per Dominum.

Communio. Sacerdos magnus, qui in vita sua suffulsit domum, et in diebus suis corroboravit templum: quasi ignis effulgens, et thus ardens in igne.
Postcommunion. O God, who made blessed Alphon­sus Mary, Your confessor and bishop, a faithful dis­penser and preacher of Your divine mystery; through his merits and prayers grant that Your faithful may often receive You, and receiving, may praise You forever: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. STEPHEN

Postcommunion. May this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from crime, and at the intercession of blessed Stephen, Your martyr and bishop, make us partakers of Your heavenly healing: through our Lord.

Aug. 3—BL. AUGUSTINE OF LUCERA, B.C.O.P.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who were pleased to provide for Your Church in blessed Augustine, Your confessor and bishop, an example of the good shepherd; mercifully grant that by his intercession we may be found worthy to be set in Your place of pasture forever: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Deus, qui beatum Alphonsum Mariam confessorem tuum atque pontificem, fidelem divini mysterii dispensatorem et praecognem effecisti; ejus meritis precibus­que concede, ut fideles tui et frequenter percipient, et percipiendo sine fine collaudent. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Haec nos communio, Domine, purget a crimine, et intercedente beato Stephano martyre tuo atque pontifice, caelestis remedii faciat esse consortes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiae tuae in beato Augustino con­fessore tuo atque pontifice boni pastoris exemplum providere dignatus es; concede propitius, ut ejus intercessione, in loco pascuae tuae perpetuo collocari mereamur. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF THE FINDING OF THE BODY OF ST. STEPHEN, M.

Collect. Grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, to imitate what we praise, that we may learn to love even our enemies, since we are keeping the feast of the finding of his body who could pray even for his persecutors:
To our Lord . . . Who lives and reigns with You.

Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

Second Secret, p. 760.

Postcommunion. Grant to Your faithful, we beseech
You, O Lord, ever to be gladdened by the veneration of Your saints, and to be fortified by their interceding prayer: through our Lord.

Second Postcommunion, p. 760.

Oratio. Da nobis, quaesumus Domine, imitari quod colimus, ut discamus et inimicos diligere; quia ejus corporis inventionem celebramus qui novit etiam pro persecutoribus exorare: Dominum nostrum . . . Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Secreta. Sancti tui, quaesumus Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Second Secret, p. 760.

Postcommunio. Da, quaesumus Domine, fidelibus tuis, sanctorum, tuorum semper veneratione laetari; et eorum perpetua supplicatione muniri. Per Dominum.

Second Postcommunion, p. 760.
Aug. 4—OUR HOLY FATHER ST. DOMINIC, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following:

Collect. O God, You were pleased to enlighten Your Church with the merits and teaching of blessed Dominic, Your confessor and our father; grant, at his intercession, that she may not be wanting in temporal help, and may always increase in spiritual growth: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! ℣. O loving father Dominic, be mindful of your works; and standing before the supreme Judge, plead for your poor clients.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiam tuam beati Dominici confessoris tui, patris nostri, illuminare dignatus es meritis et doctrinis; concede, ut ejus intercessione, temporalibus non destituatur auxiliis, et spiritualibus semper proficiat incrementis. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia. ℣. Pie pater Dominice, tuorum memor operum: sta coram summo Judice pro tuo coetu pauperum.

Sequence

In the heavenly hierarchy, let there Sound a new harmony, produced in
A new canticle;
And let the melody of our choir on this Earth agree therewith, rejoicing with Dominic.

From the waste of Egypt the Creator of
The world called the man of His decree.
On the ark of poverty he fords the Stream of vanity for the salvation of souls.

Ex Aegypto vastitatis, virum suae voluntatis vocat Auctor saeculi,
In fiscella paupertatis, flumen transit vanitatis, pro salute populi.
Under the figure of a hound the Preacher of the world is shown beforehand To His mother. Bearing in his mouth a Torch, he exhorts all to the law of love. He is a new law-giver, he is the Imitator of Elias and a de­tester of crimes. He scatters the foxes of Sam­son and With the trumpet of Gedeon he puts to Flight the hosts of the enemy. While yet alive in body he re­stores to a Mother her son recalled from the dead. A storm bows to his sign of the Cross. The company of the breth­ren eats bread Sent as a gift of God. The blessed man, in whom all the Church now takes joy, is ex­alted. He fills the world with his seed, And at last is located in the army Of heaven. The grain of wheat lies hidden, the Star lurks concealed; but the Maker Of all things commands the bones Of Joseph to germinate and the star to Radiate for the salvation of souls.

O how the fragrance of his tomb Surpassing every aroma, proves the Bloom of his flesh! The sick come With haste and are cured, the blind and
The lame are made whole by the Repetition of his power.

Wherefore let us sound forth with Full voice our praises to the great Saint Dominic. O people of need, as you follow
In his footsteps, call on him to Intercede.

But do you, O loving father, good Shepherd and defender of your flock, Commend at the court of the great King by your constant prayer the Concerns of your forsaken sheep. Amen. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart's desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set upon his head a crown of precious stones. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Offertorium. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei, Domine, et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum: posuisti in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso.
Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts consecrated to You; and by the merits of blessed Dominic, Your confessor our father, may they be an aid to our healing: through our Lord. Preface: No. 14, p. 657.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward whom the master has set over his household to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who are bowed down by the weight of our sins may be raised up by the patronage of blessed Dominic, Your confessor and our father: through our Lord.

Aug. 5—OUR LADY OF THE SNOWS

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgin Mary, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Secreta. Munera tibi, Domine, dicata sanctifica; ut meritis beati Dominici confessoris tui patris nostri, nobis proficiant ad medelam. Per Dominum.

Communio. Fidelis servus et prudentes quem constituit dominus super familiam suam: ut det illis in tempore tritici mensuram.

Postcommunio. Concede, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui peccatorum nostrorum pondere premimur, beati Dominici confessoris tui patris nostri, patrocinio sublevemur. Per Dominum.

Collect. Mercifully hear, O God, the prayers of Your servants, that we who are gathered together on the solemnity of the virgin mother of God, may through her intercession be delivered by You from the dangers that threaten us: through the same Lord. Epistle, p. 1251.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 5.11. Because of truth, and meekness and justice; and your right hand shall conduct you wonderfully. V. Hear, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear, for the king has greatly desired your beauty.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. This is the solemnity of the glorious virgin Mary, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Juda, of the noble race of David. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 11, 27-28. At that time, as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, a certain woman lifted up her voice from the crowd, and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts that nursed You." But He said, "Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it." Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. For you are happy, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, because from you arose the sun of justice, Christ our Lord. Off. Prayers, p. 623.

Oratio. Supplicationem servorum tuorum Deus miserator exaudi, ut qui in solemnitate Dei genitricis et virginis congregamur, ejus intercessionibus a te de instantibus periculos eruamur. Per eundem Dominum. Epistola, p. 1251.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Solemnitas gloriosae virginis Mariae ex semine Abrahae, ortae de tribu Juda, clara ex stirpe David. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Loquente Jesus ad turbas, extollens vocem quaedam mulier de turba dixit illi: Beatus venter, qui te portavit, et ubera quae suxisti. At ille dixit: Quinimmo beati qui audiunt verbum Dei, et custodiunt illud.

Offertorium. Felix namque es sacra virgo Maria, et omnia laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol justitiae, Christus Deus noster.
Secret. May the humanity of Your Only-begotten Son, help us, O Lord, that He who, born of a virgin, diminished not but consecrated the integrity of His mother, may in this her solemnity cleanse us from our sins and make our offering acceptable to You, Jesus Christ our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Postcommunion. We have received, O Lord, the votive sacraments of our yearly feast; grant, we beseech You, that these may be to us a remedy both in this life and toward life eternal: through our Lord.

Aug. 6—THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD

Office. Ps. 67, 25. They have seen Your goings, O God, the goings of my God: of my king who is in His sanctuary. Ps. 76, 19. Your lightnings enlightened the world: the earth shook and trembled. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

---

Secreta. Unigeniti tui Domine, nobis succurrat humanitas, ut qui natus de virgine, matris integritatem non minuit sed sacravit, in solemnitate ejus nostris nos piaculis exuens, oblationem nostram tibi faciat acceptam, Jesus Christus Dominus noster. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae portaverunt aeterni Patris Filium.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, celebritatis annuae votiva sacramenta; praesta quaesumus, ut et temporalis vitae nobis remedia praebant et aeternae. Per Dominum.

Collect. O God, who in the glorious transfiguration of Your Only-begotten Son confirmed the mysteries of our faith by the witness of the fathers, and in the voice spoken from the bright cloud wonderfully foreshadowed our full adoption unto sonship; mercifully grant that we may be made co-heirs of that king of glory and sharers of His bliss: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. XYSTUS II, P., FELICISSIMUS AND AGAPITUS, MM.

Collect. O God, who grant us to keep the feast of Your holy martyrs Xystus, Felicissimus and Agapitus; let us enjoy their company in everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Peter 1, 16-19. Dearly beloved: We were not following fictitious tales when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of His grandeur. For He received from God the Father honor and glory, when from out the majestic glory a voice came down to Him, speaking thus: “This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased, hear Him.” And this voice we ourselves Oratio. Deus, qui nos concedis sanctorum martyrum tuorum Xysti, Felicissimi et Agapiti natalitia colere; da nobis in aeterna beatitudine de eorum societate gaudere. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Carissimi: Non doctas fabulas securi notam fecimus vobis Domini nostri Jesu Christi virtutem, et praesentiam: sed speculatores facti illius magnitudinis. Accipiens enim a Deo Patre honorem et gloriam: voce delapsa ad eum hujuscemodi a magnifica gloria: Hic est Filius meus dilectus, in quo mihi complacui; ipsum audite. Et hanc vocem nos audivimus de caelo allatam, cum esse-heard borne from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mount. And we have the word of prophecy, surer still, to which you do well to attend, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

Responsory. Ps. 95, 2-3. Sing to the Lord, and bless His name; declare His salvation from day to day. \( \forall \). Declare His glory among the Gentiles, His wonders among all peoples.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \forall \). Wisd. 7, 26. He is the brightness of eternal light, the unspotted mirror, and the image of His goodness. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 17, 1-9. At that time, Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves, and was transfigured before them. And His face shone as the sun, and His garments became white as snow. And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elias talking together with Him. Then Peter addressed Jesus, saying, "Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You will, let us set up three tents here, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elias." As he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed... them, and behold, a voice out of the cloud said: "This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear Him." And on hearing it the disciples fell on their faces and were exceedingly afraid. And Jesus came near and touched them, and said to them, "Arise, and do not be afraid." But lifting up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only. And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus cautioned them, saying, "Tell the vision to no one, till the Son of Man has risen from the dead."

_Creed, p. 621._

Offertory. Ps. 111, 3. Glory and wealth are in His house; and His justice remains forever and ever, alleluia! _Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Secret. Sanctify, we beseech You, O Lord, the gifts we offer, through the glorious transfiguration of Your Only-begotten Son; and by the brightness of His shining cleanse us from the stains of sin: through the same.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, the gifts of our devotion: may they both be pleasing to You for the honor of Your saints, and may they, by Your mercy, be made helpful to us: through our Lord. _Pref.: No. 8, p. 625._

Offertorium. Gloria, et divitiae in domo ejus: et justitia ejus manet in saeculum saeculi, alleluia.

Secreta. Oblata, quaesumus Domine, munera, gloriosa Unigeniti tui transfiguratione sanctifica; nosque a peccatorum maculis splendoribus ipsius illustrationis emunda. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Munera tibi, Domine, nostrae devotionis offerimus: quae et pro tuorum tibi grata sint honore sanctorum, et nobis salutaria te miserante reddantur. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 97, 3. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God, alleluia!

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may follow up the sacred mysteries of Your Son's transfiguration, which we keep with solemn rite, with the understanding of a mind purified from stain of sin: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, through the intercession of Xystus, Felicissimus and Agapitus, Your holy martyrs, that what we have touched with our lips, we may receive with a pure heart: through our Lord.

Aug. 7—ST. CAJETAN, C.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. O God, who granted to the blessed Cajetan, Your confessor, the grace to imitate the apostles in their manner of life; grant that by his intercession and example, we may always place our confidence in You, and desire only the things of heaven: through our Lord.

Communio. Viderunt omnes fines terrae salutare Dei nostri, alleluia.

Postcommunion. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut sacrosancta Filiæ tui transfigurationis mysteria, quae solemnī celebramus officio, purificatae mentis intelligiūta conse­quamur. Per eumdem Dominum.

Postcommunion. Praesta nobis, quaesumus Domine, inter­cedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis Xysto, Felicissimo et Agapito, ut quae ore contigimus, pura mente capiamus. Per Dominum nostrum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beato Cajetano confessori tuo apostoli­cam vivendi formam imitari tribuisti; da nobis, ejus intercessione et exemplo, in te semper confidere, et sola caelestia desiderare. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF ST. DONATUS, B.M.

Collect. O God, the glory of Your priests, grant us, we beseech You, to feel the help of blessed Donatus, Your bishop and martyr, whose feast we celebrate: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 63, 11. The just man shall rejoice in the Lord, and shall hope in Him; and all the upright in heart shall be praised. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 6, 24-33. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will stand by the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say to you, do not be anxious for your life, what you shall eat; nor yet for your body, what you shall put on. Is not the life a greater thing than the food, and the body than the clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they do not sow, or reap, or gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you of much more value than they? But which of you by being anxious about it can add to his stature a single cubit? And as for clothing, why are you anxious? See how the lilies of the field grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I say to you that not even Solomon in all his glory was arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is alive and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more you, O you of little faith! Therefore do not be anxious, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or, ‘What shall we drink?’ or, ‘What are we to put on?’ (for after all these things the Gentiles seek); for your Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His justice, and all these things shall be given you besides.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, victims of praise in memory of Your saints; and trust thereby to be freed from all ills now and in the future: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. DONATUS

Secret. Through the intercession of blessed Donatus, Your martyr and bishop whom we honor by conse-crating these gifts to the praise of Your name, grant to us, we beseech You, O Lord, an increase of devotion: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with this heavenly food and drink, we humbly pray You, our God, that he in whose memory we have taken these mysteries, may help us by his prayers: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. DONATUS

Postcommunion. Almighty and merciful God, who make us at once partakers and ministers of Your sacraments, grant, we beseech You, that through the intercession of blessed Donatus, Your martyr and bishop, we may advance both in fellowship of his faith and in worth of service: through our Lord.

Aug. 8—BL. JANE OF AZA, MOTHER OF ST. DOMINIC

Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who wonderfully made known to Your servant blessed Jane, the grace of the heavenly calling of her son Dominic; we beseech You that imitating her and her son thus foreshown to her, we may, minis tui dicatis muneribus honoramus, piae nobis fructus devotionis accrescat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Refecti cibo potuque caelesti, Deus noster, te supplices exoramus, ut in cujus haec commemorazione percepimus, ejus muniamur et precibus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, qui nos sacramentorum tuorum et participes efficis et ministros, praesta quaesumus, ut intercedente beato Donato martyre tuo atque pontifice, ejusdem proficiamus et fidei consortio et digno servitio. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatae Joannae famulae tuae gratiam supernae vocationis filii sui Dominici mirabiliter ostendisti; quaesumus, ut ipsam, praemonstratumque filium imitantes, by the loving intercession of them both, receive everlasting rewards: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF
STS. CYRIACUS, LARGUS AND SMARAGDUS, MM.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the solemnity of Your holy martyrs, Cyriacus, Largus and Smaragdus; mercifully grant that we may imitate their fortitude in suffering whose birthday in heaven we celebrate: through our Lord.

Secret. O God, in whose sight this victim which we offer ever appears propitious; grant through the merits of blessed Jane and of her son Dominic, that it may be an aid to our salvation: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. May our devotion be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, and at the pleading of those on whose feast day it is offered, may it be an aid to our salvation: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Nourished by this heavenly sweetness, we entreat Your boundless mercy, O God, that this victim may, through the pleading merits of blessed Jane pio utriusque interventu aeterna praemia consequamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos annua beatorum martyrum tuorum Cyriaci, Largi, et Smaragdi solemnitate laetificas; concede propitius, ut quorum natalitia colimus, virtutem quoque passionis imitemur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Deus, in cujus conspectu haec, quam offerimus, hostia placabilis semper appareat: largire, ut per beatae Ioannae meritum, filique Dominici, propitiatoria sit nobis ad salutem. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Accepta sit in conspectu tuo Domine nostra devotion, et eorum nobis fiat supplicatione salutaris, pro quorum solemnitate defertur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Caelesti pasti dulcedine, ineffabilem tuam Deus exoramus clementiam, ut haec hostia, intercedentibus and her holy son Dominic, be to us a cleansing from sin, a partaking of grace, and a means toward obtaining eternal reward: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking of this sacred gift, O Lord, our God, we pray that we may be sensible of its effects, by the intercession of Your holy martyrs Cyriacus, Largus and Smaragdus, whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

Aug. 9—BL. JOHN OF SALERNO, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, with the Gospel, p. 709, except:

Collect. O God, who for the spread of the faith made blessed John, Your confessor, a noble preacher of Your word; grant to us through his intercession, that what we believe with the heart unto justice, we may confess with the mouth unto salvation: through our Lord.

ON THE SAME DAY

Aug. 9—VIGIL OF ST. LAWRENCE, M.

Office. Ps. 111, 9. He has distributed, he has given to the poor; his justice remains forever and ever, his meritis beatae Joannae, ac sancti filii sui Dominici, sit nobis ablutio scelerum, gratiae participatio, ac praemii aeterni consecutio. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui in fidei incrementum, beatum Joannem confessorem verbi tui praecognem eximium effecisti; ejus nobis intercessione largire, ut quod corde credimus ad justitiam, ore ad salutem confiteamur. Per Dominum.

horn shall be exalted in glory. Ps. 111, 1. Blessed is the man that fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. Be near to our prayers, O Lord, and by the intercession of blessed Lawrence, Your martyr, for whose feast we are making ready, graciously pour upon us Your everlasting mercy: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 111, 9.2. He has distributed, he has given to the poor; his justice remains forever and ever. ¶ His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the righteous shall be blessed. Gospel; p. 717.

Offertory. Job 16, 20. My prayer is pure and therefore I ask that a place may be given to my voice in heaven; for there is my judge, and He who knows my conscience is on high; let my prayer ascend to the Lord. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Graciously accept, O Lord, the victim which we offer to You; and at the pleading of blessed Lawrence, Your martyr, loosen us from the bonds of our sins: through our Lord.

Beatus vir qui timet Dominum: in mandatis ejus cupit nimis. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Adesto Domine supplicationibus nostris, et intercessione beati Laurentii martyris tui, cujus praeventimus festivitatem, perpetuam nobis misericordiam benignus impende. Per Dominum.

Offertorium. Oratio mea munda est, et ideo peto, ut detur locus voc: meae in caelo: quia ibi est judex meus, et conscius meus in excelsis: ascendat ad Dominum deprecatio mea.

Secreta. Hostias, Domine, quas tibi offerimus, propitius suscipe; et intercedente beato Laurentio martyre tuo, vincula peccatorum nostrorum absolve. Per Dominum.
Communion. Matt. 16, 24. He who wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that as on this commemoration of blessed Lawrence, Your martyr, we honor him in a temporal rite, so we may rejoice ever in beholding him in eternal life: through our Lord.

Aug. 10—ST. LAWRENCE, M.

Office. Ps. 95, 6. Praise and beauty are before Him; holiness and majesty in His sanctuary. Ps. 95, 1. Sing to the Lord a new canticle; sing to the Lord all the earth. Glory.

Collect. Grant to us, we beseech You, almighty God, to extinguish the flames of our vices, even as You granted blessed Lawrence to overcome his fiery torments: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Cor. 9, 6-10. Brethren: He who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Let each one give according as he has determined in his heart, not grudgingly or from compulsion, for "God loves a cheerful giver." And God is able to make all grace abound in you, so that always having ample means, you may abound in every good work, as it is written, "He has scattered abroad and has given to the poor, his justice remains forever." Now He who provides the sower with seed will both give you bread to eat and will multiply your seed, and will increase the growth of the fruits of your justice.

Responsory. Ps. 16, 3. You have proved my heart, O Lord, and visited it by night. ∥. You have tried me by fire, and iniquity has not been found in me.

Alleluia, alleluia! ∥. The Levite Lawrence wrought a good work, who gave sight to the blind by the sign of the cross, Alleluia!

Gospel. John 12, 24-26. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless the grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it brings forth much fruit. He who loves his life, loses it; and he who hates his life

Responsorium. Probasti, Domine, cor meum, et visitasti nocte. ∥. Ignem me examinasti, et non est inventa in me iniquitas.

Alleluia, alleluia. ∥. Levita Laurentius bonum opus operatus est: qui per signum crucis caecos illuminavit. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Amen, amen dico vobis, nisi granum frumenti cadens in terram mortuam fuerit, ipsum solum manet. Si autem mortuam fuerit, multum fructum affert. Qui amat animam suam, perdet eam; et qui oedit animam suam in hoc mundo, in this world, keeps it unto life everlasting. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me; and where I am there also shall My servant be. If anyone serves Me, My Father will honor him.”

Offertory. Ps. 95, 6. Praise and beauty are before Him; holiness and majesty are in His sanctuary.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive, we beseech You, O Lord, the gifts fittingly offered to You; and through the pleading merits of blessed Lawrence grant that they may be an aid to our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. John 12, 26. If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me: and where I am, there also shall My servant be.

Postcommunion. Filled with Your sacred gift, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that our solemn rite of homage due, may, at the pleading of blessed Lawrence, Your martyr, sensibly increase in us Your saving grace: through our Lord.

in vitam aeternam custodit eam. Si quis mihi ministrat, me sequatur; et ubi sum ego, illic et minister meus erit. Si quis mihi ministraverit, honorificabit eum Pater meus.

Offertorium. Confessio, et pulchritudo in conspectu ejus: sanctitas, et magnificentia in sanctificatione ejus.

Secreta. Accipe, quaesumus Domine, munera dignanter oblata; et beati Laurentii suffragantibus meritis, ad nostrae salutis auxilium provenire concede. Per Dominum.

Communio. Qui mihi ministrat, me sequatur; et ubi ego sum, illic et minister meus erit.

Postcommunio. Sacro munere satiati, supplices te Domine deprecamur, ut quod debitae servitutis celebramus officio, intercedente beato Laurentio martyre tuo, salvationis tuae sentiamus augmentum. Per Dominum.
Aug. 12—ST. CLARE, V.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayer:

Collect. We Your servants who keep the feast of Your blessed virgin, Clare, beseech You, O Lord, that by her intercession You may make us sharers in her joys and co-heirs of Your Only-begotten Son: who lives and reigns with You.

---

Aug. 14—VIGIL OF THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY

Collect. O God, You were pleased to choose for Your dwelling the virginal womb of the blessed Mary; grant to us, we beseech You, that shielded by her protection You would make us partake with joy in this her festival: who live and reign.

Oratio. Famulos tuos, quaesumus Domine, beatae virginis tuae Clarae votiva natalitia recensentes, caelestium gaudiorum sua facias interventione participes et tui Unigeniti coheredes. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Oratio. Deus, qui virginalem aulam beatae Mariae, in qua habitares, eligere dignatus es; da quaesumus, ut sua nos defenseone munitos, jucundos facias suae interesse festivitati. Qui vivis et regnas.
MEMORY OF ST. EUSEBIUS, C.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the solemnity of blessed Eusebius, Your confessor; mercifully grant that as we honor his feast, so we may through his example, draw near to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ecclus. 24, 23-31. I bud forth delights like the vine, my blossoms become fruit fair and rich. I am the mother of fair love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope. In me is all grace of the way and of the truth, in me is all hope of life and of virtue. Come to me, all you that yearn for me, and be filled with my fruits; for my spirit is sweeter than honey, and my inheritance better to have than honey and the honeycomb. My memory is to everlasting generations. They who eat of me will hunger still, and they who drink of me will thirst for more. He who obeys me will not be put to shame, they who serve me will never fail. They who explain me shall have life everlasting.

Responsory. You are blessed and venerable, O virgin Mary, who without any violation of purity were made the mother of our Savior. V. O virgin mother of God, Oratio. Deus, qui nos beati Eusebii confessoris tui annua solemnitate laetificas; concede propitius, ut cujus natalitia colimus, per ejus ad te exempla gradiamur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Ego quasi vitis fructificavi suavitatem odoris, et flores mei fructus honoris et honestatis. Ego mater pulcræ dilectionis, et timoris, et agnitionis, et sanctae spei. In me gratia omnis viae et veritatis, in me omnis spes vitae et virtutis. Transite ad me omnes qui concupiscitis me, et a generationibus meis implemini; spiritus enim meus super mel dulcis, et hereditas mea super mel et favum. Memoria mea in generationes saeculorum. Qui edunt me, adhuc esurient; et qui bibunt me, adhuc sitient. Qui audit me non confundetur, et qui operantur in me non peccabunt. Qui elucidant me vitam aeternam habebunt.

Responsorium. Benedicta et venerabilis es virgo Maria: qui sine tactu pudoris, inventa es mater salvatoris. V.
He whom the whole world is unable to contain, being made man, enclosed himself in your womb.

Gospel. Luke 11, 27-28. At that time, as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, a certain woman from the crowd lifted up her voice and said to Him, "Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts that nursed You." But He said, "Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it."

Offertory. Blessed are You, O virgin Mary, who bore the creator of all things; You brought forth Him who made you, and you remain ever a virgin.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the prayer of God's mother commend our gifts to Your pity, O Lord; for You withdrew her from this world that she might with confidence intercede with You for our sins: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. EUSEBIUS

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, victims of praise in memory of Your saints; and trust thereby to be freed from all ills both present and to come: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 17, p. 627.

Virgo Dei genitrix, quem totus non capit orbis, in tua se clausit viscera, factus homo.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Loquente Jesu ad turbas, extollens vocem quaedam mulier de turba, dixit illi: Beatus venter qui te portavit, et ubera quae suxisti. At ille dixit: Quinimmo beati qui audiunt verbum Dei, et custodiunt illud.

Offertorium. Beata es virgo Maria, quae omnium portasti creatorem: genuisti qui te fecit, et in aeternum permanes virgo.

Secreta. Munera nostra, Domine, apud clementiam tuam Dei genitrictis commendet oratio; quam idcirco de prae-senti saeculo transtulisti, ut pro peccatis nostris apud te fiducialiter intercedat. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Laudis tibi Domine hostias immolamus in tuorum commemoratione sanctorum; quibus nos et prae-șentibus exui malis confidimus et futuris. Per Dominum.
Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Postcommunion. Bestow, O merciful God, strength upon our weakness, that we who anticipate the feast of the holy mother of God, may, by the help of her intercession, arise from our iniquities: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. EUSEBIUS

Postcommunion. Refreshed with this heavenly food and drink, our God, we humbly pray You, that he in whose memory we have received this sacrament, may help us by his prayers: through our Lord.

Aug. 15—THE ASSUMPTION OF OUR LADY

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgin Mary, on whose assumption the angels rejoice and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae porta-vernunt aeterni Patris Filium.

Postcommunio. Concede, misericors Deus, fragilitati nostrae praesidium, ut qui sanctae Dei genitrices festivitatem praevenimus, intercessionis ejus auxilio, a nostris iniquitatibus resurgamus. Per eundem Dominum.

Postcommunio. Refecti cibo potuque caelesti, Deus noster, te supplices exoramus, ut in cujus haec commemoratio tione percepimus, ejus muniamur et precibus. Per Dominum.

Collect. May this hallowed feast shower us with saving grace, O Lord; since today the mother of God underwent the death of the body yet could not be held in deathbonds, as having brought forth Your incarnate Son, our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle. Ecclus, 24, 11-20. In all things I sought rest, and I shall abide in the inheritance of the Lord. Then the creator of all things commanded, and said to me; and He who made me rested in my tent; and He said to me, "Let your dwelling be in Jacob, and your inheritance in Israel, and take root in My elect." And so was I established in Sion, and in the holy city likewise I rested, and my power was in Jerusalem; and I took root in an honorable people, and in the portion of my God His inheritance; and my abode is in the full assembly of saints. I was exalted like a cedar in Lebanon, and as a cypress tree on mount Sion; I was exalted like a palm tree in Cades, and as a rose plant in Jericho; as a fair olive tree in the plains, and as a plane tree by the water in the streets was I exalted. I gave forth perfume like a Oratio. Veneranda nobis, Domine, hujus diei festivitas opem conferat salutarem; in qua sancta Dei genitrix mortem subiit temporalem, nec tamen mortis nexibus deprimi potuit, quae Filium tuum Dominum nostrum de se genuit incarnatum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

cinnamon and aromatic balm; I yield my sweet odor like the best myrrh.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 5.11. Because of truth, meekness and justice; and your right hand shall conduct you wonderfully. \( \checkmark \). Hearken, daughter, and see, and incline your ear, for the king has greatly desired your beauty.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \). This day the virgin Mary has ascended into heaven; rejoice, for she is reigning with Christ forever. Alleluia! *Gospel, p. 1039. Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. For you are happy, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, because from you arose the sun of justice, Christ our Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the prayer of the mother of God help Your people, O Lord, that we may feel her intercession for us in heavenly glory, whom we know to have passed out of this life to satisfy the condition of our mortality: through the same Lord. Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

aromatizans odorem dedi: quasi myrrha electa dedi suavitate odoris.

Responsorium. Propter veritatem, et mansuetudinem, et justitiam: et deducet te mirabiliter dextera tua. \( \checkmark \). Audi filia, et vide, et inclina aurem tuam: quia concupivit rex speciem tuam.

Alleluia, alleluia. \( \checkmark \). Hodie Maria virgo caelos ascendit: gaudete, quia cum Christo regnat in aeternum. Alleluia.

Offertorium. Felix namque es sacra virgo Maria, et omnia laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol justitiae, Christus Deus noster.

Secreta. Subveniat, Domine, plebi tuae Dei genitricis oratio, quam etsi pro conditione carnis migrasse cognoscimus, in caelesti gloria apud te pro nobis intercedere sentiamus. Per eumdem Dominum.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae portaverunt aeterni Patris Filium.
Postcommunion. Made partakers at Your heavenly table, we implore Your clemency, O Lord our God, that we who honor the assumption of God's mother, may be freed at her intercession from all threatening ills: through the same Lord.

Aug. 16—ST. JOACHIM, C., FATHER OF OUR LADY

Office. Ps. 111, 9. He has distributed, he has given to the poor; his justice remains forever and ever, his horn shall be exalted in glory. Ps. 111, 1. Blessed is the man who fears the Lord; he delights exceedingly in His commandments. Glory.

Collect. O God, who in preference to all Your saints willed blessed Joachim to be the father of the mother of Your Son; grant, we beseech You, that as we keep his feast day, so too we may ever feel his intercession: through the same Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 111, 9. 2. He has distributed, he has given to the poor; his justice remains forever and ever. ¥. His seed shall be mighty upon earth; the generation of the righteous shall be blessed.

Postcommunion. Mensae caelestis participes effecti, imploramus clementiam tuam, Domine Deus noster, ut qui assumptionem Dei genitricis colimus, a cunctis malis imminentibus, ejus intercessione liberemur. Per eumdem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui prae omnibus sanctis tuis beatum Joachim genitricis Filii tui patrem esse voluisti; concede quaesumus, ut cujes festa veneramur, ejus quoque perpetuo patrocinia sentiamus. Per eumdem Dominum.

Epistola, p. 706.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Osee 14. The just shall spring as the lily, and flourish forever before the Lord. Alleluia!

thiel, Salathiel begot Zorobabel. And Zorobabel begot Abiud, Abiud begot Eliachim, Eliachim begot Azor. And Azor begot Sadoc, Sadoc begot Achim, Achim begot Eliud. And Eliud begot Eleazar, Eleazar begot Matthan, Matthan begot Jacob. And Jacob begot Joseph, the husband of Mary, and of her was born Jesus who is called Christ.

Offertory. Ps. 8, 6.7. You have crowned him with glory and honor; and have set him over the works of Your hands, O Lord. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive, O most merciful God, the sacrifice offered to Your majesty in honor of the most holy patriarch Joachim, father of the blessed virgin Mary; that by his intercession, joined to that of his spouse and of their most blessed child, we may be worthy to obtain the perfect remission of our sins, and glory everlasting: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward whom the master will set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.
Postcommunion. We pray You, almighty God, that through these sacraments which we have received, and at the pleading merits and prayers of the blessed Joachim, father of her who bore Your beloved Son our Lord Jesus Christ, we may be worthy to share Your grace in this present life, and eternal glory in the life to come: through the same Lord.

Aug. 17—ST. HYACINTH, C.O.P.

Office. Ecclus. 24, 2-4. He shall open his mouth in the churches of the Most High, and in the midst of his own people he shall be exalted; in the multitude of the elect he shall have praise, and among the blessed he shall be blessed. Ps. 33, 16. The eyes of the Lord are upon the just, and His ears are open to their prayers. Glory.

Collect. O God, who made blessed Hyacinth, Your confessor, glorious among the peoples of different nations by the holiness of his life and the splendor of his miracles; grant that we may amend our lives after his example and be defended against all our foes by his help: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut per haec sacramenta, quae sumpsimus, intercedentibus meritis et precibus beati Joachim, patris genitricis dilecti Filii tui Domini nostri Jesu Christi; tuae gratiae in praesenti, et aeternae gloriae in futuro participes esse mereamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistle. 1 Thess. 2, 2-8. Brethren: We had confidence in our God to preach to you the gospel of God amid much anxiety. For our exhortation was not from error, nor from impure motives, nor from guile. But as approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak not as pleasing men, but God, who proves our hearts. For at no time have we used words of flattery, as you know, nor any pretext for avarice, God is witness, nor have we sought glory from men, neither from you nor from others. Although as the apostles of Christ we could have claimed a position of honor among you, still while in your midst we were as children: as if a nurse were cherishing her own children, so we in our love for you would gladly have imparted to you not only the gospel of God, but also our own souls; because you had become most dear to us.

Responsory. Wise already in his youth, he was filled as a river with wisdom; and proved in fidelity, he was known to be faithful in his words. Ἡ. In his life he did great wonders, and in death he wrought miracles.

Epistola. Fratres: Fiduciam habuimus in Deo nostro loqui ad vos evangelium Dei in multa sollicitudine. Exhortatio enim nostra non de errore, neque de immunditia, neque in dolo; sed sicut probati sumus a Deo ut crederetur nobis evangelium: ita loquimur non quasi hominibus placentes, sed Deo, qui probat corda nostra. Neque enim aliquando fuimus in sermone adulationis, sicut scitis; neque in occasione avaritiae, Deus testis est: nec quaerentes ab hominibus gloriam, neque a vobis, neque ab aliis. Cum possemus vobis oneri esse ut Christi apostoli: sed facti sumus parvuli in medio vestrum, tamquam si nutrix foveat filios suos. Ita desiderantes vos, cupide volebatis tradere vobis non solum evangelium Dei, sed etiam animas nostras: quoniam carissimi nobis facti estis.

