

A SMALL KYRIALE

The St John Fisher Missale

SPRINKLING OF HOLY WATER

This Rite takes places in a church once every Sunday (even if a Feast is celebrated). It originated as a procession during which all the buildings of a monastery were blessed. This is still reflected in the prayers, as well as in the vestments – the Celebrant is not yet vested for Mass, but wears Alb and Stole (and a Cope, if available).

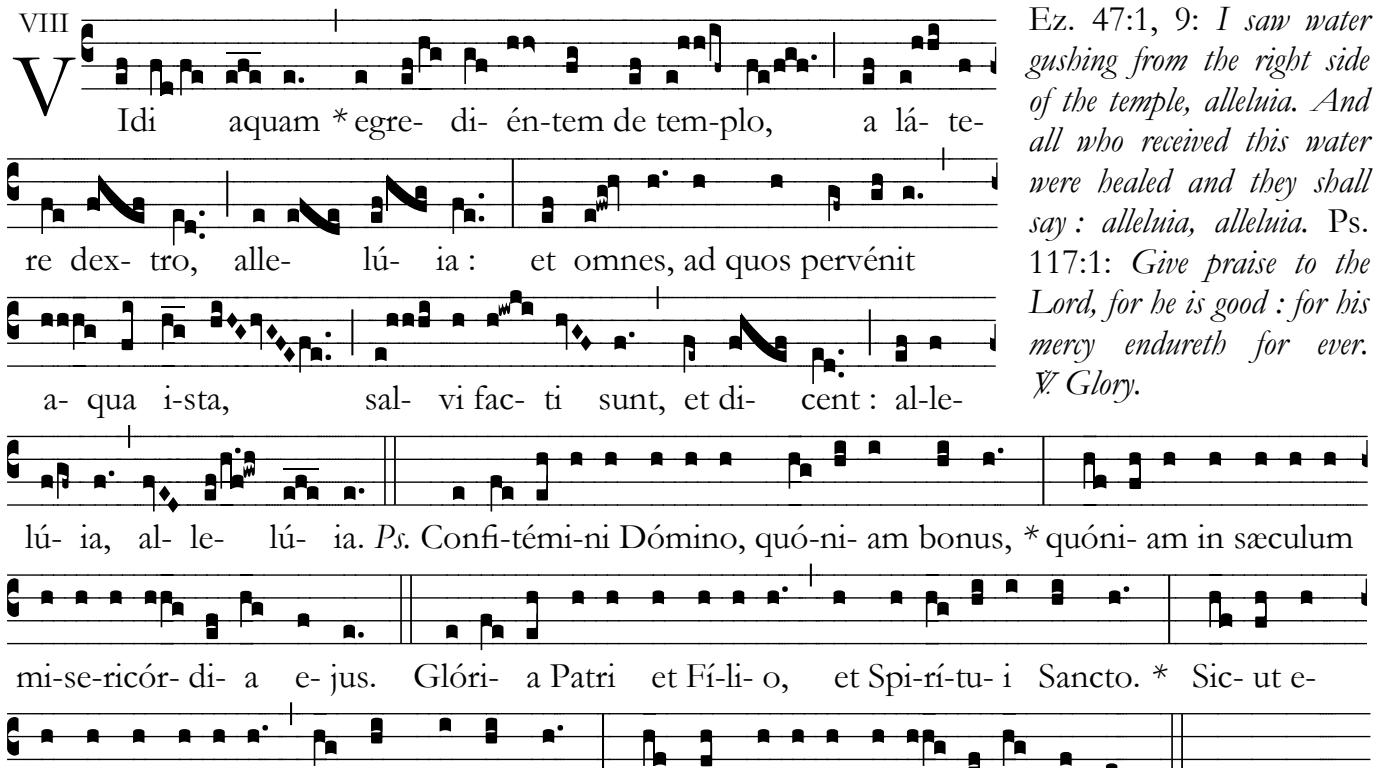

The Celebrant kneels down and sprinkles the Altar, intoning the following Antiphon, then he stands up, sprinkling the servers and the congregation.

In Eastertide:
