It had been revealed to him by the holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Messiah of the Lord. 1. Now, Lord, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word. 2. For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in sight of all the peoples. 3. A light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel. 4. The Lord is great and worthy to be praised in the city of our God. 5. His holy mountain rises in beauty, the joy of all the earth. 6. Mount Zion, true pole of the earth, the Great King's city! 7. God, in the midst of its citadels, has shown himself its stronghold. 8. As we have heard, so we have seen in the city of our God, in the city of the Lord of hosts which God upholds for ever. 9. O God, we ponder your love within your temple. 10. Your praise, O God, like your name reaches the ends of the earth; with justice your right hand is filled. 11. Mount Zion rejoices; the people of Judah rejoice at the sight of your judgments. 12. For such is our God, our God for ever and always; it is he who leads us.