Responsorium. Eruditus in juventute sua, impleto est, quasi flumen, sapientia: et in fide probatus, cognitus est in verbis suis fidelis. Ἡ. In vita sua fecit monstra, et in morte mirabilia operatus est.
Alleluia, alleluia! Rejoice, O my son Hyacinth, for your prayers are heard by My Son; and whatever you shall think well to ask, you shall by My intercession obtain. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 10, 7-10. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “Go preach the message, ‘The kingdom of heaven is at hand!’ Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. Freely you have received, freely give. Do not keep gold, or silver, or money in your girdles, no wallet for your journey, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staff; for the laborer deserves his living.”

Offertory. Isa. 46, 11. From a far land the Lord called the man of his own will, and He gave him hidden treasures, and made known to him the mysteries of His secrets.

Secret. Through the intercession of Your most holy mother, may blessed Hyacinth, who fearlessly walked upon the waters, bring this sacred victim before the sight of Your divine majesty, O Lord; and mercifully be pleased to accept it as offered for our salvation: through.

Alleluia, alleluia. Gaude fili Hyacinthe, quia tuae a Filio meo exaudiantur preces: et quidquid petendum duxeris, me interveniente consequeris. Alleluia.

Offertorium. De terra longinquaque vocavit Dominus virum voluntatis suae, et dedit illi thesauros absconditos, et arcanæ secretorum suorurn.

Secreta. Sacras hostias, Domine, interventu dignissimæ matris, intrepidus super aquas ambulator beatus Hyacinthus ante conspectum divinæ tuæ majestatis deférat; et ad salutem nostram delatas, benignus acceptare digneris. Per Dominum.
Communion. Cant. 5, 10.14. My beloved is white and ruddy; His hands are turned, full of hyacinths.

Postcommunion. We, whom You have nourished with the boundless sweetness of Your body and blood, beseech You, O Lord, that, helped by the prayers of blessed Hyacinth, You would grant us to attain to eternal joy: who live and reign.

Aug. 18—BL. AIMO TAPARELLI, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. Almighty and merciful God, whom to serve is to reign; grant by the merits and intercession of blessed Aimo, Your confessor, whom You have made a mighty champion of the faith, that we may loyally serve You in Your commandments on earth, and thus be worthy to enjoy with him the everlasting kingdom in heaven: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. AGAPITUS, M.

Collect. Let Your church be happy, O God, putting her trust in the prayers of the holy martyr Agapitus: he in glory pleading in her behalf, may she serve You, and ever abide in safety and in peace: through our Lord.

Communio. Dilectus meus candidus et rubicundus: manus ejus tornatiles, plenae hyacinthis.

Postcommunio. Quos ineffabili suavitate corporis et sanguinis tui, Domine, recreasti, quaesumus, ut beati Hyacinthi piis precibus adjutos, ad aeternam facias pervenire laetitiam. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, cui servire regnare est: per merita et intercessionem beati Aimonis confessoris tui, quem eximium fidei propugnatorum effecisti, concede, ut mandatis tuis fideliter servientes in terris, aeterno regno perfrui cum ipso mereamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, by the gifts we offer, and at the intercession of blessed Aimo, Your confessor, stretch forth the right hand of Your omnipotence to defend Your Church; that all adversity and error being overcome, she may rejoice in that unity and peace for which she longs: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. AGAPITUS

Secret. O Lord, favorably regard the offerings we lay at Your feet on this the feast day of the saint on whom we rely for our deliverance: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O Lord Jesus Christ, the good shepherd, who to further the unity of Your Church ordained that all Your sheep should share in one heavenly banquet; grant, we beseech You, through the merits and prayers of blessed Aimo, Your confessor, that Your fold may be ever one in soul through faith, and one in deed through love: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. AGAPITUS

Postcommunion. You have nourished Your family with holy gifts, O Lord; quicken us, we pray You, through the constant help of him whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

Secreta. Oblatis Domine placare muneribus, et intercedente beato Aimone confessore tuo, omnipotentem dexteram ad defensionem ecclesiae tuae clementer extende; ut destructis adversitatibus et erroribus universis, optata fidei unitate et pace laetetur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe Domine munera, quae in ejus tibi solemnitate deferimus, cujus nos confidimus patrocinio liberari. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Domine Jesu pastor bone, qui ad unitatem ecclesiae tuae promovendam, omnes oves tuus unius caelestis convivii participes esse voluisti: praesta quaecusumus, ut beati Aimonis confessoris tui intervenientibus meritis, una sit semper in grege tuo fides mentium, et pietas actionum. Qui vivis et regnas.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, with Epistle, p. 848.

Aug. 21—ST. JANE FRANCES FREMIOT DE CHANTAL, W.

Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following prayers:

Collect. Almighty and merciful God, who in every path of life endowed blessed Jane Frances, inflamed with Your love, with a wondrous fortitude of soul for advancing in the way of perfection, and willed to adorn Your Church through her with a new family; grant to her merits and prayers, that we, who, conscious of our weakness, rely on Your strength, may, through the help of Your heavenly grace, conquer all our foes: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatae Aemiliae virgini tuae terrena cuncta despicere, et te solum quaerere tribuisti; ejus meritis et intercessione concede, ut spretis perituris illecebris, te toto corde diligamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, qui beatae Joan-nam Franciscam tuo amore succensam, admirabili spiritus fortitudine per omnes vitae semitas in via perfectionis donasti, quique per illam illustrare ecclesiam tuam nova prole voluisti: ejus meritis et precibus concede, ut qui infirmitatis nostrae consciis de tua virtute confidimus, caelestis gratiae auxilio cuncta nobis adversantia vincamus. Per Dominum.
Secret. Let this saving victim, O Lord, we pray, enkindle in us that flame of love which ardently glowed in the heart of blessed Jane Frances, and burned with the fires of undying charity: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Pour out upon us, O Lord, the spirit of Your love, that by the intercession of blessed Jane Frances, those whom You have fed with the strength of this heavenly bread, will despise the things of earth and with pure minds seek after You: through our Lord.

Aug. 22—THE IMMACULATE HEART OF OUR LADY

Office. Heb. 4, 16. Let us draw near with confidence to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need. Ps. 44, 2. My Heart overflows with a goodly theme; as I sing my ode to the King. Glory. "Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Secret. While offering to Your majesty the immaculate Lamb, we pray You, O Lord, that the same divine fire inflame our hearts, which so wondrously burned within the heart of the blessed virgin Mary: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. May this offering of Your devoted people be accepted by You, O Lord, for the honor of Your saints, through whose merits they are sensible of having received help in their tribulations: through our Lord.

Communion. John 19, 26-27. Jesus said to His mother: “Woman, behold your son.” Then He said to the disciple, “Behold your mother.” And from that hour, the disciple took her into his home.

Postcommunion. Filled with divine gifts, we humbly pray You, O Lord, that as we keep the feast of the immaculate heart of the blessed virgin Mary, we may, by her intercession, be withdrawn from present dangers, and drawn to the joys of life everlasting: through our Lord.

Secreta. Majestati tuae, Domine, Agnum immaculatum offerentes, quaesumus, ut corda nostra ignis ille divinus accendat, qui cor beatae Mariae Virginis ineffabiliter inflammavit. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Accepta tibi sit, Domine, sacratae plebis oblatio pro tuorum honore sanctorum, quorum se meritis de tribulatione percepisse cognoscit auxilium. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Divinis refecti muneribus te, Domine, suppliciter exoramus, ut beatae Mariae virginis intercessione, cujus immaculati cordis solemnia venerando egimus; a praesentibus periculis liberati, aeternae vitae gaudia consequamur. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Refreshed with the bounty of Your divine gift, we humbly beseech You, O Lord our God, that through the intercession of Your holy martyrs Timothy and Symphorian, we may ever be quickened by this participation: through our Lord.

Aug. 23—BL. JAMES OF MEVANIA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 13, p. 701, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who by the miraculous sprinkling of Your blood were pleased to strengthen blessed James, Your confessor, with a sure trust of his eternal salvation; show the same mercy toward us, that being marked with the seal of our redemption, we may be counted among the sheep at Your right hand forever: who live and reign.

Aug. 24—ST. BARTHOLOMEW, AP.

Office. Ps. 138, 17. To me, Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. ¶ Lord, You have proved me and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Postcommunion. Divini munera largitate satiati, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis Timotheo et Symphoriano, in ejus semper participatione vivamus. Per Dominum.

Collect. Almighty and eternal God, who today have given us in the feast of the blessed Bartholomew, Your apostle, a consecrated and holy joy; grant to Your Church, we pray You, to love what he believed and to preach what he taught: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 12, 27-31. Brethren: You are the body of Christ, member for member. And God indeed has placed some in the Church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers; after that miracles, then gifts of healing, services of help, power of administration, the speaking of various tongues and interpretations of speeches. Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles? Do all have the gift of healing? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret? Yet strive after the greater gifts.

Responsory. Ps. 18, 5.2. Their sound went forth into all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. ¶ The heavens show forth the glory of God, and the firmament declares the work of His hands.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui hujus dies venerandum sanctamque laetitiam in beati apostoli tui Bartholomaei festivitate tribuisti; da ecclesiae tuae, quae sumus, et amare quod credidit et praedicare quod docuit. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 138, 17. To me, Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 6, 12-19. At that time, Jesus went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. And when day broke, He summoned His disciples; and from these He chose twelve (whom He also named Apostles): Simon, whom He named Peter, and his brother Andrew; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called the Zealot; Jude the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who turned traitor. And coming down with them, He took His stand on a level stretch, with a crowd of His disciples, and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to listen to Him and to be healed of their diseases. And those-who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd were trying to touch Him, for power went forth from Him and healed all.

Offertory. Ps. 44, 17-18. You shall make them princes over all the earth; they shall remember Your name, O Lord, in every progeny and generation.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Remembering the solemn feast of blessed Bartholomew, Your apostle, we beseech You, O Lord, that through his help, in whose honor we offer this victim of praise, we may receive Your benefits: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 13, p. 657.

Communion. Matt. 19, 28. You, who have followed Me, shall sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Postcommunion. In celebrating the feast of blessed Bartholomew, Your apostle, we have received, O Lord, the pledge of eternal salvation; that by venerating his merits, we may be nourished for life everlasting: through our Lord.

Communio. Vos, qui secuti estis me, sedebitis super sedes, judicantes duodecim tribus Israel.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, pignus salutis aeternae, celebrantes beati apostoli tui Bartholomaei votiva solemnia; ut perpetua merita venerantes, ad vitam nutrriamur aeternam. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Ludovicum confessorem tuum de terreno regno ad caelestis regni gloriam transtulisti; and prayers, to make us companions of the King of kings, Jesus Christ Your Son, our Lord: who lives and reigns.

Epistle. Ps. 20, 4-5. O Lord, You have prevented him with blessings of sweetness; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. \( \Virga \). He asked life of You, and You have given him length of days forever and ever.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \Virga \). It is fitting that this saint be kept in mind by men, who has passed to the glory of the angels. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 19, 12-26. At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to His disciples: "A certain nobleman went into a far country to obtain for himself a kingdom and then return. And having summoned ten of his servants, he gave them ten gold pieces and said to them, 'Trade till I come.' But his citizens hated him; and they sent a delegation after him to say, 'We do not wish this man to be king over us.' And it came to pass when he had returned, after receiving the kingdom, that he ordered the servants to whom he had given the money to be called to him in order that he might learn how much each one had made by trading. And the first came, saying, 'Lord, your gold piece has earned ten gold pieces.' And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant; because you have been faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten towns.' Then the second came, saying, 'Lord, your gold piece has made five gold pieces.' And he said to him, 'Be you also over five towns.' And another came, saying, 'Lord, behold your gold piece, which I have kept laid up in a napkin; for I feared you, because you are a stern man. You take up what you did not lay down, and you reap what you did not sow.' He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth I judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I am a stern man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow. Why, then, did you not put my money in a bank, so that I on my return might have gotten it with interest?' And he said to the bystanders, 'Take away the gold piece from him, and give it to him who has the ten gold pieces.' But they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten gold pieces.' I say to you that to everyone who has shall be given, and he shall abound; but from him who does not have, even that which he has shall be taken away."

Secret. Sanctify these offered gifts, O Lord, we pray, that through the intercession of blessed Louis, Your confessor, they may prepare for us a dwelling place in the heavenly kingdom: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward whom the master has set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that those whom the misery of sin has made exiles in this world, the glorious intercession of the blessed Louis, Your king and confessor, may make us co-heirs in the heavenly kingdom: through our Lord.

Collect. May the honored feast day of Saint John the Baptist, Your precursor and martyr, O Lord, we pray, bring to us the fruit of saving help: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. SABINA, M.

Collect. O God, among other marvels of Your power You have given even to the weaker sex the victory of martyrdom; mercifully grant that we who keep the feast of Your blessed martyr, Sabina, may through her example draw nearer to You: through our Lord.

Epistle. Jer. 1, 17-19. In those days, the word of the Lord came to me, saying, “Gird up your loins, and arise, and speak to Juda all that I command you. Be not afraid in their presence; for I will make you not to fear their countenance. For behold I have made you this day a fortified city, and a pillar of iron, and a wall of brass, over all the land, to the kings of Juda, to the princes thereof, and to the priests, and to the people of the land. And they shall fight against you, and shall not prevail; for I am with you," says the Lord, "to deliver you."

Alleluia, alleluia! Mark 6, 27. Herod sending an executioner commanded that the head of John the Baptist should be cut off in prison. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 6, 17-29. At that time, Herod had sent and taken John, and bound him in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married. For John had said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife." But Herodias laid snares for him, and would have liked to put him to death, but she could not. For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and protected him; and when he heard him talk, he did many things, and he liked to hear him. And a favorable day came when Herod on his birthday gave a banquet to the officials, tribunes and chief men of Galilee. And Responsorium. Posuisti Domine super caput ejus: coronam de lapide pretioso. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei: et voluntate labiorum ejus non fraudasti eum.

Herodias' own daughter having come in and danced, she pleased Herod and his guests. And the king said to the girl, “Ask of me what you will, and I will give it to you.” And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask, I will give you, even though it be the half of my kingdom.” Then she went out and said to her mother, “What am I to ask for?” And she said, “The head of John the Baptist.” And she came in at once with haste to the king, and asked, saying, “I want you right away to give me on a dish the head of John the Baptist.” And grieved as he was, the king, because of his oath and his guests, was unwilling to displease her. But sending an executioner, he commanded that his head be brought on a dish. Then he beheaded him in the prison, and brought his head on a dish, and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. His disciples, hearing of it, came and took away his body, and laid it in a tomb.

Offertory. Ps. 20, 3-4. You have given him his heart’s desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

\textit{Gospel, p. 75.}

\textbf{Offertory. \textit{Ecclus. 39, 17-18.}} Hear me, divine offspring, and as a rose planted by the banks of the waters blossom forth; give forth as Lebanon an odor of sweetness.

\textit{Offertory Prayers, p. 623.}

\textbf{Secret.} May these victims of praise which we humbly offer, sweet with the fragrance of the blessed virgin, Rose, be acceptable to You, O Lord; may they bring honor to her, and become means of salvation for us: through our Lord.

\textbf{MEMORY OF MARTYRS}

\textbf{Secret.} Regard, O Lord, the offerings of Your people, and grant that what they do with devout intention of honoring Your saints, they may feel to be for their own salvation: through our Lord.

\textbf{Communion. \textit{Ecclus. 39, 19.}} As the lily, send forth flowers, and pour forth perfume, and bring forth leaves in beauty; and praise with canticles, and bless the Lord in His works.

Alleluia, alleluia. \textit{v. Quasi arcus refulgens inter nebulas gloriae, et quasi flos rosarum in diebus vernis. Alleluia.}

\textit{Evangelium, p. 75.}

\textbf{Offertorium.} Obaudite me, divini fructus, et quasi rosa plantata super rivos aquarum fructificate: quasi Libanus odorem suavitatis habete.

\textbf{Secreta.} Acceptae sint tibi, Domine, laudis hostiae quas humiliter immolamus, beatae Rosae virginis fragrantia perfusas; ut illi conferant ad honorem, et nobis propitiatoriae reddantur ad salutem. Per Dominum.

\textbf{Secreta.} Hostias, Domine, tuae plebis intende, et quas in honorem sanctorum tuorum devota mente celebrat, proficere sibi sentiat ad salutem. Per Dominum.

\textbf{Communio.} Florete flores, quasi lilium, et date odorem, et frondete in gratiam; et collaudate canticum, et beneficite Dominum in operibus suis.
Postcommunion. Let our prayers mount up to You, O Lord, sweet with the fragrance of the blessed virgin Rose; that being refreshed on earth with heavenly food, we may taste the sweetness of the eternal banquet: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. Filled, O Lord, with these sacred gifts, we beseech You, that at the pleading of Your saints, we may always abide in thanksgiving: through our Lord.

Aug. 31—ST. RAYMOND NONNATUS, C.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. O God who made blessed Raymond, Your confessor, wonderful in freeing Your faithful from the slavery of wicked men; grant us by his prayers to be delivered from the bonds of sin, and with complete freedom to do the things that please You: through our Lord.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, victims of praise in memory of Your saints, and trust thereby to be freed from all ills both present and to come: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Ascendant ad te, Domine, preces nostrae, beatae Rosae virginis suavitatem redolentes; ut caelestibus dapibus temporaliter recreati, aeterni convivii dulcedine perfruamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Repleti, Domine, muneribus sacris, quaesumus, ut intercedentibus sanctis tuis, in gratiarum semper actione maneamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui in liberandis fidelibus tuis ab impiorum captivitate beatum Raymundum, confessorem tuum mirabilem efficisti; ejus nobis intercessione concede, ut a peccatorum vinculis absoluti, quae tibi sunt placita liberis mentibus exsequamur. Per Dóminum.

Secreta. Laudis tibi, Domine, hostias immolamus in tuorum commemoratione sanctorum, quibus nos et praesentibus exui malis confidimus et futuris. Per Dominum.
Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is that servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with this heavenly food and drink we humbly pray You, our God, that he in whose memory we have taken these mysteries, may help us by his prayers: through our Lord.

FEASTS IN SEPTEMBER

Sept. 2—ST. STEPHEN OF HUNGARY, KING, C.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. Grant to Your Church, we beseech You, almighty God, that she may have Your blessed confessor Stephen, as her glorious champion in heaven, even as he was her apostle while reigning on earth: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 88, 21-23. I have found David, My servant, with My holy oil I have anointed him; for Communio. Beatus servus, quem cum venerit dominus, invenerit vigilantem: amen dico vobis, super omnia bona sua constituet eum.

Postcommunio. Refecti cibo potuque caelesti, Deus noster, te supplices exoramus, ut in cujus haec commemoratigne percepimus, ejus muniamur et precibus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Concede, quaesumus, ecclesiae tuae omnipotens Deus, ut beatum Stephanum confessorem tuum, quem regnament in terris propagatorem habuit, propugnatorem ha-bere mereatur gloriosum in caelis. Per Dominum.

Respensorium. Inveni David servum meum, oleo sancto meo unxi eum: manus enim mea auxiliabitur ei, et brachium
My hand shall help him, and My arm shall strengthen him. ¶ The enemy shall in no way prevail over him; nor the son of iniquity have power to hurt him.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 20, 4. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. Alleluia!

_Gospel, p. 1093._

_Offertory. Ps. 88, 25._ My truth and My mercy shall be with him, and in My name shall his horn be exalted.

_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

_Secret._ Look down, almighty God, on these victims, which we offer; and be pleased that we who celebrate the mysteries of our Lord’s passion may imitate what we celebrate: through the same Lord.

_Communion._ Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is that servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen, I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

_Postcommunion._ Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may follow with fitting devotion the faith of blessed Stephen, Your confessor; who by spreading this selfsame faith deserved to pass from an earthly kingdom to the glory of a heavenly kingdom: through our Lord.
Sept. 3—BL. GUALA, B.C.O.P.

Mass: No. 10, p. 690, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who endowed blessed Guala, Your confessor and bishop, with singular grace to strengthen Your flock in peace and holiness; grant to his prayers that we may not falter in pursuing peace, and may gather abundant fruits of holiness: through our Lord.

Secret. Bountifully bestow on us, O Lord, the gifts of Your peace, through the offering of this unspotted victim and the pleading of blessed Guala, Your confessor: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by this bread of life, we humbly implore You, O Lord, that at the pleading of blessed Guala, Your bishop and confessor, You would make us ever so to live, that we may be worthy at our death to come to You: through our Lord.

Sept. 4—BL. CATHARINE OF RACCONIGI, V.O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayers:

Collect. O Lord, our hope, who enriched with an abundance of heavenly gifts the heart of blessed Cathhe-rine, filled with You alone; grant through the intercession of so glorious a virgin, that she may be wholly fastened to our hearts, who for our sakes was wholly fastened to the cross: Jesus Christ our Lord, Your Son: who lives and reigns with You.

MEMORY OF ST. MARCELLUS, M.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast day of blessed Marcellus, Your martyr, may be strengthened in our love of Your name through his intercession: through our Lord.

Secret. We dare to draw near the august table of Your Lamb, O Lord, emboldened by remembering the merits of Catherine, His spouse, yet not unmindful of our sins; spurn not, we pray, the sighs and longings of our heart, but be appeased by the present offering and solemnity, that we may be sharers in so wondrous a holiness: through the same Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MARCELLUS

Secret. Graciously accept, O Lord, the victim offered to You through the merits of blessed Marcellus, Your martyr; and grant that it may be a never-failing support for us: through our Lord.

tantae virginis intercessione concede, ut totus nobis figatur in corde, qui totus pro nobis fixus fuit in cruce: Dominus noster Jesus Christus Filius tuus. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Oratio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beati Marcelli martyris tui natalitia colimus, ejus intercessione in tui nominis amore roboremur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Non ignari, Domine, vitiorum nostrorum, audemus ad tremendam Agni tui mensam accedere, Catharinae sponsae ejus meritorum recordatione suffulti: ne repellas, quaesumus, suspirantium desideria animarum, sed prae-senti oblacione ac solemnitate placatus; tam mirandae fac nos particeps sanctitatis. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, beati Marcelli martyris tui dicatas meritis, benignus assume; et ad perpetuum nobis tribue provenire subsidium. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. O Lord Jesus, bread of life, who at this table served Your virgin Catherine with meats of unfailing sweetness; be merciful to us wretched sinners, that we may be filled with the crumbs falling from so plentiful a banquet: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. MARCELLUS

Postcommunion. Having received these sacraments, O Lord, we beseech You, through the intercession of blessed Marcellus, Your martyr, to give kindly hearing to our prayers: through our Lord.

Sept. 6—BL. BERTRAND OF GARRIGUE, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who joined to the holy patriarch Dominic a companion and wonderful imitator in the blessed Bertrand, Your confessor; through his kindly intercession on our behalf, grant to us, so to follow in his footsteps that we may also gain his rewards: through our Lord.

Secret. May the holy intercession of blessed Bertrand, Your confessor, commend our sacrifice to You, O Lord, we pray; that the pardon for sin which he besought Postcommunio. Domine Jesu, panis vitae, qui Catharinae virgini tuae indeficientis dulcedinis epulas in hac mensa ministrasti; indulge nobis miseris, ut de micis e tanta ubertate cadentibus saturemur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Deus, qui sancto patriarchae Dominico beatum Bertrandum confessorum tuum, socium et imitatorem eximium adjunxisti; ejus nobis pio interventu concede, ita ejusdem sequi vestigia, ut assequamur et praemia. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sacrificium nostrum, quaesumus Domine, beati Bertrandi confessoris tuui intercessio sancta commendet; ut when offering it, we too, through his merits, may the more easily obtain of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Protect, O most merciful God, through the care of blessed Bertrand, Your confessor, those whom You have refreshed with this heavenly food; that throughout all the perils from their adversary, the world, they may always remain true to You and live in safety: through our Lord.

Sept. 8—NATIVITY OF OUR LADY

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgin Mary, in whose nativity the angels rejoice and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Mercifully hear, O God, the prayers of Your servants, that we who are gathered together on the nativity of the virgin mother of God, may through her intercession be delivered by You from the dangers that threaten us: through the same Lord. Epistle, p. 748.

quam ipse in eo offerendo noxarum veniam pro peccatoribus jugiter implorabat, facilius nos ejus meritis a tua misericordia impetremus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Quos caelesti recreas alimonia, clementissime Deus, beati Bertrandi confessoris tui extolle presidio; ut inter omnia adversantis mundi pericula, et devoti tibi permaneant et securi consistant. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Supplicationem servorum tuorum Deus miserator exaudi, ut qui in nativitate Dei genitricis et virginis congregamur, ejus intercessionibus a te de instantibus periculis eruamur. Per eundem Dominum. Epistola, p. 748.
Responsory. Ps. 44, 5.11. Because of truth, and meekness and justice; and Your right hand shall conduct You wonderfully. Ὡ. Hear, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear, for the king has greatly desired your beauty.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὠ. This is the nativity of the glorious virgin Mary, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Juda, of the noble race of David. Alleluia!

Offertory. For you are happy, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise; because from you arose the sun of justice, Christ our Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the humanity of Your Only-begotten Son help us, O Lord, that he who, born of a virgin, did not diminish but consecrated the integrity of His mother, may in this, the solemnity of her birth, cleanse us from our sins, and make our offering acceptable to You: Jesus Christ our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὠ. Nativitas gloriosae virginis Mariae ex semine Abrahae, ortae de tribu Juda, clara ex stirpe David. Alleluia.

Evangelium, p. 1077.

Offertorium. Felix namque es sacra virgo Maria, et omni laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol justitiae, Christus Deus noster.

Secreta. Unigeniti tui, Domine, nobis succurrat humanitas, ut qui natus de virgine, matris integritatem non minuit sed sacravit, in nativitatis ejus sollemniis, nostris nos piaculis exuens, oblationem nostram tibi faciat acceptam: Jesus Christus Dominus noster. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae porta- verunt aeterni Patris Filium.
Postcommunion. We have received, O Lord, the votive sacraments of our yearly festival; grant, we beseech You, that these may be for us a remedy in this life and for eternal life: through our Lord.

Sept. 10—BB. ALPHONSE NAVARRETE, O.P., AND COMPANIONS, MM.

Office. Ps. 78, 11.12.10. Let the sighing of the prisoners come in before You, O Lord; render to our neighbors sevenfold in their bosom; revenge the blood of Your saints which has been shed. Ps. 78, 1. O God, the heathens have come into Your inheritance, they have defiled Your holy temple; they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who give us joy in the triumph of blessed Alphonsus and his companions; grant us, we pray You, through their merits and intercession, the same steadfastness in faith and fruitfulness in works.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that Your Church, which shines with the glory of the virtue and miracles of blessed Nicholas, Your confessor, may through his merits and intercession enjoy eternal unity and peace: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, celebritatis annuae votiva sacramenta; praesta quaesumus, ut et temporalis vitae nobis remedia praebeat et aeternae. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos beatorum tuorum Alphonsi et sociorum ejus triumpho laetificas; da nobis, quaesumus, eorum meritis et intercessione, eamdem in fide constantiam, et in opere efficaciam. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Concede, quae sumus, omnipotens Deus: ut Ecclesia tua, quae beati Nicolai Confessoris tui virtutum et miraculorum gloria coruscat; ejus intercessione et meritis, perpetua pace atque unitate laetetur. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Heb. 10, 32-37. Brethren: Call to mind the days gone by, in which after you had been enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings; partly by being made a public spectacle through reproaches and tribulations, and partly by making common cause with those who fared thus. For you both have had compassion on those in prison and have joyfully accepted the plundering of your own goods, knowing that you have a better possession and a lasting one. Do not, therefore, lose your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of patience that, doing the will of God, you may receive the promise: "For yet a very little while, and He who is to come, will come, and will not delay."

Responsory. Ps. 78, 10.2. Revenge, O Lord, the blood of Your saints, which has been shed. ¶ They have given the dead bodies of Your servants, O Lord, to be meat for the fowls of the air; the flesh of Your saints to the beasts of the earth.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ The white-robed army of martyrs praise You, O Lord. Alleluia!

Responsorium. Vindica, Domine, sanguinem sanctorum tuorum, qui effusus est. ¶ Posuerunt mortalia servorum tuorum, escas voluntilibus caeli: carnies sanctorum tuorum bestiis terrae.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Te martyrum candidatus laudat exercitus, Domine. Alleluia.
Gospel. Matt. 24, 3-13. At that time: As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, “Tell us, when are these things to happen, and what will be the sign of Your coming and of the end of the world?” And in answer Jesus said to them, “Take care that no one leads you astray. For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and they will lead many astray. For you shall hear of wars and rumors of wars. Take care that you do not be alarmed, for these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be pestilences and famines and earthquakes in various places: But all these things are the beginnings of sorrows. Then they will deliver you up to tribulation, and will put you to death; and you will be hated by all nations for My name’s sake. And then many will fall away, and will betray one another, and will hate one another. And many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. And because iniquity will abound, the charity of the many will grow cold. But whoever perseveres to the end, he shall be saved.”

Offertory. Ps. 149, 5.6. The saints shall rejoice in glory, they shall be joyful in their beds; the high praises of God shall be in their mouths. Off. Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer sacrifices to You, O Lord, on this feast of Your blessed, humbly beseeching You, that as suffering made them glorious, so fervor may make us acceptable to You: through our Lord.

Secret. Through the intercession of blessed Nicholas, Your confessor, may this sacrifice, which we offer to You, O Lord, always enliven and strengthen us.

Communion. Ps. 78, 2.11. They have given the dead bodies of Your servants, O Lord, to be meat for the fowls of the air; the flesh of Your saints for the beasts of the earth; according to the greatness of Your arm take possession of the children of those who have been punished with death.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep a remembrance of Your blessed martyrs may likewise strive after their faith and steadfastness; and having overcome all the attacks of our foes, may gladly confess Your eternal name: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Exsultabunt sancti in gloria, laetabuntur in cubilibus suis: exaltationes Dei in faucibus eorum.

Secreta. Hostias tibi Domine offerimus in tuorum solemnitate beatorum, humiliter deprecantes, ut sicut illos passio gloriosos effecit, ita et nos devotio reddat acceptos.

Communio. Posuerunt mortalia servorum tuorum, Domine, escas volatilibus caeli: carnes sanctorum tuorum bestiis terrae: secundum magnitudinem brachii tui, posside filios morte punitorum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beatorum martyrum tuorum memoriam recolimus, eorum quoque fidem et fortitudinem aemulemur; hostiumque nostrorum adversitatibus superatis, aeterni tui nominis confessione laetemur. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. May the holy Sacraments which we have received, O Lord, protect Your people; so that they who constantly seek the help of Saint Nicholas, Your confessor, may attain to the salutary fulfillment of their petitions: through our Lord.

Sept. 12—THE MOST HOLY NAME OF MARY

Office. Ps. 44, 13.15.16. All the rich among the people shall entreat Your countenance; after her shall virgins be brought to the King; her neighbors shall be brought to You in gladness and rejoicing. ¥. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.  Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who willed that Your glorious mother should be called Mary; grant, we beseech You, that whoever calls upon the sweet name of Mary may feel the unfailing help of her blessing: who live.  Epistle, p. 1071.

Responsory. You are blessed and venerable, O virgin Mary, who without any violation of purity became the mother of our Savior. ¥. O Virgin mother of God, Postcommunion. Populum tuum Domine, quae sumpsimus, sacramenta custodiant: ut qui sancti Nicolai Confessoris tui jugiter implorant auxilium; petitionum suarum salutarem consequantur effectum. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Benedicta et venerabilis es virgo Maria, quae sine tactu pudoris, inventa es mater salvatoris. ¥,
He whom the whole world is unable to contain, being made man, enclosed Himself in your womb.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Judith 15. You are the glory of Jerusalem, you are the joy of Israel, You are the honor of our people. Alleluia! Gospel, p. 1245. Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Luke 1, 28.42. Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Off. Pr., p. 623.

Secret. By Your mercy, O Lord, and the pleading of the blessed Mary, ever-virgin, may this offering bring us our prosperity and peace now and forever: through our Lord. Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Postcommunion. Having partaken of these helps for our salvation, we beseech You, O Lord, that we may everywhere be shielded by the care of blessed Mary, ever-virgin, in whose honor we have offered these gifts to Your majesty: through our Lord.

Virgo Dei genitrix, quem totus non capit orbis, in tua se clausit viscera, factus homo.

Alleluia, alleluia. V. Tu gloria Jerusalem, tu laetitia Israel, tu honorificentia populi nostri. Alleluia. Ev., p. 1245.

Offertorium. Ave Marie gratia plena: Dominus tecum: benedicta tu in mulieribus, et benedictus fructus ventris tui.

Secreta. Tua, Domine, propitiatione, et beatae Mariae semper virginis intercessione, ad perpetuam atque praesentem haec oblatio nobis proficiat prosperitatem et pacem. Per Dominum.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae porta- verunt aeterni Patris Filium.

Postcommunio. Sumptis, Domine, salutis nostrae subsidii, da quaesumus, beatae Mariae semper virginis patrocinii nos ubique protegi, in cujus veneracione haec tuae obtulimus majestati. Per Dominum.
Sept. 14—EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Office. Gal. 6, 14. But it behooves us to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection; by whom we are saved and delivered. Ps. 66, 2. May God have mercy on us, and bless us; may He cause the light of His countenance to shine upon us, and may He have mercy on us. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who this day gladden us by the yearly feast of the exaltation of the holy cross, grant we beseech You, that even as we have learned its mystery on earth, so we may obtain the rewards of its redemption in heaven: through the same Lord.

Responsory. Phil. 2, 8.10. Christ became obedient for us unto death, even the death of the cross. Therefore God also has exalted Him, and has given Him a name that is above every name.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. Sweet wood, sweet nails, bearing a sweet weight; you alone are worthy to bear the king and Lord of heaven. Alleluia!

Oratio. Deus, qui nos hodierna die exaltationis sanctae crucis annua solemnite laetificas, praesta quæsumus, ut cujus mysterium in terra cognovimus, ejus redemptionis in caelo praemia consequamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola, p. 289, beginning at the ()*

Responsorium. Christus factus est pro nobis obediens usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis. V. Propter quod et Deus exaltavit illum, et dedit illi nomen quod est super omne nomen.

Gospel. John 12, 31-36. At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, "Now is the judgment of the world; now will the prince of the world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all things to Myself." Now He said this signifying by what death He was to die. The crowd answered Him, "We have heard from the Law that the Christ abides forever. And how can You say, 'The Son of Man must be lifted up'? Who is this Son of Man?" Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is among you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness may not overtake you. He who walks in the darkness does not know where he goes. While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light."

