MASSES OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

Kenrick-Glennon Seminary
2010

SERMON OF SAINT BERNARD, Abbot

Look to the star. Cry out to Mary!

And the virgin's name, wrote Luke, was Mary. Let us speak of this name for a few moments. It is said to mean "star of the sea," a name applied most appropriately to the Virgin Mary. She is compared most aptly to a star. As a star emits its rays without loss of its essential nature, so the Virgin Mary without loss of her virginity, brings forth her Son. Neither do the rays lessen the brightness of the star, nor the Son the inviolateness of the Virgin. She is the glorious star which rose out of Jacob, whose rays light up the whole world, whose brilliance gleams in heaven, penetrates to hell. She floods the whole earth with her light, warms minds rather than bodies, fosters virtues, melts away sins. She, I say, is that brilliant shining star lifted in nature above this vast and boundless sea, gleaming with merits, enlightening by her example.

Whoever you are, when you find yourself tossed by storms and tempests upon this world's raging waters, rather than walking upon firm dry land, never take your eyes from the brightness of this star lest you be overwhelmed by the storm. When the winds of temptation blow, when you run upon the rocks of disaster, look to the star. Cry out to Mary! If you are cast away upon the waves of pride or ambition, of detraction or jealousy, look to the star. Cry out to Mary! When anger, avarice, or the lusts of the flesh assail the ship of your mind, look up to Mary. When you are worried by the enormity of your sins, troubled by a confused conscience, or terrified by the horrors of the judgment to come, when you begin to drown in the bottomless pit of sorrow or sink in the abyss of despair, think of Mary.

In danger, in difficulties, in doubts, think of Mary. Call upon Mary! Never let her name be absent from your lips or absent from your heart. If you would obtain the help of her prayers, do not neglect to follow the example of her conduct. If you follow her, you will not stray; if you pray to her, you need not despair. If you think of her, you will not err; sustained by her, you need not fear; guided by her, you will walk without weariness. If she smiles upon you, you will succeed. You will experience in your own heart with what justice it is said: and the Virgin's name was Mary.

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness, and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious Advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us. And after this our exile, show unto us the blessed Fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

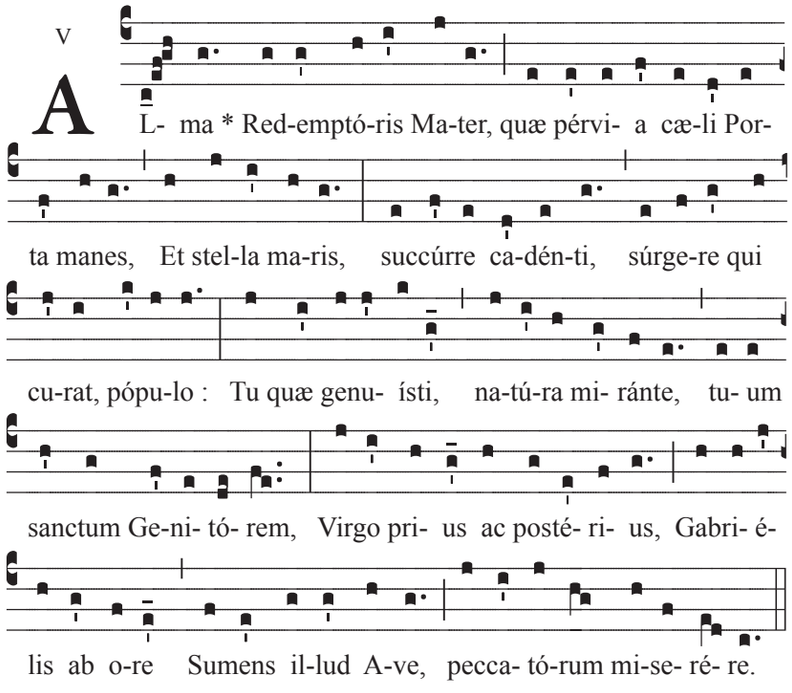
Hail, O Queen of Heaven enthroned !
Hail, by angels Mistress owned !
Root of Jesse, Gate of morn,
Whence the world's true Light was born :

Glorious Virgin, joy to thee,
Loveliest whom in heaven they see :
Fairest thou where all are fair,
Plead with Christ our sins to spare.

X. Antiphons in Honor of the B. V. M.

25 V



Loving Mother of our Redeemer Lord,
Star of the sea and portal of the skies,
Unto thy fallen people help afford—
Fallen, but striving still anew to rise.

Thou who didst once, while wondering worlds adored,
Bear thy Creator, Virgin then as now,
O by thy holy joy at Gabriel's word,
Pity the sinners who before thee bow.

Psalm 20 : 2-3. 4-6. 6-7

O Lord, / in your strength the | king is glad;
in your victory how greatly | he re-joic-es!
You have granted him his | heart's de-sire;
you refused not the wish | of his lips. (℣.)

For you welcomed him with | good-ly bless-ings,
you place on his head a crown | of pure gold.
He asked life of you : / you gave him | length of days
forev- | er and ev-er. (℣.)

Great is his glory | in your vic-to-ry;
majesty and splendor you con- | ferred up-on him.
For you made him a bless- | ing for-ev-er;
you gladdened him with the joy | of your face. (℣.)

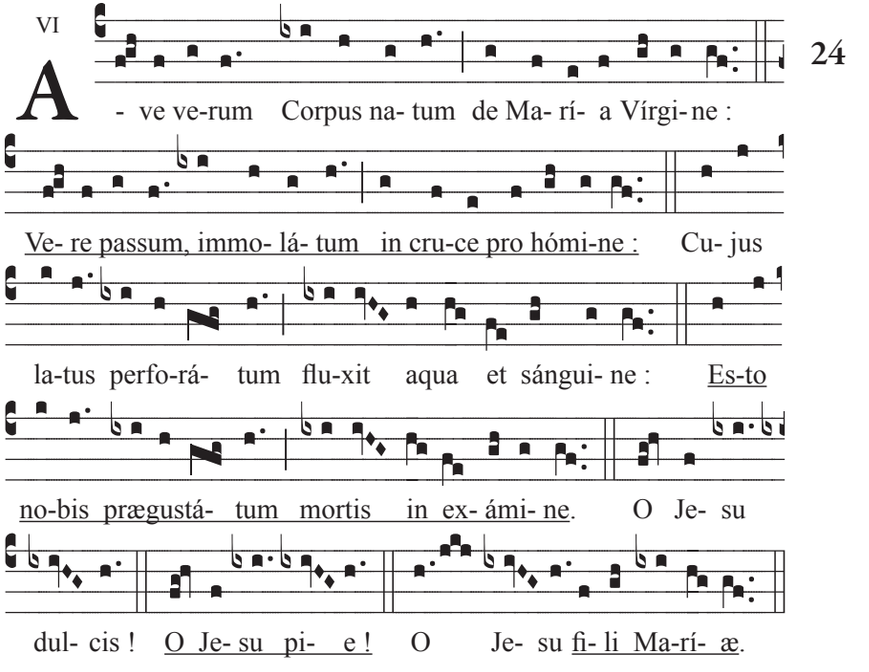
IX. After Communion

Antiphon

VI



24

Hail, true Body, truly born
Of the Virgin Mary mild,
Truly offered, racked and torn,
On the Cross for man defiled,
From whose love-pierced, sacred side
Flowed thy true Blood's saving tide :
Be a foretaste sweet to me
In my death's great agony,
O thou loving, gentle One,
Sweetest Jesus, Mary's Son.
