

EXSULTEMUS ET LÆTEMUR

III

EX-sultémus et lætémur hó-di- e, Di- es iste, di- es

est læ-tí-ti- æ:

R. Alle-lú-ia, resurré-xit Dómi- nus.

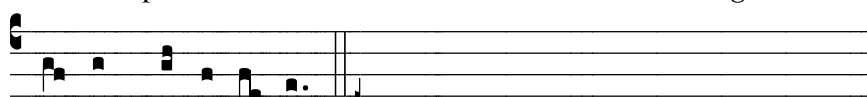

2. Exsultánda et læ-tánda tempus est: Pascha nostrum im-mo-lá-tus Agnus est. R. Allelúia.

3. Timor absit, absit despe- rá-ti- o: Jam illú-xit Christi re-surrécti- o. R. Allelúia.

4. Ad sepúlcrum mu-lí- e-res vé-ni- unt, Ab Ange-lo respónsum re-cí-pi- unt. R. Allelúia.

5. In sepúlcro quem do-léntes quæ-ri- tis? Surre-xísse dí-ci- te discí-pu- lis. R. Allelúia.

6. Ce-lebrántes hoc Pascha sanctíssimum, Epu-lémur veri-tá-tis á-zymum. R̄. Allelúia.

7. Fermentá-tum expurgémus nó-xi- um: Victor surgit, ve-ra vi-ta ómni- um. R̄. Allelúia.

8. In hoc ergo ve-tustá-tis térmi-no, Servus li-ber BENE-

DÍCAT DÓMI-NO. R̄. Allelúia.

9. Ab ínfe-ris nunc re-dit captí-vi-tas: Omnes DE- O refe-rámus GRÁ-TI- AS. R̄. Allelúia.

Let us exalt today and be joyful; This day is a day of joy.

R̄. Alleluia, the Lord is risen.

2. It is the time to exult and rejoice: the Lamb, our Passover is sacrificed. 3. Put away fear and despair; Christ's resurrection has already dawned. 4. The women come to the tomb; they receive the Angel's message. 5. Whom do you seek so sadly in the tomb? Tell his disciples that he is risen. 6. As we keep this most holy Passover, let us feast on the unleavened bread of truth. 7. The harmful leaven we must put away; the Conqueror is risen, true life of all. 8. Therefore, now old things pass away, let the slave set free bless the Lord. 9. The prisoners have returned from the pit; let us all return thanks to God.