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. From the snares of all our enemies, protect Your people, O Lord, by the sign of the holy cross; that we may show to You an all-pleasing service, and that our sacrifice may become acceptable.

Secret. May this offering, we pray You, O Lord, cleanse us from all sin; even as on the altar of the cross Offertorium. Protege, Domine, plebem tuam per signum sanctae crucis, ab omnibus insidiis inimicorum omnium: ut tibi gratam exhibeamus servitutem, et acceptabile fiat sacrificium nostrum.

Secreta. Haec oblation, quae summum Domine, ab omnibus it took away the sin of the whole world: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. By the sign of the cross deliver us from our enemies, O You who are our God.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by this heavenly meat and drink, we beseech You, almighty God, that You would shield from the terror of the enemy such as You have redeemed through the precious blood of Your Son Jesus Christ, our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Sept. 15—THE SEVEN SORROWS OF OUR LADY
All as on the Feast of Our Lady, p. 271, except the following:

Collect. O God, at whose passion, according to the prophecy of holy Simeon, a sword of grief pierced the most sweet soul of the glorious Mary, virgin and mother; grant, in Your mercy, that we who honor the memory of her sorrows, may gain the happy fruit of Your sufferings: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. NICOMEDES, M.

Collect. Be near to Your people, O Lord, that pleading the glorious merits of blessed Nicomedes, Your Oratio. Deus, in cujus passione, secundum Simeonis prophetiam, dulcissimam animam gloriosae virginis et matris Mariae doloris gladius pertransivit; concede propitius, ut qui dolores ejus venerando recolimus, passionis tuae effectum felicem consequamur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Adesto, Domine, populo tuo, ut beati Nicomedis martyris tui merita praecmara suscipliens, ad impetrandam martyr, they may always be helped to obtain Your mercy by his prayers: through our Lord.

Responsory. You are sorrowful and worthy of tears, O virgin Mary, standing near the cross of the Lord Jesus, Your Son, our Redeemer. Ὁ. O virgin mother of God, He, the author of life made man, whom the whole world cannot contain, bears this torment of the cross.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὁ. Holy Mary, the queen of heaven, the mistress of the world, stood sorrowing under the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Add Alleluia at the end of the Sequence.

MEMORY OF ST. NICOMEDES

Secret. Mercifully accept these offered gifts, O Lord, and let the prayer of blessed Nicomedes, Your martyr, commend them to You: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. NICOMEDES

Postcommunion. May the sacraments we have received cleanse us, O Lord, we pray, and through the pleading of blessed Nicomedes, Your martyr, may they free us from all vices: through our Lord.

misericordiam tuam semper ejus patrociniis adjuvetur. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Dolorosa et lacrymabilis es, virgo Maria, stans juxta crucem Domini Jesu Filii tui redemptoris. Ὁ. Virgo Dei genitrix, quem totus non capit orbis, hoc crucis fert supplicium auctor vitae factus homo.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὁ. Stabat sancta Maria, caeli regina et mundi Domina, juxta crucem Domini nostri Jesu Christi dolorosa.

Secreta. Suscipe Domine munera propitius oblata, quae majestati tuae beati Nicomediis martyris tui commendet oratio. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Purificent nos, quaesumus Domine, sacramenta quae sumpsimus, et intercedente beato Nicomede martyre tuo, a cunctis efficiant vitii absolutos. Per Dominum.
Office. Ecclus. 44, 15.14. Let the people show forth the wisdom of the saints, and the Church declare their praise; and their names shall live unto generation and generation. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just: praise becomes the upright. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Mercifully regard our weakness, O Lord, we pray; and all the evils which we justly deserve, turn away from us at the intercession of Your holy martyrs, Cornelius and Cyprian: through our Lord.

Memory of St. Euphemia, p. 717.

Epistle. Wisd. 3, 1-8. The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment of death shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was judged an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace. For if before men, indeed, they be punished, yet is their hope full of immortality; chastised a little, they shall be greatly blessed, because God tried them and found them worthy of Himself. As gold in the furnace, He proved them, and as sacrificial offerings He took them to Himself. In the time of their visitation they shall shine, and shall dart about as sparks through stubble; they shall judge nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord shall be their king forever.

Responsory. Ex. 15, 1.6. God is glorious in His saints; wonderful in majesty, doing wonders. Virga. Your right hand, O Lord, is glorified in strength; Your right hand has broken the enemies. Alleluia, alleluia! Virga. Wisd. 3, 7. The just shall shine, and shall run to and fro like sparks among the reeds; and they shall reign forever. Alleluia! Gospel, p. 681.

Offertory. Ps. 5, 12-13. All they who love Your name shall glory in You, for You, O Lord, will bless the just; O Lord, You have crowned us as with a shield of Your good will. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Look down in mercy, O Lord, on the gifts of Your people which are offered to Your majesty on this feast of Your holy martyrs, Cornelius and Cyprian: through our Lord.

Memory of St. Euphemia, p. 720.

Evangelium, p. 681.

Offertorium. Gloriamur in te omnes, qui diligunt nomen tuum, quoniam tu Domine benedices justo: Domine, ut scuto bonae voluntatis tuae coronasti nos.

Secreta. Plebis tuae, Domine, munera benignus intendes, quae majestati tuae pro sanctorum martyrum tuorum atque pontificum Cornelii et Cypriani solemnitatibus sunt dicata. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice you just in the Lord; praise becomes the upright.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with these holy mysteries, O Lord, we pray, that they whose feast we keep may help us with their prayers: through our Lord.

Memory of St. Euphemia, p. 721.

Sept. 17—THE STIGMATA OF ST. FRANCIS, C.

Office. Gal. 6, 14. But as for me, God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ: through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. Ps. 141, 2. I cried to the Lord with my voice; with my voice I made supplication to the Lord. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, who, in order to enkindle our hearts with the flame of love in a world grown cold, renewed the marks of Your passion in the flesh of blessed Francis; mercifully grant by his merits

Communio. Gaudete justi in Domino: rectos decet collaudatio.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, Domine, salutaribus repleti mysteriis, ut quorum solemnia celebramus, eorum orationibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Domine Jesu Christe, qui frigescente mundo, ad inflammanda corda nostra tui amoris igne, in carne beati Francisci passionis tuae sacra stigmata renovasti; concede propitius ut ejus meritis et precibus, crucem and prayers, that we may always bear the cross and bring forth worthy fruits of penance: who live and reign.

MEMORY OF ST. LAMBERT, B.M.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast of blessed Lambert, Your martyr and bishop, may be aided by his prayers to You: through our Lord.

Epistle, p. 1154.

Responsory. Ps. 36, 30-31. The mouth of the just man shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment. Veni. The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

Alleluia, alleluia! Veni. Francis, poor and humble, enters rich into heaven, and is honored with celestial hymns. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 16, 24-27. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me. For he who would save his life will lose it; but he who loses his life for My sake will find it. For what does it profit a man, if he gain the whole world, but suffer the loss of his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul? For the Son of Man is to come with His angels in the glory of His Father, and then He will render to everyone according to his conduct."

Offertory. Ps. 88, 25. My truth and My mercy shall be with him; and in My name shall his horn be exalted.
Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts consecrated to You; and at the pleading of blessed Francis, cleanse us from every stain of sin: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. LAMBERT

Secret. May this victim, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse our sins: may it sanctify the bodies and souls of Your servants for the offering of this sacrifice: through our Lord.
Preface: No. 16, p. 659.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward, whom the master has set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Offertorium. Veritas mea et misericordia mea cum ipso: et in nomine meo exaltabitur cornu ejus.
Secreta. Munera tibi, Domine, dicata sanctifica; et intercedente beato Francisco, ab omni nos culparum labe purifica. Per Dominum.
Secreta. Haec hostia, quaesumus Domine, emundet nostra delicta: et ad sacrificium celebrandum, subditorum tibi corpora mentesque sanctificet. Per Dominum.
Communio. Fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit dominus super familiam suam, ut det illis in tempore tritici mensuram.
Postcommunion. O God, who in many ways have shown forth the wondrous mystery of the cross in Your confessor, blessed Francis; bestow on us, we pray, always to follow the example of his love, and to be strengthened by constant meditation on that same cross: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. LAMBERT

Postcommunion. Refreshed by partaking of this sacred gift, O Lord our God, we pray You that we may be sensible of its effects through the intercession of blessed Lambert, Your martyr and bishop, whose feast we are celebrating: through our Lord.

Sept. 18—BL. JOHN MASSIAS, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who appeared to the blessed confessor, John, in the fullness of Your grace, and willed that his humble state of life should bloom with the purity of his ways; grant us, we beseech You, so to tread in his steps that we may reach You with unsullied souls: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Refecti participatione muneris sacri, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut cujus exsequimur cultum, intercedente beato Lamberto, martyre tuo atque pontifice, sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Joannem confessorem, gratiae tuae ubertate praeventum, in humili vitae genere morum candore florescere voluisti; da nobis, quaesumus, ita ejus vestigia persequi, ut ad te puris mentibus pervenire mereamur. Per Dominum.
Secret. We offer You, O Lord, a sacrifice of praise in honor of the blessed confessor, John, who for the salvation of the faithful offered himself at all times, a victim of penance to Your majesty: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with the bread of heaven, bestow on us, almighty God, ever to grow in Your love through the intercession of the blessed confessor, John, on whom You bestowed purity of life and a perfect love: through our Lord.

Sept. 19—STS. JANUARIUS, B., AND COMPANIONS, MM.

Office. Ps. 78, 11.12.10. Let the sighing of the prisoners come in before You, O Lord; render to our neighbors sevenfold in their bosom; revenge the blood of Your saints which has been shed. ¶ O God, the heathens are come into Your inheritance, they have defiled Your holy temple; they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who, year by year, gladden us by the solemn feast of Your holy martyrs, Januarius and Secreta. Laudis tibi, Domine, hostias offerimus in honorem beati Joannis confessoris, qui pro salute fidelium majestati tuae poenitentiae victimam seipsum im- molavit. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos annua sanctorum martyrum tuorum Januarii et sociorum ejus solemnitate laetificas; con-his companions; mercifully grant that as we rejoice in their merits, we may be enkindled by their example: through our Lord.

Epistle, p. 1115.

Responsory. Exod. 15, 1.6. God is glorious in His saints; wonderful in majesty, doing wonders. V. Your right hand, O Lord, is glorified in strength; Your right hand has broken the enemies.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 144, 10.11. Your saints shall bless You, O Lord; they shall speak of the glory of Your kingdom. Alleluia!

Gospel, p. 1116.

Offertory. Ps. 67, 36. God is wonderful in His saints; the God of Israel is He who will give power and strength to His people; blessed be God!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Be appeased, we beseech You, O Lord, by the gifts we offer; and at the intercession of Your holy martyrs, Januarius and his companions, defend us from all dangers: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 12, 4. But I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who persecute you.
Postcommunion. May this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from crime, and at the intercession of Your holy martyrs, Januarius and his companions, make us partakers of Your heavenly healing: through our Lord.

Sept. 20—BL. FRANCIS POSSADAS, C.O.P.

Mass: as on the Feast of St. Philip Neri, p. 942, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who endowed blessed Francis, Your confessor, with the sweetness of heavenly charity and made him a noble herald of Your word; grant us by his intercession to be enkindled with the flame of Your love, and to live always in the same love: through our Lord.

Secret. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that blessed Francis who by offering himself as an unfailing sacrifice to You nourished his spirit for eternity, may also win for us the fullness of Your grace: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Fed with these sacred mysteries, we beseech You, almighty God, that through the interces-Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Franciscum confessorem tuum, supernae caritatis dulcedine perfusum, verbi tui praecomem eximium effecisti; ejus intercessione concede, ut igne tui amoris incensi, in tua dilectione semper vivamus. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Da, quaesumus Domine, ut sicut beatus Franciscus juge se tibi sacrificium offerens, spiritum suum ad aeternitatem aluit, gratiae tuae nobis semper conciliet ubertatem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Sacris refecti alimentis, te supplices deprecamur, omnipotens Deus, ut intercedente beato Fran-sion of blessed Francis whom, after offering sacrifice to You, You caused to pass by a precious death to the gate of eternal life; grant that we too at the close of life may be strengthened with the bread of heaven, and be made sharers in the same glory: through our Lord.

Sept. 21—ST. MATTHEW, AP. AND EV.

Office. Ps. 138, 17.1-2. To me, Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. ¶ Lord, You have proved me and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. May the prayers of the blessed apostle and evangelist, Matthew, help us, O Lord; that what is not in our power to attain, may be given to us at his intercession: through our Lord. Epistola, p. 885.

Responsory. Ps. 138, 17.18. Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. ¶ I will number them, and they shall be multiplied above the sand.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 18, 5. Their sound went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. Alleluia!

cisco, quem post oblatum tibi sacrificium, ad salutis portum pretiosa morte transire fecisti; nos etiam, in vitæ exitu caelesti pabulo roboratos, ejusdem gloriae facias esse consortes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Beati apostoli et evangelistæ Matthæi, Domine, precibus adjuvemur; ut quod possibilitas nostra non obtinet, ejus nobis intercessione donetur. Epistola, p. 885.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ In omnem terram exivit sonus eorum: et in fines orbis terrae verba eorum. Alleluia.
Gospel. Matt. 9, 9-13. At that time, Jesus saw a man named Matthew sitting in the tax-collector’s place, and said to him, “Follow Me.” And he arose and followed Him. And it came to pass as He was at table in the house, that, behold, many publicans and sinners came to the table with Jesus and His disciples. And the Pharisees seeing it, said to His disciples, “Why does your Master eat with publicans and sinners?” But Jesus heard it, and said, “It is not the healthy who need a physician, but they who are sick. But go, and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice.’ For I have come to call sinners, not the just.” Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 18, 5. Their sound went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.
Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Let the offering of Your Church, we pray You, O Lord, be commended to You by the prayers of blessed Matthew, Your apostle and evangelist, by whose glorious preaching she is instructed: through our Lord.
Preface: No. 13, p. 657.

Offertorium. In omnem terram exivit sonus eorum: et in fines orbis terrae verba eorum.

Secreta. Supplicationibus beati Matthaei apostoli et evangelistae, quaesumus Domine, ecclesiae tuae commendetur oblatio, cujus magnificis praedicationibus eruditur. Per Dominum.
Communion. John 15, 16. I have chosen you out of the world, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain.

Sept. 23—BL. MARK OF MODENA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who by the ministry of blessed Mark, Your confessor, made many wanderers return to the path of justice; grant by his intercession that we also being cleansed from sin, may happily be able to reach everlasting joy: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O most loving Lord, this unspotted victim, and through the merits of blessed Mark, Your confessor, be pleased to stretch out to us the hand of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Refreshed with the bread of angels, grant us, we beseech You, almighty God, that we may follow up the counsels and example of blessed Mark, Your confessor, and protect ourselves by fervent meditation on the cross: through our Lord.

Communio. Ego vos elegi de mundo, ut eatis, et fructum afferatis, et fructus vester maneat.

Oratio. Deus, qui per beatum Marcum confessorem tuum, permultos errantes in viam justitiae redire fecisti; concede, ut ejus intercessione nos quoque a vitiiis absoluti, ad aeterna gaudia pervenire feliciter valeamus. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe, clementissime Domine, hanc immaculatam hostiam, et per merita beati Marci confessoris tui, viscera misericordiae tuae super nos effundere digneris. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Angelorum pane refecti, concede quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut beati Marci confessoris tui monita et exempla sectemur, ac assidua crucis meditatione muniamur. Per Dominum.
Sept. 24—OUR LADY OF RANSOM
Mass: as on the Feast of Our Lady of the Snows, p. 1054, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who through the most glorious mother of Your Son were pleased to enrich Your Church with a new family for the deliverance of Christ’s faithful from the bonds of pagans; grant, we beseech You, that while we reverently honor her as the foundress of so great a work we may likewise, through her merits and intercession, be delivered from all sin and bondage to the evil one: through the same Lord.

Sept. 25—COMMEMORATION OF OUR HOLY FATHER ST. DOMINIC IN SORIANO
All as in the Votive Mass for St. Dominic, p. 1263.

Sept. 26—BL. DALMATIUS MONER, C.O.P.
Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who made Your humble servant, Dalmatius, glorious for many miracles and virtues, and wonderfully enkindled him with Your love to the despising of all earthly things; grant, we beseech You, through his intercession, that being loosed from all affection for things of earth and freed from all adversities, we may seek only the things above: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui per gloriosissimam Filii tui matrem, ad liberandos Christi fideles a potestate paganorum, nova ecclesiam tuam prole amplificare dignatus es; præsta quaesumus, ut quam pie veneramur tanti operis institutricem, ejus pariter meritis et intercessione a peccatis omnibus, et captivitate daemonis liberemur. Per eundem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui humilem famulum tuum Dalmatium multis signis atque virtutibus decorasti, ac mirabiliter in tuo amore, spretis temporalibus, inflamasti; tribue nobis quaesumus, ut ejus intercessione, a terrenis affectibus expediti, et a cunctis adversitatibus liberati, sola caelestia appetamus. Per Dominum.
Sept. 27—STS. COSMAS AND DAMIAN

Office. Ecclus. 44, 15.14. Let the people show forth the wisdom of the saints, and the Church declare their praise; and their names shall live unto generation and generation. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just; praise becomes the upright. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast day of Your holy martyrs, Cosmas and Damian, may at their pleading be freed from all the ills that threaten us: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 132, 1-2. Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity. ∞ Like the precious ointment on the head, that ran down upon the beard, the beard of Aaron.

Alleluia, alleluia! ∞ Wisd. 3. The just shall shine, and shall run to and fro like sparks among the reeds; they shall reign forever. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 6, 17-23. At that time, Jesus coming down from the mountain took His stand on a level stretch, with a crowd of His disciples, and a great multi-

Responsorium. Ecce quam bonum, et quam jucundum habitare fratres in unum. ∞ Sicut unguentum in capite, quod descendit in barbam, barbam Aaron.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Descendens Jesus de monte, stetit in loco campestri, et turba discipulorum ejus, tude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to listen to Him and to be healed of their diseases. And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd were trying to touch Him, for power went forth from Him and healed all. And He lifted up His eyes to His disciples, and said, "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed shall you be when men hate you, and when they shut you out, and reproach you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and exult, for behold your reward is great in heaven."

Offertory. Ps. 5, 12-13. All who love Your name shall glory in You, for You, O Lord, will bless the just; Lord, You have crowned us with a shield of Your good will. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Let not the holy prayer of Your saints be wanting to us, O Lord, but let it commend our gifts and always obtain for us Your pardon: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Gloriabuntur in te omnes, qui diligunt nomen tuum, quoniam tu Domine benedices justo: Domine, ut scuto bonae voluntatis tuae coronasti nos.

Secreta. Sanctorum tuorum nobis, Domine, pia non desit oratio, quae et munera nostra conciliet, et tuam nobis indulgentiam semper obtineat. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 78, 2.11. They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to be meat for the fowls of the air; the flesh of Your saints for the beasts of the earth; according to the greatness of Your arm, take possession of the children of those who have been put to death.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, let Your people be shielded both by the participation vouchsafed to them in this heavenly banquet and by the intercession of Your saints, granted to them: through our Lord.

Sept. 28—BL. LAWRENCE OF RIPAFRATTA, C.O.P.

Mass: *No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Lawrence, Your confessor, to shine forth with zeal for regular discipline and fervor in divine love; grant, at his prayers, that always following after the more perfect ways we may attain unto everlasting joys: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the offering we make to You, and through the merits and in imitation of blessed Lawrence may we gain an increase of spiritual gifts: through our Lord.

Communio. Posuerunt mortalia servorum tuorum, Domine, escas volatilibus caeli: carnes sanctorum tuorum bestiis terrae: secundum magnitudinem brachii tui, posside filios morte-punitorum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Laurentium confessorem tuum regularis disciplinae studio, et caritatis ardore clarescere fecisti; ejus nobis intercessione concede, ut perfectiora semper exsequentes, aeterna gaudia consequamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by these sacred gifts, O Lord, we humbly beseech You, that spurning the allurements of the world we may, through the intercession of blessed Lawrence, ever be eager for heavenly delights: through our Lord.

Sept. 29—ST. MICHAEL, ARCHANGEL

Office. Ps. 102, 20. Bless the Lord all you His angels; you who are mighty in strength, and execute His word, hearkening to the voice of His orders. Ps. 102, 1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all that is within me bless His holy name. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who in a wondrous order dispose the ministries of men and angels; mercifully grant, that those who always stand before Your face and minister to You in heaven, may also guard our lives on earth: through our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 1, 1-5. In those days, God signified those things which must shortly come to pass, sending through His angel to His servant John; who bore witness to the word of God and to the testimony of Jesus Christ, to whatever he saw. Blessed is he who reads and Postcommunion. Refecti, Domine, muneribus sacris, te humiliter deprecamur, ut mundi illecebras fastidientes, beato Laurentio confessore tuo intercedente, caelestes delicias jugiter appetamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui miro ordine angelorum ministeria, ho­minumque dispensas; concede propitius, ut a quibus tibi, ministrantibus in caelo semper assistitur, ab his in terra vita nostra muniatur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Significavit Deus, quae oportet fieri cito, mittens per angelum suum servo suo Joanni, qui testimonium perhibuit verbo Dei, et testimonium Jesu Christi quaecumque vidit. Beatus qui legit et audit verba those who hear the words of this prophecy, and keep the things that are written therein; for the time is at hand. John to the seven churches that are in Asia: grace be to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is coming, and from the seven spirits who are before His throne, and from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who has loved us, and washed us from our sins in His own Blood.

Responsory. Ps. 102, 20.1. Bless the Lord all you His angels; you who are mighty in strength, who do His will. ¶ O my soul, bless the Lord; and all that is within me praise His holy name.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 137, 1. I will sing praise to You in the sight of the angels, O Lord, my God. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 18, 1-10. At that time, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, “Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?” And Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in their midst, and said, “Amen I say to you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whoever, therefore, humbles himself as this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever receives one such little child for My sake, receives Me. But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it were better for him to have a great millstone hung around his neck, and to be drowned in the depths of the sea. Woe to the world because of scandals! For it must needs be that scandals come, but woe to that man through whom scandal does come! And if your hand or your foot is an occasion of sin to you, cut it off and cast it from you! It is better for you to enter life maimed or lame, than, having two hands or two feet, to be cast into the everlasting fire. And if your eye is an occasion of sin to you, pluck it out and cast it from you! It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, than, having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire. See that you do not despise one of these little ones; for I tell you, their angels in heaven always behold the face of My Father in heaven."

Offertory. Apoc. 8, 3.4. An angel stood near the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand, and Quicumque ergo humiliaverit se sicut parvulus iste, hie est major in regno caelorum. Et qui susceperit unum parvulum talem in nomine meo, me suscipit. Qui autem scandalizaverit unum de pusillis istis qui in me credunt, expedit ei ut suspendatur mola asinaria in collo ejus, et demergatur in profundum maris. Vae mundo a scandalis. Necesse est enim, ut veniant scandalia; verumtamen vae homini illi, per quem scandalum venit. Si autem manus tua, vel pes tuus scandalizat te, abscide eum, et projice abs te. Bonum tibi est ad vitam ingredi debilem vel claudum, quam duas manus, vel duos pedes habentem mitti in ignem aeternum. Et si oculus tuus scandalizat te, erue eum et projice abs te. Bonum tibi est cum uno oculo in vitam intrare, quam duos oculos habentem mitti in gehennam ignis. Videte ne contemnatis unum ex his pusillis: dico enim vobis, quia angeli eorum in caelis semper vident faciem Patris mei qui in caelis est.

Offertorium. Stetit angelus juxta aram templi, habens thuribulum aureum in manu sua: et data sunt ei incensa there was given to him much incense; and the smoke of the perfumes ascended before God.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, a sacrifice of praise, humbly beseeching You that through the intercession of the angels, You would graciously accept it and let it be an aid for our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Dan. 3, 58. All you angels of the Lord, bless the Lord; sing a hymn and exalt Him above all forever.

Postcommunion. Upheld by the intercession of Your archangel, Michael, we humbly pray You, O Lord, that what we honor with our lips, we may embrace in our heart: through our Lord.

Sept. 30—ST. JEROME, PRIEST, C.D.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, You were pleased to bestow on Your Church for expounding the Scriptures, Your blessed confessor and wondrous doctor, Jerome; grant, we beseech You, by his prayers and merits, that what he taught both in word and deed, Your help may enable us to practice: through our Lord.

multa: et ascendit fumus aromatum in conspectu Dei.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus, suppliciter deprecantes, ut easdem, angelico pro nobis interveniente suffragio, et placatus accipias et ad salutem nostram provenire concedas. Per Dominum.

Communio. Benedicite omnes angeli Domini Domini: hymnum dicite et superexaltate eum in saecula.

Postcommunio. Beati archangeli tui Michaelis intercessione suffulti, supplices te, Domine, deprecamur, ut quod ore prosequimur, contingamus et mente. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiae tuae in exponendis sacris scripturis beatum Hieronymum confessorem tuum, doctorem maximum providere dignatus es; praesta quaeasumus, ut ejus suffragantibus meritis, quod ore simul et opere docuit, te adjuvante, exercere valeamus. Per Dominum.
Offertory. Ps. 20, 3.4. You have given him his heart's desire, O Lord, and have not withheld from him the request of his lips; You have set on his head a crown of precious stones. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Bestow on us through these heavenly gifts, O Lord, we pray, to serve You with freedom of soul; that the offerings we bring, through the intercession of blessed Jerome, Your confessor, may be for our healing and glory: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward, whom the master has set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Postcommunion. Fed with this heavenly food, we beseech You, O Lord, that at the pleading of blessed Jerome, Your confessor, we may be worthy to obtain the grace of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Desiderium animae ejus tribuisti ei Domine, et voluntate laboriorum ejus non fraudasti eum: posuisti in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso.

Secreta. Donis caelestibus da nobis, quae sumus Domine, libera tibi mente servire; ut munera, quae deferimus, interveniente beato Hieronymo confessore tuo, et medelam nobis operentur et gloriam. Per Dominum.

Communio. Fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit dominus super familiam suam, ut det illis in tempore tritiei mensuram.

Postcommunio. Repleti alimonia caelesti, quae sumus Domine, ut interveniente beato Hieronymo confessore tuo, misericordiae tuae gratiam consequi mereamur. Per Dominum.

FIRST SUNDAY IN OCTOBER

THE MOST HOLY ROSARY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of the blessed virgin Mary, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 44, 2. My heart has uttered a good word; I speak my works to the King. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, whose Only-begotten Son by His life, death and resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life; grant, we beseech You, that meditating upon these mysteries in the most holy Rosary of the blessed virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain, and obtain what they promise: through the same Lord.

Memory of the Sunday, followed by Epistle, p. 748.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 5.11.12. Because of truth, and meekness, and justice; and Your right hand shall conduct You wonderfully. ὥ. Hear, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear; for the king has desired your beauty.

Ora tio. Deus, cujus Unigenitus per vitam, mortem et resurrectionem suam nobis salutis aeternae praemia comparavit; concede quaesumus, ut haec mysteria sanctissimo Rosario beatae Mariae virginis recolentes, et imitemur quod continent, et quod promittunt assequamur. Per eundem Dominum. Ἔpistola, p. 748.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. This is the solemnity of the glorious virgin Mary, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Juda, of the noble race of David. Alleluia!

Gospel. p. 1245.

Offertory. Ps. 39, 17-18. Hear me, divine offspring, and as a rose planted by the banks of the waters, blossom forth; like Lebanon give forth an odor of sweetness.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We pray You, O Lord, make us worthy to offer these gifts; and through the mysteries of the most holy Rosary, so to recall the life, passion and glory of Your Only-begotten Son, that we may be made worthy of His promises: who live and reign with You.

Memory of the Sunday. Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Ecclus. 39, 19. Send forth flowers, as the lily, and yield a smell, and bring forth leaves in grace; and praise with canticles, and bless the Lord in His works.

Postcommunion. May we be helped, we pray You, O Lord, by the intercession of Your most holy mother whose Rosary we celebrate, so that we may draw

Evangelium, p. 1245.

Offertorium. Obaudite me divini fructus, et quasi rosa plantata super rivos aquarum fructificate: quasi Libanus odorem suavitatis habete.

Secreta. Fac nos, quaesumus Domine, his muneribus offerendis convenienter aptari; et per sanctissimi Rosarii mysteria, sic vitam, passionem, et gloriam Unigeniti tui recolere, ut ejus digni promissionibus efficiamur. Qui tecum vivis et regnas.

Communio. Florete flores, quasi lilium, et date odorem, et frondete in gratiam; et collaudate canticum, et beneficite Dominum in operibus suis.

Postcommunio. Sanctissimae genitricis tuae, cujus Rosarium celebramus, quaesumus Domine, precibus adjuvestrength from the mysteries we reverence, and receive grace from the sacrament we have taken: who live and reign.

Memory of the Sunday.

Oct. 1—ST. REMIGIUS, B.C.

Memory

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the venerable solemnity of blessed Remigius, Your confessor and bishop, may further our love and salvation: through our Lord.

Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that giving thanks for Your gifts, we may, through the prayers of blessed Remigius, Your confessor and bishop, welcome gifts still greater: through our Lord.

Oct. 2—THE HOLY GUARDIAN ANGELS

Office. Ps. 90, 11.1. God has given His angels charge over you: to keep you in all your ways. ¶ He who mur, ut et mysteriorum, quae colimus, virtus percipiatur, et sacramentorum, quae sumpsimus, obtineatur effectus. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Da, quaeSUMUS omnipotens Deus, ut beati Remigii confessoris tui atque pontificis veneranda solemnitas et devotionem nobis augeat et salutem. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sancti tui, quaeSUMUS Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentientiamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaeSUMUS omnipotens Deus, ut de perceptis muneribus gratias exhibentes, intercedente beato Remigio confessore tuo atque pontifice, beneficia potiora sumamus. Per Dominum.

dwell in the help of the Most High, shall abide under the protection of the God of heaven. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who by Your boundless providence have been pleased to send Your holy angels to be our guardians; grant that we, Your suppliants, may ever be defended by their protection here, and enjoy their society hereafter: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. LEGER, B.M.

Collect. May Your Church rejoice, O God, confident in the prayers of blessed Leger, Your bishop and martyr, and through his glorious intercession may she continue in her devotion and abide in security: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ex. 23, 20-23. Thus says the Lord God: “See, I am sending My angel before you, to guard you on the way and bring you to the place I have prepared. Be attentive to him and heed his voice. Do not rebel against him, for he will not forgive your sin. My authority resides in him. If you heed his voice and carry out all I tell you, I will be an enemy to your enemies and a foe to your foe, and My angel will go before you.”

Oratio. Deus, qui ineffabili providentia sanctos angelos tuos ad nostram custodiam mittere dignaris; largire supplicibus tuis, et eorum semper protectione defendi, et aeterna societate gaudere. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Laetetur ecclesia tua, Deus, beati Leodegarii martyris tui atque pontificis confisa suffragiis, atque ejus precibus gloriosis, et devota permaneat et secura consistat. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Judith 13, 17.20. Praise the Lord our God, who has not forsaken those who hope in Him; and by me He has fulfilled His mercy. But as the same Lord lives, His angel has been my keeper going hence, and abiding there, and returning from thence hither; and the Lord has not let me be defiled.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 33, 8-9. The angel of the Lord shall encamp round about those who fear him, and shall deliver them. O taste and see that the Lord is sweet; blessed is the man who hopes in Him. Alleluia!

Gospel, p. 1141.

Offertory. Heb. 1, 14. The angels are ministering spirits sent for service, for the sake of those who shall inherit salvation. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the gifts we bring in honor of Your holy angels; and mercifully grant that through their never-failing protection, we may be free from present dangers and attain life everlasting: through our Lord.

Responsorium. Laudate Dominum Deum nostrum, qui non deseruit sperantes in se: et in me adimplevit misericordiam suam. Vivit autem ipse Dominus, quoniam custodivit me angelus ejus et hinc euntem, et commorantem, et revertentem: et non permisit me Dominus coinquinari.

Evangelium, p. 1141.

Offertorium. Angeli sunt administratorii spiritus, in ministerium missi propter eos, qui hereditatem capiunt salutis.

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, munera, quae pro sanctorum angelorum tuorum veneratione deferimus; et concede propitius, ut perpetuis eorum praesidiis, a praeantibus periculis liberemur et ad vitam perveniamus aeternam. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF ST. LÉGER

Secret. Receive, O Lord, these offerings which we make on the feast of him through whose patronage we trust to be made free: through our Lord.

Communion. Isa. 62, 6. "Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have appointed watchmen all day and all night forever," says the Lord.

Postcommunion. We have received Your divine mysteries, O Lord, rejoicing in the feast of Your holy angels; we pray You, that through their protection we may always be delivered from the snares of our enemies and shielded against all adversity: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. LÉGER

Postcommunion. You have satisfied Your family, O Lord, with Your gifts; ever re-inflame our zeal by the intercession of him whose feast we celebrate: through our Lord.

Oct. 3—ST. THERESA OF THE CHILD JESUS, V.

Office. Cant. 4, 8.9. Come from Lebanon, my spouse, come from Lebanon, come: you have wounded my heart, my sister, my spouse, you have wounded my Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, munera, quae in ejus tibi solemnitate deferimus, cujus nos confidimus patrocinio liberari. Per Dominum.

Communio. Super muros tuos Jerusalem constitui custodes, tota die et nocte in perpetuum, dicit Dominus.

Postcommunio. Sumpsimus, Domine, divina mysteria, sanctorum angelorum tuorum festivitate laetantes; quaesumus, ut eorum protectione ab hostium jugiter liberemur insidiis et contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Satiasti, Domine, familiam tuam muneri-bus sacris; ejus, quae sumus, semper interventione nos refove, cujus solemnia celebramus. Per Dominum.

Officium. Veni de Libano, sponsa mea, veni de Libano, veni: vulnerasti cor meum, soror mea sponsa, vulnerasti
OCT.'3—ST. THERESA OF CHILD JESUS

Collect. O Lord, You have said, "Unless you become as little children, you shall not enter into the Kingdom of Heaven"; grant us, we beseech You, to follow in the footsteps of the holy maiden Theresa in humility and simplicity of heart, that we may attain to an eternal reward: who live and reign.

Epistle. Isaias 66, 12-14. Thus says the Lord: "Behold I will bring upon her as it were a river of peace, and as an overflowing torrent the glory of the Gentiles, which you shall suck; you shall be carried at the breasts, and upon the knees they shall caress you. As one whom the mother caresses, so will I comfort you; and you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb, and the hand of the Lord shall be known to His servants.

