Thou didst feed us with the food of angels, O Lord, having in it all that is delicious and the sweetness of every taste. 1. Attend, O my people, to my law; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. 2. I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter propositions from the beginning. 3. How great things have we heard and known, and our fathers have told us; they have not been hidden from their children. 4. In another generation they declared the praises of the Lord, and his powers, and his wonders which he hath done. 5. He had commanded the clouds from above, and had opened the doors of heaven. 6. And had rained down manna upon them to eat, and had given them the bread of heaven. 7. Man ate the bread of angels; he sent them provisions in abundance. 8. And he rained upon them flesh as dust, and feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea. 9. And they fell in the midst of their camp, round about their pavilions. 10. So they did eat, and were filled exceedingly, and he gave them their desire.