Responsory. Matt. 11, 25. I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You did hide these things from the wise and prudent, and did reveal them to little ones. Ps. 70, 5. My hope, O Lord, from my youth.

cor meum. ¶ Laudate, pueri, Dominum: laudate nomen Domini. Gloria.

Oratio. Domine, qui dixisti, Nisi efficiamini sicut parvuli, non intrabitis in regnum caelorum: da nobis, quae-sumus, ita sanctae Teresiae virginis in humilitate et simplicitate cordis vestigia sectari; ut praemia consequamur aeterna. Qui vivis.

Responsorium. Confiteor tibi, Pater, Domine caeli et terrae, quod abscondisti haec a sapientibus et prudentibus, et revelasti ea parvulis. ¶ Domine, spes mea a juventute mea.
Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \). Ecclus. 39, 17-19. Open up your petals, like roses planted near running waters; send up a sweet odor like Lebanon. Break forth in blossoms like the lily, and yield a smell, and bring forth leaves in grace, and praise with canticles, and bless the Lord in His works. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 18, 1-4. At that time, the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Who then is greatest in the kingdom of heaven?" And Jesus called a little child to Him, set him in their midst, and said, "Amen I say to you, unless you turn and become like little children, you will not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whoever, therefore, humbles himself as this little child, he is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven."

Offertory. Luke 1, 46.48.49. My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior; because He has regarded the lowliness of His handmaid. He who is mighty has done great things for me.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that the prayers of the holy maiden Theresa may render our sacrifice pleasing to You, so that it may be accepted through the merits of her in whose honor it is offered: through our Lord.

Communion. Deut. 32, 10-12. He led her about and taught her, and He guarded her as the apple of His eye. As an eagle He spread His wings to receive her and bore her up on His pinions. The Lord alone was her leader.

Postcommunion. May Your heavenly mystery inflame us, O Lord, with that same fire of love with which the holy maiden Theresa devoted herself to You as a victim of love for men: through our Lord.

Oct. 4—OUR HOLY FATHER ST. FRANCIS, C.

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of Blessed Francis, on whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and praise the Son of God. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord you just; praise becomes the upright. Glory.            Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, through the merits of the blessed Francis, our father, You enriched Your Church by a new offspring; grant us like him to scorn the things of in cujus honore solemniter exhibetur, ejus meritis efficiatur acceptum. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Illo nos, Domine, amoris igne caeleste mysterium inflammet; quo sancta Teresia virgo tua se tibi pro hominibus caritatis victimam devotis. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui ecclesiam tuam beati patris nostri Francisci meritis, fetu novae proli amplificas; tribue nobis earth, and to rejoice always in sharing the gifts of heaven: through our Lord.

Epistle. Gal. 6, 14-18. Brethren: But as for me, God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision but a new creation is of any account. And whoever follow this rule, peace and mercy upon them, even upon the Israel of God. Henceforth let no man give me trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Jesus in my body. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brethren. Amen.

Responsory. Ecclus. 50, 6-7. He shone in his days as the morning star in the midst of a cloud; and as the full moon. V. And as the sun in his brilliancy; so he shone in the temple of God.

Alleluia, alleluia! V. O Francis, patriarch of the poor, by your prayers increase in the charity of Christ the number of your children, whom, your eyes dimmed like those of the dying Jacob, you blessed with crossed hands.
New signs of sanctity, worthy of praise Are evidence that things exceedingly Wonderful and beautiful were reposed In Francis.

To the regulars of his new flock Are given the rules of a new law, And the King's commands, bestowed Through Francis are renewed.

There rises in the world a new order, A new and unheard of life. The approved rule has restored the Evangelical state.

Conformable to the law of Christ, A rule of like nature is fashioned, And the manner of the given rule Observes the apostolic height.

A rough cord, a coarse garment clothes him, He cares naught for clothing. Bread is given in measure, Shoes are cast away.

For poverty alone he yearns, There is no desire for earthly gifts, A Treasure is even spurned; Francis tramples upon the things of earth.
He seeks places to shed tears,
His bitter heart really sighs,
He moans in sorrow over
Precious time lost in the world.

Hiding alone in a mountain cavern
He weeps. Prostrate on the ground
He prays. Calm of soul at last
He hides away in his retreat.

There he abides concealed by a rock
And is uplifted to things divine.
As a good judge, he spurns things of earth
And chooses things divine.

He curbs under censure his flesh
Which in figure was transformed.
He takes his food from Scripture
And repels things not divine.

There comes from Heaven a seraph.
Behold, a royal prince.
The patriarch is fearful
Frightened by the vision.

The seraph bears the wounds of Christ,
And on Francis does bestow them,
While with a sad heart
He silently contemplates the Passion.
His holy body is marked in the hand
He is wounded even in foot.
His right side is pierced
And he is stained with blood.

In heavenly conversation many Future secrets become clear,
The Saint understands the sense
Of the words by heaven's inspiration.

Forthwith appear the wondrous nails,
Outwardly black but inwardly red.
The suffering penetrates deeply,
The points torture with grievous pain.

In the wounding of his members
The armor of art yielded nothing;
Neither did nature impress them
Nor the torture of the maltlet.

By the signs of the Cross which you did bear
And by which you triumphed over the world
You conquered the enemy and the flesh
By a glorious victory.

O Francis, may we be protected
And defended in adversity
That we may reap a rich reward
In Heaven eternally.
O loving father, holy father,    Pater pie, Pater sancte,
May your devoted people,    Plebs devota, te juvante, by your help,    Turba fratrum comitante,
In company with a multitude    Mereatur praemia.
of Your brethren merit eternal joy.

Make them to be the companions of The blessed
Those whom you formed in virtue's ways.
And so, may the flock of Minors Attain to everlasting joys.

Amen. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 11, 25-30. At that time Jesus answered and said, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You did hide these things from the wise and prudent, and revealed them to little ones. Yes, Father, for such was Your good pleasure. All things have been delivered to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and him to whom the Son chooses to reveal Him. Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden light." Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Phil. 1, 20-21. Christ will be glorified in my body whether through life or through death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts consecrated to You; and at the pleading of blessed Francis, our father, cleanse us from every stain of sin: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 16, p. 659.

Communion. Rom. 8, 18. The sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us.

Postcommunion. We pray You, O Lord, that Your grace from on high may enlarge Your Church which the blessed confessor Francis, our father, by Your will, did enlighten through his glorious merits and example: through our Lord.

Oct. 5.—BL. RAYMOND OF CAPUA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, You willed blessed Raymond Your confessor, to be a distinguished master of evangelical perfection and a faithful upholder of apostolic authority;

Offertorium. Magnificabitur Christus in corpore meo, sive per vitam, sive per mortem: mihi enim vivere Christus est, et mori lucrum.

Secreta. Munera tibi Domine dicata sanctifica; et intercedente beato patre nostro Francisco, ab omni nos culparum labe purifica. Per Dominum.

Communio. Non sunt condignae passiones hujus temporis ad futuram gloriam, quae revelabitur in nobis.

Postcommunio. Ecclesiam tuam, quae sumus Domine, gratia caelestis amplificet; quam beati patris nostri Francisci confessoris tui illuminare voluisti gloriosis meritis et exemplis. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Raymundum confessorem tuum insignem perfectionis evangelicae magistrum, et apostolicae auctoritatis fidelem assertorem esse voluisti; conmercifully grant that following his example on earth, we may deserve to be crowned with him in heaven: through our Lord.

Secret. Through this offering and the intercession of blessed Raymond, Your confessor, grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that despising earthly things we may fix our minds on things of heaven: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Having received the mysteries of Your body and blood, O Lord, we humbly entreat, that at the intercession of Your servant Raymond, we may, after the dangers of this life, obtain eternal joys in heaven: who live and reign.

Oct. 6—ST. BRUNO, C.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. May we be helped, O Lord, by the prayers of Saint Bruno, Your confessor; that we who have grievously offended Your majesty by our transgressions, may, by his merits and pleadings, obtain pardon of our sins: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. SERGIUS, BACCHUS, MARCELLUS AND APULEIUS, MM.

Collect. May the blessed merits of Your holy martyrs, Sergius, Bacchus, Marcellus and Apuleius follow us, O Lord, and ever enkindle within us the fire of Your love: through our Lord.

Secreta. Laudis tibi Domine hostias immolamus in tuorum commemoratione sanctorum; quibus nos et prae-sentibus exui malis confidimus et futuris. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Exaudi, Domine, preces nostras, et interveniente beato Marco confessore tuo atque pontifice, supplicationes nostras placatus intende. Per Dominum.

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your saints, be pleasing to You, and may likewise cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MARK

Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; so that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. May the victim to be offered, O Lord, appease Your majesty in our regard, through the worthy pleading of Your saints: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly food may, through the pleading of blessed Matthew, Your confessor, be shielded from all adversity: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MARK

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that giving thanks for Your gifts, we may, through Secreta. Sancti tui, quaesumus Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepimus, intercedente beato Matthaeo confessori tuo, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut de perceptis muneribus gratias exhibentes, intercedente the prayers of blessed Mark, Your confessor and bishop, welcome gifts still greater: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Postcommunion. May we be shielded, O Lord, by the sacrament we have received, and through the prayers and merits of Your holy martyrs, be protected by heavenly armor against all the powers of wickedness that attack us: through our Lord.

Oct. 8—ST. BRIDGET, W.

Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following prayers:

Collect. O Lord, our God, who through Your Only-begotten Son unveiled to blessed Bridget the hidden secrets of heaven; may her holy intercession let us, Your servants, rejoice gladly in the unveiling of Your eternal glory: through the same Lord.

Epistle. I Tim. 5, 3-10. Dearly beloved: Honor widows who are truly widowed. But if a widow has children or grandchildren, let these first learn to provide for their own household and make some return to their parents, for this is pleasing to God. But she who is truly beato Marco, confessore tuo atque pontifice, beneficia potiora sumamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Sacramentis, Domine, muniamur acceptis, et sanctorum martyrum tuorum intervenientibus meritis, contra omnes nequitias irruentes, armis caelestibus protegamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Domine Deus noster, qui beatae Birgittae per Filium tuum unigenitum secreta caelestia revelasti; ipsius pia intercessione da nobis famulis tuis in revelatione sempiternae gloriae tuae gaudere laetantes. Per eumdem Dominum.

Epistola. Carissime: Viduas honora, quae vere viduae sunt. Si qua autem vidua filios, aut nepotes habet, discat primum domum suam regere, et mutuam vicem reddere parentibus; hoc enim acceptum est coram Deo. Quae autem vere vidua est et desolata, speret in Deum, et instet a widow, and left solitary, has set her hope on God and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. For she who gives herself up to pleasures is dead while she is still alive. And command them to be blameless. But if anyone does not take care of his own, and especially of his household, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. Let a widow who is selected be not less than sixty years old, having been married but once, with a reputation for her good works in bringing up children, in practising hospitality, in washing the saints' feet, in helping those in trouble, in carefully pursuing every good work.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 44, 6. With your comeliness and your beauty set out, proceed prosperously, and reign. Alleluia!

Secret. May this offering of Your people be accepted by You, O Lord, for the honor of Your saints, through whose merits they are sensible of having received help in their tribulations: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. You have fed Your family with sacred gifts, O Lord; refresh us always, we pray You, by the intercession of her whose feast we celebrate: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Satiasti Domine familiam tuam muneribus sacris; ejus, quaesumus, semper interventione nos refove, cujus solemnia celebramus. Per Dominum.
Oct. 9—STS. DENIS AND COMPANIONS, MM.

Office. Ps. 78, 11.12.10. Let the sighing of the prisoners come in before You, O Lord; render to our neighbors sevenfold in their bosom; revenge the blood of Your saints, which has been shed. Æ. O God, the heathens have come into Your inheritance, they have defiled Your holy temple; they have made Jerusalem as a place to keep fruit. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who this day strengthened blessed Denis, Your martyr and bishop, by the virtue of steadfastness in suffering, and who were pleased to associate Rusticus and Eleutherius with him to preach Your glory to the Gentiles; grant us, we beseech You, to walk in their footsteps, and for love of You to despise the pleasures of the world and fear none of its hardships: through our Lord.

Epistle. Acts 17, 22-34. In those days, Paul stood up in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, “Men of Athens, I see that in every respect you are extremely religious. For as I was going about and observing objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this Oratio. Deus, qui hodierna die beatum Dionysium, martyrem tuum atque pontificem, virtute constantiae in passione roborasti, quique illi ad praedicandum gentibus gloriam tuam, Rusticum et Eleutherium sociare dignatus es; tribue nobis, quaesumus, eorum imitatione pro amore tuo prospera mundi despicere, et nulla ejus adversa formidare. inscription: ‘To the Unknown God.’ What therefore you worship in ignorance that I proclaim to you. God, who made the world and all that is in it, since He is Lord of heaven and earth, does not dwell in temples built by hands; neither is He served by human hands as though He were in need of anything, since it is He who gives to all men life and breath and all things. And from one man He has created the whole human race and made them live all over the face of the earth, determining their appointed times and the boundaries of their lands; that they should seek God, and perhaps grope after Him and find Him, though He is not far from any one of us. For in Him we live and move and have our being, as indeed some of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also His offspring.’ If therefore we are the offspring of God, we ought not to imagine that the Divinity is like to gold or silver or stone, to an image graven by human art and thought. The times of this ignorance God has, it is true, overlooked, but now He calls upon all men everywhere to repent; inasmuch as He has fixed a day on which He will judge the world with justice by a Man whom He has appointed, and whom He has guaranteed to all by raising Him from the dead." Now when they heard of a resurrection of the dead, some began to sneer, but others said, "We will hear you again on this matter." So Paul went forth from among them. Certain persons however joined him and became believers; among them were Dionysius the Areopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

Responsory. Exod. 15, 1-6. God is glorious in His saints: wonderful in majesty, doing wonders. Y. Your right hand, O Lord, is glorified in strength; Your right hand has broken the enemies.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. Wisd. 3, 8. The saints shall judge nations, and rule over people; and their king shall reign forever. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 12, 1-8. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. But there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. For what you have said in darkness will be said in the light; and what you have whispered in the inner chambers will be preached on the housetops. But I say to you, my friends: Do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will show you whom you shall be afraid of; be afraid of Him who, after He has killed, has power to cast into hell. Yes, I say to you, be afraid of Him. Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings? And yet not one of them is forgotten before God. Yes, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore do not be afraid, you are of more value than many sparrows. And I say to you, everyone who acknowledges Me before men, him will the Son of Man also acknowledge before the angels of God.”

Offertory. Ps. 31, 11. Be glad in the Lord, and rejoice you just, and glory all you right of heart.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that this victim, which we offer You, while calling to mind the feast day of Your holy martyrs, Denis, Rusticus and Eleutherius, may loosen us from the bonds of our wickedness and obtain for us the gifts of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Laetamini in Domino et exsultate justi: et gloriamini omnes recti corde.

Secreta. Hostia, Domine quaesumus, quam sanctorum martyrum tuorum Dionysii, Rustici et Eleutherii natalitia recensentes offerimus, et vincula nostrae pravitatis absolvat, et tuae nobis misericordiae dona conciliet. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just, praise becomes the upright.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that this heavenly food, which we have received may, through the intercession of Your holy martyrs, Denis, Rusticus and Eleutherius, strengthen us against all ills: through our Lord.

Oct. 10—ST. LOUIS BERTRAND, C.O.P.

Office. Ps. 29, 12.13.2. You have turned my mourning into joy; You have cut off my sackcloth, and encompassed me with gladness; O Lord my God, I will give praise to You forever. ὡ. I will extol You, O Lord, for You have lifted me up, and have not let my foes rejoice over me. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who through mortification of the body and preaching of the faith, raised blessed Louis, Your confessor, to the glory of the saints; grant that what we profess by faith we may ever fulfill by works of piety: through our Lord.

Communio. Gaudete justi in Domino: rectos decet colaudatio.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepimus, intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis Dionysio, Rustico et Eleutherio, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Ludovicum confessorem tuum, per corporis mortificationem, et fidei praeconium sanctorum gloriae coaequasti; praesta, ut quod fide profitemur, pietatis operibus jugiter impleamus. Per Dominum.
Epistle. Rom. 10, 10-18. Brethren: For with the heart a man believes unto justice, and with the mouth profession of faith is made unto salvation. For the Scripture says, “Whoever believes in Him shall not be disappointed.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek, for there is the same Lord of all, rich towards all who call upon Him. “For whoever calls upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” How then are they to call upon Him in whom they have not believed? But how are they to believe Him whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear, if no one preaches? And how are men to preach unless they be sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace; of those who bring glad tidings of good things!” But all did not obey the gospel. For Isaias says, “Lord, who has believed our report?” Faith then depends on hearing, and hearing on the word of Christ. But I say: Have they not heard? Yes, indeed, “Their voice has gone forth into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.”

Responsory. Ps. 17, 45.50. A people, which I knew not has served Me; at the first word heard, they have

Responsorium. Populus, quem non cognovi, servivit obeyed Me. V. Therefore, will I praise You, O Lord, among the nations; and I will sing a psalm to Your name.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 17, 2-3. I will love You, O Lord, my strength; the Lord is my rock, my refuge, and my deliverer; my God is my helper, in Him will I put my trust. Alleluia!

Gospel. Mark 16, 15-18. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "Go into the whole world and preach the gospel to every creature. He who believes and is baptized shall be saved, but he who does not believe shall be condemned. And these signs shall attend those who believe: in My name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak in new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands upon the sick and they shall get well."

Offertory. Ps. 22, 4.5. Your rod and Your staff have comforted me; You have prepared a table before me, against those who afflict me; You have anointed my head with oil.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Euntes in mundum universum, praedicate evangelium omni creaturae. Qui crediderit, et baptizatus fuerit, salvus erit; qui vero non crediderit, condemnabitur. Signa autem eos qui crediderint haec sequentur: In nomine meo daemonia ejicient; linguis loquentur novis; serpentes tollent; et si mortiferum quid biberint, non eis nocebit; super aegros manus imponent, et bene habebunt.

Offertorium. Virga tua et baculus tuus, ipsa me consolata sunt: parasti in conspectu meo mensam, adversus eos, qui tribulat me: impinguasti in oleo caput meum.
Secret. We offer You, O God, the sacrifice of this hallowed table prepared for us by the King of kings, Jesus Christ; grant us through the pleading merits of the blessed Louis to draw from thence our help and consolation: through the same Lord.

Communion. Isa. 49, 6. Behold I have given You to be the light of the Gentiles, that You may be My salvation even to the farthest parts of the earth.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that we who honor the merits of the blessed Louis, may likewise imitate his virtues; and through that imitation make progress, and by progress, be enabled to attain with him the kingdom of heaven: through our Lord.

Oct. 11—BL. JAMES OF ULM, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who wonderfully adorned blessed James, Your confessor, with the virtues of humility and obedience; may we, through his intercession, despise earthly things and always more to cleave to Your commandments: through our Lord.

Secreta. Sacrificium hujus sacrae mensae, a Rege regum Jesu Christo pro nobis paratae, tibi Deus offerimus; et beati Ludovici suffragantibus meritis, nostrum inde subsidium et solamen haurire concede. Per eumdem Dominum.

Communio. Ecce dedi te in lucem gentium, ut sis salus mea usque ad extremum terrae.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens et misericors Deus, ut qui beati Ludovici merita celebramus, ejus etiam virtutes imitemur; et imitando proficiamus, et proficiendo ad caelestia regna cum eo pervenire valeamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Jacobum confessorem tuum, humilitatis et obedientiae virtute mirabiliter decorasti; ejus intercessione fac nos terrena despicere, et mandatis tuis jugiter inhaerere. Per Dominum.
Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, with these offerings made to You, and grant by the intercession of blessed James, Your confessor, that we may fittingly receive these heavenly gifts, and be worthy to reach the rewards promised to the humble: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We humbly pray You, O Lord, through the merits of blessed James, that the bread of angels which You have made us share, may be for us the unfailing pledge and the sure fruition of eternal bliss: through our Lord.

Oct. 12—BL. DOMINIC SPADAFORA, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who in blessed Dominic, Your confessor, made the apostolate marvelously fruitful through the assiduous zeal in prayer and the observance of regular life; grant in Your goodness, that following in his footsteps we may be worthy to receive the abundant fruits of salvation: through our Lord.

Secret. Accept, O God, this spotless victim and grant us, by the intercession of Your servant Dominic, that, offering ourselves with a chaste body and devout mind, Postcommunio. Panis angelorum, quo facis nos esse participes, Domine, supplices exoramus; ut per beati Jacobi merita, sit nobis salutis aeternae indeficiens spes ac secura fruitio. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscie, Deus, hanc hostiam immaculatam, ac suffragante servo tuo Dominico, da quaesumus, ut casto we may worthily accomplish the office of Your Son our Lord Jesus Christ: who lives and reigns with You.

Postcommunion. May Your sanctifying grace, we beseech You, O Lord, make us docile; so that by the intercession of blessed Dominic, we may walk courageously before You and grow always in Your love: through our Lord.

Oct. 13—BL. MAGDALENE OF PANNAFTERI, V.O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, You forsake no one who trusts in You, and mercifully hear the prayer of the devout; grant, we entreat you, that what we cannot obtain of our own merits we may receive through the help of Your blessed virgin, Magdalene: through our Lord.

Secret. May this victim which we offer before the throne of Your divine majesty, O Lord, be made our propitiation for the sake of the blessed virgin Magdalene, and ever render us worthy to merit heavenly gifts: through our Lord.

corpore ac devota mente nosmetipsos offerentes, digno servitio munus perficiamus Filii tui Domini nostri Jesu Christi. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Postcommunion. Gratia tua sanctificans, quaesumus Domine, nos dociles efficiat; ut beati Dominici intercessione, strenue coram te ambulantes in tuo semper amore crescamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui neminem in te sperantem deseris, et pie deprecantem misericorditer exaudis; tribue quaesumus ut quod nostris meritis non valemus, beatae Magdalenae virginis patrocinio consequamur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Haec hostia, Domine, quam ante thronum divinae tuae majestatis offerimus, per beatam virginem Magdalenam propitiatoria, nobis reddatur, et ad caelestia dona jugiter promerenda idoneos nos reddat. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. May the sacred gifts we have received withdraw us from all future excesses; and by the glorious intercession of the blessed virgin, Magdalene, give to us who are made partakers of the divine nature, to be fervent in heart and fruitful in deed: through our Lord.

Oct. 14—ST. CALLISTUS, P.M.

Office. Dan. 3, 84.87. You priests of the Lord, bless the Lord; you holy and humble of heart, praise God. ¥. All you works of the Lord, bless the Lord; praise and exalt Him above all forever. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You see that we fail from our own very weakness; mercifully restore us to Your love by the example of Your saints: through our Lord.

Epistle. Heb. 5, 1-4. Brethren: Every high priest taken from among men is appointed for men in the things pertaining to God, that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to have compassion on the ignorant and erring, because he himself also is beset.

Postcommunion. Sacra munera suscepta a futuris nos trahant excessibus; et beatae Magdalenae virginis intercessione gloriosa, divinae partcipes naturae effectos, tribuant esse in corde fervidos et in opere efficaces. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos conspicis ex nostra infirmitate deficere, ad amorem tuum nos misericorditer per sanctorum tuorum exempla restaura. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Omnis pontifex ex hominibus assumptus, pro hominibus constituitur in iis quae sunt ad Deum, ut offerat dona et sacrificia pro peccatis. Qui condolere possit iis, qui ignorant et errant, quoniam et ipse with weakness, and by reason thereof is obliged to offer for sins, as on behalf of the people, so also for himself. And no man takes the honor to himself; he takes it who is called by God, as Aaron was.

Responsory. Ps. 88, 21-23. I have found David My servant; with My holy oil I have anointed him; for My hand shall help him, and My arm shall strengthen him. The enemy shall have no advantage over him: and the son of iniquity shall not hurt him.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ecclus. 45. The Lord loved him and adorned him; He clothed him with a robe of glory. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 10, 26-32. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "There is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, and nothing hidden that will not be made known. What I tell you in darkness, speak it in the light; and what you hear whispered, preach it on the house-tops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather be afraid of Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's leave. But as for you, the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore do not be afraid; you are of more value than many sparrows. Therefore, everyone who acknowledges Me before men, I also will acknowledge him before My Father in heaven."

Offertory. Ps. 88, 25. My truth and My mercy shall be with him, and in My name shall his horn be exalted.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May this mystical offering help us, O Lord; may it cleanse us from our sins, and may it ensure our eternal salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching: amen, I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that the sanctification of the gifts we have offered, may wash away our guilt and make us henceforth lead good and holy lives: through our Lord.

seres asse veneunt, et unus ex illis non cadet super terram sine Patre vestro? Vestri autem capilli capitis omnes numerati sunt. Nolite ergo timere: multis passeribus meliores estis vos. Omnis ergo qui confitebitur me coram hominibus, confitebor et ego eum coram Patre meo qui in caelis est.

Offertorium. Veritas mea, et misericordia mea cum ipso: et in nomine meo exaltabitur cornu ejus.

Secreta. Mystica nobis, Domine, prosit oblatio: quae nos et a reatibus nostris expediat, et perpetua salvatione confirmet. Per Dominum.

Communio. Beatus servus quem, cum venerit dominus, invenerit vigilantem: amen dico vobis, super omnia bona sua constituet eum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, ut reatus nostros munera sacra purificant, et recte vivendi nobis operentur effectum. Per Dominum.
Oct. 15—ST. TERESA OF JESUS, V.

Office. 3 Kgs. 4, 29. The Lord gave her wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and largeness of heart as the sand that is on the seashore. Ps. 97, 1. Sing to the Lord a new song; for He has done wonderful things. Glory.

Collect. Hear us, O God our Savior, that as we are gladdened by the feast of blessed Teresa, Your virgin, we may be fed with the food of her heavenly teaching and taught by the love of her deep devotion: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ecclus. 51, 23.24.25. To him who gives Me wisdom, will I give glory; I have had a zeal for good, and shall not be confounded. ὡς. My soul has wrestled for her, and in doing it, I have been confirmed. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 118, 130. The declaration of Your words, O Lord, gives light; it gives understanding to little ones.

Gospel. Matt. 11, 25-30. At that time, Jesus answered and said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You did hide these things from the wise... and prudent, and did reveal them to little ones. Yes, Father, for such was Your good pleasure. All things have been delivered to Me by My Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father; nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and him to whom the Son chooses to reveal him. Come to Me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden light."

Offertory. Jer. 20, 9. There came in my heart as it were a burning fire, shut up within my bones; and I swooned away, not being able to bear it.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that through the prayers of blessed Teresa our devotion may be accepted by Your majesty, to whom the interior sacrifice of her heart was so pleasing: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 88, 1. The mercies of the Lord I will sing for evermore.
Postcommunion. We pray You, O Lord our God, that Your subject people, whom You have fed with the bread of heaven, may, through the prayers and example of blessed Teresa, be enabled to sing Your mercies forever: through our Lord.

Oct. 18—ST. LUKE, EV.

Office. Ecclus. 15, 5. In the midst of the Church the Lord opened his mouth and filled him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding; He clothed him with a robe of glory. ¶ He heaped upon him a treasure of joy and gladness. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. May Your saint, Luke, the evangelist, intercede for us, we pray You, O Lord, who always bore in his flesh the sufferings of the cross for the love of Your name: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Cor. 8, 16-24. Brethren: I give thanks to God, who has inspired Titus with this same zeal for you. For not only has he accepted our exhortation, but being very zealous himself, he has gone to you of his own choice. And we have sent along with him the brother Postcommunion. Subdita tibi familia, quam caelesti pane satiasti, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut beatae Teresiae intercessione et exemplo, misericordias tuas valeat in aeternum cantare. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Interveniat pro nobis, quaesumus Domine, sanctus tuus Lucas evangelista, qui crucis mortificationem juxta in suo corpore pro tui nominis amore portavit. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Gratias ago Deo, qui dedit eamdem sollicitudinem pro vobis in corde Titi. Quoniam exhortationem quidem suscepit: sed cum sollicitior esset, sua voluntate profectus est ad vos. Misimus etiam cum illo fratrem, whose services to the gospel are praised in all the churches; and what is more, who was also appointed by the churches to travel with us in this work of grace which is being done by us, to the glory of the Lord and to show our own readiness. We are on our guard, lest anyone should slander us in the matter of our administration of this generous amount. For we take forethought for what is honorable, not only before God, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them also our brother, whom we have proved to be zealous often and in many things, but who now is more in earnest than ever, because of his great confidence in you, whether as regards Titus, who is my companion and fellowworker among you, or as regards our brethren, the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ. Give them therefore, in the sight of the churches, a proof of your charity and of our boasting on your behalf.

Responsory. Ps. 36, 30-31. The mouth of the just man shall meditate wisdom, and his tongue shall speak judgment. ¶ The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

cujus laus est in evangelio per omnes ecclesias: non solum autem, sed et ordinatus est ab ecclesiis comes perigrinationis nostrae, in hanc gratiam, quae ministratur a nobis ad Domini gloriam, et destinatam voluntatem nostram: devitantes hoc, ne quis nos vituperet in hac plenitudine quae ministratur a nobis. Providemus enim bona non solum corre Deo, sed etiam coram hominibus. Misimus autem cum illis et fratrem nostrum, quem probavimus in multis saepe sollicitum esse; nunc autem multo sollicitiorem, confidentia multa in vos, sive pro Tito, qui est socius meus et in vos adjutor, sive fratres nostri, apostoli ecclesiarum, gloria Christi. Ostensionem ergo, quae est caritatis vestrae, et nostrae gloriae pro vobis, in illos ostendite in faciem ecclesiarum.

Responsorium. Os justi meditabitur sapientiam, et lingua ejus loquetur judicium. ¶ Lex Dei ejus in corde ipsius: et non supplantabuntur gressus ejus.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Isa. 41, 27. The first shall say to Sion: "Behold I am here," and to Jerusalem: "I will give an evangelist." Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 10, 1-9. At that time, the Lord appointed seventy-two others, and sent them forth two by two before Him into every town and place where He Himself was about to come. And He said to them, "The harvest indeed is great, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send forth laborers into His harvest. Go. Behold, I send you forth as lambs in the midst of wolves. Carry neither purse, nor wallet, nor sandals, and greet no one on the way. Whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house!' And if a son of peace be there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you. And remain in the same house, eating and drinking what they have; for the laborer deserves his wages. Do not go from house to house. And whatever town you enter, and they receive you, eat what is set before you, and cure the sick who are there, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"

Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 20, 4-5. O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones; he asked life of You, and You have given it to him. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Through these heavenly gifts, grant us, we beseech You, O Lord, to serve You with a free mind; that the gifts we bring may, through the intercession of Your blessed evangelist, Luke, work in us for our healing and our glory: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 25. Master, You did hand over to me five talents; behold, I have gained five others in addition. Well done, good and faithful servant; because you have been faithful over a few things, I will set you over many things; enter into the joy of your master.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by Your heavenly blessing, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that what we celebrate with our imperfect devotion, we may feel to be helpful through the help of blessed Luke, Your evangelist: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Posuisti Domine in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso: vitam petiiit, a te, et tribuisti ei.

Secreta. Donis caelestibus da nobis, quae sumus Domine, libera tibi mente servire; ut munera quae deferimus, interveniente beato evangelista tuo Luca, et medelam nobis operentur et gloriam. Per Dominum.

Communio. Domine, quinque talenta tradidisti mihi, ecce alia quinque superluccrat us sum. Euge serve bone et fidelis, quia in pauca fuisti fidelis, supra multa te constituum; intra in gaudium domini tui.

Postcommunio. Repleti, Domine, benedictione caelesti, suppliciter exoramus; ut quod fragili celebramus officio, beati Lucae evangelistae tui nobis prodesse sentiamus auxilio. Per Dominum.
Oct. 19—ST. PETER OF ALCANTARA, C.

Mass: No. 13, p. 701, with the Gospel, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. O God, You were pleased to adorn Your confessor, blessed Peter, with the gift of wonderful penance and loftiest contemplation; grant, we pray You, that through his pleading merits we, being dead to the flesh, may the more easily understand heavenly things: through our Lord.

Secret. Grant, we pray You, almighty God, that the offering of our lowliness may, for the honor of Your saints, be pleasing to You, and cleanse us in body and soul: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received this heavenly food may, through the pleading of blessed Peter, Your confessor, be shielded from all ills: through our Lord.

Oct. 21—BL. PETER OF TIFERNO, C.O.P.

Secreta. Praesta nobis, quasesmus omnipotens Deus, ut nostrae humilitatis oblatio, et pro tuorum tibi grata sit honore sanctorum, et nos corpore pariter et mente purificet. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Quæsumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta perceptumis, intercedente beato Petro confessore tuo, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui fideles tuos memorantes novissima, nunquam peccatos praenuntiasti; fac nos beati Petri con-never sin; grant through the prayers and example of blessed Peter, Your confessor, that we may so bear in mind our temporal death that, by constantly bewailing the sins we have committed, we may avoid eternal death: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. URSULA AND COMPANIONS, VV.MM.

Collect. Grant us, we pray You, O Lord our God, to reverence with unceasing devotion the triumphs of Your holy virgins and martyrs, Ursula and her companions; and although we cannot honor as is their due, let us at least present to them our humble service: through our Lord.

Secret. May the devotion of our offering be pleasing to You, O Lord, we pray; and may what it lacks through our human weakness be made good through the glorious intercession of blessed Ursula and her companions: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, through the intercession of Your holy virgins and martyrs, that what we have touched with our lips, we may receive in a pure heart: through our Lord.

fessoris tui precibus et exemplis, ita temporalem mortem mente recolere, ut jugiter admissa peccata flentes, vitemus aeternam. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da nobis, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, sanctarum virginum et martyrum tuarum Ursulæ et sociarum ejus palmas incessabili devotione venerari; ut quas digna mente non possumus celebrare, humilibus saltem frequenteremus obsequiis. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Hostiarum nostrarum tibi, Domine quaesumus, devotio placeat; et quod in ea pro nostra fragilitate deest, beatæ Ursulæ, sociarumque ejus intercessio suppleat gloriosa. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta nobis, quaesumus Domine, intercedentibus sanctis virginibus et martyribus tuis, ut quod ore contigimus pura mente capiamus. Per Dominum.

Oct. 23—BL. BARTHOLOMEW OF BRAGANZA, B.C.O.P.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, with the Gospel, p. 692, except the following:

Collect. O God, who made blessed Bartholomew, Your confessor and bishop, wonderful in leading the enemies of the faith from the darkness of error to the light of truth, and in bringing back multitudes to peace and concord; grant through his intercession that Your peace, which passes all understanding, may keep our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus, our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

OCT. 24—ST. RAPHAEL, ARCHANGEL

Office. Ps. 102, 20. Bless the Lord, all you His angels; you who are mighty in strength, and execute His word, hearkening to the voice of His orders. Ps. 102.1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all that is within me praise His holy name. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Oratio. Deus, qui in fidei hostibus ab errorum tenebris ad veritatis lucem adducendis, et in populis ad pacem et concordiam revocandis, beatum Bartholomaeum confessorem tuum atque pontificem mirabilem effecisti; ejus intercessione concede, ut pax tua, quae exsuperat omnem sensum, custodiat corda nostra et intelligentias nostras in Christo Jesu Domino nostro. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Collect. O God, who gave the blessed archangel Raphael as a companion to Your servant Tobias on his way; grant that we Your servants may in like manner be shielded by his guardianship and strengthened by his help: through our Lord.

Epistle. Tob. 12, 7-15. In those days, the angel Raphael said to Tobias, “For it is good to hide the secret of a king, but honorable to reveal and confess the works of God. Prayer is good with fasting and alms, more than to lay up treasures of gold; for alms delivers from death, and the same is that which purges away sins, and makes to find mercy and life everlasting. But they who commit sin and iniquity, are enemies to their own soul. I discover then the truth to you, and I will not hide the secret from you. When you prayed with tears, and buried the dead, and left your dinner, and hid the dead by day in your house, and buried them by night, I offered your prayer to the Lord. And because you were acceptable to God, it was necessary that temptation should prove you. And now the Lord has sent me to heal you, and to deliver Sara your son's wife from the devil. For I am the angel Raphael, one of the seven, who stand before the Lord."

Responsory. Ps. 148, 1-2. Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the heights. Æ. Praise Him, all you His angels; praise Him, all you His hosts.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 137, 1.2. I will sing praise to You in the sight of the angels; I will worship toward Your holy temple and give glory to Your name. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 5, 1-4. At that time, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem, by the Sheepgate, a pool called in Hebrew Bethsaida, having five porticoes. In these were lying a great multitude of the sick, blind, lame, and those with shrivelled limbs, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel of the Lord used to come down at certain times into the pool, and the water was troubled. And the first to go down into the pool after the troubling of the water was cured of whatever infirmity he had.
Offertory. Apoc. 8, 3.4. An angel stood near the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand; and there was given to him much incense, and the smoke of their perfume went up before God.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, these victims of praise, humbly beseeching You that at the angelic entreaty pleading for us, You would mercifully accept them, and grant that they be an aid to our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Angels, archangels, principalities and powers, the virtues of the heavens, dominations and thrones, cherubim and seraphim, bless the Lord forever.

Postcommunion. Refreshed by Your heavenly blessing, we humbly beseech You, O Lord, that what we celebrate with our imperfect devotion, we may feel to be worthy through the help of the holy angels and archangels: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Stetit angelus juxta aram templi, habens thuribulum aureum in manu sua: et data sunt ei incensa multa, et ascendit fumus aromatum in conspectu Dei.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus, suppliciter deprecantes, ut easdem, angelico pro nobis interveniente suffragio, et placatus accipias, et ad salutem nostram prove nire concedas. Per Dominum.

Communio. Angeli, archangeli, principatus et potestates, virtutes caelorum, dominationes et throni, cherubim atque seraphim, Domum benedicite in aeternum.

Postcommunio. Repleti, Domine, benedictione caelestii, suppliciter imploramus, ut quod fragili celebramus officio, sanctorum angelorum atque archangelorum nobis pro desse sentiamus auxilio. Per Dominum.
Oct. 25—STS. CRISPIN AND CRISPINIAN, MM.

MEMORY

Collect. O God, who allow us to keep the feast of Your holy martyrs, Crispin and Crispinian; let us enjoy their company in everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, the gifts of our devotion; may they be pleasing to You for the honor of Your saints, and may they, by Your mercy, be made helpful to us: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, through the intercession of Crispin and Crispinian, Your holy martyrs, that what we have touched with our lips, we may receive in a pure heart: through our Lord.

Oct. 26—BL. DAMIAN OF FINARIO, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who for the salvation of the faithful adorned blessed Damian, Your confessor, with virtues and powers of speech alike wondrous, grant, we pray You, that through his intercession and example, we may show forth true charity both in word and deed: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos concedis sanctorum martyrum tuorum Crispini et Crispiniani natalitia colere, da nobis, in aeterna beatitudine de eorum societate gaudere. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Munera tibi, Domine, nostrae devotionis offerimus; quae et pro tuorum tibi grata sint honore sanctorum, et nobis salutaria, te miserante, reddantur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta nobis, quae sumus Domine, intercedentibus sanctis martyribus tuis Crispino et Crispiniano, ut quae ore contigimus, pura mente capiamus. Per Dominum.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, this victim which we offer You, and grant through the merits of blessed Damian, Your confessor, that as he offered himself in sacrifice to You, so may we direct to You all the affections of our hearts: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the sacrament of Your body and blood, O Lord, which we have received be the strength of our weakness; that imitating Your blessed confessor, Damian, we may run the way of Your commandments: who live and reign.

Oct. 28—STS. SIMON AND JUDE, APP.

Office. Ps. 138, 17. To me, Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable; their principality is exceedingly strengthened. Ps. 138, 1-2. Lord, You have proved me and known me; You have known when I sit and when I stand. Glory.  Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, You were pleased to bring us to the knowledge of Your name through Your blessed apostles, Simon and Jude; grant that by advancing in virtue we Secreta. Suscipe, Domine, hanc hostiam, quam tibi immolamus, et meritis beati Damiani confessoris tui praesta, ut sicut ipse se tibi in sacrificium obtulit, ita nos ad te omnes affectus coridis dirigamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Sacramentum corporis et sanguinis tui, Domine, quod sumpsimus, sit fragilitatis nostrae subsidium; ut beatum Damianum confessorem tuum imitantes, viam mandatorum tuorum curramus. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos per beatos apostolos tuos Simonem et Judam, ad agnitionem tui nominis venire tribuisti; may celebrate their everlasting glory, and by celebrating the same advance the more: through our Lord.

Epistle, p. 461.

Responsory. Ps. 138, 17. Your friends, O God, are made exceedingly honorable: their principality is exceedingly strengthened. \( \checkmark \). I will number them, and they shall be multiplied above the sand.

Alleluia, alleluia! \( \checkmark \). John 15, 16. You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and have appointed you that you should go, and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain. Alleluia!

Gospel. John 15, 17-25. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “These things I command you, that you may love one another. If the world hates you, know that it has hated Me before you. If you were of the world, the world would love what is its own. But because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. Remember the word that I have spoken to you: No servant is greater than his master. If they have persecuted Me, they will persecute you also; if they have kept My word, they will keep yours also. But all these things they will do to you for My name’s sake, because they do not know Him who sent Me. If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin. But now they have no excuse for their sin. He who hates Me hates My Father also. If I had not done among them works such as no one else has done, they would have no sin. But now they have seen, and have hated both Me and My Father; but that the word written in their Law may be fulfilled, ‘They have hated Me without cause.’” Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 18, 5. Their sound went forth into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Honoring the everlasting glory of Your holy apostles, Simon and Jude; we pray You, O Lord, that we may celebrate it the more worthily when we have been cleansed by these holy mysteries: through our Lord. Preface: No. 13, p. 657.

Communion. Matt. 19.28. You who have followed Me shall sit upon thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

servaverunt, et vestrum servabunt. Sed haec omnia facient vobis propter nomen meum: quia nesciunt eum qui misit me. Si non venissem et locutus fuisset eis, peccatum non haberent: nunc autem excusationem non habent de peccato suo. Qui me odit, et Patrem meum odit. Si opera non fecisset in eis quae nemo alius fecit, peccatum non haberent: nunc autem et viderunt et oderunt et me et Patrem meum. Sed ut adimpleatur sermo qui in lege eorum scriptus est: Quia odio habuerunt me gratis.

Offertorium. In omnem terram exivit sonus eorum: et in fines orbis terrae verba eorum.

Communio. Vos qui securi estis me sedebitis super sedes, judicantes duodecim tribus Israel.
Postcommunion. Having received Your sacrament, O Lord, we humbly beseech You, that through the intercession of Your blessed apostles, Simon and Jude, what we do in honor of their venerable martyrdom, may be an aid to our healing: through our Lord.

Oct. 30—BL. BENVENUTA BOJANI, V.O.P.

Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayer:

Collect. Pour out upon us, O Lord, the grace of penance, prayer and humility that in imitation of the blessed virgin Benvenuta, we may be enabled through the mortification of the flesh to live in the spirit; and by continual meditation on heavenly things and contempt of ourselves, to find rest and glory in You alone: through our Lord.

COMMEMORATION OF THE SAINTS WHOSE RELICS ARE KEPT IN OUR CHURCHES

Office. Ps. 33, 21-22. Many are the afflictions of the just, but the Lord will deliver them out of them all; the Lord keeps all their bones; not one of them shall be Postcommunio. Perceptis, Domine, sacramentis, supplices te rogamus, ut intercedentibus beatis apostolis tuis Simone et Juda, quae pro illorum veneranda gerimus passione, nobis proficiant ad medelam. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Gratiam nobis, Domine, poenitentiae, orationis et humilitatis infunde, ut beatae Benvenutae virginis imitatione possimus, et carnem mortificantes, spiritu vivere; et caelestia jugiter cogitantes nosque despicientes, in te solo Deo requiem et gloriam invenire. Per Dominum.

Officium. Multae tribulationes justorum, et de his omnibus liberavit eos Dominus: Dominus custodit omnia ossa eorum: unum ex his non conteretur. Ps. Benedicam Do-broken. Ps. 32, 2. I will bless the Lord at all times; His praise shall be always in my mouth. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who willed to adorn this church with the relics of so many saints; grant that we Your servants may enjoy in heaven the fellowship of those whose memory we venerate on earth: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. QUENTIN, M.

Collect. Be near to our prayers, O Lord, that we who know that by our sins we deserve punishment, may be freed through the pleading of blessed Quentin, Your martyr: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ecclus. 44, 10-15. These are men of mercy, whose virtues have not been forgotten; good things continue with their seed, their posterity is a holy inheritance, and their seed has stood in the covenants; and their children for their sakes remain forever: their seed and their glory shall not be forsaken. Their bodies are buried in peace, and their name lives on and on. Let the people retell their wisdom, and the church declare their praises.

minum in omni tempore: semper laus ejus in ore meo. Gloria Patria.

Oratio. Deus, qui hanc sacrosanctam ecclesiam tot voluisti sanctorum decorari reliquis: concede nobis famulis tuus, ut quorum memoriam veneramur in terris, eorum consortio perfruamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Adesto Domine supplicationibus nostris, ut qui ex iniquitate nostra reos nos esse cognoscimus, beati Quintini martyris tui intercessione liberemur. Per Dominum.

Responsory. Ps. 149, 5.1. The saints shall rejoice in glory; they shall be joyful in their beds. ¶ Sing to the Lord a new canticle; let His praise be in the Church of the saints.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 67, 4. Let the just feast, and rejoice before God, and be delighted with gladness. Alleluia!

Offertory. Ps. 67, 36. God is wonderful in His saints; the God of Israel is He who will give power and strength to His people; blessed be God! Off. Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Receive with gracious kindness, we pray You, O merciful God, these gifts offered to Your majesty, that they may be helpful to us through the prayers of those whose hallowed relics we venerate in this church: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. QUENTIN

Secret. Having received our gifts and prayers, O Lord, we beseech You, through the intercession of blessed Quentin, Your martyr, to cleanse us by these heavenly mysteries and mercifully to hear our cry: through our Lord.

Responsorium. Exsultabunt sancti in gloria: laetabuntur in cubilibus suis. ¶ Cantate Domino canticum novum: laus ejus in ecclesia sanctorum.

Evangelium, p. 1137.

Offertorium. Mirabilis Deus in sanctis suis: Deus Israel ipse dabit virtutem, et fortitudinem plebi suae, benedictus Deus.

Secreta. Munera tua, misericors Deus, majestati tuae oblata benigno, quaesumus, suscipe intuito, ut eorum nobis precibus fiat salutaria, quorum benedictas in ecclesia ista reliquias veneramur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Muneribus nostris, quaesumus Domine, precibusque susceptis, intercedente beato Quintino martyre tuo, et caelestibus nos munda mysteriis et clementer exaudi. Per Dominum.
Communion. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice, you just, in the Lord; praise becomes the upright.

Postcommunion. While offering these divine mysteries, we humbly pray You, O Lord, that through the merits of the saints, whose sacred relics repose in this church, we may merit the pardon of our sins and be strengthened by the heavenly gift of Your grace: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. QUENTIN

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that the heavenly food we have received, may, through the intercession of blessed Quentin, Your martyr, strengthen us against all ills: through our Lord.

Communio. Gaudete justi in Domino: rectos decet collaudatio.

Postcommunio. Divina, Domine, libantes mysteria, te deprecamur, ut per merita sanctorum, quorum venerabiles reliquiae in ista requiescunt ecclesia, peccatorum nostrorum veniam mereamur, et caelestis gratiae donis reficiamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui caelestia alimenta percepimus, intercedente beato Quin­tino martyre tuo, per haec contra omnia adversa muniamur. Per Dominum.
FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING
THE LAST SUNDAY OF OCTOBER

Office. Apoc. 5, 12; 1, 6. Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power, and divinity, and wisdom, and strength, and honor. To Him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Ps. 71, 1. O God, with Your judgment endow the King, and with Your justice, the King's son. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty, everlasting God, who willed that all things should be made new in Your beloved Son, the King of all; mercifully grant, that all kindreds of the Gentiles, scattered by the ravages of sin, may be brought under the sweet yoke of His rule: who live and reign.

Memory of the Sunday.

Epistle. Col. 1, 12-20. Brethren: We give thanks to God the Father who has made us worthy to share the lot of the saints in light. He has rescued us from the power of darkness, and transferred us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, in whom we have our redemption through His blood, the remission of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui in dilecto Filio tuo, universorum Rege, omnia instaurare voluisti; concede propitius, ut cunctae familiae gentium, peccati vulnere disgregatae, ejus suavissimo subdantur imperio. Qui tecum vivis et regnas.

Epistola. Fratres: Gratias agimus Deo Patri, qui dignos nos fecit in partem sortis sanctorum in lumine: qui eripuit nos de potestate tenebrarum, et transtulit in regnum Filii dilectionis suae in quo habemus redemptionem per sanguinem ejus, remissionem peccatorum: qui est imago Dei invisibilis, primogenitus omnis creaturae: quoniam in ipso creature. For in Him were created all things in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether Thrones, or Dominations, or Principalities, or Powers. All things have been created through and unto Him, and He is before all creatures, and in Him all things hold together. Again, He is the head of the body, the Church; He, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things He may have the first place. For it has pleased [God the Father] that in Him all fullness should dwell, and that through Him He should reconcile to Himself all things, whether on the earth or in the heavens, making peace through the blood of His Cross, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 71, 8.11. He shall rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. ¶ And all kings of the earth shall adore Him; all nations shall serve Him.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Dan. 7, 14. His power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away, and His kingdom that shall not be destroyed. Alleluia!

When said as a Votive Mass after Septuagesima, omitting the Alleluia and Versicle, the following is said:

condita sunt universa in caelis et in terra, visibilia et invisibilia, sive throni, sive dominationes, sive principatus, sive potestates: omnia per ipsum, et in ipso creata sunt. Et ipse est ante omnes, et omnia in ipso constant. Et ipse est caput corporis ecclesiae: qui est principium, primogenitus ex mortuis, ut sit in omnibus ipse primatum tenens; quia in ipso complacuit omnem plenitudinem inhabitare; et per eum reconciliare omnia in ipsum, pacificans per sanguinem crucis ejus, sive quae in terris, sive quae in caelis sunt, in Christo Jesu Domino nostro.

Responsorium. Dominabitur a mari usque ad mare, et a flumine usque ad terminos orbis terrarum. ¶ Et adorabunt eum omnes reges terrae: omnes gentes servient ei.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ Potestas ejus, potestas aeterna, quae non auferetur: et regnum ejus quod non corrupetur. Alleluia.
Tract. Ps. 88, 27.28.30. He shall cry to Me: “You are My father; My God, and the support of My salvation. Ὡ. And I will make Him My firstborn, high above the kings of the earth. Ὡ. And I will make His seed to endure forever; and His throne as the days of heaven.

In Paschal Time:

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Dan. 7, 14. His power is an everlasting power that shall not be taken away, and His kingdom that shall not be destroyed. Alleluia! Ὡ. Apoc. 19, 16. He has on His garment, and on His thigh written: “King of kings, and Lord of lords.” Alleluia!

Gospel. John 18, 33-37. At that time, Pilate said to Jesus, “Are You the King of the Jews?” Jesus answered, “Do you say this of yourself, or have others told you of Me?” Pilate answered, “Am I a Jew? Your own people and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What have You done?” Jesus answered, “My kingdom is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, My followers would certainly have fought that I might not be delivered to the Jews. But, as it is, My kingdom is not from here.” Pilate therefore said to Him, “You are then a King?” Jesus answered, “You say it; I am a King. This is why I was born, and why I have come into the world, to bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.”

Offertory. Ps. 2, 8. Ask of Me and I will give You the Gentiles for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, the victim of reconciliation for the human race; grant, we beseech You, that on all Gentiles may be bestowed the gifts of unity and peace, by Him whom we immolate in this sacrifice, Jesus Christ, Your Son our Lord: who lives and reigns with You.

Memory of the Sunday and Preface, No. 10, p. 653.

Communion. Ps. 28, 10.11. The Lord shall sit as a King forever; the Lord will bless His people with peace.

Postcommunion. Having received the food of immortality, grant, O Lord, that we, whose glory it is to battle under the standard of Christ our king, may reign with him forever in heaven: who lives and reigns with You.

*Memory of the Sunday.
THE FEASTS IN NOVEMBER

Nov. 1—FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

Office. Let us all rejoice in the Lord, celebrating a feast day in honor of all the saints, at whose solemnity the angels rejoice, and give praise to the Son of God. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just, praise becomes the upright. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. Almighty and everlasting God, who grant us to honor in one feast the merits of all Your saints, we beseech You that You would bestow upon us, through our many intercessors, that abundance of Your mercy for which we long: through our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 7, 2-12. In those days, behold, I, John, saw another angel ascending from the rising of the sun, having the seal of the living God; and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, who had it in their power to harm the earth and the sea, saying, “Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads.” And I heard the number of those who were sealed, a hundred... and forty-four thousand sealed, out of every tribe of the children of Israel; of the tribe of Juda, twelve thousand sealed; of the tribe of Ruben, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Gad, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Aser, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Nephthali, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Manasses, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Simeon, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Levi, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Issachar, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Zabulon, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Joseph, twelve thousand; of the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand sealed. After this I saw a great multitude which no man could number, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, and with palms in their hands. And they cried with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb.” And all the angels were standing round about the throne, and the elders and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, saying, “Amen. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and strength to our God forever and ever. Amen.”

Responsory. Ps. 33, 10.11. Fear the Lord, all you His saints; for there is no want to them who fear Him. ¶ But they who seek the Lord shall not be deprived of any good.

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ Wis. 3, 1-2.3. The saints shall judge nations, and shall rule over people, and their king shall reign forever: Alleluia!

Gospel, p. 1137. Creed, p. 621.

Offertory. Ps. 67, 36. God is wonderful in His saints; the God of Israel is He who will give power and strength to His people; blessed be God!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer You, O Lord, the gifts of our devotion; may they be pleasing to You for the honor of all Your saints, and, by Your mercy, be made helpful to us: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 32, 1. Rejoice in the Lord, you just, alleluia! praise becomes the upright, alleluia!
Postcommunion. Grant to Your faithful people, we beseech You, O Lord, to be gladdened always by the veneration of all the saints, and fortified by their never-failing prayer: through our Lord.

Nov. 2—COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Mass: p. 1283.

Every Priest may say three Masses on this day. The First will be, as On the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, p. 1283, the Second, as On the Anniversary of the Dead, p. 1295; and the Third, the Common Mass for the Dead, p. 1299. The Sequence is said in the first Mass only, and the Prayers are as noted in each Mass. See p. 1299.
Should November 2 fall on a Sunday, this Commemoration is kept on the following day.

Nov. 3—BL. SIMON BALLACHI, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, with the Gospel, p. 712, except the following:

Collect. O God, who adorned blessed Simon, Your confessor, amongst his other virtues, with a constant diligence in prayer and a singular prerogative of humility; grant that we may so imitate him that, despising all the things of this world, we may here seek You alone, and hereafter be enabled to obtain the rewards promised to the humble: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Da quasemus Domine, fidelibus populis, omnium sanctorum semper veneratione laetari, et eorum perpetua supplicatione muniri. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Simonem confessorem tuum inter ceteras ejus virtutes jugi orandi studio, et singulari humilitatis praerogativa decorasti; ipsum nobis imitari concede, ut spreitis omnibus, quae sunt mundi, te hic solum quaerere, ac tandem promissa in caelis humilibus praemia consequi valeamus. Per Dominum.
Nov. 4—ST. CHARLES BORROMEO, B.C.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following:

Collect. Guard Your Church, O Lord, by the unfailling protection of Saint Charles, Your confessor and bishop; that through the intercession of him who became glorious by reason of his watchful care over his flock, we may be ever fervent in Your love: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF STS. VITALIS AND AGRICOLA, MM.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who keep the feast of Your holy martyrs, Vitalis and Agricola, may be helped by their prayers to You: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 88, 21-23. I have found David, My servant, with My holy oil I have anointed him; for My hand shall help him, and My arm shall strengthen him.

Alleluia, alleluia! It is fitting that this saint be kept in mind by men, who has passed to the glory of the angels. Alleluia!

Oratio. Ecclesiæm tuam, Domine, sancti Caroli confessoris tui atque pontificis continua protectione custodi: ut sicut illum pastoralis solicitude gloriosum effecit, ita nos ejus intercessio in tuo semper faciat amore ferventes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut qui beatorum martyrum tuorum Vitalis et Agricolaæ solemnia colimus, eorum apud te intercessionibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Inveni David servum meum, oleo sancto unxi eum: manus enim mea auxiliabitur ei, et brachium meum confortabit eum.

Alleluia, alleluia. Iste sanctus digne in memoriam vertitur hominum, qui ad gaudium transit angelorum. Alleluia.
Offertory. Ps. 88, 25: My truth and My mercy shall be with him; and in My name shall his horn be exalted.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant, O merciful God, that this salutary offering, through the intercession of blessed Charles, Your confessor and bishop, may ever loosen us from the bonds of our sins, and defend us against all ills: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF MARTYRS

Secret. Graciously accept, O Lord, the victims consecrated to You through the merits of Your holy martyrs, Vitalis and Agricola; and grant that they may be a never-failing help for us: through our Lord.

Communion. Luke 12, 42. A faithful and prudent steward, whom the master has set over his household, to give them their measure of wheat in due season.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that these sacraments may be rendered salutary for us by the intercession of those on whose feast day they are offered: through our Lord.

Offertorium. Veritas mea, et misericordia mea cum ipso: et in nomine meo exaltabitur cornu ejus.

Secreta. Da, misericors Deus, ut haec salutaris oblatio, intercedente beato Carolo confessore tuo atque pontifice, et a propriis nos reatibus indesinenter expediat, et ab omnibus tueatur adversis. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Hostias tibi, Domine, beatorum martyrum tuorum Vitalis et Agricolae dicatas meritis, benignus assume; et ad perpetuum nobis tribue provenire subsidium. Per Dominum.

Communio. Fidelis servus et prudens, quem constituit dominus super familiam suam, ut det illis in tempore tritici mensuram.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut quorum festivitate votiva sunt sacramenta, eorum intercessione salutaria nobis reddantur. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that we who have received these heavenly foods, through them may, at the pleading of Your holy martyrs Vitalis and Agricola, be defended against every ill: through our Lord.

Nov. 5—BL. MARTIN PORRES, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 13, p. 701, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who exalt the humble, and who made blessed Martin, Your confessor, to pass to the heavenly kingdom; grant through his merits and intercession, that we may so follow the example of his humility on earth, as to deserve to be exalted with him in heaven: through our Lord.

Secret. Mercifully receive this victim, O Lord, which we offer You to be consecrated in honor of blessed Martin, Your confessor; and grant through his holy prayer that it may yield us the fruit of salvation: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Nourished by this heavenly food, we humbly beseech You, O Lord our God, that through the prayers of blessed Martin, Your confessor, in our behalf, we may always be enabled to keep Your commandments: through our Lord.

Nov. 6—BB. JEROME, VALENTINE, FRANCIS, HYACINTH AND COMPANIONS, MM., O.P.

Mass: No. 8, p. 683, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who were pleased to water Your Church with the blood of the holy martyrs, Jerome, Valentine, Francis, Hyacinth and their companions; mercifully grant that we who joyfully call to mind their triumph, may be helped by their prayers and merits: through our Lord.

Secret. Mercifully regard these our present sacrifices, we beseech You, O Lord; that at the pleading of Your blessed martyrs, they may be an aid to our devotion and salvation: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that the solemnity of Your blessed martyrs, Jerome, Valentine, Francis, Hyacinth and their companions, which we celebrated by these heavenly mysteries, may...

fessore pro nobis intercedente, tuis semper valeamus obe-dire mandatis. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, ut beato-rum martyrum tuorum Hieronymi, Valentini, Francisci, Hyacinthi atque sociorum caelestibus mysteriis celebrata... obtain for us the pardon of Your merciful forgiveness: through our Lord.

Nov. 7—BL. PETER OF RUFFIA, M.O.P.
Mass: No. 4, p. 670, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who mercifully granted to Your servant, blessed Peter, to be crowned with martyrdom in his defense of the true faith; grant that at his prayers we may be enabled ever to please You by the faith that works through charity: through our Lord.

Secret. While offering to You, O Lord, this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving in honor of the triumph of blessed Peter, Your martyr; we humbly entreat Your immeasurable bounty, that You would keep Your faithful people in their holy faith, and recall to the unity of Your truth such as have been scattered by the deceits of heresy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, who, on the day when Your Only-begotten Son, in the substance of our flesh, was presented in the temple by the immaculate virgin, His mother, received into heaven the soul of Your martyr, the blessed Peter; at his prayers grant that we, being solemnitas, indulgentiam nobis tuae propitiationis acquirat. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beato Petro famulo tuo misericorditer tribuisti pro verae fidei defensione martyrio coronari: ejus meritis et intercessione concede, ut fide, quae per caritatem operatur, tibi jugiter placere valeamus. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sacrificium tibi, Domine, laudis et gratiarum actionis offerentes pro victoria beati Petri martyris tui; suppliciter deprecamur immensam bonitatem tuam, ut fidelem populum in sancta religione conserves, et haeretica fraude dispersos ad veritatis tuae revoces unitatem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Deus, qui ea ipsa die, qua Unigenitus tuus cum nostrae carnis substantia ab immaculata virgine matre in templo est praesentatus, animam beati Petri martyris in caelum suscepisti; ejus nobis intercessione concede, cleansed of our sins by these divine mysteries, may at the hour of our death, be worthy to be presented in the temple of Your glory: through the same Lord.

Nov. 9—DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF THE MOST HOLY SAVIOR

All as on the Feast of the Dedication of a Church, p. 1228. The following Memory is made in Private Masses:

MEMORY OF ST. THEODORE, M.

Collect. O God, You surround and shield us by the glorious witness of Your blessed martyr, Theodore; grant us to advance in imitation of him, and to be upheld by his prayer: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the prayers of Your faithful, together with the offering of these victims; and at the pleading of blessed Theodore, Your martyr, may we, through this rite of holy devotion, pass on to heavenly glory: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, through the intercession of blessed Theodore, Your martyr, that what we have touched with our lips, we may receive with a pure heart: through our Lord.
Nov. 11—ST. MARTIN, B.C.

Mass: As on p. 1206, except the following:

Collect. O God, You see that we subsist through no power of our own; mercifully grant that through the intercession of blessed Martin, Your confessor and bishop, we may be defended against all adversities: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MENNAS, M.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that we who honor the feast of blessed Mennas, Your martyr, may be strengthened in love of Your name through his intercession: through our Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! W. Martin, poor and of low estate here below, enters heaven rich in merits, and is honored with the hymns of the heavenly citizens. Alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 11, 33-36. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, “No one lights a lamp and puts it in a cellar or even under the measure, but upon the lampstand, that they who enter in may see the light. The lamp of your body is your eye. If your eye be sound, your whole body will be full of light. But if it be evil, your body also will be full of darkness. Take care, therefore, that the light that is in you is not darkness. If, then, your whole body is full of light, having no part in darkness, it will all be illumined, as when a bright lamp illumines you.”

Secret. Grant, O merciful God, that this salutary offering may ever loosen us from the bonds of our sins, and defend us against all ills: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MENNAS, M.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, by these consecrated gifts, and at the intercession of blessed Mennas, Your martyr, defend us from all dangers: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord our God, that these sacraments may be rendered salutary for us by the intercession of those on whose feast day they are offered: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. MENNAS

Postcommunion. May this heavenly mystery, O Lord, be for us the healing of mind and body, that at the intercession of blessed Mennas, Your martyr, we may feel the effect of this act of sacrifice: through our Lord.

Nov. 12—ALL SAINTS OF OUR ORDER
Mass: As on Nov. 1, p. 1202, with Preface of St. Dominic, p. 657, except the following:

Collect. O God, You have been pleased to enrich the Order of Preachers with a countless offspring of saints, and have gloriously crowned in them the heroic merits of every virtue; grant us so to tread in their steps, that as we today honor them with one feast on earth, we may at length be united to them in an unending feast in heaven: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Cor. 6, 4-10. Brethren: Let us conduct ourselves in all circumstances as God’s ministers, in much patience; in tribulations, in hardships, in distresses; in stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults; in labors, in sleepless nights, in fastings; in innocence, in knowledge, in long-sufferings; in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in unaffected love; in the word of truth, in the power of God; with the armor of justice on the right hand and on the left; in honor and dishonor, in evil report and good report; as deceivers and yet truthful, as intercedente beato Menna martyre tuo, sentiamus effectum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui praedicatorum ordinem copiosa sanctorum sobole fecundare dignatus es, atque in ipsis heroica omnium virtutum merita sublimiter coronasti; da nobis illorum sequi vestigia, ut quos Hodie sub una celebritate veneramur in terris, iis perpetua tandem festivitate associemur in caelis, Per Dominum.

unknown and yet well known, as dying and behold, we live, as chastised but not killed, as sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet enriching many, as having nothing yet possessing all things.

Gospel. Matt. 19, 27-29. At that time, Peter said to Jesus, “Behold, we have left all and followed You; what then shall we have?” And Jesus said to them, “Amen I say to you that you who have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man shall sit on the throne of His glory, shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for My name’s sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall possess life everlasting.

Nov. 13—ST. THOMAS AQUINAS, PATRON OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

All as on March 7th, p. 842, except the following:

Alleluia, alleluia! ¶ O Thomas, radiant lily, wearing a twofold crown, lead us, through our humble entreaty, to the hoped-for goal. Alleluia!

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Petrus ad Jesum: Ecce nos relinquimus omnia et secuti sumus te; quid ergo erit nobis? Jesus autem dixit illis: Amen dico vobis, quod vos, qui secuti estis me, in regeneratione, cum sederit Filius hominis in sede majestatis suae, sedebitis et vos super sedes duodecim, judicantes duodecim tribus Israel. Et omnis qui reliquerit domum, vel fratres, aut sorores, aut patrem, aut matrem, aut uxorem, aut filios, aut agros propter nomen meum, centuplum accipiet, et vitam aeternam possidebit.

Alleluia, alleluia. ¶ O radiosum lilium, florens corona duplici: optatum duc ad bravium, Thoma, rogatu supplici. Alleluia.
Nov. 14—BL. JOHN LICCIO, C.O.P.

Mass: No. 14, p. 705, except the following prayer:
Collect. O God who made blessed John, Your confessor, illustrious by the deepest self-denial and the utmost zeal for charity; grant us at his example to cast away all affection for things of earth, and to live evermore in Your love: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BRICE, B.C.

Collect. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the venerable solemnity of blessed Brice, Your confessor and bishop, may further our love and salvation: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BRICE

Secret. Let Your saints, O Lord, everywhere make us glad; that while we remember their merits we may experience their help: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. BRICE

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that giving thanks for Your gifts, we may, through the prayers of blessed Brice, Your confessor and bishop, welcome gifts still greater: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Joannem confessorem tuum plena sui abnegatione, atque eximiae caritatis zelo clarescere voluisti; ejus nobis imitatione concede, ut abdicatis terrenis affectibus, in tua dilectione vivamus. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Da, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut beati Britii, confessoris tui atque pontificis, veneranda solemnitas, et devotionem nobis augeat et salutem. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Sancti tui, quaesumus Domine, nos ubique laetificent; ut dum eorum merita recolimus, patrocinia sentiamus. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut de perceptis muneribus gratias exhibentes, intercedente beato Britio, confessore tuo atque pontifice, beneficia potiora sumamus. Per Dominum.
Nov. 15—ST. ALBERT THE GREAT, B.C.D.O.P.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, with Epistle, p. 843, except the following:

Collect. O God, You have made blessed Albert, bishop and doctor, truly great in his subjection of human wisdom to divine faith; grant to us, we beg of You, so to tread in the footsteps of such a master, that we may attain perfect light in heaven: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ecclus. 44, 16.20. Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God. Y. He was found just and in the time of wrath was made a reconciliation.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. Truly great in heaven is the faithful Albert, who did what he taught. Alleluia!

Secret. May You, O Lord, be pleased by our holy sacrifice; so that what is accomplished in this mystery of the Passion of Your Son may, through the prayer and example of blessed Albert, be followed by us with most loving affection: through the same Lord.

Postcommunion. By the power of the holy Sacrament which we have received, O Lord, defend us from the might of our enemies; and, through the prayers of blessed Albert, Your confessor and bishop, grant that we may lead a life of unending peace: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Albertum, pontificem tuum atque Doctorem, in humana sapientia divinae fidei subjicienda magnum efficisti: da nobis, quaesumus, ita ejus magisterii inhaerere vestigiis; ut luce perfecta fruamur in caelis. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Ecce sacerdos magnus, qui in diebus suis placuit Deo. Y. Inventus est justus et in tempore iracundiae factus est reconcilatio. Alleluia, alleluia. Y. Vere magnus est in caelis Albertus ille fidelis, qui fecit quod docuit. Alleluia.

Postcommunio. Per haec sancta quae sumpsimus, ab hostium nos, Domine, impugnatione defende; et intercedente beato Alberto, confessore tuo atque pontifice, perpetua pace respirare concede. Per Dominum.
Nov. 16—BL. LUCY OF NARNI, V.O.P.
Mass: No. 18, p. 721, except the following prayer:

Collect. O God, who wonderfully adorned blessed Lucy with the marks of the passion of Your Son, and with the gifts of virginity and patience; and enabled her to flee from the blandishments of the world, and overcome its persecutions; grant that by her intercession and example, we may neither be conquered by worldly allurements, nor break down under adversities: through the same Lord.

Nov. 17—ST. GREGORY, WONDERWORKER, B.C.
Mass: No. 11, p. 693, with Collects, Responsory, Alleluia, and Offertory Verse from Mass: No. 10, p. 690, except the following:

Gospel. Mark 11, 22-24. At that time, Jesus answered and said to His disciples, "Have faith in God. Amen I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, 'Arise, and hurl yourself into the sea,' and does not waver in his heart, but believes that whatever he says will be done, it shall be done for him. Therefore I say to you, all things whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you shall receive, and they shall come to you."

Nov. 18—DEDICATION OF THE BASILICA OF STS. PETER AND PAUL, APP.

All as on the Feast of the Dedication of a Church, p. 1228.

Nov. 19—ST. ELIZABETH, W.
Mass: No. 22, p. 732, except the following Gospel:

Gospel. Luke 21, 1-4. At that time, Jesus, looking up saw the rich who were putting their gifts into the treasury. And He saw also a certain poor widow putting in two mites. And He said, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all. For all these out of their abundance have put in as gifts to God; but she out of her want has put in all that she had to live on."

Nov. 20—ST. FELIX OF VALOIS, C.
Mass: No. 13, p. 701, with Gospel, p. 705, except the following:

Collect. O God, who by a sign from heaven were pleased to call blessed Felix, Your confessor, from the desert to the work of redeeming captives; grant, we pray You that, at his intercession, and freed from the thraldom of our sins by Your grace, we may be led to our heavenly country: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 4, 9-14. Brethren: We are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men. We Evangelium. In illo tempore: Respiciens Jesus vidit eos, qui mittebant munera sua in gazophylacium, divites. Vidit autem et quamdam viduam pauperulam, mittentem aera minuta duo. Et dixit: Vere dico vobis, quia vidua haec pauper plus quam omnes misit. Nam omnes hi ex abundanti sibi miserunt in munera Dei: haec autem ex eo, quod deest illi, omnem victum suum quem habuit misit.

Oratio. Deus, qui beatum Felicem confessorem tuum ex eremo ad munus redimendi captivos caelitus vocare dignatus es; praesta quaesumus, ut per gratiam tuam ex peccatorum nostrorum captivitate, ejus intercessione liberati ad caelestem patriam perducamur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Spectaculum facti sumus mundo, et angelis, et hominibus. Nos stulti propter Christum, vos are fools for Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are honored, but we are without honor! To this very hour we hunger and thirst, and we are naked and buffeted, and have no fixed abode. And we toil, working with our own hands. We are reviled and we bless, we are persecuted and we bear with it, we are maligned and we entreat, we have become as the refuse of this world, the offscouring of all, even until now! I write these things not to put you to shame, but to admonish you as my dearest children, in Christ Jesus.

Nov. 21—THE PRESENTATION OF OUR LADY

All as on the Feast of Our Lady of the Snow, p. 1054, substituting the word Presentation for Solemnity. The Collect is as follows:

Collect. O God, You were pleased that the blessed Mary ever-virgin, herself the dwelling place of the Holy Spirit, should on this day be presented in the temple; grant, we beseech You, that, through her prayers, we may be worthy to be presented in the temple of Your glory: through our Lord.

Oratio. Deus qui beatam Mariam semper virginem, Spiritus Sancti habitaculum hodierna die in templo praesentari voluisti, praesta quaesumus, ut ejus intercessione in templo gloriae tuae praesentari mereamur. Per Dominum.
Mass: No. 16, p. 713, with Gospel, p. 719, except the following:

Collect. O God, who year by year give us joy on the feast day of blessed Cecelia, Your virgin and martyr; grant that as we honor her by this rite, we may also copy the example of her holy life: through our Lord.

Responsory. Ps. 44, 11.12.5. Hear, O daughter, and see, and incline your ear; for the king has greatly desired your beauty. Ὡ. With your comeliness and your beauty, set out, proceed prosperously, and reign.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Come, my chosen one, and in you shall I set up my throne; for the king has greatly desired your beauty. Alleluia.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that this victim of propitiation and praise, at the intercession of blessed Cecelia, Your virgin and martyr, may always make us worthy of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 118, 78.80. Let the proud be ashamed because they have been unjust to me; but I will be employed in Your commandments, in Your justifications, that I may not be confounded.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos annua beatae Caeciliae virginis et martyris tuae solemnitate laetificas; da, ut quam veneramur officio, etiam piae conversationis sequamur exemplo. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Haec hostia, Domine, placationis et laudis, quae-sumus, ut intercedente beata Caecilia virgine et martyre tua, nos propitiatione tua dignos semper efficiat. Per Dominum.

Communio. Confundantur superbi, quia injuste iniquitatem fecerunt in me: ego autem in mandatis tuis exercebor, in tuis justificationibus, ut non confundar.
Postcommunion. You have fed Your family with sacred gifts, O Lord; refresh us always, we pray You, by her intercession whose feast we keep: through our Lord.

Nov. 23—ST. CLEMENT I, P.M.

Office. Isa. 59, 21; 56, 7. The Lord says: “My words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth; and your gifts shall be accepted upon My altar. Ps. 101, 2. O Lord, hear my prayer; and let my cry come to You. Glory. Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who year by year gladden us by the solemnity of Your holy martyr and bishop, Clement; mercifully grant that we may imitate his fortitude under suffering, whose feast we celebrate: through our Lord.

Epistle. Phil. 3, 17-21; 4, 1-3. Brethren: Be imitators of me, and mark those who walk after the pattern you have in us. For many walk, of whom I have told you often and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is ruin, their god is the belly, their glory is in their shame, they mind the things of earth. But our citizenship is in heaven from which also we eagerly await a Savior, our Lord Jesus Christ, who will refashion the body of our lowliness, conforming it to the body of His glory by exerting the power by which He is able also to subject all things to Himself. So then, my brethren, beloved and longed for, my joy and my crown, stand fast thus in the Lord, beloved. I entreat Evodia and I exhort Syntyche to be of one mind in the Lord. And I beseech you also, my loyal comrade, help them for they have toiled with me in the gospel, as have Clement and the rest of my fellow-workers whose names are in the book of life.

_Responsory. Ps. 109, 4-5._ The Lord has sworn, and He will not repent: “You are a priest forever according to the order of Melchisedech.” Ὡ. The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at My right hand.”

Alleluia, alleluia! _Ps. 91, 13._ The just man shall flourish like the palm tree; he shall grow up like the cedar of Lebanon. Alleluia! _Gospel, p. 692._

_Offertory. Ps. 20, 4.5._ O Lord, You have set on his head a crown of precious stones; he asked life of You, and You have given it to him. _Off. Prayers, p. 623._

_Responsorium._ Juravit Dominus, et non poenitebit eum: Tu es sacerdos in aeternum secundum ordinem Melchisedech. Ὡ. Dixit Dominus Domino meo: Sede a dextris meis.

_Offertorium._ Posuisti Domine in capite ejus coronam de lapide pretioso: vitam petiit a te, et tribuisti ei.
Secret. Sanctify, O Lord, the gifts consecrated to You; and for their sake, at the intercession of blessed Clement, Your martyr and bishop, cleanse us from the stains of our sins: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 24, 46-47. Blessed is that servant, whom his master, when he comes, shall find watching. Amen I say to you, he will set him over all his goods.

Postcommunion. Nourished by the participation of Your sacred body and precious blood, we pray You, O Lord our God, that what we carry out with devoted love, we may, through the intercession of blessed Clement, Your martyr and bishop, receive as our assured redemption: through the same Lord.

Nov. 24—ST. JOHN OF THE CROSS, C.D.

Mass: No. 12, p. 697, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, You endowed blessed John, Your confessor and doctor, with a wonderful love of self-denial and of the cross; grant that ever steadfastly cleaving to his example, we may attain eternal glory: through our Lord.

Secreta. Munera tibi, Domine, oblata sanctifica; et intercedente beato Clemente martyre tuo atque pontifice, per haec nos a peccatorum nostrorum maculis emunda. Per Dominum.

Communio. Beatus servus, quem cum venerit dominus, invenerit vigilantem: amen dico vobis, super omnia bona sua constituet eum.

Postcommunio. Corporis sacri et pretiosi sanguinis repleti libamine, quae sumus Domine Deus noster, ut quod pia devotione gerimus, intercedente beato Clemente martyre tuo atque pontifice, certa redemptione capiamus. Per eumdem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui sanctum Joannem confessorem tuum atque doctorem perfectae sui abnegationis, et crucis amatorum eximium effecisti; concede, ut ejus imitationi jugiter inhaerentes, gloriam assequamur aeternam. Per Dominum.
MEMORY OF ST. CHRYSOGONUS, M.

Collect. Be near to our prayers, O Lord, that we who know that by our sins we deserve punishment, may be freed through the pleading of blessed Chrysogonus, Your martyr: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. CHRYSOGONUS

Secret. Be appeased, we beseech You, O Lord, by these consecrated gifts; and at the intercession of blessed Chrysogonus, Your martyr, defend us from all dangers: through our Lord.

MEMORY OF ST. CHRYSOGONUS

Postcommunion. May we be cleansed from our hidden faults by the reception of Your sacrament, O Lord, and delivered from the snares of our enemies: through our Lord.

Nov. 25—ST. CATHERINE OF ALEXANDRIA, V.M., PROTECTRESS OF THE ORDER

Office. Ps. 118, 46-47. I spoke of Your testimonies before kings, and I was not ashamed; I meditated also on Your commandments, which I loved exceedingly.

Oratio. Adesto Domine supplicationibus nostris, ut qui ex iniquitate nostra reos nos esse cognoscimus; beati Chrysogoni martyris tui, intercessione liberemur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Oblatis, quaesumus Domine, placare muneribus: et intercedente beato Chrysogono martyre tuo, a cunctis nos defende periculis. Per Dominum.

Officium. Loquebar de testimoniis tuis in conspectu regum, et non confundebar: et meditabar in mandatis tuis, Ps. 118.1. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord. Glory.

_Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617._

Collect. O God who gave the law to Moses on the peak of Mount Sinai, and wonderfully deposited in the same place the body of blessed Catherine, Your virgin and martyr, by means of Your holy angels; grant, we beseech You, that by her merits and intercession, we may be enabled to come to the mountain that is Christ: who lives and reigns with You.
_Epistle, p. 717._

Responsory. _Ps. 44, 5._ With your comeliness and your beauty, set out, proceed prosperously, and reign. Ver. Because of truth, and meekness, and justice; and your right hand shall conduct you wonderfully.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ver. Come, My chosen one, and in you shall I set up My throne, for the king has greatly desired your beauty. Alleluia!
_Gospel, p. 719._

Offertory. _Ps. 44, 10._ The daughters of kings are among your honorable attendants; at your right hand stands the queen in raiment of gold and embroidery of many colors.
_Offertory Prayers, p. 623._

Quae dilexi nimis. _Ps. Beati immaculati in via: qui ambulant in lege Domini. Gloria Patri._

Oratio. Deus, qui dedisti legem Moysi in summitate montis Sinai, et in eodem loco per sanctos angelos tuos corpus beatae Catharinae virginis et martyris tuae mirabiliter collocasti; praesta quaesumus, ut ejus meritis et intercessione, ad montem, qui Christus est, pervenire valeamus. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.
_Epistola, p. 717._

_Evangelium, p. 719._

Offertorium. Filiae regum in honore tuo: astitit regina a dextris tuis in vestitu deaurato, circumdata varietate.
Secret. We pray You, O Lord, that the victim we offer to You—calling to mind the feast of Saint Catherine, Your virgin and martyr—may loosen the bonds of our sins, and bring down upon us the gifts of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Communion. Ps. 118, 121.128. I have done judgment, and justice, O Lord, let not the proud calumniate me; I was directed to all Your commandments; I have hated all wicked ways.

Postcommunion. Filled with these salutary mysteries, we beseech You, O Lord, that we may be helped by the prayers of her whose solemnity we celebrate: through our Lord.

Nov. 26—BL. JAMES BENEFATI, B.C.O.P.

Mass: No. 11, p. 693, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who enabled blessed James, Your confessor and bishop, faithfully to fulfil all the duties of a good shepherd; grant us through his intercession, so to walk in the way of Your commandments, as ever to merit a place among the sheep of Your fold: through our Lord.

Communio. Feci judicium et justitiam, Domine, non calumnientur me superbi: ad omnia mandata tua dirigebar: omnem viam iniquitatis odio habui.

Postcommunio. Quae sumus Domine salutaribus repleti mysteriis, ut cujus solemnia celebramus, ejus orationibus adjuvemur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui beato Jacobo, confessori tuo atque pontifici, omnia boni pastoris munia fideliter explere tribuisti, ejus intercessione nobis concede; ut per viam mandatorum tuorum gradientes, inter oves pascuae tuae perpetuo collocari mereamur. Per Dominum.
Secret. We offer You, O Lord, this victim without blemish, humbly beseeching You that at the pleading of blessed James, we may be cleansed from all stain and show ourselves as victims pleasing in Your sight: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May blessed James, Your confessor and bishop, intercede for us, O Lord, we pray: and grant through his prayers, that being strengthened with this heavenly food, we may scorn all earthly things: through our Lord.

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEDICATION OF A CHURCH

Office. Gen. 28, 17. Terrible is this place: it is the house of God, and the gate of heaven: and it shall be called the court of God. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 83, 2.3. How lovely are Your tabernacles, O Lord of hosts! My soul longs and faints for the courts of the Lord. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, year by year You renew the day of this Your holy temple’s consecration, and who ever and again bring us in safety to these holy mysteries; graciously hear the prayers of Your flock, and grant that whoever enters this temple to seek Your bounties may be gladdened by obtaining all that he has sought: through our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 21, 2-5. In those days, I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold the dwelling of God with men, and He will dwell with them. And they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death shall be no more; neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away." And He who was sitting on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new!"

Responsory. This place has been made by God; it is a mystery beyond measure, it is free from all stain. ¶. O God, before whom the choir of angels stands, give ear to the prayer of Your servants.

mysteriis repraesentas incolumes; exaudi preces populi tui, et praesta, ut quisquis hoc templum beneficia petiturus ingreditur, cuncta se impetrasse laetetur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Vidi sanctam civitatem Jerusalem novam descendentem de caelo a Deo, paratam sicut sponsam ornatum viro suo. Et audivi vocem magnam de throno dicentem: Ecce tabernaculum Dei cum hominibus, et habitabit cum eis. Et ipsi populus ejus erunt, et ipse Deus cum eis erit eorum Deus: et absterget Deus omnem lacrymam ab oculis eorum; et mors ultra non erit, neque luctus; neque clamor, neque dolor erit ultra, quia prima abierunt. Et dixit qui sedebat in throno: Ecce nova facio omnia.

Responsorium. Locus iste a Deo factus est; inaestimabile sacramentum, irreprehensibilis est. ¶. Deus, cui adstat angelorum chorus, exaudi preces servorum tuorum.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ὡ. Ps. 137, 2. I will worship toward Your holy temple: and I will give glory to Your name. Alleluia!

During Septuagesima the Alleluia is omitted, and the following is said:

Tract. Matt. 21, 13. "My house shall be called a house of prayer," says the Lord. Ὡ. St. Luke 11. Everyone who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened. Ὡ. This is the house of the Lord strongly built; it is well founded upon a firm rock.

During Paschal time the Responsory is omitted, and the following is said:

Alleluia, alleluia. Ps. 137, 2. I will worship toward Your holy temple: and I will give glory to Your name.

Alleluia. Ὡ. Rom. 6, 9. Christ rising again from the dead dies now no more, death shall no more have dominion over him. Alleluia!

In Ascension time, after the second Alleluia.

Ὡ. Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high led captivity captive: He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὡ. Adorabo ad templum sanctum tuum: et confitebor nomine tuo.

Gospel. Luke 19, 1-10. At that time, Jesus entered and was passing through Jericho. And behold there was a man named Zacchaeus; and he was a leading publican, and he was rich. And he was trying to see Jesus, who He was, but could not, on account of the crowd, because he was small of stature. So he ran on ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, “Zacchaeus, make haste and come down; for I must stay in your house today.” And he made haste and came down, and welcomed Him joyfully. And upon seeing it all began to murmur, saying, “He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a sinner.” But Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, “Behold, Lord, I give one-half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold.” Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, since he, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost.”

Offertory. 1 Par. 29, 17-18. O Lord God, in the simplicity of my heart, I have joyfully offered all these things; and I have seen with great joy Your people, who are present: O God of Israel, keep this will. T.P. Alleluia. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

In the following Secret the words in parenthesis are omitted if the Mass be said in a church other than the one dedicated.

Secret. Incline, O Lord, we beseech You to our prayers: (that we who gather within the precincts of this temple—the anniversary of whose dedication we keep—may please You by a full and perfect devotion of soul and body;) that while we give You these present offerings, we may through You, our helper, worthily obtain eternal rewards: through our Lord.

Communion. Matt. 21, 13; Luke 11, 10. “My house shall be called a house of prayer,” says the Lord; “every one who asks, receives; and he who seeks, finds; and to him who knocks, it shall be opened. T.P. Alleluia.

Postcommunion. O God, who have deigned to call the Church Your bride, to the end that as she has grace by the fervor of her faithfulness, she should also have godliness for her very name’s sake; grant that all this people Secreta. Annue, quaesumus Domine, precibus nostris: (ut quicumque intra templi hujus, cujus anniversarium dedicationis diem celebramus, ambitum continemur plena tibi atque perfecta corporis et animae devotione placeamus); ut dum haec vota praesentia reddimus, ad aeterna praemia, te adjuvante, pervenire mereamur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Deus, qui ecclesiam tuam sponsam vocare dignatus es, ut quae haberet gratiam per fidei devotionem, haberet etiam ex nomine pietatem: da ut omnis serving Your name may merit to be worthy of the fellowship of this calling: may Your Church gathered together unto You in this temple, whose yearly dedication-day is being kept, fear You, love You, follow You: so that while treading steadfastly in Your footsteps she may merit, under Your leadership, to come to Your heavenly promises: who live and reign.

On the actual day of the Consecration of the church the Mass is as above except for the prayers, which are the following:

Collect. O God, who in an invisible manner holds all things, and yet for the salvation of mankind shows visible signs of power; enoble this temple with the might of Your indwelling, and grant that all such as gather here to pray, may obtain the blessings of Your consolation in whatever sorrow they cry to You: through our Lord.

Secret. Almighty and eternal God, hallow with heavenly power and blessing this temple dedicated to Your name, and show forth the gift of Your help to such as hope in You; so that in this place may be found the strength of the sacraments and the fulfilment of prayers: through our Lord.

haec plebs nomini tuo serviens, hujus vocabuli consortio digna esse mereatur: et ecclesia tua in templo, cujus anniversarius dedicationis dies celebratur, tibi collecta, te timent, te diligat, te sequatur: ut dum jugiter per vestigia tua graditur, ad caelestia promissa, te ducente, pervenire mereatur. Qui vivis et regnas.

Oratio. Deus, qui invisibiliter omnia contines, et tamen pro salute generis humani signa tuae potentiae visibiliter ostendis: templum hoc potentia tuae inhabitationis illustra, et concede ut omnes qui huc deprecaturi conveniunt, ex quacumque tribulatione ad te clamaverint, consolationis tuae beneficia consequentur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, templum hoc nomini tuo dedicatum, caelesti virtute, et benedictione sanctifica, et omnibus in te sperantibus auxilii tui munus ostende; ut hic et sacramentorum virtus, et votorum obtineatur effectus. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. We beseech You, almighty God, that in this place which in our unworthiness we have dedicated to Your name, You may incline the ears of Your mercy to all who seek You: through our Lord.

On the day of the consecration of an altar the Mass is the same as above, with the following prayers:

Collect. O God, who of every gathering of Your saints build to Yourself an everlasting dwelling, give heavenly increase to this Your building; so that we may be helped by the merits of those whose relics we here cherish with reverent love: through our Lord.

Secret. Let Your Holy Spirit, we beseech You, O Lord our God, come down on this altar (or these altars): may He hallow the gifts of Your people, and graciously cleanse the hearts of such as share therein: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Almighty and eternal God, hallow with the blessing of Your heavenly power this altar (or these altars), dedicated to Your name; and show forth the gift of Your help to such as hope in You, that in this place may be found the strength of the sacraments and the fulfilment of prayers: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus omnipotens Deus, ut hoc loco, quem nomini tuo indigni dedicavimus, cunctis petentibus aures tuae pietatis accommodes. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui ex omni coaptatione sanctorum, aeternum tibi condis habitaculum, da aedificationi incrementa caelestia; ut quorum hic reliquias pio amore complectimur eorum semper meritis adjuvemur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, altare hoc (vel altaria haec) nomini tuo dedicatum (vel dedicata), caelestis virtutis benedictione sanctifica; et omnibus in te sperantibus auxilii tui munus ostende, ut hic et sacramentorum virtus, et votorum obfineatur effectus. Per Dominum.
VOTIVE MASSES

The following Votive Masses may be said on a weekday, according to the rubrics, in place of the Mass of the feria or feast of the day and for some public or private reason. If the Gloria is said in the Mass of the Feast it is also said in the Votive Mass. The same applies to the Credo.

MASS OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

All as on the Feast, p. 502, except the following:

Epistle. 2 Cor. 13, 11.13. Brethren: Rejoice, be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, be at peace; and the God of peace and love will be with you. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the charity of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Dan. 3, 55-56. Let all Your angels and saints bless You, O Lord. Y. Let the heavens, the earth, the sea, and all things that are in them bless You. Y. Blessed be the holy name of Your glory, which is worthy to be praised and glorified.

At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

Y. The Lord is risen from the sepulchre, who for us hung upon a tree. Alleluia.

Y. Surrexit Dominus de sepulchro, qui pro nobis pendit in ligno. Alleluia.
At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

\textit{\`Y. Eph. 4, 8.} Christ ascending on high led captivity captive: He gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

Gospel. John 15, 26-27; 16, 1-4. At that time, Jesus said to His disciples, "When the Paraclete has come, whom I will send you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who proceeds from the Father, He will bear witness concerning Me. And you also bear witness, because from the beginning you are with Me. These things I have spoken to you that you may not be scandalized. They will expel you from the synagogues. Yes, the hour is coming for everyone who kills you to think that he is offering worship to God. And these things they will do to you because they have not known the Father nor Me. But these things I have spoken to you, that when the time for them has come you may remember that I told you."

MASS OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT

\textit{All as on the Feast, p. 504, except the following:}

\textit{The Sequence is not said.}

\textit{In Septuagesima:}

Tract. Ps. 22, 5-6. You have prepared a table before me, against them who afflict me. \textit{\`Y.} You have anointed \textit{\`Y.} Ascendens Christus in altum captivam duxit captivitatem: dedit dona hominibus. Alleluia.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Cum venerit Paraclitus, quem ego mittam vobis a Patre, spiritum veritatis, qui a Patre procedit, ille testimonium perhibebit de me: et vos testimonium perhibebitis, quia ab initio mecum estis. Haec locutus sum vobis, ut non scandalizemini. Absque synagogis facient vos: sed venit hora, ut omnis, qui interficit vos, arbitetur obsequium se prae­stare Deo. Et haec facient vobis, quia non noverunt Patrem, neque me. Sed haec locutus sum vobis, ut cum venerit hora eorum, reminiscamini quia ego dixi vobis.

Tractus. Parasti in conspectu meo mensam, adversus eos, qui tribulant me. \textit{\`Y.} Impinguasti in oleo caput meum: et my head with oil; and my cup which inebriates me, how good it is! ¶ And Your mercy will follow me all the days of my life.

At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

¶ Christ is risen, and has shone upon His people, whom He redeemed with His own blood. Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

¶ Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high led captivity captive; He gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

MASS OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

When the Votive Mass of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is said on a first Friday of a month, it is said with a Gloria, Credo, and one prayer.

Should there be exposition, no memory of the Blessed Sacrament is made.

All as on the Feast, p. 514, except the following:

In Septuagesima:

Responsory. Ps. 68, 21. My heart has looked for reproach and misery. ¶ And I looked for one who would grieve together with me, but there was none; and for one who would comfort me, and I found none.

Tract. Ps. 21, 7-8, 15. But I am a worm, and no man; the reproach of men, and the outcast of the people. ¶ All who saw me laughed me to scorn; they spoke with their lips, and shook their head. ¶ I am poured calix meus inebrians quam praeclarus est! ¶ Et misericordia tua subsequetur me omnibus diebus vitae meae.

¶ Surrexit Christus, et illuxit populo suo, quem redemit ipse sanguine suo. Alleluia.

Responsorium. Improperium exspectavit cor meum et miseriam. ¶ Et sustinui qui simul contristaretur, et non fuit: et qui consolaretur, et non inveni.

Tractus. Ego autem sum vermis et non homo: opprobrium hominum, et abjectio plebis. ¶ Omnes videntes me diriserunt me: locuti sunt labiis, et moverunt caput. ¶ out like water, and all my bones are scattered; my heart has become like wax, melting in the midst of my bowels.

_in Paschal Time:_

Alleluia, alleluia! _Ps. 29, 3-4.12._ O Lord my God, I have cried to You, and You have healed me; You have brought forth my soul from hell. Alleluia! _v._ You have turned my mourning into joy; You have cut off my sackcloth, and encompassed me with gladness. Alleluia!

MASS OF THE MOST HOLY NAME OF JESUS

_all as on the Feast, p. 51, except the following:_

_in Septuagesima:_

Tract. _Ps. 68, 31._ I will praise the name of God with a song; and I will magnify Him with praise. _Ps. 144, 21._ My mouth shall speak the praise of the Lord: and let all flesh bless His holy name. _Ps. 78, 9._ (Here all kneel.) Help us, O God our Savior; and for the glory of Your name, deliver us. _v._ Forgive us our sins, O Lord, for Your name’s sake.

_in Paschal time after the Second Alleluia:_

_v._ _John 16, 24._ Hitherto you have not asked anything in My name. Ask, and you shall receive. Alleluia!

Sicut aqua effusus sum, et dispersa sunt omnia ossa mea: factum est cor meum tamquam cera liquescens in medio ventris mei.

Tractus. Laudabo nomen Dei cum cantico: et magnificabo eum in laude. _v._ _Ps._ Laudationem Domini loquetur os meum: et benedicat omnis caro nomen sanctum ejus. _v._ _Ps._ (Here all kneel.) Adjuva nos Deus salutaris noster: et propter gloriam nominis tui libera nos. _v._ Propitius esto peccatis nostris, Domine, propter nomen tuum.

_v._ Usque modo non petitis quidquam in nomine meo: petite, et accipietis. Alleluia.
MASS OF THE HOLY CROSS

Office. Gal. 6, 14. But it behooves us to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life, and resurrection; by whom we are saved and delivered. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 66, 2. May God have mercy on us, and bless us; may He cause the light of His countenance to shine upon us, and may He have mercy on us. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. O God, who willed to hallow the standard of the life-giving cross through the precious blood of Your Only-begotten Son; we pray You, grant to such as have joy in the honor of this same cross, to rejoice everywhere in Your protection: through the same Lord.

During Paschal Time:

O God, who would have Your Son suffer for us on the tree of the cross to deliver us from the power of the enemy; grant to us Your servants, that we may obtain the grace of His resurrection: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Phil. 2, 8-11. Brethren: Christ became obedient for us to death, even to death on a cross. Therefore God also has exalted Him and has bestowed Oratio. Deus, qui unigeniti Filii tui pretioso sanguine, vivificae crucis vexillum sanctificare voluisti; concede quae-sumus, eos, qui ejusdem sanctae crucis gaudent honore, tua quoque ubique protectione gaudere. Per eundem Dominum.

Deus, qui pro nobis Filium tuum crucis patibulum subire voluisti, ut inimici a nobis expelleres potestatem; concede nobis famulis tuis, ut resurrectionis gratiam consequamur. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Christus factus est pro nobis obedientis usque ad mortem, mortem autem crucis. Propter quod et upon Him the name that is above every name, (Here all kneel.) so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend of those in heaven, on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father.

Responsory. Phil. 2, 8.9. Christ became obedient for us to death, even to death on a cross. Therefore, God also has exalted Him, and has bestowed upon Him the name that is above every name.

Alleluia, alleluia! Sweet wood, sweet nails, bearing a sweet weight, which alone were worthy to bear the King and Lord of heaven. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. We adore Your cross, O Lord, we venerate Your glorious passion. Have mercy upon us, O kind Jesus, You who mercifully suffered for us. O blessed cross, you alone were worthy to bear the King of heavens and the Lord.

At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

Alleluia! The Lord has risen from the sepulchre, who for us hung upon a tree. Alleluia!

Deus exaltavit illum, et donavit illi nomen, quod est super omne nomen. (Here all kneel.) Ut in nomine Jesu omne genu flectatur caelestium, terrestrium, et infernorum; et omnis lingua confiteatur quia Dominus Jesus Christus in gloria est Dei Patris.

Respensorium. Christus factus est pro nobis obediens usque ad mortem: mortem autem crucis. Propter quod et Deus exaltavit illum, et dedit illi nomen, quod est super omne nomen.

Tractus. Tuam crucem adoramus Domine, tuam gloriosam recolimus passionem. Miserere nostri Jesu benigne qui passus es clementer pro nobis. O crux benedicta, quae sola fuisti digna portare regem caelorum et Dominum.

Alleluia! The Lord has risen from the sepulchre, who for us peeped in ligno. Alleluia.
At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

Gospel. Matt. 20, 17-19. At that time, Jesus took the twelve disciples aside by themselves, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and the Scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, and will deliver Him to the Gentiles to be mocked and scourged and crucified; and on the third day He will rise again."

Offertory. Protect Your people, O Lord, by the sign of the holy cross, from the snares of all enemies; that we may exhibit to You all pleasing service, and that our sacrifice may become acceptable: T.P. Alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. May the same victim, we beseech You, O Lord, cleanse us from all our sins, who on the altar of the cross cleansed the sin of the whole world: through the same Lord.

In Paschal Time:

Cleanse us, O merciful God, that the prayers of Your Church which are already pleasing to You, being now laden with the offerings of our love, may become yet more pleasing to You, through the cleansing of our hearts: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 4, p. 649.

Communion. By the tree we became slaves, and by the holy cross we have been set free. The fruit of the tree enslaved us; the Son of God redeemed us.

T.P. Alleluia!

Postcommunion. Draw near to us, O Lord our God, and such as You gladden in honoring Your holy cross, shield with Your unfailing aid: through our Lord.

In Paschal Time:

Grant to our understanding, almighty God, through the temporal death of Your Son which these sacred mysteries show forth, a confidence that You have already given us life everlasting: through the same Lord.

MASS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

All as on the Feast, p. 473 (omitting Hodierna in the Collect and Preface), with Epistle, p. 481, except the following:

Responsory. Ps. 32, 12.6. Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord: the people whom the Lord has chosen for His inheritance.

V. By the word of the Lord the heavens were established, and all the power of them by the breath of His mouth.

quae tibi gratae sunt, pia munera deferentes, fiant expiatis mentibus gratiores. Per Dominum.

Communion. Per lignum servi facti sumus, et per sanctam crucem liberati sumus. Fructus arboris seduxit nos, Filius Dei redemit nos.

T.P. Alleluia.

Postcommunion. Adesto nobis, Domine Deus noster, et quos sanctae crucis laetari facis honore, ejus quoque perpetuis defende subsidii. Per Dominum.

Largire sensibus nostris omnipotens Deus, ut per temporalem Filii tui mortem, quam mysteria veneranda testantur, vitam nobis et dedisse perpetuam confidamus. Per eundem Dominum.

Responsorium. Beata gens, cujus est Dominus Deus eorum: populus, quem eligit Dominus in hereditatem sibi.

V. Verbo Domini caeli firmati sunt: et spiritu oris ejus omnis virtus eorum.

MASS OF OUR LADY: DURING ADVENT

Office. Isa. 45, 8. Drop down dew, you heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the just; let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior. (Here all kneel.) And let justice spring up together: I the Lord have created him. Glory.

Kyrie, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who willed that Your Word, at the tidings of an angel should take flesh in the womb of the blessed virgin Mary; grant to us who beseech You, that we who truly believe her to be the mother of God, may be helped by her prayers to You: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Isa. 7, 10-15. In those days, the Lord spoke to Achaz, saying, “Ask a sign of the Lord your God, either to the depth of hell, or to the height above.” And Achaz said, “I will not ask, and I will not tempt the multa. (Here all kneel.) Veni Sancte Spiritus: reple tuorum corda fidelium, et tui amoris in eis ignem accende.

Oratio. Deus, qui de beatae Mariae virginis utero, verbum tuum, angelo nuntiante, carnum suscipere voluisti; praesta supplicibus tuis, ut qui vere eam genitricem Dei credimus, ejus apud te intercessionibus adjuvemur. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Locutus est Dominus ad Achaz, dicens: Pete tibi signum a Domino Deo tuo in profundum inferni, sive in excelsum supra. Et dixit Achaz: Non petam, et non tentabo Dominum. Et dixit: Audite ergo domus Lord.” And he said, “Hear therefore, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to be grievous to men, that you are grievous to my God also? Therefore, the Lord Himself shall give you a sign. Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel. He shall eat butter and honey, that He may know to refuse the evil, and to choose the good.”

Responsory. Ps. 18, 6.7. He has set His tabernacle in the sun; and as a bridegroom coming out of His bride chamber.

alleluia, alleluia!

Gospel. Luke 1, 26-38. At that time, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin’s name was Mary. And when the angel had come to her, he said, “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women.” When she had heard him she was troubled at his word, and kept pondering what manner of greeting this might be. And the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found grace with God. Behold, you shall conceive in your womb and shall bring forth a Son; and you shall call His name Jesus. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of David His father, and He shall be king over the house of Jacob forever; and of His kingdom there shall be no end.” But Mary said to the angel, “How shall this happen, since I do not know man?” And the angel answered and said to her, “The Holy Spirit shall come upon you and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you; and therefore the Holy One to be born of you shall be called the Son of God. And behold, Elizabeth your kinswoman also has conceived a son in her old age, and she who was called barren is now in her sixth month; for nothing shall be impossible with God.” But Mary said; “Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it done to me according to your word.”
Offertory. Luke 1, 28. Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Strengthen our minds we beseech You, O Lord, in the mysteries of the true faith, so that confessing Him, who was conceived of a virgin to be true God and true man, we may, by the power of His saving resurrection, deserve to arrive at everlasting joy: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Isa. 7, 14. Behold a virgin shall conceive, and bring forth a son, and His name shall be called Emmanuel.

Postcommunion. Pour forth, we beseech You, O Lord, Your grace into our hearts; that we, to whom the incarnation of Christ Your Son was made known by the message of an angel, may, by His passion and cross, be brought to the glory of His resurrection: through the same Lord.

Secreta. In mentibus nostris, quae sumus Domine, verae fidei sacramenta confirma, ut qui conceptum de virgine, Deum verum, et hominem confitemur, per ejus salutiferae resurrectionis potentiam, ad aeternam mereamur pervenire laetitiam. Per eumdem Dominum.

Postcommunio. Gratiam tuam, quaesumus Domine, mentibus nostris infunde; ut qui, angelo nuntiante, Christi Filii tui incarnationem cognovimus, per passionem ejus et crucem ad resurrectionis gloriam perducamur. Per eumdem Dominum.
MASS OF OUR LADY: FROM CHRISTMAS TO THE PURIFICATION

Collect. O God, who through the fruitful maidenhood of the blessed Mary have given mankind the rewards of everlasting salvation; grant us, we beseech You, to feel her intercession through whom we merited to receive the author of life: our Lord, Jesus Christ, Your Son: who lives and reigns with You.

Epistle. Titus 3, 4-7. Dearly beloved: When the goodness and kindness of God our Savior appeared, then not by reason of good works that we did ourselves, but according to His mercy, He saved us through the bath of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit; whom He has abundantly poured out upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior, in order that, justified by His grace, we may be heirs in the hope of life everlasting, in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

Officium. Salve sancta parens, enixa puerpera regem, qui caelum terramque regit in saecula saeculorum. V. Post partum virgo inviolata permansisti: Dei genitrix intercede pro nobis. Gloria Patri.

Oratio. Deus, qui salutis aeternae, beatae Mariae virginitate fecunda, humano generi præemia praestitisti: tribue quæsumus, ut ipsam pro nobis intercedere sentiamus; per quam meruimus auctorem vitæ suscipere: Dominum nostrum Jesum Christum Filium tuum. Qui tecum vivit et regnat.

Responsory. You are blessed and venerable, O virgin Mary, who, without any violation of purity, were made the mother of our Savior. Y. O virgin mother of God, He whom the whole world is unable to contain, being made man, enclosed Himself in Your womb.

Alleluia, alleluia! Y. Num. 17. The rod of Jesse has blossomed, a virgin has brought forth God and man. God has restored peace, reconciling in Himself the lowest with the highest. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Rejoice, O virgin Mary, you alone have destroyed all heresies. Y. Who believed the words of the archangel Gabriel. Y. While a virgin, you brought forth God and man; and after childbirth you remained a spotless virgin. Y. Mother of God, intercede for us.

Gospel. Luke 2, 15-20. At that time, the shepherds were saying to one another, “Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has come to pass, which the Lord has made known to us.” So they went with haste, and they found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in the manger. And when they had seen, they understood

Responsorium. Benedicta et venerabilis es virgo Maria, quae sine tactu pudoris, inventa es mater salvatoris. Y. Virgo Dei genitrix, quem totus non capit orbis, in tua se clausit viscera, factus homo.

Tractus. Gaude Maria virgo, cunctas haereses sola interemitii. Y. Quae Gabrieliis archangeli dictis credidisti. Y. Dum virgo Deum et hominem genuisti: et post partum virgo inviolata permansisti. Y. Dei genitrix intercede pro nobis.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Pastores loquebantur ad invicem: Transeamus usque Bethlehem, et videamus hoc verbum, quod factum est, quod Dominus ostendit nobis. Et venerunt festinantes; et invenerunt Mariam et Joseph, et infan tem postum in praesepio. Videntes autem, cognorwhat had been told them concerning this child. And all who heard marveled at the things told them by the shepherds. But Mary kept in mind all these things, pondering them in her heart. And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken to them.

Offertory. Happy indeed are you, O holy virgin Mary, and most worthy of all praise, for out of you arose the sun of justice, Christ our Lord.

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Having received our gifts and prayers, we pray You, O Lord, to cleanse us at the intercession of blessed Mary, mother of God, by these heavenly mysteries, and mercifully to grant our petition: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. Blessed is the womb of the virgin Mary, which bore the Son of the eternal Father.

Postcommunion. May this communion, O Lord, cleanse us from sin and by the intercession of the blessed virgin Mary, mother of God, make us partakers of the heavenly remedy: through the same Lord.

verunt de verbo quod dictum erat illis de puero hoc. Et omnes qui audierunt mirati sunt; et de his quae dicta erant a pastoribus ad ipsos. Maria autem conservabat omnia verba haec, conferens in corde suo. Et reversi sunt pastores, glorificantes et laudantes Deum, in omnibus quae audierant et viderant, sicut dictum est ad illos.

Offertorium. Felix namque es sacra virgo Maria, et omnia laude dignissima: quia ex te ortus est sol justitiae, Christus Deus noster.

Secreta. Muneribus nostris, quae sumus Domine, precibusque susceptis, intercedente beata Dei genitrice Maria, et caelestibus nos munda mysteriis, et clementer exaudi. Per eundem Dominum.

Communio. Beata viscera Mariae virginis, quae portaverunt aeterni Patris Filium.

Postcommunio. Haec nos communio, Domine, purget a crimen, et intercedente beata virgine Dei genitrice Maria, caelestis remedii faciat esse consortes. Per eundem Dominum.
MASS OF OUR LADY: FROM THE PURIFICATION TO ADVENT

Collect. Grant to us Your servants, we beseech You, O Lord God, to enjoy perpetual health of mind and body; and, by the glorious intercession of the blessed Mary, ever a virgin, to be delivered from present sorrow and to enjoy eternal gladness: through our Lord.

Epistle. Ecclus. 24, 14-16. Before all ages, in the beginning, He created me, and through all ages I shall not cease to be. In the holy Tent I ministered before Him, and in Sion I fixed my abode. Thus in the chosen city He has given me rest, in Jerusalem is my domain. I have struck root among the glorious people, in the portion of my God, His heritage, and my abode is in the full assembly of saints.

Oratio. Concede nos famulos tuos, quaesumus Domine Deus, perpetua mentis et corporis salute gaudere; et gloria beatae Mariae semper virginis intercessione, a prae­ senti liberari tristitia, et aeterna perfrui laetitia. Per Do­minum.

Responsory. You are blessed and venerable, O virgin Mary, who without any violation of purity were made the mother of our Savior. Ἐ. O virgin mother of God, He whom the whole world is unable to contain, being made man, enclosed Himself in your womb.

Alleluia, alleluia! Ἐ. Num. 17. The rod of Jesse has blossomed, a virgin has brought forth God and man: God has restored peace, reconciling in Himself the lowest with the highest. Alleluia!

_In Septuagesima:_

Tract. Rejoice, O virgin Mary, for alone you have destroyed all heresies. Ἐ. Who believed the words of the archangel Gabriel. Ἐ. While a virgin you brought forth God and man; and after childbirth remained a pure virgin. Ἐ. Mother of God, intercede for us.

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

Ἐ. Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high, led captivity captive; He gave gifts to men. Alleluia!

Responsorium. Benedicta et venerabilis es virgo Maria, quae sine tactu pudoris, inventa es mater salvatoris. Ἐ. Virgo Dei genitrix, quem totus non capit orbis, in tua se clausit viscera, factus homo.

Tractus. Gaude Maria virgo cunctas haereses sola interemisti. Ἐ. Quae Gabriellis archangeli dictis credidisti. Ἐ. Dum virgo Deum et hominem genuisti: et post partum virgo inviolata permansisti. Ἐ. Dei genitrix intercede pro nobis.

Gospel. Luke 11, 27-28. At that time, as Jesus was speaking to the multitudes, a certain woman from the crowd lifted up her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts that nursed You.” But He said, “Rather, blessed are they who hear the word of God and keep it.”

From Easter until Pentecost the following Gospel is said:

Gospel. John 19, 25-27. At that time, there were standing by the cross of Jesus His mother and His mother’s sister, Mary of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalen. When Jesus, therefore, saw His mother and the disciple standing by, whom He loved, He said to His mother, “Woman, behold your son.” Then He said to the disciple, “Behold, your mother.” And from that hour the disciple took her into his home.

Offertory. Be mindful, O virgin mother who stand in the sight of God, to speak good things for us, and to turn away His anger from us. T.P. Alleluia!

Communion. Hail! queen of heaven, mother of the King of angels. O Mary the flower of all virgins, you are as the rose or the lily; pour forth your prayers to your Son for the salvation of His people. T.P. Alleluia!

Postcommunion. Having received, O Lord, these helps to our salvation, grant, we pray You, that we may be in all places protected by the patronage of the blessed Mary, ever a virgin, in whose honor we made these offerings to Your majesty: through our Lord.

PRIVILEGED VOTIVE MASS OF THE MOST HOLY ROSARY

Office. Hail! holy root. Hail! glory of the world, O Mary, flower of all virgins, you are as the rose or the lily: pray to your Son for us. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! V. Ecclus. 26. Grace upon grace is a holy and a shamefast woman. Glory.

Collect. O almighty and merciful God, who from all eternity have, in the spirit of sanctification, predestined...
according to the flesh, Your Only-begotten, coequal, and consubstantial Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; and has singled out before all ages, the most holy and acceptable virgin Mary to be His mother; grant us, we beseech You, by the merits of both, as set forth in the fifteen mysteries of the most holy rosary; to be so devoted to them in this present life as eternally to enjoy their fruits in the glory of the life to come: through the same Lord.

Epistle. Cant. 2 and 4. I am the flower of the field, and the lily of the valleys. As the lily among thorns, so is my love among women. Your lips, my spouse, are as a dropping honeycomb, honey and milk are under your tongue: and the smell of your garments, as the smell of frankincense. My sister, my spouse is a garden enclosed, a fountain sealed. Your plants are a paradise of pomegranates with the fruits of the orchard. As the vine I have brought forth a pleasant odor; and my flowers are the fruit of honor and riches. I am the mother of fair love, and of fear, and of knowledge, and of holy hope. In me is all grace of the way and of the truth, in me is all hope of life and of virtue. Come over to me, all you who desire me, and be filled with my fruits. For my

Mass of the Most Holy Rosary

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

💻 Eph. 4, 8. Christ ascending on high, led captivity captive: he gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

Gospel. Luke 8, 1-10. At that time, Jesus journeyed through towns and villages, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. And with Him were the Twelve, and certain women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, who is called the Magdalene, from whom seven devils had gone out, and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod’s steward, and Susanna, and many others, who used to provide for them out of their means. Now when a very great crowd was gathering together and men from every town were resorting to him, he said in a parable: “The sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some seed fell by the wayside and was trodden under foot, and the birds of the air ate it up. And other seed fell upon the rock, and as soon as it had sprung up it withered away, because it had no moisture. And other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up with it and choked it. And other seed fell upon good ground, and sprang up and yielded fruit a hundredfold.” As He said these things He cried out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!” But His disciples then began to ask Him what this parable meant. He said to them, “To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that ‘Seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.’”

Offertory. Hail! queen of heaven, mother of the king of angels. O Mary, the flower of all virgins, you are as the rose or the lily. Pour forth your prayers to your Son for the salvation of His people. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. Grant to our prayers, we beseech You, O merciful God, that those of us who are girded with the power of the rosary of God’s mother, Mary, which is wholly dedicated to her Son, may please You with a full and perfect devotion of body and soul; so that while making these present offerings, we may, with You as our helper, merit to reach eternal rewards: through the same Lord.

Preface: No. 11, p. 655.

Communion. O holy mother of God, how beautiful were you, and sweet in the delights of your virginity: whom, when the women of Sion saw flourishing amidst the flowers of the roses and the lilies of the valley, they declared most blessed: and queens sang forth her praise. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Postcommunion. While we commemorate the hallowed mysteries of the most holy rosary dedicated by Your faithful Church unto the honor of God’s mother, Mary, ever a virgin, O almighty God, bestow Your kindly aid, so that You may show forth the blessings of Your help to all such as put their trust in You, that the virtue of these mysteries and the effect of our prayers may alike be obtained: through the same Lord.

MASS OF THE ANGELS

Office. Ps. 102, 20. Bless the Lord, all you His angels, you who are mighty in strength, and execute His word, obeying His spoken word. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 102, 1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and let all that is within me bless His holy name. Glory.

Kyrie and Gloria, p. 617.

Collect. O God, who in a wondrous order disposed the ministries of men and angels; mercifully grant that vernantem in floribus rosarum et liliis convallium, beatissimam praedicaverunt: et reginae laudaverunt eam. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Oratio. Deus, qui miro ordine angelorum ministeria, hominumque dispensas; concede propitius ut a quibus tibi those who always stand before You and minister to You in heaven, may also guard our lives on earth: through our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 5, 11-14. In those days, I heard a voice of many angels round about the throne, and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was thousands of thousands, saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who was slain to receive power and divinity and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing.” And every creature that is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth, and such as are on the sea, and all that are in them, I heard them all saying, “To Him who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb, blessing and honor and glory and dominion, forever and ever.” And the four living creatures said, “Amen,” and the elders fell down and worshiped Him who lives forever and ever.

Responsory. Ps. 148, 1-2. Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise Him in the high places. ¶. Praise Him, all you His angels; praise Him, all you His hosts.

ministrantibus in caelo semper assistitur, ab his in terra vita nostra muniatur. Per Dominum.

Responsorium. Laudate Dominum de caelis: laudate eum in excelsis. ¶. Laudate eum omnes angeli ejus: laudate eum omnes virtutes ejus.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 137, 1-2. I will praise You in the sight of the angels; I will worship toward Your holy temple, and give glory to Your name. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Ps. 90, 11-13. He has given His angels charge over you; to keep you in all your ways. Y. In their hands they shall bear you up, lest you dash your foot against a stone. Y. You shall walk upon the asp and the basilisk; the lion and the dragon shall you trample under foot.

At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

Y. Matt. 28, 2. An angel of the Lord came down from heaven, and drawing near, rolled back the stone, and sat upon it. Alleluia!

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

Y. Ps. 46, 6. God is ascended with jubilee; and the Lord with the sound of the trumpet. Alleluia!

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Vidit Jesus Nathanael venientem ad se, et dicit de eo: Ecce vere Israelita, in quo dolus non est. Dicit ei Nathanael: Unde me nosti? Respon-said to him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." Nathanael answered Him and said, "Rabbi, You are the Son of God, You are King of Israel." Answering, Jesus said to him, "Because I said to you that I saw you under the fig tree, you believe. Greater things than these shall you see." And He said to him, "Amen, amen, I say to you, you shall see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of Man."

Offertory. Apoc. 8, 3.4. An angel stood near the altar of the temple, having a golden censer in his hand, and there was given to him much incense; and the smoke of the perfumes ascended before God. T.P. Alleluia!

Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, a sacrifice of praise humbly beseeching You that through the intercession of the angels You would graciously accept it, and let it avail for our salvation: through our Lord.

Communion. Dan. 3. All you angels of the Lord bless the Lord; sing a hymn, and exalt Him above all forever. T.P. Alleluia!
Postcommunion. Filled with this heavenly blessing, we humbly entreat You, O Lord, that what we celebrate with faltering homage, we may feel to be profitable to us through the help of the holy angels and archangels: through our Lord.

MASS OF OUR HOLY FATHER ST. DOMINIC
All as on the Feast, August 4, p. 1051, except the following:

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὕ. O loving father Dominic, be mindful of your works, and standing before the supreme judge, plead for your poor clients.

Only part of the Sequence is said, i.e., from Laudes ergo.
In Septuagesima instead of the Tract, the Versicle Pie Pater is said, and the Sequence is omitted.
At Eastertide after the second Alleluia:

Ὡ. Rom. 6. Christ rising again from the dead, dies now no more, death shall no more have dominion over Him. Alleluia.

At Ascensiontide after the second Alleluia:

Ὡ. Eph. 4. Christ ascending on high, led captivity captive: He gave gifts to men. Alleluia.

Postcommunio. Repleti, Domine, benedictione caelesti, suppliciter imploramus, ut quod fragili celebramus officio, sanctorum angelorum atque archangelorum nobis prodesse sentiamus auxilio. Per Dominum.

Alleluia, alleluia. Ὕ. Pie pater Dominice, tuorum memor operum, sta coram summo judice pro tuo coetu pauperum. Christus resurgens ex mortuis jam non moritur, mors illi ultra non dominabitur. Alleluia.

Office. Tobias 7, 15; 8, 19. May the God of Israel join you together, and may He be with you, who took pity on two only children; and now, Lord, make them bless You more fully. T.P. Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 127, 1. Blessed are all who fear the Lord, who walk in His ways. Glory. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. O God, who by so wondrous a mystery have sanctified the marriage tie, that You might in the nuptial bond show forth the sacrament of Christ and of the Church; grant, we beseech You, that what is bestowed by our ministry may more abundantly be fulfilled by Your blessing: through our Lord.

Epistle. Eph. 5, 22-33. Brethren: Let wives be subject to their husbands as to the Lord: because a husband is head of the wife, just as Christ is head of the Church, being Himself Savior of the body. But just as the Church is subject to Christ, so also let wives be to their husbands in all things. Husbands, love your wives;

Oratio. Deus, qui tam excellenti mysterio conjugalem copulam consecrasti, ut Christi et ecclesiae sacramentum praesignares in foedere nuptiarum; praesta quaesumus ut quod nostro ministratur officio tua benedictione potius impleatur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Mullieres viris suis subditae sint, sicut Domino: quoniam vir caput est mulieris, sicut Christus caput est ecclesiae. Ipse salvator corporis ejus. Sed sicut ecclesia subjecta est Christo, ita et mulieres viris suis in just as Christ also loved the Church, and delivered Himself up for her, that He might sanctify her, cleansing her in the bath of water by means of the word; in order that He might present to Himself the Church in all her glory, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing, but that she might be holy and without blemish. Even thus ought husbands also to love their wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife, loves himself. For no one ever hated his own flesh; on the contrary he nourishes and cherishes it, as Christ also does the Church (because we are members of His body, made from His flesh and from His bones). “For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh.” This is a great mystery—I mean in reference to Christ and to the Church. However, let each one of you also love his wife just as he loves himself; and let the wife respect her husband.

Responsory. Ps. 127, 3. Your wife as a fruitful vine on the sides of your house. Y. Your children as olive plants round about your table.

Responsorium. Uxor tua sicut vitis abundans, in lateribus domus tuae. Y. Filii tui sicut novellae olivarum, in circuitu mensae tuae.
Alleluia, alleluia! Ps. 19.3. May the Lord send you help from the sanctuary, and defend you out of Sion. Alleluia!

In Septuagesima:

Tract. Ps. 127, 4-6. Behold thus shall the man be blessed who fears the Lord. ¶ May the Lord bless you out of Sion; and may you see the good things of Jerusalem all the days of your life. ¶ And may you see your children’s children: peace upon Israel.

In Paschal Time after the second Alleluia.

¶ Ps. 133, 3. May the Lord out of Sion bless you; He who made heaven and earth. Alleluia!

Gospel. Matt. 19, 3-6. At that time, there came to Jesus some Pharisees, testing Him, and saying, “Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for any cause?” But He answered and said to them, “Have you not read that the Creator, from the beginning, made them male and female, and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Accesserunt ad Jesum pharisaei tentantes eum et dicentes: Si licet homini dimittere uxorem suam quacumque ex causa? Qui respondens, ait eis: Non legis; quia qui fecit hominem ab initio, masculum et feminam fecit eos? Et dixit: Propter hoc dimittet his father and mother, and cleave to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh'? Therefore now they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man put asunder."

Offertory. Ps. 30, 15.16. In You, O Lord, have I hoped; I said: "You are my God; my times are in Your hands." T.P. Alleluia! Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

After the Pater noster and before the Libera nos, the priest standing at the Epistle side of the altar turns to the kneeling bridal couple, and says over them the following prayers:

Let us pray. Be pleased, O Lord, by our supplications, and graciously draw near to what You Yourself have founded and formed for the continuance of the human race, that what is joined by Your authority may be guarded by Your grace: through our Lord.

Let us pray. O God, who by the power of Your might made all things out of nothing; who at the beginning of the world, having made man to Your own image and likeness, out of his flesh made woman to be his inseparable helpmate, thus teaching that what was joined in its beginning it was not lawful to put asunder. O God, who by so wondrous a mystery have blessed the marriage tie, that You might in the nuptial bond show forth the sacrament of Christ and the Church; O God, through whom the woman is joined to the man, and human society, Your chief intent, is enriched with this blessing, which was withdrawn neither in punishment of original sin, nor by the judgment of the flood; look kindly upon Your handmaiden standing on the threshold of wedlock, earnestly craving to be strengthened by Your protection. May she take on the yoke of love and peace: faithful and chaste, may she wed in Christ. May she ever take holy women for her models; may she be full of love toward her husband, as Rachael; wise as Rebecca; full of years and as loyal as Sara. May the devil have no share in aught she does; may she abide rooted in the faith and the commandments. Linked to one love, let her fly all unlawful acts; may she guard her weakness with the strong shield of self-discipline. May she be

OCCASIONAL PRAYERS

The following prayers may be said if the rubrics permit, at the choice of the celebrant.

TO EMPLOY THE INTERCESSION OF ALL THE SAINTS

Collect. Defend us, we pray You, O Lord, from all dangers of mind and body, and by the intercession of the blessed and glorious Mary, ever-virgin mother of God; with blessed Joseph; the blessed apostles Peter and Paul; blessed Dominic our father, and all the saints, mercifully grant us safety and peace, that all enemies and errors being overcome Your Church may serve You in security and freedom: through the same Lord.

Secret. Graciously hear us, O God of our salvation; defend us, by the power of this sacrament, from all the enemies of our soul and body; grant us grace in this present life and glory in the life to come: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the gifts of this divine sacrament which we offer cleanse and protect us, O Lord, we pray You; and by the intercession of the blessed virgin Mary, mother of God, with blessed Joseph, the blessed apostles Peter and Paul, blessed Dominic our father, and all the saints, grant that it may atone for all our wrong doing, and free us from all adversities: through the same Lord.

FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

Collect. O God, who will that all men should be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth, send, we beseech You, laborers to Your harvest, and give them to speak Your word with all confidence, that Your message may run and may be made plain, and that all peoples may know You, the only true God, and Him whom You have sent, Jesus Christ our Lord: who with You.

Secret. Behold, O God, our protector, and look upon the face of Your Christ, who gave Himself a redemption for all; grant that from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof, Your name be magnified among the Gentiles, and that in every place a clean offering be sacrificed to Your name: through the same.

Postcommunion. Strengthened by the gift of our redemption we beseech You, O Lord, that by this aid of everlasting salvation our faith may ever increase: through our Lord.

FOR POPE OR BISHOP

Collect. O God, the chief shepherd and ruler of all the faithful, look down in mercy on Your servant N. whom You have willed to preside as pastor over Your Church; grant him, we beseech You, to benefit by word and example those over whom he rules, that together with the flock entrusted to him he may attain to eternal life: through our Lord.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, we beseech You, by the gifts offered: and govern with Your continual protection Oratio. Deus, omnium fidelium pastor et rector, famulum tuum N. quem pastorem ecclesiae tuae praeesse voluisti, propitius respice; da ei, quaesumus, verbo et exemplo, quibus praest, proficere, ut ad vitam, una cum grege sibi credito, perveniat sempiternam. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Oblatis, quaesumus Domine, placare muneribus:
Your servant N. whom You have willed to preside as pastor over Your Church: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the reception of this divine sacrament protect us, we beseech You, O Lord; and may it always save and defend Your servant N. whom You have willed to preside as pastor over Your Church, together with the flock committed to his care: through our Lord.

AGAINST PERSECUTORS OF THE CHURCH

Collect. In mercy hear Your Church's prayers, we beseech You, O Lord, that all errors and adversities being put to flight, she may serve You in tranquility and peace: through our Lord.

Secret. Guard us, who minister in Your mysteries, O Lord; that cleaving to things divine, we may serve You with our body and with our mind: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord our God, not to leave open to human perils those whom You grant to rejoice in this divine participation: through our Lord.

et famulum tuum N. quem pastorem ecclesiae tuae praesesse voluisti, assidua protectione guberna. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Haec nos, quaesumus Domine, divini sacramenti perceptio protegat; et famulum tuum N. quem pastorem ecclesiae tuae praesesse voluisti, una cum commisso sibi grege, salvet semper et muniat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus Domine Deus noster, ut quos divina tribuis participatione gaudere, humanis non sinas subjacere periculis. Per Dominum.
FOR PREACHERS

Collect. Enlighten, O Lord, the hearts of Your servants with the grace of the Holy Spirit: give them a tongue of fire, and on those who preach Your word, bestow an increase of power: through our Lord.

Secret. Bestow on Your servants, O Lord, the word of grace; and as You hallow the gifts offered to You we pray You visit their hearts in saving mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Uphold, O Lord, Your servants who have received the body and blood of Your Only-begotten Son; and on these heralds of Your word bestow the fullness of Your grace: through the same Lord.

FOR RELIGIOUS

Collect. O God, who enkindle us who have fled from the emptiness of the world to seek the prize of our high calling; pour forth upon us the grace whereby we may persevere in You; so that we may accomplish what we have professed and may ever fulfill what, by Your gift, we have promised: through our Lord.

Secreta. Famulis tuis, Domine, verbum tribue gratiosum: et munera oblata sanctificans, corda eorum in salutari tuo, quaesumus, visita. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Conserva, Domine, famulos tuos, Unigeniti tui corpore, et sanguine suscepto; et tuum nuntiantibus verbum largitatem tribue gratiarum. Per eumdem Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos a saeculi vanitate conversos ad bravium supernae vocationis accendis: gratiam nobis, quin te perseveremus, infunde; ut nostrae professionis executores effecti, quod te donante promissimus, jugiter impleamus. Per Dominum.
Secret. We offer to You, O Lord, this victim of our love, while humbly praying that You would accept us as Your sacrifice by putting to death our carnal life, and instructing us in one befitting our profession: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, who prepare mansions in heaven for those who renounce the world; enlarge our hearts by Your heavenly gifts, that our life and name may be in true accord, and that our profession may be seen in our work: through our Lord.

FOR THE PRIEST HIMSELF

Collect. Not through prayer nor worth of mine but by Your unbounded width of mercy, almighty and merciful God, have You made me Your servant, to minister in the heavenly mysteries; look down in loving kindness on my prayer and make me a worthy minister of Your altars, that what is uttered by my tongue, may be confirmed by Your holiness: through our Lord.

Secret. By virtue of this sacrament, O Lord, blot out the stains of my sins; and grant that by Your grace it Secreta. Tibi, Domine Deus noster, devotionis hostiam immolantes, humiliter petimus, ut nos sacrificium tuum mortificatione vitae carnalis accipias, ac moribus quibus professioni nostrae congruamus instituas. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Deus, qui renuntiantibus saeculo mansiones praeparas in caelo; dilata corda nostra caelestibus bonis, ut concordet nostra vita cum nomine, et professio sentiatur in opere. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Omnipotens et misericors Deus, humilitatis meae preces benignus intende: et me famulum tuum, quem nullis suffragantibus meritis, sed immensa clementiae tuae largitate, caelestibus mysteriis servire tribuisti, dignum sacris altaribus fac ministrum, ut quod mea voce depromitur, tua sanctificatione firmetur. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Hujus, Domine, virtute sacramenti, peccatorum meorum maculas absterge: et praesta, ut ad exsequendum may make me worthy to fulfill the services laid upon me by my office: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Almighty and everlasting God, who have willed that I, a sinner, should stand at Your sacred altars, and praise the power of Your name; mercifully grant unto me, by the mystery of this sacrament, the pardon of my sins, that I may be made worthy to serve Your majesty: through our Lord.

FOR PEACE

Collect. O God, from whom are all holy desires, wise counsels and righteous deeds, bestow on Your servants that peace which the world cannot give; that so our hearts may be set to obey Your commandments, and fear of the enemy being taken away, our times by Your protection may be peaceful: through our Lord.

Secret. O God, who let no dread overwhelm Your faithful flock, be pleased to take the prayers and offerings of a people pledged to You; that peace, granted by Your love, may keep Christian lands free from all foes: through our Lord.

injuncti officii ministerium, me tua gratia dignum efficiat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunion. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui me peccatorem sacris altaribus astare voluisti, et sancti nominis tui laudare potentiam: concede propitius, per hujus sacramenti mysterium, meorum mihi veniam peccatorum, ut tuae majestati digne merear famulari. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, a quo sancta desideria, recta consilia, et justa sunt opera, da servis tuis illam, quam mundus dare non potest, pacem; ut et corda nostra mandatis tuis dedita, et hostium sublata formidine, tempora sint tua protectione tranquilla. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Deus, qui credentes in te populos nullis sinis concuti terroribus, dignare preces et hostias dicatae tibi plebis suscipere; ut pax, a tua pietate concessa, christianorum fines ab omni hoste faciat esse secos. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. O God, maker and lover of peace, to know You is to live, to serve You is to reign; in all assaults be the shield of those who pray to You; that we who trust in Your safekeeping may fear no weapons of the foe: through our Lord.

IN TIME OF WAR

Collect. O God, who end wars, and by the might of Your defense overthrow the assailants of those who trust in You; help Your servants who beseech Your mercy that the power of our foes being crushed, we may praise You with unceasing thanks: through our Lord.

Secret. Turn, O Lord, Your eyes of forgiveness toward the victim we offer, that it may keep us from all the wickedness of war and set us within Your sure defense: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, the sovereign Lord of every king and kingdom, whose scourge is unto our healing, and whose forgiveness is unto our upholding; stretch forth Your mercy toward us, that we may use to the correction of our ways the tranquillity and peace secured by Your power: through our Lord.

FOR RAIN

Collect. O God, in whom we live, move and have our being, grant us rain according to our needs; that being helped sufficiently by Your present aid, we may the more confidently seek things eternal: through our Lord.

Secret. Be appeased, O Lord, with these offered gifts, and grant us the timely help of sufficient rain: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant us life-giving rain, O Lord, we pray; and in Your pity, water with heavenly streams the parched face of the land: through our Lord.

FOR FAIR WEATHER

Collect. Give ear, O Lord, to those who cry to You; and grant to Your suppliants fair weather, so that we who are justly stricken for our sins may, by the act of Your pity, be made sensible of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Secreta. Oblatis, Domine, placare muneriBUs, et opportunum nobis tribue pluviae sufficientis auxilium. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Da nobis, quaesumus Domine, pluviam salutarem: et aridad terrae faciem fluentis caelestibus dignanter infunde. Per Dominum.

Secret. May Your grace, we pray You, O Lord, ever precede and follow us; and graciously accept these gifts we bring, to be consecrated to Your name in reparation for our sins; that through the pleading of Your saints, they may avail us all to salvation: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We ask Your pity, almighty God, that You would control the rain floods, and graciously bestow on us the joy of Your countenance: through our Lord.

FOR PRESERVING THE FRUITS OF THE EARTH

Collect. Yield us, O Lord, all the fruits of the earth, and send forth from heaven the abundance of Your mercy upon our crops; and by leading them on to ripeness, graciously preserve them for our use: through our Lord.

Secret. O Lord most holy, Father almighty, eternal God, under whose sway all things are set, we humbly beseech You, that through these offered gifts of ours, You would deign to keep from every ill all the fruits of Secreta. Praeveniat nos, quaesumus Domine, gratia tua semper, et subsequatur: et has oblationes, quas pro peccatis nostris nomini tuo consecrandas deferimus, benignus assume; ut per intercessionem sanctorum tuorum cunctis nobis proficiant ad salutem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus, omnipotens Deus, clementiam tuam, ut inundantiam coerceas imbrium, et hilaritatem vultus tui nobis impertiri digneris. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus, sub cujus imperio cuncta sunt posita, supplices te rogamus, ut omnes fructus terrae ab omni adversitate per haec mu-the earth, and at the season of ripeness, may we harvest them: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the acceptable and hallowed outpouring of this divine mystery, we pray You, O Lord, prosper all those good things that conduce to the support of Your servants, whom You set free from all sin and lead unto heavenly bliss: through our Lord.

FOR THE SICK

Collect. O almighty and everlasting God, eternal salvation of such as believe, graciously hear our prayers for Your servants who are sick, on whose behalf we crave Your merciful help; that being restored to their health they may give You thanks in Your Church: through our Lord.

Secret. O God, at whose bidding the moments of our life run on, receive the prayers and offerings of Your servants for whom, in their sickness, we crave Your mercy; that as their peril has filled us with fear, their safety may fill us with joy: through our Lord.
Postcommunion. O God, the only stay of human frailty, show forth the might of Your aid on Your servants who are sick, that helped by Your mercy they may deserve to be given back unhurt to Your holy Church: through our Lord.

FOR THE DYING

Collect. O Lord Jesus Christ, You have bestowed on the human race both remedies for healing and the gifts of life eternal; in pity look upon Your servant (handmaid or servants) laboring under weakness of body, and refresh the soul (souls) which You have created; that through the pleading of blessed Joseph, the spouse of Your most holy mother, he (she, they) may, in the hour of his (her, their) death, be worthy to be presented by the hands of Your holy angels to You, his (her, their) Creator, without any stain of sin: who live and reign.

Secret. Receive, we beseech You, O Lord, the victim we offer to You on behalf of Your servant (handmaid, servants) now come to the end of his (her, their) life; and through it grant, at the pleading of Saint Joseph,

Postcommunion. Deus, infirmitatis humanae singulare praesidium, auxilii tui super infirmos famulos tuos ostende virtutem, ut ope misericordiae tuae adjuti ecclesiae tuae sanctae incolunmes repraesentari mereantur. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Domine Jesu Christe, qui humano generi et salutis remedia et vitae aeternae munera contulisti: respice propitius famulum tuum (famulam tuam, famulos tuos) infirmitate corporis laborantem, et animam refove quam creasti (laborantes, et animas refove quas creasti); ut, intercedente beato Joseph, sanctissimae genitricis tuae sponse, in hora exitus illius (illorum) absque peccati macula tibi creatori suo per manus sanctorum angelorum repraesentari mereatur (mereantur). Qui vivis et regnas.

Secreta. Suscipe, quaesumus Domine, hostiam quam tibi offerimus pro famulo tuo (famula tua, famulis tuis) in extremo vitae constituto (constituta, constitutis); et intercedente sancto Joseph, beatae virginis Mariae sponse, concede, spouse of the blessed virgin Mary, that all his (her, their) sins being washed away, he (she, they), who is torn by scourges of Your ordaining in this life, may attain to eternal rest in the life to come: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech Your mercy, O Lord, that You would deign to strengthen Your grace in Your servant (handmaid, servants) through the might of this sacrament; that at the intercession of blessed Joseph, spouse of Your most holy mother, the enemy may not prevail against him (her, them) at the hour of his (her, their) death, but that he (she, they) may be found worthy to pass unto life with his (her, their) holy angel (angels): who live and reign.

ut per eam universa illius (illorum) purgentur delicta, ut qui tuae dispositionis flagellis in hac vita atteritur (atteruntur), in futura requiem consequatur (consequentur) aeternam. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Quaesumus clementiam tuam, Domine, ut per hujus virtutem sacramenti famulum tuum (famulam tuam, famulos tuos) gratia tua confirmare digneris; ut intercedente beato Joseph, sanctissimae genitricis tuae sponso, in hora mortis ejus (illorum) non praevaleat contra eum (eam, eos) adversarius sed cum angelis suis transitum habere mereatur (mereantur) ad vitam. Qui vivis et regnas.
MASSES FOR THE DEAD
IN COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Office. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. Ps. 64, 2.3. A hymn, O God, becomes You in Sion; and a vow shall be paid to You in Jerusalem; hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to You, Eternal rest. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. O God, the creator and redeemer of all the faithful, grant to the souls of Your servants departed, the remission of all their sins; that through pious supplications they may obtain the pardon they have always desired: who live and reign.

Epistle. 1 Cor. 15, 51-57. Brethren: Behold, I tell you a mystery: we shall all indeed rise, but we shall not all be changed—in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall rise incorruptible and we shall be changed. For this corruptible body must put on incorruption, and this mortal body must put on immortality. But when this mortal body puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the word that is written, “Death is swallowed up in victory! O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?” Now the sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Law. But thanks be to God who has given us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Responsory. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. Ps. 111, 7. The just man shall be in everlasting remembrance; he shall not fear the evil report.

Tract. Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin. /payment. And by the help of Your grace may they be enabled to escape the judgment of punishment, and enjoy the happiness of eternal light.

Responsorium. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis. Ps. In memoria aeterna erit justus; ab auditione mala non timebit.

Tractus. Absolve, Domine, animas omnium fidelium defunctorum ab omni vinculo delictorum. /payment. Et gratia tua illis succurrente, mereantur evadere judicium ultionis, et lucis aeternae beatitudine perfrui.

Sequence

That day, a day of wrath
Shall reduce the world to ashes.
As do testify David and the Sibyl.

How great shall be the trembling
When the Judge shall come.
To investigate rigidly all things.

The trumpet diffusing a wondrous sound
Through the sepulchres of the world
Shall gather all before the Throne.

Dies irae, dies illa,
Solvet saeculum in favilla,
Teste David cum Sibylla.

Quantus tremor est futurus,
Quando judex est venturus
Cuncta stricte discussurus.

Tuba mirum spargens sonum
Per sepulchra regionum,
Coget omnes ante thronum.
Death and Nature shall stand aghast,
When the creature shall rise again
To answer the Judge.

The written book shall appear
In which shall be contained all
Whence the world will be judged.

When therefore the Judge shall be seated
Whatever is hidden shall be exposed;
Nothing will go unpunished.

What shall I, a wretch, then say?
What patron shall I entreat
Since even a just man is not too secure.

O King of awful majesty,
You do save freely those to be saved;
Save me, O Font of Mercy.

Remember, most loving Jesus,
I am the cause of Your journey;
Do not destroy me on that day.

Seeking me, You waited patiently
Suffering the Cross, You redeemed me,
Let the effort be not in vain.

O just Judge of vengeance,
Grant the gift of pardon
Before the day of reckoning.

I groan like one condemned;
My face reddens with guilt;
Spare, O God, Your servant.
You did absolve Mary;
   You hearkened to the thief;
   You have given hope to me.

Qui Mariam absolvisti,
   Et latronem exaudisti,
   Mihi quoque spem dedisti.

My prayers are unworthy;
   But in Your goodness grant
   I may not burn in eternal fire.

Preces meae non sunt dignae,
   Sed tu bonus fac benigne,
   Ne perenni cremer igne.

Grant me place among the sheep;
   And separate me from the goats,
   Placing me at Your right hand.

Inter oves locum praestā,
   Et ab haedis me sequestra,
   Statuens in parte dextra.

Now that the accursed are silenced
   And given over to the flames,
   Place me among the blessed.

Confutatis maledictis,
   Flammis acribus addictis,
   Voca me cum benedictis.

With deep humility and
   With a heart crushed like ashes
   I pray: Take care of my last hour.

Oro supplex et acclinis,
   Cor contritum quasi cinis,
   Gere curam mei finis.

Sorrowful shall be the day on which Guilty man shall rise from ashes
   To be judged.

Lacrimosa dies illa.
   Qua resurget ex favilla
   Huic ergo parce, Deus,

O Lord Jesus, in Your kindness
   Grant them eternal rest.

Pie Jesu Domine,
   Dona eis requiem. Amen.
Gospel. John 5, 25-29. At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, "Amen, amen, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is here, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear shall live. For as the Father has life in Himself, even so He has given to the Son also to have life in Himself; and He has granted Him power to render judgment, because He is Son of Man. Do not wonder at this, for the hour is coming in which all who are in the tombs shall hear the voice of the Son of God. And they who have done good shall come forth unto resurrection of life; but they who have done evil unto resurrection of judgment."

Offertory. O Lord Jesus Christ, king of glory, deliver the souls of all the faithful departed from the pains of hell and from the deep pit; deliver them from the mouth of the lion, that hell may not swallow them up, and they may not fall into darkness; but may the holy standard-bearer Michael introduce them to the holy light, which You promised of old to Abraham and to his seed. ¶ We offer to You, O Lord, sacrifice of praise and prayers; receive them in behalf of those souls whom we com-

Offertorium. Domine Jesu Christe, rex gloriae, libera animas omnium fidelium defunctorum de poenis inferni, et de profundo lacu: libera eas de ore leonis, ne absorbeat eas tartarus, ne cadant in obscura: sed signifer sanctus Michael repraesentet eas in lucem sanctam: Quam olim Abraham promisisti, et semini ejus. ¶ Hostias et preces tibi, Domine, laudis offerimus: tu suscipe pro animabus illis, quorum memorate this day; grant them, O Lord, to pass from death to that life, which You promised of old to Abraham and to his seed. Offertory Prayers, p. 623.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, mercifully to look down upon this sacrifice which we offer to You for the souls of Your servants; that to those on whom You bestowed the merit of Christian faith, You may also grant its reward: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 18, p. 1303.

Communion. May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord, with Your saints forever, because You are merciful.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, that the prayers of Your people may benefit the souls of Your servants; that You may deliver them from all their sins, and make them partakers of Your redemption: who live and reign.

God, becomes You in Sion, and a vow shall be paid to You in Jerusalem; hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to You. Eternal rest, etc. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Collect. O God, whose nature is always to have mercy and to spare, we humbly beseech You on behalf of the soul of Your servant N. whom You have this day called out of the world, that You would not deliver him (her) into the hands of the enemy, nor forget him (her) forever; but command Your holy angels to receive him (her) and lead him (her) to his (her) home in paradise, that since he (she) put in You his (her) hope and trust, he (she) may not endure the pains of hell, but may come to the possession of eternal joys: through our Lord.

Epistle. 1 Thess. 4, 13-18. Brethren: We would not have you ignorant concerning those who are asleep, lest you should grieve, even as others who have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, so with Him God will bring those also who have fallen asleep through Jesus. For this we say to you in the word of the Lord, that we who live, who survive until the coming of the Lord, shall not precede those who have fallen asleep. For the Lord Himself with cry of command, with voice

Sion, et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem: exaudì orationem meam; ad te omnis caro veniet. Requiem.

Oratio. Deus, cui proprium est misereri semper, et parcere, te supplices exoramus pro anima famuli tui N. quam hodie de hoc saeculo migrare jussisti, ut non tradas eam in manus inimici, neque obliviscaris in finem; sed jubeas eam a sanctis angelis suscipi, et ad patriam paradisi perduci: ut quia in te speravit et credidit, non poenas aeternas sustineat, sed gaudia sempiterna possideat. Per Dominum.

Epistola. Fratres: Nolumus vos ignorare de dormientibus, ut non contristemini sicut et ceteri, qui spem non habent. Si enim credimus quod Jesus mortuus est, et resurrexit, ita et Deus eos qui dormierunt per Jesum, adducet cum eo. Hoc enim vobis dicimus in verbo Domini, quia nos qui vivimus, qui residui sumus in adventum Domini, non praeventiemus eos qui dormierunt. Quoniam ipse Do-of archangel, and with trumpet of God will descend from heaven; and the dead in Christ will rise up first. Then we who live, who survive, shall be caught up together with them in clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we shall ever be with the Lord. Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

Responsory. Ps. 22, 4. If I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils, for You are with me, O Lord. \(\checkmark\). Your rod and Your staff have comforted me.

Tract. Ps. 41, 2-4. As the deer pants after the watersprings, so pants my soul after You, O God. \(\checkmark\). My soul has thirsted after the strong living God; when shall I come and appear before the face of my God? \(\checkmark\). Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Martha ad Jesum: Domine, si fuisses hic, frater meus non fuisse mortuus: sed et nunc scio, quia quaecumque posposeris a Deo, dabit tibi Deus. Dicit illi Jesus: Resurget frater tuis. Dicit ei her, "Your brother shall rise." Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise at the resurrection, on the last day." Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me, even if he die, shall live; and whoever lives and believes in Me, shall never die. Do you believe this?" She said to Him, "Yes, Lord, I believe that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who has come into the world."

Secret. Be merciful, O Lord, we beseech You, to the soul of Your servant N. for whom we offer up to You this sacrifice of praise, humbly beseeching Your majesty, that by these holy peace offerings it may be found worthy to win everlasting rest: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 18, p. 1303.

Communion. May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord, with Your saints forever: because You are merciful.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty God, that the soul of Your servant N. which has this day departed out of this world, may be cleansed by this sacrifice, delivered from sins, and receive forgiveness and everlasting rest: through our Lord.

On the third, seventh and thirtieth day after the burial of the deceased the foregoing Mass is said, but with the following prayers:

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, that You would be pleased to grant fellowship with Your saints and elect to the soul of Your servant, N. whose burial three (or seven, or thirty) days since we commemorate; and that You would pour upon it the everlasting dew of Your mercy: through our Lord.

Secreta. Propitiare, quaesumus Domine, animae famuli tui N. pro qua hostiam laudis tibi immolamus, majestatem tuam suppliciter deprecantes, ut per haec piae placationis officia, pervenire mereatur ad requiem sempiternam. Per Dominum.

Communio. Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine, cum sanctis tuis in aeternum: quia pius es.

Oratio. Quaesumus, Domine, ut animae famuli tui N. cujus depositionis diem tertium (vel septimum, vel trigesimum) commemoramus: sanctorum atque electorum tuorum largiri digneris consortium; et rorem misericordiae tuae perennem infundas. Per Dominum.
Secret. Look favorably, we beseech You, O Lord, on the offering we make on behalf of the soul of Your servant, N. that being purified by these heavenly remedies, he (she) may rest in Your mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Receive our prayers, O Lord, on behalf of the soul of Your servant, N. that if it be still soiled by any stains of earth, these may be blotted out by Your merciful forgiveness: through our Lord.

THE THREE MASSES WHICH ARE SAID ON THE DAY OF THE SOLEMN COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

The First Mass

All as on the Day of the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed, p. 1283.

The Second Mass

All as in the Mass on the Anniversary of the Dead, p. 1295, except the following prayers. The Sequence is omitted.

Collect. O God, the Lord of mercies, grant to the souls of Your servants and handmaidens a place of refreshment, the happiness of rest and the brightness of Your light: through our Lord.

Secreta. Munera, quaesumus Domine, quae tibi pro anima famuli tui N. offerimus, placatus intende, ut reme-diis purgata caelestibus, in tua pietate requiescat. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Suscipe, Domine, preces nostras pro anima famuli tui N. ut si quae ei maculae de terrenis contagis adhaeserunt, remissionis tuae misericordia deleantur.
Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, indulgentiarum Domine, da animabus famulorum, famularumque tuarum, refrigerii sedem, quietis beatitudinem, et luminis claritatem. Per Dominum.
Secret. O Lord, mercifully incline to our supplications for the souls of Your servants and handmaidens for whom we offer to You this sacrifice of praise; that You would be pleased to number them in the fellowship of Your saints: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that the souls of Your servants and handmaidens being cleansed by these sacrifices, may obtain pardon and eternal rest: through our Lord.

The Third Mass

All as for the Common Mass for the Dead, p. 1299, except the following prayers:

Collect. O God, the giver of pardon and the author of human salvation, we beseech Your clemency, that You would grant that the souls of Your servants and handmaidens who have passed out of this life, may, by the intercession of the blessed Mary ever-virgin, together with all Your saints, come to the fellowship of eternal beatitude: through our Lord.

Secreta. Propitiare, Domine, supplicationibus nostris pro animabus famulorum, famularumque tuarum, pro quibus tibi offerimus sacrificium laudis; ut eas sanctorum tuorum consortio sociare digneris. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus, Domine, ut animae famulorum, famularumque tuarum, his purgatae sacrificiis, indulgentiam pariter, et requiem capiant sempiternam. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, veniae largitor, et humanae salutis auctor: quaesumus clementiam tuam, ut animas famulorum famularumque tuarum quae ex hoc saeculo transierunt, beata Maria semper virgine intercedente cum omnibus sanctis tuis, ad perpetuae beatitudinis consortium pervenire concedas. Per Dominum.
Secret. O God, of whose mercy there is no end, favorably receive our humble prayers, and by means of this sacrament of our salvation, grant to the souls of all the faithful departed, who by Your grace confessed Your holy name, remission of all their sins: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that the souls of Your servants and handmaidens for whom we offer to Your majesty this sacrifice of praise, may, by virtue of this sacrament, be cleansed from all their sins, and by Your mercy may obtain the beatitude of eternal light: through our Lord.

ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEAD

Office. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. Ps. 64, 2.3. A hymn, O God, becomes You in Sion, and a vow shall be paid to You in Jerusalem; hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to You. Eternal rest. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Secreta. Deus, cujus misericordiae non est numerus, suscipe propitius preces humilitatis nostrae, et animabus omnium fidelium defunctorum, quibus tui nominis dedisti confessionem, per haec sacramenta salutis nostrear, cunctorum remissionem tribue peccatorum. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus, omnipotens, et misericors Deus ut animae famularumque tuarum, pro quibus hoc sacrificium laudis tuae obtulimus majestati, per hujus virtutem sacramenti a peccatis omnibus expiatae, lucis perpetuae, te miserante, recipiant beatitudinem. Per Dominum.

For one person; in the plural for more than one person.

Collect. O God, the Lord of mercies, grant to the soul of Your servant (or Your handmaiden) N. whose anniversary we are keeping, a place of refreshment, the happiness of rest and the brightness of Your light: through our Lord.

Epistle. 2 Mach. 12, 43-46. In those days, the most valiant man Judas, making a gathering, sent twelve thousand drachmas of silver to Jerusalem for sacrifice to be offered for the sins of the dead, thinking well and religiously concerning the resurrection (for if he had not hoped that they who were slain should rise again, it would have seemed superfluous and vain to pray for the dead); and because he considered that they who had fallen asleep with godliness, had great grace laid up for them. It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins.

Responsory. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them. \( \checkmark \). Their souls shall dwell amid good things, and their seed shall inherit the earth.

Oratio. Deus indulgentiarum Domine, da animae famuli tui (vel famulae tuae), cujus anniversarium depositionis diem commemoramus, refrigerii sedem, quietis beatitudinem et luminis claritatem. Per Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Vir fortissimus Judas, facta collatione, duodecim millia drachmas argenti misit Jerusalem offerri pro peccatis mortuorum sacrificium, bene et religiose de resurrectione cogitans. (Nisi enim eos qui ceciderant, resurrecturos speraret, superfluum videretur et vanum orare pro mortuis). Et quia considerabat quod hi qui cum pietate dormitionem acceperant, optimam haberent repositam gratiam. Sancta ergo et salubris est cogitatio pro defunctis exorare, ut a peccatis solvantur.

Responsorium. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis. \( \checkmark \). Animae eorum in bonis demonrentur: et semen eorum hereditet terram.
Tract. Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin. \( \mathbb{V} \). And by the help of Your grace may they be enabled to escape the judgment of punishment, and enjoy the happiness of eternal light.

Gospel. John 6, 37-40. At that time, Jesus said to the multitudes of the Jews, “All that the Father gives to Me shall come to Me, and him who comes to Me I will not cast out. For I have come down from heaven, not to do My own will, but the will of Him who sent Me. Now this is the will of Him who sent Me, the Father, that I should lose nothing of what He has given Me, but that I should raise it up on the last day. For this is the will of My Father who sent Me, that whoever beholds the Son, and believes in Him, shall have everlasting life, and I will raise him up on the last day.” Offertory, p. 1291.

For one person; in the plural for more than one person.

Secret. Listen favorably, O Lord, to our humble prayers for the soul of Your servant (or handmaiden) whose anniversary is this day commemorated, and for whom we offer up to You this sacrifice of praise; that Tractus. Absolve, Domine, animas omnium fidelium defunctorum ab omni vinculo delictorum. \( \mathbb{V} \). Et gratia tua ills succurrente, mereantur evadere judicium ultionis, et lucis aeternae beatitudine perfrui.

Evangelium. In illo tempore: Dixit Jesus turbis Judaeorum: Omne quod dat mihi Pater ad me veniet: et eum qui venit ad me, non ejiciam foras: quia descendi de caelo, non ut faciam voluntatem meam, sed voluntatem ejus qui misit me. Haec est autem voluntas ejus qui misit me Patris: ut omne quod dedit mihi, non perdam ex eo, sed resuscitem illud in novissimo die. Haec est autem voluntas Patris mei qui misit me: ut omnis qui videt Filium, et credit in eum, habeat vitam aeternam: et ego resuscitabo eum in novissimo die. Offertorium, p. 1291.

Secreta. Propitiare, Domine, supplicationibus nostris pro anima famuli tui (vel famulae tuae), cujus hodie annua dies agitur, pro qua tibi offerimus sacrificium laudis: ut eam
You may be pleased to grant to it fellowship with Your saints: through our Lord.

Preface: No. 18, p. 1303.

Communion. May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord, with Your saints forever, because You are merciful.

For one person; in the plural for more than one person.

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, O Lord, that purified by this sacrifice, the soul of Your servant (or Your handmaiden) whose anniversary we keep, may obtain pardon and everlasting rest: through our Lord.

sanctorum tuorum consortio sociare digneris. Per Dominum.

Communio. Lux aeterna luceat eis, Domine, cum sanctis tuis in aeternum: quia pius es.

Postcommunio. Praesta, quaesumus Domine, ut anima famuli tui (vel famulae tuae), cujus anniversarium depositionis diem commemoramus, his purgata sacrificiis indulgentiam pariter, et requiem capiat sempiternam. Per Dominum.
COMMON MASS FOR THE DEAD

In the Common Mass for the Dead, three prayers are always said. They are said in the following order:

(a) When the Mass is for a bishop or a priest:
- 1st. Deus qui inter apostolicos. 2nd. Deus veniae. 3rd. Omnipotens.

(b) When the Mass is for a deceased man:
- 1st. Inclina Domine. 2nd and 3rd, as above (a).

(c) When the Mass is for a deceased woman:
- 1st. Quaesumus Domine. 2nd and 3rd, as above (a).

(d) When the Mass is for all the dead:
- 1st. Fidelium. 2nd and 3rd, as above (a).

(e) When the Mass is for more than one:
- 1st. Either Animabus quaesumus, or Propitiare quaesumus. 2nd and 3rd, as above (a).

(f) When the Mass is for deceased brothers, friends and benefactors:
- 1st. Deus veniae. 2nd. Deus qui nos patrem. 3rd. Omnipotens.

(g) When it is not known whether the Mass is to be celebrated for one in particular or for many:
- 1st. Deus qui inter apostolicos. 2nd. Deus veniae. 3rd. Omnipotens.

(h) In Anniversaries which are not Sung Masses:

Office. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. Ps. 64, 2.3. A hymn, O God, becomes You in Sion, and a vow shall be paid to You in Jerusalem; hear my prayer; all flesh shall come to You. Eternal rest. Kyrie, p. 617. Omit Gloria.

Officium. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis. V. Ps. 64. Te decet hymnus Deus in Sion, et tibi reddetur votum in Jerusalem: exaudi orationem meam; ad te omnis caro veniet. Requiem.
FOR DECEASED BISHOPS OR PRIESTS

Collect. O God, who raised Your servants to the dignity of bishops (or priests) in the apostolic priesthood; grant, we beseech You, that they may be joined in fellowship with Your apostles forever: through our Lord.

FOR DECEASED BROTHERS, RELATIVES AND BENEFACCTORS

Collect. O God, the giver of pardon, and the author of human salvation, we beseech Your clemency, that by the intercession of the blessed Mary ever-virgin, and of all Your saints, You would grant that the brethren, sisters, relatives and benefactors of our order who have passed out of this life, may partake of everlasting bliss: through our Lord.

FOR THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

Collect. Almighty and eternal God, You have dominion over the living and the dead, and are merciful to all whom You foreknow shall be Yours by faith and good works; we humbly beseech You, that they for whom we have determined to offer up our prayers, whether the present world still detains them in the flesh, or the future

Oratio. Deus, qui inter apostolicos sacerdotes, famulos tuos pontificali (vel sacerdotali) fecisti dignitate vigere; praesta, quaesumus, ut eorum quoque perpetuo aggregentur consortio. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, veniae largitor, et humanae salutis auctor, quaesumus clementiam tuam, ut nostrae congregationis fratres, sorores, familiares et benefactores, qui ex hoc saeculo transierunt, beata Maria semper virgine intercedente cum omnibus sanctis tuis, ad perpetuae beatitudinis consortium pervenire concedas. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Omnipotens sempiterne Deus, qui vivorum dominar is simul et mortuorum, omniumque miseris, quos tuos fide et opere futuros esse praenoscis; te supplices exoramus, ut pro quibus effundere preces decrevimus, quosque vel praesens saeculum adhuc in carne retinet, vel futurum jam has already received them out of the body, may, by the intercession of all Your saints and the clemency of Your mercy, obtain the pardon of all their sins: through our Lord.

Epistle. Apoc. 14, 13. In those days, I heard a voice from heaven saying, “Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord henceforth. Yes, says the Spirit, let them rest from their labors, for their works follow them.”

Responsory. Eternal rest give to them, O Lord; and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Their souls shall dwell amid good things, and their seed shall inherit the earth.

Tract. Absolve, O Lord, the souls of all the faithful departed from every bond of sin.

And by the help of Your grace may they be enabled to escape the judgment of punishment, and enjoy the happiness of eternal light.

If the Mass be for one person.

Responsory. Ps. 22, 4. If I should walk in the midst of the shadow of death, I will fear no evils, for You are with me, O Lord.

Your rod and Your staff have comforted me.

exutos corpore suscepit, intercedentibus omnibus sanctis tuis, pietatis tuae clementia, omnium delictorum suorum veniam consequantur. Per Dominum.

Epistola. In diebus illis: Audivi vocem de caelo, dicentem mihi: Scribe: Beati mortui qui in Domino moriuntur. Amodo jam dicit spiritus, ut requiescant a laboribus suis, opera enim illorum sequuntur illos.

Responsorium. Requiem aeternam dona eis, Domine; et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Animae eorum in bonis demorantur: et semen eorum hereditet terram.

Tractus. Absolve, Domine, animas omnium fidelium defunctorum ab omni vinculo delictorum.

Et gratia tua illis succurrente, mereantur evadere judicium ultionis, et lucis aeternae beatitudine perfrui.

Responsorium. Si ambulem in medio umbrae mortis, non timebo mala: quoniam tu mecum es, Domine.

Et baculus tuus, ipsa me consolata sunt.
Tract. Ps. 41, 2-4. As the deer pants after the fountains of water, so my soul pants after You, O God. ¶ My soul has thirsted after the strong living God; when shall I come and appear before the face of my God? ¶ My tears have been my bread day and night, while it is said to me daily: "Where is your God?"

Sequence, p. 1284, at the choice of the priest. Gospel and Offertory, p. 1290-1291.

FOR DECEASED BISHOPS OR PRIESTS

Secret. Receive, we beseech You, O Lord, the sacrifice which we offer up on behalf of Your servants who were bishops (or priests), so that those whom You raised up to episcopal (or priestly) rank in this world, may, by Your command, be joined to Your saints in the kingdom of heaven: through our Lord.

FOR DECEASED BROTHERS, RELATIVES AND BENEFACTORS

Secret. O God, to whose mercy there is no limit, favorably receive our humble prayers, and by means of this sacrament of our salvation, grant the remission of all their sins to the souls of our brethren, sisters, relatives and benefactors, who all, by Your grace, confessed Your holy name: through our Lord.

Tractus. Sicut cervus desiderat ad fontes aquarum: ita desiderat anima mea ad te Deus. ¶ Sitivit anima mea ad Deum vivum: quando veniam et apparebo ante faciem Dei mei? ¶ Fuerunt mihi lacrymae meae panes die ac nocte, dum dicitur mihi per singulos dies: Ubí est Deus tuus?

Secreta. Suscipe, Domine quæsumus, pro animabus famulorum tuorum pontificum (vel sacerdotum), quas offerimus, hostias, ut quibus in hac saeculo pontificale (seu sacerdotale) donasti meritum, in caelesti regno sanctorum tuorum jubeas jungi consortio. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Deus, cujus misericordiae non est numerus, suscipe propitius preces humilitatis nostrae, et animabus fratrum, sororum, familiarium, et benefactorum nostrorum, quibus tui nominis dedisti confessionem, per haec sacramenta salutis nostrae, cunctorum remissionem tribue pecatorum. Per Dominum.
FOR THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

Secret. O God, who alone know the number of the elect who are to enjoy the happiness of heaven; grant, we beseech You, that by the intercession of all Your saints, the names of those who have been commended to our prayers, and of all the faithful, may be kept in the book of the predestined blessed: through our Lord.

NO. 18

PREFACE FOR MASSES FOR THE DEAD

It is truly fitting and just, right and salutary, that we should always and in all places give thanks to You, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, through Christ our Lord. For in Him the hope of a blessed resurrection has shone upon us, so that those whom the certainty of death saddens may be consoled by the promise of future immortality. For to those who believe in You, Lord, life is only changed, not taken away; and in exchange for the dissolution of this earthly dwelling place they receive an eternal home in heaven. And therefore with the angels and archangels, with the thrones and dominations, and with all the heavenly host, we sing a hymn to Your glory, saying without ceasing: Holy, etc. (p. 627).

Vere dignum et justum est, aequum et salutare, nos tibi semper et ubique gratias agere, Domine sancte, Pater omnipotens, aeterne Deus, per Christum Dominum nostrum. In quo nobis spes beatae resurrectionis effulsit, ut quos contristat certa moriendi conditio, eosdem consoletur futurae immortalitatis promissio. Tuis enim fidelibus, Domine, vita mutatur, non tollitur; et dissoluta terrestris hujus incolatus.

Communion. May eternal light shine upon them, O Lord, with Your saints forever, because You are merciful.

FOR DECEASED BISHOPS OR PRIESTS

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, that Your clemency, which we implore, may benefit the souls of Your servants who were bishops (or priests), that by Your mercy, they may obtain eternal fellowship with him in whom they hoped and believed: through our Lord.

FOR DECEASED BROTHERS, RELATIVES AND BENEFACCTORS

Postcommunion. Grant, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God, that the souls of our brethren, sisters, relatives and benefactors, for whom we offer up to Your majesty this sacrifice of praise, may, by virtue of this sacrament, be cleansed from all sin, and by Your mercy receive the happiness of eternal light: through our Lord.

MASSES FOR THE DEAD

FOR THE LIVING AND THE DEAD

Postcommunion. May the mysteries which we have received purify us, we beseech You, almighty and merciful God; and by the intercession of all the saints, grant that this sacrament may not be a condemnation to us, but pardon and salvation; may it be the washing away of crimes, the strength of the weak, protection against all dangers of the world, and the remission of all the sins of the faithful both living and dead: through our Lord.

benefactorum nostrorum, pro quibus hoc sacrificium laudis tuae obtulimus majestati, per hujus virtutem sacramenti a peccatis omnibus expiatae lucis perpetuae, te miserante, recipiant beatitudinem. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Purificant nos, Domine quaesumus, sacramenta, quae sumpsimus: et intercedentibus omnibus sanctis tuis, praesta, ut hoc tuum sacramentum non sit nobis reatus ad poenam, sed intercessio salutaris ad veniam: sit ablutio scelerum, sit fortitudo fragilium, sit contra omnia mundi pericula firmamentum, sit vivorum atque mortuorum fidelium remissio omnium peccatorum. Per Dominum.
VARIOUS PRAYERS FOR THE DEAD

FOR A DECEASED MAN

Collect. Incline, O Lord, Your ear to our prayers, by which we humbly implore Your mercy, that You would bring to the land of peace and light the soul of Your servant whom You have summoned to go forth from this world; and would bid him to be numbered with Your saints: through our Lord.

Secret. Hear us, O Lord, we beseech You, and let the soul of Your servant profit by this sacrifice, through the offering of which You granted that the sins of the whole world should be loosed: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. Absolve, O Lord, we beseech You, the soul of Your servant from every bond of sin, that he may be raised up in the glory of the resurrection, and live again among Your saints and elect: through our Lord.

FOR A DECEASED WOMAN

Collect. We beseech You, O Lord, by Your loving-kindness to have mercy on the soul of Your handmaid; and now that she is released from union with Oratio. Inclina, Domine, aurem tuam ad preces nostras, quibus misericordiam tuam supplices deprecamur, ut animam famuli tui, quam de hoc saeculo migrare jussisti, in pacis ac lucis regione constitutas; et sanctorum tuorum jubeas esse consortem. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Annue nobis quaesumus Domine, ut animae famuli tui haec prosit oblatio, quam immolando, totius mundi tribuesti relaxari delicta. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Absolve, quaesumus Domine, animam famuli tui ab omni vinculo delictorum, ut in resurrectionis gloria, inter sanctos et electos tuos resuscitatus respiret. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Quaesumus Domine, pro tua pietate miserere animae famulae tuae; et a contagiis mortalitatis exutam, in aeternae salvationis partem restitue. Per Dominum.

this mortal flesh grant her part in Your eternal salvation: through our Lord.

Secret. We beseech You, O Lord, that by this sacrifice the soul of Your handmaiden may be delivered from all sins, since from the guilt of these no one is ever free; and by these peace offerings may she obtain everlasting mercy: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. May the soul of Your handmaiden, who has obtained the sacrament of everlasting mercy, partake, we beseech You, O Lord, of eternal light: through our Lord.

FOR A DECEASED FATHER, OR FOR A DECEASED MOTHER

Collect. O God, You have commanded us to honor our father and mother; in Your loving kindness have mercy on the soul of my father (or mother); forgive him (her) his (her) sins, and bring me to see him (her) in the joy of eternal brightness: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the sacrifice which I offer up to You for the soul of my father (or mother): grant him (her) everlasting joy in the land of the living, and with him (her) let me share in the happiness of the saints: through our Lord.

Secreta. His sacrificiis, quaesumus Domine, anima famulae tuae a peccatis omnibus exuatur, sine quibus a culpa nemo liber exstitit: ut per haec piae placationis officia, perpetuam misericordiam consequatur. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Inveniat, quaesumus Domine, anima famulae tuae lucis aeternae consortium; cujus perpetuae misericordiae consecuta est sacramentum. Per Dominum.

Oratio. Deus, qui nos patrem et matrem honorare praecipisti; miserere clementer animae patris mei (vel matris meae): ejusque peccata dimittte, meque eum (vel eam) in aeternae claritatis gaudio fac videre. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe sacrificium Domine, quod tibi pro anima patris mei (vel matris meae) offero: eique gaudium semipiternum in regione vivorum concede, meque cum illo (vel illa) felicitati sanctorum conjunge. Per Dominum.
Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, that this heavenly sacrament of which we have partaken, may obtain rest and light everlasting for the soul of my father (or mother); and by means of it may I be crowned with him (her) by Your grace for evermore: through our Lord.

FOR BOTH FATHER AND MOTHER

Collect. O God, You have commanded us to honor our father and mother; in Your loving kindness have mercy on the souls of our parents; forgive them their sins, and bring us to see them in the joy of eternal light: through our Lord.

Secret. Receive, O Lord, the sacrifice which we offer to You for the souls of our parents; grant them everlasting joy in the land of the living, and in their company let me share in the happiness of the saints: through our Lord.

Postcommunion. We beseech You, O Lord, that this heavenly sacrament of which we have partaken, may obtain for the souls of our parents rest and light everlasting; and through it may I be crowned with them by Your grace for evermore: through our Lord.

Postcommunio. Caelestis participatio sacramenti, quaesumus Domine, animae patris mei (vel matris meae) requiem, et lucem obtineat perpetuam; meque cum illo (vel illa) gratia tua coronet aeterna. Per Dominum.

Oration. Deus, qui nos patrem et matrem honorare praecepistis, miserere clementer animabus parentum nostrorum; eorumque peccata dimitte, nosque eos in aeternae claritatis gaudio fac videre. Per Dominum.

Secreta. Suscipe sacrificium Domine, quod tibi pro animabus parentum nostrorum offerimus; eisque gaudium sempiternum in regione vivorum concede, nosque cum illis felicitati sanctorum conjunge. Per Dominum.

Postcommunio. Caelestis participatio sacramenti, quaesumus Domine, animabus parentum nostrorum requiem et lucem obtineat perpetuam; nosque cum illis gratia tua coronet aeterna. Per Dominum.
FOR THOSE WHO LIE IN OUR CEMETERIES

Collect. O God, by whose mercy the souls of the faithful rest: mercifully grant forgiveness of their sins to Your servants, and to all who here and elsewhere sleep in Christ; that being absolved from all guilt, they may rejoice with You for evermore: through the same Lord.

Secret. Graciously receive, O Lord, the victim which we offer for the souls of Your servants, and of all catholics who sleep in Christ, both here and elsewhere; that freed from the bonds and terrors of death they may, by the supreme merits of this sacrifice, deserve life everlasting: through the same Lord.

Postcommunion. O God, the light of faithful souls, hear our humble prayers, and grant to Your servants, whose bodies, here or elsewhere rest in Christ, a place of refreshment, the blessedness of rest, and the brightness of eternal light: through the same Lord.

FOR MORE THAN ONE DECEASED

Collect. O God, whose property is always to have mercy and to spare, be merciful to the souls of Your Oratio. Deus, cujus miseratìone animae fidelium requiescunt: famulis et famulabus tuis omnibus, hic et ubique in Christo quiescentibus, da propitius veniam peccatorum; ut a cunctis reatibus absoluti, tecum sine fine laetentur. Per eundem Dominum.

Secreta. Pro animabus famulorum, famularumque tuarum, et omnium catholicorum hic et ubique in Christo dormientium, hostiam Domine suscipe benignus oblatam; ut hoc sacrificio singulæri, vinculis horrendae mortis exutae, vitam mereantur aeternam. Per eundem Dominum.
